ating those deep wounds in the etheric body is much more unfortunate than the distortions woven into the physical form, because when the form is laid down, the innocent flesh returning to the elemental substance, the wound does not remain. The etheric garment moves with man from his first embodiment until it is absorbed at the time of transmutation, at the instant of the ascension. So, watch ye well, beloved hearts, what impress ye make on the etheric garments one of the other, and watch ye well that ye purify those energies of your own.

I speak from a heart that is filled with love for you. I speak on behalf of the angelic kingdom and my beloved brothers, the great Ascended Host of Light, who represent the seven cosmic feelings of the nature of God. I would like to remind you that the first sin—the original sin that drew the angels from heaven, mankind from the Garden of Eden and the elements into embroilment—was REBELLION against the will of God! Will you look deep within your hearts, and where rebellion flares, know that is part of the original sin which brought you into the shadow planet. I shall help you to remove it!

Beloved Serapis is endeavoring to draw into the physical appearance world certain melodies, which will help to set up at inner levels the removing of those cores of rebellion, which are seated deep in the feeling world, for man shall not become God, man shall not manifest as angels, until rebellion is transmuted into the great surrender to God and love for his fellowman!

FRATERNALLY YOURS

Dear Editor: "We have received letters from a source which, in an unusual spirit of competition, pretends that what they offer is 'more well done' than the Ascended Masters' instruction. We have paid no attention to this in our group, but we are sending the letters to you so that you may see how someone is trying to mislead the students."

The Editor: "We thank you, but we know, of course, all that is going on. You are right in not being concerned about what those who unfortunately have not been able to subdue their personality, say. The Ascended Masters avail themselves even of those who have taken the wrong road, using them to test the strength, the conviction, the loyalty of the students. We are happy to see that you, like many others, have passed the test victoriously. As someone has said, condemn the sin, but forgive the sinner.

THE MASTERS OF WISDOM SPEAK PROVIDING A SPIRITUAL HOME FOR CHILDREN

MAHA CHOHAN

Proper Environment for Children Necessary

As it is my holy privilege to assist at the birth of each child born upon this planet earth, I am vitally interested in the type of parents, the home life and environment that each such a child will have. The beloved Kwan Yin, whose Ascended Master Retreat we honor this thirty-day period (August 15th through September 15th, 1959), is also primarily interested in the removing of the stigma of illegitimacy upon the children born, the unhappiness of the unwed mothers and carelessness of some fathers.

Let us all cooperate with her to make every family on Earth a holy, blessed family unit during this time. Thus, we have the beginning of the New Era under the direction of the Ascended Master SAINT GERMAIN!

EL MORYA

Parents Have to be Educated

It is the will of God to have each child born on Earth express the fullness of its divine plan. This is often interfered with by the prejudices of parents, guardians, teachers, and all who are concerned with the moulding of the outer consciousness of children. To remove such prejudice, and to consciously educate the individuals who guide and direct the sense consciousness of children, giving opportunity to work out their unredeemed karma on this Earth, is a worthy cause, indeed!

LANTO

Cooperation with the Father

True wisdom is, of course, conscious cooperation with the divine plan of the heavenly Father. Such wisdom reaches the outer consciousness of the “few” who can accept our instruction, radiation and cooperate with us NOW, in this cosmic hour. For this, was “The Bridge” originally created and is now sustained, so that those “few” can know the particular requirements of each minute, hour and day. Wisdom is a delicate and sensitive attribute, which makes it possible for the worthy chela to use the compass of his or her own consciousness to discern truth from fallacy. We, on the Second Ray, are dedicated to the development of such latent wisdom, for the furtherance of the redemptive process even now going on upon the Earth.

All pressures of energy, from within or without the individual, are not God-inspired. Many of these directions (so-called) come from the astral plane, or the untransmuted desires of individuals themselves.

PAUL (THE VENETIAN MASTER)

Generate Love

As the activity of the Third Ray is primarily the development of impersonal, pure divine love, we can enter with the worthy chelas wholeheartedly in bringing forth a feeling of loving cooperation with us, in preparing the parents, guardians and teachers of the human race to properly train, guard and protect those beloved spirits belonging to the seventh root race. Let me say here, true divine love is not a reflection of God’s love or even our own, but it is a generation and sustaining of that feeling of love from within the Holy Christ Self within your own hearts. A “reflection” is merely a mirror of that upon which the sense consciousness dwells. A conscious generator of divine love becomes ourselves in action, here in the world of form.

SERAPIS BEY

Teaching the Law Of Divine Love

It is to teach the children of Earth to become strong enough not to reflect the mannerisms and emotions of those who are, temporarily, their guardians, that we serve. As the mass of mankind prefer to accept and reflect the conditions in which they find themselves, it is only natural that children, who are naturally sensitive to their immediate environment, are most influenced by this negative and reflective attitude. When such children find constructive environments, it is much easier for them to remember, sustain and outpicture the divine plan for which they were born and given opportunity by the Karmic Board, to express their various talents, gifts and powers for the impersonal benefaction of the entire human race.

As beloved Kwan Yin is a member of the Karmic Board, we shall all do her honor at this time, particularly, in assisting the embodied individuals who are to be entrusted with the bringing forth of the Seventh Root Race, to learn and to feel the Law of Divine Love and to give to the incoming generation the impetus of their encouragement, purity and wisdom! The incoming generation will then be free of “reflections” of the past and more able to manifest the perfection required here on Earth RIGHT NOW!

HILARION

Magnify The Lord And Minimize Human Creation

As I am so well acquainted with the souls of men who have re-embodied, through the centuries, I can speak with authority upon the subject of active redemption of all human creation (visible and invisible) prior to the fullest release of light through the parents and children presently using the Earth as a schoolroom, as well as those who will so use it in the future. The loveliest spirit who embodies upon this Earth is, presently, subject to the vibratory action surrounding it. Beloved Mother Mary and blessed Saint Germain (as Saint Joseph) greatly assisted their son, Jesus, because they taught him from infancy to MAGNIFY THE LORD and minimize human creation (unmitigated karma).

NADA

Protecting and Guiding Unwed Mothers

Divine love is an activity of mercy and compassion, which is the FEELING of beloved Kwan Yin, who has served for ages in the rather neglected field of protecting and guiding unwed mothers, removing the cause and core of scorn of illegitimacy, and stimulating an interest in newly-born children. It is not necessary to know the individuals for whom you call forth Kwan Yin's Legions of Mercy and Compassion. It is requisite, however, that you do follow her example by giving the assistance of your own dear energies in this redemptive process.⁴

Remember, always, curiosity as to exactly whom you have so assisted and when that assistance took place, is another subtle test upon the spiritual path. The earnest desire to love life free, without any thought of personal reward, should be the motivating power of every God-service, and particularly the one of which we speak today!

JESUS

The Model Home on Earth

As this month commemorates the ascension of my own beloved mother, I cannot emphasize too strongly the assistance that both she and the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain (as Saint Joseph) gave to me, in helping to provide such a loving home on Earth and, when my consciousness was enabled to retain their instruction, deny the human appearances which assailed my senses, and to rely upon the powers of my heavenly Father to dissipate all human creation when the hour of my mission on Earth came! I ask that all children now living upon the Earth and all who are yet to embody, be given such assistance by an illumined mankind.

SAINT GERMAIN

Helping the Beloved Divine Director

I am so grateful to the Ascended Host and my unascended chelas, for actively participating in the redemption of parents, guardians and teachers of the human race quickly. Thus, shall the spiritual Utopia come into manifestation more quickly and the beloved Great Divine Director will be allowed to send forth, through the gates of birth, his spirits primarily charged with the momentum of the Seventh Ray, over which I am presently guardian!

The very simple service I rendered to Mother Mary and beloved Jesus was a pleasure indeed! I want the entire human race to share that pleasure now!

Elementals are natural mirrors of their environments—humankind were destined for a higher expression of divinity! Angels, of course, are merely loaned to the Earth to keep her and her attendant evolutions as free as possible from human effluvia.

Some angels, however, have also temporarily fallen from their natural God-estate by allowing themselves to become entangled with the discord of the very evolutions they volunteered to serve. Now, with the assistance of all of the Spiritual Hierarchy, as well as the loyal and worthy unascended chelas, we shall quickly REDEEM THE EARTH AND ITS EVOLUTIONS and establish the permanent Golden Age on Earth, as it is in heaven. Thank you for helping me so to do!

SERVICE IS THE LAW OF LIFE (II)

An Original Treatise by the First Krishna

With Introduction by our Beloved Lord, the Maha Chohan

Some people read for knowledge. I, myself, read, even before my ascension, loving to think of the being who left me the gift of his consciousness, the circumstances of the day that prompted that gift from his heart, and then all the people before me who have fed at the fount and who have left me—impressed right into the substance of that page—the light, the enjoyment and illumination which they in turn received from it, and so looking at this parchment and thinking about the many reverent souls who had previously gazed at this first figure, I find myself the beneficiary, not only of the Christ who wrote it, but of the richness which even each succeeding life who benefited by it, left as my heritage.

TREATISE ON SERVICE, BY THE FIRST KRISHNA

(Quotes from Original Document)

Service is a Balance to Life

To children of God who walk the path of life and in that journey seek the purpose for their being—greetings!

Service is the law of life. From the moment individualization takes place, the flame begins to accept the responsibility to give a balance to the universe for the privilege of drawing breath, using life and sustaining a separate existence, by which understanding and illumination bring freedom to the consciousness. As the law of one's being is service, the daily life experience will constantly make it necessary for the individual, in some manner, to serve his community, his nation, his fellowman.

Individuals who do not choose to serve are temporarily taken out of the race of life, until they will accept, again, their responsibility to be conscious servants on life's path.

Service Should Be To The Godhead Alone

All the heartache, the disappointment, the disillusion, the failure, comes because the natural drive to serve, within the lifestream, has not been illumined to a point where the individual knows that service to the Godhead, alone, is the law of being and the ultimate purpose for creation and sustained life.

Results from Serving Individuals

When man serves individuals, when man serves a nation, a king, the presiding head of a country, he serves form, and the return will always contain the imperfection which such externalized form finds as the heart center of its being.

Service Rendered Through Love

When man serves God, his service will take him into the presence of individuals, nations, monarchs, and he will greatly benefit them all, knowing that neither his reward nor his ultimate goal will come from his beneficiaries. Man who now serves through duty, through moral exactitude, one day will understand God and serve him through love.

Serving Like the Sun

The physical sun is shining in your heaven. Mankind is the beneficiary of its light, but the sun shines for the glory of God. Helios (whose aura is the sun to the Earth), is not cognizant of the many who benefit by his presence, nor of those who curse the light that parches the fields and illumines the dark doings that prefer the shadow. His service is to shine for the glory of God and then he knows no disappointment, because there is one unfailing source of gratitude and love and constancy—and that is the Universal First Cause.

Disassociating Yourself from Others

To serve God does not mean to disassociate oneself from one's fellowman, nor to cast off the obligations that experience – life – has caused the soul to accept, but it is the motive of your own life, action and being, just as you set a thermostat by the desire to serve the universal cause of good.

Don't Expect A Return from the Form you Serve

Wherever you meet inanimate good, enrich the cause of good, but not to the point where you expect return from the object which benefits by your love of God, for your return will always come from the sun of your own being.

Misunderstanding of the Law of Service

How many brave beings have missed the mark by misunderstanding the Law of Service. In each nation today there are many serving their own desire for authority in the creation of form through thought and feeling, and they must again dedicate their soul and nature to service of the God-purpose, as the Sun does, before they shall come again to peace.

The Return For Serving God

Service is the expansion of the Threefold Flame of one's being. It is the externalization of energy waves, and the flame will bring, on its return current, the vibration of that which is served.

Two individuals standing on the same spot, performing exactly the same physical acts, can receive an entirely different return current, determined by the force which they have decided to serve, preceding the activity.

The one dedicated to serving God's cause in bringing happiness to life can render the same physical ministrations and yet be utterly relieved of any feeling that a recompense shall come from the object so benefited. Another, with equal sincerity, seeing a need for ministrations, desiring to relieve some need apparent in its externalized objective, does not center his service and dedicate it Godward, but rushes forward, fills the need—then, having served the limited, receives back into himself only the gift that the imperfect can offer, and if he receives none is embittered in his service.

How to Know Peace

I have come and have remained in your civilization because my love of the Father of Light is great enough, that I would bring to your race the gift of his Presence, and when my work is done, I shall leave, but neither your race nor your time, your failures nor your successes shall enter into the quality of my service.

If there be one or a million, it is no matter, and one day when you feel likewise, you will know peace, for peace comes only when, to the best of your ability, you are endeavoring to serve the cause of good, externalize it, and have no concern with any external activity in relation to its effects upon your service.

The Return Of Krishna to his Star

After finishing the above quotation, the beloved remarked: There is a note, doubtless by the librarian, which reads: “Six hundred and forty years after the writing of this article, the Krishna completed his service and returned to his star, taking with him over fourteen hundred lifestreams who gained their own illumination through his service.”

BECOMING MERCIFUL

To our gracious Lady Master Kwan Yin, the embodiment of Mercy, Forgiveness and Love Divine, to our beloved Jesus, who gave mankind the true concept of these three God-virtues, to our angelic Mother Mary, whose ascension we commemorate this month—we bow to you in eternal gratitude for the great service you have rendered angels, men and elementals in the externalization of mercy, forgiveness and love divine!

Many there are who think that singing beautiful songs and violently decreeing in demand of mercy is enough. It is not. Rather is it better to understand why and how mercy should be obtained. Mercy does not fall from heaven into your lap just for the asking. If this were so, you would likely repeat the offense at the next temptation. Mercy should be sought, because it annuls the penalty of your fault, and the way to obtain it is by being merciful to your offender—real or imaginary. Thus the way to be merciful is to cease doing wrong to any person.

You have to do something to obtain mercy and forgiveness, as so ably our beloved Jesus expressed during his ministry. As to mercy, Jesus said, “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.” As to forgiveness, he said in the Lord’s Prayer, “Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.” As to love, he said, “Love thy brother as thyself,” and again—“Do unto others as you would like done unto you.” Finally he said, “Be ye therefore merciful as your Father in heaven is merciful.”

THE TEMPLE OF MERCY AND COMPASSION

NEAR PEIPING, CHINA
The Ascended Master Retreat of the Month
August 15th through September 14th, 1959

The Temple of Mercy and Compassion, presided over by beloved Kwan Yin, stands in the center of twelve lesser temples, all of whose domes incline slightly toward the main temple, in reverent honor and respect to the focus of the Mercy Flame. Here, the beloved Brothers and Sisters of Mercy and Compassion serve in silence, moving from temple to temple upon their appointed services to their holy queen and to the Mercy Flame, itself.

The beloved Kwan Yin, who offered to guard, protect and expand this Flame of Mercy, Forgiveness and Compassion, is often seen among her spiritual court, a most exquisite lady of heaven, dedicated and consecrated to the removal, through the consciously-directed light rays from this focus, of the inner causes and cores of all manner of temporary distress, which presently form a weight upon mankind, as well as the elemental kingdom and the imprisoned angels, who have taken embodiment for the redemption of the human race and who have become enmeshed, themselves, in the very effluvia which they vowed to dissolve by their light.

Pilgrimages of Kwan Yin

In ages long past, the Temple of Mercy and Compassion also acted as an asylum for children, whose parents were unable to give them the proper training and instruction. Thus, the Brothers and Sisters of the Temple of Mercy have often raised these children to maturity and they, in turn, after attaining their majority, went forth from this focus and became the great leaders of China and all Asia, in spiritual as well as in secular matters. This is why so often the statues of Kwan Yin depict her holding a small child.

From time to time, beloved Kwan Yin and her court made pilgrimages to the farthest borders of her kingdom, so that the less privileged individuals, who could not make a visit to the temple itself, might have their children baptized, their own sins of omission and commission wiped away by Mercy's Flame, and their homes re-consecrated by an actual, physical spark of the Mercy Flame, taken reverently from the golden brazier which a chosen member of Kwan Yin's court carried from the Temple of Mercy, keeping the flame alive by his or her own breath.

The Uses of the Mercy Flame

Remember, beloved ones, that the causes and cores of all distress (in the astral realm) are constantly moving masses of misqualified energy which can, and do, focus their vicious expressions through vulnerable human beings. Kwan Yin's service is to remove this misqualified energy by personally directing the full power of the Flame of Mercy, Love and Compassion into it. This activity releases the cohesive center, which holds imprisoned life of a discordant nature together, and allows that life freedom to ascend again into its pure estate.

Teaching unascended beings to use this power requires the assistance of an Ascended Master, otherwise the well-meaning pupil often ties his or her own energy into the distress (a vampire activity) and is engulfed by the intelligent entity (seen or unseen). The Brothers and Sisters of Kwan Yin's temple are well qualified to assist the worthy chelas to learn how to safely invoke the Flame of Mercy and Compassion from Kwan Yin's own loving heart into the condition, while they are protected by her own Luminous Presence from any distress in endeavoring to give this assistance.

Becoming a Member of Kwan Yin's Legions

As the year of 1959 has a particular spiritual significance to the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain's new Golden Age, and as the Great Divine Director is hoping for the opportunity of allowing, through the gates of birth, as many of his Seventh Root Race as possible, each gentle reader has opportunity, unparalleled, to become a member of Kwan Yin's Legions of Mercy.

Call for the members of her legion to bring every soul born on the Earth in each twenty-four-hour period to be carried (while the baby sleeps, if possible) to Kwan Yin's Temple of Mercy and to receive there a personal baptism from her, which can and does wipe away the unmitigated karma of such a one. Thus, these children, when they reach the age of maturity, will not have the burdens of karma to transmute, which would hinder their service in God's divine plan.

You can also call for a focus of the actual Flame of Mercy and Compassion into your own homes and the homes of all peoples on the Earth, and it will be done! Endless are the services of the Mercy Flame while distress manifests on the planet, and the alert chela will cognize them and immediately ask beloved Kwan Yin and her court to assist in transmuting this distress, instantly. She will always answer you!

VISITING THE GREAT DIVINE DIRECTOR (Monthly Letter to Transmission Flame Class of August 15, 1959)

Beloved Children of My Heart,

I am so grateful that during this thirty-day period, we shall have your cooperation in helping the incoming children and the younger generation and their parents to a greater understanding of the Law of Divine Love and Compassion. As I have always been privileged to assist in helping the newborn to accept their first breath, I am also fully cognizant of what they will do, through the use of free will, with that holy breath in the course of an embodiment.

The service of Lady Kwan Yin shall now be recognized all over the planet Earth. The direction of the Rays of Mercy and Compassion from the beautiful Temple of Kwan Yin into your own dear worlds, will amplify your interest in such service. All the ladies of heaven rejoice in this cooperative service. As the opening of the retreat at Peiping also marks the commemoration of the ascension of beloved Mother Mary, it shall most assuredly be a gala event!

We have secured a dispensation so that (while your physical vehicles sleep) you can visit the Great Divine Director and become acquainted with his spirits, awaiting embodiment! Their beauty of nature will, assuredly, inspire you to greater endeavors when you return in the morning to your own spheres of influence, to help him and his root race to find suitable habitation on the Earth's surface!

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

AMPLIFY SOME GIFTS OF GOD'S NATURE

By Beloved Kwan Yin

I bow before the glorious light within your hearts, in gratitude for the opportunity and privilege of serving your life, and for your gracious kindness in receiving me and entering into the consciousness of my service in your life.

As we open the temple doors to your so-welcome presence, you shall feel our happiness in your acceptance of our simple hospitality and friendship in that service to life.

To live but to amplify some particular gift or God's beautiful nature, is to live in the happiness of your complete freedom, for through the doors and windows of your soul, there will sweep forth the glory of the Ever-Presence, to enrich the world through your invitation.

Your thoughts are on mercy, forgiveness and love divine! There is not one blessed lifestream who has not received of these three immortal gifts, from the heart of God and his messengers, many times throughout the ages. So you are not strangers to these gifts, which pulsate through the flaming lotus of cosmic mercy, whose purple petals of living flame shall encompass the Earth. There is not one unascended being who could, even this hour, accomplish the full freedom that lies within the ascension, if these qualities were removed from the Earth! By mercy, through forgiveness, and in love, all life ascends into its true estate.

I ask you now, as the flaming power of mercy, forgiveness and love divine circles the Earth, to open your feeling worlds to the acceptance of this power of transmutation and allow the miracle-working alchemy to melt those creations in consciousness that yet hold you bound. Oh, accept it for all life. It is the greatest concentration of the forgiving love of the Cosmic Christ that the Earth has yet known.

Beloved hearts, I ask you to be that mercy, forgiveness and love divine to all life, everywhere. Do you know what mercy is? It is more kindness than justice requires. It is more kindness than can be claimed by merit or service—and forgiveness. Will you daily, through this period dedicated to our temple, begin to consciously forgive all the life that has consciously or unconsciously done you injustice back to the beginning of time? Make it a daily ritual in your contemplative hours. Where you see those frightful distortions of mind and body, or disease or distress of any kind, do stop for a moment and consciously forgive the energy that created such an appearance and set it free. I shall amplify your every endeavor to be the merciful, forgiving, loving power of my presence, and I shall be so grateful to use you as myself while we have the opportunity of drawing, focusing, and directing our Flame of Mercy on a worldwide scale. The blessings of Lord Buddha be upon you.

DECREE FOR ILLUMINATION

In the name of the Presence of God which I AM, by the magnetic power of the sacred fire vested in me, I call to you, beloved Cassiopea, Himalaya, Kuthumi and the Brothers and Sisters of the Golden Robe, to ask you to direct, hourly, your Illumination Flame through me, my loved ones and all mankind, until we all ascend into the light.

Help me, my loved ones and all mankind to perceive, daily, your Illumination Flame in our minds, feelings and bodies. We thank you because we know that from this very moment, this is taking place.

GIVE ME THE PETITIONS OF YOUR HEART

By Beloved Mary, Mother of Jesus

Blessed, beloved children of my heart, you who walk now as Jesus did long ago upon the same pathway toward victory and permanent God-accomplishment, I love you, enfolding you ever in the embrace and radiation of a cosmic mother's outpouring, for to me you can do no wrong. There is only the blazing light of the Immortal Flame within your hearts, which sparkles and radiates forth, so that the Silent Watchers over the vicinities in which you abide see that light and know that on Earth there is yet light in the hearts of unascended beings.

Oh beloved ones, the sacred tabernacle of your hearts—fashioned by myself at inner levels, within which beats that magnificent Holy Christ Flame, before which every Cosmic Being, God-Being, angel, seraphim, cherubim bows—that is the true expression of God on Earth, endeavoring to manifest through millions of souls in embodiment and particularly those for whom we have drawn aside the curtain of time, the curtain of maya, to bring to you our personages and our love, our experiences and our own trials and overcoming in the use of the one Law—that Law which is the externalization of pure divine love, a positive quality, in the extreme, which is the absolute mastery of all energy and all substance in the lower atmosphere of the Earth. That love, beloved ones, is already alive within you and requires but the breath of our love to expand and expand and expand through you, to give a sustained blessing of grace, not only to your own vehicles and your loved ones, but to all life, everywhere.

Receiving the Light by Which You May See

Love is neither vague nor ephemeral. Love is one of the most positive qualities in the universe. Its cohesive power holds the atoms in place, holds the Earth in her orbit and the stars in the sky, holds the very substance that makes up your physical bodies in their proper shape and keeps the entire planetary system and galaxy in a rhythmic movement—forward—into greater light and more expression of perfection. That is the cohesive power of love divine, a love which can keep within the boundaries of this Earth and its atmosphere ten billion lifestreams, so that they do not fly into outer space, being caught in cosmic currents far beyond that which their development would endure. It is the love of Virgo, herself, and the beloved Pelleur and Amaryllis that gives to you the glory of the Springtime, the soft cushion of grass, the resuscitating power of the Earth. It is the love of the beloved Neptune and Lunara that gives you the cleansing properties of the water element. It is the love of Aries and Thor that causes the winds to blow in their season and it is the love of the Sun God and Goddess—Helios and Vesta—that gives you the very light by which you may see, as you move about on the course of your day.

Becoming a Light in the World

Think you what it would be, even for one twenty-four-hour period, were Helios to cease pouring out that steady constant radiation of light and all of the powers of nature that make your artificial electricity following in his example, were to turn off the current and you would have what? You would have that light that is within your hearts, by which to move about and see that which you had to do! CULTIVATE the expansion of that light now! Helios has done it, for aeons of time, he has been the daylight on your pathway and the magnificent stars of the heavens and blessed Lunara has been the light of your evenings, but it is now within the compass of your own intelligence. Become grateful, always, to these magnificent beings, who have given of their energies, to BECOME IN YOURSELF a light in this world, its beams radiating forth be a light to others on the path, as well as those who do not know of the path, who are caught in the underbrush of human creation, who are still enjoying satiation of the appetites of the flesh.

Vicarious Atonement

Beloved ones, evil is temporary and passing, true, but I thought this morning of a point of the Law which perhaps had passed from your minds, at least in this embodiment, though it was known to a few of us who were among the very close associates and friends of our beloved Jesus. Every individual who uses this Earth as a schoolroom, through the use of free will, thought, feeling, word and action, creates and has in the course of one lifetime alone, some of the shadow that reacts on mankind as distress. That is called by some, the sinister force, the psychic plane, the astral realm. It is the accumulation of the effluvia of all peoples during the two-thousand-year cycle.

Now, when Moses led the Jewish people from Israel in that first Passover and the Fifth Dispensation began and waxed strong, there were almost two thousand years in which that dispensation created much of good in the acknowledgment of the one God, in the establishment of the individual Deity, but also all of the effluvia of that entire dispensation had gathered at inner levels and that was the directed force which my son chose to take into his own vehicle for transmutation on Golgotha. That is why individuals have referred to vicarious atonement. It was not the spear of a Roman soldier nor the nails of the courts of Rome, it was the entire destructive intent, purpose and activity of a dispensation which had closed and which was transmuted on that day which truly was a “Good Friday,” giving to the Sixth Dispensation—the Christian Era—a fairly clear slate.

Ah, beloved ones, the Divine Beings are essential to your victory. They were essential to mine, and even to my lovely son, a young man in years, who enjoyed life in its fullness, who loved life free, who willingly took the cup in Gethsemane’s garden and drank it, saying as he did all through his life, “Not my will, but Thine be done.” All of the ages that have passed shall never dim the magnificence of that experience and that ultimate victory of life eternal, when in that very same vehicle—re-animated and resuscitated—he again smiled as only he could, and spoke as he always did, in those words that were like velvet, “Mother, I have come from the dead and live again.” That is a feeling, beloved ones, that goes deep to a mother’s heart. NOW, I say to you, give me the petitions of your heart, come from disintegration and all of its accompanying decrepitude, out of the tomb of ignorance and the mass consciousness of human creation, into the light of eternal day. Lay aside the clothes of embalming and live the LIGHT OF THE WORLD, positive in the conviction that one with almighty God is a majority!

The blessings of the risen Christ, the blessings of his Mother and the blessings of his Father be on you, your homes, your household, your families—and I bow before your light.

DECREE FOR HEALTH

IN THE NAME OF THE PRESENCE OF GOD WHICH I AM, I call you BE-LOVED HELIOS, ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL, ASCENDED MASTERS JESUS, MARY, LETO AND DIANA, to ask you to hourly direct your resurrecting Flame of Healing through my mind and feelings, and through every organ and part of my body, to keep me in perfect health—at all times to be a fit instrument for the service of the Ascended Host. What I ask for myself, I ask also for my loved ones and all mankind.

Send your Legions of Healing Angels to all hospitals in this country and all countries of the world. I thank you because I know this is being done right now with full power!

THE CAUSAL BODY

The reservoir of all the good stored by the lifestream, from whence we can draw all we require, is called the Causal Body, and is represented by seven circular bands of vibrating colors of living, intelligent and God-qualified energies and virtues. They are related to the Seven Spheres, the Seven Rays, the Seven Chohans, the Seven Archangels and the Seven Elohim. Let us consider these bands of color, starting from the center outwards:

Blue—It has a white center surrounded by a sapphire blue radiance. This represents the First Ray of Power, which is the will of God, the head of which is the Chohan of the First Ray, the Ascended Master El Morya. From this band we can draw power, capacity to lead people, and manifest energy to accomplish any constructive service, as well as the illumined faith of Archangel Michael and the strength of the Elohim, Hercules.

Yellow—This represents the Second Ray of Wisdom, the head of which is the Chohan of the Second Ray. Until recently, this office was held by the beloved Ascended Master Kuthumi. Now this office is held by Lord Lanto. From this band we can draw inspiration for all educational and religious endeavors, as well as constancy from the Archangel Jophiel and the illumination of Elohim Cassiopea.

Pink—This represents the Third Ray of Love and Compassion, the head of which is the Chohan of the Third Ray, the beloved Ascended Master Paul, the Venetian. From this band we can draw all the love we require for our altruistic endeavors and for our use in our daily living to bring about tolerance and understanding, as well as the love of Archangel Chamuel and of the Elohim Orion.

White—This represents the Fourth Ray of Purity and the ascension, the head of which is the Chohan of the Fourth Ray, the beloved Ascended Master Serapis Bey. From this band we can draw inspiration as artists, writers, sculptors and architects and limitless help to accelerate our journey back home, as well as the capacity to hold the immaculate concept of Archangel Gabriel and the purity of the Elohim of Purity.

Green—This represents the Fifth Ray of Truth, the head of which is the Chohan of the Fifth Ray, the beloved Ascended Master Hilarion. From this band we can draw healing and inspiration for inventions and scientific research, as well as the healing essence of the Archangel Raphael and the Cosmic Christ Truth of the Elohim Vista, who assists in developing inner sight.

Ruby—This color has a golden radiance. This represents the Sixth Ray of Ministration and Peace. Until recently, this office was held by the beloved Ascended Master Jesus. Now this office is held by Lady Nada. From this band we can draw comfort, healing and peace, as well as the ministration of Archangel Uriel and the peace of the Elohim of Peace (Tranquility).

Purple—This represents the Seventh Ray of Mercy and Forgiveness, the head of which is the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain. From this band we can draw the Violet Fire of Forgiveness to purify ourselves and others, as well as the power of invocation of God's blessings through the intercession of the Archangel Zadkiel and the purifying radiance of the Elohim Arcturus.

The Holy Christ Self

The Holy Christ Self is anchored within the heart of every man, woman and child belonging to this Earth's evolution. It is focused within the immortal victorious Threefold Flame within the heart. It acts as a transformer of the good projected to and through it from the I AM Presence, lowering its rate of vibration so that the physical man is able to perceive it. It acts as the mediator between the outer consciousness of man and the I AM Presence. As the student learns to love this Holy Christ Flame, it expands and takes complete possession of the four lower bodies, making every individual a Christ in action, as the Ascended Master Jesus manifested in his embodiment, centuries ago!

LIBERTY—A MOST GLORIOUS GIFT

Excerpts from addresses by beloved Saint Germain, El Morya and the Goddess of Liberty, delivered at the inauguration of the new Bridge Sanctuary at Freedom House, New York City, on June 11, 1959.

Address by Beloved Saint Germain

Beloved friends of freedom, you who have come so far along the pathway towards spiritual freedom, emotional freedom, mental freedom, etheric freedom and even physical freedom, I greet you in this city dedicated primarily to the principles of freedom and guarded and guided by my own beloved cosmic mother, the Goddess of Liberty—liberty, the great and mighty gift which all mankind seek and so few that know of it use it wisely, discreetly and in balance.

I speak always for the cause of freedom and of liberty, and I pray always for the receipt of that gift of liberty and freedom, that the individual who so gives it, may use that freedom to greater expand the borders of God's great kingdom.

Have you thought, beloved ones, what a gift of grace from the heart of God it is when it is vested on an unascended individual—freedom to act in any capacity and the karma that evolves upon that individual of a destructive or a constructive nature, according to the use of that freedom and liberty? Individuals who have been freed by the use of the Violet Transmuting Flame from millions of years of misuse of God-energy are not held innocent when they do not take advantage of that liberation which is the gift of that Fire of Transmutation, in furthering the cause of spiritual freedom on this planet Earth and the freedom of the individual selves and their associates. When the prison bars swing wide, and an individual who has been incarcerated for committing a crime has served his sentence, he is put on what they call a term of probation and he enters into society again, to prove himself or to repeat the original offense and lose that freedom which he has won by serving that sentence.

Human law is like the divine law, in that respect. Let us think about it and think about it carefully. People who are released from the karma that goes back to Lemurian ages, the ages on Atlantis and Babylon and Greece and other ages of which I do not care to speak and who have been given opportunity in etheric bodies purified, emotional bodies stabilized, mental bodies alerted and physical bodies practically rebuilt—for one purpose, to bring to the sons and daughters of Earth the knowledge of the Golden Age and then having accepted that gift of grace, do not manifest it or spread that word of freedom to others—think about the karma that soul shall meet when he enters into the Halls of Karma and stands before the judgment board.

Beloved ones, because so much of that which has been removed from your worlds is unseen, you do not know the full weight of your karma—thank God! Likewise, you are not fully cognizant of the liberty and freedom that you have. You feel, sometimes, that your bodies are weary and that your souls and that minds are too. Ah, if it were not for the freedom afforded you by the transmutation of the energies through the ages, you would not even be here tonight—nor would the city of New York be standing, as it is on a foundation builded of love, by the tireless energies of those who have given of their very selves to fill in those fissures, and making themselves channels by which we in turn call on those beings of divine love to solidify the bases of this Manhattan Island. Should it not be fitting, when Atlantis rises triumphant and the waves break from her, emerging glorious temples of light, that the children of freedom in New York be among those standing on solid surface to greet that country, born anew for the blessing and benefaction of the ages yet to come?

That is my Utopia come true, my world brotherhood of angels, elementals and men, the day when God and man can speak, without mediation of any kind, where the heavens are so blue that looking upward into the stars of the solar system, with extended vision, you can see your friends on Venus or into the heart of the Sun God, or Alpha and Omega, the Great Central Sun, itself—when you can, through the process of levitation, go there, and bring back the memory of that perfection which is an enthusiasm which fills your own worlds with the power to convince others.

Now, tonight, you have another opportunity. I see with the inner sight all that you have held in the etheric body, which I have, with the grace of God and help of Mother Mary, dissolved and which you have honeycombed back into the etheric body for revitalization when you become tired. Now, will you please just LET GO, LET GO, LET GO into the Violet Transmuting Flame every one of those memories—cause, effect, record and memory—let them go! Now, your etheric body is willing enough to do so, but the emotional body—oh, the emotional body loves to revivify the tragedies of the past. We ask, with all the POWER OF HERCULES that the emotional body is willing to LET GO, LET GO, LET GO of every record,—cause, effect, and memory—of every distress in this life or any life that you have ever lived, replacing it by the FULL CONSCIOUS MEMORY OF ALL THE PERFECTION AND BEAUTY that you knew in the Father's house before the world was.

Let us not honeycomb up these vehicles any more, dear hearts, and one way that you can avoid that, is to avoid the talking about even to yourself that which has been, which is not perfect. If we are moving forward into light, there is no sense carrying "a covered wagon" in which all of the debris of the past is kept. We must travel light. Would you not like to travel light with me? Let's travel on light's way, not burdened down by memories of any kind that are not perfect, and thus traveling in the light way, you shall be free!

Address by Beloved El Morya

I didn't believe that I would have opportunity to get in tonight. It is so very seldom that I have more time than to say, "good morning" or "good evening." In this case, it is a very, very, good evening to New York, and a very, very happy evening to all my friends gathered here.

Beloved Saint Germain, of course, is so happy, happy on behalf of the students who are interested in helping this magnificent city, and I, too, of course, am happy, indeed, having stood sponsor for you all before the Karmic Board, having had to create Excelsior and living thereon for no little time—a lovely planet, but cramped a bit, I might say, and I shall be very glad, indeed, when the student body takes over their own magnificent opportunity to bring the Golden Age here on Earth and I can go into THE FIERY ORB OF MERCURY and remain. Excelsior is sweet, dear hearts—it is very nice. It is a shiny little planet and its peoples are lovely, and I enjoyed making it, but I am rather an impatient fellow and when IT IS DONE, for me, IT IS DONE! I do not like, like Saint Germain, going over and over and over again, dissolving and transmuting the same mistakes and errors. It is very fortunate for you that he is the Chohan in charge of the next two-thousand-year cycle.

By the time I get in at the time of the next cycle, you will all be wholly ascended and free! You will either be on Mercury or Jupiter, or Venus, or some safe place where my prodding and my perhaps, impatient, desire to get things done will not affect you. Meantime, on behalf of the First Ray I greet you! All of us do love you, oh, so sincerely. We love truly, and I guess our love desires to make you perfect INSTANTLY. Even in my training before my ascension, I did not like to experiment over and over and over again. I liked, when the Guru gave me the teaching, to manifest it INSTANTLY and have that portion of the Law completed. Therefore I presume that Sanat Kumara and Gautama and the Great Ones gave me a very special opportunity during this last period since 1952. Perhaps I have, too, acquired in my nature Sanat Kumara's patience.

Address by the Goddess Of Liberty

Children, walking the way of Earth, I am Liberty—liberty of thought, of feeling, of word and of action, liberty to be the fullness of your God-self embodied, liberty to release through that God-self anything and everything that will be a benediction to you and to your fellowmen. I am not bound by flesh. Cosmic spheres are my activity of service. Yet to anyone who desires liberty, there I am. I am that flame within your hearts, liberating those powers that have lain dormant, until expanding through you they can, and will, do those same so-called miracles performed by beloved Jesus in his day. Liberty, beloved ones, is a most glorious gift. Liberty, when used wisely, allows the soul, purified, to become humble and the spirit to expand in greatness until all are free.

I place in your hands my gift of liberty, as I took the hand of your beloved Saint Germain when he passed through the change called death into the ascension and I offered him all the strength of my lifestream to help to bring first, political liberty, and then spiritual liberty to the peoples of Earth. So I give my hand to you now, even though you are not ready for that change, walking with your hand in mine, to bring liberty to this generation, liberty to all that are bound. Thank God that you do not see all that are in bondage, but yet in your calls, impersonally, for all life, make it for the liberty and freedom, not only of elementals and human beings and imprisoned angels, but liberty and freedom from all the structure of this Earth. This Earth was so beautiful ages ago, and that liberty of the essence and substance that has been misqualified by human creation can come about at your call.

You can liberate from within a glass all of the substance that has been charged into it by everyone who has drunk from it. Then you can fill that glass with ordinary water and CHARGE IT with whatever quality and power that is required, whether it be faith, illumination or love or truth or consecration or peace or the power of the sacred fire of the Violet Ray. USE THAT NOW. For thousands of years the orthodox churches have used the communion, and they have accepted, in their feelings, that peace after they have taken that communion. Now, where there is a requirement for health, there is always handy the primal substance of water. Charge it with the quality required and give it to the individual, remembering not to tell them what you have done and the service can be rendered and you can render it for yourself. It takes you very little time to charge the seven activities of the rays into a glass of water and you have a rainbow "parfait." It can be done. It has been done by others.

Now it is time in this great city, where there are so many individuals, that liberty become FACT. You have made it so tonight. You have declared your liberty, individually, and as a collective unit. Your names are so written by the Karmic Board upon the special scroll, as a specific cosmic moment of liberation, wherein the salvation of your city and its environs is made possible. I congratulate you on this, above all.

Beloved ones, as a member of the Karmic Board, I have met you so often when you have turned your vehicles in at the close of an embodiment and when you have taken on new vehicles, and I do want to meet you this time and know that you have finished your span in God-constancy. Please, please accept that constancy of Jophiel and Constance and finish that span.

In the name of Liberty, in the name of the Karmic Board, in the name of love and light and God-success, I call, with all the power and intensity of my being, a special cloak of cosmic liberty and freedom in, through and around you, each and every one, and that shall be sustained as your protection, expanded to include everyone that comes into the compass of your orbit and into the focus of your forcefield. So be it!

FEAR NOT!
Ascended Master El Morya

As more assistance is being given by the Spiritual Hierarchy to the peoples of this Earth at the present time than ever before, THE CATAclysmic ACTIVITIES WHICH SO DISTURBED THE MASS OF THE PEOPLES DURING THE SINKING OF THE CONTINENT OF MU AND, LATER, ATLANTIS, WILL BE GREATLY LESSENED. Also, the priests and priestesses of the White Order, having learned their lessons through past recalcitrance and lethargy, are alerted all over the planet Earth, and are joyously cooperating with their Ascended Masters, Gurus, and guides to prevent just such a chaotic and fearsome experience.

Rejoice that, even though the present human appearances seem, to the outer sense, appalling, greater light and great loving assistance is yours NOW! INVOKE OUR PRESENCE AND REJOICE IN YOUR OPPORTUNITY to return the Earth and all her evolutions to a beautiful and perfect state of LASTING PEACE, without the necessity of such drastic actions upon the part of the elemental life, which you can NOW love free!

DO NOT WAIT FOR "OTHERS" TO RENDER THIS SERVICE FOR YOU AND YOUR LOVED ONES! MAKE YOUR OWN APPLICATION, SENDING YOUR LOVE TO THE BEINGS OF NATURE AND THEIR MIGHTY DIRECTORS! INVOKE THE ELOHIM OF PURITY AND BELOVED ASTREA TO REMOVE THE CAUSE AND CORE OF ALL FEAR IN THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PEOPLES OF EARTH AND TO REPLACE THAT FEAR BY ILLUMINED FAITH AND TRUST IN GOD!

THE TEMPLE OF PEACE
Near Suva, Fiji Islands
The Ascended Master Retreat of the Month
September 15th through October 14th, 1959

When the cosmic clock sounded the awesome hour at which the gigantic continent of Mu had reached its apex and decline and had to be submerged beneath the purifying waves of the ocean, tongues of fire, covering whole cities, sprang from the interior of the Earth, accompanied by deafening subterranean thunders and the violent eruptions of volcanoes, the existence of which were never known by the people of the Earth before. Thus the continent of Mu was destroyed by fire and its remnants sunk beneath the waters, now called the Pacific and South Eastern Seas.

Portions of that continent, where the third rootrace flourished, are still in existence, such as the Fiji Islands, where the Ascended Master Retreat of Suva is situated. Other islands in the Pacific, South Africa, Madagascar, Ceylon, Sumatra, the Indian Ocean, Australia and New Zealand were parts of that continent.

The Catastrophe of Mu

The people, as a whole, were not cognizant of the coming disaster. Several of the members of the Ascended Master retreats which were spread over the wide area of the continent, went down with the multitude, in the midst of songs of the trained White Order of the priests and priestesses of Mu to mitigate their distress. Suva and two or three other foci of the Ascended Host were maintained in the same places where they were first established, although one or two of them were consciously etherealized to etheric levels.

The elements were so unruly, and the people were so distressed, that all the attention of the Great White Brotherhood of Suva, besides rendering the assistance required at such times, had to be concentrated on giving lasting peace to the peoples of the world, to pacify the elements, and the feelings of the people. Therefore, a tremendous momentum of lasting peace was builded at the Ascended Master retreat, and today Suva is one of the most powerful foci of that peace. Peace was so powerfully externalized by the Brotherhood of Suva that, after the sinking of Mu, the great navigator Magellan discovered the large expanse of water on the other side of South America and found it so unruffled, so tranquil, that he called it the Pacific Ocean (peaceful ocean).

Description of the Ascended Master Retreat at Suva

To describe the Retreat of Suva in worded language is not an easy task, as it surpasses all you have read in the Arabian Nights. The temple is situated in a tremendous cave, under a big mountain, the outer part of which covers it. Nobody knows where the entrance is but the earnest, willing and worthy chelas are guided to it and have no difficulty in entering, after the spiritual protectors examine each chela carefully.

Once you enter into the temple, you see a crystal palace, located in what seems to be a vast crystalline sea, and from which light in the seven colors of the rainbow emanates. As soon as you enter the mountain, you have the sensation that you are walking on water, until you reach the wide stairs that surround the palace. These circular stairs are made of transparent crystal and underneath you see cascades of multicolored torrents of water. The circular stairs around the palace have forty-nine steps. The palace has seven porticos or porches, which give entrance to the seven Halls of Learning. The main portico, through which you have to enter to meet Lord Surya, is due East.

When you reach your point of destination, you meet on the outside two guardians, a gentleman and a lady, fully seven feet in height. They have a glorious oriental complexion with well-proportioned, almost square faces, with blue eyes, which remind you of the late American President Mr. Warren G. Harding. They are bareheaded with long, chestnut-colored, hair. The gentleman wears his hair down to his shoulders, the lady down to her knees. Both are dressed in white robes, giving off an opalescent hue.

After you are allowed to proceed, you have to go up seven more crystal steps, under which you continue to see the multicolored torrents of water. Now you find yourself before a big crystal door, which opens automatically at your presence, over which you see a big circle over a cross, as the symbol of this Ascended Master retreat. You don't have to ask its meaning. You intuitively know that it means, "Here spirituality rules materiality."

Once you enter the big, round crystal hall, you see, on a high throne, the majestic figure of Lord Surya, sitting on a golden chair. He is slender of form, although he is seven feet tall. His features and complexion are like those of the two guardians at the entrance of the temple, but more refined. He has a well-trimmed beard after the style of the Ascended Master Saint Germain. His eyes are purple in color, and his hair falling to his shoulders is golden. He is attired in pure white clothes and wears no jewels.

When your turn comes to have the opportunity of meeting Lord Surya face to face, you bow in reverence, and when you lift your head, his loving eyes meet yours. He smiles, makes the sign of the circle above the cross and extends his hand to you. When he offers you his hand, you will feel electrified, as if you were sitting on the atomic accelerator of the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain.

When he looks at you with his big purple eyes, you know and feel that a powerful ray of light has passed through your inner and physical bodies. When your salutation and his greeting end, he pronounces a short word in a presently unknown language, but you seem to understand it. You know it means, "Peace be with you!"

Prepare yourselves, gentle readers, for your nightly sojourn to Lord Surya's Temple of Peace, and if you are constant and alert, you will see that at the end of this thirty-day period, you will be a different man or woman, filled with lasting peace, greater understanding, and God-given poise!

HOW TO BE A PEACE-COMMANDING PRESENCE
Monthly letter to Transmission Flame Class on Sept.19

Beloved Children of My Heart Who Seek Peace,

Peace is the keynote of this thirty-day period (September 15 through October 14, 1959). Because there are temporary clouds of war over Asia, Europe and Latin America, Lord Gautama directed the opening, to mankind, of Lord Surya's Retreat at Suva, Fiji Islands. All the Spiritual Hierarchy and cosmic visitors from other planets will be hosts to mankind at his temple.

The magic key that will open this Ascended Master retreat to you is to think and feel just before entering sleep, "Beloved Surya, I am ready to visit in consciousness your temple to bathe in the peace and opulent waves of cosmic love from your heart and your retreat. Please have me taken there by one of your messengers, and return me safely to my home after this visitation."

Let everyone, every day during this period, on awakening, try to remember the experience of the previous night and think and feel, "I am a peace-commanding presence today," and act as such every hour of the day at home, at the office, at your sanctuary—everywhere.

Dear gentle reader, I will be at the entrance of the beloved Surya's Temple of Peace in the Suva Retreat every night to meet you.

Love and blessing,
Maha Chohan

PEACE – A PRE-REQUISITE TO PRECIPITATION

By Beloved Lord Surya

Beloved children of God, now upon the face of this Earth, I have known and loved you long. When the continent of Mu flourished, in what is now known as your Pacific Ocean, you were among those of us who were the priests of that great civilization, wherein the third root Manu brought forth all of his sub-races. It was my privilege to sustain the bridge from divinity's realm for their descent, the completion of their cycle of experience and the control of mastery of energy and vibration and then their triumphant return home into the heart of the realms of eternal bliss, wherein they serve now, assisting as their free will directs the progress of the earthlings.

We have sustained, through the grace of almighty God a portion of that magnificent continent called, in modern maps, the Island of Great Fiji, wherein is located Suva. It is but a tip of one of the great mountains of the continent of Mu, wherein today the priesthood still maintain the focus of peace, such peace as your dear minds and hearts cannot conceive—that peace which comes from being disconnected, for a time, from the vibratory action of individuals who are not the full master of the energy of their own worlds.

Today, I bring the peace of Suva, that abiding peace which we have sustained for millions of years.

Beloved, you who desire to magnetize, again, the gifts of your Causal Bodies for the purpose of blessing your own lifestreams with freedom from distress, and blessing all with whom you are surrounded with the benediction of that momentum which is yours, to you I say, you require that sustained peace which is ours at Suva—peace to the body, the soul and the mind, which precedes the release from your own I AM Presence through the silver cord into your own Holy Christ Self of those gifts of illumined faith, of wisdom, of pure divine love, of purity, of truth, of healing, of God-supply of every good and perfect thing and of the greater art of conscious invocation of the God Flames that are so required again so to manifest visible to the physical sight of mankind at various strategic points on the surface of this Earth. These are the gifts of the sacred fire of which you have heard, of which you speak, which you can know and experience in every cell and atom of your being when you have so learned to live in peace within yourself and to become a peace-commanding presence wheresoever you move.

Many are the individuals who once lived with us at the height of the civilization on the continent of Mu, who live again on the Earth today. Many knew those powers of precipitation and utilized them to bring forth, without effort, every blessing that they required or that those around them required. You, too, had that conscious power when your motive was only to externalize more and more of the perfection of God's kingdom. Temporarily, you have forgotten the power of conscious precipitation, but again as we come close to you in thought and feeling, spoken word and radiation, we give to you our feelings, which are the developed energy of our own worlds, through ages of time, and that becomes like a transfusion into your own feelings and consciousness—if you can accept it and use it and benefit by proximity to our presence.

Today, on the planet Earth, the axis moves, the great winds blow. We have seen that before, for in every time of major cataclysmic change the elements have had to be held in leash by their mighty directors, but now the humankind who have accepted our presence in the universe, have opportunity unparalleled to become the peace-commanding presence wheresoever they abide, so that you may draw manna from heaven, as Moses did, so that you may draw the substance and energy into your own worlds that is required to make you more free in your service to life, so that the very hem of your garments may be so filled with grace and healing that you are a power of benediction and blessing to all that lives.

Some few of you have seen the waves that rise high in the oceans of the present day. The mighty undines—sometimes seventy feet swirling upward—surround our island, but never have they inundated it, because the Priesthood of Suva is the master of love, and those undines yet untrained filled with the creations imposed upon them even at the very crest of their mighty waves, recede and bow before peace. I have seen this performed again, again and again, not only by myself, but by the least of the members of the Brotherhood of Suva, who stand fearlessly on the sanded shore and look upward at that great mountain of water and love it back into the sea.

What has been done in the water element can also be done in the air element, where in Suva we have developed a protective ring to guard and guide all constructive vessels and crafts that cross the great Pacific and to hold back those mighty winds—even the youngest of the brothers on the island can do that. We guard at Suva many, many of the souls of those individuals who have seemingly been lost, not only through the seas and in air accidents, but so many who passed from the bodies in Korea and all during that unfortunate incident in the East. These individuals, not all having made the ascension, are learning the way of peace, and they shall walk up the bridge into the realms of light or they shall reappear again in the civilization which is presently so much in need of peace, according to their free will, their development and their divine plan.

You have been to Suva many times, and I have been with you. I want to remind you again, that you are always most welcome, and you can consider it an oasis in the world wherein, there seems at present, not to be enough of God-peace.

THE MASTERS OF WISDOM SPEAK HOW TO ATTAIN LASTING GOD-PEACE

MAHA CHOCHAN:

Peace, a Gift of the Holy Spirit

Peace, symbolized by the gentle dove, is one of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, a gift not bestowed on the individual from outside, but as an integral part of his divine nature, which it is his bounded duty to feel, radiate and share with his fellowman. "How is peace to be felt when one is in a sea of trouble?" the student may ask. Simply remove your attention from the appearance of trouble and place it upon peace. One thing is certain, you cannot have peace and trouble at the same time. Where your attention (which is your life) is, there you are!

Peace is the substratum of all constructive and lasting God-manifestation. Therefore, even in the midst of the appearance of trouble, there is peace. Look for it and you will find it. The way to look for it, as I have mentioned elsewhere, is to allow understanding, tolerance, patience, humility and loving service to be your watchwords, filling your thoughts, feelings, spoken words and actions.

EL MORYA:

Achieving Peace

In fulfillment of the will of God, one of my duties is to bring about a lasting peace in nations and among nations. There are cases where this has to be brought about by the process of revolutions, according to the national karma, which temporarily results in chaotic conditions, but after a certain time, when social justice and liberty are regained, lasting peace is established, even if only in a small measure.

The normal way to bring about national and world peace is by conciliation, at round tables where all interested parties can express their aspirations and negotiate. Fortunate is the nation which can send to these conferences men endowed with the virtues that our beloved Maha Chohan enunciated above.

LANTO:

Beware of Dissenting Activities

To perceive truth you must have peace of mind, through understanding. To bring about this peace of mind is one of the services of those who serve with me on the Second Ray. THE FIRST THING THAT THE CHELA HAS TO LEARN IS TO DISTINGUISH BETWEEN DIFFERENT PRESENTATIONS, OR SO-CALLED PRESENTATIONS OF THE TRUTH, TO DETERMINE WHICH CONSTITUTES A MORE COMPLETE EXPRESSION OF THE TRUTH. THE CHELA MUST, OF COURSE, HAVE AS ONE OF HIS GUIDES THE WORDS OF OUR BELOVED ASCENDED MASTER JESUS, "NOT ALL WHO COME IN MY NAME REPRESENT ME."

THE STUDENT HAS TO BE PARTICULARLY ALERT BEFORE ACCEPTING STATEMENTS ISSUED BY DISSENTING ACTIVITIES, WHICH, AS A RULE, HAVE THEIR ORIGIN NOT IN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCES OF DOCTRINE, OF WHICH THEY DO NOT SPEAK, BUT IN THE PERSONAL AMBITION OF THEIR SELF-CALLED LEADERS WHO, IN MANY CASES, APPROPRIATE THE INSTRUCTION OF THE PARENT BODY AND PRESENT IT AS NEW AND BETTER, WITHOUT ANY SUBSTANTIAL PROOF OF THEIR CLAIM.

PAUL (THE VENETIAN MASTER):

Peace Through Tolerance

In my particular service to life, I endeavor to bring about a lasting peace through divine love and tolerance. One of the enemies of peace is fear, but we have been told that perfect love casts out fear. Therefore, if you love your neighbor as yourself, if you realize that you are your brother's keeper, all sense of fear will disappear and peace will be the keynote of your life.

If you become tolerant of persons and circumstances, you will eliminate irritation, resentment, envy, criticism, and a dozen other ugly attitudes which prevent the peaceful relationship which must exist between those whose past karma has brought them together—and if in disagreement with them, you will not think of branching out on your own, but rather sublimating such destructive karma by the Violet Transmuting Flame.

SERAPIS BEY:

Delaying the Ascension

In the library at Luxor there are thousands of books and treatises on peace, and in one of the temples, the third, the chela has to live with six other lifestreams of different temperaments, in order to learn to live in peace with each other, and not until the chela passes this test can he come before me. This is one of the severest disciplines, because where discord is, there is no peace, and peace must be felt and manifested and sustained long before the ascension.

Discord is manifested in different ways in the home, in the office, in the activity with which you have associated yourself, and when this discord is expressed in criticism, in domination, in intrigue or in disobedience and finally, in disloyalty, it is evident that the offending ones are very far from the ascension, and have to retrace their steps until they have learned the lesson of impersonality and the practical use of the cohesive power of pure divine love.

HILARION:

Peace is Right-Qualification of Energy

In my service with atheists and even with certain scientists, in my endeavors to bring peace to them, I am more fortunate when I have to deal with men of science, who become very restless when their inventions do not seem to mature, because it is easier to make them understand that peace is a matter of vibration, of properly-qualified energy (God's life entrusted to man for constructive manifestation only).

If the life essence placed in your keeping is qualified with personal ambition, distrust, selfishness, intolerance and other destructive qualities, you will always have discord in yourself and in your work, but if you qualify your life essence with love, tolerance, understanding and other constructive qualities, you shall always enjoy peace.

JESUS:

Knowing the Tree by its Fruit

During my ministry, there was not one day in which I did not enjoy that peace that passeth all understanding. This enabled me to be in constant communion with the Father and to accomplish the many healings, recorded and unrecorded, which the Father of us all poured through me to bless life. This was so evident that I have been called the “Prince of Peace”. When I said, “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children and heirs of God,” I meant more than what those words seem to imply. I meant that you cannot be a trouble-monger, an inciter of discord, and claim, at the same time, the prerogatives of a peacemaker—that is, to be called children and heirs of God. I also said, “The tree shall be known by its fruit.”

NADA:

Peace Through Love

One of the ways to be at peace is to love the God-life within the person or circumstance which annoys you. That was the lesson I learned in my childhood, which, as some of you will remember was not a happy one, because I thought I was not as talented as my three sisters, which made me feel both timid and retiring. But all this changed after the series of visits I received from that great Cosmic Being Charity, who taught me the lesson of love, and eventually led me to the feet of Serapis Bey, Hierarch of Luxor!

SAINT GERMAIN:

Wolves in Sheep’s Clothing

Those who prattle about the incoming permanent Golden Age, those who pose as my followers, those who claim that I am behind their endeavors, and yet create dissention in one manner or another, are the wolves in sheep’s clothing, to which our beloved Jesus referred. Peace is the cornerstone of my Golden Age. This is the reason why I am so much interested, not only in the liberty of people, but in their enjoyment of peace—and those who say that they are my followers are known to us and to their fellowman, because they never endeavor to create discord in any activity of life.

ETHERIC TEMPLE OF PURIFICATION
BY VIOLET FIRE
(Over the Island of Cuba)
October 15th through November 14th, 1959

Message to the Transmission Flame Class on October 17th, 1959

Beloved Children of the Light,

I have come to bless you and to invite you, personally, to visit again the holy temple of our glorious Lord Zadkiel, during this thirty-day period. As a preparation for this visit, be sure to invoke daily the Violet Flame to transmute in you everything that is less than purity and perfection. While in the temple, try to absorb as much as possible of the instruction given—generally by the teacher assigned to you—to qualify you as a priest or priestess of the White Order of Zadkiel, which means that while in the world of men, you shall be a walking, living Violet Flame, purifying everything that comes into contact with you. This is my brief message this month. I am looking forward to meeting you at the temple.

Love and blessing,
Maha Chohan

THE MARCH—JOIN US!

An Address by Beloved Lord Zadkiel

Beloved and blessed ones on the Earth's surface today, you who are among the aspirants to become the permanent heart cells created by the beloved Madonna, Mary, the mother of Jesus—I, Zadkiel, in my capacity as a priest of invocation of the powers of good, greet you! It is the desire of Mary, the Holy Mother, to see that this diamond heart enfolds this entire Earth, and into it are placed those worthy chelas, all over the planet, who are presently in embodiment. I have received the added dispensation of allowing to come into that meshwork of the universal diamond heart and to remain permanently there—angels from the seven kingdoms. This will do a great deal to sustain it until the blessed and earnest chelas are ready to come forth and be the light of the world!

The Focus of Divinity is in Your Heart

I am the priest versed in the law of drawing forth the powers of good. When our temple was manifested on Atlantis, we taught unascended lifestreams how to magnetize the powers of God, through the magnificent focus of God-good within each beating heart. Now again comes the day when such magnetization is not only possible, but IMPERATIVE for the expansion of the light of the world to any and all who choose to listen to and apply our instruction.

Let us first remember that, within your heart, there is a focus of divinity, that focus of which Mother Mary speaks so beautifully and of which you refer to as the immortal Threefold Flame of God. That is the magnetizing power which all of the White Priesthood on Atlantis used to magnetize and draw into the atmosphere of the Earth those currents of energy which stabilized her and held the Atlantean Era, during its prime, in a state of harmony and peace. That same immortal Threefold Flame within your hearts now is likewise a magnetizing power, not only of the good of your own I AM Presence and that of your own Causal Body, but of the good, the fully-gathered momentum, of any Divine Being or member of the Spiritual Hierarchy whom you call upon and who welcomes the opportunity to channel that good through you, through your Holy Christ Self Flame, as it expands until it fills not only your personal world, aura and spirit with influence, but as it fills the world of the entire planet Earth upon which you presently abide.

Attracting Good

Now the magnetization of the powers of good is as mechanical as the magnetization of a piece of steel by a proper agent. When the Holy Christ Flame, which is immortal and alive within you, is given freedom through you by your outer self and the self-conscious renunciation of your own human free will and all destructive desires, known and unknown, and you allow that Holy Christ Flame full power—it begins to magnetize, through your blessed lifestream, the fullness of your divine pattern and plan and begins to magnetize also the gifts and powers of the other beings that dwell in divinity's realm, and they flow forth also to make of the atmosphere of Earth a magnificent, multi-colored, positive radiation in which shadows cannot exist.

Beloved ones, this power to magnetize, through the sacred fire the gifts and powers of the Godhead, must be utilized and become practical through actual works. It is our desire, deep and sincere, to have you begin to experiment with the use of that power of the sacred fire that is within your hearts, to so magnetize not only our presence, but our radiation, gifts and virtues. You can do this, and every loving and willing chela, wherever he or she stands on the face of the Earth, can do this, and they will not only be the recipients of the gifts themselves, but they will be ourselves—Sons and Daughters of Freedom—walking about the planet Earth and the hems of their spiritual garments will be filled with the virtues magnetized and consciously drawn forth.

The Benediction of the Violet Fire

Because the Violet Fire, for the most part, is not seen by the physical sight of mankind, very few cognize and feel its essence and reality. Those of you who are kind enough to give special recognition to that

Violet Fire have felt the changing of the vibratory action of your own bodies, have felt the dissolution of shadows by the power of light, have felt the removal of chaotic conditions in yourselves and others through its use, and some of you, with the inner sight and hearing, have even seen that Violet fire and heard the song of the Angels of the Violet Fire, as they move along their appointed pathway.

Beloved ones, blessed Alpha and Omega, all the Suns of all the systems, all Solar Logoi, all the Cosmic Beings, Ascended Masters, cherubim, seraphim and the angelic host, every one of the Divine Beings—can be magnetized by the least of men through this immortal Threefold Flame of God that is within every human heart. That magnetization is a permanent blessing to and through that lifestream.

The Activity in the Inner Realms

Beloved ones, there have been, in the ages that have come and gone, many ideas formed, many thoughtforms and patterns which have not been dissolved. Some of them remain within the etheric realm and what you call the psychic and astral realm, and they float around there. They would be dissolved except for the fact that disembodied individuals, some of whom promulgated those very ideas, feed their life into them and keep them alive. Now these invisible foci, which are imperfect, are kept alive by the very individual or those who have a similar rate of vibration who for one reason or another would like to see them externalized in the world of form.

At the present time, we are very busy at inner levels, disconnecting the souls of those individuals who, between embodiments, have had certain affinity to discord. As they are taken into the temples of light and as they are given knowledge of the use of the Violet Fire within those temples of light, then there is nothing to feed these forms and the natural process of the Violet Fire, which is blazing through those realms at all times, will dissolve them before they can anchor into embodied lifestreams who have the way, the means and the power, temporarily, to again externalize them, to give distress to mankind and the Earth.

There has to be a cause and core in the inner realms before there is a manifestation and effect in the world of form. If we can remove these vortices of disembodied souls from their affinity (mentally, emotionally and etherically) to discord of every kind, as we are trying to do, it is easy then to remove causes and cores of that discordant condition and replace it by a magnificent blazing cause and core of cosmic light, which, in turn, filters down through the constructive people on any one of the Seven Rays, into the outer consciousness and becomes something that is constructive which they can externalize.

Then, on the other hand, you have the constructive picture. You have from the First Realm, the magnificent divine ideas of God, moulded into form on the Second Ray, animated by pure divine love through the Third Ray, purified by the purity of the Fourth Ray, concentrated through the Fifth Ray into any one of the facets of expression that is necessary for its further development, enfolded in peace divine, purified and living to manifest through unascended beings who are receptive to those divine ideas.

How to Make Application

Now, beloved ones, the magnetizing of the powers of good come from acceptance in the FEELING of the presence of Deity within you, until you can say, as we said in the White Priesthood long ago, where some of you were members, “In the name of almighty God, in the name of all life, COME FORTH!” —and there came into manifestation that which was required in precipitation of every kind and description. Our White Priesthood could, and did, bring that precipitation forth, whether it was illumined faith, whether it was greater constructive ideas, more wisdom, whether it was love, more purity and selflessness of motive, greater consecration of the lifestream to a specific facet of service, or whether it was the mercy of the Violet Fire, that was required!

That which was done once, shall be done again, because we have come forth, the priest and priestesses of the White Order, from the Silence wherein we abided for aeons of time, and we are here in this physical appearance world, training chelas to magnetize the powers of good through themselves and through their fellowman. When you make the application to your own I AM Presence or to me for that power of the Violet Transmuting Flame, please be still for a moment and feel yourselves enfolded completely in this Violet Fire, enfolded in my own presence and feel within that Violet Flame that is within your heart, the presence of Holy Amethyst.

It is the efficacy in the use of the Violet Fire NOW, when the Earth requires it most, to change all shadows and all discords into LIGHT, LIGHT, LIGHT, that can be seen oh, not just a thousand miles, as it was from our temple in Cuba, but that it may be seen throughout the entire planetary system, and all those other planets of our system KNOW that the Earth gives forth her light. And the music of the spheres again, from the planet Earth, rises in harmony, in balance and in love to all that lives, breathes and has being—above or below.

The Purpose of the Diamond Heart

I speak to you, again, on behalf of the priest and priestesses of the Order of Archangel Zadkiel and ask you to help us, in every way you can to become such a power of conscious invocation of good. Practice, as Mother Mary said, yourself! Practice, through the activities of your daily life, in allowing the expansion of your own immortal victorious Threefold Flame, and then practice allowing, through the radiation of our presence through you, to give you a sense of self-mastery, poise and balance, that is at all times required when handling great numbers of people or individuals who are in distress of any kind.

Beloved ones, the Ascended Master Saint Germain, his divine complement the Lady Portia, desire to manifest as quickly as possible on this Earth their Golden Age of perfection. It is to this end that Mother Mary, myself, and all of us, are creating this larger heart. Into it, each blessed cell that loves the light and has prepared himself or herself, is being placed in combination with the angelic host, until the entire Earth will be surrounded with the glorious planetary diamond heart of light, which will be a protection against the intrusion of any imperfection from within or without, what will be in a measure like your own Tube of Light, only larger than the Earth, rising to the ten-thousand-foot level all around her.

Calling Forth the Powers of God

Beloved ones, when you speak of destructive thoughts, feelings and etheric patterns, you say, “We shall keep our attention only upon light.” That is very true, but where shadow is manifested, there is a cause and core of distress, and that cause and core is fed, not only by those who have been released from the previous “compound,” but by unascended beings. They require not always to be disembodied, sometimes these beings, meaning well, see discord in thought, feeling, word and action, and these vortices at inner levels thus have life, for they are all vampire activities. When there are no individual intelligences to feed them longer, that very instant they will be dissolved and then, through the use of the Violet Fire, repolarized and CHARGED back into the sun or into the heart of one of the Ascended Ones, whichever it may be, and then qualified with God-perfection, directed again earthward to produce perfection here on this planet Earth.

We want you to understand this and that is why we emphasize it to you again. It is not that we wish to dwell upon anything of an imperfect nature. We want you to dwell naturally on the things that are good, BUT when manifestations here in your world today are imperfect, the wise, intelligent chelas KNOW that there is, in some place, a cause and core sustained by intelligent life, for only the immortal Threefold Flame of Life is an intelligent being. When that power of coalescence is removed, then instantly that discordant form disappears. It is the same in a constructive way—the immortal victorious Threefold Flame within your heart is the power of the coalescence of good into your world and into your auras. It is the power of radiation of the good that has been drawn forth, magnetized by your blessed selves for the blessing and benediction of all mankind.

Let us, then, in the name of Mother Mary, in the name of our beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain and Lady Portia, in the name of our beloved Jesus, the beloved Ascended Master Morya, call forth THOSE POWERS OF GOOD, latent within you, and let those POWERS of good EXPAND through you for the benediction and blessing of yourself and of your fellowman. THEN, and then alone, are you true priests and priestesses of the White Order who wear purple vestments according to the efficacy of your power. If you will do this and cooperate with me in its full manifestation and expression, we can greatly hasten the removal of discord and release, through your Causal Bodies, through your own silver cord and through the expanded Threefold Flame of God within your heart, the acceleration of your divine plan fulfilled and the plan of the divine world fulfilled, as well.

The Rod of Power

We will retreat no more, beloved ones! The Ascended Host of light are on the march toward the planet Earth and with them come all of the beings that represent God's holy will and God's holy way. Join us!

We come as usual, earlier to the "few" and then later, when they are prepared, to the masses. I say, in the name of the power of the Violet Fire of Mercy, WE SHALL RETREAT NO MORE! We are manifesting and expanding God's perfection to every chela, here and wherever Mother Mary and Lord Raphael find them upon the planet Earth. So help us now in your endeavors to expand your light, without strain, without stress, but with a constant remembrance that you have the Rod of Power, you have the very essence of creation in your beating hearts. You have, through the spoken word, the power to direct those currents of energy verbally, when necessary and the discrimination and discretion to direct them mentally, when necessary, until shadows are no more.

Invocation

Let us here, in the essence of the universal diamond heart created by our beloved Mother Mary, feel the magnificent powers of the Violet Fire, the Transmuting Flame, flowing in, through and around this Earth, all her evolutions, all salamanders, sylphs, gnomes and undines, all humankind, all earth's substance, the water substance, the air element, the fire element—and let us feel the fullest power of that.

In the name of the presence of God “I AM,” I invoke the cooperation of the immortal victorious Threefold Flame in the hearts of man and all the beings and powers of the angelic kingdom and the nature kingdom in this great endeavor, so that we may have the forward and onward progress toward perfection. SO BE IT, in His name!

HOW CAUSES ARE DEVELOPED An Instruction by Beloved Mighty Vesta

A – INVESTING LIFESTREAMS WITH AUTHORITY AND POWER

Life Defined

I am the embodiment of the “invocative power,” by which universal life and light begin an active expression of usefulness.

Life is the servant of flame, as is light the radiation of life. Without any intelligent director, life would remain forever unformed, quiescent. Within life, the Godhead has placed every power, attribute, capacity and virtue which is his.

Man's Duty

Man must learn of life's power and presence and learn how to draw forth its fullness. He must become vested with the power of creation. Love of life and a desire to understand its nature precede my service to the evolving individual.

I, then, INVEST the individual with the knowledge of life's potentialities and their capacity to unfold and draw forth from life the fullness that God has incorporated into this ever-present, intelligent, vital substance. My activity is to draw forth, mould and externalize this potential perfection through my pupils. To invest an individual with authority, is to confer upon his life flame, powers not previously present.

My Capital

I am the root of investment, and a powerful force in the financial world, when understood. People design a project and invest their substance, so the project may live and have the authority to govern their fortunes.

I INVEST lifestreams in causes, working with the Lords of Karma, to further world progress. These lifestreams represent my capital, and the causes benefit by their presence.

Director of Cosmic Ventures

All cosmic ventures are placed before me by their sponsors and the Great White Brotherhood. Lifestreams capable of assisting in carrying these missions through the veil of embodiment must come before me, and if their light and karma and capacities are judged proper for the particular service, they are INVESTED (together with their sponsor) with certain powers and dedicated to a cause. This is all done at inner levels, and "circumstances" draw people together in the world of form, when it is proper for the investment to begin working for some facet of universal good.

B—DEVELOPMENT OF CAUSES CREATED BY THE GODHEAD

Origin of Causes

Many causes are set up by the Godhead, and many causes are born through the initiative of his children.

A cause to which a lifestream may choose to dedicate his life, is not necessarily created by the individual himself, but it can be assumed, and an individual interested in such service may take the responsibility of carrying such a cause to mankind, that its ultimate beneficial effect may sooner be the heritage of the people.

The Godhead may create causes. Intelligent beings, pondering on ways to serve God's plan, may evolve causes and bring them into outer manifestation.

The Cause of Freedom

The cause of freedom was born in God's heart, when the first flame was created, for God desired all his creation FREE.

When a cosmic desire of God's heart pulsates in the higher heavens, waiting to be claimed, ensouled and lowered by one of his children, it is so finely attuned and vibrates so quickly, that it is neither visible nor tangible to even tremendously-evolved beings, EXCEPT where their own interests and leanings, through the centuries have created in them a sympathetic vibration. Thus a being would have had to love freedom, serve freedom for centuries, before the cosmic pulsation would be even discernible in the blazing cosmic light, which is the desire world of the Great Central Sun.

Saint Germain Claim to the Cause of Freedom

Such a being is Saint Germain! He finally achieved a personal evolution sufficient to PERCEIVE God's desire to bring freedom to his creation. (The ability to perceive the presence of any blessing is one of God's gifts and is developed by the humble, listening heart).

When Saint Germain pierced through God's aura and entered the Secret Place of the Most High, he saw "unclaimed" the cause God had set up before the world was, and which one day must, by the nature of its being, have an effect which would be manifest as unconditional freedom for every part and particle of his creation. It was Love which had answered before the call. It was God providing before the need.

His heart thrilled at sharing the Father's secret desire. He loved that "cause" and prayed and prepared, that some day he might be worthy to ensoul that cause with his own flame and carry it down to the world of men, that its effect might externalize on the screen of maya.

Time of Fulfillment

The Great Central Sun, itself, would call the being prepared to carry his particular cause to fulfillment, either when the cosmic hour for its birth was come, or—some child of heaven had anticipated that hour and become the fit vessel for its outer manifestation before the hour.

When any being becomes ready to be invested with a cosmic cause, the law of magnetic attraction begins to pull on the heart of God, and the cause that has lain therein starts on its downward course to join in the call from below. Thus does the Godhead become aware of the readiness of the race for a greater blessing.

Saint Germain's Preparation

The Father called the son—Saint Germain—in the ripe hour, and Saint Germain entered in a cosmic initiation, the great flaming desire of freedom, and ensouled it with his flame, taking full responsibility for carrying it to the Earth and letting its effect radiate through all life and all created beings.

Saint Germain's students are invested with the knowledge and power of the sacred fire by me. Those who accepted them, with their sponsor, were given audience before me and each invested with the knowledge and power of the sacred fire and the vision of the cause in its fullness. Then, as a corporate body, they—together with their Master—were cosmically invested, their bodies, minds, natures, heritage, in the cause of freedom and none can leave that cause until its effect is manifest. All are my investment in the name and by the desire of the God of love.

C—DEVELOPMENT OF CAUSES EVOLVED THROUGH INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE—FIVE STEPS

1st—For instance, an advanced being (Initiate) desires to bring to the human race the art which he has learned to love in the sphere of light. Working in this sphere under the Chohan of Art, he feels the race would benefit IN SOUL GROWTH by seeing, absorbing and creating this perfect art (which up to this point may never have been expressed on Earth before).

2nd—The Lords of Karma hear his plan, weigh his worth and capacities, and, looking at the world plan, acquiesce to his desire to embody and bring his gift to humanity.

3rd—Then he must interest contemporary spirits in HIS CAUSE. They must not only love him, but be found capable of offering beneficial talents, capacities, etc., according to their soul growth and nature. They, too, must be passed by the Lords of Karma.

4th—If this being is fortunate enough to secure fellow beings willing to assist him, then the sponsor and his group come before me (Vesta) and they are individually and collectively INVESTED in the name of God in this movement.

I, alone, take the responsibility for investing souls, life, time, energy, intelligence, in a cause, and the resultant effect (the failures and successes) become my personal obligation to life. Thus the cause is carefully studied, its possible beneficial result on the race, the nature and capacities of the sponsor and volunteers, before such investment takes place.

All those invested are then, in turn, vested with the power and authority of the sacred fire to draw out of life everything their intelligence prompts them to call forth to perfect, protect, beautify and expand the cause they serve. They carry more power than the masses, for they have been cosmically ordained.

5th—During the entire course of embodiment, they work consciously or unconsciously for the cause they accepted at inner levels and I, naturally, am vitally interested in their progress. In times of crisis I am, because of my personal responsibility, privileged to enter into the cause with my power and light.

The Vestal Virgins

The activity of the Vestal Virgins has been little understood. They were lifestreams who volunteered at certain periods of Earth's growth to take embodiment and through devotion to the sacred fire, vitalized definite causes dedicated to furthering the evolution of the race. This concentrated presence of the sacred fire, drawn earthward, and sustained by the guarding lifestreams of the virgins, was the sustaining power of those movements—civic, religious, artistic, etc. The Vestal Virgins were VESTED with power and INVESTED in a world cause or a local cause, through my lifestream.

Gently, I AM,
Vesta

WHAT IS THE BRIDGE TO FREEDOM ACTIVITY?

The “Bridge to Freedom Activity” is a consciously-created “span” or “bridge” over which man’s consciousness may proceed into the consciousness of the Great White Brotherhood of divine beings, whose present, urgent endeavors are to save mankind and the Earth from colossal disaster at this time of great cosmic import, and proceed harmoniously into the permanent Golden Age ordained by God on Earth.

Through the “Bridge to Freedom Activity,” man can now cooperate with these divine beings and their councils on mankind’s behalf.

A bridge, to be worthy of the name, must have firm, positive anchorage at both ends of the span. There is no question of the divine side of life and their anchorage.

Now man, not by whip of human will, but by love of divine will, must volunteer to help anchor this side, so that the counsels, the plans, and activities of these great divine beings can become active on Earth as they already are in heaven.

KNOW THE TRUTH

“God’s will be done.” “Peace on Earth as it is in heaven.” “Life on Earth as it is in heaven.”

These cosmic fiats now must be made a reality on Earth, to, through and by all races, all creeds, all colors, for Earth’s divine destiny is to be the fulfillment of God’s plan, divine will, and divine wisdom, not man’s concepts and opinions of such.

“Know the truth” and the truth, when scientifically applied, will set man free. The truth and its scientific application is the consciousness of these great divine beings, who have graduated from human into divine consciousness, by right use of life.

Only one who has graduated from a human being into an Ascended Being is infallible and capable of showing another the way back home.

Thus again, the bridge is not only a convenience, but a necessary span, whereby the scientific application of divine law can be lowered into human consciousness, by those who have successfully applied that law, and therefore are the law as the word “Lord” so signifies.

In the “Bridge to Freedom” publications are given the divine explanation and practical application of the laws governing life. The “Bridge to Freedom Activity” is active in many places and countries on Earth.

The Signs of the Times

Since all mankind are involved, just so should all mankind now become vitally and actively interested, for all are using life, God's life, not their life. God-life is now, always has been and always will be, correctly lived only by loving obedience to the divine laws of life.

The "Bridge to Freedom" is the final span that now makes it possible for man to revivify his long-lost memory of God's laws, apply them under divine guidance and free himself and this planet while he yet has time, as the "signs of the times" are upon man right now! This is not scare propaganda!

The planet Earth and all her peoples are now under the divine fiat of God's will to fulfill his will, and move forward using light as their guide and tool—not shadows. Those who obey God's will, will move into action to do so now. Of these is the "Bridge to Freedom" made strong. These are the active bridge builders.

This new wine (spiritual truth) is not come in the old bottles. This new wine is come uncontaminated, directly over the bridge from heaven's realm, into the outer consciousness of the alert and earnest individual. Love—pure divine love—is its motive and purpose, tax-free and non-profit. Hear now these great Ascended Masters of Wisdom:

THE SUPREME IMPORTANCE OF THE HOUR

"Each of the seven planets of the present physical sun must be quickened to enter and sustain itself in the orbit of the graduating planet. Great Beings are delegated to the task of quickening the vibrations of those planets, and we—whose responsibility rests with the Earth—MUST prepare our planet and her people to vibrate at the rate of Venus' present perfection. We are, therefore, of necessity FORCED to reach mankind quickly, ALL OF THEM. For this moment have we invested in you our love, our life, our radiation, and I SHALL EXPECT EVERY ASSISTANCE in the cosmic push of the hour. EVERY OTHER PLANET OF OUR SUN HAS ALREADY SIGNALLED 'READY'—Yet the Cosmos must wait on the Earth, and we MUST SOON HAVE THAT 'GO AHEAD' sign from the hearts of men. HELP US SPEED THAT DAY."

(Beloved Maha Chohan, May 15, 1952)

THE REQUIREMENT OF THE HOUR

Again the new wine uncontaminated flows forth:

“The time has arrived when it is NOT sufficient to accept the existence of the Masters of Wisdom, it is NOT sufficient to gratify the feeling nature in reading and re-reading their words, it is NOT sufficient to invoke the light to dispel the darkness of human ignorance.

THE REQUIREMENT OF THE HOUR is to apply what has been taught, not only in recent years, but during the past centuries. THE REQUIREMENT OF THE HOUR is for man to acquaint himself with the present activities of the Great White Brotherhood. THE REQUIREMENT OF THE HOUR is for each man to turn within, to consciously contact and connect his outer consciousness with his own Christ Self thus becoming not only a receiving, but a radiating center, to all the life he contacts in his daily living.

To satisfy this requirement is the service that THE BRIDGE has come to render.”
(By Beloved El Morya)

THE MASTERS OF WISDOM SPEAK

MAHA CHOCHAN, The Chohan of the Seven Rays:

Learn the lesson of harmlessness, neither by word nor thought nor feeling inflict evil upon any part of life. Know that action and physical violence is but the lesser part of harmful expression.

EL MORYA, Chohan of the First Ray:

Will you please take your stand against releasing criticism in thought, feeling, or spoken word? You see, it makes the purification and cleansing of the earthplane an endless task, if those who know that energy acts according to their qualification of it, still continue to pour it forth, qualified imperfectly.

LANTO, Chohan of the Second Ray:

One of the chief requirements for spiritual mastery is discrimination. Call to me, if you wish—to my beloved Lord Maitreya, or to the great Lord Buddha, for that discrimination wherein you may recognize the Voice of the Silence.

PAUL, THE VENETIAN, Chohan of the Third Ray:

The sharing of individual consciousness is the sweet communion of true friendship and brotherhood. Those who serve us must make mankind aware of our presence.

SERAPIS BEY, Chohan of the Fourth Ray:

We are the bridge builders, and you are the foci for our endeavors to connect with the mind, the thought, the consciousness of all men.

HILARION, Chohan of the Fifth Ray:

Every man becomes individually responsible for the quality, which he charges into his energy as it passes through his mind, feelings and body into the world around him.

NADA, Chohan of the Sixth Ray:

To find God within oneself, is the purpose for incarnation, and the only way home again into the natural state of blessedness, peace and power, which such God-awareness brings.

SAINT GERMAIN, Chohan of the Seventh Ray:

THE BRIDGE is one way by which we share our vision with our chelas, and they share their life energies with us, in cooperative service, to the fulfillment of God's divine plan.

UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD

by Thomas Printz

The only common denominator by which all races, all creeds, all colors, can harmoniously adjust and permanently abide together in peace on Earth, is to understand and obey God's Laws.

Universal brotherhood is possible only by obeying God's rules for the right use of his life, wherever we may be.

This God-knowledge is now again released and but awaits man's acceptance, correct application, and right use, to bring about, harmoniously, the transmutation of all man's troubles. Such loving cooperation will usher in the last and permanent Golden Age for the Earth and her people. The laggards, the willfully disobedient and defiant, will take further instruction elsewhere in the universe, as the fiat of God's will for this Earth and her people is already so issued, so ordered, and is so to be fulfilled! SO BE IT!

ONE LAST WORD—"World Brotherhood," as sponsored by THE BRIDGE TO FREEDOM and all its subsidiary publications, does not constitute the leveling of all men to the sub-standards of the lowest strata of humankind, but rather the conscious raising, through education and competent guidance of the entire human race, through the individual, to the highest standards of moral, ethical, economical and spiritual maturity.”

“PROVE ALL THINGS. HOLD FAST THAT WHICH IS GOOD.”

One does not have to leave present affiliations in order to understand and apply the divine laws of his or her own God-given life. Acting in the spirit of the words of Paul to the Thessalonians, “Prove all things, HOLD FAST that which is good.”

Therefore, once the inquirer has found what, to his understanding is good, he should hold fast to it. If he wishes to succeed in his endeavors, he should not mix the teachings of two different schools, even if one of them claims that it is similar to the other, or even an expansion or improvement of the other, as the Ascended Masters have said that no one can reach his destination traveling in different directions at the same time, or using different guides. The Bridge to Freedom Activity has no connection, whatsoever, with any other organization—old, established, or dissident.

An Invitation

This is a personal, special and loving invitation to you, gentle reader, to enjoy greater well being, abundance and real happiness, and to come NOW and help build the bridge back home to our Father’s house, according to our Father’s will and plan, and be free.

“Seek and ye shall find,”—Your search is rewarded!

“Call and I will answer,”—Your call is answered

“Knock and it will be opened,”—The door is now open!

WELCOME, All Races! All Creeds! All Colors!

YOUR REASON FOR BEING

MONTHLY LETTER TO THE TRANSMISSION FLAME CLASS

The yearly ceremony at Shamballa, in this thirty-day period between November 15th and December 14th, is not only a world, but also a cosmic event, as representatives from all the planets of the system attend, as well as the builders of form, the angelic host and devas, presided over by beloved Helios and Vesta.

Another significant activity is the presence of the directors of the four elements, who direct the flame into their respective kingdoms, accelerating their evolutions considerably.

Representatives from all the retreats of this planet are of course also present, as well as the different Ascended Masters with the groups of their chelas, who act as transformers for the direction of the flame to all mankind, individually and collectively. There are also present all the sincere and loyal directors of sanctuaries and groups, with their students.

How is the alert and devout student to avail himself of this wonderful period of spiritualization of the Earth planet? This is done by preparing his mind and feelings with the reading of everything that has been written about Shamballa, Sanat Kumara and Lord Gautama, so as to facilitate his tuning into the high vibrations of this retreat, to enable him to achieve the purpose for which Shamballa was founded by Sanat Kumara. This purpose is to make every individual a "self-conscious light-bearer."

Beloved children who read these lines, the beloved Lord Gautama and I shall be waiting for you at Shamballa every night!

Love and blessings, Maha Chohan

THE MASTERS SPEAK ON SHAMBALLA

May you remember the glory of Shamballa, the light of this spiritual city, the enthusiasm and hope and glory that forms the aura, filling the atmosphere. How can words describe the Festival of Thanksgiving from the standpoint of wholly God-free Intelligences who can and do pour forth love, unqualified with human desire, gratitude for opportunity to serve, and praise to God for the use of life!

In song, in glorious color, in beautiful designs, the praise of the God-free beings pulsates out from the city, increasing the aura of the already-powerful focus, a thousand fold. The music of the spheres is greatly intensified by this period of joyous reunion of Gods and chelas and incarnate spirits, who live to serve life in their chosen orbits of expression.

It is no wonder that the dense lower atmosphere of Earth responds for a time to the hosannas and the spirit of giving, for it would be impossible for any substance of energy not to feel the pressure of this glorious period, when God rests in his labors and his messengers gather the harvest of the year and place it at the feet of the Lord of each world and each universe.

Present Service Determines Future Assignments

Quoting one of the Ascended Ones: “In our kingdom, every twelve months, we are allowed the great privilege and honor of walking over that magnificent bridge of light, into the heart of Shamballa, bringing with us not only the results of our individual service through the year, but our energies and consciousness, and, in the radiant effulgence of the Lord of the World, we, too, are repolarized, revitalized and refreshed by proximity to his magnificent and radiant presence. Here in counsel, one with another, we discuss our service of the past year—we bring our harvest, even as you are bringing yours, before the Lord of the World and that harvest determines the amount of service that we are called upon to render for the coming twelve months. What we have done with the light given, what we have done with opportunities offered, what we have done with the consciousness and capacities that we have had at hand, will be a determining factor in our assignment for the coming year.

“As the Threefold Flame at Shamballa receives the harvest of each one of us, from the smallest elemental that made the tiniest apple blossom, to the greatest Archangel who rendered service in dissolving the compound, it grows and grows and grows, until it becomes a tremendous witness to that which every lifestream has accomplished through constructive energy within the year.”

The Release of Sanat Kumara

(El Morya-New Year's Eve of 1955) “SANAT KUMARA HAS BEEN RELEASED FROM HIS EXILE OF THE AGES! This decision by the Cosmic Law came as a complete surprise to all but a very few of the Celestial Hierarchy and it was my sweet privilege and honor to be invited to present the scroll announcing his cosmic freedom to him, as he stood wrapped in deep meditation within the flame upon the altar. After its reception, he remained for a long while gazing in profound contemplation at the gift of freedom within his hands, while the expression of joy and gratitude on the faces of the entire multitude, as they were made aware of its contents through my words of presentation, was beautiful to behold.”

The New Lord of the World

“The Lord Gautama Buddha, who has been preparing himself through long ages for this hour, now advanced slowly toward the flame, and Sanat Kumara, from his position within it, removed the crown from his head and placed it gently on the head of the Lord Gautama, who knelt to receive it, with hands reverently crossed upon his breast, in an attitude of humility and grace. Sanat Kumara then stepped forth from the flame and standing by the side of Lord Gautama, blessed and thanked the multitude present, and all life, for his release and expressed the desire to remain in Shamballa, as Regent, until the expiration of the time set by the Cosmic Law for his stay on Earth a few years ago. THE LORD GAUTAMA RULES AS LORD OF THE WORLD from January 1st, 1956.”

The Service of Sanat Kumara

Now, quoting from our beloved Maha Chohan: “The Great Sanat Kumara lived but to LOVE LIFE FREE! He abided for countless centuries of time in the impersonal light of Shamballa, which veiled his countenance from all but the Illumined Ones—the lesser sons of men, seeing nothing but the light of his love. From within this self-concealing light, he answered every heart-call, not by any impelling force of his own great will, but by the soft, effulgence of love and comfort and light. The recipient, with grail upraised, received of the ESSENCE of his very self, but never knew the giver! He lived here on Earth for aeons of time, unknown but by those great enough to pierce through the veil of his selflessness, and yet—WITHOUT HIM—our planet would not be.”

TAKING CARE OF YOUR FOUR LOWER BODIES

An Instruction By The Maha Chohan

Harmony, a Pre-Requisite to Drawing Light

Today we are studying the mechanics that govern the inner bodies. You will see, upon contemplating the notes, how the disintegration of the lower bodies begins to take place from the first uncontrolled thought and feeling that is allowed to break the natural harmony of the vehicles that are provided for the incoming soul.

You are dealing with a great number of individuals who have been lighting dynamite in their living rooms, from the day their eyes opened in the third dimension.

These people when they come into the light, turning their attention to the power of God, begin to draw more light into their bodies. This light would naturally harmonize and repolarize the lower bodies if a measure of self-control was maintained, BUT with the dissonance already so great, to just to call power into the various vibratory actions is to energize the already present discord.

If any individual who enters this activity were to harmonize himself or herself and enter these classes, drawing the power of light through the lower vehicles, he or she could create an immortal body in less than a year.

How to Disconnect Yourself from Discord

There is only one way for mankind to come back to a state of immunity which was symbolized in the Garden of Eden—that is, to consciously draw the light into the four lower bodies, and that light will act similarly to an electric charger, as it flows into each electron, causing it to spin more rapidly in its orbit and gradually accelerating the vibratory rate of the lower bodies, which, if sustained by conscious effort, will bring the lifestream to a state wherein discord and imperfection will no longer register.

The purpose of drawing the light consciously into one's body is to increase the vibratory action of the electrons by an added charge of power, and as each electron spins around the central core of the atom to which it belongs, its increased vibratory action changes the contours of the body and the processes of your thinking and feeling, and when this acceleration has taken place to a certain intensity the slower vibrations of discord, disease and disintegration can no more attach themselves to the set of vehicles attaining his state of acceleration than a turtle could mount a speeding express train.

Thinking Before You Speak, Act and Feel

Before man comes to the place where he may join the Gods, he must master the vibrations of his bodies to a point where they do not create dissonance in their own or another's world.

If you will think before you speak and act and before you feel, it will enable the elements of your bodies to return to their original beauty, harmony and peace, because as soon as the pressure of discord is consciously controlled, the lifestream's natural state begins to establish itself as the Holy Christ Self returns the electrons to their natural orbits, and that is why individuals who have come to the place of mastery and peace attain great beauty and why all your Gods and Goddesses are expressions of divine majesty, divinity, glory and harmony.

Old Age and Disintegration

The appearance of your physical body is determined by the amount of light that is used within the four lower vehicles, the mental, emotional, etheric and physical bodies.

The natural emanation of light through the lower bodies forms the protecting wall referred to in your instructions as the Tube of Light.

When the electrons move more slowly in their particular organs and cells, they draw less light from the Holy Christ Self and the natural resistance of the lifestream grows weaker.

When the race becomes harmonious and the energy released through their bodies is never qualified discordantly, there will be no such thing as old age or disease and the vehicles, when abandoned at the close of that particular phase of life's experience, will be in as perfect a condition as when they were designed by the builders of form.

Growing More Beautiful As You Grow Older

When mankind takes a real interest in the vibratory actions that they allow to pass through their bodies, a state of very great harmony and beauty will be expressed within their lifestreams.

The bodies of the Ascended Masters, the angelic host as well as the cherubic and seraphic guard, are ever growing finer, and more beautiful as the energy pouring through the electrons is ever charged with more light, love and balance. Thus, the Master Jesus, who ascended many centuries ago, is a far more majestic figure today than at that time.

As above, so should it be here below and the lifestream who has attained to maturity should be more beautiful and exquisite in face and form as the years go on, and so shall it be in the days that are to come.

But for an individual with a conscious knowledge of this law, it would be a glorious experience and manifestation if a few of them would choose to experiment with this Law of Harmony and would allow us freedom to create bodies such as have never before been seen on this Earth, since it began.

The Holy Christ Self of each lifestream is as beautiful as the most perfect angelic being that you could conceive of, and the individual Christ Selves will duplicate that beauty through any flesh form who desires it—with a little cooperation and conscious study by the personal self.

I am willing to assist in this experiment with any or all who choose to make the necessary effort at self-control.

The Elohim of Peace, the Master Harmony, the powers of purity and the builders of form will join you in this and it will be a very great privilege for your lifestream to render this service.

Prolonging the Usefulness of Your Bodies

When the battery in your car runs down, it is attached to an equipment provided to recharge it.

The battery of your physical, mental, emotional and etheric bodies is likewise depleted by constant usage and as that battery runs down, the vibratory action of your bodies becomes slower and slower—just as the revolution of the propeller within the car—and finally ceases motion, if the body is what you call “dead.”

When your bodies come to this state (which usually occurs from the early sixties onward), you immediately become a prey to the unseen vibrations that move at a similarly slow rate through the physical plane. These vibrations are sickness, mental disorders and ultimately the condition of disintegration, known to the mortal mind as death.

People say, “the resistance is gone,” which is true, because the amount of light allotted to the four bodies for that embodiment has been spent through excesses of emotional, mental and physical nature.

UNLESS such an individual knows how to recharge the lower bodies by consciously drawing light from the heart of God (just as the battery of the car was recharged), such an individual finally slips into the natural experience of disintegration and passes the change.

In the early Biblical days, men and women lived from seven hundred to a thousand years in one body.

How to Draw Light to Your Bodies

You have learned how essential it is to draw, from the Presence, LIGHT which is the food of the inner bodies and the only means by which their vibratory action can be accelerated.

How do you draw LIGHT? You draw it by the magnetic law of attraction. YOUR ATTENTION IS A FUNNEL. WHERE YOU DIRECT IT, THERE IMMEDIATELY BEGINS TO FLOW THE SUBSTANCE UPON WHICH YOU DIRECTED YOUR ATTENTION INTO YOUR WORLD. THROUGH THIS FUNNEL COMES THE ASCENDED MASTER CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE LIGHT OF GOD that never fails, or the human accumulation of the life stream upon which you fixed the beam of your attention.

In order to intensify or to increase the vibratory action of your lower bodies, YOU HAVE BUT TO PUT YOUR ATTENTION UPON ANY MASTER OR YOUR OWN I AM PRESENCE, and while it is there, you will naturally charge that substance of light as mechanically as the battery of the car is charged by the charger. Even to lie flat on your bed and visualize that LIGHT pouring through the four lower bodies for five minutes three times a day would greatly accelerate the vibratory action of your vehicles.

The more attention put on the LIGHT and the more LIGHT drawn into your vehicles, the more rapidly will they vibrate and the easier for you will it be to hold harmony, because when you vibrate beyond a certain rate, disharmony can no more register upon your flesh or bodies than a bumble bee can sit upon the propeller of one of your airplanes. It then is no longer an effort of will to have self-control, but you are so rapidly vibrating in thought and feeling that the human vibratory action ceases to be.

THE SEVENFOLD NATURE OF MAN

An Instruction by Serapis Bey The Purpose of the Seven Bodies

I would like to explain in detail the sevenfold nature of man, in order that the student may understand more fully the process of re-attuning the entire lifestream into a harmoniously balanced whole.

The seven bodies of man are:

1) The Electronic	5) The Emotional
2) The Causal	6) The Etheric
3) The Holy Christ Self	7) The Physical
4) The Mental

All of these bodies were provided for the use of the consciousness of the individual flame, when working in any one of the seven spheres of manifest form, just as the outer garments are provided for rain, for sunshine, for feast days and for service.

The True Activity of Consciousness

Thus, each lifestream was in constant at-one-ment with the seven realms of manifest form, and when the divine plan so ordered, they might enter consciously into that realm and perform the service of the moment.

Originally, the consciousness was completely free from the seven bodies, functioning in them, but not influenced in any manner, by their independent action any more than a man, in the outer world, is influenced by his clothing.

The free spirit working through the seven bodies was thus a tremendous evolving force, to be used by the seven mighty Elohim in fulfilling the divine plan for the planet Earth.

The Origin of the Doctrine of the Holy Trinity

When the four lower bodies began to assert an independent and separate consciousness and will of their own, the sevenfold nature of man was no longer a divine instrument and the doctrine of the Holy Trinity was brought forth, acknowledging the three higher bodies which remained true to the divine principle.

The Revival of the True Activity of Consciousness

With the predominance of the Seventh Ray and the Master Saint Germain, the sevenfold nature of man will again come forth and the religion of the future will be in the complete balance and expression of the seven.

The Fall From Grace Through Four Avenues

Now, each man, while functioning through the seven bodies, fell from grace, or accepted a consciousness separate and apart from God in a different one of the lower bodies.

Some allowed the desire world to act independently of the Godhead, others allowed independent action through the mental world, some through the physical, and so on.

Therefore, no two lifestreams can be treated alike in bringing the seven bodies back into a state of grace and alignment, for the weakness that caused the first separation of their consciousness does not dwell alike in each lifestream's set of vehicles.

The Lower Bodies as Facets of the God-Self

The lower bodies are merely facets, through which the God-Self may flow, to enrich the seven flames of manifestation, yet the student is constantly influenced in his decision, in his application, in his service to the light, in his personal mannerisms and behavior by the consciousness of these various bodies.

Withdrawing Authority From the Lower Bodies

The student must withdraw ALL authority from the lower bodies and place the authority in the hands of the Holy Trinity of his lifestream, and allow the Electronic Body, the Causal Body, the Holy Christ Self, to be the only directing intelligence of the lifestream.

You can consciously surrender the forces of the four elements of the lower bodies to the Christ Self and then be constantly alert that God, and not these usurping powers, is the only acting presence through your form.

NEED FOR PURITY AND STRENGTH OF LIGHT

An Instruction by El Morya How to Manifest Peace and Ease

Beloved students, greetings. As each one of you call to me, El Morya, to enfold and charge you with my strength and purity of the light, you will manifest peace and ease in your feeling worlds first, and then it shall outpicture in your everyday affairs.

Need for Purity and Strength of the Light

First, to be happy and victorious in your service to life, you each one need both the purity of the light and the strength of the light in far greater abundance than any of you have yet called forth.

These two qualities are mine to bestow upon your lifestreams, without limit, as your desire for these qualities is expressed in your calls for them.

All depression, all lack and limitation, must go when one has enough strength and purity of the light. Please note well, this means that you shall be charged with a wholly balanced activity of these two qualities, which shall act in perfect balance through each one of your seven bodies.

Releasing the Love of Your Presence

Some of you may have had my strength in physical effort, but possibly lacked purity. Some may have had both strength and purity, but lacked these qualities in endurance. All lack, to a marked degree, my balanced strength and purity in the emotional and mental world.

Had you these Ascended Master qualities in these two bodies, there would be no lack of perfect peace and harmony in your feelings at all times.

Had you the sufficient strength and purity in your mental world—no word or thought of anything but the love of your Presence could be released by you to another of life's children anywhere.

Think well on this, my dear ones, and know that I ever stand ready to assist you, as I know your hearts crave that strength and purity of the light to express in love's balanced activity through you, each and every one.

The Necessity and Meaning of Your Call

We are conscious of your slightest effort, and sometimes in the struggle of your world, we feel the longing of your Presence for our help that may not be given except at your call. In this you will see the wisdom of the love of life, for in your call is the giving up or letting go—the surrender—and the struggle is no more.

Achieving Mastery

Dear blessed ones, know that the way ahead lies in fertile, flowered valleys of our peace and love as you will, in all you do, serve life within your own, pure hearts. In this joyous service of the outer to thy inner self is thy full mastery, for remember the words of him who said, "The greatest of these is he who serves."

Today, my precious, blessed ones of life, those of you who serve thine inner self are forging on the eternal records of life such greatness for thy cosmic names, as all in the history of the past have not achieved.

Will you permit my cosmic strength and purity of the light of God that never fails, to assist you to greater heights and glory of thine own Divine Self? I am, in love and gratitude to your streams of life,

El Morya

THE POWER OF RADIATION An Instruction by the Maha Chohan

To fully understand the power of radiation, one must enter the fourth-dimensional activity, where the unseen, but powerful, rays are constantly vibrating from their manifestation of the God-life.

There is no such thing as an inanimate object; there is no place in this universe where there is no motion, no vibration or inertia.

Every electron that forms every atom, visible and invisible, is pulsating, constantly, with the heartbeat of the Father.

Radiation is the vibratory action of those electrons.

Man must let the energy from his bodies go forth to perform their cosmic service, with at least as much accuracy as the singing bird or the unfolding flower.

Every individual belonging to the human race affects mankind, enmass, with the breath that goes forth from him. No one lives unto himself, but THE VIBRATION, LIKE THE BEADS ON ONE STRING, FLOWS THROUGH THE ENTIRE HUMANITY WITHIN THREE SECONDS. The radio, the wireless and the television have proved the transcendence of time and space. Man's thoughts and feelings are being broadcast through the universe by an invisible hook-up, and these thoughts and feelings affect the lives of all the people on the planet, as well as the animal and nature kingdoms. Man, therefore, should endeavor to love more in accord with the principles expressed by Jesus.

One individual with a radiation of peace and harmony can affect the whole human race for good, and the Masters can use such individual as a conductor of their qualities and hand feed, so to speak, the inner bodies of the people.

But the Masters cannot use these individuals unless they are poised and at peace, for the same reason that the medical doctor does not allow a mother to nurse her child if she is subject to fits of anger, depression or distress, because the milk would poison the infant.

THE ASSOCIATION OF MASTER AND CHELA

Excerpts from an Address by Lord Maitreya, the New Buddha

I would speak to you briefly upon the affinity between Master and chela, because in order for the Hierarchy to better serve mankind, the God-free Beings, whenever possible, work with and through the consciousness of the individuals who dwell upon their ray and who have any sensitivity to the Holy Christ Self, and who can be reached, so that that chela becomes master in the world of form, according to his capacity and development.

Our endeavor is to pour as much of ourselves, our nature, our qualities, our gifts and activities into the world of form, as we can. As water will find its way through every channel that is open to it, so does the fully-gathered momentum of every member of the Spiritual Hierarchy flood down through the upreaching consciousness of everyone who offers himself in even the smallest capacity to serve. The further one goes along the pathway of life, the more developed that consciousness becomes, the less impersonal is the association between Master and chela, until finally there comes a conscious partnership, a conscious association and ONENESS, that can scarcely be described to you in this world of form.

In the case of the beloved Master Jesus, such oneness was achieved (with me) because of our practice through many centuries and because of our association at inner levels, and because of his complete surrender of self to my presence. This is not accomplished in a moment—it embodies many hundreds of years of living, but throughout those centuries, closer and closer and closer is the bond of compassion and sympathetic attunement woven, until Master and pupil are almost one.

You have heard what I have said, that when I wished to bless life, Jesus, himself, raised his hand. When I wished to enter cosmic service in Judea, there was my son and so ONE with me that there was no consciousness of two. It was just the Christ in action, and the service was performed. So it will be one day with you! Each of you advancing along your own ray, developing your feelings, until you are attuned to your Master, developing your minds so that you may catch his slightest whisper, until your physical body is held, in reverence and dignity, as the communion cup through which that Master may bless all who are athirst. Then, truly you do become that cup, and the Master, conserving of his vital energies and forces, uses you as himself, in this world of form.

There is a period of growing, a period of developing, a period of maturing, before this association is manifest in full detail. I would bring to you here a point of the Law, which sometimes is not understood by the over-zealous, by the eager and the earnest ones. If you force your spiritual service before you have builded maturity emotionally—your balance mentally—your purification etherically—your endurance physically, you may suffer a setback when you begin the great task of teaching, because of the pressure of energy of your fellowman. When you are anchored and poised and balanced, when you are God-mature, when the Dove of the Holy Spirit has descended, as it did upon Jesus in the Jordan and the hour of your service comes and your Master and you are one—then you may move forward, drawing the attention of the multitudes.

WHAT IS YOUR HARVEST?

Thanksgiving is a cosmic festival and not something that is celebrated only in America, but has been observed for aeons of time by the great Spiritual Hierarchy who have served mankind for so long. These Great Beings have, for countless centuries, gathered at the holy Temple at Shamballa and poured forth their love, praise, gratitude and blessings to every part of life that has assisted them in any way—given even so much as a “cup of cold water” in their name—to bring greater understanding and perfection to the people of Earth. They were given a SEED on New Year’s Day—an idea, or plan, by which they might reach (and teach) more of mankind, and at Thanksgiving they bring the “harvest” of that seed and lay it at the feet of the Lord of the World!

In the Northern Hemisphere of the Earth, in the fall of each year, the wheat, the corn, the hay and various kinds of fruits, vegetables and grains provided for the sustenance of mankind, have come to fruition. The SEED that was planted within the earth many months before, has had the rain beat upon it, the sun shine upon it, the air blow upon it, and by the cooperation of all the elements. It has grown, matured and come to full bloom—and so it is harvested as a blessing to mankind! Just how much genuine heart-felt thanksgiving does mankind, enmass, truly give to nature for this bountiful supply, with which they are blessed as Thanksgiving time draws near each year?

The spiritual teachers of the race bring a harvest each year, nature brings in a harvest each year, but few of mankind realize that they, too, have this same opportunity, and each year THEIR HARVEST IS MEASURED. Each New Year they, too, were given a “seed” of new life and energy from which a harvest is expected, and at Thanksgiving that harvest is viewed by God and the spiritual powers.

To each one who reads this, what have YOU done with the “seed” given to you last New Year? How have you used your life during the past year? Have you sincerely endeavored to bring greater purity, harmony, beauty and perfection to the Earth and thus ensure a bountiful harvest, or are there many weeds of selfishness, unkindness, hardness, irritations and their like in your sheaves? What have YOU done to make the world a better place in which to live?

Have you rendered some kind service to someone who crossed your path—someone who was not of your family or friends? Have you been kind and thoughtful to the birds, to the four-footed creatures who are unable to make a call to God for help? Have you been charitable in withholding criticism of some other part of life, when you do not know the pressures upon that one? Have you so lived during the past year that your harvest is GOOD of every description?

ORDER OF FRIENDS OF MERCY (F.O.M.)

The order of Friends of Mercy is dedicated to help lifestreams over the period of transition, when the soul leaves the flesh body. It is under the direction of the Ascended Master Saint Germain who, under the name of Saint Joseph, is well known as the Patron of a “Happy Death”.

How You Can Serve

Those selfless souls, who wish to help along this very important line of service, thereby receiving in due time, for themselves, the benefit they seek now for others, are requested to devote at least fifteen minutes a day to pray along the following lines:

1st—Call for Mercy’s Flame of Cosmic Forgiveness to sweep through the lifestreams who shall pass through the portals of so-called death during the period of twenty-four hours when the call is made, and during the rest of month and year.

2nd—Call to action the Angels of the Violet Fire, and the Angels of Lord Michael’s Legions with their Swords of Blue Flame, to stand at the side of each soul passing and sweep out the last vestige of human creation.

3rd—Call to action the Angels of Comfort from the legions of our beloved Maha Chohan, to wipe out all fear of so-called death and give comfort to the loved ones who remain.

4th—Call the presence of our beloved Saint Germain and the presence of beloved Maha Chohan, to take the departing one into their arms of light and love, and bring him or her to the Karmic Board to present the harvest of that particular embodiment, and then assign him or her to the appropriate school to accomplish the ascension without the need for another embodiment.

Act Now

Those desirous of rendering this important assistance, greatly required at this time, may apply now for free membership in this order. They will receive, from time to time, a bulletin with appropriate decrees and instructions to better render their service. They may also apply for prayers for their departed ones.

THE BRIDGE

TO FREEDOM

A Monthly Journal Devoted to Individual Unfoldment, Contact with the Great White Brotherhood and Cooperative World Service

DECEMBER 1959

A SPECIAL GRANT TO THE "BRIDGE"

In view of the extraordinary devotion, enthusiasm, cooperation and loyalty of "The Bridge to Freedom" students, and the increase of their number during the past year, a dispensation has been granted to this activity, which is the only one authorized to hold Transmission of the Flame Classes, by which part of the plan that will be presented at the Rocky Mountains Conclave at the end of the year, will be announced in advance. This way all of those who participate in the monthly Transmission of the Flame Classes may be prepared in advance.

Therefore, it is hereby announced that the Ascended Master sponsors for the year 1960 will be the Archangel Zadkiel and his Archaii, the Lady Master Holy Amethyst. The thoughtform for 1960 will be the Royal Purple Shield of Archangel Zadkiel, embossed with the crystal likeness of Holy Amethyst.

The calendar for the Ascended Master retreats to be opened to the worthy chelas, under the direction of Lord Gautama in the year 1960, will appear in the January issue of "The Bridge Journal," but in this issue the gentle reader will find particulars about the first retreat of 1960, which will be the Temple of Purification by Violet Fire of Lord Zadkiel.

We hope that the student body of "The Bridge Activity" will appreciate the importance of this grant, and will receive all the benediction it is meant to impart, enabling them to duplicate, at least in the coming year, all the devotion, cooperation and loyalty of the previous twelve months.

REALIZING THE RESPONSIBILITY OF HOLDING THE CHRIST IN YOURSELF
A Christmas Address by Beloved Mother Mary

Beloved children, the Lord is with you this Christmas Eve, the Lord is everywhere I am, and I am within your beating heart! This night, as this small planet whirls upon her orbit and as the consciousnesses of mankind think kindly upon the angelic host, the celestial choir and the activities preceding and following the first nativity, it is a beautiful sight to see, from this shadow star, so much pure golden light, so much pink flame expanding out into the universe and the galaxy to which it belongs, making the Earth look more like the freedom star it is destined to be, than we, who look at it with the inner sight have seen for many an age and many an era.

The Concept of the Divine Man

I have come close into the atmosphere of Earth this holy season. It is naturally so. You come when you are called, when your name is spoken, when your intercession is asked. You come, even unascended, to those to whom you love to give the assistance, the benediction and the strength of your lifestream, when you are invited so to do.

Through this season, dedicated to the advent of my beloved son upon this sorrowing planet, the door is open for me, also, and I come close to the children of Earth, the children of my bosom, the children of my heart. While I have proximity to their consciousness, while they are thinking upon me and while their words rise in prayer and song, I endeavor to convey, with clarity and strong pressure, the immaculate concept, which I hold for each such a one, for each of you, and every soul upon this planet.

For everyone released from the compound, every sleeper, I hold the concept of the divine man or woman with flaming heart, majestic Presence, infinite power, co-creators with the Father of all—that concept which I held for one dear being long ago, and which did manifest against all the vicissitudes of fate, manifested in a man of strength and vital fire, through whom the miracle-working energies of healing flowed freely and who mastered even so-called death. That same immaculate concept, which I hold for you, must yield to me the same mastery and dignity and maturity through the souls in which you yet find yourselves bound. I SHALL LOVE YOU FREE, I SHALL LOVE YOU FREE, I SHALL LOVE YOU FREE, for you are my children, and all of this evolution, all of the souls that are the distorted outer selves of man, shall one day be transfigured and transmuted to make the sons and daughters of freedom's star a manifest expression upon this world!

The Word is Made Flesh

Beloved ones, it was said long ago that "The word was made flesh" and dwelt among the peoples of Earth. Is that not true with every embodiment that takes place? As every individual takes embodiment, is not the capacity and power of the creative word "I AM" made flesh and through that one given an opportunity to express the Christ estate? So every day upon this planet Earth, where an infant cries, where a mother is delivered and a child is born, the great "I AM" is again made flesh, and when that infant reaches the point where the Holy Christ Self can control the vehicles of the vocal passage and identify himself, he will use that "Word made flesh" and recognize himself as that "I AM!" Sad it is, indeed, that from that first initial recognition, he so soon is drawn by the shadows that surround him into limitation and distresses in the homes and families where he must take habitation.

Individuals who are to become parents do not understand ANYTHING of what they might do to cooperate with the body elemental and the builders of form, in the creation of an instrument of great perfection through which the lifestream functioning could serve. If, particularly the women of the race could come to an understanding of their part in the actual forming of the nature of the child they hold, we could redeem this race so much more rapidly—but for the most part they allow nature and the builders of form, and the body elemental, to continue the miraculous and marvelous process of the creation of this physical instrument and marvel for a moment at the miracle of birth!

Beloved ones, I know of what I speak, having passed through an experience and an initiation which very few women upon this Earth have ever been forced to pass! Have you thought of the flawless lifestream of the Master Jesus, of the beauty of the emotional world, so filled with love and light, that he was chosen to be a representative to mankind of the Father of the entire system—an emotional body as delicate, as gentle as a dove, and yet as strong in its mighty faith as was required, a mental body so alert and receptive to the direction of the God-Self and the Presence, a delicate etheric garment magnificent, without blemish, without one scar or one stain—that is the being who I looked upon before I even asked for opportunity to prepare a physical garment FITTING for the habitation of such a spirit.

The Preparation of the Expectant Mother

Think you, you who have been given a test of a day, or seven, to maintain happiness or peace, think you what it would be if you were to remain nine full months and not allow one ripple of energy that passed through your emotions, your mind, your memory, your words or your actions that would make the slightest stigmata upon the coming Avatar! When the great beings ask you to try to hold an emotional stability or a mental buoyancy, an etheric resurrection of your good, you are not asked within yourself the responsibility of performing the great service of fashioning a physical vehicle as fine as the most magnificent carved ivory, as delicate as a rose petal, and yet as strong as steel!

Beloved ones, that service that I rendered helps me to know what the women of the race could do, were they, the moment that they knew they were with child, to endeavor to hold themselves emotionally at peace, tuning into my vibratory action or that of beloved Kwan Yin, keeping their minds upon clean and pure and beautiful thoughts, washing their memories of the impurities of the past, and keep their physical bodies as temples of the Most High Living God!

It is my dream and my prayer, and that of Kwan Yin, that a day shall come when every mother will kneel as I did, before Gabriel, and consecrate all of the energies of the lifestream to preparing the most perfect vehicle for the incoming soul—when every mother may say, “Behold the handmaiden of the Lord,” when there may be no mother in shame, in fear, distress, no mother, who through arrogance or vanity wishes to destroy the symmetry of her form, and none that would wish to destroy the life in her body. THIS MUST COME ON THE EARTH, beloved ones, for I, who does work in the Sacred Heart Temple, have looked upon the lifestreams that wait embodiment. That elemental substance which is the soul’s heritage I have endeavored to purify.

Answering Your Prayers

Beloved children of the one God, there are many prayers going up to me from sick beds, from death beds, from birth beds—there are prayers and there are masses and there are calls, and all of that is gathered by the great Silent Watchers of the various continents and it has formed a magnificent radiation into the higher atmosphere, over which we are returning the benediction and the blessing of the light, into the hearts of the student body and that of all mankind.

I remind you again, as I did long ago, you are the Diamond Heart, fashioned from my own hands, with my own heart's love—each cell, each lifestream polished and brought to its fullest luster and through this Diamond Heart may the currents of healing, the currents of peace and the currents of purity, the currents and radiation of healing and light flow to mankind through the world.

On this Christmas Eve, the entire planet is receiving that benediction, that blessing, that outpouring, as the first Holy Christ Mass is commemorated. Some of you have been thinking on that and I have, of course, myself today, for we are individuals like unto you. We have memories, too, but out of them have been taken all of the barbs and all of the sadness and all of the bitterness and only the sweetness and the perfume remains, and when we recount our tales, as sometimes we do, we have individuals who say they are only supposed to remember the happy things—how then do they bring to mind those things that were of travail?

Use of Those Having Human Frailties

Beloved ones, it was Lord Maitreya, in his great mercy, seeing the earnestness of your hearts, seeing the strong measure of your own soul's worth, and seeing your feelings of incapability doing these works, it was he, in person, who said, "Show them that you, too, knew joy and sorrow, uncertainty, and in showing them, perhaps they will have new courage, that just because they have frailties this does not mean that we cannot use them in cosmic ways."

I have thought back, today, to the times of the first Christmas and some of you wondered why I made that journey from Nazareth into Bethlehem, some of you wondered why Joseph, himself, could not have accomplished it and I, myself, in that time had certain thoughts about the wisdom of taking such a precious child upon a long and weary way, and yet the records and the prophecies had said, that in Bethlehem should be born the Beloved One, and so I was willing, even against reason, to go as we discussed its pros and cons. Joseph, too, said the season is inclement and perhaps the place is not as important as the perfection of the form and the protection of you both. I said, too, "Yet in reason's name, perhaps it should be so." But then, again, within me there rose that same tremendous impulse that I always felt was the approach of the angelic host, and I said, "No, I shall make this journey with you." So we went. The story you well know, and the manifestation of our beloved Jesus and his victory in the light.

My Luminous Presence Is With You

As you come to your midnight hour, and as we come to the climax of our outpouring of the Christmas Season, I will be, through my Luminous Presence, in every church, on every altar, in every home where my presence is thought of, or my son's name or birthday is kept.

Thank you for the opportunity of entering into your worlds, and thank you for patience in listening to just another woman who wants to see the world free, all of it, just as I saw Jesus on Bethany's Hill transfigured, triumphant and I knew for him there was no more sorrow. One day shall I know for the last man or woman from the compound, and then my service as Cosmic Mother of a sad planet will probably be completed, but I wonder even then if ever I shall let you go!

Thank you and a holy, holy Christmas and a magnificent God-victorious New Year! When you find your inner bodies difficult to master, think about what would you do if you were carrying a CHRIST WITHIN you and one wrong emotion or thought would necessitate the builders of form to abandon that embryo. The timing, the cosmic second, would be set off, while another mother was found! There was no time for a re-conception—and what do YOU hold in your hearts? THE SAME CHRIST! Do you hold your responsibility as I did? Let me help you! That is my reason for being.

USING THE POWERS OF YOUR CAUSAL BODY NOW

An Address by Beloved Jesus

Beloved friends, I bring to you, today the truth, which is the gift and momentum of my Causal Body, established through the voluntary qualification of my life, over a period of many, many centuries previous to that, in which I gained the victory of the ascension. Oh, children of God, if you could see the treasures you are laying up in the glory of your Causal Body through this lifetime, of magnificent, constant, loyal, dedicated and enthusiastic service, how grateful you would be that you have chosen the wiser course, and that in which you have invested the life of God shall remain for you ever a cosmic battery, on which you may draw and which you may direct to any part of any universe or any star, to give assistance as you desire.

Making a Wise Choice

When we stand in the fuller freedom in the inner realms and see the waste of life, and then we are privileged to witness over a period of years, the consciously gathered, individual and collective, momentums of consecrated lifestreams, our hearts are filled with eternal gratitude, that some among the sons and daughters of men are choosing wisely, and building for themselves the instruments of the cosmos, for the length of each ray of light that proceeds from your Causal Body will be determined by the fully-gathered momentum of the battery of energy within that Causal Body, and if you are, in time, called upon to work in a galaxy other than your own, and your battery of energy should not have that full momentum, your ray would fall short of its goal.

Ah, children of light and of life, I, who have been summoned among others to render service upon many planes of consciousness and in many universes, have seen those, even the God-free, whose Causal Body did not reach to the periphery of the sphere of service which they wished to render—and that is a cause for spiritual remorse, indeed.

Use Your Causal Bodies

Your Causal Bodies are blazing with qualified momentums, carrying the colors of the qualities which you have builded into those Causal Bodies through year after year of study, contemplation, invocation, and mighty decrees. Oh, if you could see them, like beautiful, radiant, many-colored suns, standing around your own Electronic Presence! They will be yours for eternity! And some day when you address a system of worlds, you can say as I, today, “I bring to you the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of my faith, of my love, of my beauty, of my healing, and of my peace!” And all that you have gathered even in individual application in the wee small hours of the night, all that will be rushing like a great river when the sluice and the dam is opened and forced to the object to which you have directed it.

We are now coming into an understanding of your individual capacities to reach deep into your Causal Bodies, each one, and avail yourselves of the momentums of the power that is gathered there. Charge those powers from your Causal Bodies into those Tubes of Light! Charge those momentums of your Causal Bodies through the blazing light rays into conditions and into lifestreams that need assistance. That is already yours! It is as much a part of you as an account you hold in a bank and far more eternal. Pity it is that so many magnificent, gifted, spiritual lifestreams allow the might of their Causal Body to lie quiescent until they enter into the victory of their own ascension, when they could be using it long before, although still in garments seemingly limited and moving among men.

YOUR ASSIGNMENT FOR DECEMBER 1959
(Transmission of the Flame Class of December 19, 1959)

Dear Children of Freedom,

December, as old students know, brings the yearly period of cosmic cleansing, of purifying all the energy wrongly qualified—without malice or evil intent—during the previous twelve months, so that mankind and the elemental kingdom may enter into the vibrations of the New Year with a clean slate, so to speak. The angelic host and other Cosmic Beings, as well as the Ascended Masters and their chelas, take an active part in this world and cosmic purification by the use of the Violet Fire of Mercy.

This action of the Cosmic Law of Mercy will be more intensified in this month this year, because, as the poet says, “Coming events cast their shadows before.” The coming event to which I refer is that the Temple of Purification by Violet Fire will be open on January 15th, 1960, and several weeks before, its purifying flame will be felt by mankind and the elemental kingdom, as well as by all sentient beings.

The question is, how is the student going to cooperate in this annual service of mercy? There are several ways. The student must wish, above everything else, the freedom and purity of all imprisoned life, he must invoke, daily, the purifying Violet Flame through his lower bodies and through all mankind, he must call daily the angelic legions of Archangel Zadkiel, to go into every nook and corner and purify life everywhere, and especially the student must forgive and forget all grievances and get ready to start the New Year as if he were stepping into a new life.

Dear children of freedom, this is your assignment in this thirty-day period, an assignment of purification, to enable you to precipitate from your Causal Body all the good you require at this time, with the use of the Chinese Green Precipitation Flame of my beloved Lord Confucius’ temple.

May this Christmas bring to you a sustained feeling of freedom and the coming year be your year of illumination.

Love and blessings,

Maha Chohan

THE PURPOSE OF THE TETON CONCLAVE

At the Rocky Mountain Retreat, the entire Spiritual Hierarchy and all awakened lifestreams on the planet Earth are in attendance. For twelve nights and days, these meetings continue in orderly sequence, and different studies and ideas are brought up before the members of the conclave, with a view to seek out the greatest possible assistance to the humanity of Earth in our endeavor to mould the appearance world into a replica of the divine plan.

There is presented the divine plan on the cosmic screen, and then there is presented the present appearance, in which various lifestreams are shown who are the "key" figures to be considered. Some of these lifestreams, fortunately, are members of the conclave, either consciously or unconsciously, and when this is the case, the progress and adjustments of the world picture are much easier to handle. In other cases, the world picture is held by the dominant will-power of human beings, which cannot be interfered with beyond a certain point. In these cases, Ascended Beings and unascended beings volunteer to enter into that particular world picture, with a view of throwing the weight and strength of their consciousness into it, in order to neutralize and balance the emanations from the lifestreams who are holding a picture that is not in accord with the divine plan.

The Plans For the Year

The plans for the year, relative to the Earth, are presented at the gathering at the Rocky Mountain Retreat and delegated to the brothers and sisters who form the natural channel for their expression. Then, from the awakened mankind, volunteers are chosen to form the contact with the world of form and matter.

Progress and Unfoldment of Activities

During the great conclave at the Rocky Mountains Retreat, there is a period dedicated entirely to the progress and unfoldment of the system, by which the young people are to be raised above the heritage of their human nature. As each succeeding avenue of service is presented to the conclave, the Masters in charge of that particular service become the officiating members and the Brotherhood and assembled guests pour their force into it, according to the requirements of the hour.

As the present growth and conditions are shown upon the cosmic screen, there are chosen, from the assembled guests, lifestreams who can and do offer to render service and assistance in the fitting of one or more parts of the great scheme into the present appearance, thereby changing its quality and nature until it coincides with the spiritual plan of the Hierarchy as presented by the presiding Master. Conscious chelas, like yourselves, are given a very important role in the establishment of fundamental vibration, which will form the pattern for new ages yet unborn.

The Presence of the Shepherds

At the retreat, one of the most beautiful ceremonies represents the presence of the shepherds, who have been given the responsibility of guarding and guiding souls through the preceding year. Each such spiritual shepherd receives great honor from the Brotherhood, for these spiritual teachers are the voice, the heart and mind of the Brotherhood before men.

This cosmic presentation passes before the assembled Brotherhood, the great Sanat Kumara, the beloved Lord Gautama, the Lord Maitreya, the Great Divine Director, and myself.

In the aura of the shepherd, or teacher, is the etheric record of the progress and unfoldment of each soul entrusted to his care. As the light of heaven blazes upon the aura, the progress of the entire group is revealed in a flash, both individually and collectively, and the assembled Masters are then able to pour their spiritual force into whatever preparations and capacities are required to help both the teacher and the student toward a greater unity and enlightenment for the coming year.

Responsibility of the Members

Once you have taken your place as a member of these councils, your responsibility becomes far greater than that of the masses who are benefited by these conclaves but have not yet any part in the privilege of working for the fulfillment of the divine plan, in cooperation with the Brotherhood.

Decree

In the name of the Presence of God, which I AM, I call to you, beloved Lord Gautama and beloved Lord Confucius, to allow me to be a conscious co-worker of the divine plan, as delineated at the conclave of the Rocky Mountains Retreat, and I request all your assistance to become a conscious member of the conclave, so that I may be consciously present at the next meeting, and bring back the memory of everything needed for the successful execution of my share of the plan. I thank thee, because I know this is ALREADY ATTAINED!

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

A Christmas Message of Charity by the Cosmic Being Charity

At this sacred season, let us draw the quality of charity into us, the capacity not to pass judgment in the feeling world, not to criticize, not to condemn, not to find the error within the lifestreams with whom you are associated, but rather, to find the warm light of the spirit, that through that soul, is endeavoring to sublimate the outer nature and bring it again into perfection.

How much do you really know about the hopes, the aspirations, the dreams of the people with whom you are associated? How much do you know about the silent struggles and endeavors to overcome, which are hidden behind a mask of serenity at times, and sometimes passes through that mask and lines the face and dulls the eyes and makes the body heavy? How much real heart interest have you been able to generate within the great sea of the feeling world, in the souls of those who are within your homes, that form the body of your immediate family?

Trite has become the expression, “Charity begins at home,” yet I say to you, your home life and your religious group life is the place where every good virtue, every good feeling and every good thought should begin. Your home life and your group life form the retreat in which, in former ages, you would have engaged upon the task of controlling of energy, until your energies could blanket, transmute and sublimate the vibratory action of energy consciously directed at you to test your strength.

Many times, students on the path, live within homes where there are yet lifestreams engaged in the pursuit of happiness according to the prompting of the senses. So many times the emotional bodies of such sincere students radiate out a certain intolerance, a certain “holier than thou” radiation, which cannot be used to melt away the vibratory actions of distress in souls less strong than the individual on the path and who are gathered around such one for the specific purpose, not only of developing love within the student, but lighting, through the student’s heart, the souls of the weaker ones who have the contact with the Holy Christ Self and the Masters only through that student within the home. Would it be mercy and the wisdom of the law to place all the strong together and leave all the weak together? No! The love and mercy of God is such that one with great light becomes the radiation of the Master’s love, to generate a feeling of hope within the heart of all connected with that one, in home and business.

Love Comes Before Faith And Hope

It has been said of the qualities of faith and hope that the radiation of charity is greatest. This has perhaps not been understood. It is an activity of consecutive radiation, which flows through this triple action. An individual who wishes to bring faith and hope to a soul, must first give that soul real interested divine love, and there is no soul, no matter how dark its clothing, no matter how rebellious its nature—no matter how cynical its mind, no matter how disillusioned—who will not respond to the radiation of honest-to-goodness charity and love. This love stirs that soul to a point where it can accept hope of redemption, and generate again a feeling of faith in the power of God and all his kingdom.

Step Down Love Once A Day

Into the great sea of emotional energy where there seethes so many causes of distress through the ages, I can pass the substance of the Pink Flame and melt away the accumulation of discord. When your emotional body, your mental body and etheric body are actually filled with the essence of love, the pressure of that combined energy will act through the flesh in a practical manner, to make of love something that gives comfort to the life that is around you. Beloved ones, step down divine love consciously once a day—step it down into the sphere in which you are active, whether it is in your department stores, your office buildings, whether it is in your home life or your group activity, connect with that Flame of Love which is mine.

Promptings from God are always balanced, are always clothed with wisdom, they are always something that is a specific blessing to the race and will not cause hardship to some other part of life by reason of you playing the bountiful one.

Feel No Evil, Speak No Evil, Hear No Evil

Many members of the human race, who employ the name of Charity, only do so to soothe the conscience—a written check, a gift at the Holy Season, something that leaves the conscience free to play again with the activities of the senses through the year. But they are not the ones who radiate charity.

At this Christmas Season, are you willing to try to live in that consciousness—"To feel no evil, to think no evil, to remember no evil, to speak no evil, to hear no evil, to see no evil?" Count them off to yourselves at the close of a day! Check up and then, bringing the vibratory action of your various bodies into alignment, let your Christmas gift to God and man be a conscious remaining with the powers of your own God-self, and remember, charity begins at home! Do not be so busy with your own thoughts and feelings that you have no time to feel the soul need of your fellowman. Learn to be still enough to hear a heart-call and be in enough state of grace, that your life flowing forth may be an encouragement to some soul that is brought to you who needs a blessing.

FOUR STEPS OF PROGRESS

In this second seven-year cycle of “The Bridge to Freedom Activity,” four important steps of progress have been made, to be followed by others. The first one was the re-organization that took place in July 1958, which was not the result of the sinister force, separating individuals, as some good people believe or want others to believe. It was the action of the separation of the tares from the seed.

The second step of progress was the dispensation, by which a vast amount of unpublished Ascended Master instruction has been freely given during the past year to the student body through the columns of “The Bridge to Freedom Journal,” which has received the appreciation of the student body, expressed through innumerable letters. This dispensation will continue during this year.

The third step of progress is that under the direction of beloved Serapis Bey, the new format of “Hope Magazine” emerges from its initial stages, and becomes in reality, a stepping stone to deeper esoteric philosophy, contained in “The Bridge to Freedom Journal,” by the explanation of the laws that govern health, opulence, peace and enlightenment.

The fourth step of progress—perhaps the most important—that has taken place, has been the removal of the Mother House of our beloved Maha Chohan, and the headquarters of “The Bridge to Freedom Activity,” under his personal direction, from Flourtown, Pennsylvania, to the vicinity of Charlottesville, Virginia, in the proximity of the Blue Ridge Mountains, over which there is the Etheric Temple of the beloved Archangel Chamuel from Atlantean days.

We are therefore in the process of the vitalization and expansion of "The Bridge to Freedom Activity." This is resulting in the widening of the bridge from the Spiritual Hierarchy to mankind.

BECOMING AN ACOLYTE OF THE VIOLET FIRE
Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class

Dear Children Who Wish to Expand the Violet Fire,

January is the month to make new resolutions. May I ask you to make at least one? Resolve to become specialists in the science and art of invocation, and in the use of the Violet Fire of Mercy, to purify your bodies, your homes, and your offices. Expand the Violet flame, and project it into every discordant condition in every part of the world, through the four elements and into the elemental kingdom.

1960 is going to be a year of cleansing in preparation for what is coming in the year 1961. Lord Zadkiel will be at the helm, as you know, with his legions of Angels of the Violet Fire, but he needs you. This is the reason why he is to establish in this year, the Order of Acolytes of the Violet Fire. Everyone who makes the resolution I have begged you to make, and keeps it, is a candidate to join this Order, and as such you will be taken in hand, given instruction, while your body sleeps, and used by the Ascended Host in your environment or anywhere in the world, as the need arises.

On the foreheads of those who are in earnest will be placed a replica of the Thoughtform of the Year, that is, the Royal Purple shield of Archangel Zadkiel, embossed with the crystal likeness of his Archaii Holy Amethyst.

The first requisite in qualifying for membership in this Order is to attend each night in consciousness, the etheric Temple of Purification over the Island of Cuba, which will be open between January 15th and February 14th, 1960. Lord Zadkiel, Holy Amethyst and my humble self will be waiting for you every night at the temple.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

KEEPING HEALTHY AND YOUTHFUL
An Address by the beloved Archangel Zadkiel

Hail, spirits of God, walking the ways of Earth in your magnificent vow to resurrect and resuscitate the God-good inherent in all the life that is, and in all humankind that presently suffer from temporary distresses. As a priest in the art of invocation, it is always my joy, privilege and honor to explain, in the simplest terms possible, that that power of invocation is alive within every human being who has thinking capacity, a feeling nature, and the power to draw and magnetize the blessings from God's highest heaven into this Earth, which is temporarily distorted by shadows of one description or another.

Thus, as the priests and priestesses of the Order of Zadkiel walk again upon the planet Earth, we shall more quickly bring into manifestation the permanent Golden Age of our beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, so that all on Earth may enjoy its beauty.

Your Opportunity Now

Beloved ones, on every planet up to the octaves of light, there are the great stratas composed of all the misuse of life energy, consciously or unconsciously charged with discord. At the end of an age and an era, these tremendous tides flow into and manifest through weak individuals who have appetites or sympathy of vibration to such discordant expression. That is why the statement is made, "It is always darkest before the dawn." This is true in the dawn of a world cycle, as well as in the course of your own twenty-four-hour period, through your personal trials, temptations, overcoming and the victory.

Now we have opportunity, you and I, to call for the removal of these concentrated intelligent beams of energy before they can longer find externalization through any member of the human race given the privilege of embodiment here for one purpose, and one purpose only—to bring forth more of God's divine plan and not desecrate the Earth with war plans and bombs and every kind of destructive and nefarious activity. One vested priest or priestess of the Order of Zadkiel, so invoking the powers of light into, through and around such conditions—audibly if alone, silently if in company—will bring all of the host of heaven and primarily, the beings on the Seventh Ray, into the atmosphere to remove those conditions and replace them by the perfection of the higher realms.

It is not enough, beloved ones, to look to a heaven in the “sweet bye and bye,” or to adore even our beloved Jesus’ victory apart from your own expression of victory here, where you now dwell. It is the requirement of the hour to draw forth that glory and perfection which the risen Christ manifested, as an example to all generations that have succeeded him, and to exude the radiation of the kingdom of heaven, which was the hem of his garment.

The “Hem Of Your Garment” Explained

What is “the hem of your garment?” It is the periphery of your emotional vehicle, beloved ones, each vehicle fitting inside of the other, your physical vehicle interpenetrating your etheric, the etheric then by the mental, and then the emotional vehicle through which your life flows—that is the hem of your garment!

Are all those who touch it healed of distress, given comfort and peace, resuscitated and renewed in mind and body, in consciousness? If that is so, blessed be your light! If you are yet to reanimate that spiritual garment, blessed be your desire, unselfish, motivated by the request to help the God that made you. Those of us who serve with you will bring into, through and around you more and more of the glory and perfection of God’s kingdom.

Bringing Music Into Your Activities

The divine music and harmony of the angels, the seraphim and cherubim as they swing through space upon their appointed tasks, that music shall be the heritage of the Earth and her peoples when the very Earth herself, moving on a straightened axis, emits the hymns of praise and gratitude to God for life and all that is upon the Earth, when every human being is becomes cognizant of the magnificent gifts of life on the Earth, in the water element, the air element and the fire element, all who have been willing servants to the human race, through aeons of time.

One of those activities, which brings music into your endeavors, auras and Tubes of Light, is gratitude to God, gratitude to your fellowman, gratitude to nature, gratitude to all that is! It raises the vibratory action of your inner vehicles and it is a health measure even to your flesh garments—gratitude to your heart and the organs that make up your vehicles, gratitude to your hands and feet, your eyes and ears—ALL of them serving you throughout the course of an embodiment, giving to you the flexibility and mobility of their ultimate potential expression.

Healing Yourself and Others

Those of you of more mature years can be grateful for the young, for they are yet thoughtless, enjoying the pleasures and the freedom of today, although not the wisdom that comes with tomorrow. It is one of our petitions and fiats to the Law that the young in mind and body learn gratitude for the gift of life and utilize the best years in the establishment of God's kingdom on Earth, not waiting until is mostly spent and hoping then to enter the gates of the eternal freedom by a few years of atonement. Then, when the vehicles begin to expire from use, there is so often seen, among the most sincere and worthy of chelas, a sense of impatience with whatever organ, cell or part of the vehicle that has functioned sometimes for eighty years, because it does not function as it did at eighteen!

Instead of impatience, pour the living fire of gratitude to those organs and cells, to your eyes and ears and hands and feet, to every cell and atom that has served you in this life—within that feeling is healing! Be grateful, blessed ones, grateful for the use of life and grateful for all of that life which serves. Thus, you resuscitate yourselves! Thus you can resuscitate others, hundreds and thousands of individuals in homes and institutions of every kind and description, who have no one to whom they can confide their fears of the “unknown,” and instead of the gratitude which is a magnificent radiation of love divine, there is rebellion, resentment and fear and hate pouring out from those places.

You do not have to enter homes, asylums and hospitals physically. You could not, if you took a pilgrimage of a whole Earth life, enter all, but you can call to the God of love, to the beloved Jesus and his Holy Mother, to me, to direct right into the very heart center of every such place of incarceration that flame and feeling of gratitude, anchoring it there and letting it be a buoyant feeling, and what happens? The dark grey and black effluvia is replaced by the pink, the rose, the violet and the purple light which is upliftment, not only to those individuals, but to those who serve them. This is ONE of the activities that in five minutes a day, you can render to imprisoned life!

Using the Violet Fire Through Every Prison

How about your great stockyards where there is so much fear and death, where elemental life is filled with rebellion, natural in such sudden demise? Focus the energies of the Violet Fire there and feel it acting in, through and around all those who are taken there, all those who are responsible for the activity of the preparation of food, and following the instruction you were given to charge the water, CHARGE AND CHARGE AND CHARGE EVERY ELEMENT THAT ENTERS INTO YOUR PHYSICAL BODIES with the most powerful activity of GRATITUDE FOR LIFE, the resurrection of the divine pattern and plan for your life and for all life and let it act for you. This it will do!

You have not seen the continental surface of your entire Earth globe and what has been there that requires the activity of transmutation for the relief of the peoples who live there at present and who are to live there in the future. Establish that activity of the purifying agent of the Violet Fire through every prison, gallows, electric chair, all means presently employed to render an accounting to society, as well as those unhappy individuals who, for money, accept positions that cause the removal of human beings from this Earth by artificial means and before their time.

No Interference with Human Life Permissible

The God who has created each and every one of you had a time for your birth and has a time for your release, and there is no unascended human being that can interfere with that without having a tremendous karma recorded in his own world. We are endeavoring to remove that cause and core of the record and memory of it from each such a one.

Every parent who has not allowed, through the gates of birth, a new soul to enter into embodiment, for any selfish reason, must meet the Karmic Board and meet that soul, too, and make things right! Every illegal practitioner who has contributed to this practice has also a debt of karma which must be paid, but we pay a great deal of that for them, for each and every one, through the use of our presence in the atmosphere of Earth, and we are coming into your presence whenever you choose to have us abide with you.

I move forward into the affairs of men, into the worlds of each of you, and with me come all of the angelic kingdom, until His crowned head and magnificent robes are visible to the physical sight of all mankind, and all shall truly bend the knee in gratitude to their cosmic king.

A holy and blessed and sanctified year be yours!

DISTINGUISHING THE TRUE TEACHER FROM THE FALSE
An Address by the Ascended Master Jesus

Individuals, from time to time, are of the opinion that there is no need for a mediator, or bridge, to connect the God-self with the outer intellect. These people are honestly and firmly convinced that as the God Presence I AM is connected through the Holy Christ Self with the heart of every lifestream, outside means of communication and spiritual guidance are unnecessary. To these people I address the following, having been a mediator and having served the Hierarchy to carry the word of God to the ignorant masses:

The Purpose of a Mediator

The purpose of a mediator is to convey the truth from the heart of God to the outer minds of individuals who have lost their personal and direct contact with their own divinity. When this purpose has been accomplished, no mediation or transmission of consciousness is required, but until this point is reached, the outer mind of men, unable to rise to the inspiration of their own Higher Selves, are benighted. Through the mercy of God, they are given enlightenment by those who have attained a degree of evolution so that they may climb the mount of attainment, assimilate the truth and carry the knowledge of that truth back to the pilgrims on the path. The wise pilgrims will avail themselves of the cup thus offered and in so doing their climb up the Mount of Attainment will be less arduous.

Every lifestream on the planet has had direct communication with the God-Presence from the time individuality first took place. Over every lifestream on the planet hovers a Silent Watcher, and yet, without a mediator or spiritual guide in flesh form, these individuals are unable to receive direct guidance from their own God-Presence I AM.

God, in his mercy, has thus provided spiritual counsel—a step down through physical bodies highly developed, as mediators of this counsel—which turns the outer self towards truth.

The True Mediator

Many false mediators have come, but you can always test their reality in this manner: If their teaching turns the outer self toward the individual's own God-Self I AM, that mediator comes from God. If such a teacher makes the individual dependent upon his or her personal identity and keeps the aspirant looking to him or her for instruction and guidance, rather than his own Divine Source, then such a one is not a true mediator.

Humanity is like a great group of people on one shore of a wide river, where there is neither food, nor drink nor sunshine. On the other side of the river is a land flowing with milk and honey. Humanity is unable to cross the river into this land of plenty except through by means of a bridge! Those who are wise walk on the bridge into the rich and fertile land and receive of its bountiful nourishment and carry it back to their less alert brethren, who refuse to enter the rich land by means of a “bridge,” preferring to remain in privation, until they can cross the river under their own motivation.

A bridge is required until the spirit has developed, through repeated crossings to the other shore, where all truth is attained.

The “Bridge” Is Required

Levitation is of the spirit as well as of the body. When spiritual levitation is developed, each individual can plunge into the heart of his own God-Presence and bring forth the fullness of truth, but the mass of mankind will never develop those spiritual powers until they use the medium of the “bridge” to carry them into the realm of truth, where they may sit humbly at the feet of the Master and acquire the ways and means by which their own spiritual perception is developed.

A man who is starving is wise to walk across the “Bridge” to the land where his supply and food and clothing and sunshine are easily attained, not condemning the “plank” of the bridge, but availing himself of the mercies that such a span affords.

SELF-MASTERY

An Address by the Maha Chohan How to Change Your Consciousness

To treat a lifestream with a view to a permanent unfoldment of his spiritual nature, we must change the consciousness of that individual. Every thought and feeling the student entertains, even for a fraction of a second, becomes part of his consciousness and will form the environment in which he must dwell. Therefore, the student must start to cleanse the consciousness of impurity and imperfection.

Man's pure consciousness is polluted constantly, by every appearance that he accepts and allows to enter his world consciously or unconsciously. These appearances, dwelling within him, form the cause that reflects on the screen of his life, and will continue to remain there until such an individual chooses to cleanse his inner world by the use of the sacred fire, and replace these tramp thoughts and feelings by consciously generated and carefully chosen constructive thought and feeling images, which will, by the very Law of Life, manifest in the appearance world as perfection.

Rooting out Fear and Doubt

Whatever is most frightening to your inner nature attracts a host of malefic forms, which present themselves to your inner vision with the firm conviction that your energy being thrown at them will give them almost immortal life. To root out fear and doubt is to render these creatures harmless and thus stripped of the sustaining power of energy, which keeps them alive, and they will disintegrate into their native nothingness.

On the other hand, the best idea in the universe never became a manifestation until some unascended being took the energy of his own lifestream and voluntarily clothed that idea with the substance of the physical world, and thus gave it form and outline.

Never Picturize Imperfection

One of the rules of the Great White Brotherhood is never to picturize an individual imperfectly. Every lifestream is endowed with the birthright of perfection. When any individual recognizes imperfection in any other lifestream in the universe, he is dishonoring the will of the Father, who created man in his image and likeness.

Remember that when you recognize imperfection in any individual, you are disobeying the Father, himself, who created man in his image and likeness and who sees him always as that perfection.

For any student to energize thoughtforms of imperfection is a SIN, and for any student to give these thoughtforms the substance of their own lifestream, whereby they might take physical incarnation, is a responsibility, which such a one must face before the Cosmic Law. The only activity that any conscious student of the light should be engaged in is to create forms for expressions of beauty and perfection.

Bringing Forth a Manifestation

Every physical object in this universe was preceded by an idea in the mind of man or in the mind of God. These ideas are the cause that lies behind every manifestation—from a stone to a star.

Every manifestation in your own life was first presented to you, or to someone in your environment, as a mental concept or thoughtform. This proves the power of thought in moulding the very environment in which a man lives.

As there are many more divine ideas than there are receptive spirits to receive them, we are always eagerly looking for lifestreams to whom we may give the inventions, which they can translate into practical physical objects, which will interpret the will of the Divine Mind for the blessings of this universe.

The Intuitional Faculties

The student should constantly strive for the unfoldment of his intuitional faculties. When we can achieve the unfoldment of the intuitional faculties of the student to a point where he or she does cooperate with the divine plan, we have a more pliable vessel, which can be used on a moment's notice, when it is not always possible to contact the soul through the medium of the intellect.

Detachment from the Mass-Consciousness

The mental and feeling worlds of mankind are one. An individual who aspires toward spiritual illumination and freedom must detach himself from the mass thoughts and emotions of the people, by withdrawing the magnetic pull of the essence from the appearance world, and as those senses are focused on the quality of the spirit, the spirit responds in drawing such a lifestream into a oneness with the Ascended Masters' kingdom.

ASK TO BE CONSTANTLY ENFOLDED IN OUR LUMINOUS PRESENCE. ASK THAT THE FLAME OF THE MASTERS BE PLACED UPON YOUR FORE-HEAD. ASK TO BE SEALED AGAINST THE INTRUSION OF THOSE EXTERNALS, WHICH YOU SHALL, BY NECESSITY PASS THROUGH.

How To Use God-Power

It is not so much an effort of the outer man to leap the chasm, as it is for the outer man to let go the authority, which he has claimed. Invoke the God-power to do that which seems impossible of accomplishment, and if you can let go enough, the God-power will do for you what you can never accomplish of yourself.

God can be addressed in simple terms and God will never fail to respond when given the opportunity to act.

This opportunity comes when the personal self acknowledges that without the power of the God-self, nothing can be done, and then if he addresses God as one would a good friend or Father and CALL this God-power into action, he will prove that God is an ever-present help at all times.

Saint Germain says, "Put God to work." Every time your attention returns to a condition, or the problem in question, INVITE GOD again and again to act.

I would like you to get used to this activity in a small way. In raising a window or in closing a door, put God to work. Your momentum gained by such daily practice will manifest for you what would seem to be miracles, to those who have not built up that momentum.

Practice the Presence! Saint Germain has said, "Practice the Presence!" Practice the Presence in living. Practice the Presence in talking. And then when you require the FULLNESS OF THE PRESENCE, you will find that "practice has made perfect," and the Presence will answer your call in all its fullness.

HOW YOU CAN HELP THE ANGELIC HOST

An Address by the Beloved Mother Mary

The angelic hosts are the representatives of love. They are the embodiment of the divine thought and feeling of the Godhead, and their bodies are made up of the pure electronic light that fills the Ascended Masters' Octave and which forms the vehicles of the Ascended Host, as well as the Electronic Bodies of the unascended humanity of the earth-plane. These beautiful bodies are pure God-essence, vibrating at the highest speed, and express the most perfect tone of love and light in the universe.

In order for these Perfected Beings to render service to men in the outer world, they must descend into the sphere of activity in which their service is to take place, and in so doing, their bodies undergo a change in vibratory action, corresponding to the sphere or plane in which they are serving, in order that the electronic substance in the lower sphere might receive the full radiation that they bring. If they remained in their pure and perfect Electronic Bodies, the vibratory action of their release of love and light, healing, purity and peace, would be so rapid, that the denser and coarser vibrations of the lower sphere would record but a very small part of their outpouring.

The Service of Archangel Michael

A great many of the angelic host, particularly the cherubim, have never functioned in the lower spheres, remaining constantly above the vibratory action of discord, as represented by the four outermost spheres of the kingdom today. However, the Archangel Michael and his legions are particularly endowed with the capacity to function in the mental, etheric and emotional planes, and they take for this purpose, vehicles made up of the purest substance that these planes can offer. This brings them much closer to the sense consciousness of the people and makes it possible, from time to time, for the veil to be parted and the veiled glory of the angelic form to be revealed to some of the astute members of the human kingdom.

The people who admire the beauty and perfection of the angelic host little realize that their splendor is dimmed by mercy, and that the awe-inspiring presence of these mighty beings is but a limited expression of their true perfection, when functioning in the higher octaves.

Ascended Masters and the Angelic Host

The advent of the sacred season places the attention of mankind upon the members of the Spiritual Hierarchy, the heavenly host, and the angels, which allows a tremendous outpouring from the perfected side of life and draws into the lower spheres many thousands of those representatives of love, who perform a service and give a radiation through the mental, emotional, etheric and physical kingdoms, by identifying themselves with the atoms that make up these various realms.

The Ascended Master, under whose direction the angelic host work, directs the cosmic rays and assists the angelic brothers in the process of lowering the vibratory action of their bodies to a point where they can tangibly assist the kingdom in which they are temporarily stationed, and when the Master withdraws the ray, the angels automatically increase their vibration and return to their former estate. That is why you have seen, in the representations of the early artists, the rays directed by the Master, and the angel representing the culminating point of such a ray.

How You Can Help

Here we have the particular service that I feel you can render during this season: Any of the angelic brotherhood can be offered the full use of your inner bodies, for a temporary habitation, in order to form a radiating focus in the lower spheres. This provides for them a set of vehicles, and obviates the necessity of the Masters to use tremendous force to create temporary vehicles for the angelic brothers, and saves the force required by the Master in holding the ray, that the angel might be sustained in the lower realm. In this way, the angels and men working together as conscious members in God's service would form a tie of brotherhood, based on cooperative service, and their very close association would develop a spiritual affinity and consciousness, and through the blending of the two lines of evolution, both parties would be tremendously accelerated in their spiritual evolution and the tremendous force of the Gods could be utilized in another manner for the good of all.

In the coming days, when the Ascended Master Saint Germain fully takes command of the predominant consciousness of the people, the angels and men will consciously and constantly abide with each other and be co-workers in both kingdoms, but in following out the above suggestion, I would say that the assistance to the lower spheres, through the anchorage of countless angels, who are radiating centers of love, kindliness, patience, beauty and perfection, would reveal to you the full truth of this.

Becoming A Co-Worker

As my service is directly concerned with the angelic host, and as I see countless opportunities for the establishment of members of that brotherhood in the many places where mankind is in such distress and agony of body and soul, I would that the students understood, more fully, how they might become conscious co-workers with me, in offering the bodies of all people in distress and those incarcerated, to the Ascended Host, and the angelic beings, who would establish themselves within the strata of the mental, emotional, etheric and physical distress, would, by RADIATION change its quality into perfection.

HOW YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR LIFE EXPERIENCE

Every man, woman and child designs his life's experience by the thoughts and feelings he holds in his consciousness, and to change the external world, he must learn to change the thoughts and feelings within. To think of a negative and imperfect condition is to create a mental picture, which stands in the invisible, and which sooner or later will manifest in your affairs.

You must learn to think positively, constructively, and perfectly. You must learn to think consciously and steadily, and as you begin to entertain these opulent, healthy, peaceful thoughts, they will take form and dwell among you.

Inharmonious Energy an Atomic Bomb

The magnetic center of the atoms is the LOVE OF GOD, and an atom smasher, with all its powerful dynamic pressure, can only release the electrons in one atom, whereas the energy in the emotional body, passing through the atoms of the physical form, completely shatter the magnetic pole within the atoms that make up the body, until you have the disintegrated forms manifest by the human race, after thirty years of age.

When one comes to an understanding of the Law of Life, he or she must realize that every atom in the body, revolving around a core of love, is affected by every emotion which sets them off center and it delays the progress of the lifestream and more quickly brings disintegration and death. Harmonious energy strengthens the magnetic center and brings eternal youth, harmony and health.

Use of The Violet Flame a Necessity

The mercy of life has given you the Violet Flame, which you may pass through your miscreations of the past, and then begin anew to create, in thoughts and patterns of perfection, what you would like to see expressed in your world and experience. Pour through these patterns of perfection a harmonious feeling, and they will manifest to you.

Help of the Ascended Masters

DETERMINE WHAT YOU WANT TO MANIFEST, AND THEN ASK THE ASCENDED MASTERS TO POUR THEIR FEELING THROUGH YOUR PICTURE AND ENERGIZE IT BY THEIR LOVE AND LIGHT, and in that manner you can re-create and re-charge the manifestations around you, even as you can draw an eraser across a blackboard and wipe out a sum, and write it anew, in a more perfect manner.

Use of the Sacred Fire

UTILIZE THE SACRED FIRE WITHOUT LIMIT, AND THE REALM OF INNER CAUSES WILL BE SET INTO ORDER BY THE COSMIC LAW, AND THE SOULS OF MEN WILL NO LONGER BE DELUGED BY THEIR HUMAN CREATION.

The wise individual, once understanding that every experience and manifestation in life is but an outpicturing of the inner consciousness, generated through hundreds of centuries, INVOKES every activity of purification through the inner causes, and such a one is thus, by his own conscious effort, set free from the karma that would otherwise manifest in his experience. When the consciousness is so cleansed and purified, it is then a glorious cup, through which the Divine Beings may pour their thought, precipitating them into form.

Remain within the Heart of Your Holy Christ Self

Human beings, for the most part, are functioning in one or more of the lower bodies, instead of remaining in the heart of their Holy Christ Self and directing their activities through these lower vehicles, for the uplifting and balance of all.

As the Ascended Master Harmony explains in detail, the self-conscious individual, inhabiting the seven vehicles making up the one lifestream, must come to a point of mastery, wherein the cosmic keynote of such a lifestream is played through the seven bodies in a rhythmic pulsation from within out, that cannot be disturbed or varied by any pressure of energy or vortex of force in which the seven vehicles might find themselves at any given moment. When the seven bodies of the lifestream are vibrating at a harmonious rate that cannot be affected adversely by the appearances of the outer world, such a one has become master of energy and vibration. This individual, setting into action cosmic causes within his or her consciousness, knows—in a tensionless, confident manner—that the energy of his lifestream, passing through his bodies, will produce the effect which is an exact outpicturing of the inner cause he sets up consciously, through thought and through feeling.

Constitution of the Electron

Electronic light is the primal substance from which all created form is composed. Each electron is composed of a point of flame, and the radiation from that flame forms its aura, or forcefield. The entire electronic force in the universe forms the body of God, and is intelligent life.

Thought and Feeling in the Building of a Form

Electrons are drawn into form through the designing faculty of mind, and the speed at which they revolve within the mind pattern is determined by the feeling, which pours through them and sets the pattern for the vibratory rate. Thought, therefore, is the cup, design, or outline into which the primal substance of life is poured, and feeling is the vibratory pulsation sent through the electronic light, which gives it its quality of manifestation. The student must master the faculty of concentrating his thought processes into constructive pictures, and entertain these pictures within his mind. He realizes that the quality of his picturization will be determined by his unconscious, or conscious, feeling which permeates the thoughtform entertained within his consciousness, and if the feeling be harmonious, the cup which he creates, when manifest, will vibrate at the rate set by his feeling world, and his manifestation will be as perfect or imperfect as the constant state of that feeling.

VISUALIZING THOUGHTFORMS OF THE MASTERS

Through the power of visualization, you can create cups of the Ascended Master's likeness without any limit.

Every time a person thinks of an Ascended Master, he creates a thoughtform of that being, and when he pours his love to that being, the thoughtform takes on the love of the chela for the Master and begins to pulsate in the consciousness of the chela. At the same moment the Master, whose likeness the chela is contemplating in thought, pours the substance of his love into that thoughtform and energizes it with his consciousness.

Energizing the Thoughtform

You may have tremendous assistance through uniting your consciousness with any one or more Ascended Beings and allowing them to present, to your inner vision, their cosmic thoughtforms—uniting your human vision with the divine picture they give you, and drawing on the cosmos for the COSMIC FEELING to energize the thoughtforms, uniting with it your human feeling world. Such an individual could precipitate a temple, or a city like Shamballa, directly from the sky.

This will give but an inkling of your power to unite your faith—your creation—your Father-Mother attributes, with the cosmic Father and Mother and Holy Spirit.

Maha Chohan

EL MORYA AND THE BRIDGE ACTIVITY
An Address by the beloved Maha Chohan

In my home, at Ceylon, we have a conference room where I am privileged to meet with the seven beloved Chohans who work with me, whom I call my seven sons! The interest and enthusiasm that each of them shows, when we gather together, in the fruits and harvests of your combined endeavors through the months and years, is beautiful, indeed, to behold. I, myself, would like to give you my gratitude for that very beautiful response to the Ascended Master Saint Germain and the Ascended Master Morya, which has proved, beyond a question of a doubt, that the investment of their energies in individual lifestreams has proven worthy and manifested as spiritual progress and evolution for the entire race.

Three Important Offices

Some of you are familiar with the office, which it is my privilege to hold, in the Spiritual Hierarchy. The three beings, who work in parallel service, rendering cosmic assistance to this evolution, are the Manu, the World Teacher, and the acting Maha Chohan. You are somewhat familiar with the services of the Manu, who, in the very first instance takes the responsibility of drawing new primal spirits from the heart of the Sun of the system and carrying those spirits through the Seven Spheres and allowing them to develop and mature according to their own free-will choice on one of the Seven Rays.

The Manu then takes into the heart of the Elohim, these consecrated spirits and in seven rhythmic pulsations, he releases into incarnation through the subraces, those particular spirit sparks for which he is to be God-father and for whom it is his duty to guard, mold and mature.

Presently, because the evolution of the race is so small and because the Fourth Manu whose evolution should have been completed at the time of the Lemurian Age of perfection, is still in the atmosphere of Earth, working with his people, we have four Manus working with each other.

We have, on the second aspect of divinity, as you know, the beloved Lord Maitreya (who has since been elevated to the Office of the Buddha) who, in the capacity of World Teacher, designs with the Chohan who is to be the presiding Master for the two-thousand-year cycle, the religion, the system of education and the activity which will best benefit and develop the spiritual selves of the people in that cycle.

Then you have the presiding Maha Chohan, who draws the energies from the heart of the universal and dispenses them, previously through the last five rays only, but due to the acceleration of the evolution of the race, the entire Seven Rays now are under the direction of my humble self in this capacity.

The Seven Channels

I draw primal life, qualify it, charge it with the qualities of the Holy Spirit, the capacity to energize and give life to form, and then direct it into seven channels, where it is accepted as the responsibility of the Chohan of each Ray. These seven channels, foci of energy and force, are then, in turn, dispensed by the Chohan of each ray through the chelas, the lifestreams who are working in the world of form to externalize the divine plan along that particular ray which they supervise.

This seems a very simple process as you see the light passing first into my consciousness and then fork out to my seven sons. You see them as sons of blazing light, the light forking out from their bodies in hundreds or thousands or millions and millions of lesser light rays—and they dispense the impetus, the energy, the ideas, the vital currents necessary to stimulate the consciousness of incarnate lifestreams into action. The incarnate lifestreams represent the open door through which the Chohans can externalize the portion of the divine plan allotted to them to supervise and to forward.

When an Ascended Master determines, within himself, to accept an individual as a disciple, that Master must apply to the authority which represents his immediate superior, for the permission to make such a contact, because at the time that each individual joins the Brotherhood, he immediately gives the full store of his energy to the Lord of the World and to the Brotherhood, to render the greatest possible good in every level and sphere, cosmically and in solar capacity, as well. He no longer, therefore, retains the right to utilize even his own momentum of good, his own energy and his own light for any personal blessing which his own heart might dictate, due to past association or some tie of heart and spirit.

The impersonal law that governs the Brotherhood is that life must be utilized always for the greatest possible blessing in every sphere, in every kingdom. The WHOLE is considered at every decision, rather than the component part. When the Master makes a decision, which will involve the cooperation of the voluntary energies of an unascended being, he must apply and secure permission to make that contact.

Cooperation With Beloved El Morya

In the case of the beloved Master Morya, he determined, after looking upon the endeavors of the beloved Saint Germain, since his ascension in the Seventeenth Century, to secure a dispensation of some kind, wherein he might supplement Saint Germain's endeavors and secure an opportunity for continuity of thought and consciousness, by which students, already developed and matured, might be held at the rate of evolution which they had attained, and progress therefrom.

Beloved Morya approached me upon this subject and asked for permission to take some of the vital energies which I had drawn from the sun, and use those energies in cooperation with his own, in creating this activity of which you are such a great, kindly and cooperative part. At that time I told him, that if the response from the student body did not warrant the investment of those energies, which he was taking from my own cosmic stockpile and which he was investing from his own world, he would have to make up that balance in some way—and beloved Morya, in his great heartedness said that he was most certainly willing to make this balance, and I acquiesced to the endeavor upon those terms.

Your energies, beloved ones, woven into the decrees, into the visualizations, into the establishment of the group activities, have proven the Master Morya completely right in his faith in mankind and has more than repaid the Great White Brotherhood and myself for the investment of our energies, time, thought and attention on your behalf. For this, I wish to thank you personally, because, bless your dear hearts, you yet do not know the value of energy and how much it means for a Master to even turn his attention toward an unascended being for a moment, to give one blessing from his life to a chela.

You do not realize the import of that benediction, that sweet anointing from above! But even without that realization, you have been prompted to respond through your hearts—and your magnificent activities are only the beginning of the ever-increasing and intensifying expansion of the light, which I feel assured now, will stand as a living monument to Saint Germain's endeavor and Morya's assistance to him in this activity.

The Etheric Temples

Beloved ones, I have such magnificent dreams for the future! I have seen, in the etheric realm, those glorious temples of blazing light, some of which were manifest on the Earth before, in the times of Atlantis, Lemuria, early Greece and Egypt. In those great civilizations, where the Golden Ages were a manifest expression of God-supremacy through the lifestreams on Earth, these temples of blazing light, although their physical counterparts were destroyed, have been sustained and ensouled by beautiful devic beings and live in the etheric realm, pulsating in, through and around this physical appearance world, even to this day.

They have been utilized, ever since they were drawn forth by their first creator, as foci in which the angelic host, in which the Holy Christ Selves of mankind and the elemental kingdom have worshipped, have served, have drawn forth radiation and have projected it into the universe, age after age after age.

It is now our endeavor—and it has been for some time in cooperation with Saint Germain's dream of a permanent Golden Age upon this planet in the near future—to draw together, by the magnetic power of love, unascended lifestreams into certain localities, which are directly beneath the etheric temples which at one time stood forth on the planet Earth in those locations. When we have done this, we have almost, without exception, brought individuals who previously functioned and served in those very temples in other Golden Ages, because the magnetic law of attraction, through their consciousness and lifestreams makes them a very good foundation, in the spiritual essence, for the drawing forth of the rhythm of constructively-qualified energy which will be, in time, the skeleton around which the physical structure can easily be drawn.

Remember, I represent the Comfort Flame! I am, in a measure, your Father, and I am in a measure your Mother, and I am always as close to you as you desire! In your worded expression of love to me or in your heart-call, you have done much more, I confess, than I ever believed could be possible, and I am assured of your comprehension of the importance of giving of your calls and petitions to draw forth greater response from the Karmic Board, so that your activities, in the future, will even exceed the magnificent accomplishments of the past.

HOW PETITIONS ARE APPROVED

An Address by beloved Pallas Athena, Goddess of Truth

Beloved ones, I address you, unascended beings come to stand sponsor before the Lords of Life. Do you know what really decides the dispensation, in favor of even the Lord of the World? The amount of voluntary energies that he can show will be offered for the furthering of his cause among the people that he endeavors to serve! No matter how magnificent the plan, no matter how beautiful the design, no matter with what thought there has been woven out of the energies of the various retreats and their hierarchs and the assembled Brotherhood, the pattern which will help the race, the impersonal Cosmic Law, is such that energy voluntarily contributed from among the race must be shown, before we can acquiesce to giving of grants and dispensations!

Grants Not Easy to Obtain

Everything here and hereafter requires the investment of energy! The further you go upon the pathway of light, the more priceless is the gift of energy and the gift of life, and we who hear the plea of a Cosmic Being, know the value of his life, know the value of every thought he thinks, every sacred, sanctified word that passes his lips, and we cannot imprison those magnificent energies in the physical appearance world, which would be the activity if we were to grant his request and he did not have, in the lower atmosphere, lifestreams whose energies he could use rather than his own. The higher the being, the less likely are we to grant the dispensation which will require the condensation and imprisonment of his energies which can be utilized at cosmic levels—unless there are funnels through which he may direct the divine pattern and plan, and those funnels of consciousness receptive to that plan use their own energies and more than that, stimulate the interest of others around them to externalizing that plan.

So, when the beloved Lord of the World presents his petition and the glorious suggestions that come from the heart of Shamballa, the Karmic Board looks to see what lifestream will support his plan, will be receptive to it, and if the Lord of the World can show us some such lifestreams, then we, in turn, give to him a balance of our energy which matches the energy of the chelas voluntarily offered to the Board.

Ascended Masters May Have to Ask Twice

For every chela that gives his energy to sponsor a cosmic cause, we give a balance from the cosmic stockpile and double it. If, however, the Master—whether it is the Lord of the World or one of the Chohans, or any other God-free Being—has no step-down transformer, no chelas in the world of form who, upon examination are found worthy and capable of externalizing the Master's plan, we recommend that the Master, in the next six months' cycle, endeavor to secure such a connection and to stimulate the interest and magnetize the interest of some chelas and come back in six months with that chela in the inner body.

Then the Master again presents the plan and he says, "Here is an individual who is capable of working out the details of it. I will give the seed idea—his intuition is developed, his love is developed, his enthusiasm is developed, and he—working in the world of form—can, I am sure, gather others around him and complete this design." If that is the case, then we look at the inner bodies of the chela, examine them well and if we find that the Master is going to have the assistance, we will grant that petition.

It is a very difficult assignment, because we—in our God-free estate—see the need! We see the condition of your Earth. We see the short span of time in which this tremendous task is to be accomplished! Every plan, naturally, that comes to us from the Ascended Host is magnificent, and yet it is all determined by how much enthusiasm and voluntary energy can be contributed by unascended beings! When the beloved Masters have so few to show to externalize their plan, century after century, we have had to deny the opportunity for them to fulfill it!

One of the most important of the chains, we would say, that binds our hands, is the mass karma of the race. Those of you who are interested in securing dispensations, if you will work on the removal, through the Violet Fire, of the mass karma of the race, it will be greatly appreciated.

When it comes to you, in the unascended state, when you present your petitions, you too, are examined and the ambition of your petition is examined by your own capacity to do anything to fulfill them, and the energies of application that you could or would make are considered. Your past record is considered in this line, and where there is some promise that if you are given the grant, your own energies, in the calls, will help to fulfill that grant, at least a partial grant may be given. But if the petitions are written lightly, hoping that some other part of life is going to fulfill them, no matter how magnificent they are, we cannot grant them unless an Ascended Being takes them up and stands sponsor for them and offers them as his own.

You must, if you write a petition, remember what you have asked for and incorporate it into your daily application and you must make this clear in your own mind, before you burn your petitions. It is not such a great task if you have found something, but do not feel that in burning your petitions you are “scot-free.” That petition then becomes part of your responsibility to life, and it would be granted if your soul and spirit and very self agree, at least for the coming year, to use some of your daily energy in endeavoring to manifest it.

You have done well, beloved ones, for you have sought truth according to your own light, and I am grateful to speak to you and to thank you.

HOW TO USE THE FLAME OF COMFORT Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class of February 20, 1960, Maha Chohan

Remember, beloved children of the light, that one of the purposes for which the Transmission of the Flame Classes was established by me, was to strengthen the “forcefields” above your sanctuaries and groups, with the cosmic momentums of the Ascended Master retreats open to the students each month.

In this thirty-day period, between February 15th and March 14th, 1960, comfort, as you know, is the God-virtue that has to be magnetized into the “forcefields” of your sanctuaries. One of the ways to accomplish this is the service of the Transmission of the Flame Class on February 20th, which no student should fail to attend, each one in his own sanctuary to fortify it, and not in another sanctuary, not to disturb its normal thoughtform and rhythm.

But it is not enough to magnetize the Comfort Flame—you have to project it, first visualizing it spreading from your sanctuary “forcefield” all over your city and country, and second, becoming, yourself, a comforting presence to all life, everywhere.

On awakening, resolve to look for opportunities to be a comfort to someone in the home, in the office, in the street, and don’t forget, also, to do something for the nature and elemental kingdoms. On retiring at night, make a list of the comforting services you have rendered during the previous twelve hours, and then resolve to visit, in consciousness, the Temple of Comfort at Ceylon, with your harvest of the day. I shall be there to welcome you, with open arms.

HOW LORD CHAMUEL CAN HELP YOU

By Thomas Printz (El Morya)

The beloved Archangel Chamuel is, as yet, little known to the peoples of Earth. He is the great Archangel of love, adoration and devotion to God and the goodness of God, as expressed through mankind. He, together with his divine complement, Charity, are dedicated and consecrated to developing, in the outer consciousness of mankind, a true sense of gratitude and adoration toward their source—God—and a sense of encouragement toward the endeavors of their fellowman to unfold the divine potential that lies buried within every heart.

Lord Chamuel's Service

As all the angelic host, particularly the Archangels, are not cognizant of form but rather of essence, color, sound and perfume, whenever and wherever they see the motive within a human heart endeavoring to express the goodness of God, they nourish this motive and desire by their presence and radiation, until the one so seeking to externalize a particular benefaction for the race can so do.

The Archangel Chamuel and beloved Charity serve on the Third Ray, which is expressed in a lovely pink radiation that actually envelops those desiring to lift mankind out of distress of every kind and into greater freedom—personal, racial, planetary and finally, universal.

Description of Lord Chamuel's Temple

At inner levels, Lord Chamuel and beloved Charity have a glorious temple, builded on the circular design so loved by the angelic host, domed with gold and encrusted with pink rubies. In this temple, the Flame of Adoration to God and his messengers burns brightly, and this flame is intelligently directed by Lord Chamuel to all unascended beings to encourage the development of their own particular divine plan. Such a flame, is carried by the angelic host of Lord Chamuel's legions into the astral plane that surrounds the Earth (in which some people who have passed through the veil of so-called death temporarily dwell). The angels of his legion know that within the heart of all God's children is a focus of God, himself, seeking expression through the soul.

As they stand, in their glorious robes of pink, in the auras of such people, they breathe their love into the God-spark until it begins to expand. This is as mechanical as the generation of physical fire through the use of a bellows, upon a smoldering fire in the fireplace. These blessed people, not knowing of their benefactors, are finally stirred by the love of Lord Chamuel, blessed Charity, and their legions of love, until they desire—through free will—to expand their own divine plan and serve the God who made them. Then these good people ask for assistance from God and his divine messengers to prepare themselves to serve God (while in the inner levels) and to prepare to serve him when they come into physical embodiment, again.

How The Angelic Host Serves

Because the angelic host are so selfless, often those whom they serve do not even know of their benefactors' presence and cannot explain, even to themselves, the awakening of the desire to do God's will. The angelic host, are not concerned with the recognition of their presence and service, but only with the actual works accomplished, in awakening the soul to a desire to expand the borders of God's kingdom. Thus, many a sincere individual who receives a "call to do God's will" is completely oblivious to the stimulation of that desire by the Angels of Love.

This is equally true of individuals living on the Earth today. Mankind, en masse, is not capable of knowing the design of God for themselves or for others. They have fallen under the grievous error of "judging according to human appearances" and are neither patient nor loving enough to cognize the motive behind actions that sometimes are expressed clumsily by a fellowman. The Angels of Love know the motive behind all endeavors and, wherever that motive is sincere, untinged by human desire for personal gain and aggrandizement, they stand selflessly and lovingly in the aura of such people, helping them, always to fulfill their inspirations, dreams, visions, and ideas. They literally hold such people in their arms of love, sustaining them through hours of trial and seeming failure, until the individuals are successful and another expression of God's holy will is made available for the benefaction of the race.

The Magic Key of Gratitude

Lord Chamuel and beloved Charity care not for "human appearances," but care exceedingly for the budding Christ light, that seeks to burst the shell of "human appearances" and add to the light of the world. Every saint, every great patriot, scholar, humanitarian, architect, scientist, missionary and spiritual teacher has been, and is sustained, by the Pink Ray of Lord Chamuel's love.

Then, the soul, cognizing a power greater than itself, begins to express gratitude to its Source (God), his divine messengers, and—finally—to its fellowman. This gratitude is a POWER. It cannot be over-emphasized in man's dealing with his fellowman. A sincere feeling of gratitude, silently sent forth, or audibly expressed when conditions allow, reaps a harvest of greater endeavors upon the part of the recipient of the loving feeling of gratitude thus expressed. Thus, according to human experience, gratitude is a "magic key" which can be used to advantage in developing the God-potential of every man. Let us not confuse flattery (which is insincere) with honest gratitude for endeavors made to lighten the burden of individuals, families, nations and the planet.

Gratitude is a virtue of God, expressed through Lord Chamuel and beloved Charity and their legions of Angels of Love. When the soul truly learns how to feel gratitude toward those who serve him, even in mundane ways, inevitably that gratitude begins to rise to the Source (God) which has given him his very life. Gratitude is truly the open door to greater benefactions from God, his messengers and mankind, en masse.

The Pink Essence a Reality

ALL VIRTUES HAVE COLOR AND SOUND. True gratitude emanating from the heart of any individual, is pink. When this gratitude is poured forth to other members of the human race, it is a soft, delicate shell pink. When gratitude is poured forth to God and the Divine Beings who serve him in conscious adoration and praise, it is a deeper pink and literally opens the doors to heaven, itself. Back on the ray of gratitude and praise to Deity, comes more and more of that beautiful pink essence into the world of the one so engaged in blessing God. Also more and more of the Angels of the Pink Ray gather around such a one to sustain him in his service to life. Be assured that this pink essence is a reality, a substance, a living vital power to stimulate, nourish and expand the service of the grateful one.

When gratitude is issued forth to a human being, the returning current energy is, of course, not so great.

The Pink Flame and Ray are activities that multiply and expand the good in man, whether it is in his financial status, his physical wellbeing, his mental stability, or his emotional balance. Many people, afflicted with the various distresses of mind and body, find it difficult to generate a true feeling of gratitude to God, his messengers and their fellowmen. Here, they can be assisted greatly by those who are literally the embodiment of the FEELING OF GRATITUDE AND PRAISE TO GOD.

To such peoples, it is recommended that they call sincerely to their God to send them Angels of Gratitude to help them to feel gratitude to life, generally. When they have felt the radiation and feeling of gratitude to life transfused into their worlds by the angels, they are then able to generate a little gratitude, at first toward impersonal activities—like the sun that lights their way each day, the water that makes ablutions possible, the fresh air they breathe, the harvest of nature, which is the actual sustenance of their physical bodies. Gradually, they begin to enjoy happiness in the feeling of gratitude, and it is easier for them to be grateful for “small favors” from their fellowman.

They learn to see beyond “human appearances” into the motive in the hearts of all peoples, who seek to do good. Then do the angels of love rejoice, indeed. The peoples belonging to Earth’s evolutions require so much training in the generation of true, impersonal divine love.

The Cause of Unhappiness

When individuals are caught in the meshes of “human appearances,” it is easy to become bitter, cynical and ungrateful. These qualities of feeling have a very unpleasant color and a dissonant sound. As each individual lives within the energy he emits, the more of such discordant feeling he generates, the more unhappy he becomes. In like manner, the more constructive feelings he generates, the happier he becomes. Therefore, even for personal reasons, it is well to learn to generate an aura of a happy nature for that is the “home” in which the soul must dwell until the individual, himself, changes that “home” through self-conscious endeavor.

What Lord Chamuel Recommends

Gratitude is sometimes difficult to express toward one who has seemingly harmed or harassed you. Then it is recommended by Lord Chamuel that you give your consideration an impersonal activity of life which has benefited you (taking your attention from the person who is temporarily distasteful to you) until such a time as you have developed a feeling of gratitude toward life in general. Then, it is comparatively easy to direct a feeling of gratitude toward the person or activity which you formerly found unpleasant, and you will be richly rewarded in the change of attitude in the person or activity that was previously distasteful to you.

Gratitude is the science of loving life free from distress. Beloved Master Jesus used this science and developed such a momentum of love, that neither sickness, limitation, nor even the appearance of death, itself, caused him to change his aura and feeling of gratitude to his Father and to the divine pattern in the hearts of all mankind. Thus, life (which is intelligent) responded to his LOVE and externalized health, opulence, and life eternal.

Invocation

Beloved Presence of God and beloved Archangel Chamuel! Teach me now how to love as you do! Help me to generate the feeling of gratitude towards you, the angelic host, the nature kingdom and my fellowman. Help me to make the home of my soul a happy, grateful, loving, harmonious place in which to abide. Then, beloved Father and angels of love, allow me to join you in loving all life free as the Master Jesus did!

GEMS OF LIGHT

(Quotations from "The First Ray" by El Morya)

"The scattering of the spiritual seeds has borne good fruit—the response has not been from the spiritual dilettantes who flit from movement to movement."—

"The probationary period of chelaship cannot be measured in months or years, for it depends upon the amount of karma the chela has accumulated, and upon the amount of discipline he is willing to accept. Some drop out under pressures of this "testing period." Others endure it slowly, through many embodiments."—

"I have learned about community living, and I do not speak amiss when I say with FEELING that the violence of human feeling is far more destructive than the sped arrow, the moving bullet or the thrown lance or spear, which, in an instant, do their work and finish their task.”—

“I retained the etheric body of an Indian potentate, which I used through the entire association with Helena Blavatsky. Kuthumi served in a similar manner.”—

ON PRECIPITATION An Instruction by the Maha Chohan

The visualizing faculty of the mind creates the pattern or the thoughtform, which is held within the consciousness, unwaveringly, with the certain knowledge that the thoughtform within the consciousness must reflect upon the screen of life as a physical manifestation. But no thought ever becomes a thing until it is filled with the substance of feeling, and the controlled energy of the lifestream, harmoniously qualified, poured into that form, fills it with the life essence of the universe and lowers it into manifestation as a harmonious expression of direct precipitation.

Here is where the mental scientists and occultists find the stumbling block. They know that thought is a creative process and does affect manifestation. But they have not learned that feeling is the qualifying power of the vibratory action of the thoughtform, giving it quality.

REMEMBER: Thought is the ideation—it is the form—the outline and the cup. Feeling is the initial vibration that passes through that thoughtform and sets up the rhythm of the electrons within that thoughtform, which they follow obediently, until manifestation occurs.

Thought is the Father, Feeling the Mother, the Manifest Form—the Son.

Thought is the father, feeling is the mother and the manifest form is the son, or creation. The thought must be passed through the feeling nature to become a created form. The quality of the thought is influenced by the womb of feeling and the creation brought forth is clothed in the nature of the womb in which it rested.

Through the mental body, any idea may be moulded from the universal light substance. From the feeling nature is drawn the vibratory action that is the breath or pulsation that gives the thoughtform life, and through the physical vehicle passes the substance of the three elements, which make up the coat or cloak of the creations.

Electrons and Rays

The electronic light substance that fills the universe is the body of God, and within each electron is a point of light, which is self-conscious and intelligent. From that spark within the electron, there go forth little rays that form the radiation of the electron. Each tiny electron, magnified hundreds of times, looks like the Electronic Body of the I AM Presence with the rays pouring out around it.

The self-conscious lifestream, ascended or unascended, has been given the God-authority to command these tiny electronic particles to take on form, according to the design of the thoughtform created by the power of visualization.

Thoughtforms Cannot Manifest Without Feeling

The feeling nature of each lifestream is endowed by God, the Father, to give life to the thoughtforms, by passing the vibratory action of the feeling nature through the thoughtform and setting it into motion—just as I pass the breath of life through the infant and set the physical form into pulsation.

Without the breath of life, the infant form could not take up an active existence, but would disintegrate.

Without the feeling nature passing through the thoughtform, the thoughtform would disintegrate and return to the unformed. It is thus that without feeling, the forms have no sustaining power and do not become things.

TWO SERVICES YOU CAN RENDER

The “Bridge to Freedom” publications render two services to the Ascended Masters—one, help in the dissemination of the already existing literature, and, two, to provide funds for the release of a vast amount of Ascended Master instruction on hand, the publication of which is delayed, due to the fact that the small donations received for this purpose are not so far sufficient. We thank you for your cooperation

CANDIDATES FOR THE ASCENSION

An Address by the Ascended Master Serapis Bey

Spirits of God! Spirits of light! Chelas who aspire to the ascension! I bow before you! I am servant of your life, summoned by the magnetic pull of your sweet soul, which has demanded of the universal, redemption and immortal freedom. For this, I have being, for this I use the priceless gift of God-life itself, that wherever a summons from the heart flame goes forth I may, standing within the aura of that one, activate the Ascension Flame, transmuting the energy which has, through the centuries, been qualified imperfectly and opening the door into that glorious and eternal freedom which life, within itself, desires and knows is its natural habitat!

The Spirit of the Ascension Flame

It is my privilege and my honor to answer the summons from the heart, when there is opportunity through the use of this mighty transcendent, glorious intelligent Spirit of the Ascension Flame, to raise a consciousness again to its natural God-estate. May I introduce to you the SPIRIT OF THE ASCENSION FLAME, a living, breathing intelligence, which does, when called into action, invoke from the electrons in every cell of your body that portion of itself which is hidden within your own light. As that flame of the ascension, within yourself, expands and meets the Spirit of the Ascension Flame in its cosmic activity, the two become ONE and the mystic activity of transmutation and ascension takes place!

Within every electron of that light that flows so freely and so constantly from the source of the Universal into your hearts, is every qualification of the sacred fire, is every power of the sacred fire, which in cosmic capacity, is held within the atmosphere of Earth by spiritual intelligences, and when the Cosmic Being who chooses to embody the activity and hold it in the atmosphere of Earth as a radiating center, is summoned by your life and magnetizes the dormant quality within the electrons and draws that forth, you have the merging of the individual and the cosmic, whether it be of transmutation by the presence of Holy Amethyst, whether it be of resurrection through the presence of the mighty Gabriel, whether it be the activity of the Ascension Flame in the beautiful spirit of Luxor!

“Aloha” – The Song of the Ascension

As you sang that magnificent song to the Ascension, “Aloha” which is the keynote of the beloved Spirit of the Ascension Flame, I am sure you felt stirring, within yourself, the activity of that flame, which, when released does change the quality of the flesh, change the quality of the etheric body, change the quality of the emotional body and the mental body as well, and which does quicken the vibratory action in every cell and atom of your inner vehicles as well as your flesh, raising you to a closer vibratory action with that of the God-free.

Beloved ones, I cannot point you too firmly towards the fact that within the electron, within the primal essence of life that flows to you, there waits fire! Fire! The fire which becomes the bread on your table, the substance that clothes you, the fire that becomes the transmutation of your transgressions into harmonious energy, the fire that becomes for you the actual elixir of healing. It is that fire that becomes for you the resurrection of the powers which you knew in the Great Central Sun and in the inner spheres, and here, even in the physical world, in ages that have been past—the fire which one day, when your momentum is builded to a point, will join with the cosmic flame and give to you that marvelous experience, which you have come to know intellectually as the ascension of self!

Your Health and Supply are Within You

Each electron, each heartbeat, each vital light cell answers every summons and call you make upon it, and graciously says “All this I can do and more,” when you summon it forth as Jesus summoned Lazarus from the tomb. When you summon it forth from within the depths of your being, that power of the sacred fire, which is the requirement of every moment, answers. Opportunities are manifold! There is, in the course of your hourly living, opportunity to summon forth peace or justice, harmony or restitution of divine perfection into distortion of form, or balance of mind and body, or supply! How can the consciousness of students linger longer in appearances of lack and limitation when, within the essence of the electron, is lying, quiescent the very nature of God, himself!

At Luxor, beloved ones, where you have visited me on and off through the centuries, hopefully aspiring toward redemption, our complete discipline lies in turning the consciousness of the aspirant and the neophyte INWARD to the flaming heartbeat, until such a one can draw, from that heartbeat, even the necessities to nourish the physical body, as Jesus drew manna from heaven, and the clothing, the very garments with which the initiate approaches the altar, are woven out of the energies of his own primal life! Mastery and completeness is within the unit, as the oak tree is within the acorn and the chicken is within the egg. The smallest and most insignificant seed contains not only the pattern of its full flower but the way and means of externalizing that pattern, the nourishment required and the magnetic pull upon the elements to develop its self. So of a certainty is the divine pattern within the heart of man and life endowed with self-sufficiency and it requires but a realization that within that light that flows, beloved ones, in countless millions and millions and millions of units into your world each minute, is the fullness of healing, of freedom, of illumination, of every God-desire!

The Three Reasons for Your Ascension

Those of you who have written upon your breast, "Candidate for the Ascension," are blessed of all mankind embodied today! You have been chosen for one of the following three reasons, chosen, mind you, in the great Halls of Karma, before you were granted the privilege of taking an earth-body.

(1) Your energy is almost redeemed

You were chosen because you had become a harmless one, whose energy has been almost completely redeemed and whose cycle of individualization is ready to close and who has transmuted, through many ages of saintly living, the majority of those energies qualified imperfectly, and have, therefore, by that very preparation of the ages, signified to life through the color bands in your Causal Body, that there is opportunity for you to write your name upon the last page of your book of life, seal it and place it, forever, in the records of eternity.

(2) You have decided to take back all energy unredeemed

Or, you are those whose souls have awakened from a long soul sleep and have remembered the glories, majesties and powers on other stars, in other systems and in other universes, and who waking, feel intensely and deeply the loss of your powers, the loss of your freedom and through that intensity have demanded the opportunity of completing the cycle of your manifest expression quickly, and have decided to make the great sacrifice, taking back, at no matter what personal cost or discipline, all the energies unredeemed, in one short life. You have been examined by the Law and have been found capable of making this sacrifice, and the Karmic Board has agreed to release your karma to you, knowing you can hold the balance through its pressure, and if you endure unto the end, can earn the seamless garment of light.

(3) You have volunteered to become guardian spirits

Or you are in the third category—those who have renounced freedom to come in this period of cosmic change, when the Sixth Ray played its last chord, when the gently-opening notes of the Seventh Ray are sounded on the cosmic organ, and who desire, for love of God and your fellowman, to offer your bodies as conductors of these subtle currents as step-down transformers, receive the instructions directly from the Ascended Masters and to carry that instruction, in a more mercifully transformed form, into the consciousness of mankind as volunteered Guardian Spirits!

Presentation Before the Karmic Board

In any one of these three cases, you were presented before the Karmic Board and the colors in your Causal Body had to be looked upon by the entire seven members. Any individual who is passed as a candidate for the ascension must have a pretty well balanced Causal Body. Concentric rings of force distinguish the Causal Body of an initiate, an adept, and a conscious chela, who can bear the burden of more than ordinary responsibility. These rings, much like the colors in the upper figure on the chart, are rhythmically pouring out waves of light into the upper atmosphere. The inner spheres in which the Christ Selves dwell, look as if they were in a constant state of greeting the sun in a brilliant dawn.

More Ascensions Now

I ask you to learn from every man, because, as he perhaps is developed in another portion of expression, so will you develop the band of color within your Causal Body that perhaps needs nourishment, as well as give to him from the storehouse of your faith, your light, your opulence, your beauty, or your peace.

These individuals, who passed the Karmic Board as candidates for the ascension in the course of one earth life, are few compared to the masses. There has to be a minimum number of possible lifestreams who can make the ascension in one embodiment in incarnation, to hold the balance of the inner current for the Earth, however, but because of the closing of the cycle, greater numbers of these individuals have embodied recently, and from this point forth, we are making a tremendous application to the Karmic Board that the greater numbers of prepared lifestreams at inner levels be given the first opportunity.

The great Archangel Michael, you will remember, secured a dispensation, in gratitude, for the student body's service, which freed every lifestream belonging to any student who had GIVEN THEIR LIFE TO THIS ACTIVITY and who had passed through the change called "death," or will in the future, pass through that change, from the necessity of re-embodiment. We know the gratitude that rose from your hearts, and the sweet essence of joy in your unselfish happiness, that those parts of life that were near and dear to you would be free.

You have not thought, perhaps, in detail of all the endeavor and all of the thought and feeling that had to go into the preparation, at inner levels, to have these individuals complete their own evolution when no longer allowed the theater of Earth in which to gain experience of cause and effect. You know, and I say this in kindness, the condition of the minds and hearts and consciousness of many of those who are included in this dispensation, and yet something had to be done to give to them opportunity, which their consciousness could assimilate and digest, no matter how orthodox the mind might have been.

New Ascension Temples For Your Loved Ones

Therefore, the Brotherhood at Luxor and the Ascension Brotherhood began the magnificent task of creating Ascension Temples into which these lifestreams could be drawn. They are magnificent, all white temples of blazing light—the doors are sometimes forty or fifty feet in height. The Silent Watchers of the inner spheres gather, and dress in white, every one of those who have come under this dispensation, and they are enrolled in active, conscious instruction in the use of the sacred fire. Is not this time on Earth a cosmic moment among moments? I thank you for feeling this so deeply, for I understand, dear hearts, that the conscious mind is staggered, oftentimes, by the truths that we bring, and yet it is all love, and we, who are free, just love to serve life!

At this time of year, you have the Resurrection Flame of Lord Gabriel and the Ascension Flame of my own heart meeting. You have the Christian Dispensation of Holy Thursday rising to the crescendo of Easter Sunday, you have the Feast of the Passover and all the radiation of the Elohim, the angelic host, the beloved Moses, and those who govern the Jewish Dispensation, all focused together. Do you realize the powers that are focused through your sweet bodies? And may I say, because I have known you so long, I have seen your actions and reactions under stress and under strain. In the name of God HOLD YOUR PEACE, hold your tongue, and guard your energy, because you are batteries of power, and once you begin to loose your energies through the tongue, they will run away from you. Each one of you feel as though you are in a private retreat, for you have all of this magnificent inner activity to contemplate within the harmony of your own self, loving life free, and you can have a tremendous cosmic blessing.

I thank you for your many visits to Luxor, and I ask you now to remember that the Ascension Flame is within the electron within your heart. I am your friend, your servant, awaiting your summons and answering your call, who, has loved you for centuries,

Serapis

PREPARATION FOR THE COMING OF THE SEVENTH ROOT RACE

An Address by beloved El Morya

I come in the name, by the power, in the authority of love divine—that love which will not let you go, but chooses rather to sustain and perfect every lifestream belonging to this evolution, until this Earth is free. I come with illumination, for I know the divine pattern for this Earth, as held in the Planetary Silent Watcher's heart (the beloved Immaculata).

I come, not with the lash and whip, but with illumined faith and constant enthusiasm for the externalization of God's plan, fulfilled here and now. We love you well, seeing what you have done, are doing, and yet are to do. We foreswore Nirvana to help imprisoned life everywhere. Nirvana is a beautiful consciousness of bliss, where beings live in the aura of the Godhead, directing therefrom the blessing of their light. When one consciously foreswears Nirvana, he holds that feeling of the Godhead and yet serves aeon after aeon to help the mankind of Earth, until everyone is redeemed. Then we can fold our cloaks about and proceed upon another venture or join the happy ones in the nirvanic state.

The Earth to be a Shining Star

Once upon a time, long ago, long before you can remember, the Earth was a very beautiful and shining planet, and all of its peoples were magnificent in their perfection. Now, due to aeons of living, the Earth does not show that perfection and that is our cause—to redeem it quickly, restore it to perfection, and bring mankind, again, into conscious communication with the angelic host and the transmuted happy elemental kingdom, just bringing the trinity of the elementals, the angels and mankind into the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain's royal court for this Golden Age. It shall be permanent, and it shall be a shining star, indeed. "Freedom's Holy Star," it shall be called, and again the love and light that flows to and through it, will make it one of the brightest of the stars of this system.

That is the reason that we have the Teton meetings. It is the reason that we seem to push you towards greater endeavor, just so that your own light may expand, so that each and every one of you in the course of this Earth life, may wind up perfecting every bit of untransmuted karma, not only for yourselves, but for the peoples of this Earth.

That is a tremendous task, beloved ones, as it takes in about ten billion people belonging to the Earth, besides all imprisoned angels and all animal life and all living things, yet the power of God, which is love, is greater than all these appearances.

That is how I know, for I am fired with that feeling of illumined faith and understanding and obedience. That power of faith I bring to you in love's name.

Peace as an Activity Of God

When you left Tara's Halls and went for a time on the highways and the byways, I continued to play that beautiful harp of Tara, knowing in full illumined faith, that you would return to manifest perfection, each according to your own free will—some more quickly than others and some of you sustaining your physical vehicles here on this earthplane even unto this very day and hour. Blessed ones, we are beings of love. Sometimes we are considered strenuous in our endeavors to continue to point out the Law to you so that you, too, may manifest that love. We have loved you from the very beginning of our own individualization, and then after our ascension.

All want some time of peace, all want some time of activity, and that is balance, which comes with illumined faith. The peace is good, as long as it is not lethargic, as long as it is illumined and directed by the powers of God. The activity is good, so long as it is constructive and proceeds to give assistance to life everywhere. Then it, too, becomes an activity of God.

Utilizing the Power of Hope and Gabriel

The sponsors at the Teton Retreat are preparing magnificent violet and purple thrones for the year 1960. Many of the guests have already given their petitions to the Angel of the Scrolls. I know that all of you will prepare yourselves to speak on behalf of imprisoned life everywhere, as your voices ring out and are heard by all there assembled, and all say "aye" and give unto us that energy and power we require to manifest, in 1960, the divine plans bursting to come forth to prepare for the Seventh Root Race and beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain's Golden Age quickly.

Utilize the power of the beloved Hope and the beloved Gabriel to CHARGE and CHARGE and CHARGE into your minds, bodies, beings and worlds and affairs, right here and now, that illumined enthusiasm and capacity to continue on in illumined faith, until you manifest the full expression of God's divine plan for you.

As I, your Guru, have taken it upon myself to teach you the Cosmic Law, so also have I assumed your karma (good and evil), transmuting the evil by love divine. Why? Because I love life and loving life so much, seeing a planet divested of her beauty and perfection, I am endeavoring to set that imprisoned life free, until it is truly Freedom's Holy Star.

A New Planet

Even Excelsior is more beautiful (with its little men and women and its shining movement in space) than the Earth, which has had opportunity after opportunity to externalize perfection. Yet, being of a very positive nature, as you all know, I am and shall remain, I shall continue, to impress the consciousness of unascended lifestreams with the perfection of that glorious plan, until it is manifested here on this Earth through each and every one, until the Earth shines again as it did in the beginning.

We are beginning another planet (besides the shining Excelsior), where you shall have great opportunity to serve. As yet, we have not directed the Cosmic Ray through it, to set it into motion. It is a planet to be peopled, particularly, by elemental life, which has not yet achieved its full freedom on this Earth.

I know you have all felt the pressure of my presence many times, and now this morning, I enfold you in a Luminous Presence of myself, which is going to be sustained eternally. You shall never forget it—waking or sleeping, day or night, twenty-four hours—until the full expression of God almighty DOES MANIFEST through you and your fellowman.

Preparation for the Seventh Root Race

We represent power. Our realm is the Blue Ray, the power of almighty God to set into action those causes and cores at inner levels that MUST MANIFEST in this world of form. There is nothing that can shake our faith in that, and as we charge into your worlds that same feeling, through my Luminous Presence, you, too, will accept, in illumined faith, the perfection for this planet Earth and for all of her peoples and evolutions, and we will quickly, by the power of my love and the powers of the sacred fire that are vested in each and every one of you, see a planet where the Seventh Root Race may be brought forth in dignity.

The Sixth Root Race and its sub-races are responsible for the preparation of this planet, so that the beauty and delicacy of the Seventh Root Race may come forth quickly, to manifest eternally perfect and that the Earth moving forward may give forth her song of love and light to all that is!

There is no other eternal victory, except that which comes through light, so I thank you, I thank you for your love and light, your illumined faith, your constancy of service, your ability and capacity to continue in that service until this Earth IS the manifest expression of the star which Saint Germain must have, before the Seventh Root Race can manifest here.

We are come to bring to you the fullness of our love and gratitude for your assistance in this service, until the hour comes when the human creation parts and you see me face to face. I enfold you, until that time, in a Luminous Presence of myself, which is eternally sustained, and you shall never forget it, waking or sleeping, day or night, until the full expression of God almighty does manifest through you and your fellowman.

Carry on in our name, in our service and in the dignity and mastery of our love, until you are, each one, God free! Thus I remain always, your humble servant in the light.

THE PATH TO THE ASCENSION

Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class

Beloved Children of the Light Who Aspire to the Ascension,

In this thirty-day period (March 15th through April 14th, 1960), when the holy Temple of the Ascension is host to mankind, and really, also during the balance of your physical life, there are two things you require to know about the ascension in the light, your return to the realm of perfection:—the path to it, and how to show this path to others.

The path to it is the redemption endeavor. A constant, self-dominion and purification of the four lower bodies—the emotional, mental, etheric and physical. This will enable you to ascend, daily, from disease to health, from lack to supply, from discord to harmony, from ignorance of the truth to enlightenment.

As to showing to others the path, there is no better way than by example. Let others see that you live and act as if you were a representative of an Ascended Master on the Earth, and you will really be one, if you carry out the precepts of “The Code of Conduct for a Disciple of the Holy Spirit.”

There is something else you can do, which will have a tremendous effect, if you only knew it. Devote at least fifteen minutes a day to contemplate the glories of the ascension in the light. See all people in your community, in your nation, in the whole world, active at self-dominion and purification, and realizing that there is no death. Visualize yourself addressing an invisible audience, convincing them of these facts.

If you do this faithfully, sincerely, punctually, you will be astonished at the results. In a few days, you will find friends in the street asking you questions like this—”Do you believe there is life after death?” This is the effect of your daily contemplation.

Know the path to the ascension, and show it to others. This is your highest calling.

The Brotherhood at Luxor has, this year, a very important assignment, as the number of ascensions will be larger in 1960. The personal presence in consciousness, at the Temple of the Ascension, of everyone who reads these lines, is earnestly requested by my beloved son, Serapis Bey, and by my humble self. One word to the wise is enough.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

LISTENING GRACE
An Address by beloved Mother Mary
The Ashram, December 24, 1959

Blessed and beloved of my heart of love! Again we, and you too, relive the Christmas Season, a season in which there is born, every year, the magnificent powers of my own blessed son, Jesus! I give to you the love of heaven and I bring to you all of the Spirit of the Christ, having seen beloved Jesus go through so many trials, true, but he always passed through those trials in a God-victorious manner, through the use of the power of divine love and the light which was within him and which is also, of course, anchored within your dear Holy Christ Flames!

It is one of my opportunities to see you, each one, passing through similar trials and giving to you, through a dispensation of the Cosmic Law, similar protection and blessing, which I gave at that time to one boy, whose birthdate mankind chooses to celebrate on the morrow. As your mother, it is my desire that you shall accept and use the power of God "I AM," particularly the gifts of the angelic host, of whom I am a member, and who shall be such an activating power in the year 1960. Let us not spend so much time on the intellectual theories of the past! Let us, rather, accept the glorious feeling of God-accomplishment in the present, right here and now!

1960, An Important Year

The first beginning was small, beloved ones—only two of us, Joseph and myself, then the third. Think how the Christ religion has expanded through those centuries, because it was anchored first, and foremost, in love divine, and we were guarded constantly because we remained always in a state of listening grace from the human creations of the outer world that would seek to destroy the Messiah, or that would seek in any way to cause him lack of power and authority to gain God-victory as he did, and he has gained, through the thousands of years that have been, since that time more victory, for everyone that enters the Ascended Master Realm gains the victory, not only of what they have been that is good, but then they become part of the great whole, which is the Great White Brotherhood. That victory, then, is the gift returned to any unascended being endeavoring to expand the light, wheresoever he or she may be.

The year of 1960 will be a year of tremendous import to you all. As you know, it is the year when the angels come close to men. Belonging as I do to the angelic host, I am very familiar with the power of the angels, very familiar with the activity of their feeling and the pressure that can enter into your feeling from them. We, of the angelic, host seldom take embodiment. The angelic host who are around at Christmas time, are those who have never taken embodiment. Therefore, they know only the feeling of God, the very nature of the God that made you and made me. That feeling can be transferred into your mind, consciousness and outer self with so little, aside from the acceptance, by your precious hearts, of the feelings of the angels of faith, and illumination, love, purity, perception, healing and freedom.

These are the gifts that are repeated over and over again to you, as they are the gifts of the mighty Chohans, whom you love and whom you have served. But a gift unused is a gift forgotten, or a gift etherealized, again into the sphere from whence it came. Now let us take, for instance, a piece of paper. Beloved ones, that paper represents our light given to you, our life and energy woven into the substance of your life. I can offer that to you, or any of the Ascended Beings can, but if you do not accept such a gift, it goes through a process of etherealization and returns again into the unformed, just as that paper does through the power of the sacred fire, (a piece of paper was lighted and allowed to burn to ash).

Let us be among those who can, and will, receive, joyously and happily, the gifts and powers of the angelic host and the glory of freedom that is part and parcel of your being, and the divine radiation which is that of the Holy Season and make of it whatsoever you require, to manifest God-perfection. Will you do this? As your mother, it is my desire, my hope, my prayer that you shall so accept, by the power of my love for you, those gifts we all have for you, particularly the angelic host at this time.

Oh, yes, you say, “But the years take toll, they show, and I yearn for the ‘over there.’” “Have you thought, beloved ones, why they have no mirrors or calendars at Luxor and that your “over there” is just what you make here! So straighten your spines and BE like Sanat Kumara, the youth of eternal summers! If you do not like what you see in the mirror, through the power of acceptance do not look upon it, but you can feel the radiation and gifts which are ours at all times. NOW, beloved ones, accept that feeling, that healing essence which is the gift of my life flowing into, through and around you and around all in distress, removing the cause and core of that distress and replacing it by God-happiness, right here and right now!

Ridding Yourself of Imperfections

When at Lourdes or Fatima, people have faith enough to accept healing, throw away their crutches, and be free of distress, yet in those holy shrines is only the Luminous Presence of myself—here, I am in person. In God’s mighty name “I AM,” LET GO of imperfection and become myself in action in the world of form! We would not continuously remind you of the possibility of such manifestation of the gifts of God acting through you, if they were not possible of accomplishment. True, your worlds seem to be filled with many tasks, but in my unascended state, so were mine! One of the peculiarities of the human mind is to allow it so say, “Yes, that is all right for Mary or her son, but not for me,” (which is a repellent shell around you), rejecting the blessings which can be yours today! Jesus’ mission was to manifest God through man! It is your mission, also. From Jesus, the angelic kingdom and all mankind, as well as the Spirit of Christmas, I give my love and gifts to you.

I worked alone, in the power of beloved Maitreya, with the help of blessed Jesus and Joseph, but it was not an easy task all those years, except for that wonderful illumined faith, that illumined faith in the goodness of God, which drew me forth from the human creation and helped us hold the immaculate concept, until that concept was manifest in human form. Now that concept I hold for you—take it or not. One day I shall meet you, here or there, and I shall again remind you, “Beloved child, I have been holding for you that immaculate concept—now we must learn to hold it for ourselves and for each other.”

Grace Defined

One of the peculiarities of the angelic host is the capacity to read the minds of the students and I see, repeatedly, although we speak in simple terms and powers, that your consciousness says, “Oh yeah, but” and it is that “but” that is a shell repelling God’s goodness from you.

Why should people who associate with Divine Beings, who have the privilege and honor of our presence, EVER feel, for any reason, whatsoever, that there is not a power of resuscitation, there is not a power of healing in this universe, that can act here in this physical world, and that there is no gift greater than that of God, to manifest through man. It is your mission. It is the mission of every soul on every planet, and particularly the children of our beloved Saint Germain, that they manifest that Godliness which, of course, is never accomplished through human will, but through the gift of grace.

“What is grace?” the mind will say. It is the capacity to listen to the power of God and consciously and positively reject the powers of evil, and that grace enables you to become the fullness of itself. That is how I learned when the angels came, when the messages came, when the various and sundry warnings came, by staying in that silence within, although I worked as a woman. I carried water from the well. I worked in the garden. But I kept a certain portion of me constantly in that state of grace, and that is my reason for suggesting to you that you develop a listening grace through the power of the God, who made you, and be wise enough to know what that grace is, and be wise enough to know that the human creation speaks also to you, is and be wise enough to be POSITIVE, until you have manifested perfection.

What is Required of Chelas

Think you not that we were not positive, Joseph and I? We could have fled from Herod's army, spent that time in Egypt in that heat, returned to ordinary living. Think you not Jesus, himself, was not positive when he made that long trip over the Himalayas to see the Divine Director, to learn those magnificent words, "I AM the Resurrection and the Life"? Think you he was not positive when he went into Jerusalem and knowing the trial that was to come, was willing to give the physical body, temporarily, to the powers of evil, to PROVE there is no death? THOSE ARE THE POSITIVE QUALITIES that are required of the worthy chela of light. There is no such thing, beloved ones, as lukewarm chelas. There is no such thing as the individual who is negatively good. We must have positiveness, qualified by love and understanding and manifesting it in every experience of life.

So from Jesus, himself, from the angelic kingdom, from the Spirit of Christmas, from all that it represents, I send and give my gift to you. Shall it be like the paper, burned away, or shall it be a living, breathing enthusiasm in you, to make you truly a Christus! Many sermons will be spoken today, songs will be sung, but they all feel the ONE JESUS did THE ENTIRE JOB. Oh, beloved ones, that is not a truth—EVERY BEING MUST BECOME A DIVINE BEING, HIMSELF.

COME NOW, AWAKEN AND BE that Christ, wheresoever you are. Right here, be still, and in my presence, let go of distress and accept perfection—for yourselves and all living things! This is our Christmas gift to you. Your acceptance of our reality is your gift to us.

HOW TO LET THE PRESENCE ACT

On this day, celebrated as the anniversary of my humble birth, I give honor and blessings not only to angels, mankind and elemental life, but particularly to those who made my victory possible. I refer to my blessed mother, who held, throughout her lifetime, the immaculate concept for me, to my good father (Saint Joseph), now the Ascended Master Saint Germain, who leads you and succeeding generations into permanent victory, and shall bring forth the magnificence of the Golden Age.

Beloved ones, the angelic host, are truly a part of that victory, coming in their God-free estate, closer and closer to the earth plane. In every one of my own personal experiences, wherein there was temporary trial, the power of my own holy family and the angelic host gave me the feeling of victory. Even on that Thursday in Gethsemane, when I offered back my "cup," the strength of the angels helped me to hold my cup that I might fill it on Good Friday and Easter Sunday.

You, too, now have a cup, filled with the gifts of God, and many times, even like unto myself, you desire to place your cup in the hands of the Father, not choosing to pour forth the fullness of its gifts to all mankind! What good is a cup, filled with the gifts of life eternal, if that cup, filled to the brim with our love, does not reach the souls of men, giving to them the essence of divinity, the encouragement required to progress upon life's way and the power (latent within them) to expand their own divinity. I was but one example of what all men shall become, here on this Earth, even before the glory of their ascension. Accept that in your feelings NOW!

Carry Your Cup in Honor

That Holy Christ Flame within your hearts is able to render this service through you. Utilizing this power requires great humility of the outer self, so that the human personality shall lessen and the Christ within always be given credit for doing the good works. Now is the hour when THAT accomplishment is required. Carry your cups in honor, that all who are athirst may drink thereof.

Again, again and again have I said I have been but an example of what all men shall be, here on this Earth, even before the victory of their freedom and the glory of their ascension. Can you not accept that in your feelings, that it would be a very foolish Godhead who would create but one divine son and many sons and daughters of clay! No, everyone from every star and system, has a bursting Christus waiting to expand, but it takes great strength to allow that light to expand into and through you. It takes great humility for you to understand that, in the expansion of the light, you become less and the power acting through you becomes more. It takes great discrimination to cognize that the gifts and virtues and blessings that flow forth are of the Father within you, acting through you, true, but not to glorify the self. How often have I said, even in my ministry on Earth, "It is not I. It is the Father within that doeth the works."

That Father-life is within you, too, willing to accomplish the works if you let it expand its power. What I have done, you can and SHALL do. NOW is the hour when that accomplishment is required, because mankind, everyone everywhere, desires the example manifest of the Christ in order to, in themselves, have the encouragement necessary to make like endeavor.

We are in the days and hours of change, true. Here upon the Earth there are many human appearances that frighten those who are not anchored in the power of God. Yet, those appearances are no greater than the appearances manifest in my ministry. In fact, except for the fact that they are televised, they are less. Where is the Christ that says unto them, "Peace be still" and then calls forth, by the power of love and light, the God-victory and manifestation that is required to make each and every one of you that manifest perfection, not only today, but so long as you shall remain on Earth and that will be part of your crown in heaven.

What Your Crown Is

Many individuals have wondered about that crown. That crown is made of all the good you have done through all the ages that you have lived. It is really the Causal Body which we wear, which the great Elohim wear, which those at the Teton wear, and which is a part of the jeweled magnificence of your victorious Presence.

There are many mansions in the Father's home. Let your mansion be one of great light! Your mansion began when first you took embodiment upon the earth plane and into that mansion has been builded all of the good you have done through the ages. You often remember visiting them upon awakening in the morning. Through the gift of projected consciousness, enter into your mansion of light, and abide therein, feeling the play of light in and around you, enjoying the gardens of flame-flowers, and the general perfection of those realms of love in those mansions which are your own!

We are cognizant that the service rendered on the earth plane is great and that the energies involved in the sustaining of that service are many, but think you that you could even accomplish that much service, were it not for the intervention and sustenance of the Ascended Host of light? Ah no, you live truly by the power of light and the gift of love and the energy of OUR PRESENCE acting through you. So when you fold a sheet of paper, when you raise a hand in service, remember that it is the Father within and our presence that is giving the benediction and the blessing through you and practicing that you become the Christus manifest here on Earth.

Magnify the Power of the Lord

From the time of my earliest recollection, my mother taught me to magnify the power of the Lord to bless life. If we had not practiced that law of love, we would not have become the masters of energy and vibration. Even in the secular world, if one does not practice any power, he or she does not become master of its gifts and powers. Practice standing aside, humanly speaking, to allow the power of God, through you, to act! Remember always, it is God, through you, who renders the so-called miracles, even as I constantly reminded my people that it was not I, but the Father, within, which did all the works. The SAME opportunity is yours NOW. Utilize it as I did and do not let that God-power wither on the vine. Allow it to wax strong and active within and through you TODAY.

That is the activity I used in my own life, simple as it was, though it has been gloried by succeeding generations. While I walked the ways of earth there were not so many in our number, yet we practiced the using of the power of the presence of God I AM in everything that we did. In that practice, when our public mission began, I was able to utilize the momentum and the power of that Christ Presence to do the service that had to be rendered.

Practice Daily

Beloved ones, if you sat, as some of the blessed worshippers in the East, with your hand behind your back for forty years, it would wither—nature's way, until it was permanently crippled. They think it is a devotion, yet the hands were given to utilize in practical service, and those men and women in India and China, particularly in the East, could do more with their good hands expanding the power of practical secular cleanliness and understanding and instruction than they could in allowing the arm or the foot to wither in that which they call asceticism.

NOW, where is your practice of the presence of God? You know when you have practiced, say in anything, you are proficient at it and you can do it almost automatically, whether it is playing the piano, using the type-recorded machine, as beloved Morya says, whether it is using the automobile, whatever service you are rendering becomes almost automatic and you can render that service without any consciousness of it. That is how the practice of the powers of the Presence become, until they are almost automatic in their service in and through you, for the blessing of all life.

I say this truly as one who is among you, not one who has come forth from you but one who has come to you. I lived always by the practical power of using the ever-presence of God.

May the blessings of this holy season be upon you, radiating forth through you, to your loved ones and all upon this Earth.

HOW THE ASCENDED MASTERS CREATE

by Mary, Mother of Jesus

You are attaining great freedom and enjoying the one eternal happiness that results from becoming Master of circumstances, rather than victims of fate. The lifestreams who begin to perceive the powers of the Sacred Fire and avail themselves of the opportunity of drawing the Sacred Fire into focus, both for the purification of cosmic causes known and unknown and for the creation of new fundamental rates of vibration, are passing through the door from the realm of three dimensions, which is a prison, into the realm of cosmic cause, which is the Fourth Dimensional activity of the Ascended Masters' Octave. It is the fulfillment of the promise of Serapis Bey, when he said you would consciously pass over the bridge into the realm of divine ideation and while yet wearing the garments of flesh you would no longer be at the mercy of your own misuse of the creative energy or that of others.

The Realm of Consciousness

You are studying consciousness and you have come to a realization that within the realm of consciousness is the cause of every effect, good and evil, that has appeared or will appear in the lifestream of the individual, but there is something ABOVE consciousness.

Consciousness is the effect of the use of the God-principle by a self-conscious intelligence who has woven out of the universal light substance an invisible aura, in which there rests the causes to which we refer. You cannot say, for fact, that man is his consciousness. Man experiences the results created by him through the use of energy and vibration, and his consciousness is the effect of his use of free will.

Consciousness is the Instrument of Creation

The consciousness is the instrument of creation. The Ascended Masters' Consciousness is their instrument and they create, in their realm of consciousness, just as the artist creates within his workroom or studio. The brush and easel are the implements used within the studio, as are the thought and feeling faculties the implements by which consciousness is formed.

How Consciousness is Created

You have therefore a fourfold differentiation:

- a) The self-conscious intelligence, which is the individuality.
- b) The thought and feeling faculties, which are implements of the self-conscious intelligence.
- c) The primal life energy, and
- d) The finished product, which is consciousness. This is at inner levels.

The Use of the Sacred Fire

Consciousness, evolved through thought and feeling and the use of the Sacred Fire, becomes an instrument through which every idea passes into the third dimensional world to become form.

Consciousness is the conductor from the unseen to the manifest. The Ascended Master Consciousness is used by the Master within, which he creates through the faculties of thought and feeling, but in order to have his manifestation come forth into the physical appearance world, he must use the medium of some consciousness who still belongs to the vibratory action of the race, on the planet which he is assisting.

Human Consciousness and Purity

The cosmic consciousness flows through some highly-evolved pure human consciousness. Such lifestreams become cosmic conductors of divinity and you have no greater example than that of our beloved Jesus. When the Cosmic Christ entered his very pure consciousness, the two became ONE.

In my discourse yesterday, I spoke of the necessity of purifying the consciousness through which any cosmic powers may flow, for the reason that the descent of cosmic ideation through that medium would energize and vivify any accumulation through which it passes, and in order to have selfless instruments, who will allow their consciousness to be used by the Divine Beings who are, by Law, only permitted to serve through lifestreams belonging to our planet, we must be assured that these human consciousnesses are like crystal vials through which our life and light and powers might flow.

Picturization and Habit

Regarding the fundamental rates of vibration of picturization and habit, these are tremendous cores of concentrated energy, that act independently of the personal self. The intense call for the purification of these rates of vibration, known and unknown, within the lifestream, will continue your already-rapid progress toward the development of a consciousness which cannot be impinged upon by any imperfect creation.

Offering Your Consciousness to the Ascended Masters

OFFERING YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS TO THE ASCENDED MASTERS, as the beloved Maha Chohan explained, WILL ALLOW SUCH GLORIOUS, DIVINE IDEAS TO BE CREATED WITHIN THE SCOPE OF YOUR INTELLECTUAL ACCEPTANCE AND RECOGNITION, AS WILL AMAZE YOU. These, fed by your thought and feeling, will come forth to create with greater and greater clarity, fed with your great creative experiments.

Calling to the Beings of Purity

Continue the purification of your consciousness through the use of the Sacred Fire. Call to the Beings of Purity, and through self-conscious alertness, entertain no picture which would be like a great cloud on the cosmic currents passing through you for the freedom of all.

USE OF THE RESURRECTION FLAME

Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class , April 16, 1960

Dear Chelas Who Wish to Use the Resurrection Flame:

One of my services to life is to resurrect the nature kingdom at every springtime, and naturally I am connected with the Resurrection Temple, now open to mankind in this thirty-day period (April 15th through May 14th, 1960).

Just as beloved Jesus used victoriously the Resurrection Flame, each chela is expected to do likewise. In this year of 1960, you have the exceptional opportunity of the use of action of the Violet Transmuting Flame of beloved Zadkiel and the Ascended Saint Germain, and also that of the Resurrection Flame of beloved Ascended Master Jesus and his holy mother, Mary.

Hold yourselves in rapport with the rays that are pouring out every minute of the day, from the Resurrection Temple to all parts of the world. This will raise the vibratory action of your mind and feelings, as well as that of the cells of your physical bodies.

Some of you may ask, "How can I tune into the Resurrection Flame?" One of the ways to do this is by magnifying your love and adoration of beloved Jesus and Mary and by reading their addresses and the descriptions of their temple. The next thing is to invoke the Resurrection Flame and visualize it passing through your four lower bodies (emotional, mental, etheric and physical) and through every appearance of distress that comes to your attention and, of course, attend daily, in your consciousness, the Resurrection Temple, where beloved Jesus and Mary and my humble self will meet you.

You will enjoy more illumination, a greater purification of your feelings and the rejuvenation of your physical bodies.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

REMOVING DISTRESS
FROM YOUR MIND, FEELINGS AND BODY
An Address by the Archangel Gabriel

I am Gabriel, he who is called “the Announcer,” bringing tidings of great joy to all generations. These tidings come to you in the progress of this sweet Earth as she, and all her evolutions, move ever upward in the holy Father’s scheme of God-creation. There are already inner, divine causes set up, waiting to burst through the veil of maya, as a manifest expression of God-perfection which the beloved Saint Germain holds for you as well as for succeeding generations.

Have you ever thought what causes motivation? Motivation is caused by the will to do, the intelligence by which it is done, and the love by which to sustain the manifestation. This was the power utilized for the progression of the Earth and the same activity of motivation can be used to accelerate the cells and atoms of your being, throwing off into the Violet Transmuting Flame, all discord, and sustaining and accelerating the power of God, alive within you, rather than allowing your physical vehicle to decline. Think of it! The motivating power in all life is of a different vibration, of course.

So-called inanimate matter is impregnated with the consciousness of all who use it, but the motivating power of the cells and atoms of your dear bodies can be regulated and move more rapidly, until all human creation is removed, and the powers of your Holy Christ Flame activated and set free, to bless all life everywhere. Accelerate the vibratory action of those organs and cells, which require assistance NOW. The moment you think of us, you are with us and the moment we think of you, we are with you. That is truly a power of rapid motivation, is it not?

That is a science. It is a science that can be used, and is used efficaciously by unascended beings as well as those in our kingdom. You cannot even move yourself from this room into your own quarters without being willing to do so, having intelligence enough to go there and then making of your room a shrine of light by the love that is acting.

Practice the power of accelerating, calling to your I AM Presence and Holy Christ Self to accelerate the motion of the cells and atoms that make up your physical vehicle and inner vehicles and see the manifestation that can be yours TODAY!

Beloved ones, utilize these powers. There is no sense in bringing glad tidings of great joy to this or any generation if there is not the acceptance and utilization of those powers within the lifestream to whom we give the gift of our very life.

Now visualize a crystal ball, about the size of the palm of your hand, and see it rotating upon its axis, that axis perfectly straight—as the Earth soon shall be—and see it move from left to right, of course. That is a magnified cell made up of many electrons. Those are within you and when you call the POWERS OF LIGHT into that cell and it begins to rotate more rapidly, wherever the condition of distress seems to be in the mind or the body, in the soul, in the feelings, it can be removed by the powers of light. This is God-truth, proven by unascended beings and which can be proven by you today.

We are in the season of Christmas, one which I remember well, as I participated so joyously both in my visitation to holy Mary and to the Ascended Master Jesus and Saint Germain (then Saint Joseph) on many happy occasions. As you practice the power of the presence of God, alive within you, you will, of course, become more of the light of the world. Walking the ways of men, you shall not be like unto them, for your light shall be a pathway of grace to all.

That, will give you, of course, a tremendous acceleration but until that hour comes you can receive the acceleration of the cells of your beings through our presence and OUR CHARGE OF LIGHT through you. You can sustain that in ovoids of light, by the power of the Sacred Fire.

Practice these things. Yet though you walk the ways of men, you shall not be like unto them; you shall be like the shining stars in heaven, which is your destiny and which you must one day fulfill.

Beloved Jesus spoke upon the subject of practicing the powers of the presence of God, within him, which manifested his victory. Although even we, of the angelic kingdom, gave great assistance to his lifestream, if he personally had not chosen to practice those truths, he would not have accomplished the perfect example for all the Christian Dispensation.. My Lady Hope gives constantly of her feeling of hope eternal to the hearts and souls of men in temporary distress. Call on beloved Hope and the angelic kingdom, and allow the orbit of the electrons and cells of your vehicles to expand until you are God-free beings NOW.

Beloved and blessed of my heart, I love the light that is your heart-beat—the eternal flame that is alive within you and which will one day be God free. Every hierarch and sponsor and master at the Teton loves that light and you have learned, and are learning, to love that light within each other, though sometimes the untransmuted karma seems to be more powerful, but if your love is strong enough, you can do as Jesus did, when he drew the devils, themselves, out of individuals.

You can call that untransmuted karma into the Violet Fire and love life free. Combine this with calling for the Luminous Presence of myself or any one of the Ascended Host and see the results. You are now in a position to call any Divine Being and through the power of your Holy Christ Self to invoke the assistance that is required to blaze the flame through all untransmuted karma, to love life eternally free.

PRACTICE THESE THINGS. These are the most simple of all instructions, as you know, and as it descends upon you, acknowledge our reality. You shall then be master of the very substance and energy of your sweet worlds.

Oh, there are many souls who consider that it is impossible for them to attain to the heights of divinity's stature. It is the Lady Hope, herself, radiating in, through and around them that gives that stature of perfection, manifesting it with the fullest power of the Sacred Fire, without limit. So stand as the Ascended Host you represent, as the angelic host which we are, and allow the orbit of the electrons and cells of your vehicles to expand, expand and expand, until you become God free beings.

THIS I ASK IN THE NAME OF THE SAVIOR JESUS, whom we honor in this holy season. We call him "savior" and that is true, because salvation, itself, is knowledge of the Law and that knowledge, applied, sets mankind free. Savior as used in the activity of vicarious atonement, of course, is a fallacy of the church, but when the Law is given and not used, when the instruction, radiation, blessing and POWER of the Sacred Fire is not poured forth, after the Law is given, there is a karmic line written on your page of life. So wipe clean your page of life, your year of life, your years of life, your centuries of life, your aeons of living, through the power of this Violet Flame and let your volume of living in the cosmic library contain only those beautiful and perfect pictures and experiences of perfection that you have ever known now, known before and are to know again. Thus, I come to announce tidings of great joy to you, that the Father of life within you can and will expand, through you, the vibratory action of himself, for the blessing of all imprisoned life. Charge and accept that activity into your feelings, beloved. Let the beloved El Morya be spiritually grateful before the Karmic Board for his energy invested so lovingly in you, each one, when the petitions are presented to the Karmic Board, for 1960. The Earth is in the process of the most rapid redemption of any star that has even sunk to the depths that the Earth has. The Earth is now being resuscitated quickly. Resuscitate yourselves with it and progress with it into that light, that light that we know and that WE ARE!

The blessings of the Holy Season be yours, and the blessings of every being, power and legion of heaven flow to, through and around you, setting the light within you FREE TODAY, sustained by God's holy name, "I AM." Thank you so much.

THE POWER OF RESURRECTION

Address delivered at the Ashram by the Cosmic Being Hope

Beloved friends, in order to achieve and maintain the immaculate concept of which blessed Gabriel speaks, unascended lifestreams do require a tremendous buoyancy, which is to be found within the Flame of Hope, which it is my joy to sustain in the emotional, mental, etheric and physical worlds, for without hope no man could finish his course, no woman or child could sustain the constructive endeavor upon which he or she is engaged.

We are part of the springtime, Gabriel and I. Gabriel—through the Resurrection Flame, connects with the beautiful Virgo and Amaryllis and brings up through the earth the magnificent blossoms that show the power of resurrection in the nature kingdom. I give the fragrance to those flowers, which is hope. If a dormant bulb lying in the earth through the long winter beneath snow and ice, can be stirred to the resurrection and direct its shoots and flower through the ground and then give forth perfume, it should be a great hope and example to mankind that what a bulb has been able to do in externalizing its immaculate concept, mankind also can do!

Externalizing Your Divine Pattern

As the Resurrection Flame of Spring surges through the earth, as you look upon every flowering shrub and budding tree, as you look upon every early spring flower which has utilized the power of the Resurrection Flame, feel the currents of hope alive within you, for within your hearts, you know, is a divine pattern and plan waiting to burst forth and externalize, making you, each one, a Christ, a more powerful kernel by far than the little tiny kernel within which is held the pattern of the crocus or the early violet.

Within your hearts, beloved ones, embodiment after embodiment, the great and patient God has placed the divine immaculate concept of himself, and springtime after springtime, year in and year out, embodiment after embodiment, where is the flower and the perfume of your Christ? I say, now it is not enough that Jesus burst the tomb of immortality, resuscitated a mutilated form and stood forth a resurrected, shining being, when there are ten billion lifestreams belonging to the Earth's evolution and about three and a half billion of them are in embodiment today, waiting, waiting, waiting for someone else to externalize the Christ nature.

There is no human being who does not have that divine plan and pattern within him and it is written that man was made in the image and the very likeness of God. That image and that likeness has been shrouded around by personalities, until so few have come to flower. Were every one of the elements to be as recalcitrant as mankind who have used this Earth, there would be no spring, no violet, no crocus, no lily, no flowering shrub. They would stay beneath the earth, year in and year out, but elemental life, inferior to that of humankind, has expected the resurrection power and created the rhythm of spring, summer, harvest and rest.

What nature has done, what Jesus did, what a few very exceptional lifestreams before Jesus and after him have done, is the destiny of all this race and those that are yet to be born! So, on behalf of the God that made you, the Christ that is within you and the potentialities that await development through you, I do invoke the power of cosmic hope, to sustain your feelings in a receptive consciousness, until you are a manifest expression of your divinity. So to you all I say this morning, accept Lord Gabriel's concept for yourselves, for each other and for the Earth and take my buoyancy, which is the power of hope, not just during this time, but as a permanent gift of my heart to you.

TEMPLES OF THE PAST AND THE PRESENT

Excerpts from an Address by Beloved Maha Chohan

Everything, even your planet, is builded in light. If you had stood in the atmosphere and seen the Elohim looking into the body of the Silent Watcher and then drawing forth the light rays to form that convex cradle into which the substance was drawn, to make the Earth, you would have seen only light and heard only the beautiful harmony of the spheres. The creation of the Golden Age of tomorrow is taking place in the same manner—through light—and that light is your energy, drawing the substance from the etheric realm and building specific momentums of healing, of purification, of illumination in the various localities where you graciously chose to form groups, sanctuaries and activities dedicated to the Sacred Fire. You have responded to the call of love.

In the great ages where mankind knew freedom, the priests and priestesses of the Sacred Fire concentrated upon one specific gift to life, and they became specialists in drawing forth, from the heart of the universal, that particular quality and momentum. There were temples of precipitation, there were temples of illumination, temples of education, temples where the nature devas were trained to control all weather conditions, temples of healing, and so on and so forth.

The Temples of the Past

The mankind that functioned and lived in those eras knew where those temples were. When they were depleted, in themselves, in one quality or another, they made pilgrimages to those temples. As they walked up the steps and as they sat within the silence of those temples, they were re-vitalized. Their own energies absorbed, even as the sponge absorbs water, the quality of energy which the priests and priestesses had gathered and which they offered to all who entered therein.

In the activity which has preceded this, generalization was the order of the day. In these conferences and conclaves where you join together one with another, the various momentums that you gather must be blended. Then, when you return to your individual orbit, you will have some of the strength, some of the sweetness, some of the faith, some of the light, some of the purity from each of the visiting priests and priestesses that carry, from their own forcefield, a portion of their qualified life to add and contribute to the good of the whole.

BELOVED ONES, ALL LIFE HAS SOMETHING TO OFFER. The smallest violet, the most beautiful tree, every bird, every angel, every deva, every man—each has something to offer from that Holy Christ Self. Each has a reason for being, each has a radiation through the energies of his or her own world, which can be a benefit and a blessing, a nourishment and a stimulant to the inner energies of your own world—if you will choose to so open yourself to accept them.

Tuning into Your Etheric Temple

If you choose, in your individual activities, to call to the local Silent Watcher over your city or town, and to find within yourself the keynote of the temple which pulsates in the ethers above your sanctuary or group, and you will endeavor, then, to concentrate your energies to drawing forth the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of that temple, that worship and that light, I am sure you will find great joy in becoming specialists along one line or another.

When you are strong and when your momentum is gathered, then will be the time to increase the numbers of mankind of Earth who are cognizant of you and of your service. Then will be the time to turn the attention and the consciousness of the people toward you, for you will have something to give that will be the greatest proof possible, beloved children of God, of your oneness with the Father and your direction from us, for you are our representatives in this world of form. On your light and on your manifest works is our success measured by the people of the world, FOR WE, BY COSMIC LAW, MUST YET REMAIN BEHIND THE HUMAN VEIL AND USE YOU AS OUR VERY SELVES IN ACTION.

And may I say, beloved ones, those of you who have responded so kindly, so graciously, so beautifully to my humble endeavors to give to you a little bit of the comfort of my life in “The Bulletin,” I am extremely grateful for the light that you pour back to me in your written word, in your prayers, in your affirmations. You do not know what it means to receive so much love from the mankind of Earth, for up to only a few years ago, few even knew my name or that I had being!

THE INTERCONNECTION OF LIFE An Instruction Given At the Ashram By Ascended Lady Master Nada

The tremendous struggle, which is paramount in the life of the individual who aspires to Godliness, prompts my presence here with you this morning.

The mass of mankind have accepted themselves as the personality which they wear in embodiment and for them the weaknesses and habits of the personality are as much a part of the natural course of their life experience, as the petals are of the rose. When a lifestream is awakening to the consciousness that he or she must lay aside the qualities that are offensive to life and that such a one must consciously become a harmonious expression of God's energy, there immediately ensues a sense of battle and struggle, self-abnegation and self-discipline that goes on through numerous embodiments and which expresses as the penances and self-inflicted punishments that have been practiced in the churches, and by the people of the East, in the torture of their bodies and the denials of the flesh.

Having assumed the name of "NADA" and having passed the way of Earth, I would like to express to you the truth, which will enable the discerning individual to express his inherent Godliness in the natural manner which life intends.

On Separateness

Every personality on the face of this globe is a blot against the Sun. Separateness is not eternal and it is not truth. The aspirant must not dignify nor recognize the personal self as an adversary to be overcome, because in so doing he gives wrong recognition to a power which uses this shadow-self, and which then, by the very life of the aspirant, released through this power, lives to torture him.

There is no unascended being who is not thoroughly convinced of his identity as an ego apart from the fullness of God, whose rights and whose attributes must be affirmed and projected by self-conscious effort. The constant struggle to maintain a separate identity, rather than allowing the little self to flow gently into the one universal whole, is unnatural and is the cause of all stress, nervous tension and emotional distress and unrest. It is the same as if one wave of the sea refused to merge and become part of the tide. The uneven and unnatural struggle would soon exhaust the energy of the erring wave, which would be drawn by the power of the great ocean back into its natural oneness with the sea.

The Oneness of Life

The student body is looking at God as a being apart from itself, toward which it must attain by a constant battle with this separate entity created by its own belief. The Ascended Host of Light have become a part of the universal whole and from the bosom of the Father pour their light to all the rest of the expressions of themselves.

The honest individual will realize, by a little introspection, that his entire life is devoted to the maintenance of this separate ego. Let any man be touched upon the “primal rights” of this separate ego and he or she, like a wild beast, would rush to its defense.

The Master Jesus gave an example of the nothingness of the outer man, when he was distinctly unconcerned with the efforts of the people to destroy the dignity and the Godliness of the form he inhabited. He, knowing that all life was one, realized that they but poured out their own life’s blood, and crucified by their own acts, the atoms of their own bodies.

When you once conceive of the oneness of life and when your consciousness is impregnated with the realization of that oneness, you will let go of the consciousness that there is any separation between you and the beggar on the street or the Ascended Host of heaven. The one, life singing through all, must be treated with the same unfailing courtesy and kindliness. When Saint Francis gave his cloak to the unclothed and his food to the hungry, his disciples rebuked him, for they had learned to love Francis and not life, but Francis, in his great illumination, knew that he but fed and clothed himself.

This feeling of oneness brings a humility and peace indescribable, for only a consciousness of separateness brings anger, selfishness and judgment. Disassociate your thinking and feeling processes from any ideation that the life within your body is a separate and distinct entity from the whole and let that life flow ceaselessly forth from you in a radiation of good, while you dwell in the bosom of the one God and do not, even for an instant, allow any part of your consciousness—by word, thought or feeling—show any preference to the life flowing through your vessel over that of any other.

“NADA” means “NOTHING.” This is not a negative, lethargic or passive state, but it is the same consciousness which Jesus used when he said, “I, of my own self, can do nothing,” etc. It is rather a most powerfully positive and concentrated consciousness of the ONENESS of the eternal life of the universe, and he who attains that consciousness, has become one with the ascended consciousness, even while he yet appears in the third dimensional garments of flesh.

LEARNING TO PERSEVERE
An Address Delivered at the Ashram by Gautama, Lord of the World

Beloved, blessed ones of light, YOU are the light of the world, for within your beating hearts is the most beautiful flame, and that flame, expanding in the radiance of our love, is the hope of mankind, imprisoned angels, and every living thing. The light within your hearts is what we, in the ascended state, love. That light within your hearts is the signal to all of the Great White Brotherhood, to all of the angels of heaven, to all the powers that are acting to effect and manifest world peace. There are among the sons and daughters of men those willing to be magnetizing centers for that peace, that can never be disturbed no matter what the pressure of energy from within or without may be.

My Armageddon

In my life long ago, as Prince Siddhartha, I, too, learned the lesson to persevere for many, many years, in my search for truth. Having forsaken the beauty and perfection of my father and my own beloved wife and son, I sought the truth, a way and means by which mankind and all living things might be freed from disease and distress. Sometimes, as my aspirations rose Godward, I must tell you that my mind returned to my home and my loved ones and there was the Armageddon. Could I not have done better as the ruler of India, to bring light to the world, than as a nameless mendicant! And there, alone as I endeavored to do that which my own heart seemed to have prompted me to do, there alone, I, too, learned what it was to persevere—to persevere even as my consciousness opened to every one of the spheres and I enjoyed the glory of it.

Yet, something within me said, “No, it is not the ultimate,” until I had reached, in consciousness, the very heart of God, himself, and touched the hem of his robe and felt the effulgent light of his presence and knew what it was to come home! In that moment, all that I was, longed to remain in that glory, but I had to persevere in returning through the seven spheres, into a vehicle that had become emaciated, and re-animate that vehicle and walk and talk with those who were my followers, giving to them those precepts and truths, some of which you know so well, holding my peace and radiating that particular gift of enlightenment, until my Guru called me to come.

Fulfilling Your Mission

Every great and Ascended One has had the temptation, from time to time, as Jesus did in Gethsemane’s garden, to ask the Father of Light to remove the cup, but every sainted and Ascended One has persevered, in his own particular service to light unto the end, and those who asked for surcease most assuredly were given it, for God is a God of mercy and love, and they laid down their unfinished business and faced the Karmic Board with their baskets not filled with the sheaves of accomplishment and were given rest in the sleepers’ realm and allowed to be present with their own Guru and given new strength. Then they came to Earth again, with the same mission, which they did not fulfill before—for until your mission is fulfilled, until you have wrought the purpose through, which made you man, you shall not have the fullness of your ascension!

Bodies tire and souls weary and we are cognizant of that, having passed this way ourselves, but I can assure you that you, who are faithful to the end, will wear the seamless robe and the beautiful crown of victory and you shall not know remorse for what “might have been!” Often have I thought, if I had returned to my father’s house and rejoined my wife and son, and taken up the rulership of light in Asia, it would have seemed a noble thing, yet it was the prayer and the love and the strength of the Guru who guided me, who kept me from the deception of the human mind, which often weaves into promptings motives of a nature not wholly divine. So, wherever your path has placed you, if your hand is on the plow, my hand rests upon yours. RUN YOUR FURROW TO THE END AND THEN WHEN YOU COME TO GREET US, WE CAN SAY, AS WAS SAID LONG AGO, “WELL DONE, GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!”

Your Cups Are Filled

It is most difficult to formulate, in words, instruction for unascended beings, for I have long dwelt in an activity of pure radiation and light, where words and gestures are unneeded and my service as the Buddha was to enfold the planet in that love and light. When the opportunity came for Sanat Kumara to join his beloved on Venus, I could not allow myself the luxury of sojourning longer in that effulgent light, and willingly and joyously, in the name of that great Sanat Kumara, and as a servant of the Great White Brotherhood, I took upon my shoulders the cloak, as well as the responsibility and the obligation, to be the Lord of the World—and just as willingly and graciously does Sanat Kumara (given full freedom to act on Venus) return to Earth. My gratitude is given to the beloved Lord Maitreya who, during this period of my adjustment to the activities of pomp and circumstance, has acted for me on so many occasions as the presiding celebrant at celestial functions.

Beloved ones, please know that when we come, we give you our light, that is qualified with all the momentum of our living. It is priceless! It enters your feelings, it enters your minds, it becomes part of your etheric body, and it enters the substance of your flesh. So, dear ones, do not dissipate it as soon as we have ceased speaking. You have the greatest gift in the world, when any divine being gives you of their light. This is the communion of saints! Your cups are filled! It is a previous essence that can be lost by the ill-use of the tongue, or by any of the senses. Conserve it, each of you a holy grail, blessed by the Lord of the World. God in heaven be with you!

ON ASCENSION DAY
By the Beloved Ascended Master Jesus

In the great honor accorded me through the Christian Era, little has been understood with regard to my service performed on Holy Thursday, wherein I offered the body and blood of my lifestream to the beloved friends gathered with me that hour. It is my consciousness that I chose to share with them and which I hoped they would continue to partake of, in the knowledge that there is no separation in the bonds of love.

Food That Ye Know Not Of

Mankind is constantly, consciously and otherwise, partaking of the consciousness of each other, through the written and spoken word, through radiation and picturized ideas, but it is seldom that mankind aspires to partake of the consciousness of an Ascended Being, which is always open to any suppliant. When I said, "I have food that ye know not of," I spoke of this great parent consciousness of which I partook and in which I lived constantly. You, too, have food that your own lifestreams know not of and if you would choose to draw the Ascended Master Consciousness, rather than dwelling, accepting and living upon the human consciousness' reports of your own and other human beings' outer senses, you would know the peace and perfection which I endeavored to manifest to mankind, centuries ago.

As the human consciousness of other lifestreams flows into your own, when your attention is upon them with disfavor or otherwise, they affect the tone and nature of your own being. So, also, does the Godly consciousness flow, carrying, within itself, rivers of healing, illumination, peace and well-being.

The Awakened Chela

All men choose consciously or unconsciously whatever state of consciousness they wish to entertain and live within, but the awakened chela has the opportunity to "tune into" and dwell within the Ascended Jesus Christ Consciousness, until it becomes as much a part of his nature as the human consciousness of the world, before his awakening affected his mannerisms, characteristics and reactions.

Having achieved the ultimate glory of the ascension through the sustained consciousness of GOOD, I refused to entertain evil, and that consciousness which I AM, can be a tremendous resurrecting power when drawn through your own consciousness, as a great flame enfolds the lesser and the two become ONE.

My Presence and my Victory is Part of Your Life

If the weight and pressure of the human consciousness finds your soul unable to aspire, the invocation of my consciousness through yourself can do much to disconnect the lifestream from the contemplation of imperfection and anchor it again into a sustained effort to live within the consciousness of GOOD alone, which is the mutual or shared consciousness of every perfected being, of angels and of Solar Lords.

On Ascension Day a great outpouring of my cosmic consciousness envelopes the planet Earth and her people, and whether they are aware or not, of my presence and victory, yet that presence and victory, being part of their life, is flowing through their inner vehicles in an uplifting, transmuting activity, which is for their mutual benefit and spiritual evolution. To each one of you, I give my individualized flame, within which is the substance of my life and the radiation of my nature and the characteristics of my being, which you, if you acknowledge and approve, may use to amplify your own natural current of expression.

ENLIGHTENMENT WILL BRING PEACE Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class of May 21, 1960

Beloved Children of God Seeking Illumination,

This month is truly the month of illumination. In it we commemorate, this year, the ascension of my beloved son, the Ascended Master Saint Germain, Lord Gautama's illumination, the Wesak Festival and the ascension of our beloved Jesus. Besides, the consecration of souls takes place at the Sacred Heart Temple of beloved Mary, holy mother of Jesus. The Temple of Illumination of the mighty God and Goddess Meru is also host to the world, between May 15th and June 14th, 1960, and within this thirty-day period, on June 5th, we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, known as Whitsuntide, in which every year I direct an outpouring of the powers of the I AM Presence into the Holy Christ Selves of all mankind.

In this month, therefore, it is expected of every chela to intensify their gratitude, love and adoration to our great God and Goddess Meru, to our beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, to Lord Gautama (now Lord of the World), to Lord Buddha (former Lord Maitreya), to our beloved Ascended Master Jesus and to his holy mother, Mary, as well as to the activities of the representative of the Holy Spirit on Earth.

This is the time for chelas, also, to persevere in their quest for understanding, for enlightenment, to see the cause and core of their limitations, to transmute them through the power of the Violet Transmuting Flame, in order that they may perceive their immaculate concept and the part assigned each one of them in the divine plan.

Their daily attendance, in consciousness, at the Temple of Illumination, in company with magnificent gentlemen sponsors (who are tall of stature, with hair like unto spun gold), where they will meet all these Great Beings, will be a tremendous help in making their victory in this endeavor.

It is also expected of our chelas to add their spiritual momentums to the daily outpouring of the illumination rays from God Meru's temple, into the minds and hearts of all mankind, especially into the minds and hearts of those who are rulers of countries and leaders of multitudes, not only in the Southern Hemisphere, where the Illumination Temple is located, but in Europe, Africa and Asia and throughout the planet.

Your Friend, Guru and Servant, Maha Chohan

THE WESAK FESTIVAL May 11th, 1960

The great annual Wesak Festival represents the fullest outpouring of nature represented by the month of May, and as the planet Earth must be served through her natural facets, the time of year when the currents of earth are turned outward, toward manifestation, and every leaf and tree and bud and blossom are unfolding the beauty of their own heart center, the Hierarchy utilizes this natural force for their greatest outpouring of nourishment to the soul and spirit of man.

It was the beloved Lord Gautama Buddha (who is now the Lord of the World) who first joined the mighty course of the river of his life to the natural currents of Earth, in his visitation that first full moon in May, and year after year since then, every member of the Brotherhood has voluntarily joined the substance and energy of his or her own lifestream to increase the crescendo of spiritual blessings that flow forth at this mighty festival.

You Are Invited to the Wesak Festival

There is no outer invitation to the Wesak Festival. The light within the heart draws the wayfarers and pilgrims, both in their inner and outer bodies to the place where it is held. There is never a mention made as to the exact location where the visitation will take place, but the tribes and nomads and disciples of Lord Gautama start into motion in March and April and are led only by the prayer in their hearts, which points their feet toward the great light, which is the only magnet and invitation that can draw them—without compass or guide—with the whole of Asia beneath them.

From Ceylon and India, from Persia and Arabia, from China and Tibet and all Asiatic countries come the enthusiastic pilgrims who cross continents without thought of time or effort. The pupils in the West, whose light is great and who are drawn by that light and whose inner bodies are a part of the receiving as well as the outpouring of the energy, are oftentimes entirely unconscious of the tremendous experience which has bathed their souls in the celestial and eternal light and they return to their mundane tasks and duties greatly enriched by their experience.

In describing to you some of the festivities of the Wesak Valley Festival, which takes place each year at the time of the full moon in the month of May, we would like to draw your minds toward that valley and allow you to contact, in a moment of silence, the great outpouring of the new Lord of the World, as the moon reaches its fullest radiation. Why do we choose the time of the full moon? Because, beloved ones, every emotional body is at its greatest tide and there is more opportunity to pour the radiation from above. As part of this pilgrimage, chelas honor Lord Gautama and he, in turn, creates a visible, luminous form in the atmosphere with his glorious Causal Body, pouring through the benediction of his presence.

When Lord Gautama decided to expand his Causal Body to meet that of Sanat Kumara, he naturally made a much greater radiating center of blessing, and so the outpouring of the new Lord of the World, which takes place at the Wesak Festival, is greater than before he became Lord of the World.

Finding The Wesak Valley

The preparations are made by the conscious chelas who create the stone altar and bring the golden chaste bowl and fill it with the beautiful lotus of the East, in honor of the coming of Lord Gautama. As the pilgrims arrive, you can see their yak tents as they busy themselves about their personal ablutions, each one preparing according to his own capacity to receive the benediction of the Lord.

The great angelic beings and builders of form supervise the spiritual activity and Great Beings at the cardinal points of the valley—north, east, south and west—magnetize the pilgrims on Chamuel's Ray by an added heart pull.

Will you pray with us that all who are earnest, honest and sincere may find their way to that valley! It is the voice of Asia that is the prayer in the heart of thousands, that the flame in their hearts may lead to the presence of their Lord.

CONSECRATION OF SOULS AT THE SACRED HEART TEMPLE By Beloved Mother Mary

Beloved children of the one eternal God, I bring to you this day the peace of heaven. It is this peace which your dear souls so much require, in order to bring your four lower bodies in order. Without peace, no unascended being can experience the stability of dwelling constantly and consciously in the heart of the presence of God!

Today we listened to your magnificent decrees, songs, visualizations and calls upon the behalf of the many millions of lifestreams who are passing, this day through the initiation and consecration at the Sacred Heart Temple. We remembered the time when unascended beings worked together with Ascended Beings for a cosmic purpose, with no veil between (at the time of the Golden Age).

By your action you have become citizens of the world, and therefore you have a right to vote in its affairs. We are citizens of another world and another realm and we abide by your vote in order to function through the body of mankind.

The Sacred Heart Temple

The outer mind has no concept of the complex procedure that leads to the preparation of lifestreams before re-embodiment. At the Temple of the Sacred Heart (where beloved Mary assists in fashioning the heart of all incoming lifestreams), there are three distinct groups of individuals, all waiting for the summons to appear before the Karmic Board.

The first group consists of the Buddhas. These are God-free beings without karma, who volunteer to help mankind. These fall into two categories, namely those who seek re-embodiment and those who come from other planets, seeking embodiment on Earth for the first time. The Buddhas arrive at a time when they know the Karmic Board is meeting to pass upon the lifestreams who will embody during the next twelve months.

The second group are the chelas of the various Masters of the seven rays, who have seen something of the divine pattern and plan at inner levels, and who are desirous of cooperating with their Master by coming into embodiment, particularly at this time, in building the permanent Golden Age.

The third group consists of the millions that must, in justice, be allowed re-embodiment within a certain span of years. This group is rather enjoying the sojourn in the heavenly world. There is, if you would call it so, a sorrow in the summons to rebirth, because these individuals live in a very happy place compared to the previous earth-life. It is a place where there are great freedoms in the etheric body. It is a place where new associations are made between comrade spirits, and where old associations on Earth are renewed with people who had great love for one another.

Summons before the Karmic Board

The messengers of the Karmic Board wear the scales of justice upon the breast of their garments and they carry with them the scrolls, which are the summons for the soul to appear before the Karmic Board and to perhaps be chosen to leave this realm of Elysian fields and come into embodiment.

When these great messengers go forth, there is more than a little distress and fluttering in the consciousness of the members of the third group. Sometimes there is a sigh of relief when the messengers are passing by. There are the partings, the partings of a loved one from its lover, a mother from a younger soul, its child. There is a certain agony in the soul of the one who must accompany the messenger to the Karmic Board and enter into the Halls of Karma, and there they are arranged in the seven colors, representative of the ray to which they belong.

Beings From Other Realms

First, the Ascended Masters present the first group of candidates, the Buddhas. Each Buddha speaks to the members of the Karmic Board and to the messengers from Helios and Vesta and Alpha and Omega. The Karmic Board then studies, carefully, the pattern for the year and the pattern for the entire two-thousand-year cycle and then weighs as to whether the sacrifice of this God-free lifestream is worth the permission to allow such a one to embody. In the next hundred years, if just one Buddha came in a year, you would have a tremendous momentum of radiation that would come to Earth. Through both Meta's and Sanat Kumara's gratitude for his freedom, many are coming in from Venus who had completed their freedom as Lords of the Flame.

Next come the chelas—people like yourselves—some even a little more advanced—who are waiting at the gates of birth. They must prove to the Karmic Board that if they embody, they will do constructive works for the Master, particularly for the blessed Saint Germain. Here we hear many impassioned pleas and much “blazing” of Causal Bodies takes place and all the merits of the lifestream are demonstrated.

You stood there, not so long ago and when you came, two stayed home, and I think often you wish it were reversed and you could have stayed home and the other two had come! These blessed ones are full of enthusiasm and they, too, like yourselves not long since, are determined that their gifts and momentums are really going to save this race and this planet! The Karmic Board is such a magnificent board, beloved ones, I don't understand how they can keep from smiling at the various displays of the talents and professions! Yet, except for an expression around the eyes, they are so still and so impassionate.

When these chelas come forth, they always have a sponsor. After they have spoken and persuaded the Karmic Board, according to their own light, as to their worth, the Karmic Board then asks for the sponsor and the sponsor comes forth (that is always an Ascended Being or a member of the angelic host) and that one offers to make up for any deficit. Now, that is a very important thing for the sponsor to do, because there is the obligation by the Karmic Board to give opportunity for embodiment to non-chelas as well. So there is a limit to how many of these good and talented chelas may come in, because the ones behind them must also be chosen.

Aspirants May Have To Wait Until Next Year

All those that are summoned and all that join in this great service are not chosen, and there is a passing of the lifestreams to the right and to the left. Those that are passed by the Karmic Board go out to the right and the others to the left, and that means you have Buddhas going to the left! You have many of the chelas, the two that were denied, going to the left for the one who is to embody to the right.

From the remaining group (the third) those who are given a chance to embody, go to the right, the others to the left. Those, who are not chosen will have to wait until next year.

The Blessing of the Chosen Souls

For those that have been chosen by the Karmic Board, then comes the service which I have rendered with great joy and happiness for many, many centuries of time. This service consists of the blessing of the souls who are chosen, and who are ready to seek embodiment through the parents of this race, upon the Earth, within the coming twelve-month period.

If you will come with me to the Sacred Heart Temple, as we stand above it just for a moment, you will see the beauty of that magnificent temple and the beautiful fields filled with all manner of wild flowers and deep grass, almost knee deep, in the most exquisite shade of perfect green, and coming toward the Sacred Heart Temple from the north and east, south and west, you will see the individuals who have been chosen by the blessed Karmic Board and who have come now for our benediction. As the beloved ones come close, asking for a mother's love and blessing from beloved Kwan Yin, Meta and myself, you can clearly see at the head of the procession, the beautiful shining golden-haired Buddha. They have woven into his hair lovely tiny blue flowers and he wears the long robe of his earned estate. The robe is golden and banded heavily in deep sapphire . He wears a large blue sapphire on his finger and blue sandals.

The Buddha is the first one who starts to ascend the steps of the temple, for his particular blessing and benediction. As he reaches the steps just below myself and Kwan Yin, he kneels, and Kwan Yin takes from him the crown of flowers. Beloved Meta removes the jewels of light and beloved Nada unwraps the string at the throat that represents the fine vestments. The Buddha removes his sandals and while he stands in pure white robes, he has the symbolic removal of the hair to the shoulders in submission to the will of God.

As the Buddha remains in a kneeling position, the chelas approach. As the large staircase is filled, they kneel also and face toward our humble selves. Now the remaining group destined for embodiment arrives to take their position in the temple. As the tremendous staircase of the temple is filled, all kneel and receive a special blessing.

The Initiation in Raphael's Temple

One of the most magnificent activities that it is my privilege and honor to serve in, is the activity of initiation in Raphael's Temple of Consecration.

I have wanted to remind you of the power of consecration. It is beautiful to see the kneeling figures, like the colors of the rainbow, representative of all those blessed lifestreams in the robes and garments, which denote the rays to which they belong, bending the knee in honor to the Presence that made them, and endeavoring to get the feeling of consecration—the consecration which is so dear to my heart—the consecration of the mind and the memory, the consecration of the flesh to the Christ Spirit within, the divine union and spiritual marriage between the outer vehicles and the inner Christ, when emotions and mind and memory and flesh promise to love, honor and obey the Christ power within.

If you would be willing, in the purified emotions, to consecrate that emotional vehicle to expanding God's kingdom, consecrating your mind to receiving only divine ideas and externalizing them, consecrating your etheric body to restoring those perfect patterns of the past, when you knew yourselves as God's children, consecrating your eyes to see perfection and your ears to hear it, and your lips to speak it, your feet to move upon the Master's way and your hands to go forth in blessing—you will find a great happiness, and it will become easier and easier, until finally that cosmic initiation and marriage takes place!

The Service for Elementals and Groups Souls of Animals

These blessed ones who have been blessed today, are sincere, just as sincere as you are when, in your private boudoirs, you consecrate yourselves to your Presence. They, too, will not remember fully that which they have done, when they come through the veil of birth, but through the use of the Violet Fire, I am going to touch the soul consciousness of each one, even a Buddha, because through his great heart, though it has no karma, even his heart can be increased by the love of one being! The light of Alpha and Omega is increased by one prayer from the least of you and by your petitions and calls.

I shall move upon that task, transmuting wherever I am allowed, as much of the karma as possible of a destructive nature, from those who will embody. This same service which we render here in the Sacred Heart Temple for the mankind, is rendered, by our Lord Maha Chohan through the group souls for the animal kingdom, and the service is also rendered earlier in the season, for the elementals who are chosen to bring forth your blossoms and your fruit and flower.

This process of benediction upon the souls and the transmuting of this karma will take some time, because there are many, many millions of lifestreams involved. Thereafter, Kwan Yin and I shall make a pilgrimage, into every home where a child will be born. Thank you, my children, and accept my gratitude for the opportunity to serve.

SELECTED THOUGHTS FROM BELOVED LANTO

You all knew precipitation on Lemuria. You knew and practiced it and you may know it again on this Earth. You may hold me responsible for whatever assistance I can give to you in bringing, to your remembrance, the ease and the natural harmony that follows such precipitation, both for your own benefit and that of your fellowman.

I am going to speak to you as I speak to every aspirant who enters the Royal Teton and stands before my presence: “Beloved one, you have come, motivated, by some intent, into the compass of my aura. WHAT BRINGS YOU HERE?” Will you ponder that. What exactly has brought you into the compass of our aura? Much will depend upon what you find is the answer—for every man, woman and child that goes upon a pilgrimage receives into himself a blessing proportionate to that which was the ACTUAL MOTIVATING POWER BEHIND THE PILGRIMAGE!

We give to you our heart flame to be your servant. What shall ye command of my heart flame? What shall you individually ask of it? For it will answer you! It is intelligent! It is the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of my individualization and being from the day I was born out of the bosom of the Eternal, all of the consciousness, all of the prayers and aspirations that builded my own freedom, all of the love and devotion to this planet and its evolutions! All are yours when accepted!

Those of us who are the servants of life, and the giver of life, are dedicated to the task of bringing you back to a conscious connection with your own divinity, of opening the channel through which the direction, the gift, the powers and the mastery which are God-intended, might be released into your use.

WHITSUNTIDE
By Beloved Maha Chohan

Blessed and beloved of God, I come as you celebrate the anniversary of a visitation which I made, many centuries ago, to a group of devoted individuals who had lost the comfort of the physical presence of their Guru and had lost, to a degree, the faith.

I came, at that time, to give faith and constancy to the disciples and through them, to those whom they might convert, sustaining, through the energies of my world, the endeavor so well begun by our beloved son, Jesus, and sustained by his Holy Mother and those gathered with her during the period when Jesus, in the ascended realm, working through Mary and John and the disciples, established a sufficient impetus of energies in the emotional, mental, etheric and physical strata, to sustain a two-thousand-year dispensation.

Those energies were magnetized, drawn into the strata to which I refer and then amplified by Lord Maitreya, myself and Jesus in the Ascended Master Realm, as a blessing to those unascended beings who were gathered together in the upper chamber. These energies had to last for a two-thousand-year period, so you can imagine the release of energy that it was my privilege, honor and opportunity to bring to those whose minds, whose attention, whose thought and feelings were in the upper chamber, dwelling on things spiritual, things celestial, things divine.

There is an individual Whitsuntide for every lifestream. There is a time when the Holy Comforter, surging through the awakening Christ, unites the outer man and his divinity, and there are cosmic Whitsuntides, such as the one whose anniversary we celebrate jointly, today.

I have longed for the opportunity to bring together individuals whose inner bodies were in accord and affinity, all vibrating at a rate of uninterrupted harmony, through whom I could, as I did through the disciples, pour that same vitalizing, energizing power. There will come a day when such an activity can be accomplished. Meanwhile, it is the office and service of the Maha Chohan, whether it be myself, those preceding me or those to follow after, to provide that cosmic connection between the inner divine man and the outer brain consciousness, when the soul has developed enough and is ready for the Second Birth. I am, as you know, privileged to give you your first breath at birth, and I am also—spiritually and esoterically speaking—the one who gives the first breath in your spiritual awakening and render, thereby, that service of illumining the outer consciousness, when the soul is light enough.

The “disease” of the soul is the problem which the Spiritual Hierarchy faces in dealing with mankind, for that disease within the soul, which is a conglomerate mass of imperfect creations of the mind and feelings, forms a barrier between the divine light of the Presence’s full action through the outer self and makes it very difficult for the gifts and powers of the individual Presence to flow through the outer man. So, while you are dealing with the bodies of mankind and with the brain consciousness of mankind, those of us who work from the inner realms are dealing with the healing of the soul, the transmutation of that soul and then the expansion of the Holy Spirit through such transmuted substance until every lifestream becomes the Holy Spirit in action.

The course of the earth life is not an easy one, when the karma of the individual is not completely transmuted before birth, and one of my activities is to be a COMFORT to a soul in distress—a soul whose spirit prompts that one to greater expression, and yet whose many sheaths and many selves seem to hinder the endeavor and expression of perfection. That individual is in the period of “Armageddon,” where the inner self, seeking expression, is yet hindered by physical or mental imperfection. It is the office, then, of the Holy Comforter to help such a one keep balanced, and to realize that the strains and stresses which pursue the soul until transmutation of its imperfection takes place, are temporary, and that the spiritual illumination and God-mastery toward which each one aspires is permanent. Thus, I go wherever I am told by the Silent Watcher and by the Holy Christ Selves of individuals who need comfort—thus I go, an unseen presence, endeavoring to direct encouragement to the spiritual self of a lifestream awakening from the sleep of the ages, a lifestream who finds himself bounded by much karma that is discomforting to the nature.

I have learned to comfort tiny little elementals, for you know my kingdom is threefold, dealing with the nature kingdom, dealing with the human kingdom and with the angelic. The little elementals are very enthusiastic when looking upon the archetype in one of the nature temples and desire to become the expression on the earthplane of a daffodil, and they dance happily around the beautiful, divine pattern held by that nature deva. They are curious little fellows, and they go into the trumpet and run along the petals and down the stem, and they examine it from every angle, and it is such a lovely and beautiful picture—it is a living flame held by the being who is the director of the temple, and these little elementals want to become daffodils instantly, in fact they DO because they mirror that which they look upon!

In one of these temples, where we take the daffodil as an illustration, you will see hundreds of little daffodils all running up and down the steps and in the atmosphere—and then comes the test—it is one thing to become a daffodil in the inner realms where the deva is holding the pattern of the flame flower, where there is nothing of distress. There are no worms, no moles, no drought or excess moisture! They are just living in light. Then these little individuals apply and they will ask—some of them are very small—to become daffodils, and their wish is granted. Sometimes I hold them in the palm of my hand and tell them a little of what it is to live inside the body of Virgo, and that they will meet all kinds of little things down there—but, oh, they just want to be a daffodil and it just runs off them! Then those little fellows come, and when they come home, they are sad little elementals and they are not so eager always to be a daffodil again. Then they are ready to listen!

The first time, the eagerness and zealous enthusiasm of their light, and of course, the nature of their beings, desiring to outpicture beauty, carries them into the world of form. Here they met resistance, and I might say, there would never be any flowers of any kind if it were not for the assistance of those magnificent, developed nature devas and those elementals who have gone through all of this! The little elemental comes back. He says, “I am never going down there again. I don’t want to be a daffodil!” Then we come to the period of comfort. Sometimes he is rebellious, sometimes he is crying, sometimes he is just worn out. Before the new dispensation, we had little tiny cots for them and we would lay them out where they could sleep and relax and forget, for just a little time, their troubles. In this one temple (oh the cots were not more than six inches long), we had all these great daffodil builders sleeping there, after an exhaustive bout with a worm, we will say.

Then they would wake up and begin again and we would talk to them. This time they would be a little more wise and ready for counsel. The individual who is not ready for counsel is going to be like the daffodil builder who wants to go his own way and knows he can do it on his own! After they come back and have had their little sleep, they are willing to come and say, “Now I did meet a great big worm down there; it was awfully dry and hot, and somebody stood on me, and what would you do!” The free will, even in the elemental kingdom, is that unless we are ASKED FOR COUNSEL, we must wait to give it. I do not do this with every flower, but am taking this as an example. Usually the deva of the temple does it. I am merely explaining that I am used to the activity of the zealous enthusiast. I am used to the plunging of such a one into an activity that is larger, perhaps, than their developed wisdom, and I am used to seeing the wilted individuality return and be ready for counsel. When they are ready to listen, they are taught by their deva, or sometimes if there is a particular one in whom I am interested, I will stroke this little head with my finger and talk to him and make him feel happy again and tell him there is no failure but that he can have new opportunity, and he goes out again.

Now it is the same with your blessed selves! You, too, get a vision at inner levels. You have shared the vision of the Golden Age of the Ascended Master Saint Germain. You have been boundless in your enthusiasm, vital in your will, determined in yourselves that YOU CAN MOVE MOUNTAINS and—here you are! You have your mountains, you have your valleys—some of you have your drought, your excessive floods. Yet always ready to give counsel, even in the midst of an experience which seems trying, we stand, having provided the way and means to reach your outer minds, but do you know, we have not provided the way yet to reach your hearts!

It is my prayer, on this holy day, that the God who created you, the God of mercy that drew aside the veil, revealing as much of his kingdom and of the private incidents in the lives of the Sainted and Perfected Ones, may make you realize in your HEARTS, that we have brought heaven close! Even on Earth you do not share confidences with acquaintances—you share confidences only with heart friends, tried and true. Yet from the great Gautama, Lord Maitreya, myself and the mighty Chohans, Mother Mary and the Archangels, and the great Elohim, we have unbound our hair, which is symbolic of meeting you on an equal level, and have given you the confidences of our own experiences, hoping that therein and thereby you would find, each one, some affinity, some similarity, between your own experiences and one of ours.

We have opened the privacy of our hearts. We have opened the retreats, some of which you have never heard. We allow you entrance and provide sponsorship and have taught you how, in projected consciousness, to move ALL OVER THE PLANET EARTH, and not only that, but to ascend through the suns into the very presence of Alpha and Omega themselves, in the hope of reaching your hearts, because when we do, your hearts will overflow with love for one another and there will be no need to speak the words, “I love you,” for love is a palpable essence; it is a substance of buoyancy that raises, sustains and unifies, and where that love is engendered in the human heart and expanded through it, such a one needs few, if any words.

Today (Whitsuntide) I ask you, as I stand humbly in your presence, think how many of us have come—think about how many of you we can rely upon to hold the bridge open from our realm into the outer consciousness of the masses, UNTIL we are safely through all periods of possible cataclysmic action, until the veil of maya is transmuted, until the fire element, the Sacred Fire, is visible and tangible, until you can wield it and utilize it, until you are MASTER OF ENERGY! Dispensations, beloved ones, have a beginning and an end! Think about it! This includes Jesus' dispensation and Lord Gautama's dispensation, among others!

It is my responsibility to life to sustain the energies in, through and around all mankind, and I am held accountable to the Cosmic Law for the use of that life. Therefore, all of the Chohans of the Rays, when they approach me and ask if they may take on a disciple among the unascended mankind, when they offer their light as a bounded security, I offer mine, as well, as their superior. Therefore, I am bound to Law, Cosmic Law, for every chela that the beloved Saint Germain and the Master Morya and the other Chohans have drawn from the masses and in whom they have invested time, energy, love, instruction and radiation. That I do not mind, for we are used to paying the debts for the masses—again and again, it has been done! BUT I DO MIND the sustaining of a conscious bridge from our realm to yours, over which current activities may be directed, and that bridge depends upon you, beloved ones!

We are ready, we are willing, but we do find the added power of the addresses stimulates your many selves. You must be willing to guard that power and place it in the hands of your Holy Christ Self and sustain harmony for twenty-four hours. If not, we lose ground on the cosmic graph! It is just like the graphs which you see that are taken for heart conditions, cardiographs or lie detectors. When one of us comes and lowers our vibratory action, and comes into the atmosphere of Earth and speaks to a group of people, there is such a cosmic graph. Every one of those people scatter into their various activities thereafter. There is a twenty-four-hour watch on everyone who has had that visitation, not a one-hour watch, but a twenty-four hour watch after I have spoken to you. We will see the condition of your energy. Most of you know what that is! Won't you TRY to be a holy comfort to all the life you contact?

In the name of almighty God, may the spirit that gives you life sustain you in balance and make the energies invested and the faith of El Morya in you, each one, be justified!

SETTING LIFE FREE

By the Ascended Master El Morya

Dearly beloved students, you are working to set life free, no matter in what form it is bound! Life is the great, beautiful pulsing flame of God that is burning, no matter how deeply encased in the bounds of flesh and matter. Shining, immortal, beautiful, potent life is indivisible and beats within everything that knows breath and being. The sunny smile of your fellow-creature, the anguished pain that pours through another's eyes, the happy joy of a romping lamb or puppy—that is life, an indivisible part of yourself!

If you would serve God and your fellowman, remember that your sole dealing is with life, and look not for gratitude, nor love, nor cooperation from the masquerading garments that life has drawn about its reality. Salute the God-life within every heart and bend every effort of mind and soul and will to the releasing and redemption of that God. Hear the mute appeal of life encased in every breast, and set it free! Work and toil in that service, touching the wand of freedom to the manifestations of life wherever you meet them, and rest not until all life is free! While any manifestation of life is cased round in imperfection or pain or distortion, there is part of YOURSELF that is not free!

BECOMING AN ACCEPTED CHELA
(Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class of June 18th, 1960)

Beloved Children Determined to Cooperate with the Cause of the Ascended Host:

On the occasion of the meeting of the Karmic Board at the Precipitation Temple, at the Rocky Mountains in Wyoming, U.S.A., which will be open to all earnest chelas between June 15th and July 14th, 1960, I would like to make a suggestion to all sincere students, individually and collectively. The suggestion is this: For a period of six months, beginning June 15th, 1960, to December 14th, 1960, consecrate yourselves, each one of you, to any one of my seven Chohans, one of whom is the Lady Chohan Nada, in accordance with your affinity toward any one or more of them.

Let me remind you how you can easily tune into the radiation of each of the different Chohans:

Ascended Master El Morya: Live in accordance with the will of God, and cultivate decisions to express his divine will on Earth.

Ascended Master Lanto: Show daily reverence for life, and develop spiritual perception.

Ascended Master Paul, the Venetian: Be tolerant and practice being your brother's keeper, through pure, divine love.

Ascended Master Serapis Bey: Live in purity, and seek the perception and use of the immaculate concept for yourself and all mankind.

Ascended Master Hilarion: Cultivate consecration and try to develop the powers of healing.

Ascended Lady Master Nada: Purify your feelings, and be a comfort to others through ministration.

Ascended Master Saint Germain: Practice invocation, and the use of the transmuting power of the Violet Fire.

IN EVERYTHING YOU DO, ACT AS IF YOU WERE THE CHOHAN YOU HAVE SELECTED TO SERVE. The coming six months will, therefore, be a probationary period for those who accept this suggestion and act on it in earnest. You will have the opportunity to show your cooperation, your loyalty and your constancy to the cause of the Ascended Host. I entertain fondly the hope that at the next conclave, in December 1960, I shall shake your hands as accepted chelas.

Your Ascended Master sponsors for this thirty-day period will be great gentlemen from the Rocky Mountain Retreat, chosen by your Ascended Master friends, Lord Lanto and Lord Confucius.

My Luminous Presence shall enfold you, each one, each day, as an encouraging and comforting presence. Love and blessings,

Maha Chohan

BEING A PRECIPITATING PRESENCE

By Beloved Hilarion

The nature of man's being is precipitation! The natural activity of his life is precipitation! Through the thousands of pores in his body, there are constantly-flowing streams of electronic energy which are precipitated into the universe about him. Even while man sleeps, there flows forth from his inanimate body a radiation which is a precipitation of the substance of his lifestream into the universe.

Visualize the great Victoria Falls that pour countless tons of energy into the rapidly-moving river below, and you have a picture of man's reality—a constantly-rushing stream of precipitated light that becomes the current of the river and flows forth into the universe.

For man to struggle to acquire the power of precipitation is a travesty, for there is no moment, waking or sleeping, day or night, when even the most ignorant and ungoverned human being is not precipitating. The forces of the four elements precipitate and even the animal kingdom send forth a radiation. Therefore, the fundamental principle to be learned is not HOW TO PRECIPITATE but WHAT! It has been said that one day man will understand that the precipitating ray is an activity of his being.

Man has precipitated disasters and limitations, as well as all kinds of ailments of the flesh and of his mind, emotions and environment. He can precipitate an argument without any effort. Therefore, we can see that man HAS the power of precipitation but he has not learned to use the power in a constructive manner.

Holding the visualization of your consciousness as being the sum total of the thoughts and feelings in your cup, we see that the pure energy precipitated through the individual's consciousness becomes an outpouring of the various inner thoughts, feelings and emotions.

To precipitate consciously, one must change the qualification of the energy within. You might use, "I AM THE PRECIPITATING PRESENCE in action, precipitating perfection into my mind, body, being, world and affairs" and also, "I AM THE ASCENDED MASTERS' USE of the power of precipitation."

If the machines which are being prepared were released and if the students could see the electronic energy precipitated through the body, in even the most casual gesture, they would realize their God-power. Precipitation is not a power that has not been conferred, it is a power that is in constant use, but ungoverned—except by the Holy Christ Self—and it is the divine plan that all men shall bring forth perfection through the conscious use of this faculty.

ORDER OF SERVICE FOR VIOLET FIRE CLASSES
In Bridge to Freedom Sanctuaries, Groups and Homes of Students Presented by Thomas Printz (Ascended Master El Morya)

1. Music.
2. INVOCATION by leader:

“IN THE NAME OF THE PRESENCE OF GOD I AM, my Holy Christ Self and that of all mankind, we dedicate this class to the VIOLET FIRE of love, mercy, invocation, transmutation and freedom for ourselves, all mankind, and the planet Earth. To that end we call to you, the Ascended Masters, Cosmic Beings, Angelic Host and Mighty Elohim and all who are concerned with the Violet Fire and Seventh Ray to our Earth, and most especially do we call to YOU, beloved Archangel Zadkiel and Holy Amethyst—to be with us in your Luminous Presence, take up our humble efforts and amplify them, without limit, to bring instantaneous perfection wherever the blessed Violet Flame is called forth. We thank you for the answer to this, our hearts’ call!”

3. LIGHT CANDLE

4. SONG—all sing: “BELOVED ZADKIEL” to melody of “Holy Christ Flame”—:

BELOVED ZADKIEL, Archangel of power,
Transmute for us this very hour,
Our thoughts and feelings of the past,
Into perfection that ever lasts;
Bring back our memory divine,
And all the powers that once were mine.
Zadkiel, we love thee, bless and adore.
Zadkiel, come forth to us once more!
I have come forth to you again.
To show you how to help all men.
My temple bright shall raise all higher.
Transmuting dross by Violet Fire;
Priestess and Priest, I call thee forth!
Draw forth thy power and save this Earth!
Blaze forth thy light—set all life free!
Blaze forth thy love—I AM WITH THEE!

5. CALL by leader:

“Hail, oh thou great Sanat Kumara! Standing as the great High Priest of the ORDER OF ZADKIEL, blessed is your presence, and blessed is the qualified power of invocation which, through mankind, has drawn your august presence! We bow before your magnificent light!

Hail to thee, oh Saint Germain, High Priest of the ORDER OF ZADKIEL, magnificent embodiment of mastery!

Hail to thee, oh sons and daughters of freedom, born to the Royal Purple—you who have come from the heart of the silence—you, who have embodied to bring again to the consciousness of the Earth a remembrance of the POWERS OF INVOCATION through speech, through visualization and through the many activities that shall be revealed from now on, for those who belong to this order of light!

Beloved RAPHAEL, brother of light! Consecrate the energies of these lifestreams once more as it flows from the heart of the sun! Consecrate the emotional bodies of each of these children and let them be radiating centers for the virtues of God, for those cosmic qualities which raise, purify, redeem and add to the light of the world! Consecrate these emotional bodies that they become, at all time, outposts of whatever Ascended Master Presence desires to radiate through them to the masses!

Consecrate, oh Raphael, in the power of light, the mental body of each one! Clarify that mental body and remove all concepts gathered through the centuries since first they stood upon the altars of Zadkiel, as guardian spirits, dedicated to setting life free! Into these mental bodies pour whatever conscious knowledge and understanding and inspiration is required to make them the master control of energy and the active guardian presence of life wherever they move.

Consecrate the etheric body of each one. Revivify within it the glory, the mastery, the powers they had in the heart of the Sun before the world was. Every etheric record less than perfect, MELT by the power of the Sacred Fire!

Consecrate then the flesh—consecrate these earthly garments, the tabernacles of these great spirits, these who came to set life free—these who have foregone the glory of the ascension, who more than once, in ages that have passed, have been offered their freedom by the Karmic Board, and who have chosen, like Sanat Kumara, to remain. Consecrate this flesh, oh great and mighty ones!

Beloved Chohan Hilarion! Consecrate the eyes and through them let the presence of God see and manifest perfection! Consecrate the ears that they may hear the voice of the Master and the “still small voice” of the Presence! Consecrate the lips that they may speak with the tongues of angels! Consecrate the brain, that it may receive clear and direct the consciousness of the Higher and Holy Christ Self!

Consecrate their hands, oh great powers, that they may be the healing, conducting powers of the presence of the Ascended Jesus Christ! Consecrate their feet that every place they move upon the planet Earth their footprints may be a golden, blazing fire of light, to inspire all mankind to greater accomplishment. Take their human forms, every cell and atom of them, and consecrate them to the service of God—as great communion cups—chalices of living fire in the great and cosmic surrender of self to service.

Oh, beloved Saint Germain, Chohan of the Seventh Ray! Place YOUR MANTLE OF AUTHORITY now upon their shoulders once again! Clothe them 'round in Freedom's Flame!”

6. All decree:

“I AM THE LAW OF FORGIVENESS AND TRANSMUTING FLAME of every impurity, error and obstruction I have ever imposed on any part of life, or that any part of life has imposed on me” (3 times). (Zadkiel suggested this in the January, '58, “Bridge,”)

7. All decree:

“BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM and that of all mankind, BELOVED ZADKIEL and HOLY AMETHYST and all concerned with the Violet Fire to our Earth:

BLAZE! (3) the Violet Fire in, through and around every part of my physical, etheric, mental and emotional bodies and that of all mankind, and hold it sustained until all human creation there, its cause and core, is dissolved and transmuted into purity and perfection.

BELOVED I AM! (3)

BY GOD'S GREAT LOVE! (3)

BY ALL OF ZADKIEL'S COSMIC POWER! (3)

SUSTAIN AND DOUBLE IT EACH HOUR!” (3)

8. All decree:

through every part of my physical body through every part of my etheric body through every part of my mental body through every part of my emotional body through every part of my aura, and all energy

all energy and substance that still has my stamp on it

AND HOLD IT SUSTAINED UNTIL PERFECTION IS MANIFEST.

I stand within a PILLAR OF VIOLET FIRE and I AM FREE (3)
from all human creation right now and forever.”

9. All decree: “BLAZE! VIOLET FIRE OF FREEDOM’S LOVE AND TRANS-MUTATION AS OF A THOUSAND SUNS

a) in, through and around all stockyards, all animals there and all people who work there or are connected in any way

BELOVED I AM! (3)

BY GOD’S GREAT LOVE! (3)

BY ALL OF ZADKIEL’S COSMIC POWERS! (3)

HOLD IT SUSTAINED AND DOUBLE IT EACH HOUR!

b) in, through and around every prison, gallows, electric chair, and all employed there. Beloved I AM! (3) see above;

ment on Earth;

n) into all lust, earthly desires and all that binds;

o) into all lethargy, laziness, discontent, disinterest, discouragement and depression;

p) into all rebellion, pride, scorn, arrogance, gossip, lies, slander;

q) into all lack and limitation

r) in, through and around all incantations, hexes, curses which have plagued mankind through the centuries; all blood-rites, and all words spoken which did not BLESS.”

10. Read a dictation from beloved Zadkiel (or Saint Germain, or Arcturus) on the Violet Fire.

11. Exercise, breathing-in the Violet Fire:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

“I AM inbreathing the Violet Fire of Transmutation from beloved Zadkiel” (3)

12. In the July, 1957 “Bridge,” beloved Arcturus gives an activity of the SCEPTER OF AUTHORITY and explains how to use it. It can be used here for the:

(1) group and location, (2) the state, (3) the entire country.

13. All decree: “BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM, BELOVED ZADKIEL, HOLY AMETHYST, SAINT GERMAIN AND ARCTURUS—keep each one of us SEALED in a pillar of Violet Fire for 100 feet in every direction and charge into it your consciousness of invincible protection and the power to transmute ON THE INSTANT all discord and imperfect energy we contact, into eternally sustained perfection. And TAKE US THIS NIGHT to Lord Zadkiel’s and Holy Amethyst’s Temple of the Violet Fire and receive the fullness of that flame. Then, clothed in the armor of Violet Fire, let each one of us go forth and render that service on the inner for which we are best fitted—and let us remember it!

FOR THE VIOLET FIRE NEVER FAILS! (3) to bring instantaneous perfection, and I AM THAT VIOLET FIRE!”

SILENCE to absorb radiation.

MOMENTUMS OF ENERGY

By the Ascended Master Kuthumi

There has been a detailed discussion of the word “momentum” and the various talents and developments of the lifestreams, their various likes and dislikes, their affinities, aversions, etc., and these are very lightly referred to by the student as a “gathered momentum” in a certain direction. The student further realizes that “momentum” is a constant repetition of certain actions and reactions toward a certain qualification of energy, which gains in volume and intensity by such repetition and, therefore, becomes a pressure of reserved energy that acts almost independently of the conscious volition of the individual.

Kindliness, humility, genuine warmth of heartfelt feeling are developed by the lifestream, at first, through very definite conscious effort, and then, as the radiation becomes more a part of the individual, the momentum of good makes the sustained harmony almost automatic in its expression.

Dissolving Momentums Of Discord

Every being, from the electron to the Godhead, expands by his or her conscious absorption of the God-energy, his particular quality, and directs it according to the free will of the self-conscious life. There is no substitute for “gathered momentum” of a quality. Each person, ascended or unascended, represents, today, the sum total of his or her own energy qualified through the centuries, according to the individual’s choice.

Some people, unfortunately have a momentum of discord! In the New Day all previously charged momentums of discord must be dissolved and then replaced through the conscious effort of the individual, by the drawing forth of the God-energy and a setting up of new qualities and new expressions that are in accord with God’s will. Here is where we come to a very marvelous and little-understood explanation of how unascended beings are chosen by the Hierarchy and the Lords of Karma to assist in the bringing forth of the perfection which will form the pattern for the New Day.

How Chelas Are Chosen

The gathered momentum of each lifestream, in any constructive channel, forms a great “stockpile” of energy or force, which makes such a one a tremendous pressure for good through the already-developed inner nature, and the Masters use that momentum through the instruments already prepared with certain faculties, which make them natural channels for the work at hand. It is like utilizing experienced actors, instead of absolutely untrained people for the expression of their work. For instance, an individual who has taught for centuries is an easier instrument for the Masters to use, to deliver a lecture, than one who had never builded a momentum of teaching. It is difficult to arrange the inner bodies in such a manner that the pressure of thought and feeling might be expressed forcibly and well.

That is why all groups of chelas and aspirants are chosen, not by their present outer expression, but by the momentum of inner talents and qualities that can be utilized in a certain locality, blended with others for the greatest good of all.

Your Power of Precipitation

Another aspect of this Law will be found in the precipitation of opulence, beauty, etc. When a lifestream has held a specific desire for a certain number of years or embodiments, this forms, in the ethers, a cup or outline, representing such a powerful desire, whether it be for a home, or on a larger scale, for a universal brotherhood, or a mass education for the young. These forms are already cut out of the universal life substance and when they are in agreement with the constructive plan of the universe, one or more of the Ascended Masters may ensoul such a desire, thought and feeling form—or vision—with their fully-gathered cosmic momentum and power of precipitation through the lifestream who has held such a vision, and in that manner bring it into manifestation.

A PRAYER FOR ANIMALS

Hear our humble prayer, Oh God, for our friends, the animals—especially for animals who are suffering, for all that are overworked, underfed and cruelly treated, for all wistful creatures in captivity that beat against their bars, for all that are in pain or ready to make the change called “death,” for all that must be put out of their misery by human beings, through so-called death.

We ask for them all thy mercy and pity. Make us, ourselves, to be true friends to the animals and so to share the blessing of the merciful, for the sake of thy son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Beloved Friends of God, Seeking to Know and Feel the Truth Which Will Set You and All Life Free,

I greet you, as again we are privileged to join with you at the magnificent Temple of Truth, where my son, Hilarion, and the Brotherhood at Crete serve so constantly and selflessly, in removing the cause and core, the effect, record and memory of untruths, and the bitter disillusionments all have known through the ages, by being part of some sect or religion whose leaders, endowed with power and authority, misused that power and authority for selfish reasons.

As you join with us here, ask the gentlemen sponsors from Hilarion's own court to help you to open the doors and windows of your soul, as well as to cleanse your four lower bodies (the emotional, mental, etheric and physical) of all imperfections, past and present, and to replace that imperfection with God's truth. I ask that the Archaii Constance HOLD FOR YOU THAT FEELING OF TRUTH, as you re-animate your physical vehicles after each such visitation, so that you may, in turn, according to Cosmic Law, express—with conviction in your feelings—THAT TRUTH which will set others free.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

THE FOUR LOWER BODIES
By Beloved Hilarion

It has been said that “God needs a body,” and for this purpose were the four lower bodies of man created—the mental, emotional, etheric and physical forms.

Students on the path have come to an intellectual knowledge that they are NOT the physical form, but dwell within it. They have accepted the fact that there is a God presence within the physical body, which is the eternal identity. They have, to some degree, understood that the physical body is a living, breathing organism, with intelligences and appetites of its own and that, like a high-bred animal, the physical body will seek the satisfaction of these desires through the avenues of the five senses. They are, therefore, alert to identify themselves with the higher God principle and are learning to govern the fleshly garment with some degree of success.

However, there are three other living, breathing, intelligent identities belonging to each lifestream—the mental, emotional and etheric bodies. These bodies are made up of the substance of the earth, air and water; they have intelligence within them, and have desires and appetites of their own. It is for the student to consciously look over the four vehicles provided by God, that God might express in physical manifestation. These four vehicles are not dead matter, but living, breathing, pulsating organisms, containing intelligence within them. The lower bodies of the average man have governed the self-conscious life for centuries, acting independently of the Spiritual Spark that should be the governing intelligence acting through all. The emotional world has acted independently of the conscious volition of the God-self for untold centuries.

Let us take the MENTAL BODY in which is stored knowledge and accretion of fact and fancy, orthodox principles and concrete ideas that may or may not be true. The mental body lives on accretion of knowledge and the more it is fed, the larger it gets and the more it demands of the energy of the divine spark. In satisfying its demands, the mental body becomes a heavy, cumbersome, unwieldy vehicle and a tyrant! When the mental body is overgrown, the real teacher—the Three-fold Flame within the heart—is allowed no opportunity to expand, because the mental accretion becomes a constantly shrieking accumulation of energy flooding the consciousness and drowning out the voice of the silence. The mental body should be merely a storeroom for certain truths in the world of men, much as a lecturer refers to certain notes that elucidate his point. Most mental giants are, therefore, practically barricaded against spiritual awakening.

The ETHERIC BODY was also created as a storehouse, through which the individual's own experiences might be recorded. It differs from the mental body in that the records here are entirely personal and are the experiences derived through the use of God's energy, whereas the mental body may profit by experiences derived by other parts of life as well.

The etheric body, however, has become an accretion of experiences that would make the most vulgar tabloid look like the gospel! The etheric body lives by drawing the conscious energy of the heart center into re-viewing and re-experiencing those debaucheries of the past. When the attention is firmly enough anchored in the feeling of those past fiascoes, the etheric body may perpetuate and repeat these performances which cause it to vibrate with joy as the life energy is flooded into it, and instead of being a record of the God-powers drawn forth through the lifestream, it becomes a "skeleton in the closet." It is most dangerous, however, in that it is cunning and lives like a vampire in sucking the God-energy from the God-presence.

And the EMOTIONAL BODY—here we have the prize of them all! Eighty percent of mankind's energy (or we might more correctly say God's energy) is encased in the foul-smelling confines of the emotional body. The emotional world of man was provided by the God-presence through which the energy might flow into the physical world to raise and transmute the forces of the elements through love, harmony, peace, etc., but instead it has become a tremendous accumulation of passion and emotion. This body draws constantly on the flaming Source within the heart and uses TONS of God's energy to satisfy its insatiable appetites, which are legion! The emotional body is happy only when it is in a constant state of flux. It lives on excitement, which may be generated in innumerable ways.

We will take up a few examples of this. POSSESSIVENESS—a tremendous feeling form that draws the God-energy and SMOTHERS the object of its affection.

GOSSIP—which is almost the most insidious, because through poison sent out, it starts wheels of emotion in the lifestreams of many, and so you have an inner conflagration.

CRITICISM, CONDEMNATION AND JUDGMENT are also closely related. The silent criticism of seeing discrepancies and faults in others disturbs the feeling of one's own emotional body and sets up causes of discord, which react in physical disturbances, but the spoken criticism sets other emotional bodies into the same vibratory motion and its effects are without limit.

The really vicious emotions are evident and do not so much affect the aspiring student. These are jealousy, hate, anger, malice. Lust is considered sister to these vicious emotions, but until one has attained the glorious body of eternal light, lust is very evident in the most advanced student—mental rejection of this statement to the contrary.

The God-life of the universe created these lower vehicles to express a divine plan and when the individual will return the government to the God-self I AM within, he will find that this constant battle and turmoil will cease, and instead of each individual being an ARENA with these lower bodies seeking to secure one's attention and energy, the individual's consciousness will become an outpouring of God's will.

HANDLING NEGATIVE THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS

An Address by Beloved Pallas Athena, Goddess of Truth

Hail thou, beloved and blessed friends of light! I bring you, again, the feeling of the truth and reality of the Ascended Host of Light, the angelic host, the cherubic and seraphic host as an actual, spiritual partnership with humankind. Again and again we come, and during the holy periods when the attention of the masses is upon the Christus and the manifestation of the angelic host of centuries ago, we shall endeavor, through the instruction of our own hearts, to CHARGE into the emotional, mental, etheric and physical consciousness of mankind the realization of God truth, which is good for each and every one. Any manifestation that is less than that truth, beloved ones, is not God's will for you, and as the Goddess of Truth, herself, I say to you, sweep it from your thoughts and your feelings, sweep it from your worlds and your actions, just as in mundane affairs you sweep the cobwebs from your worlds. Make your world clear and clean and ready for the inpouring of the Cosmic Christ light of truth.

One of the great defects, of even earnest chelas, is the lack of alertness in sweeping away, time after time, through the day, the negative thoughts and feelings, words and actions. The blessed chelas become, by the time the day is ended, filled with the substance of that day's experiences of a negative nature, and there is not room for the pure light from the Presence to flow in, through and around each such a one and be the energizing Presence of that light through the course of the night, while the body sleeps and the next day when it awakens.

Now, beloved ones, that has been taught you, and we have repeated it again and again. You need not make great gesticulations, unless in the privacy of your own rooms, but it is urged of you who desire more truth, to sweep your worlds clear—morning, noon, and night—of the negative expressions of life—allow more of God's truth, God-life and God-perfection to express.

As you know, no two things can be in the same place at the same time, so if you have cluttered your world with thoughts and feelings that are depressive, there is no room in your thoughts and feelings for love and light and all its gifts of life. So, in the name of the truth to which you have pledged yourselves, and which I embody, I IMPLORE YOU, ACCEPT THIS GOD TRUTH NOW and sweep free your own worlds! Have the bountifulness of the heart sweep free each other's world of distress and you will have our assistance in so doing, replacing it always by Cosmic Christ protection and Cosmic Christ assistance.

I thank you for the privilege and opportunity of being a part of the opening of your consciousness to the inpouring of the God life and a part of the opening of the radiation which is coming to mankind.

HOW TO DWELL IN THE REALM OF THE ASCENDED MASTERS

delivered at the Ashram on Easter Sunday, April 17, 1960

My beloved, on this, the anniversary of my resurrection from the tomb, I bring to you the love of my heart, for each and every one of you who have lived and loved in my name, and done good works in my name, and who have chosen through the mercy of God which is alive within you to serve your fellowman and all living things upon this sweet Earth! Thus, you glorify our Father, which is in heaven, that heaven which is so beautiful that when you achieve the God-estate, you shall be grateful, indeed, that your Causal Bodies are filled enough with the good that you have done through the ages preceding your association with me and other divine beings, of course, and succeeding such divine associations! You shall have that mansion not made with hands and you shall enter into the Father's kingdom, to go out no more.

Some blessed and dear ones feel they are not worthy to enter into that kingdom and kneel at the throne of the Father of Love. Others feel the Earth ties are too strong within them; some have a sense of curiosity at what shall come after their earth-course is run.

The spirits who present themselves at the Sacred Heart Temple of my mother next May 1961, shall be those God-spirits from other solar systems, those divine Buddhas, those chosen from the first subrace of the Seventh Root Race. THEN shall you see the planet Earth transformed quickly. Then will a child prodigy not be the unusual but the usual. Then will the parents receive illumination from the child. Then this Earth shall be freedom's holy star! Then each and every one of you shall have the just reward of all your services, your rest if you choose it, for six months, visitation with your loved ones, if you choose it. Most of you shall be so busy exploring the beauty of the green gardens and the glorious flame flowers of the kingdom of heaven that you might take twenty-four hours of rest but, I think, you will then be off again as I was, about our Father's business.

What is the business of the heavenly Father? The business of the heavenly Father is practical! It is the establishment of a Christ-man, a Christ-woman, and a Christ-child through every human being belonging to this planet Earth—some three and a half billion, who are in embodiment and the rest waiting for an opportunity of taking embodiment. That is why I came to the Earth, that is why, in my humble way, I endeavored to show mankind that the things that I had done, they, too, should do also!

Even my blessed disciples learned to lean on form, by leaning upon my personage, my own ascension. Reappearing forty days after resurrection morning was essential, so that they might learn, through themselves, and through the beloved Paraclete (whom you know as the Holy Spirit) that those so-called miracles are part of the Father's heritage, anchored in each one of them and in each one of you.

So often Peter and James and the others would go bravely forth to heal and come back and say, "Master, it did not work." Again and again I said unto them, "Go again, and in the name of Jesus command the evil to cease to be!" But those greater than I saw that while they had in me something physically tangible to hold onto, they would hold the hem of my garment and their own potential divinity would lie buried within them, whilst they held admiration for the son of man and the son of God.

You are all sons and daughters of God, sons of men and women, too, yes, but you have been sons and daughters of different men and women in embodiment after embodiment throughout ages of time. All the time since first you left the heart of our Father you have been a temporary son or daughter of God, even though you have forgotten it.

When Pilate said to me, “They say that you are reported to be the son of God,” I replied to him, “Thou sayest this,” letting come forth from his own lips the truth which could have as easily come from mine own. Mine was the self-chosen path of the crucifixion, the path to Golgotha, the path of the resurrection, the path to the visit to Bethany, the path to the public ascension. Think about it! If you loved someone as deeply as I loved my mother and John and Peter and Paul and the other disciples, who still maintained free will as unascended beings, even resuscitated, could you leave them sleeping and walk in the springtime up that Hill of Bethany, with the early spring flowers and the sweet smell of earth, and voluntarily say again, as I did in Gethsemane’s garden, “Father—Thy will, not mine, be done.”

Later, I waited for the coming of the noonday sun, seeing the fear and the confusion in the consciousness of many of my followers and the deep love in the hearts of John and my mother, I allowed the gravity pull of Earth to be released from my feet and made the ascension! Why? So that I might make a public ascension before some five-hundred people and meet my Father—leaving to his wisdom the care of my disciples and apostles.

People come again only to God, as a rule, when their four lower vehicles are absolutely beyond repair and when medical science has confirmed that the vehicles, which they use shall soon disintegrate. Then they think, “Oh Lord, oh Lord, for all the misuse of thy life, I’m sorry. I am regretful, indeed. Please receive me into heaven,” after maybe eighty years of living according to the human will. Even that prayer is heard and it is answered and every such soul with a contrite heart who asks for the forgiveness of his sins or that of a loved one who is about to depart is absolved thereof and can see their loved ones and dwell in the heavenly realms, although not in the realms of the Ascended Host of Light.

To dwell in the realm of the Ascended of Light, one must be willing to serve in a practical activity, which requires the utilization of all the sense of the outer and inner vehicles at all times. I had three years after my baptism in the River Jordan, three years to perform my ministry or three years to enjoy myself, but when the Paraclete, through the invocation of John the Baptist, anointed me and the spirit and being of Maitreya and myself blended into one, there was no thought, beloved ones, during these three years to get across to as many as I could through talking, through so-called miracles, through example, the way that God intended every man, woman and child to be.

You know the story well. I told my mother, “They have not learned. They have sat with me, they have seen the devils cast into the sea, they have seen the blind to be made to see and they have seen Lazarus raised from the tomb, yet they know not the fundamentals of truth. What shall I do?” And she said, “Son, DO what your heavenly Father requires of you, and do it NOW!” And I did. Never in the thirty-three years of my association with my divine mother did I disobey her, because I knew she was an angel, embodied for the express purpose of giving me a physical body, and I knew that it was her strength and that of Saint Germain who was then Saint Joseph, my father, that helped me, until I knew my mission myself.

You see, when you are born on this Earth, even without sin as I, you take on the band of forgetfulness. It is bound around your eyes and your senses and your soul is sheathed, more or less, and it covers the entire vehicle, and when you come into this world of form, that sheath still remains around you, until you come to an age of awareness. Then you can begin to absorb understanding. That strong lady of heaven and that gentle Joseph protected me through those years. Mary protected Joseph, too. In fact, I think she is busy protecting all the human race. I cannot speak too highly of the love of your Cosmic Mother Mary, who I was privileged to have as my personal mother for thirty-three short years but whom I am privileged now to serve with in heaven’s realm throughout all eternity. Never does she pass by, but I bow the knee before her light.

There are some that cannot bow the knee, even before the heavenly Father. When they say, “and adoring, bend the knee,” I think often of the prideful ones, some of those that came out of the compound—what a job to bend that knee.

This very morning, as hundreds and thousands repeat the “Our Father,” I can name maybe a hundred who realize the efficacy within it. Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed—that is holy—be thy name, thy kingdom come on Earth—that is through you—thy kingdom come on Earth as it is in heaven. Beloved ones, think about this! Forgive us our debts, AS we forgive our debtors. That little word “as” is slurred over. Oh yes, we wish to be forgiven, but we will be forgiven in like measure AS we forgive those who have trespassed against us. Then the magnificent surrender, “for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever.” Is it—for you?

Take that prayer this week—Catholic or Protestant version as you wish—and ask me to show you in feeling what is within it, and I will. That is my reason for being.

As this Easter class has come to a tremendous and God-victorious Jesus Christ success, the blessing will flow through every lifestream, not only here, but also to the disembodied.

My love, that of Saint Germain, and my holy mother abide with you now and always.

SERVING WITH KWAN YIN

If you have not already consciously applied to become an active chela serving with the Lady Master Kwan Yin, the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain and other members of the Spiritual Hierarchy as a friend of mercy, it may well be because you are not aware of this foundation. This group was established by the Ascended Master Saint Germain (who as St. Joseph, was the guardian of the holy Mother Mary) and who is known as the “Patron of a Happy Passing” from this earthplane. F.O.M. was founded in November 1959. A copy of the original announcement of the founding of this Order will be found at the end of this article.

There is an urgent requirement for intelligent prayers for our departed relatives, friends, and those who have no one to pray for them, even if they are unknown to you. According to the Law of the Circle, all the good you do returns to you with increased momentum. This important service, which you can NOW render, both to the departing and departed souls will help the cause of freedom and will contribute greatly to your own personal ascension.

The following is the latest announcement issued by the Scribe of F.O.M.

Order of the Friends of Mercy

Beloved Friends of Light,

GOD BLESS YOU! We are most grateful to you for your active participation in the freeing of the departing and disembodied lifestreams belonging to this sweet Earth! Much has been accomplished by your selfless service to assist these dear ones, and in so doing you are strengthening the bonds of conscious cooperation with the Ascended Masters of Wisdom.

One of the important activities of this service is the recognition of the fact that the body elemental of each lifestream must be taken into consideration.

The Body Elemental

The body elemental, which animates the physical vehicles of mankind, imprisoned angels and elementals, is very intelligent and controls the mechanism of the physical form. It is often antagonistic towards such form, as the same body elemental serves the same lifestream from the time of the first embodiment upon the planet Earth, until the soul is transmuted into spiritual light and that individual attains the ascension.

Great love, gratitude and understanding to your own body elemental creates an affinity between it and the physical form and allows the lifestream to more quickly disassociate itself from the body elemental at the close of the embodiment upon the Earth.

Remember, the body elemental beats one's own heart, activates one's nervous system and takes care of the proper functions of the organs of the physical form and is usually condemned when any portion of the physical vehicle ceases to function properly. The truth is that the destructive use of free will by the uncontrolled emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles of the soul create chaos in the physical vehicle and the body elemental serves constantly to repair such damage.

We suggest the following decree for your use:

Beloved Presence of God I AM, Mighty Hercules and Amazon:

Bless my body elemental for its service to me.

At the close of my earth span, set it ever free.

Without its loving presence I should not even be.

Blessed body elemental ASCEND THOU WITH ME!

Beloved I AM! (3)
By God's Own Hand! (3)
I now command! (3)
By Hercules' Hand! (3)
By Amazon's Hand! (3)

I consciously accept this done RIGHT NOW, with full power, eternally sustained, all-powerfully acting, ever-expanding, and world encompassing, until all are wholly ascended and free.

Beloved members of F.O.M.—we thank you for the synchronized prayers for those departing, as well as those who have already departed this earthplane. We would like to compliment the earnest chelas who cognize the fact that it is necessary to have funds to disseminate this instructions.

It is suggested by the Ascended Ones that every reader who understands the necessity of conscious, daily cooperation with the Divine Beings upon the behalf of the departing and departed souls, will apply for membership in this Order (F.O.M.) which, like all the supplements of "The Bridge to Freedom Journal," is sustained by the love-gifts of the alert chelas.

ORDER OF THE FRIENDS OF MERCY (F.O.M.)
Dedicated to Help Lifestreams Over the Period of Transition,
When the Soul Leaves the Flesh Body

Under the Direction of Ascended Master Saint Germain (who, under the name of Saint Joseph, is well known as the Patron of a "happy death")

HOW YOU CAN SERVE

1st. Call for Mercy's Flame of Cosmic Forgiveness to sweep through the lifestream who shall pass through the portals of so-called death during the period of twenty-four hours when the call is made, and during the rest of month and year.

2nd. Call to action the Angels of the Violet Fire, and the Angels of Lord Michael's Legions, with their Swords of Blue Flame, to stand at the side of each soul passing to sweep out the last vestige of human creation.

3. Call to action the Angels of Comfort from the legions of our beloved Maha Chohan, to wipe out all fear of so-called death, and give comfort to the loved ones who remain.

4. Call to the presence of our beloved Saint Germain and to the presence of beloved Maha Chohan, to take the departing one into their arms of light and love, and to bring him or her to the Karmic Board to present the harvest of that particular embodiment, and then assign him or her to the appropriate school to accomplish the ascension without the need of another embodiment.

Those desirous of rendering this important assistance, greatly required at this time, may apply now for free membership in this order. They will receive, from time to time, a bulletin with appropriate decrees and instructions to better render their service. They may also apply for prayers for their departed ones. Address: Scribe of F.O.M., Box 321, Charlottesville, Virginia.

THE PURPOSE OF YOUR DECREES

When individualization was conferred upon your individual identity, the Threefold Flame was created, which became a cosmic cause, and you, today are the effect of that cause. Therefore, because that Presence IS, you ARE, and because the cosmic cause decreed perfection, you are pre-destined to outpicture perfection as an Ascended and Cosmic Being, because all cause must of necessity have an effect.

When the Threefold Flame, which is your true identity, was created from out of the heart of God, like spokes from a wheel, seven effects were projected, representing the sevenfold nature of man—the seven bodies, etc. Thus, you see, even in the finite world, every cause has seven effects, and each such effect in turn creates seven new causes! These ramifications extend until, upon contemplation, one realizes that the responsibility of being a creator is very tremendous!

The reason and purpose of your decrees, when issued intelligently, is to set up new causes in your world, that must bring corresponding effects of prosperity, health, illumination, purity and harmony. The reason for the constant admonition for harmony is that when new causes are set up they must ACT, but as your decrees begin a pulsation of opulence, health, peace, harmony and at the same time, in your daily living, you set up millions of human causes, that also must have effects—and in the balance, your decrees are far outweighed by the irritation and distress of your daily living.

You have no concept of the far-reaching effects of unkind words, thoughts, and feelings of irritation, anger and jittery emotions. The Master's decree is fulfilled co-existent with his call, because his entire lifestream is in agreement with his decree and all the energy of his being is held harmonious, and the natural law of life expresses that which he has decreed into form.

THE IMPORTANCE YOUR ATTENTION

By the Ascended Master Hilarion

Your attention is similar to a radio beam of electrical energy directed at a certain wave length, which connects with an objective vibrating at that wave length. Your attention is a consciously-emitted stream of electronic spark, that forms a bridge or conductor, made up of your own life, through which there flows to you, on a return current, the substance, radiation and quality toward which your attention has been directed.

Your attention is an open door to your individual consciousness and world, and is the only avenue through which you consciously accept! Your attention is as scientific as the electrical beam created through the Marconi system or a radio transmitter.

Your attention is your life projected forth through self-conscious action into the universe, to tie you with the object to which your attention has been directed. Countless dictations and affirmations have pointed you to the power held within the attention, as surely as your body subsists on the food you digest. Nothing can live in one's world unless his attention feeds it, whether it is God-consciousness or sickness of the flesh, or a limitation of supply. For the Godly man, as his attention is held unwaveringly on the Presence of life, the earth slips away and ceases to exist. This, in the ultimate state, is called Nirvana.

The attention is the funnel of your consciousness, which can be held by sustained and conscious effort upon whatever activity or manifestation of God's perfection one desires.

While the attention is held on any human channel, any human form, or any outer source of supply, of health, of happiness—the Law is in reverse, and through the avenue on which the attention is held, will flow the radiation and substance of the object upon which the attention is held.

If an individual seeking Godliness, health, happiness and supply could first understand the power of sustained attention, and then, through self-conscious effort, wrest the attention from the many pulls of the outer self and anchor that attention on the presence of God, God's presence would flow through him on the return currents as the fullness of all he could desire. Saint Germain said repeatedly, "Where your attention is, there you are; what your attention is upon, you become," but the students do not realize that the attention is constantly moving from place to place and is not one-pointed in acknowledging the Godhead as the ONLY doer!

The attention is the bridge from the human to the divine. It is the electronic energy of the lifestream thrown forth like a mystic span and man walks forth on the bridge into the realm of the real. The attention can be raised instantly to any Solar Lord or any Master or deva or angel, and over that bridge the consciousness may consciously soar into the realm where that one dwells! No one is a prisoner on the earth sphere while he contains within himself the magic, mystic power of the attention.

Every force on Earth, from the small puppy to the immature child, seeks to gain and hold the attention, because inside, that one knows that through the attention there flows a stream of light, and the God-seeking man is he who DOES NOT allow his attention to become a playground for the seen and unseen forces that would bind him longer to shadow.

YOUR ATTENTION IS A WAND—MAGIC, MYSTIC, POTENT—AND ONE MAN WITH CONTROLLED ATTENTION, MIGHT DRAW ENOUGH SPIRITUAL ESSENCE FROM THE HEART OF GOD TO REDEEM A PLANET!

RISING OUT OF THE TOMB OF SELFISHNESS

An Address delivered by Beloved El Morya
at the Ashram on Holy Thursday, April 14, 1960

Beloved friends of light and love eternal, I, like unto beloved Serapis Bey, am called a strict taskmaster. It is that very will and desire for you to accelerate the vibratory action of your lower vehicles so that you shall quickly find your way back home, which is our love in our hearts directed to you and through you for one purpose—your God freedom!

Here we have a stone, one of the few which remains of Tara's Halls, where long since both you and I served our Lord together. That "harp—that once through Tara's Hall its song of music sped—now lies as mute on Tara's walls as though its soul had fled." Why? Because, except for myself, every one of you and others dear to my heart got tired of the harp of Tara, got tired of the spiritual law, and went happily down the by-ways of life, seeking self-satisfaction through the senses.

I tell you, that harp shall ring again, and around it shall be gathered, not only in heaven, but right here on Earth, the faithful, who have learned that the highways and by-ways in the pursuit of happiness lead into nothingness, leaving disillusionment of soul, etheric memories of imperfection, mental confusions and emotional chaos!

Almighty God, it has taken all the sons and daughters of heaven, these past seven years, to untangle, not once, but every day, the chaos in your four lower bodies. Every single day, during each twenty-four-hour period, I take the time to go over those bodies and remove the emotional, the mental, etheric and physical chaos of one twenty-four-hour period. Isn't that love? I think, when you consider it deeply, it is, for love to many of you is an ephemeral thing, consisting of the kiss, the embrace, the handshake. Beloved ones, the love that the Great White Brotherhood from our regent, Sanat Kumara, down to my humble self, has for you is so great, that the foreswearing of Nirvana is nothing in comparison to the redemption we desire for each and every living thing.

I walked the ways of Earth not too long since. I knew the love of beauty and I knew the trials of flesh. Because I am called the preceptor of God's will, from which many men shrink in heart, though not in intellect, you think I do not love beauty. Ah, beauty and order are heaven's first law, and in my home at Darjeeling there is, and shall remain, always, both beauty and order. Disorder is no part of my nature, nor that of my particular brotherhood. Disorder of person or disorder of surroundings is the externalization of the human nature of disordered mind, feelings, the etheric consciousness, or just physical laziness. I repeat to you, as I have many times, if you invite me or any divine being to a feast, for God's sake, leave a place of honor (uncluttered) for us.

In your own realm, in your own life, you will find that when you bring order and beauty into your world, you will progress more happily, for order and beauty bring grace, and that grace brings to you perceptions that you never knew you had, and those perceptions, externalized, make you God-men, women and children in action, here on Earth. We know that there are times, naturally, during the course of your daily living, when you become a little lax through the use of the various media of your magnificent service, but this can be rectified in the matter of moments and those moments can be spent in invoking the will of God for man, woman and child on this Earth, invoking the will of God to make his kingdom manifest now, invoking the will of God for this sweet Earth and its redemption NOW, invoking the straightening of the axis of this Earth, the preparation for a class, wherein the Ascended Master Serapis Bey and myself should not have to supply all the energies required to be of a worldwide blessing.

Are you going to do that with the type of energies released or the vehicles in the condition in which they are? I think not! How about the little men in the Voodoo countries? How about the lone souls in Scotland, and in England too? How about those way off in Asia, Malaya, Hawaii? Think you that the energies, beloved hearts, of your songs, alone, could reach to Hawaii where those blessed and earnest Boerrigters hold their focus of light for this Easter Season? Your energies don't even reach down the rugged road to the so-called macadam.

Now awake—come out of that soul sleep. ALMIGHTY GOD, awake, and let enthusiasm again spin within your vehicles, spin within your emotional, mental, etheric and physical bodies setting those little electrons spinning around the atoms and preparing for the Holy Mother of Jesus and Brother John and Jesus. For myself I have the name, I have the brand and I care not, except as I fire you with enthusiasm for the love of God, to bring this Earth back home, bring it, oh bring it back home, with all its lovely spring flowers, with all its summer grace, with all its saddened mankind, with all its laggards, with all imprisoned elementals, with all its humankind, with all those who have left the former compound and roam yet in the psychic realm.

I plead with you, bring our Earth back home, bring your little four-footed creatures and all that lives, back home for Saint Germain's sake, that this Earth may be freedom's holy star. Why should I have gone to Vesta and Helios and asked for a dispensation to help you? Because I love Saint Germain, because he has that faith in you all and in all his chelas, though they fall by the wayside and desert him right and left—a faith which I, perchance, do not share, having served so often with mankind, both through the Theosophical Society, with Mrs. Bailey, with the “I AM,” and “The Bridge” activity. But his faith—he is like a child, your beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain. He is so happy when anyone of you ascend, when any one of you shows the tiniest bit of light. He rushes to the Karmic Board with that light and your achievement and he covers over every error you make, either consciously or unconsciously, and when we talk with him, he can talk only about how beautiful you are. Even the great Maha Chohan, smilingly knowing, listens, and too, in love, does not dissuade him from that faith.

Saint Germain pleads your cause and the cause of all that lives and we, the fiery ones—Serapis and I—are DETERMINED that his faith shall be realized through you, BY GOD, even though we may not seem popular to your outer self, yet one day, when you meet us face to face, we won't be so difficult. I can play the harp, if you want to hear it. They say I have a reasonable tenor voice, if you care to listen—and I can love enough, love enough to plead for the Ascended Master Saint Germain's vision of Utopia manifest on this Earth.

It is Easter time, ah yes. We come again to the Holy Season, today, to the Feast of the Last Supper, and tomorrow to the agonies of the cross—Saturday the waiting of the unfaithful disciples and the faithful Mary and John and Sunday brings us to the Hallelujahs, when Jesus burst the tomb and Magdala knelt by his feet and he told her to go and tell his disciples that he was risen. Then Jesus asked, “ why seek ye the living among the dead?” I love that phrase. When I come in here, and I come in more often than you know, I love to say to myself, to cheer myself up, “WHY seek ye the living among the dead?”

Now, come on and LIVE, in God’s name live—live to every ounce of your mind and body, soul and spirit, in the service of the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain and make his star a star of freedom NOW! Another cycle has started. How many cycles do we have to begin and turn again, again and again and again before you all decide to take off on the Ascension Flame?

NOW I INSIST AND COMMAND, BY THE POWER OF ALMIGHTY GOD that you, individually, who have had the privilege of my company, wanted or not, do something about making this Earth freedom’s holy star—and I NEVER TAKE “NO” FOR AN ANSWER! It is not my nature. I’m a terrifically persistent fellow, so persistent that I’ve followed you all, some of you, into the compound and dragged you out, literally, by the hair, or out of the sleepers’ realm, where you were enjoying a fine respite, and have literally SHOVED you through the Board of Karma and begged Mother Mary, on bended knee, to give you your embodiment today when there are two others who could have taken embodiment, making them stay in heaven’s realms, just so that YOU COULD. I knew you had it in you to help the Ascended Master Saint Germain bring the Earth home.

I did this for no other reason than that. In persistence and constancy of service, you shall have your individual freedom, the Earth shall have her freedom, Saint Germain shall have his Utopia, and the Ascended Host shall have an open door, through which to convince you again, again and again that we are real beings. COME OUT OF THE TOMB OF SELFISHNESS INTO THE LIGHT OF THE NEW DAY, FOR IT IS HERE!

Welcome to Darjeeling for the gentle side of my nature.

THE VIOLET FLAME IS YOUR FREEDOM

Addresses by Beloved Saint Germain and Lady Portia

Delivered at the Ashram, at the Anniversary of Saint Germain’s Coronation and Ascension , May 1, 1960

Ladies and gentlemen of grace, it is always a pleasure, as well as a privilege, to visit those who love the cause of freedom, those who love to serve in grace, to bring a planet too long held in the throes of distress, again into harmony, that harmony that shall add to the music of the spheres and out into the cosmic itself, instead of being the one dissonant note in this universe and in this galaxy.

How many of us love this Earth. How many of us walked upon it, walked sometimes in troubled thought and sometimes in happy free expression! How many of you here have walked and talked with me—all, I say—while yet unascended were you my friends, tried and true, in periods of adversity where friendship, the truest and most perfection expression of love divine, was required for even physical safety of the outer form.

Now, again, we have joined together on this magnificent pathway, where you and I and all of our heavenly brothers and sisters and all of those who are being transmuted and transformed into light, will bring to Earth that kingdom of magnificence that I have so longed to show you and to show all peoples—that kingdom where the angels perform the ceremonies and scatter the petals of the rose before the Sacred Mother, where the great builders of form, right before your eyes, can create a temple, aye of diamonds, stones of any descriptions, and change it in the twinkling of an eye, through the power of etherealization. Ah, that age is coming again, wherein there will be no distorted life, wherein there shall be no cry of pain, no distress of heart, of soul or spirit—for this I have foresworn Nirvana, for this I remain presently the Chohan in charge of the permanent Golden Age, wherein some say, “You speak of it often and yet the angels are not yet manifest.”

Who knows—more there are in the world of form, more there are that walk among you than even ye who sit here this morning know about. That great Serapis Bey, who has opened the door to the Seventh Root Race and the great Karmic Board confirming the petition of beloved Morya, will allow dispensations when the blessed and beloved Mother this year creates again in this same month of May, the bodies of those who are to come to Earth in 1961.

Beloved ones, when you think how carefully and how beautifully are prepared the vehicles for each embodiment, no matter how much the soul has created in past embodiments of an imperfect nature, through the use of this Violet Fire, which I love so much, which is part of my being and world, the soul is given the most perfect body possible for re-embodiment and that Violet Fire surges through the Sacred Heart Temple as each and every blessed individual who is to be reborn on the Earth walks through the Elysian fields, walks up the steps of that temple, kneels before the blessed Mary, mother of Jesus, and before Kwan Yin, and passes through that ceremony wherein their long golden hair is shorn. Where is that hair placed? It is placed in the heart of the Resurrection Temple, wherein those who are not again to embody, may have a magnetizing power to bless those shorn of their glory, to enter into earth garments and shine through the light of their own hearts, being sons and daughters of freedom, wearing freedom's robes in dignity and honor.

Long since it was that my Master called me home—long before my Utopia was established on this sweet Earth—so I had studied it well and endeavored through many, many people in authority to persuade them to allow it to come forth in Europe, but my Master said it was time for me to close the book of my life and enter into the realms of the ascended. And so you have my little Utopia and the few memoirs that are therein, and the deeper truths of Shakespeare, for those who seek to delve, and the memory of a man shorn not only of position but also of name, traveling alone from the England that he loved, meeting trusted friends in France and finding peace in the most beautiful woods of Transylvania.

Here the bird song was so sweet and there was no footfall, for even the horses were unshod and they—as well as the mankind privileged to be among my close friends in the Transylvanian Forest—moved silently. In that silence you could hear the voice of the bird, the more delicate voice of the flower and there I truly pressed my physical bosom against this earth, kissing it a farewell, but promising I should return through those who love me first, and then one day when the veil of maya was dissolved enough, in person.

When you have a project here on Earth, no matter how small it may be, it becomes quite dear to you. I have that project of a planet free of disease, decay and death—free of every type of consciousness that could create war, wherein angels, men and elementals might walk together in happiness, a shining planet just as it was when it first came forth from the heart of Immaculata, with Amaryllis's sweetest blooms. That dream has not been fulfilled, but it has become a vision—a vision held in my consciousness with all of the tenacity of my centuries of embodiment on this Earth, as well as my experience on other stars. That is the vision that I impart to you when I receive the confidence of your presence.

Oh, how lovely to have our Earth again as she was then. How lovely for you to be a part of leaving her more beautiful and shining because you have passed by. How lovely, indeed, that generations yet unborn shall know angels and Divine Beings as their friends and no maya stands between. How lovely that the throne of freedom shall be occupied by a heart friend, simple and yet withal filled with the consciousness and conviction that a vision of a world of freedom can become FACT.

When men and women cease bickering among themselves and nations among nations—then the solar highways can be opened and then can those above look down and say, “How lovely the garland of light around the freedom star,” instead of pinpoints of light here and there scattered across the surface of the Earth wherein is the awakened consciousness of one or a handful of valued students—all of the Earth ablaze with light. For this Sanat Kumara’s invested centuries, ages of service. To this end was created the Great White Brotherhood. To this end do we live but to educate you in the knowledge that the powers that we used to set ourselves free are within your own heart, only to be loosed by the acceptance of their reality.

Lovely ones, the Violet Flame is real—more real, by far, than externalized form on chart or picture. That flame is your freedom, as it blazes in, through and around you. LET GO, LET GO and let go of emotional, mental, etheric and physical chaos and then accept, from my Lady Portia, the divine justice which is the heritage of your being, to be a God and Goddess on this Earth and then achieve Ascended Master or Cosmic status, at the close of this earth life.

Beloved Portia speaks:

My beloved Saint Germain, you plead the cause of freedom well, and men, women and children who listen to you, and they would love it for themselves and some few for others, but as a member of the Karmic Board, beloved, I know that that vision which is yours, to become fact, must literally be riveted into the outer consciousness of the chelas who have pledged themselves to serve you, so that that freedom is the greatest and highest aspect of their thinking, feeling selves, else in the trials my trusting and beloved one, in the hours that are to come, you may not find anchored as many friends as your heart believes. As a member of the Karmic Board I pledge to you all of the energies of my being, to see that you are NOT disappointed again in ONE SOUL in which you have invested an electron of your life, and that those who have desecrated your vision of freedom SHALL ARISE and make things right NOT ONLY FOR YOU but for the cause you represent. THIS IS A FIAT OF THE KARMIC BOARD FOR YOU ON YOUR MAY DAY!

Beloved Saint Germain speaks:

This sacred month of May, dedicated to the festivals of so many of my Ascended Master friends of light, is a particularly blessed one for me, and I wish you, this morning, the same joy I experienced when I left my earthly body and gained my victory and met the Goddess of Liberty and the other great teachers of light in the Ascended Master Realm. No one can explain the feeling of relief and release and joy that there is in the ascension, even though one's service is not completed and that one shall return to serve through others. One day you will say to me, "Saint Germain, my friend, you spoke truly." You will expand your light in the cosmos and having done completely your little individual task, will join me, to go out no more.

A happy and most blessed month of May from your friend, your servant and one who believes you love me—as I LOVE YOU!

DEVELOPING YOUR POTENTIAL DIVINITY!
Monthly Letter to the Transmission of the Flame Class of August 20th, 1960, by the Maha Chohan

Beloved Friends Seeking to do God's Holy Will on Earth,

I am again so delighted that you have been and are enjoying active participation in the Transmission Flame Classes, which through my own humble endeavors, were begun in 1952, when the Ascended Master Saint Germain still held his focus of the Freedom Flame in Transylvania.

Now, we join our breaths with yours in the so charming, gracious and beautiful home of my beloved son, and your Guru, El Morya. His will for you is that you, each one, become now a God-man, a God-woman, a God-child, and to that end, and for that purpose, does he spur you onwards, to develop the potential divinity within the Holy Christ Flames of each of your dear hearts. Sometimes the outer self rebels (temporarily) at such love divine, which is ACTIVE AND CONSTANT PERSUASION FROM THE HEART OF EL MORYA. One day you shall, upon bended knees, prostrate yourself before this God of love.

Accept the opportunity during this thirty-day period of visiting El Morya's focus! Learn to love him as I do. Bring back into your orbits his feelings of loving imprisoned life free. The sponsors for this month are gentlemen from El Morya's court.

LOVING SOMEONE YOU DISLIKE
An Address Delivered by Beloved Mother Mary
at the Ashram on Good Friday, April 15th, 1960

Beloved and blessed children walking the ways of Earth, I have loved you long and well. I hold for you, as I did for the Ascended Master Jesus, that immaculate concept, which shall externalize on this earthplane, as it has in the higher realms!

To hold constantly to the immaculate concept, amidst all the effluvia of the present untransmuted astral plane, requires a great deal of concentration upon the part of unascended beings. It required all of the energy of my life, as well as of the angels who guarded me and the Ascended Master Saint Germain (who was Joseph), to hold the immaculate concept for Jesus from the time of his conception and birth, through our flight to Egypt and yet allow him full freedom to enter into the rigorous tests at Luxor, when he met face to face its mighty Hierarch, Serapis Bey. We, then, at divine direction, brought him back, still a young boy, into Judea where both he and I were labeled, by malicious individuals as rather imperfect characters.

I held that immaculate concept, beloved ones, for him. It was comparatively easy, because he was a beautiful baby, a beautiful child, a beautiful youth and young man. When he met, in consciousness, the beloved Lord Maitreya, he had to learn to magnify the Lord of life and hold the divine concept for himself and his mission, because that is the Law. I held that divine concept, too, with all the energies of my being, until Good Friday, but he, by requirement of the Cosmic Law had to utilize the energies of his own self-conscious being, of his emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles, to magnify the Lord of good wheresoever he was.

I did my humble service in teaching him so to do. He was born without sin or taint of this world (untransmuted karma), but he had senses more alert, because of his spiritual development. He had eyes that could see sights that you see no more, because the present civilization hides them from you through various institutions. He had ears to hear and hands most delicate and beautiful to touch, first Joseph's hand, then my person later, the flower, the bird, the rabbit, the man, woman or child in the street who required assistance. His hands were beautiful and delicate but yet strong enough, by the direction of Joseph, to become a skilled carpenter. No yoke he ever made hurt a beast of burden. No spinning wheel he ever made had a splinter upon it. His hands could heal and yet serve and were practically directed by a mind alert, always, to do God's will in love.

I cannot describe to you the love of my son for you, for all mankind and for every living thing. There are no words which can describe that type of pure, divine love, which takes a man in the fullness of his youth—thirty-three years of age by human count—from an Earth that he loved, from a mother who had lost her husband, from disciples not yet anchored in the understanding of what he was endeavoring, in the most simple terminology, to teach them, victoriously through the experience of the crucifixion. During those three hours I held that immaculate concept for him, knowing that neither the spear nor the crown of thorns nor the cross nor the nails could hurt him! I had seen his Holy Christ Self from the day I first cradled him in my arms, until the day when his beloved body hung between two thieves, for three long hours.

John, The Beloved, and I stood watch during those three hours and gave to him all of the love of our hearts, holding that immaculate concept for him, so that he might pass through that initiation, resuscitating his physical form, resurrecting it on Eastern Morn, for the benefaction of a doubting discipleship, and ascending publicly in the sight of over 500 people.

Now I am rendering that same service for you. Where I left one boy in the bloom of youth on Golgotha's Hill and walked with John to my shelter in Bethany, I became, and I am, the mother of you all—laggards, humankind, disembodied entities and those imprisoned angels and elementals and those babies who are to be born.

Beloved! Do not accept feelings of depression, which are looking for a home—because they are a vampire activity which require energy to live! Anchor your feeling world into mine, if you desire, or into that of any other Ascended Being, and draw from them the feelings of illumined buoyancy, confidence, faith and God-conviction that ALL IS WELL AND SHALL BE BETTER.

Blessed, beloved ones, I come to plead the cause of a mother for her children. You are in a COSMIC MOMENT—a moment when our beloved Saint Germain desires to make of Earth freedom's holy star, to straighten the axis of this Earth, to help each and every one of you, before your ascension, to experience some of the ecstasy of consciously serving with the Great White Brotherhood, instead of experiencing a feeling of drudgery, which so often impregnates your service to life.

When I achieved my own ascension, when I had spoken with the disciples and apostles, when John received his ascension and I joined beloved Jesus in the Ascended Master Realm, I was given the same choice that you will be given, to go to higher glory. I said, "No, I shall mother the Earth, the laggards and all upon it, holding for that Earth and all that lives upon it, in, through and around it, the immaculate concept, until it is manifest.” And this I am doing! Are you doing as much for even one, one that you love—human, animal or elemental? I do not ask you to take on the entire human race, beloved ones, for I know it would be an impossibility, but I would like you to try it on someone for whom you have an antipathy. It is easy to love those you love. It is easy to have a feeling of happy gratitude for association with those for whom you have an affinity, surely, just as easy as it is for me and Lord Raphael to work with God-free angels or in the Sacred Heart Temple, or with Jesus or the Ascended Master Saint Germain.

I personally go through the gutters, as does Kwan Yin, of your cities, states and nations, holding the immaculate concept for the untouchable of every nation, race and creed. THEY SHALL RESPOND, by the power of God, for they, too, have a Holy Christ within, awaiting expansion and love.

My son said, “Love your enemies, treat kindly those who spitefully use you.” He spoke in the most simple terms and in easy parables that the man on the street could understand, but somehow the diabolical forces, that still roam through the world, have emphasized the wrong part of his mission. They glorified a crucified Christ, muting a resurrected Christ and a man among men, who walked, practically on the earth, doing good until he was called at the age of thirty for his cosmic mission, and the Dove of the Holy Spirit, who is your particular benefactor, blessed him at Jordan’s River.

Jesus used only a few words, “I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE,” but he had the constancy of repeating them again and again to gain HIS VICTORY.

Take as your assignment this Holy Easter tide, the task of loving someone your own outer consciousness is repellent toward. Don’t tell them about it, because they are probably just as repellent to you. If you can do as Nada did, and many of us did in our assignments, if you can and will pour that pure divine love without an outer sign of lip or look or hand to that one, I promise, in the name of the ascended Jesus Christ that you will see the rejuvenation of the physical body, the balance of the mind, and the emotions, the clarification of the mental body, purification of the etheric body, and a better man, woman or child. You may even love an animal which you dislike.

Just love that life until you get happiness and harmony from it, and that is your reward, as Nada 's reward was in the enjoyment of beautiful songs and the beautiful artwork of her sisters and in her humility, under the beloved Charity, of never letting even her father, mother or her sisters know that it was her love poured toward them during their sleeping hours that unfolded their talents and set them free.

MY PETITION TO MY CHILDREN, FROM A LOVING MOTHER OF ALL—a mother who made your heart and bodies, who loves you and has loved you through all the years and embodiments, while you pursued the by-passes of the senses—is that you consciously accept the God concept for yourself, the planet which has been your hostess, and all that live, in, through, and about it—a mother who is strict enough to hold the immaculate concept for you—shining, brilliant, blazing light.

AN INVOCATION TO THE ANGELS OF COMFORT

By the Beloved Maha Chohan

Oh world, oh world, seeking comfort, seeking surcease from pain, disease and death! Oh mankind, imprisoned in century after century of self-created shadows! Oh elemental kingdom, prisoners of the thoughts and feelings of the masses. Oh, lovely angels pinioned, bound, exiled from home! OH, FOUR-FOOTED CREATURES THAT HAVE NO WORDS, NO POWER OF INVOCATION WITHIN YOU, NO CAPACITY FOR PRAYER, NO CONSCIOUSNESS THAT CAN REACH TO THE ETERNAL AND WHO HAVE SO FEW TO PRAY FOR YOU. Oh, great forces of the elements leashed by the hand of mercy—forces of the sea, forces of the air and forces of the earth—oh, great forces of fire, held like four great steeds by the great charioteer of mercy.

IN THE NAME OF THE LIVING GOD, IN THE NAME OF THE HOLY SPIRIT OF THIS UNIVERSE, I draw forth that COSMIC COMFORT, those tongues of flame, into every element, every soul, every consciousness that is. LET THERE BE COMFORT! LET THERE BE THE SURCEASE OF DISTRESS.

Oh, mighty and eternal God who has opened to me the channel of “The Bulletin” by which I might feed some of the energies of my very self into those willing to read and ponder it! I thank you for those who have anchored the substance of my world into themselves, and there flows into them mighty streams of Cosmic Comfort.

Oh, mighty Angel Devas of Comfort, mighty and great Angels of Comfort, Seraphim and Cherubim of Comfort, Legions of Comfort from the universal—COME FORTH NOW and BRING COMFORT TO EVERY LIFESTREAM, every one, every electron on this planet—and so be it!

LASTING PEACE

By Beloved Gautama, Lord of the World

My dearly beloved ones! If you only knew just how important is the drawing, sustaining and expanding of the feelings of TRUE PEACE! It is much more important than the obtaining and using of money—it is more important than almost anything which the outer consciousness considers of value, for in TRUE PEACE do the healing currents freely flow, in TRUE PEACE you are able to understand, clearly, what the divine beings desire you to do and have done. In TRUE PEACE, your own Holy Christ Self has opportunity to direct your outer consciousness. Do you know that in TRUE PEACE just seven men or seven women (or a harmonious cooperative group composed of both) could create and sustain a temple, wherein the healing of any lifestream could be accomplished, without any one of those seven speaking even one audible word?

This peace of which I speak is not surface peace! It is the peace of which beloved Jesus spoke when he said that it surpassed the understanding of the outer mind. It is the peace which comes when you have found your Real Self—the peace that comes when you KNOW that GOD'S WILL IS GOOD FOR YOU and for all, the peace that comes when you are willing to renounce that which is dearest to you, in favor of God's will being done. From personal experience, I can tell you that, in renouncing my physical father's name and throne, as well as my lovely wife and baby son, I REALLY FOUND THEM, and my wife and son later became two of my most earnest and loyal disciples, in helping to spread THE WORD!

If you seek the peace and comfort of pure divine love and find it not in human beings, may I humbly offer you MY FEELING, substance and energy of MY PEACE, which is MY GOD-GIFT TO MAN! Remember, I am your eternal friend!

ARCHANGEL MICHAEL
(Archangel of Faith, Protection and Deliverance from Evil)

Of the seven beloved Archangels, who are the messengers of God, perhaps the best known and loved is the Lord of the Archangels, Prince Michael. Countless prayers to him, with their attendant and immediate response, have drawn him close to the peoples of Earth. Golden of hair, with magnificent blue eyes, and an appearance of splendor, confidence and faith in God, Lord Michael has responded so often to the requirement of peoples upon the Earth who are caught up in the distresses of soul, mind and body.

He, of his own free will, at the very beginning of mankind's embodiment on Earth, chose to become the guardian of the faith of man in his God. His presence, or that of one of the celestial helpers who are among his legions, sweep earthward to give assistance to anyone in distress.

His focus of light, his shining temple pulsates in the etheric realm in the Canadian Rockies, near Banff*. Here, many who are aware of this focus come for the renewal of their faith in God and find renewed encouragement to serve their fellowman upon the Earth.

Once, long ago, as is told in the Bible, the Earth was pure and its peoples innocent. They dwelt in a Garden of Eden and enjoyed the beauty, opulence and perfection, which God had created for them. "And God looked upon his creation and said IT IS GOOD!"

Then, mankind, endowed with the gift of free will, chose to experiment with the use of life (disobeying the Law of God) and evil came forth from their minds, feelings, spoken words and actions. This is called, by many, "the fall of man."

When the "fall of man" took place, Lord Michael—seeing the travail and soul agony, which would result from such disobedience to God's Law of Harmony—began to prepare for his long and loving service to God's disobedient children. He fashioned out of his own thought, a magnificent Sword of Blue Flame. He drew around himself legions of the angelic host to assist him, and he offered God his services, until the very last of mankind is redeemed and his sins expiated and he is returned to his God-estate. God, in his infinite mercy, accepted the kind services of Lord Michael and his helpers and ever since, beloved Michael and his angels have been serving mankind, imprisoned angels, the elemental kingdom and every living thing, with but one thought in mind—preservation of the spiritual light in the soul and restoration of the desire for obedience to God's Law of Harmony on Earth and in its atmosphere.

By the bedside of a sick person, in the homes of those who suffer, in the great institutions where illness of mind and body are treated, there are always present the legions of Lord Michael, helping to cut away the invisible cause and core of distress, so that the soul may find freedom and happiness in God's service.

At many religious services, where the actual recognition of Lord Michael is given, his radiant presence pours down a shower of faith and love and protection upon the communicants. The mere speaking of his name draws his attention toward you and his help into your world.

When people pass from this earth life, they are often as deeply enmeshed in discord as when they lived in an earthly body. Lord Michael, with his own hands and flashing Sword of Blue Flame, cuts the bands that bind these so-called deceased peoples to the loved ones on Earth and allows the soul to rise to the throne of the Father.

In many homes where distress, discord and impurity have been emanated by the inhabitants, (sometimes for centuries), the invocation to Lord Michael and his helpers will free those homes of all past impurity and allow the present inhabitants of that home to enjoy the beauty of the present, rather than the heavy, depressing atmosphere of the past.

The secret thoughts, feelings and actions of mankind, as well as their rebellious outer expressions of discord, has created a blanket of discordantly-qualified energy around the Earth. This is called the psychic or astral realm. Within it dwell many invisible spirits and elementals, who prey upon the credulous minds of those peoples of Earth seeking to know the truth about their loved ones, who have passed through the veil called death, or who are seeking to pierce the hidden "mysteries" of life beyond the veil.

His shining presence will, and does, come to anyone so temporarily caught in the psychic realm and deliverance is immediate and permanent.

Also those who are caught in the habits of dope addiction, alcoholism and various other depravities of the flesh, have an instant deliverer in Lord Michael, if they will invite him to help them. Sometimes the individual, so caught in psychic conditions does not want help. It is the privilege of those who know of Lord Michael to call to him on their behalf and he will answer them. This call (prayer) need not be made aloud, nor even in the presence of the individuals requiring assistance, for the very mention of deliverance sets up a resistance in the consciousness of the one who so needs aid.

Wisdom and discrimination upon the part of those who see the need and desire for the help of Lord Michael for themselves and others will help them to make such a call silently or audibly, when they are alone. Thus, the resistance of the outer mind, which is substance heavily charged with rebellion, is avoided.

Words cannot express the manifold services of the great Prince, Lord Michael, and his divine helpers, but invocation of his heavenly presence and aid for all who invoke him into their own worlds or that of their loved ones (whether they are on Earth or have passed through the change called “death”) will prove his reality and power to give such assistance. Remember, because an individual has passed through the change called “death,” he or she is also in need of prayer. Make a personal friend of Lord Michael. Opportunity will present itself to you every day, as you see distress and limitations about you! Thus, you will truly become one of the helpers of this selfless one, by inviting his assistance in freeing all life, everywhere, from discord, disease, limitation and distress.

*In the etheric realms over central Europe is a focus of beloved Archangel Michael, as well as in the Canadian Rockies.

INVOCATION

Beloved heavenly Father and thy divine messenger, Lord Michael!

We bless thee for thy presence in this universe! We invoke the presence of Lord Michael and his legions of light into the atmosphere of Earth to cut free every soul belonging to this evolution, from all substance, energy, habits, qualities, tendencies and desires which are not of God!

We invoke thy intercession on behalf of our loved ones who live beyond the veil of death. Go to them and cut them free from all earthly bonds of greed, hate, and distress. Take them to thy Temple of Faith and teach them true faith in God and inculcate in their hearts a desire to obey God’s holy will.

We invoke thy Presence into every institution of incarceration of every kind upon the planet Earth and into every home and place of worship. Dissolve the cause and core of all distress—individual, national and planetary. Help us, we beseech thee, to learn to serve with thee in removing the psychic and astral realm that lies like a “smog” upon and around the Earth. Take all disembodied spirits and elementals who have not yet learned to do God's will, from the atmosphere of Earth.

We ask thee, Lord Michael, to meet our loved ones as they pass through the veil called death, and in thy own loving arms, carry them to the throne of God, himself.

Beloved Lord Michael, help us to want to do God's will here on Earth and hereafter. Remove the curse of "rebellion and disobedience" from all evolutions in the Earth, upon its surface and in its atmosphere. Thank you, blessed Prince of the Heavenly Host! We accept your intercession upon our behalf and that of all life, and we accept your friendship in our own worlds today and forever. Amen!

PRAYER

(The general content of the following prayer is given daily in the communal service of one of the great religions, and beloved Archangel Michael, himself, has said that this daily recognition of him by these devout people, through the centuries, is greatly responsible for his presence and that of his protecting angels in the lower atmosphere of Earth.)

Blessed Michael, the Archangel! Defend us in the hour of conflict. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of both seen and unseen evil forces. Restrain them, oh God, we humbly beseech thee—and do thou, oh Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, remove from the atmosphere of Earth all the evil spirits who roam about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. So be it!

INNER AND EXTERNALIZED CONSCIOUSNESS

By the Ascended Master El Morya

The physical appearance world and everything in manifestation is but externalized consciousness. That is self-evident and has been explained to you in detail by the Masters of Wisdom.

Your own bodies and every experience in your daily lives are but the externalization of the consciousness of some lifestream in your environment.

Your consciousness has been builded for hundreds of thousands of centuries of living, and thought and feeling patterns have been set up, many of which your outer self has never been cognizant of. These thought and feeling patterns are constantly moving currents of energy, which are like riverbeds, and the perfect energy released from the God-head flows naturally along the course of these thought and feeling patterns, because of the momentum they have builded in these many embodiments. Now, these thought and feeling patterns, conscious and unconscious, represent the inner consciousness of every lifestream and constitute the nature of the personal self, and by the nature of their being, they constitute the outer experience of every lifestream.

We reiterate, then, that whatever is in the consciousness, known or unknown, is externalized as the experience of the lifestream, so that the thought and feeling patterns which constitute the inner consciousness continue, embodiment after embodiment to form the external experience through which the lifestream passes, again and again.

The Spiritual Hierarchy Deals Only With Consciousness

The Spiritual Hierarchy and all beings directly concerned with the evolution of the race, deal only with consciousness, knowing that effect always follows cause.

How a Portion of Your Consciousness is Externalized

The Lords of Karma looking at the consciousness of the soul, allow only a certain percentage of that consciousness to be externalized in each life, holding back, through mercy, the externalization of more than the lifestream can bear.

As you press toothpaste from a tube, in the proportion you desire, so is the pressure of the Cosmic Law, which externalizes in each lifestream's experience, a percentage of that lifestream's inner consciousness.

With the increased pressure of the cosmic light and the acceleration of the evolution of the planet, there is a much greater pressure upon the inner consciousness of all souls belonging to this system, and the externalization of a greater percentage of their inner iniquities naturally follows.

Changing Your Inner Nature

The import of my message today is to convey to the intellects of all the students, that they will never be free of the externalized evil until they make a drastic change in their inner nature, because the inner consciousness must become absolutely free from the ability to entertain or recognize imperfection in thought and feeling, and when the cup is clean within, the appearance world will automatically manifest only the perfection that fills the inner consciousness.

Effects of Uncontrolled Thought and Feeling

People cannot go on in their uncontrolled thinking and feeling and not have those thoughts and feelings externalize as distress. You can dam up feeling by means of the outer will, but while they are entertained within, as a seething uncontrol, the cause—though hidden, perhaps from the world—will externalize as an effect, as truly as the sun reflected on the water emits a certain radiance of light.

Invoking the Ascended Masters' Light into Your Consciousness

This is more important than people have realized, because a person's consciousness is always under the control of the individual's lifestream, and even the Ascended Masters cannot intrude their light into the recesses of the human consciousness unless invited, but the invocation of the Ascended Masters' light into an individual's consciousness will bring great illumination to the mind and great assistance in clearing out the filth of the centuries.

The people who are to advance spiritually have to change in their inner nature, and neither suppression nor intellectual knowledge brings release. The world of consciousness is the world of thought and feeling, and in this secret and sacred place, man must be completely honest and if so, his externalization will prove his sincerity.

TEMPLE OF ILLUMINED FAITH AND PROTECTION, BANFF

A Letter from the Maha Chohan to the Transmission of the Flame Class of September 17th, 1960

Beloved Ones Seeking Freedom from Distress for Yourselves and All Life Everywhere,

It is our joy to join the great Archangel Michael in his focus of illumined faith at Banff. How many times, through the ages has he personally freed you from your own misdemeanors, as freeing the astral effluvia of the entire Earth and her unascended evolutions. Patience and love are embodied in the presence of this beloved Prince of the Archangels and his royal court of angels, who defend, protect, illumine and set free all imprisoned life, when a chela (unascended) asks him so to do.

As the anniversary day in his honor is September 29th of each year, I personally ask that you, each one, who has had the kindly services of Lord Michael and his God-free angels, give to him some special blessing from your own dear worlds.

The sponsors from Lord Michael's Ascended Master Legions are great angels, clothed in sapphire blue garments, with sword, shield, helmet and visor, who come with you or go for you to those in distress. Accept their living presence, beloved, for they are beings of light at your command!

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

THE TASK OF THE EXTERNALIZED CONSCIOUSNESS

By the Ascended Master Saint Germain

In the precipitation of the divine consciousness into and through the four lower vehicles provided as instruments of manifestation, the consciousness so extended into the manifest plane of physical expression was provided as a transformer of the divine ideas into the substance and energy of the lower world. Thus, the divine perfection already completed in the mind and heart of God, was to be drawn through the consciousness thus provided, and the atoms and molecules of the third-dimensional plane coalesced around the divine ideas so created according to the divine blueprint.

The Externalized Consciousness

The consciousness thus sent forth from the divine mind was to be the interpreter of the divine ideation and the interpretation was to follow the original, exactly, as to form and detail. In other words, the important task of the externalized consciousness was to receive that portion of the divine plan allotted to it for expression and then to use the creative faculties to express the divine plan impressed upon it from above.

Your Environment is the Out-Picturing of Your Consciousness

Every man, woman and child in the universe interprets the divine plan today according to their individual capacity and the outpicturing of a person's environment and association is the result of his or her accurate or faulty interpretation of it. The home in which they live, the environment in which they move and their particular place in the evolutionary scheme of commerce, industry or domestic affairs, is but the outpicturing of what their consciousness is capable of receiving from the realm of truth.

The Cause Of Limitation

The denser, more impure and heavy the consciousness, the less it can tune into the truth, and, therefore, its interpretation of life, resulting in limitation, is not accurate, nor in any measure cooperative with the expansion of the kingdom.

How to Fulfill Your Destiny

Your consciousness, each one, has become embedded and ingrained with much imperfection through centuries of life's experience, but as your attention is placed upon purification and truth, your instruments of interpretation will become more alert, more accurate and more receptive to the divine will, and as you interpret more and more truth, so will that expanded consciousness externalize greater perfection.

The Four Lower Bodies

The folds of consciousness form an actual substance, made up of the elements in which the four lower bodies function. The four lower bodies are the weavers of the universal light substance into the complicated, intricate pattern which forms the consciousness of every lifestream.

Through the substance of these folds, a consciousness (representing the creative power) presses into manifestation the conscious or unconscious imaging and picturization of the individual, and the quality of manifestation is more-or-less tempered by the actual substance of the consciousness through which it flows.

The Purification of the Four Lower Bodies

It is therefore expedient for the conscious student upon the path to accelerate the cosmic purification of the four lower bodies, in order that the folds of consciousness emitted from every individual and forming the collective “cup of transmutation” might be utilized by the Gods and that they might find a perfect, clean vessel of transmutation, that would not dim the glory of each individual manifestation.

HOW TO DISCONNECT YOUR INNER BODIES FROM THE MASS CONSCIOUSNESS By the Mighty Elohim Vista (Cyclopea)

Again returning to the ever-expanding knowledge and understanding of the realm of consciousness, I will present to you another point of application, which will assist you in the process of training and maintaining an inner consciousness at a higher level of spiritual attunement than has been the natural course of your individual evolutionary expression to date.

When a man or woman desires to raise himself or herself to a conscious understanding of the Law, he must first recognize the fact that it is the internal nature of his entire being that must go through a period of drastic change and attunement, which is diametrically opposed to the currents of energy that have been his natural expression to date.

In the retreats and in the East, where individuals know that the spiritual path requires such an extreme re-orientation in the expression of the lifestream, they approach the path with greater earnestness, knowing that it is not the superficial surface, but the innermost nature of the man, which must be trained along lines which will evolve a set of vehicles completely harmonious and perfectly attuned to the currents of force that represent the outpourings of the Godhead and set the pattern for the divine plan, to man and nature.

Influencing the Four Lower Bodies

We will return to the study of the four lower bodies and their contributing force which, as a conglomerate whole, makes up a man's personality and consciousness and determines his or her state of evolution and progress on the path.

When a man aspires to spiritual unfoldment, he finds that the energy of his lifestream has evolved a series of independent motivated vehicles whose course of action is completely beyond his control and even beyond the scope of his reason.

He dwells among these warring selves and is victim rather than master of the vehicles originally intended to be his servants. Each one of these four bodies is fed externally by any vibration going on in the particular sphere to which it belongs, at any given moment. Thus, if tremendous currents of force pass through the etheric world, the mental or emotional worlds, the bodies of the unawakened vibrate to those currents as helplessly as a small craft bobs in the waves of a powerful steamboat.

The Sea of Cosmic Currents

As man's evolution is but a small part of the activity of the universe to which he belongs, cosmic currents from various planets and stars and activities from the fourth dimension are playing through the seven spheres, and these currents have been incorrectly interpreted by astrologers as beneficent or malefic forces that affect, constructively or otherwise, certain groups of individuals at various times. The truth of the matter is, that these tremendous currents of force, as they sweep through the seven spheres, are intent on cosmic creation and the power of their release energizes the various bodies of the people according to the quality of the energy predominant in the inner bodies at the time of their passing.

The Turmoil of the Mass Consciousness

There are likewise upheavals in the psychic and astral planes such as were recently caused by the worldwide war, which does not only affect the physical bodies of those in the conflict, but is a tremendous mental, emotional and etheric conflagration, that fills the inner bodies of every incarnate and discarnate soul with confusion and chaos. Therefore, we see that one-seventh of your lifestream is manifest in the physical form and six sevenths are under the influence of currents of energy of which the intellect is completely unaware.

You have been told that the mental, the feeling and the etheric nature of all mankind are one, and what affects one affects all. The advancing consciousness makes an intellectual affirmation of its desire to rise out of the mass mind. He then wonders at the rise and fall of the state of his consciousness, not realizing that his inner bodies are at the mercy of and controlled by the mental and emotional waves going through the universe, released by the peoples of Earth, the discarnates as well as those from the higher octaves. Thus, the student must, in order to facilitate his progress and ensure a steady forward motion of his entire lifestream, learn how to disconnect his inner bodies from the mass consciousness and thus tune into the vibratory action of the higher spheres.

The quicker vibratory action of the latter will raise the lower bodies from connection with the mass mind and will greatly strengthen them by the currents of these higher spheres into which they are attuned, and while that higher vibratory action is vibrating through them, they will be immune to negative forces, but once an individual allows any one of the four lower bodies to descend again into the turmoil of the outer consciousness, he becomes a part of and is affected by the mass thought and feeling. It is the individual's consciousness choice.

How To Raise Your Emotional Body

To make this clear, let us take your emotional nature. Consciously offer it into the heart of heaven—let the qualities of the Masters fill it with the substance and feeling that heaven expresses, and if your emotional nature is held in the heart of heaven, no inner or outer experience will be important enough to change the ecstasy of that vibratory action.

How To Raise Your Mental Body

Consciously take your mental body and tune it into the all-knowing mind of God. You know you cannot entertain a thought less than perfection and keep it there in that mind, and then the individual's mind is so attuned it cannot become a part of the mental confusion of the world.

How To Raise Your Etheric Body

Take your etheric body and consciously bathe it in the waters of purity and in the flame and let it record only perfection.

Results

As your bodies are thus trained to rise and join with the Ascended Master mind and heart, they will feed on the substance of universal good. They will not allow you to be dragged down into the unhappiness of the outer world, and they will begin to feed your consciousness with their reports from God's kingdom, rather than to dump the refuse of their experiences in the world of human thinking and feeling into it.

I hope we have been clear enough to present to you another phase of unfoldment which, together with your previous understanding, will enable you to invite various Gods and Goddesses to accept, expand and to guard and protect, to fill, to teach and to train your lower vehicles, until they become perfection expressions of the good of your lifestream.

FIRE

I AM! (3) the Ascended Masters' Law of Forgiveness and Transmuting Flame of all misuse of the fire element by me and all mankind through the ages.

BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM and BELOVED ASTREA, draw within your Circle and Sword of Blue Flame the cause and core of all FEAR of fire, fear of air, fear of water and fear of the earth, and transmute it into the illumination and Ascended Masters' understanding and use of the Sacred Fire.

BELOVED HELIOS AND VESTA, ZARATHUSTRA and ALL who are in charge of the fire element, we love, bless and thank you and all the salamanders for your service to us and all mankind through the ages. We ask that all destructive activities of the fire element be transmuted into the Sacred Fire of God's love, to bring eternally sustained purity and perfection everywhere on our Earth now—to be ever-expanding and world-encompassing until all are wholly ascended and free, BELOVED I AM! (3)

AIR

I AM! (3) the Ascended Masters' Law of Forgiveness and Transmuting Flame of all misuse of the air element by me or any of mankind, in or out of embodiment.

BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM and BELOVED THOR AND ARIES, we love, bless and thank you. We bless the north winds, the south winds, east winds, west winds and the sylphs of the air who are your messengers, asking that all destructive activities of the air be transmuted by the Violet Transmuting Flame, and that never again will the air element participate in cyclones, tornadoes or any destructive activity. We thank you and consciously accept this done right now, eternally sustained, ever-expanding and world encompassing, until all are wholly ascended and free, BELOVED I AM! (3)

WATER

I AM! (3) the Ascended Masters' Law of Forgiveness and Transmuting Flame of all misuse of the water element by me and every lifestream, in or out of embodiment, and all who ever consciously or unconsciously used the water element destructively.

BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM, BELOVED NEPTUNE AND LUNARA, we love, bless and thank you and all the beings of the water element, all the undines who have ever served us, are serving us now or ever will serve us and mankind.

We bless the water element everywhere and the blessed undines who are your messengers, asking that all destructive activities of the water element be transmuted by the Violet Transmuting Flame, and that never again will the water element participate in hurricanes, typhoons, tidal waves, or any destructive activity. We thank you and consciously accept this done right now, eternally sustained, ever-expanding and world encompassing, until all are wholly ascended and free, BELOVED I AM! (3)

EARTH

I AM! (3) the Ascended Masters' Law of Forgiveness and Transmuting Flame of all misuse of the Earth's gifts, all the tortures, consciously or unconsciously, inflicted upon the gnomes and spirits of nature by myself and all mankind.

BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM, BELOVED PELLEUR AND VIRGO, we love bless and thank you and the beings of the earth. We bless every atom of the earth and all beings who work with it, the gnomes and spirits of nature, asking that all destructive activities of the earth element be transmuted by the Violet Fire and that never again will the earth element participate in earthquakes or any destructive activity. We thank you and consciously accept this done right now, eternally sustained, ever-expanding and world encompassing, until all are wholly ascended and free, BELOVED I AM! (3)

BEING A CONDUCTOR OF PEACE!
Letter from the Maha Chohan to the Transmission of the Flame Class of October 15th, 1960

Beloved Ones, seeking permanent peace for yourselves and the Planet Earth,

Welcome into the presence of the beloved God of the Himalayan Range. Prepare yourself to look upon the blue lotus, and make your personal wish for a better planet for its teeming billions of peoples, as well as for all imprisoned life in, through and around it.

Your sponsors for this month are gentlemen all empowered with Lord Himalaya's strength and power of permanent peace. Come often, away from the turmoil of your personal worlds, into that beautiful, serene presence of Himalaya. Absorb there his FEELING of peace, and be a conductor of that peace when your sponsor returns you safely to your physical vehicles at your request. I am so delighted that the Cosmic Law (proven by your use of projected consciousness to these retreats) allows you this freedom, for many a weary traveler, earnest and sincere, who had (under the old dispensation) to find the Ascended Masters' focus, perished in his search. For you, it is but the turning of your consciousness towards us and lo—you are there!

Love and blessings,
The Maha Chohan

THE ESSENCE OF LOVE
By the beloved Himalaya

To make yourself a cosmic center of love, draw this love from the heart of the great eternal Father, from the heart of the Lord Gautama, myself, the princely Jesus or the Lady Mary. This substance of love will then begin to enter the inner bodies and the consciousness, and there to generate deep below the surface, the divine vibration of love.

When one loves enough, all the supply, all the good of the universe, rushes toward the source of that love for benediction, and bathes in its essence, as happy children bathe in a fountain on a hot summer day. When one loves enough, both animate and inanimate life draws toward the heart center of that love, because such is the kingdom of heaven—and from the plant, the mineral, the vegetable, the animal and the human kingdoms, the heart cry is for the re-establishment of the soul and spirit in that kingdom from whence all have strayed.

Seeing your endeavors to establish and sustain a focus of the Ascended Masters in the Western World, I say to you—if you were to fill your buildings from the foundation, beneath the surface of the ground, to the topmost spar with the substance of love (which is the natural pink flame generated and drawn forth from the Threefold Flame in the heart, even as you draw water from a well), you would draw to yourselves, both students and children, that would tax the capacity of your present equipment and facilities, and you would experience opulence of every kind and form.

True love is not a sentiment. It is not spasmodic, but constant and can transform your activity into a mountain of pink flame* as high as Mount Everest.

A NEW STAR

Address by beloved Ascended Master El Morya at the Bridge Activity 1960 Summer Conference

Harrisburg, PA

July 1, 1960

Blessed and beloved friends of light and life eternal, I greet you again on this God-harmonious day. I bring to you the light of heaven, the light which is the light of the entire planetary system—that light from whence you came into individualization upon the Earth and into which you shall, one day when you have completed your service upon the sweet Earth, return home.

You shall enter into our presence, into our hearts and abide within those mansions of eternal beauty, which have been created by the constructive use of your own life, utilized throughout aeons of time, through periods of crises, as well as in periods of temporary calm, to assist the Earth and her attendant evolutions, as well as the guests from other planets who have used the Earth as a planetary home. Some of Earth's inhabitants have just cluttered up the atmosphere of Earth with their own effluvia, creating, unnecessarily, psychic substance which has formed the maya of human creation, and closed the inner consciousness from communion with the divine.

Thus, through a special dispensation granted to me by Helios and Vesta, I have been enabled to re-create a bridge from divinity's realm into the human octave. Over that bridge have come many divine beings to speak to you and to pour their radiation to you, and, from the human octave one day, every member of the human, elemental and angelic race, temporarily enmeshed in imperfection, will walk in dignity to our Father's home! Then all shall wear Ascended Master Serapis Bey's garments of crystalline substance and hear, as the beloved Ascended Master Jesus did, as I did, and as did all others who have made the ascension, the glorious words, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." In fact, no member of the three kingdoms (angelic, human nor elemental) shall ever be allowed to embody upon the sweet Earth again. I received from the Karmic Board a dispensation to this effect.

The glorious Manu of the seventh rootrace, the Great Divine Director, and the first subrace of that glorious root race, are going to be given opportunity IMMEDIATELY to people the Earth. Some have already passed through the Sacred Temple of the Lady Master Mary in May of 1960, and are now preparing for embodiment upon the Earth.

In the name of all that is divine and just, why should the Earth—so long a schoolroom, not only for her own evolutions but for the laggards from other stars—be cluttered up by the same lifestreams who have been given opportunity through aeons of time, to learn the same exact lesson—control of the use of God's energy in thought, feeling, spoken word and action—WHEN THERE HAS BEEN ALREADY CREATED FOR THEM A BEAUTIFUL NEW PLANETARY SCHOOLROOM, WHERE THEY CAN TAKE THEIR OWN SWEET TIME IN LEARNING THIS LESSON!

This new schoolroom (star) is as shining and beautiful as the Earth, herself, was when she was designed by Helios and Vesta and created by the Seven Elohim for approximately three-and-one-half billion lifestreams (note: there are about 10 billion lifestreams, not counting the imprisoned angels and elementals, presently using the Earth as a schoolroom). The Ascended Master Saint Germain SHALL BE ALLOWED the fullness of freedom on this Earth, which can be more quickly brought about by the infusion of the first subrace of the seventh root race at this time. Even Lady Portia, spokeswoman for the Karmic Board, has admitted that this is divine justice to all concerned.

For those who are willing to accelerate the consciousness of their four vehicles, and to keep them accelerated, so that they are not only willing, but able, to HOLD, in this physical appearance world THAT BRIDGE created by our love to you and your love to us, you are welcome to remain upon the Earth and complete your life-span in victory, as the Gods and Goddesses which you are (in embryo)—now to manifest in FORM!

Others flit about, hither and yon, building little bamboo bridges over imaginary streams. I tell you truly, that THE BRIDGE TO FREEDOM, which can hold the weight of the ten billion lifestreams, aforementioned, as well as innumerable imprisoned angels and elementals who shall require its assistance to return home, is builded of sterner material. It is built with the love of our hearts and the tenacity, discrimination, illumined faith, love for God and one's fellowman, purity of motive, consecration to the service of the Great White Brotherhood, sustained God-peace, and the power, already vested in you, to invoke the assistance of any divine being to help you, and all in distress. You are not only WELCOME to remain upon the Earth, but I urge you to do so, until the great Illumined Ones come IN PERSON to give this assistance.

You are holding, by your illumined faith, a bridge of living light, made up of your combined purified and consecrated life.

COURTESY A PART OF HEAVEN'S LAW

Address by Beloved Mighty Elohim Hercules
at the Bridge Activity 1960 Summer Conference

Harrisburg, PA

July 1, 1960

Beloved Amazon Speaks:

I come together with the beloved Hercules this morning in the name and by the power and in the full authority of almighty God, into the atmosphere of the emotional, etheric, mental and physical world and CHARGE and CHARGE the full power of illumined faith, which is ours to give, through this class. We take our establishment in you and sustain that radiation through you, throughout the entire student body and the Earth. BELOVED, BELOVED, BELOVED, know you that we are real!

It is a joy to join beloved El Morya, and my beloved Hercules (sponsor for this class) with you, dear chelas, this morning. The Flame of Illumined Faith which is ours, is anchored within the Threefold Flame within your dear hearts, and forms also a powerful ray of the band of the seven Elohim upon your foreheads.

Both beloved Hercules and myself are serving (sometimes as ONE BEING), oftentimes as two, to charge the cosmic protection of illumined faith into the emotional, mental, etheric and physical consciousness of all mankind. That illumined faith contains all of the seven virtues of the seven directors (Chohans) of the seven rays, who pour to you, constantly, their virtue, radiation and blessing.

We shall, as an integral part of the centripetal power which holds this Earth in her orbit and your vehicles upon her surface, LOVE ALL IMPRISONED LIFE FREE! To my beloved Hercules, I send the gratitude of one who has learned to be a part of his being, and to FEEL WHAT IT IS TO BE OF HERCULEAN ASSISTANCE to him in his service to this Earth and her evolutions.

Beloved Elohim Hercules Speaks:

HAIL! Beloved and precious ones living upon the surface of the Earth today. You seem to enjoy the comfort of reclining as all our divine company has entered. This is peculiar to me in the extreme, but perhaps it is your custom. Now, in the name of God and divinity, ARISE FOR ONE MOMENT in honor of the Director of the First Ray, our friend, El Morya, and for my divine complement, Amazon. Respect and dignity comes with understanding, and acceptance that you are in the presence of Divine Beings, not human beings. Thank you, now please be seated.

Courtesy is a part of heaven's Law, and courtesy should be a part of your beings as well, beloved ones, if you desire our presence and our assistance!

I, myself, would not sit when El Morya entered my presence, any more than I would sit in the presence of Alpha and Omega, unless commanded so to do! You learn and act in like manner NOW! You have been given a vertical spinal column so that you can stand erect on the proper occasions and give in dignity REVERENCE, SILENT OR AUDIBLE as conditions warrant, that reverence to the divine messengers from ON HIGH. Many who have lost, and are now regaining, the use of an erect spine, forfeited this privilege in ages past because they took for granted the visitation of the Divine Ones—a word to the wise is sufficient!

It is only through the mercy of God, mighty Polaris and Magnus, beloved El Morya and those of us who desire to serve the Earth, that these little ones are regaining back an erect spine, and never let yourselves forget it for a moment! You can stand for the Star Spangled Banner, you can stand for a bargain in the store, you can stand in a queue for a particular feature that you enjoy in your world of amusement! Now, I say, SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF HERCULES, as you stand FOR THE LIGHT, you will acquire the capacity to be alert enough and courteous enough to stand silently, for a moment at least, as each Divine Being comes forth.

Now do not let that dissuade you. You see, you are at a disadvantage because I can see your feelings and your thoughts and I will not allow that to dissuade you from coming to that Teton meeting and presenting your petitions in person, on your own two feet, through your own Holy Christ Flame, in dignity. Polish them up a bit, though. You have rough diamonds there, but diamonds they are, and there is no backing down. Everyone shall be present, because Hercules is going to be at the door, and I have a surprise for you! I AM GOING TO BE IN YOUR ROOM, together with my beloved Amazon, from now through the 4th of July, twenty-four hours a day, so you are going to have company.

Remember, if you are not in your room, we have the "All-Seeing Eye." We'll be around! Remember, when you set a table, leave at least ONE PLACE empty! As Morya says, "Don't clutter it up, because we can't stand parcels on our lap," but this is the truth! Can you accept it now? COME ON, "I consciously accept it now." WHERE ARE YOU? (Students all say,) "I CONSCIOUSLY ACCEPT THIS DONE RIGHT NOW WITH FULL POW-ER, ETERNALLY SUSTAINED, ALL-POWERFULLY ACTIVE, EVER-EXPANDING AND WORLD ENCOMPASSING UNTIL ALL ARE WHOLLY ASCENDED AND FREE, BELOVED I AM, BELOVED I AM, BELOVED I AM!

Thank you, dear hearts, that is what I mean by alertness—catch it, you see. Catch that energy while it is going on! Now be seated, beloved hearts of mine. I guess I frightened you, and I don't want to be a frightening person. Honestly, I am really a kindly soul, and I have a lot of energy, as all of us do on the First Ray, but I want that alertness. I want that elasticity, I want that, shall I say, lubrication—emotionally, mentally, etherically and physically, that removes the static from your four lower vehicles and enables you to ACT!

In the old days you waited for the other fellow to stand up. If he didn't stand up, you thought, "Oh, I'll look silly." Well that's a nice point—I'd like to give honor—but you look down the row and everybody is glued to the chair, so you say, "Well, I'll stand up in consciousness." By God, at the Teton meeting, you'll stand up in person! I mean it. What did they say in the old hymn, "Stand up for Jesus." How many are? Think about it and act on it, dear loves.

So you have had your guest. I have paid my own way—so has Amazon! All we ask is that we have a chair that is not cluttered, and a BLUE LIGHT somewhere—not too much to ask, and we're tax exempt! Isn't it wonderful, even the state law can't put us on your board bill! When you go into the restaurant, beloved ones, use common sense, God sense, because invariably the waiters are going to remove the chair—I know! I have sat on more chairs that weren't there than anyone except El Morya! So use good common sense and just say, "We are expecting a guest." Just have the chair there with a glass. That is all that is required, and then if the waiter insists upon removing it, be persistent, "We are expecting a guest."—YOU ARE! I'M THERE, and if it gets too difficult, I'll take care of it. But DON'T SAY, "The Elohim Hercules and Amazon are sitting at my table." PLEASE, please, for your own sake, not for mine!

El Morya expects great things of you! The Karmic Board expects great manifestations through you at this conference! The Earth, herself, straightening upon her axis, expects your assistance to lighten the burden of human effluvia, transmuting it by Violet Flame. You might just as well learn this lesson right here and now so that you do not have to be carried upon a litter before the Karmic Board. Let not my words dissuade you from action! You shall be present at the Teton meeting (July 3rd, 1960), and you shall present your petitions, in person, standing in dignity upon your own two feet. I, myself, shall HOLD THE DOORS TO THE KAR-MIC HALLS OPEN. I do not desire to frighten you, but POSITIVE, CONTROLLED ENERGY IS REQUIRED TO CLEAR AWAY THE GROOVES IN YOUR FOUR LOWER VEHICLES. THAT ENERGY IS MY LOVE FOR DIVINITY ANCHORED WITHIN YOUR BEATING HEARTS. Be happy, beloved, and expect Amazon and myself as your guests during this class, and then you return, each one, in safety, to your orbits!

As in all things, there are so many things we could do and so many secrets we could share, if we were sure that you were discriminate enough. You have the beloved Maha Chohan tomorrow to tell you how you make out. He'll tell you, but perhaps not with such vigor as El Morya and beloved Amazon or myself. He speaks right from the heart and he will tell you—be happy, with Amazon and Hercules by your side.

A SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT IN PROJECTION OF CONSCIOUSNESS
Address by the Beloved Maha Chohan at the Bridge Activity 1960 Summer Conference

Harrisburg, PA

Beloved friends, you have been and are a comforting presence to me (audience rises). Please be seated. The activity of Cosmic Christ Comfort, which I am, and which is my privilege to release to all the peoples of Earth and to all living things in, through and around it, has given me a great scope of understanding of the requirement for comfort, from the tiniest elemental (such as the one the beloved El Morya spoke of yesterday), as well as to each of the sons and daughters of God, whether they are in embodiment, in the sleepers' realm, or awaiting safe convoy to the new star, prepared in love divine by the Elohim, for the recalcitrant members of the human race, who desire to accelerate their vehicles more slowly.

Thus the beloved Great Divine Director, the Manu of the seventh root race, shall bring forth more quickly the first subrace of his great seventh root race upon the planet Earth. My Comfort Flame flows forth to this newly-created star and into all who choose a more leisurely process of evolution.

That comfort, drawn forth from God Almighty by myself and my predecessors, is yours now, to utilize in making your own worlds more comfortable and in setting all imprisoned life free! I builded into my Causal Body that Cosmic Christ Comfort by learning to feel and understand life—imprisoned as well as God-free. To have become such an understanding individual is requisite for the position which I presently occupy as the Overlord of the seven Chohans, one of whom is the beloved Lady Master Nada. I must understand fully the motive behind the activities of each of the directors (Chohans) before I can give my assent to their individual projects and to authorize them to accept chelas, unascended lifestreams, who can and will assist AT THIS TIME IN CREATING FOR MY BELOVED SON, THE ASCENDED MASTER SAINT GERMAIN, FREEDOM'S HOLY STAR.

I must fully understand the motive behind the illumined faith and enthusiasm and fire of beloved Master El Morya. I must know full well the capacity of transmitting God's wisdom through beloved Lanto and Confucius. I must understand and know fully the capacity and desire of loving life free through beloved Paul, the Venetian. I must understand and know fully the capacity of that mighty son of fire, Serapis, to purify the lower vehicles of mankind and to stand by those upon whose breast he has written the words, "Candidate for the ascension," so that I can give my permission for him who consecrates a portion of his life for that aim. I must understand and know the full capacity and power of feeling of the great Hilarion in his attempt, so successful, to remove all agnostics and their feelings, from the Earth. I must understand the people who have been removed from the compound, as well as Hilarion's tremendous service directed through the medical profession.

I must know and understand the gracious Lady Nada, who has loved enough through the aeons of time to have earned the place of Chohan of the Sixth Ray. Administering to life as she does and has done through the ages, selflessly loving life free. Under Charity, the great beloved Cosmic Being, Nada learned that lesson of selfless love. You have read about it, and how that love, blossoming forth through her being and world, did give impetus to the hidden talents within her sisters and they became, on the world's screen, musicians and artists of note.

I must love and know, as I do, with every fiber of my being, the vision of your great Chohan, the Ascended Master Saint Germain—the vision of the Golden Age upon this Earth, as she becomes freedom's holy star, and towards which we have given you the right to embody, toward which we have sustained the very breath in your vehicle.

We have already experimented with the distribution of small grams of prana through some elementals, four-footed creatures, and those of the human kingdom. When there is prana enough anchored in, through and around you, you will again experience the power of conscious levitation and precipitation, and you will be able to say, as my beloved brother Jesus said long ago, “I have food to eat that ye know not of.”

First, secure through the controlled use of the rhythmic breath (as presented to you in the Transmission Flame Classes), absolute control of your four lower vehicles. Then you are ready to receive more and more pure prana as sustaining power in your service to God and to ourselves.

We are releasing to you, every twenty-four hours, 2 grams of prana (10 grams = 0.3527 oz.). Let us see what you will do with that.

But, were you filled with prana before you have that full mastered control, dear hearts, you would sail right over the capital of Harrisburg and land, perhaps, in another state! That would not be kindness upon our part, so we give to you each one, having tested your four lower vehicles for stability, a little prana with your breath each day. Well, prana to breath is like fire is to water.

That terrific descent of the powerful currents of prana through your physical, etheric, mental and emotional vehicles, is an accelerating power. I know! For on that first Whitsuntide, I brought in the tongues of flame THE GIFT OF PRANA, to those who had lost, for a time, their teacher Jesus, and who had felt desolate without his presence and required by the Paraclete in my humble self, to come to give to them the courage to perform his works or the Father's works in his name. No wonder it says IN THE FEW BIBLICAL REFERENCES THAT HAVE NOT BEEN INCORRECTLY TRANSLATED THROUGH THE HANDS OF THOSE SCHOLARS THAT EMBELLISHED UPON THE ORIGINAL TEXT—no wonder it says that the disciples blessed in the upper room reeled down the streets and those looking upon them thought that they were drunken. They were filled with that prana. Jesus had prepared for them a room until they could pull themselves together, and he explained to them how to regulate the use of prana with his own name, the ascended Jesus Christ.

Do you know that all during their ministry, until the very last one of them was ascended or left the body, once every twenty-four hours either Jesus, Mary, the holy mother, or John the Beloved, had to gather in that chamber of consciousness with these disciples and later the apostles to hold together that remembrance of the power of prana and to project it.

Now, Saul became Paul and went into Greece, and there he did great works in the name of the Ascended Jesus Christ, but he had the power of prana alive within him, and the projected radiation of those that remained at Bethany. That is why I have been so interested in the establishment and sustaining of the Transmission Flame Classes, just using the breath. Why? Because as you learn to concentrate on the transmission of certain statements carrying a certain quality, color and tone on your breath from city to city, and state to state, and across the great oceanic body to the other physically embodied chelas, you make a permanent track of living light, which does encircle the world around. It grows wider and wider and wider until at the end of each Transmission Flame Class, with the assistance of myself and the God-free beings who take up the weaker energies on the seaboard and direct them forward, it encompasses the planet in the gift and radiation of the power of precipitation, illumination and permanent peace.

As you have learned in thought, feeling word and action, how to consciously transmit your breath (in the Transmission Flame Classes) around the world, now you shall be prepared for your first lesson, which I give to you here—of transmission of a PERFECT THOUGHT IMAGE.

Please visualize me (the Maha Chohan). Upon your first endeavor, I see fourteen doves of assorted size and wingspread, seven shafts of light of different colors, varying from golden light to deep ruby in shade, three representations of myself as presented in the David Anrias pictures, and ONE PERFECT THOUGHTFORM of myself. Let us endeavor to repeat this lesson. I shall give you a hint. I am not wearing a turban today. Please place all your mental turbans out of your consciousness for this lesson. You are doing splendidly.

Now, you project that THOUGHT IMAGE OF MYSELF (combined of all your dear energies), through the use of telepathy, across the Atlantis Ocean to our focus held so faithfully in Scotland, into the consciousness of my chela, Miss Agnes McLaughlin in Scotland. I shall tell you when it arrives. No, let us begin again. Face East and project that THOUGHT IMAGE OF MYSELF again across the Atlantic Ocean to Miss McLaughlin and let it expand until it enfolds the British Empire, all of Europe, Africa, Asia Minor, Asia, Australia and the Pacific Islands, through Suva, into the western coastal areas of South, Central and North America, eastward through the Americas and Canada, blessing our beloved chelas in Cuba and through every “Bridge” focus throughout the world. You have really done a magnificent piece of thought transference for which I congratulate you. Please repeat it daily, AS ENERGY BECOMES POWER THROUGH USE. You feel these mighty currents passing through your own blessed vehicles, as the presence of the Holy Spirit expands on this sweet Earth,

That is really magnificent, beloved ones, magnificently accomplished! You are deserving and I think I shall give you two grams of prana within the next twenty-four-hour period, but as we are all given a test, I am not going to tell you when I am going to give it, but it will be any time between now and within the twenty-four hours, so be careful when you start a-jumping and ask your Holy Christ Flame every time you seize it, that you utilize it for the purification of yourselves and all those around you—in, through and around you, and ask for perfect harmony, ask your Holy Christ Flame for balance at that particular time, because each of you will receive it at a different time.

The tiny elemental (carried to the Hall of Karma by the seraphim) to which beloved Morya referred on July 1st, did achieve audience with the Karmic Board. If such a tiny elemental can render this service for all the species of the nature kingdom, I ask you—what can you do for my beloved son, El Morya. Make him the happiest man in heaven, by presenting your petitions in dignity, on July 3, 1960.

His love and enthusiasm for you is so great, as you know, that it is only by Cosmic Law that I can give anyone else an opportunity to speak with you during these classes. He endeavors, constantly, to reach you with that loving light which is his, because he says, “Just give me one moment and I will tell them again about their requirements of holding that bridge to freedom by the tenacity of their spirit, their honor,” and I say patiently: “Beloved son, we, too, can emphasize that that ‘Bridge’ is built of light from the hearts of Helios and Vesta, and all the Suns and Sun Goddesses of the system. It is built of the light in the hearts of the earnest and worthy chelas in the unascended realm as well.” Sometimes he says, “I tell them, but they get off on another story.” But you must have more than one chapter to a book, and that is why we give you the chapters of our own experiences. They vary, but they are all divine feelings, with the exception of our beloved Mary, the mother of Jesus, who has chosen to share with you some of her experiences in Jesus’ life, wherein she had to use the power of the immaculate concept, especially during the crucifixion, the time on Golgotha Hill. She did that on purpose, to show you that she, too, once was a woman, that she once walked the ways of Earth, that she, too, once loved a boy, a boy who became magnificent and in the prime of his youth chose to give his body as a mass sacrifice that mankind could know that there is no death—that there is only life eternal, and that all mankind would say as he did, “I AM, I AM, I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE,” and so shall it be for you, for your hearts have spoken. Thank you, beloved (audience rises).

When you so respond, as beloved Hercules pointed out yesterday, the flame within your heart expands and it says, “Yes, oh yes, for this day have I waited that I, too, may be a radiating center for all the powers which I once knew and had with the Father before the world was.” And so it is with you, each and every one. As you advance and gain progress in the magnetizing and externalizing of these spiritual gifts of the most high living God through you, for your benefaction and that of all life, you will know, yourself, greater and greater comfort and greater and greater freedom from distress of every kind and every description.

I have served so long with the nature kingdom that I really do enjoy the wonderful obedience within that kingdom to God’s holy will. Do you realize how much energy and love is employed by the elementals in creating, through the impure substance of the earth, flowers, shrubs, food and foliage, to stimulate and keep alive the hope in the hearts of mankind? Create, as they do, using the Resurrection Flame which Jesus used and which I used before him.

No longer remain embryonic Gods and Goddesses, but become manifest Gods and Goddesses, sons and daughters of freedom, sons and daughters of Hercules, sons and daughters of El Morya, and, if you should so desire, sons and daughters of the Holy Spirit, who ALWAYS BRING LASTING COMFORT TO ALL LIFE. I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU, I LOVE YOU {response by congregation: “We love you!” (3) }

A VISIT TO SHAMBALLA

An Address by the Ascended Master Saint Germain

Once each year, at the close of the twelve-month cycle, we are given a month of release and relief from the service in the world of form. Those of us who represent the great Spiritual Hierarchy, those of us—angels, Masters, devas and powers of light—who have worked with mankind and the elemental kingdom upon this planet Earth, are given invitation to return to Shamballa, and there for thirty days, we bask in the radiation of the Lord of the World, who has been the mighty king of kings, the beloved Ancient of Days, beloved Sanat Kumara, whom we love and adore even as you, yourselves.

Twofold is the reason for our return to Shamballa. We bring with us the report of all that we have done in the world of form, of all that our chelas have done, and all that our retreats and the activities of our ray have accomplished. We also receive there renewed strength, renewed energy, renewed vitality of a spiritual nature, from the beloved Lord of the World, himself, which we take with us and which forms a great momentum of energy for the next twelve-month cycle.

As the great City of the Bridge opens its doors to the Masters and angels of light, it is a magnificent sight, indeed. You have had it described to you many times, before, and yet if you will come with me now, we will enter into the heart of Shamballa, so that you may enjoy the vibration that is there. You remember, it was builded through the self-conscious effort of a few individuals from the heart of Venus, who lived upon that bright star and loved Sanat Kumara and beloved Venus so much, that they did not wish him to descend into the darkness of Earth's shadows without a fit dwelling place where he might abide in the grace and purity that he knew at home. These blessed people, unascended lifestreams, mind, belonging to the evolution of Venus, offered to Sanat Kumara and the Cosmic Law, their lives that they might come and through the ordinary means of birth, through human bodies, attain their maturity and create out of the substance, the energy and activities of the physical world, a duplicate and replica of the spiritual city in which Sanat Kumara dwelt and from which he ruled his star, Venus.

Beloved ones, think for a moment about that—think of these individuals who are not too unlike yourselves. They were individuals who had only consciousness, and into that consciousness they had to imprint the memory of the City of Shamballa on Venus. They had to submit to the bonds of forgetfulness and pass through the bodies of earth people unto a star that was so filled with psychic and astral creations, that the Sun of the system had decided to dissolve it. They had to grow in the homes and families of individuals whose light certainly was not great—if it had been, Sanat Kumara need not have come! These individuals were not precipitated miraculously on the shores of the Gobi Sea.

They were born, as many of you, in different countries parted by large bodies of water from the Gobi Sea and the sight of Shamballa. As they grew up, there again stirred within their minds the memories of a shining city, and some, like yourselves, found very little sympathy within the confines of their immediate family. They set out following their hearts' promptings across seas and land until finally a band gathered together around the mainland close to the Gobi Sea. There the strongest among them brought forth a vision of this great city and it was confirmed in the hearts of the others, even as my vision was confirmed in your hearts when you heard of the Freedom Flame and the New Day. Something within your heart stirred.

You came from across the seas, many of you, and you came from all different portions of this great country, and when you came together, you had only one thing in common—an inner memory of a vision, of a friend who had sent you here with the hope to establish a freedom star.

And so, these men and women around the Gobi Sea gathered and they thought they would build this magnificent city—White Island—and they began! They endeavored to draw, out of their own consciousness, the memory of it, the beautiful street laid out in the form of the oval. They planted their trees, they began to build the great bridge connecting the mainland with the White Island, and what happened to them? More than once, in a long period of nine-hundred years, they were completely wiped out, to a man, by hordes of savages, by those men and women on the Earth who had no light. They came again, in new bodies, and brushed the very rubble aside, replanted their trees and began to lay their streets anew, to put the blocks back together on the foundation for the magnificent temples.

Toward the end, they knew the time had come, for the great Lemurian pole-star signified the cosmic moment, and, ready or not, temple or not, Sanat Kumara was due to stand in the atmosphere and then descend upon this planet, Earth. Happy they were, then, that they had endured, that they were constant for nine-hundred years! Does eighteen seem so long! Nine hundred years is a long time to be faithful to a vision. Oh, lovely ones, as you look back over the pages of history, all of the mysteries are clouded with visions of angels and great mystic manifestations—but THEY NEVER HAPPENED THUS—they happened always in a natural, normal manner, as they happen now today!

When I walked into Bethlehem with the beloved Mary, knowing full well her time was come, no mighty angel with sword of flame opened the door of the inn. I walked, unknown, seeking shelter for another unknown lifestream. Two thousand years later, it is clothed in mystery and glory! But I assure you, in those days, we were just individuals like yourselves, with doubt, with fears, with uncertainty! And so it was with the building of Shamballa! One day then, that faithful few were rewarded. One day the flashing star of Sanat Kumara was visible to the inner sight of the priests of that group. One day, descending within the glory of the City of the Bridge, within the glorious golden-domed temple, there stood Sanat Kumara, the Ancient of Days—with him, the Great Kumaras and all those powers of light, that have sustained the planet until this present day!

So today, as we walk over that bridge, you can look down at the etheric sea beneath it, and as your feet walk upon that bridge, think of all the sandaled feet and all the bare feet, of all the holy intellects that have walked into and out of Shamballa time and again—going in to be re-polarized, coming forth with new hope to light the world. As you stand at the very top of the bridge, you can see the magnificent temple of Sanat Kumara on the elevation—as the island slopes upward. It is like unto the lovely Taj Mahal, and before it are the living fountains. As we walk over that bridge and take off our shoes, we walk along the right side of the waters, and we can see, on either side of those pools, the magnificent temples, in the various colors, representing the mighty devas and activities of the Seven Rays.

Stand for a moment at the foot of the great temple of Sanat Kumara and look at the Cyclopean architecture, the magnificent sight and beautiful, yet delicate, perfection of the temple. You can see that the steps, divided into twelve, are then interspersed with a long, grassy sward, and again you have the living flame fountain of various colors of water. As you walk up these steps, you come to the doors of the great temple of the Lord of the World!

During this thirty-day period, after you have placed your harvest within that temple, within the flame within the temple, the Lord of the World addresses, constantly, groups of initiates and chelas. In the atmosphere above Shamballa are the individual members of the human race who are advanced enough in consciousness to gather while their bodies sleep, and they absorb mostly the radiation of his flame, which is Cosmic Patience. The Lord of the World speaks to the assembly, which is made up of a great many of the discarnates, all those who are the relatives of the student body in the Ascension Temples, all those who are sleeping in their outer forms, as well as to many of the initiates who are gathered within the retreat. As you look up toward the altar, you can see the beloved Immortal Threefold Flame of life burning within the golden brazier and the presence of Sanat Kumara standing right within the flame.

During this thirty-day period, during the actual Transmission Flame Ceremony, we wore garments representing the rank and activity of our service. For the balance of the period it is a time of festivity, of informal counsels, of the unbound hair, as the beloved Maha Chohan refers to it, and of the laughter of the Gods! It is a time when we meet as brothers and sisters, those we have not seen throughout the year, and exchange pleasantries as well as our plans for the Teton Conference and our petitions and hopes for the New Year.

Beloved Sanat Kumara, standing in beautiful white garments, his lovely golden hair falling to his shoulders, his great violet eyes looking forth in love, is talking to the assembly. Perhaps, for a moment, we may tune into his radiation and accept his blessing:

Beloved Sanat Kumara Speaks:

In the name of the Most High Living God within whose presence all stand, I greet you today, beloved Elohim of Creation—you who have designed from your own free will and developed precipitating faculties and this planet Earth, which we desire, through love, to sustain in the solar system.

In the name of the God that made us all, I greet you, beloved Archangels, you who have been the protecting power and the radiation of the feeling nature of God in, through and around the souls of men who live upon the freedom star.

In the name of the Most High Living God whom we serve and by whom we live, we greet you, beloved Chohans of the Rays, you who have foresworn Nirvana and who form the bridge between the human octave and the outer consciousness and thinking selves of mankind and our realm—to you we give a special blessing because yours, methinks, is the most difficult of all tasks, as the spearhead endeavoring to reach into the reluctant faithless consciousness of mankind and bring them to light.

We have gathered you together in the presence of our Lord Gautama, our Lord Maitreya, our Lord Maha Chohan, in order to have, informally, a discussion as to the activities on each of your seven rays. We shall listen with interest to that which has been accomplished. We shall summon first the Elohim, whose cosmic service at cosmic levels deals, not only with the sustenance of this planet, but with the sustenance of many galaxies, and then we shall summon the Archangels, in graded order, Prince Michael at their lead. We shall then summon the Chohans and they, in turn, we ask to summon, within their etheric bodies, every unascended chela who has served them. We would like to see what each one has done, according to his own light, in order that we may determine what best we may do for this Earth in the coming twelve months.

To you all here assembled, as this is an informal gathering, I want to give my personal gratitude in your service to me. It is a long time since I decided to come to Earth. I have become almost, as the people would say, “institutionalized.” I am so used to the atmosphere of the Earth and its peoples, that I am having to take the very exercise that our son, Saint Germain, mentioned this morning, in repolarizing myself to the realization of living upon a different star. It is not the same vibratory action, beloved Elohim, beloved Archangels and Chohans—the Earth and our star, Venus—and yet, as Lord Gautama and I this morning discussed it, it has been a wonderful opportunity to expand our individual and collective light. If we had to do it over again, we would each have done so, even the experience, the length of our exile, the disappointments, the disillusionments which the outer consciousness brings.

We are grateful to you, beloved ones, who have represented the Seven Rays on Earth. We are grateful to the Elohim, of course God-free; the Archangels, God-free; the Archaii, some who have not always been God-free, and the Chohans who have not always been God-free. We are grateful to you in bringing to us the interest in the service of mankind, and we would like to point you, with the same interest, to the small body of individuals in the United States of America, and throughout the world, who have offered themselves to be conductors of the feelings that we wish to give mankind in this season.

I would commend to you, beloved friends, each of these people. Will you please, in your own way, give them the faith, the understanding, the love, the purity, the capacity to wield the law, the love of their fellow-man, and the efficacy of the acceptance of the Violet Fire, that will make them and keep them happy people. Thank you so much.

Beloved Saint Germain Speaks:

We now turn our attention to the report of mighty beloved Hercules. Beloved Hercules ascends the pulpit, the magnificence of his mighty glory, the beautiful golden head, the mighty power of it, is a tremendous sight to witness. It will take probably the full part of the day for them to follow through and from time to time the Masters, the Lord of the World and others, will intercept with questions. So you can be a part of that, and YOU will have your time. Beloved Morya or myself will call and you can walk up there without the least bit of trepidation, because as Lord Maitreya says, you have done your best! Let not the Christmas Season be filled with any sense of self-depreciation. You have done your best, but you CAN do better! In the name of God, this holy season, I am your servant and your friend.

THANKSGIVING
by the Beloved Maha Chohan

As we come to the close of the twelve-month cycle, all of those who represent the Spiritual Hierarchy are gathered at Shamballa, and here we celebrate a cosmic Thanksgiving, in which every one of the brothers is a participant. The great audience chamber is open for this festivity, and the evening before your national holiday, and for four days and nights thereafter, there is a constant outpouring of blessing upon every electron, elemental, animal, human, angel, deva, Ascended Master and Cosmic Being who has consciously or unconsciously contributed to the forward progress of the race.

This Flame of Thanksgiving has gone forth rhythmically since the day when the thirty beings knelt before the coming of their Lord, Sanat Kumara, and it has builded in power.

One of the most exquisite ways of preparing for the Christmas Season individually, is for each lifestream to consciously and earnestly prepare his own ceremony of Thanksgiving and, officiating upon the altar of his own Christ Temple, invite into the presence of his own God Flame, all of the life that has served him during the twelve months that have passed and, through a special blessing and benediction, confer upon that life the added substance of his own Christ nature.

This ceremony will show each man how rich he is in the blessings that have filled his world through the channels in every kingdom—natural, human and divine. In such an activity, no bitterness or discontent can live. Also, every Master to whom the individual extends an invitation to his ceremony, will respond and enter into the sanctuary of the heart where such a Thanksgiving is being celebrated—and this visitation, alone, will bring a return of spiritual blessings far beyond the comprehension of the outer man, for the individual effort involved in preparing such a Thanksgiving service to life.

PREPARING YOURSELVES TO DELIVER YOUR YEARLY HARVEST

of November 19, 1960

Beloved Ones Who are Assisting Lord Gautama in Bringing Light To the World,

I am so grateful for your marvelous cooperation in expanding the light through the emotional, mental, etheric and physical bodies of all mankind and all evolutions using the Earth for a planetary home.

When we come to Shamballa to greet each other—Cosmic Beings, Ascended Beings, God-free angels, and you, our dear chelas—it is truly a season of holy festivity and friendly discussion.

Lord Gautama has arranged for an Ascended Master sponsor who has been for at least 1,000 years trained by Sanat Kumara, to assist you during this thirty-day period, preceding the entrance into the Holy Christmastime. In November, before the altar at Shamballa, you shall bring in your sheaves of accomplishment and how delighted we all are that those sheaves have borne fruit of works well done.

THE DISCIPLINES AT LUXOR

An Address by the Ascended Master Serapis Bey, Director of the Fourth Ray, at the Bridge 1960 Summer Conference

July 3rd, 1960

Beloved ones who are qualified as candidates for the ascension in this embodiment, I greet you on behalf of the Brotherhood at Luxor, in gratitude for the magnificent accomplishments of your own dear lifestreams which enable me, with full confidence, to write upon the breast of your etheric garments, "Candidate for the ascension."

At Luxor, all my chelas receive their instructions standing upon their own two feet, with spines erect, but you have such a kindly intercessor, my immediate superior, the beloved Maha Chohan, so, in his name, I ask that you please be seated and remain grateful, always, that your present and future training will take place in the comparative comfort of air-conditioned rooms, with nice, soft seats, lovely hosts and hostesses, rather than under the hot sun of Egypt in the noonday heat at Luxor, where the chela is not allowed to wear sandals to protect his feet either from the sand of the desert nor from the mosaic floor of the schoolrooms or the cubicles to which you are assigned, wherein you are allowed to assimilate your lessons of the day.

The disciplines at Luxor are strict, because we know that many lifestreams are capable of expressing much more of their own potential divinity than they choose to utilize, and some rather enjoy tarrying along the wayside, insofar as spiritual exercises are concerned. There are other Ascended Master foci where such individuals can, and do, receive illumination, either sitting down or lying down (according to their taste), but AT LUXOR, in order to pass successfully through the seven Temples of Initiation and come forth VICTORIOUSLY, REPRESENTATIVES OF LUXOR'S HOLY LIGHT, with a portion of the ASCENSION FLAME ALIVE WITHIN YOU, it is essential that you have these disciplines. It has not made me the most popular of the Chohans.

This severity of discipline has occasionally frightened chelas who came to Luxor to enjoy our library, our sculptures, our activities. These timid ones, after spending an hour in the cell assigned to them, fly from Luxor and one can't see them for the dust of the desert sands as they make haste back to the temporary "pursuit of happiness."

I love you! The seraphic nature is one of LOVE. Divine love is a POSITIVE QUALITY, which embodies the capacity to make each lifestream ex-ternalize the highest possible expression of God-life that is within him or her.

I seek LIGHT BEARERS TODAY to consciously carry the Ascension Flame all over the continental surface of this planet Earth, as well as all over the oceanic surfaces, even as we (ages ago) carried the physical spark of the Ascension Flame from Poseidonis, (last remnant of beautiful Atlantis), rowing rhythmically, praying constantly, breathing upon it, sustaining a tiny ember of that flame as we rowed constantly onward from Alexandria to Karnak and Luxor. As you know, we just reached our destination seconds before the tremors of the earth and the spreading of the Nile told us that lovely Atlantis and many of our loved ones, had sunk beneath the waves, to rest awhile in the purifying essence of the present Atlantic Ocean.

There was not even time for a tear, as we breathed into that ember of the Ascension Flame, until it blazed brighter and brighter, forming for you and all imprisoned life, the service of holding a door open when each one's time has come, so that you and all imprisoned life can gather your purified energies about you and utilize that Ascension Flame and the assistance of the Brotherhood at Luxor into that beautiful God-free glory of the ascension in the light.

When we say "home, to go out no more," that expression gives some of you a feeling of claustrophobia. Many sincere chelas think and feel, "Oh, my God, I have to stay up there in the kingdom of heaven forever." We mean you shall never have to come back into the confines of an earthly vehicle. You will be about OUR FATHER'S BUSINESS, even as we are. You shall have opportunity to soar through interstellar space, to visit other planets of this system, to visit loved ones in the Ascension Temples. You will take on new Ascended Master and cosmic assignments. Many of you, as we have done, will foreswear Nirvana, and, in time, according to our qualifications, become Chohans of the Seven Rays.

From experience I can tell you, it takes considerable patience to be a Chohan or director of even one ray—particularly the ascension ray. Many people fear they will ascend instantly into the light if they place their attention upon it. Would that this were so!

You will not be called before your time. Then the gentle hand of a seraphim will be placed upon your shoulder, and my voice (or that of your particular Ascended Master Guru) will speak to your hearts, saying, "My child, you are ready now to come home!" Under the previous conditions, individuals were allowed to re-embody again and again in their egotistical desire to further the pattern and plan of God's perfection on Earth. Now, as beloved brother El Morya has told you, this DISPENSATION IS CLOSED. The Lord Manu of the seventh root race and his first subrace are ready to come into embodiment, and at the close of your ordinary life span, you shall not again embody upon this Earth.

If you should enter into our realms, as you do in consciousness, before you have full conscious control of your four lower vehicles, and you should endeavor, through your personal desire, to change the kingdom of heaven itself, you would find you couldn't do it.

Develop those ideas, visions, patterns and plans upon the earth plane which make comfortable and pleasant the lives of your fellowman and all evolutions in the earth, upon her surface and in her atmosphere. Surrender of your own ideas (splendid as they may be to you) to the Almighty God who created you, is essential to your being a conscious channel for his expression of the kingdom of heaven on Earth. Surrender (by the outer self) is a part of the disciplines at Luxor.

Think, beloved ones, of the power of Hercules and Amazon encompassing the entire planet Earth with their illumined faith and their illumined power of Cosmic Christ Protection, giving THAT BLESSING TO ALL LIFE EVERYWHERE, which will be sustained even when you take your sweet and happy departure for your homes. A replica of that will go with you, of course, at the close of this class (audience rises). Thank you, beloved, and be seated.

Why did the small elemental in the palm of the hand of the seraphim have difficulty walking up the steps to the Halls of Karma and have difficulty opening the door, you have asked? Splendid question deserving of a clear reply—because he became afraid. He was afraid of the power of light and fear is a lowering of the vibratory action of your vehicles just as buoyancy and happiness and laughter, balanced, is an accelerator of your four lower vehicles.

There is nobody who can consciously levitate who is physically afraid, who has mental accretions or doubts, who has etheric memories of trying to levitate to show their powers to someone else way back before the Continent of Mu, when they didn't make it and said, "Oh, look at me," and nothing happened, see. Well, if that is there and the cause and core hasn't been removed, what's going to happen when you are faced with the same test if it be two billion years later, if the cause and core of past failure is not removed from all your four lower bodies and vehicles, you can never express that mastery in this physical body or your etheric, or mental bodies now.

The same with the emotional body, containing by far the greater part of your blessed God-energies acting through you. If you have had an emotional shock from the first time when you consciously defended and became a guardian spirit, as you all are, of the peoples of Earth, and that emotional scar has not been removed from your own emotional world over some particular failure upon your own part or upon the part of an unascended teacher, when you endeavor again with new life, new light, greater understanding, to do that thing you have—I have explained this before—that scar bursts open, it really runs just like an incision that has been sewn, and you are deflated.

NOW, don't you think it is time that these causes and cores, known and unknown, in your lifestreams back to the beginning of recorded time, be removed—those of a discordant nature, of course—and replaced by the Cosmic Threefold Flame and the Power of the Three Times Three? THEN, if you have to levitate in a hurry, for instance if you are in New York City and you have that city under control and there is somebody in Europe who hasn't got that control, you can, after settling your city, place your second in command in charge there to hold that focus, and you will have to levitate quickly, whether it is to Europe, to Asia, to Africa, to Latin America, to Australia, or to the Arctic and the Antarctic, and you have to do that pretty quickly, beloved ones, to carry that balance. What better time is there to practice on that than now! Think about it! Tomorrow may never come, but today is for you.

And always have a “second” in command in the name of God, a second in command who is alert and ready, so you can hand them with one hand the power that you wielded and then through projected consciousness or through levitation go to the point where you are directed by your Ascended Master Guru when the assistance is required. If you haven't got a second in command, get yourself as quickly as possible such an individual, and if there is no such individual available, get yourself some kind of votive light large enough to burn for twelve or twenty-four hours and have your group, as we did on our trip from Poseidonis to Luxor, breathe upon it whatever the activity of your forcefield may be, sustain it till you return, otherwise when you come back, you may find embers.

You know the power that makes a leader a lasting benefaction to the human race, is not felt by those who cluster around in happy assurance of that leader's proximity, until such a one's personage is removed. That is why it is good once in awhile, as you have done here, for you to come into our presence and allow those in lesser command to endeavor to hold the foci in your cities, states and nations. Then you can examine the momentum of the power of those you have trained. Even Jesus, himself, did not escape this—as you all know, in the story of the Bible, he knew his disciples had not learned the Law and so he in himself asked for the Holy Spirit to come and bless them before he made his departure.

Beloved ones, your dreams and your visions are beautiful. NOW LET'S SEE THEM BECOME ACTIVE IN THIS PHYSICAL APPEARANCE WORLD—SO I DECREE IT, AND SO BE IT, BY LUXOR'S HOLY LIGHT! I SO DECREE IT (audience joins in) AND SO BE IT, BY LUXOR'S HOLY LIGHT. I SO DECREE IT AND SO BE IT, BY LUXOR'S HOLY LIGHT! Thank you for that beautiful response.

I now CHARGE! (3) the essence within the communion cup with the power of the Ascension Flame. Then as you partake of that communion, you will receive some of the lasting buoyancy and joyousness which is the nature of the seraphic host and which is my nature, too. I love to be happy and to laugh and I love for you to be happy, too.

In the name, by the power, through the full authority of God, the Father almighty, God, the Holy Spirit, and God, the Holy Christ Flame, I do CHARGE, CHARGE AND CHARGE into this communal cup and into your FEELINGS all the powers of Luxor's holy light, of the Ascension Flame and Ray, the love of the seraphim and myself.

Ever, your Serapis.

THE SECOND RAY

On God's great golden Second Ray
Stands love and light, the Middle Way,
Where teachers of mankind abide
And help each soul their God to find.
Great Buddha walked this path so bright,
And gave to us of his great light,
This great love-flame perfection brings,
And helps each heart its praise to sing.
Beloved Maitreya, Lord of Love,
The great World Teacher from above,
Thou Cosmic Christ through us expand
Thy gift of love to every man.
Kuthumi dear, your love and peace,
Your gentle ways give great release,
To help all life to understand
God's great design—the cosmic plan.
Blest Lanto dear with love divine,
Now gives his reverence to mankind,
To show each one the truth, the way,
And help those on the Second Ray.
Illumination's Golden Flame,
In Archangel Jophiel's holy name
Is balance, peace and constant, too,
And brings great joy to each of you.
Blessed Cassiopeia's mighty power
Brings love and wisdom every hour,
And brings perfection to each one,
Until our Earth is like our Sun.
Our Cosmic Parents from the Sun,
Within their hearts hold for each one,
The perfect pattern to fulfill
As each one does God's holy will.
And so we send our love today,
To all on God's great Golden Ray,
To all these Great Ones do we call,
We love and bless and thank you all!

WELCOME TO THE TETON RETREAT

Ladies and gentlemen desiring to know and feel a reverence for life, great Cosmic Beings, Ascended Masters and all divine expressions of Deity, we are your most humble servants.

We do ask that you make use of everything within this retreat and ask one of our brothers or sisters to assist you while you are within the confines of the retreat. Our library, paintings and teachers are at your disposal, and to those who are listening to me over the ethers elsewhere, I make a like invitation to come to our retreat and learn here how precious is life—life in a small flower, as well as the life in a great tree, the life in the least of men, as well as the life in the greatest.

Love and reverence for life brings a great receptivity to the consciousness and makes one a good pupil in learning to precipitate happiness wherever you go. Because, as the gracious Nada has said, when you love life enough to put self aside and nourish every attempt toward doing good, you are opening the door of your own feeling world, mind, etheric body and the very substance of the physical world to the inflow of more life, because all life desires love and sublimation through understanding and grace.

Lord Lanto

GIVE THANKS TO IMMACULATA!
Addresses by Beloved Lady Vesta and Lord Helios

The Ashram

September 26, 1960

Beloved Vesta Speaks:

I am Vesta, Goddess of the Sun, come again to give to you, my children, an investment of my light, an investment of the presence of myself in the consciousness of your emotional, mental, etheric and physical worlds, and that investment is truly a power wherein and whereby you become, in yourselves, an activity of the expansion of the light of this particular globe on which you presently abide.

Many aeons ago, beloved Helios, my divine complement, and I qualified to become the Sun God and Sun Goddess for this system. As you know, we designed with great harmony and in great joy, the planets of this system, including this Earth, which was a small planet in our divine design, to be occupied by about three and a half billion peoples, and then, before the Manus had prepared the individuals to come into being, we had the assistance of the great and mighty Elohim who, of themselves, came with the mighty Immaculata, and drawing of primal life essence, created that little globe on which you now abide.

She was shining, then, with all the beauty and love which Helios and I and these great builders of form and the other beings who offered to assist us, could manifest. On this shining orb came forth the first Manu of the root race and his sub-races. They found this planet Earth truly like unto the orbit of our sun.

Ages have passed, and temporarily the Earth has been experiencing much imperfection, not only from her own peoples, but also those from other stars, and it is my privilege and my joy to give gratitude to each and every one who is in earnest in redeeming the Earth and purifying those elements by the conscious use of the Sacred Fire, and blessing each and everyone—blessing Immaculata, who stands above the planet Earth, holding constantly to the divine plan for this planet, just as it was projected forth from Helios and myself, those mighty Elohim who continue to render their service in holding a balance, and all the beings of the fire element, who have been misused through aeons of time, so that they may find relief and release and rise into their proper estate, even as the flame in your hearts rises in love and gratitude, when we join one another in communion and God-service.

I ask you, beloved, who use this Earth, even if you have come from other stars for a time, to remember beloved Pelleur and beloved Virgo are the host and hostess upon it and have given you habitation—and remember all the elemental kingdom and their mighty directors, who have enabled you to have many joyous experiences on this sweet Earth.

Now we are called upon by Cosmic Law to make this Earth shine again, as brilliant and beautiful as it was in the beginning, to straighten her axis quickly and to accelerate the vibratory action of the electrons which make up the atoms and cells of every human being and all life in, through and about it. Therefore, we have dedicated these four days (September 26th, 1960, through September 29th, 1960) to such an acceleration and the capacity of an affinity between elemental life, human life and divine life – the cohesive power of the universe.

I turn you now, beloved ones, to my blessed Helios.

Beloved Helios Speaks:

Beloved Vesta, beloved children of the Sun, greetings on behalf of the Light which comes to Earth through the consciousness of the peoples who are living in the upper chamber, who magnetize that SACRED FIRE which is ours to give and yours to receive, utilize and expand. Thank you, and be seated!

Be seated in the light and in the sight of the sun! Our aura carries only blessings to all life. Our aura carries the very gift of the energy by which you have being, and carries within itself every virtue which you require as you move victoriously upon life's way. That aura which is the light of the Sun, is a permanent part of your aura, too, when we join together in companionship and understanding as to that which we desire to accomplish.

That which we desire to accomplish, beloved ones, is to reinstate perfection upon this Earth, and to reinstate the perfection of every electron and every cell and every atom of every living thing in, through and around the Earth until the Earth is again as beloved Vesta and I first visualized it and then projected it forth. It is our wish that the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain might have a most glorious holy star for you to enjoy and for the spirits of the various nature kingdoms—the gnomes, the undines, the sylphs and the salamanders to enjoy, also.

Beloved ones, will you accept, today, the rising of the Sun as an activity of the rising of the Sun of light within your hearts, illuminating your consciousness, vibrating through every cell and atom of your beings and expanding forth until it encompasses the planet. May there be enough light that the Karmic Board may say, “This planet now straightened on her axis, peopled by God-free peoples, is truly a home of the Ascended Master Saint Germain.” Then when we absorb into ourselves the beings of Mercury and that great and mighty star, the planet Earth shall most easily move closer to ourselves.

This is an orderly procession toward Godhood in its fullness! So accept from beloved Vesta and from myself, our gratitude that you know something of our world as it was in the beginning and as it shall be, incorporated into the beautiful energies of your own conscious understanding again. Thus, you are part of the great light of the world. Thus I, too, as beloved Vesta, bow before you, giving to you the light of understanding, the warmth of love and the tenacity of the Sun Gods, in holding concentrated to the one purpose—goodness—until that goodness is manifestly expressed for the benefaction of all.

Think about what would have been if, after the laggards came from other stars Immaculata had looked upon the Earth and seeing it clouded with the astral and psychic creation about it, had thought, “Well, I shall not hold this concept longer, because the Earth is not expressing it.” As a Silent Watcher, if Immaculata, a God-free being, had loosed that divine concept, there would not have been that permanent design into which various individuals turn in their endeavors to bring the Earth back home!

It is much more difficult to work without a blueprint than it is to work with one, but Immaculata was constant and is constant. That Mighty Silent Watcher who receives so little attention from any of you, was so constant in that great love, that no matter what the appearances were, she held her pattern and has been one of the Great Beings who has been responsible for the sustaining of the Earth. The Elohim and the other builders of form, who can return and look at that divine pattern time and time again when civilizations have been destroyed, when continents have been destroyed, looked again into that beautiful pattern and helped again to re-create it.

So give gratitude, please, to that mighty being, as we do this morning. And know that there is also a Silent Watcher for you, each one—a Silent Watcher who never slumbers nor sleeps, one who refuses to accept imperfection from you or for you, who is stronger than all the human creation which you might generate or have projected toward you. That Silent Watcher is close. Have you forgotten? It is not easy in the physical world, but remember that one who holds the immaculate concept for you and give gratitude to her. These are beings of patience rare, as you can well understand!

I bless today, in the name of the Sun, all of the kingdoms—those of Virgo and Pelleur, Lunara and Neptune, Aries and Thor, and every living thing in, through and around this planet Earth with the fullness of my love—and Vesta and I, through that love, will help you to express divinity through yourselves and others.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

We, the staff of “The Bridge to Freedom Activity,” and all associated services, join in wishing each and every one of our readers a joyous and holy Christmas Season, and a New Year of illumination, peace and the manifest expression of your own CHRIST SELF. For your love, kindness, patience, encouragement and generosity over the past year, we express our deepest love, gratitude and blessings.

SELFLESSNESS, DISCRETION AND HUMILITY,
THE BASIS OF PRECIPITATION
Letter from the Maha Chohan to the
Transmission of the Flame Class of December 17, 1960

Beloved Ones Seeking to Learn Conscious Precipitation,

I am desirous that there be re-animated within you, each and every one, the power of conscious precipitation of good into your own dear worlds and then, selflessly, into the worlds of others. Remember always, that when you achieve this power of precipitation, unless you are discreet, you will become a target for the greedy and yet uneducated (spiritually) consciousness of your fellowman. As in all God-virtues developed, it is the wise chela who learns and in the silence acts, with neither thought nor feeling of personal reward. The one in whose emotional, mental, etheric or physical consciousness still lurks selfishness of any kind, will again attempt to gain temporal power through display of his seemingly extraordinary faculties. The Cosmic Law, then, has no alternative, but to remove from such a pompous one, the resuscitated faculty, until he learns TRUE HUMILITY. This humility you shall witness before Confucius and his Guru, Lord Lanto. The sponsors for this thirty-day period are gentlemen from Lord Confucius' focus, graceful, humble and yet strong in their FEELING OF REVERENCE FOR THE USE OF GOD'S LIFE.

VISITING OTHER PLANETS IN THE SAFETY OF PROJECTED CONSCIOUSNESS

Address by Beloved Lord Thor and Lady Aries

The Ashram

September 27, 1960

Beloved Thor Speaks:

I speak in the name and by the power of the direction of the energies of the air currents which I, Thor, send north and east, south and west, carrying moisture, carrying warmth and all the activities of a constructive nature through the sylphs of the air. I, Thor, am never still. Those beings, the mighty sylphs, who work with beloved Aries and myself have, some of them, grown to gigantic proportions.

Beloved ones, the sylphs of the air have, throughout the ages, have absorbed the human creations of the peoples of this Earth. Think about what would happen if those sylphs, uncontrolled by myself and Lady Aries, should vent their wrath upon those who have antagonized through the ages! Therefore, we are obeying the divine edict of holding in check, each member of the directors of the kingdom of the beings who serve under us, until the various little ones, and big ones, too, who represent the elemental kingdom, can find real love and affinity for mankind.

Although in picturization mankind have distorted the expression of myself, it is true that I am the pressure which moves the very atmosphere, created by beloved Aries, and in the moving of that atmosphere, keeping it circling round and round this planet Earth, there is opportunity, without limit, for the alert chela to understand and cooperate with me and beloved Aries and the sylphs. In doing what? In seeing that where there are mass pressures of humanly-created substance, that the power of Aries and Thor are yours to invoke and to move those pressures out, perhaps, into the sea, where they can be transmuted and then carried by Helios and Vesta into the Sun for repolarization and no harm can be done to the peoples of Earth and those who are on its continental surface.

I have never been the cause of a cyclone or a tornado, which should be self-evident to the thinking mind, but the sylphs of the air, like human beings and imprisoned angels, have free will, to a certain extent. They gather, just as disgruntled human beings do, in certain vortices where they build up, through unpleasant feelings and thoughts and conversations, which is evident to me, though perhaps not to you, a vortex which becomes the “eye” of a hurricane, a cyclone, a tornado. Then that energy following a track, causes destruction. You all know one of those mighty vortices is in the Caribbean and there I have established a Luminous Presence of the Elohim of Peace to arrest as much as possible of the turbulence of the air element.

Air can be your servant. It was the servant of the peoples of old. Air filled the sails of the early boats which came to your great country. Air is the life which you breathe in, by which you live. Or, the activity of the air element, uncontrolled, can be your master, for without air, your physical vehicles would perish, but it is the allowing of the inhalation and the exhalation of air, which is purified within every twenty-four hours by special beings belonging to our divine court, that you have the use of the power of drawing the breath, holding it, expanding it and blessing it as you send it forth to some other part of life.

Now many peoples—much of life draws that energy in from the air currents—utilize it, true, to sustain themselves on the surface of the earth, but they release only that which is pollution into the atmosphere, instead of BLESSING life! There, again, you have the activity of the perfect and rhythmic breath, drawing in our gift of air, absorbing it within you, letting it expand through you, filling and vitalizing your vehicles with its essence and then, as it passes from your bodies, blessing it and sending it forth with a God-gift and benediction to some other part of life.

Beloved Aries Speaks:

Beloved Thor and beloved ladies and gentlemen, we thank you so much for being interested in the atmosphere in which you abide.

I wonder how many of you have ever thought of a planet without an atmosphere! There could be no human life upon it and all the various experiments which the peoples are making regarding trips to other planets is dependent upon scientific research as to the atmosphere in, through and around those planets. Of course, scientific accuracy is not yet perfected. The understanding that every planet on which life abides has an atmosphere and that man-made atmosphere—no matter how expensive—will not suffice upon another planet!

Individuals who desire to rise in space and visit the various polaroids, stars and planets have to accelerate to their own atmosphere, and do so in the safety of projected consciousness!

We are joyous and have been ever since the great Helios and Vesta asked us to have created an atmosphere for this Earth—the light blue of the morning to the deep blue of the night, where the moon and the stars stud our garments. That is a living and palpitating essence by which you, each and ever one, have life upon, this Earth. Without it there could be no life. Without the directors of all the four elements and our subjects, there could not be life upon this Earth.

If the atmosphere was removed, it would do more than all the unpleasant ideas of the atomic age to remove life from this planet, but we have not chosen so to do. No! We have adjusted our atmosphere for you, each and every one, lowering its vibratory action as the Earth became more dense and giving to you as much of our air element as you can absorb.

Within that atmosphere is what you would call the “astral realm,” which is quickly being transmuted. Have you thought each and every one of you carries a personal atmosphere, which is made up of your thinking, feeling selves. Is that atmosphere in accord with the directors of the four elements? Is it in accord with your great and blessed benefactor, the Maha Chohan, or whatever Ascended Master Guru you represent? Or does your atmosphere vacillate? The vacillation of an individual’s atmosphere is the instability in one of the four lower bodies.

You, as individuals, have come far along life’s path so that you should learn to control your atmosphere, personally—emotionally stable, mentally alert, etherically pure and physically charged with whatever amount of light is necessary to expand the perfection of God through you—and filling that atmosphere with the warmth of love, with the power of which Thor spoke, to direct the currents of energy wheresoever they are required and not allow them to enter into your personal atmosphere, until you, in the ovoid bright, are the master control of your own atmosphere. He who has learned the control of himself, THEN he can be master of others!

Let us remember that, thinking about the sylphs, the gnomes, the salamanders and the undines, thinking about your dealings with your fellowman and all of life, remind the outer mind and consciousness, constantly, that you are IN GOD’S NAME, his holy atmosphere. Sustain it for an hour, for a day! Ask the great Michael and your sponsor, who has helped you and you will find us your friends, as we have been through the ages, and truly your servants in the Light!

On behalf of beloved Thor, myself and the sylphs of the air, we remain ever, your humble servants!

WATER CONTAINS THE ELIXIR OF LIFE

Addresses by Beloved Lord Neptune and Lady Lunara

The Ashram

September 28, 1960

Beloved Neptune Speaks:

Beloved ones, I greet you as the spirit of the water, that great “cushion” into which the continents on your planet are fit! I, Neptune, have been and choose to remain your servant, together with the Lady Lunara.

The activity of myself, as the Father of Water, and the activity of Lunara as the spirit of the shining silvery moon, is the same activity as that of each pair of divine directors of the elements—the power of cohesion and the power of expansion. In the expansion of the energies of the water element, there is more energy naturally within the emotional bodies of the peoples as well as the tides at full ebb. At the time of contraction of the water element, all of which is done by the rhythm between Lunara and myself, there is less of that element of water in the rivers and less of it within your own being. That is a cosmic activity which has been explained to you before, but which bears repetition.

The balance of the power of contraction and expansion is the rhythmic way of living. When you learn that, even in the use of your breath, drawing it in and expanding it, you will have rhythm in the vehicles which are yours to command, including your physical, etheric, mental and emotional garments.

The mighty undines who come under the charge and direction of myself have served mankind since first Immaculata and the beloved Elohim created this planet. Into the depths of the seas for purification has gone every type of life—even continents—for the purifying essence of the salt in the waters. When continents are again to sink and to rise later in purification, you will see the crystalline substance which through the ages beneath the seas we have utilized to make those continents beautiful again and shining and bright as they were before mankind polluted them.

Who is it that serves beneath the seas? The undines—the undines great and small—under our direction, true, we being in turn directed by the Cosmic Beings who hold each group in their certain place.

Beloved ones, I deal, as does Lunara, with perfect balance. Without perfect balance in the water element, think what would happen to your seas. Any great oceanic body allowed to continue to swell and swell would eventually cover all of the continental surface of the Earth, but we serve in that activity of balance, allowing the seas to come in with their purifying air and to recede taking the residue with them, back into the deep for purification. That is the activity of balance! Have you done, and can you do, as much with yourself? Think about it!

The natural color of the water element is a beautiful blue, shading on the aquamarine, but through the same activity which has temporarily weighed down the vibratory action of all of the four elements, the great waters are changed in color both by differences of climate and by pollution, but one day you shall see crystal waters again, those waters which were foreordained of the Father as a gift of refreshment, ablution and a gift to cushion the continents and give beauty through reflection to the great mountains and their lakes.

We have loved you long and we have served joyously, I can say, as your great boats as well as the smaller ones have utilized the surface of our seas. We have experienced great pleasure in any gift which pure water can give to you. As the beloved Aries said yesterday of the air element—if you were without water, perhaps you could understand more its intrinsic value. This I hope shall never be!

You have, in past embodiments, known what it was to be without water. There are, in your etheric bodies, those vibratory actions of fear concerning the experience, but today with one sweep of our hands, we remove those etheric experiences and all that fear, until water becomes for you a friend, until YOU KNOW in your being that within every drop of water is the love of our hearts and the elixir of life eternal. When you control the element of water within your own emotional bodies, you become qualified to be the control of the entire water kingdom. We require your assistance and God-protection for great numbers of peoples and many living things who have not this conscious understanding, and know not even of our names nor of our service—I LIVE FOR THAT DAY!

Beloved Lunara Speaks:

Gentle assembly, many of you have been frightened of the spirit of the moon. I wish to put you at peace in the realization that the activity I represent, with the beloved Neptune, is an activity of stimulating the latent virtues within your Holy Christ Self and accelerating the latent virtues within your own Causal Bodies, that they may expand through purified emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles.

The difficulty has been, until this day, that the stimulation of those energies in your great Causal Bodies, in your Holy Christ Selves, have stimulated and accelerated untransmuted causes and cores of distress in the emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles, as well. These are to be removed and you can feel my love flow to you, as I endeavor to, and shall, stimulate the goodness already planted in your lifestreams, earned through aeons of living and living as pulsating bands of light in your Causal Bodies, living within the virtues within your hearts, living within the seven-fold flame upon your forehead and those constructive momentums of the four lower vehicles which you have builded through countless aeons of time, not only upon this Earth, beloved ones, but upon other planets of this system, as well.

If the farmer does not choose to place his seed into the sweet Earth and expose it to the radiation of beloved Helios and Vesta's light of the sun, he shall not have the shoot, the foliage, the flower. If the conscious chela does not desire to first weed out his garden, through the call to the great Astrea, of all emotional, mental, etheric and physical fear and its attendant tentacles, then lovingly and in full illumined faith place those vehicles before my presence, I cannot, because of your free will, externalize through you as fully as I would otherwise, the virtues which you have desired to manifest and which you have felt limited in manifesting to this day!

We give love. Every director of the elements gives only love, else we would not have served so long. We give love to mankind, imprisoned angels and to every living thing, to the blessed undines who have served so long and we have given love to everything which has been placed within the water element since the great continent of Mu and of Atlantis, down to every individual who has passed from this Earth at sea, and that love has purified that essence. When Atlantis again arises, as my beloved has said, shining and bright will be the radiance, the crystalline substance of the hermetically-sealed temples and you and I shall be grateful we have served together for this day!

To the spirit and the soul and the heart of each of you, I give the blessings of the water element, blessing from beloved Neptune and myself. May you live in the realization of our friendship and our abiding love!

ELEMENTALS AS SERVANTS

Addresses by Beloved Lady Virgo and Lord Pelleur

The Ashram

September 29, 1960

Beloved Virgo Speaks:

Blessed and beloved, you who are my guests upon this Earth, I thank you for assisting in the purification of this planet.

How many aeons have passed since first you came to me from distant stars and enjoyed the pleasure of this sweet Earth, every electron of which is made up of my own Electronic Body. Every electron which has been temporarily despoiled shall be returned in this era and age to the glory of the beloved Saint Germain, and you serving upon this Earth to that purity and perfection and protection again.

It has been my joy to be the nourishment through the energies of my being of every harvest you have known. It has been my joy to be the platform upon which your blessed feet have stood, as well as that of the glorious Ascended Master Jesus and beloved Buddha's feet whose imprints yet remain upon the breast of the substance of this Earth.

We, too, have been patient, I think you will agree, with not only those who have loved us and who have enjoyed serving with us, but also with those who have taken our life and used it to their own personal advantage, not blessing any part of life with their gifts. The vibratory action of our patience is stepped down into our element. Just as you channel from your Causal Bodies the gifts and powers into your Holy Christ Flame, do we channel into the gnomes and all those in our element that patience which sustains their service and to bless forever the opportunity given even by a recalcitrant mankind to serve them, for they grow thereby.

I think of all the smaller beings. The most mischievous are the gnomes—the gnome that is not on the ascendancy but who is engaged in mirroring some of the distortions seen around him and some little ones, on occasion, have to be called before us to be reprimanded. It would be wise, indeed, if you, in any case regarding the salamanders, the sylphs, the gnomes or the undines, would ask us to help you to bless them and to hold them in their perfect place as co-workers with you, for this is our reason for being.

You do not always know how much elemental life might be playing “games” with you, so to speak, causing you unnecessary discomfort. But you can make the call to us and we, in turn, will see that elementals of the most constructive type and nature are the servants of your lifestreams. We will remove and place in school, for re-education, those who have gotten out of line. We do that anyway, but with your conscious understanding of it and calls to us as the directors of these beings, we can give you assistance.

There is in you a lot of the earth—of the earth, “earthy” is an expression—well! That means there is in you a great deal of myself, and as we accelerate the vibratory action of the entire planet, that substance of earth which is within you is good. It will accelerate with me and become part of the light of the world.

Therefore, I ask you to bless the landed surface of the earth and the gnomes who are within it and be so grateful, indeed, for all beings, who for the most part serve unseen, not only around you, but make up the very structure of your physical vehicles, time after time after time, as you take embodiment. Those little beings at this close of this embodiment, through the power of transmutation, through the gift of the beloved Serapis Bey and the Brotherhood at Luxor and the great Ascended Master Saint Germain and that mighty Violet Flame, shall be purified and returned to the Sun and form then a part of the glory of your Causal Body, as you work as God-free beings, never again hampered by human creation!

Now, let us turn our attention, to beloved Pelleur, that great Being who with me holds the Earth in her orbit:

Lord Pelleur Speaks:

Beloved Virgo, beloved ladies and gentlemen here assembled, I am Pelleur, the actual power which holds the Earth in her place in the solar system! COME NOW from lethargy into light and understand that the very earth, herself, even her axis being bended, would not remain nor would the souls belonging to this planet remain on this small globe if it were not the cohesive power of my love which science chooses to call the “gravity pull” of the Earth!

Think about it! When you place your feet one before the other on an appointed task, human or divine, if there was no cohesive power which is the power of love divine beneath your feet you would sail into outer space. Even in the process of walking you can be grateful for that cohesive power which we maintain in the very center of the Earth, where the masculine and the feminine rays of beloved Himalaya and beloved Meru join and where the great Spirit of Cosmic Christ Peace serves with me constantly holding the substance of the Earth and radiating from its center to its periphery the love and the light of our beings. That love is the actual substance on which you stand. It is the substance which makes up your chairs upon which you are seated. It is that love which holds all the beings who belong to this evolution and have been accepted by this evolution in the orbit of the Earth. It is that love which has accepted again, again and again the excrement of human life and through kindness transmuted it into purity and perfection.

I can confirm, but where else is his joy, living as he does for the most part under the surface of the earth and performing those tasks of preparation for every season of the year to bring the harvest, performing those tasks of transmutation! Think about it! Their service is not one of complete and absolute joy, but it shall so become. They have Causal Bodies, too—miniature ones—every gnome, sylph, undine and salamander has a little band of light which is its own record for the good which it has done throughout the centuries of being. That record will, as in the case of humankind, be read when greater positions of trust and authority in the elemental kingdom are open, there will be those always who are ready to fill them.

Thus we represent, as do all those who have preceded us, the power of contraction and expansion. The Earth breathes, you know, and through its many pores comes the pink light from its center. When the Earth does not breathe, you have witnessed, if not in person at least in picturization, certain portions where great destruction is done—the Earth for the time breathed not there. What have you? Desert sands upon which nothing can grow, or barren swamps. All that is in the process of redemption.

Now take your own bodies—would you care to have ten billion people utilize your own physical body as they desire for twenty-four hours? I think not! Then think how we, the directors of the elements, together with our great kingdoms, feel when we have given our very body's life, in patience, to have them so imperfectly used! It is not the part of kindness nor of wisdom. I am strong in my endeavor to convey to you THE POWER which lies within cooperation with the directors of the elements NOW, and then should there arise an occasion where individuals or any living thing required assistance, you, being our God-friends, could give and will give that calming balance, peace and understanding even though you may not have to speak a word.

It is in the NOW, TODAY, that we ask that peace be created between you and the beings of nature, and it is TODAY, the anniversary of the feast of beloved Michael, that we ask in love that you give our peace to all you contact.

Note: The thoughtform for this Autumn Class of 1960 was a large, many-petaled leaf enfolding the Earth.

LEARN THE SELF-MASTERY OF UNDISTURBED PEACE

Monthly Letter to the Flame Class of January 21, 1961

Beloved Children of God Seeking Permanent Peace,

Welcome to the glorious focus of the great God and Goddess of the Andes Mountains, Lord and Lady Meru. I shall meet you there, and, hand in hand, we shall enter into the heart of their temple and look upon the Illumination Flame. You shall be assigned a lady sponsor who will endeavor, during this thirty-day period (January 15th through February 14th, 1961) to anchor into your feelings, primarily, that everlasting peace which nothing (not even a seed of discord that has not been transmuted within your inner vehicles nor that of others) can ruffle or disturb.

One man, woman or child, learning the self-mastery of UNDISTURBED PEACE, under all circumstances, can through the expansion of consciousness, hold an entire continent in perfect balance. In early ages, this God-illumination, self-mastery, and sustained peace, enabled those so equipped to sustain the entire Earth during her lowest ebb.

Now the Earth and her attendant evolutions are rising out of darkness into LIGHT ETERNAL and many of the earnest and worthy chelas shall be required to help in holding the equipoise of the Earth and her evolutions during this time. Through the opening of the Ascended Masters' foci to you and our presence with you, such opportunity as you know not of, is at hand.

Anticipating your visits with us at the Temple of Illumination and Peace, I am ever-lovingly your friend and servant to one end—EARTH'S REDEMPTION NOW.

My love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

WHAT WE HAVE TO DO IN THE NEXT 2,000 YEARS
An Address by the Beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain

Dearly beloved friends of my heart, you who have responded to my call, you who have through the veil of maya reached your strong hands, who have opened your heart both to my calls and to my presence, who have opened the energies of your mental and feeling worlds in the substance of the physical appearance world to further my cause over a period of years, to you I give my personal gratitude, my love, and my undying devotion and friendship for being among those willing to serve, willing to grasp a part of the vision of the great future, willing to open your consciousness to that which seems like fantasy to the masses, and willing to weave out of your mental, emotional and physical energies a portion of that vision in the world of form that it may stand as a manifest example of that which is to be.

Cooperation Between Men, Angels and Elementals

The next two-thousand-year cycle, which the great Cosmic Law has permitted me the honor and with all the responsibilities to represent, is to bring in an understanding of the ceremonial worship and a kindly cooperation, first among the human race, themselves, and then when they are at least in some accord, the members of the elemental kingdom and the angelic kingdom, as well. These three great kingdoms, who have used the Earth as a habitat, who have breathed the air, who have used freely the waters and substance of the earth through the ages, these kingdoms have grown so far apart in consciousness that there is no means of communication between them, except by the very few.

Those few who represent the heart of the nature kingdom and take human embodiment, are sometimes able to reach through the elemental kingdom, or through the flower, the birds or with the four-footed creatures, and in that way accelerate the consciousness of such a one and bring assistance to that realm. Our beloved Kuthumi as Saint Francis was one, and you know the gentleman who has recently rendered such a service in that same capacity through a colored body (Dr. Carver).

The angelic kingdom is very well relegated to the realms of fantasy and are drawn out more as ornaments than as living beings of intelligent consciousness and power to assist. It is to bring into alignment the consciousness, the understanding and the desire for unity before these three kingdoms, that I have come, and to bring into alignment which is more difficult even than the above, the seven types or rays of evolution, the seven types of men, who will perform the activities of the ceremonies in the days and years ahead.

The Work of the Centuries Ahead

We are at a new beginning, a new and humble beginning which will be written upon the pages of life and which will be read by consciousnesses less fettered by the effluvia of the ages, more illumined by reason of your application and use of the Violet Fire, more able to grasp that which we say today. In the centuries ahead those individual will work out and develop the truths, the ceremonies and the activities that we have written through the energies of our life, and you have written into the substance of the earth through your energies and reading, and they will comprehend even as it was long after the advent and mission of the Master Jesus.

It was long after the removal of the main figures of the Christian Church upon the screen of life, that the ceremonies have drawn the angelic host, the devic beings and have kept a connection with the consciousness of beloved Jesus and Mary, and Lord Michael, the Archangel, and those who have achieved the right to live in the realms of immortality. It was long after the removal of these simple, humble folk that this development took place. You cannot, as they say, build Rome in a day, but it is the strong spirit with the confidence of faith in their consciousness, with enough drive of enthusiasm, with a certain tenacity of will, and when you find these individuals with a perception and intuitive development and the capacity to expand the finer vibrations, that combination is rare, and yet it must be used in the mystic of the new order, to build a strong and firm foundation for this two-thousand-year cycle.

There is no such thing as failure connected with the turning of the cosmic wheel. Every fourteen thousand years that wheel makes a complete revolution. In the two thousand years allotted to the being who has been invested with the power of the Chohan of the Ray, he may, using his own discrimination, intuitive faculties, inspiration and God-direction, use whatever consciousness, whatever lifestreams are available to him in order to bring an understanding of the particular type of worship that will engage the attention of the people for that cycle. If some do not respond, then he endeavors always to secure the assistance and cooperation of others. These cycles are provided in order to animate certain of the spiritual centers in man. We have described this to you before.

Preparation for the Coming of the Avatar

In the two-thousand-year cycle when the ray is predominant on the Earth, its Chohan is actively engaged in bringing the worded instruction of the Law which will best invoke the powers of that ray into the outer consciousness of mankind. The Chohan is engaged in developing the individual chelas through whom he endeavors to reach mankind, and also preparing for the coming of the Avatar of that age. He is endeavoring, through the chelas and the group activity, if he can be so fortunate as to secure it, to pour forth a blessing and a condensation of radiation which will be beneficial to the entire population and the elemental and angelic kingdoms during that era.

The activities of the Chohan are diversified in the extreme. We live under Cosmic Law which we may not supersede, except by application to the Karmic Board, for which we must give a very good reason. If that reason is proven in the world of man as of benefit to individuals or to many, the Karmic Board will allow the Chohan certain liberties to look through the eyes of the chela, speak through his lips, act through his hands, walk through his form and build a firmer and stronger foundation.

Responding to the Call

You are those who have responded to a subtle call! It is the same call which went forth at the beginning of the Christian Dispensation. The Holy Mother chose to speak to you a little of my activity endeavoring to prepare the ground for the Master Jesus, to prepare the consciousness of certain men and a very few women for the coming of the Nameless One. Through that dispensation which allowed me by the Law—the heavier consciousness of the outer selves of those chosen, those who had vowed to participate in the Christian Pageant, were alerted to a degree, and when the call came to Peter, Andrew, James and John and the other of the disciples, they were already within themselves listening, where otherwise they might have been pursuing their daily occupation with the thought which was prevalent in the Jewish Race at that time, that the Messiahship, while it might come within their lifetime, yet might be delayed for hundreds of years.

It was so that John the Baptist, looking up from the Jordan had been alerted and was partially prepared for the coming of the Nameless One. The Law did not allow us to transfer an understanding to the chosen of who was going to embody as the Christ. The Law did allow us, however, to stir the lethargy of the mind and to break through the aura from the mass creations of the day, sufficiently so that there was an acceleration of soul and inner consciousness. The preparation then of the individual through his own application became his obligation to life.

When I went to those gentlemen and ladies, I was privileged to say to them, "You can prepare to take part in a great activity that is about to break on the screen of life, by individual application and the acceleration of your physical and inner bodies.

I am prepared to give you certain personal hints, which you may or may not do." There were many to whom I went, a humble unostentatious figure, who thought me mad. There were many who thought me a seeker after peace. There were many who thought I was promoting some scheme or deceit. Everyone to whom I went did not take my words and ponder them in their hearts or take my application and weave them into the energies of their own worlds. Many there were, when the triumphant baptized Jesus walked from the Jordan, who did not hear the "mystic note," who did not respond, because the forerunner was scorned.

Individual Preparation Indispensable

I had finished my activity of preparation. I had secured, through the assistance of Lord Maitreya, Holy Mary and others, the right to make this preparation, otherwise I do not feel that any would have known him for more than a great teacher. It was that individual application and power of light, which surged through them, that enabled them to stand up and leave home, responsibilities and personal obligations, following those few words, "Follow me!" Could YOU do it, beloved ones?

Opportunity comes to men and women in every era and every age, in many disguises. Opportunity comes humbly, naturally, unaffectedly. Opportunity comes, waits awhile at the threshold of individual consciousness, and then, because time is precious, the great cosmic rays must sweep onward to another door. And standing there if welcomed therein, and the vital energies of the lifestream accept her, there she waits to bid welcome to the Chohan of that ray. And here is a heart dedicated, consecrated and sincere. Here is a heart where the Lord may abide and plant the seeds of vision where they will be nourished and developed, a harvest of worth, and so that Lord, where he may, enters in and there abides, and the individual accepting that power and responsibility, obligation and opportunity, BECOMES the “DOOR,” so far as his own capacity and development will allow.

The Importance Of Forcefields

Now I thought today, “What shall I say to these earnest students?” Every few months for a few minutes I am given access to their minds, and yet these people among all those on the planet Earth have opened their hearts to opportunity and have invited me in! These people have opened their hearts and created foci on the Earth—sanctuaries, reading rooms, homes where the Masters may come and go at will, where the angels and devas may rest as they move on cosmic missions among the creations of the lower atmosphere, where lifestreams tired to death of the sense-activities may find some surcease from the pressures of the day. You know it is nice to have homes on Earth—homes with you, blessed ones! The sanctuaries and the small, dedicated rooms are funnels through which we can pour our concentrated essence to bless a city, the nation, and the world. Why? Because in a permanent location, we have constant access to a forcefield and we can use that forcefield as you do an ember and fan a flame. You must have the ember or spark to get the flame!

Therefore, these forcefields, no matter how small they may be, can be fanned and fanned and fanned by the power of the cosmos, as the requirement of the hour comes, until they can become world-engulfing. The larger they are, the more dynamic and more rhythmically fed, the less of our energy is required for such fanning. Even for a tiny spark, a glowing ember in the darkness of this star, I am so grateful. You are sanctuary and group directors and individuals who aspire to become group leaders. You are individuals who have not only sat at the feet of the Masters, but have decided to stand up and DO SOMETHING about expanding the activity of their love—and for this I am so grateful!

THE RAY OF WISDOM

The Ray of Wisdom, of which I am but one facet, is little interested in the world of man. It does not deal with knowledge—which is an accretion of intellectual facts—nor mental genius. True wisdom comes from facing the Sun within, and drawing forth the conscious realization that all reality, truth, beauty and understanding may be found within the flame of one's own heart! By listening to the Voice of the Silence in humble and silent reverence without mental concepts or emotional restraints, one becomes imbued with wisdom. The wiser one becomes, the more silent is his tongue, the more peaceful his emotional world, and the less thinking he does with the brain.

This is the second person of the Trinity, referred to as the “Son,” although this is often taken as a parental-child relationship. Its inner significance is S-U-N, and when you really know that the only reality is this SUN, the world of maya can no longer touch you. This is the path of wisdom, the period of listening and waiting, that signifies the cross-legged Buddha resting from the arduous climb on the ray of strength and purity.

Outwardly it will be a period which, in comparison to your struggle, will seem peaceful, quiet and serene, for you are not tested in strength now but in patience inwardly. However, let me warn you, that it is one of the most difficult steps on the path, for until you can hear the Voice of the Silence, you are running on the periphery of life, shouting with the multitude the hollow hosannas that resound nowhere but in your own ears.

You will find me, perhaps, a gentle and lenient Master, because the way of the silence cannot be forced, but let not my gentleness deceive you, for beneath it is the “rod of iron.” The blessing of Lord Maitreya, rest upon you and I shall endeavor to visit you often this year.

ON MANUS, ROOT RACES
An Address by the Great God Meru

Blessed and beloved children of life, seeking the way of truth, welcoming the Flame of Illumination into your outer consciousness in order that you might enrich not only your own soul growth, but that of all whom you contact—to you I come, bringing all of the blessings from our holy mountain, all of the blessings of the Brotherhood of Illumination and all of the individual blessings of my lifestream!

For many, many ages now, have we guarded and sustained that focus of the Illumination Flame which we honor. Some few of the more advanced among the race have found their way into the heart of the mountain, wherein that flame abides. In the future, when the spiritual pioneers have opened the emotional, mental and etheric pathways toward our mystic retreat, more and more of mankind will become physically aware of the spiritual radiation which is held within the great Andes Mountains and you will see that those who have clung for many ages to the desire to enter the great Himalayan Range will begin to turn their spiritual pilgrimages to the West.

Transference Of Records From Himalaya To Titicaca

We are in the process of preparation for such changes. For several years there have been transported, from the great retreat of my brother, Himalaya, priceless scrolls and scripts, which have been prepared by the sages throughout many ages, and which have been preserved unto this present day, and which will, when mankind is raised above the consciousness of greed and selfishness and the capacity of self-destruction, be released for the use of the masses—self-evident proof of the truths as presented by the many Avatars and Masters of Light and Wisdom under which the members of the race who will then be living on this Earth, have sat before.

They can place their hands upon the parchments, they can place their fingers into the grooves made in the stones, they can feel the very substance of the energy of their own Master of Light, who, ages before, made these written records and that contact with the physical substance of earth, which has been so carefully preserved by the great Himalaya and his Brotherhood, and of which now we have taken upon us the responsibility and obligation here in the Andes.

Such connection with the Ascended Masters' substance and the physical substance of the world will revivify the etheric memories of the truths which that Master or Avatar taught, and those individuals who are coming into embodiment, will enjoy the great civilization being born in South America, will have the joy of these magnificent treasures of every kind and every description.

The Responsibility Of The Manus

The subject of the Manus has been in your minds and I would like to explain it to you. Manus have been provided for the seven great root races who naturally belong to the Earth's evolution. Each of these Manus, myself included, is responsible for a root race and seven subraces which come under him. Each Manus cannot be free—he does not choose to be free, until every member of his root race and the seven subraces belonging to it, is redeemed and ascended into the God-perfection from whence it came forth in the beginning.

The first three Manus completed their service because the radiation on the Earth was not yet polluted by the coming of the laggards from other stars. Their root races embodied, their sub-races developed, and the people ascended, having completed, in approximately fourteen thousand years in each cycle, their evolution.

Himalaya, The Manus Of The Fourth Root Race

When we come to the great Himalaya, as the Manus of the fourth root race, we have many fourth root race people and the successive subraces still in embodiment, so the great Himalaya is one of those who is an exile of love, remaining in the great Himalayan Mountains and serving and blessing those individual lifestreams belonging to the fourth root race and subraces who have not completed the ascension. That includes any members of the angelic host who came out with the fourth root race, any of the guardian spirits who came forth from other planets at the inception of the fourth root race, any elementals who became imprisoned at that time, and all living things everywhere.

The Lord Himalaya is therefore responsible for the redemption of all of the mammals and the animal life, some of which is still in a state of suspended animation beneath the cap of frozen wasteland, and it is the responsibility and obligation of Lord Himalaya and his lieutenants and chelas and unascended friends and those who belong to that race, to make that redemption possible.

Vaivasvata, The Manu Of The Fifth Root Race

The great Vaivasvata Manu is responsible for the evolution and restoration in a similar activity of the fifth root race and all of its subraces. It is my obligation, of course, to bring to maturity the sixth root race upon the Earth, including all of its subraces.

Now, why exactly does a Manu take on this responsibility? A Manu is a perfected being, a being who has already developed the perfection of the Godhead and who offers to a sun of a system (in our case Helios and Vesta) to be a God-parent to a certain number of spirit sparks, which will be drawn forth upon a planet.

The Descent Of The Two Divine Complements

These spirit sparks are directed by the Father and Mother of the system—Helios and Vesta—into universal light, becoming a glorious Immortal Threefold Flame and then around is a White Fire Being, that White Fire Being, in turn, projecting forth the two divine complements, all still in the realm of perfection. These two divine complements as they dwell in that realm of perfection, have free will, and they can choose to descend through the entire Seven Spheres where perfection exists, lingering as long as they desire in each of the spheres and assimilating as much of the instruction as they desire.

You may think it peculiar, but the two divine complements do not always proceed together through the Seven Spheres. Because of free will, one sometimes will remain a little longer in the First Sphere and perhaps the other move on to the third. It is exactly the same as when one of the two divine complements chooses to take embodiment, but for the purpose of my illustration, you have the two divine complements descending through the Seven Spheres, because only those who have passed through the Seven Spheres can come into physical embodiment. They start, of course, in the White Light around the presence of Helios and Vesta, pass through the electronic belt around the Sun and move out through the spheres similar to the colors in your Causal Body.

God Meru, The Manu of the Sixth Root Race

The seven Manus who applied for the opportunity of taking charge of these spirit sparks were desirous of guarding those individuals who desired to come into embodiment on this Earth, and those who desired to come in as the sixth root race were those whose radiation in the Causal Body was predominantly gold in color. They were given into my keeping and then I, in cooperation with the Karmic Board and in cooperation with the laws of embodiment, was allowed to bring through the gates of birth the beginning of the sixth root race and some of the sub-races which are beginning to infiltrate the masses of mankind.

All of the sixth root race and its subraces are not yet in embodiment. Therefore, my task is comparatively new insofar as redemption is concerned. My task and that of the Goddess Meru is to reap, really where others have sown, because as Himalaya and the Vaivasvata Manu and all of the beings who belong to the earlier root races, all of the laggards who are being called into action, and all of the student body, are purifying the atmosphere, more and more of the sixth root race lifestreams can come in and they, of course, will be finer, more delicate of form, more beautiful and more highly-attuned and developed. They can be easily distinguished by any who have studied the law of the root races, by the perfection of their form. They have the perfect oval face and mostly are golden of hair and blue of eye, with certain exceptions, where we have chosen to give assistance to Himalaya through Oriental embodiment, and those individuals have taken on and will take on the features of the race into which they embody to help and assist him.

The Vehicle the Manu Uses

The Manu, himself, is a perfected being, and utilizes a vehicle prepared for him at the inception of his root race. This is a most delicate and subtle subject and one which cannot be dealt with to all mankind, but a Manu is already a perfected being, the ultimate archetype of the entire root race and all of the subraces, the perfection which God the Father and God the Mother of the almighty universe desires to manifest through that race. Therefore, such a one, contrary to previously presented instruction, does NOT, himself embody, but you have the mystic union as you had with the beloved Lord Maitreya joined with the consciousness of Jesus, the Christ, at the Jordan and the two became one, so that Maitreya, through Jesus, might bring the powers of the Cosmic Christ to man.

So it is with the Manu. We have seen it written that the Manu, himself, takes birth. The Manu is offered, by a very pure and beautiful pupil whom he has trained at inner levels but who is not yet ascended, the preparation of a body. Then that blessed pupil comes naturally through the gates of birth, like Jesus did, and he holds as clearly and distinctly as possible, the picture of the great Manu, his teacher.

That picture is also closely held by the devic protector, who stands around both the chosen mother and father, as well as the embryo as it develops, and sometimes, almost always, the mother and father are aware of the sacrifice and the preparation and the trinity—the mother, the father and the child—prepare the cup and then at a chosen time, according to the receptivity of the pupil who has embodied and according to the cosmic moment when the Manu is needed to be expressed on Earth, is the union made. Sometimes in that union, the soul of the pupil departs and the Manu wears that body for as long as he may choose. Sometimes the soul of the pupil remains and the Manu uses it only fleetingly, so that he can continue his work at inner levels and not be constantly concerned with feeding, clothing and performing the necessary tasks of sustaining a physical form.

The Great Divine Director, Manu Of The Seventh Root Race

This, beloved ones, is as clear a description as can be given to you of the activity of the Manu of the Race. I have seen one of the Manus take the form of the infant at the age of five. In the case of the great Himalaya, the possession by the Manu was at the age of twelve. In my own case, I have not yet prepared my vessel. It will come when the Earth's axis is straightened and the great jungles and morasses and all of the reptiles, the insect life and vicious foci in South America are redeemed and transmuted and that continent becomes the beautiful paradise which it is destined to be. Then, again, the splendor and magnificence that we knew with the Father before the world was, will be manifested in South America and the Great Divine Director and his seventh root race and all its subraces will enjoy all of the Western Hemisphere as a literal paradise on Earth, Saint Germain's Golden Age permanently established.

Many of you are those privileged to be in embodiment during this time of change because of the strength of your light, because of past associations with various ones of us, because of your capacity to understand the intricacies of the Spiritual Law and to cognize the requirements of the hour, utilizing the energies of your own individual and collective worlds to expand God's kingdom here on Earth.

How Your Life Can Be More Pleasant This Year

The representatives of our retreat are very dignified and of tremendous power to help you to know that truth which sets you free. I cannot emphasize too much to you the reality of these representatives who will come at your call, day or night and render the service for you that you require. BE the acceleration of your brain consciousness, be the light on your pathway, BE the purification of your etheric memories, BE the vitalization of your mental capacity that helps you to be the God-control of the energies of your world. If you can accept the reality of myself and of our retreat and the ILLUMINATION FLAME, from which you can receive so much that will illumine your pathway, that will make life extremely more pleasant for you during this year!

WHEN YOU REQUIRE LOVE I ALWAYS COME TO YOU

An Address by Lord Maitreya

It has been said that love is the cohesive power of the universe, or the Law of Attraction. It is the force that draws all to it and makes for unity and singleness of purpose. It is the easiest and most natural expression of life, because only separateness makes struggle and tension. In reality, love is but the responsive cord of one spark of life recognizing itself in all that is!

A Vision of the Universe

You might liken the universe to a great circle filled with a single substance of flame, and then through the cosmic night you might see the circle cut into many parts and through pressure in the center of those parts, fly out into space. When the pressure of disintegration is removed, there is an automatic rushing back into ONENESS and UNITY of what the world has experienced as various forms of love. The more any one individual can become concentrated in the power of love, the greater is his individual part in the unifying of this particular solar system.

The cosmic note of creation has completed its work, and, removing the pressure of separateness, the cosmic note of the NEW DAY is returned to the Universal Presence to re-form the Great One. This note sounds first at inner levels and is perceived by the most sensitive parts of life before it becomes the keynote of the outer world.

Your creation might be likened to the outbreath of the body—when all living things are breathed into space—and the inbreath of the body when all are drawn home.

It is my particular province and joy to represent the awakening of that cohesive power in the hearts of man that will draw them, without exception, back into the bosom of the Eternal. The less man struggles and the more he relaxes in the great pull of love, the easier will be the return, for RETURN HE MUST, and there is not one electron in this system that will not be breathed back eventually into the heart of God.

The Cosmic and Individual Harvest

As the macrocosm, so the microcosm—and you, too, must breathe back into your being and world all the substance, all the life, and all the light that you as the individual has sent forth. This being a cosmic fiat, there is returning on the inbreath good and evil—both of which you have sent out—which will cause a tremendous pressure in the bodies of those not aware that it is but the COSMIC HARVEST, not only of the cosmos, but of humanity, as well.

It is LOVE ALONE that is drawing back into its cause all that has been, and if each student would redeem his individual creation of force around his own lifestream, which comprises his particular gifts and experiences, when he plunges back into the heart of God in what you term the ascension, then that much quicker would the cosmic plan be completed until, with the last returning soul, the final petal of the lotus will be drawn again into the heart of the Solar Logoi and the completed solar system will stand revealed as the divine plan.

Rest in the Arms of Love

This is not a period of unconsciousness or sleep, but it is a period of fulfillment of the full glory of the Cosmic Day, when each man and each electron has poured his ALL into the cup of the ONE, and all drink together from the never-ending opulence. Rest, beloved ones, in the arms of love, and let the cosmic tide of love carry you on a barque of peace—HOME, HOME, HOME—your arms laden with your experience of the centuries, shorn of the heartbreak, with but the rich meat and great life and understanding. Pour thou thy gifts upon the altar of the ONE. See gathered these other shining parts of thyself, offering their gifts to blend with thine, and so make the whole greater in glory!

When you think of Lord Maitreya, think of me as the shepherd come to carry the sheep homeward from the world of separateness into the harmony of the Elysian fields. I come always when you require LOVE, and even the vocal word itself in the poorest and most shallow soul, brings a response from MY PERSONAL PRESENCE, for LOVE is MY command, and it cannot be thought of without drawing ME in answer, and one day man shall KNOW THE REALITY OF LOVE.

YOU HAVE A PERMANENT SEAT IN EL MORYA'S TEMPLE
Letter to the Flame Class of February 18, 1961

Beloved Friends of My Heart,

I love you! All of heaven loves you! You have learned, and so well, that opening your consciousness to God's holy will does, indeed, bring you personal happiness and adds to the light of the world. As you are privileged, again, to visit the Temple of God's Holy Will, guarded by the beloved Chohan, El Morya, accept into your inner vehicles, with more than ordinary endeavor, the truth that the will of God is really GOOD.

Your gracious gentlemen sponsors, assigned to you by my son, El Morya, will assist you, as you call them into your aura, waking or sleeping, day or night. You are so familiar with the Temple of God's Will and have been so often the guest of the gracious El Morya, that it is easy for you to walk up the steps of his marble palace and through the open doors, turning to the right to the flame room, wherein, in glorious royal blue, the Flame of God's Will for men is sustained by the Brotherhood at Darjeeling.

You have now a permanent seat of honor in the flame room, upon which is written your inner name, and all through 1961, you can, through projected consciousness, take your seat of honor and listen to, absorb, cognize the holy will of God. Then, when you have absorbed enough of that essence, particularly in your feelings, carry that joyous energy back into the orbit of your own world and let that FEELING radiate out through you for the blessing of all in your vicinity. Thus you are a messenger of our Temple of God's Will, even though you speak not a word.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

HOW THE MASTER PREPARES YOU TO WORK WITH ANOTHER LIFESTREAM
An Address by the Ascended Master El Morya

Blessed ones, in the development of a positive radiation, you must work for it. Everybody likes a comfortable religion—certainly that is why the Earth is in the condition it is. Everybody likes peace, everybody wants some other being to carry them out of distress. Now here you have the razor's edge! Do you think Lord Buddha was comfortable when he got up from the couch leaving his wife, then he walked out of the palace of his father and left his son? Do you think he was comfortable when he walked the dusty roads of India with a begging bowl and had to take from door to door those few scraps that were thrown to him?

Remember Buddha

Have you ever tried to sit in the Buddha posture with nothing to sustain your spine but its own light for seven years? Have you done it for an hour? Do you think he had comfort when there was no food, no disciples, when the fiends in the astral and psychic realm presented themselves, and every test of maya blew upon his soul, and he wondered in God's name, "Why didn't I stay home?" and "Why did I not teach my people from the authority of the ruler's seat?" Do you think he was comfortable when he entered into those various realms of light and saw the perfection that was there and yet refused to stay, push in onward that soul, onward and upward, upward, upward, until he stood in the presence of eternity?

Do you think there was a sense of comfort after achieving the ultimate, the mount of attainment, the pinnacle of success, and then to RENOUNCE Nirvana and come back, back into a body that was very emaciated due to his long period of Samadhi—a body in which he had to again draw those vital forces and then walk the ways of men? What did he do? He disciplined himself as every great being who loves mankind enough has disciplined himself, but he asks no discipline of others!

THERE YOU HAVE THE KEY! To those who are going to carry this light the length and breadth of every land, the discipline of self and the giving of comfort to others! When Lord Buddha's light shown, when people touched the hem of his garment, when they felt the sweet essence of his Presence (and I know, for I was there), the heart rushed forth and said, "Oh, Lord, what may we do to become as thou art?" Then came the eight great steps, then came the teaching to those who asked, and they asked because he had the fullness of ecstasy and bliss, but HE HAD EARNED, earned it through a discipline that mankind does not see for many an age.

Think of Moses

Think you not that Moses went through a discipline? Think of that man, a man who was timid in himself, and yet was called of the Lord to take a great people across the trackless wastes and through a burning desert and across a sea over which there was no bridge, no pontoon, no possible pathway but faith! And he answered that call! He walked with men and women who spat upon him when they felt the burning heat of the desert and when they knew no water, and when they saw the surging tides of the sea, behind them the great might of the Egyptian army—and curses descended upon him. Yet he knew if he were to become discouraged at that moment, or resentful, all would be lost! There he stood with the sea before him, the Egyptian army behind him and a reluctant people that he was endeavoring to save surging around him, thousands of them! In the discipline of God, holding his attention on the Presence, he carried them across that sea on the beam of his own faith and through the desert. Then in the short span when he mounted Sinai and left them for a moment, BACK they went to the idols and the fleshpots of the Earth!

The Discipline of Holy Mary

There was discipline in that lifestream, there is discipline of the self in any great leader. Do you not think there was discipline in the life of the Holy Mother of Jesus? Seldom has a woman experienced the disciplines of that lifestream. Taken from her home before the birth of her child, bringing him forth in a strange country, wakened when she felt all was not safe and secure, and caused to cross the desert with that infant child—hoping, HOPING always that this light, this vision of the Messiah, those angel voices and those glorious beings were real! Taking that infant to the doors of Luxor, letting go that hand, remaining on the outskirts in prayer until he returned. Was it not a discipline to stand on Golgotha's hillside beneath a bleeding cross and not for once in three hours to take her attention from the very body that she had borne and the spirit of her son? Was it not a discipline on the part of that son, in the height of his youth, prime and mastery, to lay that body down!

Beloved ones, there is a discipline that is born of love in the heart, love for mankind at large, that enables some to take upon themselves certain steps which develop the inner nature—then in example, in radiant light, to become a magnet so that mankind will say, “What you are, I would be, what you have, I would like, what you desire, I would become.” Then to those men and women who ASK, put a positive and encouraging presentation of the Law. The “thou shalt not” stirs the animal in man. Take the “THOU SHALT,” thou shalt sublimate the passions of thy body to illumine the mind. Thou shalt rise above the desire of making thy body a sepulcher for the dead beast. Thou shalt take into thy body new life, new light, through the natural herb and produce—THOU SHALT—pointing out the good and showing the pathway UP is the pathway of light and not making of discipline a lash. I KNOW, for I learned the hard way.

A Trip To Meet Lord Himalaya

I was thinking about it—Kuthumi and I were laughing about it as we remembered back many centuries ago. I had been a warrior and a soldier for many ages, and I must admit I had a tremendous spiritual pride in my capacity to follow through—at all costs to God, man, anything that was in my path. Finally in the traveling of our souls through embodiment after embodiment, we came to a point where our Lord Maha Chohan began to look upon us as a possible TEAM, and I think he had the founding of the Theosophical movement in mind.

One day he called us before him and said, “Brothers, I have a little excursion for you, just a period of relaxation, for you have worked so hard on your own individual discipline that I am going to send you on a beautiful trip to find the retreat of Lord Himalaya together.” Oh! We were so happy—happy, you know, like children obeying!

We started out in Kashmir, in the vales of Kashmir, where the sea is blue. Ah children, that country is magnificent—the green slopes running down to the water, the most magnificent bird songs, the Kashmir weavers. It is a beautiful land, the land of peace, the land that belonged to my Kuthumi. We sat and talked together and planned our little trip. We thought we had better get started early because of the heavy snows in the mountains. He said, “You be in charge of the sleeping gear and the path, and I will be in charge of the food and the prayer.” We thought that would be just fine. I will never forget the morning that we left. To us it was an outing, an excursion. We had no path, you know, no one told us WHERE this retreat would be, except the compass of our hearts—but, we had the mission given to us by our Lord Maha Chohan!

Disappearance of Kuthumi

On the very first day we started out, I was well in the lead, bold and happy, heading for the first passes. I looked back and there was no Kuthumi! I sat down for a little while and practiced a meditation that I had because I was to be the compass of this trip. There was still no Kuthumi. The day was pretty nearly spent. Finally I walked back down the path, and I went with not the most patience in the world. There he was sitting, looking at a flower. I said, “Where have you been?” “Look, I want you to see the process of this flower as it is closing. I watched as it opened under the light of the sun and there is a drop of dew in the center of it.” I didn’t say a thing! And I didn’t look at the flower, either! Then I said, “When do we eat!” He was so sweet—you never knew anybody so sweet. Never was therein, all our centuries together, any impatience in that boy. I love him—LOVE HIM AS MY LIFE! I tell you this story merely to show you how life prepares you when you are going to serve in a harness with another lifestream.

Finally, I think we had some food and slept under the stars. I admit I didn’t bother with any sleeping gear. I thought, if he can look at a flower all day, he can sleep on his back and look at the sky! The last thing I saw as I went to sleep was the face of the Maha Chohan. I said to him, “Excursion! Hah! This is play time!” And I began to realize that this was no ordinary vacation. Just a ghost of a smile came in his eyes and his face faded out and I fell asleep.

The Meeting with Lord Himalaya

Next morning, Kuthumi was up before me. We were going to be all set that day, but this is the way we proceeded, dear hearts. He listened to every bird that sang, looked at every fern that grew. Every rock had something under it. Then if there was nothing on the path, he would be hearing the Music of the Spheres. Sometimes we seemed to be going backwards instead of forward, and every night as I retired, I saw the face of the Maha Chohan!

Then we got into the high country. Most of you are not familiar with the path of Tibet. In this high country one must be very alert, for the paths are narrow and the ravines are steep. I would be talking with Kuthumi perfectly at peace. He would be gone in the snow! There was no trace of him at all! I would go back and dig him out of some drifts. And do you know, he was never hurt. He never fell off—just disappeared. We finally went to a cave and I said, “Look, we will never find Himalaya unless you buckle down,” and he smiled—and he smiled—he had that beautiful smile and that exquisite golden hair, a most magnificent being. He said, “We will find him.” And we did. We found him, yes, but I couldn’t hear a word he said: Kuthumi remembered everything that happened. I couldn’t hear a thing. I think I didn’t even remember the outline of his body.

An Answer Given After 500 Years

All the way down that path and back to the Maha Chohan’s retreat, I pondered deeply. When we got home, the beloved Maha Chohan was smiling. He said, “You are both wiser men.” And WE WERE! He said, “I have a great work for you in the future—together!” I said, “No! No!” He said, “Of course, think it over.” “It is voluntary, but you would be such a marvelous complement one to the other.” And I did think it over for five hundred years!

All these experiences, dear hearts, are not lightly passed. I remember the day I returned to the Maha Chohan’s presence and I said, “I have thought it over. I shall consider it an honor, an opportunity to render what service you, great Master, think is right.”

And so we worked and served together and DO SO STILL. Yet, even now he enjoys the music of the spheres and the song of the bird. Even now the fate of nations and the discipline of the chelas is not appealing to him. We found our place, and he has found, I hope, in me a friend, and I have found in him more than a brother—I found in him the sweetness, the sweetness of the Holy Spirit that I needed so much myself.

Persevere unto the End

So it is with you, beloved ones. Life's experiences may seem trying, but one day you will stand before our Lord Maha Chohan, one day you will thank him for whatever excursion you are presently upon. PERSEVERE UNTO THE END, and in that perseverance you will have victory and great opportunity. Little did I know, as I struggled through that deep snow, of that which lay ahead in the shimmering folds of akasha as a possibility if I did not throw them over the cliff enroute. I thank God and the powers of light that I was able to persevere.

Now, much as the Maha Chohan wanted us to reach the retreat of Himalaya and receive his instruction, Himalaya did not take one step out of that retreat to meet us. Even when we climbed on the face of that last glacier—and I'm telling you it was completely smooth—he waited until we reached the APEX OF HIS CONSCIOUSNESS and then we were given the benefit of his radiation. I, unfortunately, did not receive it, but at least I made the effort and built something of endurance into myself.

Watch the Newspapers to Render Service Anywhere

You can carry your group through projected consciousness to the various points on the Earth where assistance is needed. When you hear over the radio or from your newspaper of such a requirement, have certain members of your group ready to respond at a moment's notice and through projected consciousness render the service. There is opportunity every day and the opportunities are going to become greater, if you have some selected, trained people who can be called, if necessary, at a given moment, and then through projected consciousness enter any specific theater of world crisis. It is a marvelous thing to have a trained group that knows how to release energy and are willing to give of themselves at a moment's notice, ready to project their consciousness to any point on the Earth's surface where distress may be. Get yourselves an atlas and a knowledge of geography and learn where these points on the Earth's surface are ahead of time.

Some spirits do not like restrictions, and I am one of them. How I ever got God-free, was only through the mercy of Kwan Yin and the kindness of God, himself! So I feel for you who have rebellious spirits, you who do not like change, I can feel for you. I walked that way. I had to learn the law of love and balance and submission until one day, mind, I received the honor of becoming the representative of the will of God—the greatest SURRENDER in the world, you know, the greatest surrender, for I was, I think, the greatest trial to the beloved Maha Chohan and the host of heaven. Because of that, I want to make it right THROUGH YOU and to the Earth and to the King of all Kings!

Lovely friends, when your path is hard, when your associations are trying, remember ME and know that I tell you in truth that EVERY EXPERIENCE BRINGS GOLD TO THE SOUL WHO IS WISE! And remember, always by your side I stand, reminding you that you have said you are my friend of light, and my cause becomes an EFFECT through you! For your friendship, your cooperation, your loving selves, I thank you. When I return to the Maha Chohan, I can tell him I did not frighten you unduly but that we had a happy time together, for that is the harvest I am always told to bring home.

HOW TO CENTER YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS IN THE THREEFOLD FLAME IN YOUR HEART
An Address by Lord Vulcan

A primary factor in the study of the evolution of man and the mastery to be attained by each lifestream lies in a clear presentation of the center or focal point of the individual consciousness.

The human consciousness, you have been told, is a conglomerate mass of thought and feeling and represents in essence a great cloud held together by a magnetic force within the center of that mass of moving energy. The heart center represents the intelligent thinking and feeling point of consciousness and the area from the center to the circumference is the aura of radiation of that heart center of the individual's outer personality.

The Four Lower Bodies

In studying the four lower bodies as the contributing factors to the consciousness and as the "qualifiers" of tons of God-energy, we see that the central point of consciousness is in constant motion, functioning in one or more of the four lower bodies and is like a basketball tossed by the players in the course of the game. The individual thus functions from the heart of the emotional body, or the mental, or the etheric, or the physical, moving like the pendulum of a clock from one to the other, according to the particular experience and pressure and the will of the body which tries to secure for the moment the prize.

The body which secures the center of consciousness is highly energized during the time when that focus is within it, and, therefore, the lower bodies seek and fight with each other to secure the center of the individual consciousness through fair means or foul. This is a completely fatal condition for the progress of the lifestream, because an individual whose central balance is constantly shifted to the authority of his lower bodies is a prey to his emotional outbreaks, his etheric memories, etc.

The Grail is Within the Heart

The grail provided for the focus of each lifestream's consciousness is within the heart and when the individual attains mastery he holds his consciousness within the Threefold Flame in his heart, where perfect balance rules all his outer activities and where the light ray from his Presence forms a direct line of communication, inspiration and direction, which is much more easily received from the Secret Place of the Most High. If, however, any set of circumstances can throw the consciousness to the mercy of the emotional, mental, etheric or physical bodies, the direct communication between the soul and the spirit is broken.

You have read, perhaps, and seen in pictures how a boat in distress will be circled either by a plane or a rescuing vessel, but the turbulent sea between would not allow the lifeline or the connecting link to unite the two. It is in the same manner that the Higher Self, during the times of emergency, has to throw his line of force into the battling sea of the lower bodies, hoping to catch the consciousness in its rapid progress from one to the other.

Most people are completely at the mercy of the lower bodies and find themselves functioning in an emotional frenzy or a mental battle, completely unaware that they have slipped from their moorings.

Senile people and aging lifestreams often slip into the etheric body and their consciousness remains there until their passing and thus they enjoy re-living the scenes of yesterday.

Your Open Doors

Your four lower bodies are like four rooms through which your consciousness reaches into the physical appearance world for certain defined effects:

- a) Through the emotional body it should absorb the qualities and feelings of the Presence and radiate them.
- b) Thus through the mental body the consciousness absorbs knowledge, receives instruction from the Presence, and gives it forth.

c) The etheric body should be a storehouse of all the divine memories of the past and should be used as a library;

d) and the physical body should be a vessel through which the contact could be made with the three-dimensional plane.

All these bodies, however, should be open doors through which the consciousness works, maintaining its anchorage always within the constantly flowing stream of energy in the heart.

The Purpose of Stilling Yourself

You will find upon contemplation and observing yourselves how illusive is the center of consciousness and how quickly it slips from one to the other of your bodies before you are even conscious of it. The purpose of stilling oneself is manifold, but one particular activity is to draw the consciousness back into the secret chamber of the heart and then to function from within the light ray at all times. Even the mental contemplation of this gives you a feeling of poise, mastery and detachment. You will always have a direct line of communication from headquarters, and you will not release energy unkindly because from the fountain of the sacred water of life within your heart, there can go no unkind emanation.

It is only when the heart center of consciousness energizes one or more of the lower bodies that they seize upon the creative principle and dishonor God's name by sending it forth imperfectly. If these lower bodies cannot get the heart center of your consciousness they have no independent authority, and they know this. Here you have one of the most powerful ways to mastery if you will contemplate it.

All the accumulation in your four lower bodies could not act and could be purified and consumed without struggle, IF the center of the intelligent consciousness of the outer self could be maintained in the heart of the Presence and not be allowed to be coaxed forth by any external attempt, tying it to the caprices of any one of the four lower bodies.

Being directly concerned with drawing the consciousness into the Threefold Flame in your heart, you will find your bodies straight, your sense of struggle greatly diminished, and you will have an alert, calm poise that should amaze you in your forward progress.

I thank you for this opportunity to make your acquaintance and visit with you, and I offer you, on the ever-expanding altar of your endeavors, to become the Ascended Master Consciousness, my particular service—yours for the asking.

DECREE

BELOVED PRESENCE OF GOD I AM AND ALL MANKIND, beloved Ascended Jesus, the Christ, the Elohim of Peace, beloved Tranquility, and beloved Archangel Uriel:

Draw out of the hearts and feelings of ALL MANKIND their inner desire for peace, and let it act as a balance to take away all destructive use of the atom bomb and all destructive activities, and see the Earth never again has war!

THERE SHALL BE PEACE! (3) now manifest and forever sustained!
BELOVED I AM! (3)

DEVELOP SELF-LUMINOSITY

An Address by the Ascended Master El Morya

Beloved ladies and gentlemen, members of the Great White Brotherhood, I greet you in the name of all life and light, which you have sworn to serve. This cause has been dear to my heart for many centuries and is now shared with you, but a cause is not enough—it must become an effect in order for it to be a manifest blessing to life. In the realm of causation, which it is our privilege and honor to represent, the First Realm, where the divine ideas of the universal are born, we draw from the Universal First Cause that which is known as the will of God.

To describe the will of God to the finite mind would be like describing galaxies of the heavens to a child of eighteen months. Each and every one who represents the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Great White Brotherhood, and who are the God-free members of this August Body, has taken upon himself the personal obligation and responsibility of nurturing, developing and maturing some portion of that divine will, and the causative center magnetized into their consciousness must be nourished, developed and externalized upon whatever plane is to be benefited by the expansion of God's will.

A Cause Must Have an Effect

You presently function in the physical appearance world. This physical plane is that which we are dealing with primarily in an endeavor to raise the vibratory action of the Earth and its evolutions to their God-estate. I have accepted from the Universal First Cause, this cause, which is part God's will, which was to release Sanat Kumara and every guardian spirit, every angelic being, every deva, every force of nature and every director of those beings who have voluntarily exiled themselves from their own evolution to keep a permanent place in the solar system for this planet.

Now that is very fine, it is very praiseworthy to dedicate oneself thus, but a cause is not enough. A cause must become an effect through the consciousness of beings who dwell within the realm to be benefited, and a cause becomes an effect by the clothing of the vision, the idea, the pattern, the plan within the mind of the one who holds the vision—through the energies of voluntary lifestreams stirred from their slumbers, shaken from their lethargies, and with a burning zeal and enthusiasm of their own life, putting into action those practical activities which further that cause in the world of form, in our case.

You are such people to whom I have entrusted my cause! You are today its ultimate effect! You will be tomorrow a far greater effect and in turn you become causative centers when you transfer into the consciousness of any man, woman or child, through the written word, the spoken word, or whatever medium of radiation that you have developed, to a point where it can impress the outer consciousness with something of what we are endeavoring to do in this great cosmic push!

You Will Stand Where I Stand Now

I have endeavored to draw forth a “bridge” of energy from the Ascended Masters’ Realm through which your outer consciousness might be made aware of the current endeavors of the Ascended Masters, the angelic host, the Spiritual Hierarchy and all who are working to forward God’s will with regard to your planet. This bridge of energy has been anchored into your consciousness, your mental and feeling worlds, your etheric bodies and your flesh with all the power of persuasion which each of us who have come to you can put behind the energy of our life. The capacity of your consciousness to reach out and grasp that vision and that call—the capacity of your mind to see what it would mean to have the entire human race aware of the Elder Brothers and Sisters and willing to abide within the instruction given by them—your capacity to conceive of the possibilities of that—will determine to a measure the enthusiasm and zeal of your feeling world as well as the cooperation of your flesh form in becoming ourselves incarnate.

We speak to the outer mind through the veil of maya. We speak to your hearts through feelings. We are not the first men and women who have endeavored to present a cause of merit to the lethargic consciousness of mankind, and we will not be the last. YOU will follow us! One day you will stand where I stand, in a body of electronic light, and you will have only as a BRIDGE in the world of form, the voluntary energies of some unascended, confused outer beings, who may or may not respond according to the pressure of daily life. Then alone will you realize my po-

It is only when the child is grown to become the parent he can realize the love and solicitude, the tenderness and the experience which as a child he looked upon in his own parents as foolish. As you grow to spiritual manhood and womanhood you will come to an understanding of what it is to try to reach some three and a half billions of people through a handful of earnest souls—oh, yes, earnest true, and willing.

Why The Bridge Activity Was Founded

While you were singing about forswearing Nirvana, I have often wondered at the fork of that road why I took the turn I did, and yet it is just like yourselves in the quietude and harmony of your own rooms, you wonder why you have taken upon yourselves the obligation that seems to bring so little of fruits of gratitude and thanksgiving—yet were any one of you to be given opportunity to take your hand from the plow, I think there is not one who would relinquish it— but you will plow that furrow through to the end and then the seed will be planted and the harvest will be grown because of you, the pioneers of life.

Blessed friends of life and light eternal, how can I describe to you the Earth with millions and millions of years of living upon her? You have drawn from her bosom the substance that has clothed your bodies and nourished and sustained them. You have bathed in her blue lakes and refreshed yourself by the waters of her spring. You have found new hope in the rising sun, aspiration in the fingers of the mountains pointing heavenward and peace in the green meadows. EARTH—ah, so sweet! Where you have heard the song of the birds, the voice of friendship, where you have seen the imprints in the shining sands of time of the immortal EARTH—would you, anyone, relinquish her to nothing, with all the memories, her great temples, her shining pyramids, her beautiful lakes, oceans and plains!

Ah, no, there is not one among you who would not pass through any privation to sustain another Earth in its solar system. So felt beloved Sanat Kumara, who did not even know the sweetness or the very pains that make for maturity, and so has been formed and sustained the Great White Brotherhood, and so has been formed a new endeavor to make a cause a manifest effect in the world of form.

Belief in Your Capacity

I am a persevering gentleman. I warn you of that in all our association. I believe in the capacity to follow through and when you have said you are my friend, and when you have shared my cause, I shall remind you, as often as is required, until that cause has an effect. And what is that effect? A self-luminous planet! A planet that shines like the sun at noonday, and that planet is made up of individuals whose light bodies are self-luminous even as the self-luminous body of an Ascended Being is made up of the electrons that make for that luminosity. LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE! DEVELOP SELF-LUMINOSITY and let that light then be the aura of this Earth until the Karmic Board itself may say, "It is enough. Already the Earth shines, already her song joins the Music of the Spheres, already her people have completed a task too long left undone."

TIME! Everyone wants TIME to do things. NOW! NOW let us do them, this instant! Procrastination has caused the sinking of more continents, the destroying of more Golden Ages, the delay of more victories in the eternal tomorrow. The average man does not begin to set his soul in order until he is on the brink of the grave. Procrastinating—enjoying the senses, putting off until tomorrow, which never comes, THAT WHICH CAN BE DONE TODAY! If you can be self-luminous in a hundred years, YOU CAN BE SELF-LUMINOUS NOW—NOW!

Your Center of Power

I want to speak to you upon a subject which perhaps is not clear. At the throat is the chakra center of power, as you know. Your power is released through the spoken word, and that power is drawn from your Causal Body. The Causal Body with all the colors that are within it, can be focused through the center of power in the throat and in the spoken word and decrees it can go forth to fulfillment as the individual's inner bodies come into alignment. At the moment of realization when your seven bodies are completely aligned, when your Electronic Body, your Causal Body, your Holy Christ Self, your emotional, mental, etheric and physical bodies come to that point of spiritual illumination and realization—THAT MOMENT, ONE SPOKEN WORD is all that is required for manifestation and precipitation to occur. All the power in your Causal Body flowing through that word brings manifestation. Jesus manifested that in the drawing of the precipitation through the fishes' mouth and in every fiat which he gave for healing and for resuscitation even of bodies that passed through so-called death. Then what is the purpose of repetition which is the basis of Saint Germain's activity in the decree pattern? It is based upon the fact that you have used in millions of years so much energy through the spoken word and beaten that into your emotional, mental, and etheric bodies that you have solidified qualities of a negative and destructive nature within them, such as doubt, fear, rebellion, disillusionment, etc.

The Efficacy of Your Decrees

To requalify the energy in your physical bodies and your etheric, mental and emotional bodies, you must begin to release a balance of energy which will blaze into them and shatter those patterns that you set up, mostly through the use of the spoken word and physical action. The efficacy of your decrees is not only in that which goes out into the ethers, but that which is CHARGED and CHARGED into your etheric bodies which brings a positive alignment and control of your entire consciousness in the acceptance of the affirmation of faith and positive assurance.

When you have said for centuries, “I am helpless, I am sick, I am distressed,” you have built into this etheric garment, into that which the world calls the sub-conscious, certain deep grooves of energy. You have set that body into action. It is a consciousness which has accepted that which you have decreed for yourself for millions of years. You have done the same thing with your emotional body and your mental body through the use of life. ONE AFFIRMATION FROM YOUR LIPS is not going to convince these conscious vehicles that you have completely changed your centuries of living. You are going to have to DRIVE INTO THEM A POSITIVE radiation, which will, in time, shatter and transmute the patterns of your past, and put in its place the patterns of perfection for the future.

Say to the Flood, “Stop!” And It Will Stop

The activity of the Ascended Master Saint Germain is to drive that energy into yourself, for your mental body is so little of your entire being. When all of your vehicles respond and your mental, etheric and emotional bodies will cooperate with the physical, then one day you can say, “I AM FREE,” and that moment you will be! You might have to keep on saying it for a long time before you have the full cooperation of all these vehicles. On the other hand, you may be one whose inner bodies are very positively charged and at the very first call you have a manifestation.

I don’t have to tell you in the use of the words and fiats of life whether you are having manifestations or not—YOU KNOW! If you are NOT, it is because some place back in that realm of the inner vehicles you have a momentum of doubt. There is no fooling with this law. When you come to a point of REALIZATION—THEN you are master! Then in one word you can say to the flood, “STOP!” You can say to the great earthquakes, “CEASE!” You can say to volcanic eruptions, “BE STILL!” and it will be done! But you cannot work with some of your bodies out of gear any more than you can drive your car with one wheel—you would have a very bumpy trip, I assure you.

ALLOW THE RESURRECTION FLAME TO FLOW THROUGH YOU

Letter to the Flame Class of March 18, 1961

Beloved Ones Seeking to Become a Healing Presence, I love you. All of heaven's sons love you. As the gracious Mary, mother of Jesus, opens the Ascended Master retreat, guarded, guided and protected by her cosmic court and her beloved son, Jesus, avail yourselves of daily visitation (through projected consciousness) with both Mary and Jesus, and feel the Resurrection Flame resuscitate all the good which is in your individual lifestreams as well as the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of your own Causal Bodies. Allow that Resurrection Flame to flow through you. As you are now qualified to enter into the inner corridor (there are seven such circular temples surrounding the Resurrection Flame), you shall FEEL THE HOPE, BUOYANCY, VITALITY, AND RESUSCITATING POWER THERE.

The Lady Master sponsors assigned to you for this thirty-day period (March 15 through April 14, 1961) will be so delighted for your helpful assistance in accepting their reality and allowing them to bring you safely to this retreat as well as returning you, in safety, to your own homes. I shall, of course, be there to meet you.

This Transmission Flame Class was instigated by my humble self and is so sustained by me. I do thank the Lords of Karma, for they, looking upon your very enthusiastic and successful endeavors, have allowed us to continue in this monthly communal service, when the breath of the human and divine beings blend to carry the blessings of each Ascended Master foci around the world. Thus, I join with you in spreading the knowledge, feeling and hope of resurrection of all that is good at this time.

Love and blessings,
Maha Chohan

THE KEY TO CONTROL YOUR SURROUNDINGS AND ATTAIN YOUR PURPOSE

An Address by Beloved Ascended Master Jesus

The Ashram

December 30th, 1960

Hail, thou, come into my presence! I salute the Christ arisen within your hearts, and as you have honored my birth date and as you have honored my mother, so I honor that flaming Presence which is alive within you, expecting and invoking that Presence within you to COME FORTH and render through you those services which I rendered ages ago, and which have been glamorized by the myths of the past and yet which are a challenge to each and every one of you of this day. For every word which I have spoken which has been recorded is truth, and I have said, "The things which I have done, ye shall do—and greater things." Where are "these greater things?" COME YE FORTH THIS DAY OF LIBERATION and render at least those services which are the powers of instantaneous healing and sustained harmony and the God-gifts of your divine nature.

You Have A Cosmic Name

Through the kindness of Almighty God, you have had intercession with the divine beings from the realms of light throughout this embodiment and embodiments which have gone before. You have been with me on Earth, and you have been with me between embodiments and you know that although I am honored as being the gentle shepherd, I, too, have the fire and authority to command energy to ACT in a perfect manner! Such energy I request now!

What is the purpose of your being? To control the energy which is loaned to you by God, to qualify it and to send it forth through all of your lower vehicles and then to utilize and project God-energy with the constructive quality required through the authority of myself and your own I AM Presence to bring perfection where imperfection has been! I had told the disciples centuries ago, "Whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, it shall be done unto you." I repeat that again, again and again!

What You Are Required To Do5

You, too, have a cosmic name, a cosmic mission, a cosmic purpose of accomplishment, and that is in the efficacy of learning the control of the vibratory action of God-energy or God-life. Think you that if we who were among those drawn forth in Galilee to render that service had not control of all of the energies of those around us, those who sought to destroy the plan of perfection, those who desired, through temptations which you will never meet, to stir the energies of my feeling world or my thoughts, my etheric consciousness or my flesh form.

You are required to do as much. If you are constantly bombarded by, and you will be if you so allow it, not only tramp thoughts and feelings, words and actions, but projected ones, and you have not A POSITIVE AURA which moves more rapidly than that which is directed toward you, IT SHALL BECOME A PART OF YOU, because like becomes like. Which do you wish to be—a God or a Goddess, or again after ages, a human being bent with the frailties which come through the acceptance of human nature?

I assume in your hearts that you desire to rise above the vibratory action of imperfection and live in a realm, even while yet unascended, where you are the master control of all energy in, through and around you. Then you have builded for the hour when you require it, that energy you can direct to any person, place, condition or thing which desires or requires assistance.

How I Stilled the Waters

When the fishermen in the boat were sore distressed because of the raging sea, where did I receive the power which stilled the waters? Because I had through the assistance of both my mother and father, and Lord Maitreya, been taught from childhood to magnetize peace, and that peace became a great reservoir, and so I said to the waters, "Peace be still." And naturally they responded, because there was more energy already drawn around me qualified with God-peace than all of the turbulence of the Sea of Galilee.

Mechanical and scientific in the extreme is the Law! Whatever power has the most energy in your own world is the power which will act in emergency, particularly. Build, each one of you, those virtues and qualities so that if it is required of you, anyone, to bring peace or healing or resuscitation, you have already more energy than the imperfect appearance.

The Resuscitation Of Lazarus

If I had dwelt upon the passing of my own father and all of those other blessed ones whom I had known, I should not have had the stockpile of God-qualified energy of life eternal, which was more powerful than the moaning, crying, curiosity, skepticism and various other qualities of energy in the group, as well as the lethargy of Lazarus. So, INVOKING all that gathered power and momentum of LIFE EVERLASTING and directing it into the heart of his lifestream to render a service, that energy was more powerful than those other qualities of an imperfect nature acting through the people. Lazarus responded and came forth.

Everything in this world, on any plane, even in the Ascended Masters' Realm, in the realm of divinity, is qualified either by GOD-POSITIVE ENERGY, or by creations—positive or otherwise—of imperfection, through the misuse of free will.

Now you have started upon the pathway home into the heart of God, the very first pebble upon your pathway may stub your toe a bit, yet as you draw of that self-mastery in, through and around you, your own light blazing forth through you will be enough to remove a boulder or a mountain.

What is an "Avatar?"

I was a man who came to Earth for a purpose, voluntarily. I chose to show mankind in a time of great darkness what God's destiny for each and every one of them was to be. Through misinterpretation of the Law, unfortunately, I was set apart as the "only begotten son." I came to bring the example of eternal life, overcoming through the assistance of Divine Beings, a very unpleasant experience called death, then had to convince my disciples that I lived and moved among them resurrected, no human power able to touch the God-qualified energies of my own lifestream.

All of these things I had done because the world requires every now and again the coming of a perfect one, one who can fulfill the purpose and represent on the Earth our Heavenly Father. They call such a one, “an Avatar.” You will have, of course, the coming of a perfect being representing my beloved brother, the Ascended Master Saint Germain. But, in the interim, under the dispensation of the Cosmic Law, it would be a marvelous thing to have rise up among you your own Godliness to a point where your energies are constantly, and consciously, devoted to one purpose—learning to build in the silence the reservoir of every God-gift and virtue, and utilizing it as the requirement demands!

Be Honest With Yourself!

Now I am, with beloved Kuthumi, serving in the capacity of World Teacher, and I will say to you who are not yet without sin, be honest, as honest as you would have to be in the presence of beloved El Morya, as you will have to be as you stand before the Karmic Board. BE HONEST with yourselves as to that quality or those virtues which are your “weak” points and develop them.

It is easy to love those who love you, but you must learn to love those who perhaps have disturbed you. No one could have passed through that initiation of the crucifixion without knowing what it is to hold control and mastery throughout every type of ridicule—physical, mental, etheric and emotional—and at the end of that period pass the final test, remaining on that cross and then, with the help of the Lord of Life, the Holy Spirit, himself, coming forth and remaining to ANCHOR the disciples in the power of light before I went back to my Father and yours.

Have you been whipped in public, with a crown of thorns pressed into your brow? Have you had your garments rent? No! Those things which happened to you in this embodiment are very slight as to those experiences through which I, voluntarily, passed to show that the Son of God was the master of the energy of his world. Thus I was able to stand before Pilate, himself, and when he said unto me, “Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?” And I answered him never a word, for he had no power over my life or my departure, and no human being has power over your life and your departure, except your own I AM Presence, Holy Christ Flame and your divine sponsor.

Accept that not only for yourself but as I speak it into the ethers, I speak of LIFE ETERNAL through the controlled energy and power of one who has experienced every type of energy which was less than perfection catapulted at him, and who has come forth VICTORIOUS! What one has done, many shall do!

We are late, beloved ones! Late, by thousands of years. The next Avatar was due long since, yet came he not because of the recalcitrance of the human race and her attendant evolutions.

Now in the great Tetons there are gathered together around the Hierarchs, beloved Lanto and Confucius, many shining beings from the hearts of Alpha and Omega and all the Suns of the system. The Great Karmic Board is already in session—the beloved Lady Portia, Kwan Yin and the others. Mankind has opportunity unparalleled to walk and talk with the Master of their choice, and you have opportunity TO BECOME GOD IN ACTION! When I say that affirmation, it was oftentimes required to release power through the spoken word to “shatter” the creations of imperfection, but in wisdom’s way oftentimes the service can be rendered in the silence.

The Moment is NOW!

Those of you who have loved me thousands of years, thought a good deal about me this Holy Season, are definitely connected with my world experience. PREPARE YOU TO BECOME AND TO REMAIN A GOD-EXPRESSION, ABLE TO USE THAT GOD-LIFE AS OF NOW. The moment is NOW! I was not told beforehand about any of the experiences from my baptism in the Jordan, on. I had no written scroll, saying on such and such date the Holy Spirit shall descend, on such and such date you will heal, on such and such date, you will raise so-and-so. No! But I used my life magnetizing that God-power and then as each experience came, I had already the qualified energy and through the power of the God acting through me, I was able to render the assistance. Thus I was not taken unawares. If you have to have a calendar, to advise you when you shall be called, don’t expect it, but expect through our words that we shall require assistance of unascended beings AT ANY MOMENT! NOW, SLEEP NOT LONGER BUT LIVE, AND IN LIVING, MAKE BEAUTY A PART OF YOUR BEINGS.

YOU CAN RESURRECT THE GOOD IN YOU!

An Easter Address delivered by Beloved Mother Mary

Dear, beloved and blessed children of God who walk the ways of Earth, as I once long ago did, it is my privilege and honor while the orthodox religions are placing ashes and dust upon the heads of the faithful reminding them that they are "nothing," to come to you and remind you again, again and again that you are "something!" You are the Christ, even as our beloved Jesus, developing your God-powers for the blessing of mankind right here and now on this earth plane where there is so much distress of every kind and description.

Dwell On The Resurrection, Not The Crucifixion

I have loved that Christ within your hearts, creating for you the beautiful bodies into which you were born, not only in this embodiment, remember, but through all the embodiments you have had since I have taken over the role of Cosmic Mother, and I love you still with a mother's love. Therefore, it is suggested as a portion of my message today to remind you during this season that is supposed to be dedicated to the sorrows and disciplines of my son's life leading to the crucifixion on Golgotha, and all orthodox individuals choose to dwell on the crucified Christ—and that image we are endeavoring to remove through the beauty of the Christian Dispensation and all of its many avenues of expression by the Ascended Christ. I say to you let this Lenten Season be a season of anticipation of a resurrection and anticipation of an ascension when your service in this world of form is completed. The acts of grief and sadness that accompany the activities of the people of the orthodox religions are entirely AGAINST THE NATURAL LAW which is the growing buoyancy and anticipation of resurrection on Easter Morn and the ascension of beloved Jesus, which ascension is also offered to you, let us remember this, beloved ones.

We are a happy, joyous, buoyant, enthusiastic Brotherhood and Sisterhood, and it is only the veil of time and the careful coloration of our original teachings from Jesus and myself and the early disciples, who have glorified the "crucified" Christ rather than the living, breathing presence of Jesus as the example for each of you towards which goal he intended to lead you two thousand years ago!

Awaken to the Message of Easter

Beloved ones, AWAKEN to the MESSAGE OF EASTER as a message of Easter to your own hearts, as a message of the resurrection of the good God in you, vitalizing the vehicles that you wear so that you may walk among the sons of men and be at all times their example, and then, having completed your mission, accept your ascension into the light, becoming a Divine Being who has no longer requirement of embodying here on this Earth.

You have been told again, again and again how the elementals mirror whatever they see, and in my temple where I teach the elementals which form the first bloom of the springtime, we have had many experiences where the blessed little elementals would either mirror myself or any of the teachers rather than learning the Law of drawing into themselves the actual pattern of the flower, shrub, tree, whatever the harvest should be, sustaining it and externalizing it against the law of resistance and all of the riptides of human creation here on Earth, to make of the Earth, the Spring, a crown of glory on the face of what has seemingly been a barren and lifeless nature kingdom.

I say humankind are likewise mirrors. You mirror each other, you mirror your associates, you even mirror yourselves from past embodiments, and until the day and hour comes when you decide and consciously remove from your world that acceptance of mirroring the mass consciousness of old age, disintegration, decay, death and all of its ramifications and allow the Holy Christ Self within you to do, as it did within Jesus, the so-called miracles. Until you are self-luminous, you are not fully God-free.

Mirroring Inharmonious Surroundings

There are God free people who are unascended but they are strong enough to refuse to mirror and accept the mass concepts of their contemporaries and of the reports, televised and otherwise, and these God free individuals allow the babe of Christ, the Holy Christ Flame within the heart, FREEDOM TO ACT. Suppose that I had chosen to endeavor to hold back the actual birth of my son. It was not at that time or place, the most comfortable experience to go through. Suppose I had mirrored the surroundings, discord, the laughing of the inn-keepers, the very humble stable in which no son of God should have been born—suppose I had done so. I would have destroyed the perfect divine pattern and plan and also impinged on the beautiful perfect physical vehicle of Jesus that willfulness. But I allowed the tide of the cosmic moment to carry me forward until he was delivered—beautiful beyond compare!

Allowing Your Christ Self to Act

ARE YOU ALLOWING THE CHRIST WITHIN YOUR HEARTS TO ACT, or are you holding it so tight within the confines of your emotional insecurity, your mental concepts, your etheric memories and your reasoning powers THAT GOD ALMIGHTY THOUGH YOU, THIS DAY, IS NOT ALLOWED BIRTH IN THIS COSMIC HOUR! Think about this. Whether you are a man or a woman—it is you who through free will allow the “Second Birth,” the expansion of the living Christ through you. Or do you hobble along to your grave, having done good BUT NOT ENOUGH!

We have talked now for many years about loosing the power of God to act through you. I, myself, time and again have told you that the very arms you use can be the arms of the Holy Christ Self, that every step you take, every action, every spoken word can be either the personality or the expansion of the Holy Christ Self. WHAT, in God’s name, IS THE HO-LY CHRIST SELF DOING MUMMIFIED IN STUDENTS who have such knowledge of this Law locked up century after century, each individual awaiting someone else's accomplishment to externalize the perfection, the healing, the peace, the purity or whatever the quality may be?

Love is the Greatest Power in the Universe

Oh, yes, I can be powerful, beloved ones! It is not my full nature—my nature is the nature of love, but love IS POWERFUL, one of the greatest powers in the universe and the loving mother is powerful in her protection of her children. The lethargic mother allows the child to grow in lax ways, drifting through life without purpose, and doing more harm than good to that individual. Oh surely, I loved beloved Jesus, but HE WAS RAISED UNDER STRICT DISCIPLINE, the same as I, myself, was, else he would have rushed off into some unknown place when the great tests of life came.

Suppose I, knowing as I did of his future, had coddled him through his early years and shielded him from the world and all of its many manifestations of evil, and then when his call came, he had to look upon the leprous and the blind and the insane, do you think the strength in his own lifestream then would have enabled him to VICTORIOUSLY use the power of Christ and his Father in heaven to render those miracles? NO! He would have been among all those ascetics that were in the hills! It takes strength to love, and wisdom to love and constancy to love in the divine way.

Why Was Lazarus Resurrected?

As I raised Jesus, so I have endeavored to help to raise the consciousness of every blessed and sincere student but the peoples of Earth consider me a rather ephemeral delicate flower that grew in Judea. Ladies and gentlemen, it took all of the powers of all the lives that I had lived—all of the power of the Archangels, all the power of Lord Maitreya, all of the power of your beloved Saint Germain as Joseph, to help me live that one life alone, and it has taken and is taking, all the power of my lifestream at this time to try and awaken the outer mind of the students to the eternal verity that CHRIST WITHIN THEM IS NOT TO BE ENTOMBED but allowed to flow forth freely! Then you will not be caught unawares.

In the preparatory process of the age that I passed through, I was prepared, through the very careful training of Jesus, he was prepared. He could stand by the tomb of Lazarus where the laughing throng scorned him and the weeping family disbelieved, and say with all the power of his immortal divine Father, “LAZARUS, COME FORTH!” And death yielded up the soul of Lazarus and he came forth!

Would you attempt that now? Why? Because you have not builded the momentum yet through your own self-conscious being to a point where even in small matters, wherein you are tempted through the outer personality to perform even a menial service, to become STILL and then say, “Beloved Holy Christ Self in me, THROUGH ME ACT, NOW!” Then have the patience to keep the mouth still, the feelings at peace, the mind from whirling about what you are going to do if Christ does not act through you. Then, when you feel that Christ Power flow, you will KNOW whereof I speak.

HOW TO REND THE VEIL OF MAYA

An Easter Address Delivered by Beloved Ascended Master Jesus

To be a wayshower among people is to be a living and breathing example of the Law which you affirm! This was the instruction that was given to me before I took embodiment and required the concentration of my lifestream through the entire course of that embodiment to become the Law which I affirmed. During the early years when I passed through the initiations at Luxor and was able to use the power of resuscitation and draw life, even as a child, I did continually and constantly make application, as did my mother, so that during the time of the maturity of my mission, I would remember and be able to do in the presence of the unbelieving that which I could do with comparative ease in the presence of the individuals who had already experienced resurrection and who had experienced the activities of resuscitation within the Temple at Luxor.

Practicing the Power of Resurrection

So when I speak to you who live in the world, you who go to business, you whose activities are mingled partly spiritual and partly material, I know that you have the pressure of the outer world and the mass mind, as well as the divine inspiration that you receive within your holy sanctuary and within the secret times when your hearts and minds are turned toward us! Once again I say, that Infinite power beating your hearts, that infinite power which is the CHRIST ever-expanding from within your worlds IS MORE POWERFUL than all human appearances—if you can but believe it to be so! I know that with your minds you want to believe, with your souls you want to believe, but there is yet so much within the etheric body, so many memories to be erased that there is yet resistance to the full acceptance of your own divine power to manifest through you this very hour, to use, to heal, and to set life free!

Think you not after I started upon my public ministry that the tempter did not put the question before me often, “Shall you be able to follow through with that which you have invoked for the blessing, healing and benediction of a soul in distress?” I had to put that tempter aside, relying upon the Christ power and holding against the appearance world that realization of the all-power of divinity through me to make things right, and holding your flame steady you can let that Christ-Light qualified with healing, with peace, with purity, with balance, qualified with any God-gift flow forth for the blessing and upliftment of those with whom you come in contact.

Centuries Of Training

That which I did, was done after many, many centuries of training, true, but you also have had many, many centuries of training! Most of you have been great powers of light in Lemurian Ages and Atlantean Ages, in the days of the Buddha. In my own day you were great magnetizing centers—through your own hearts beat the gift of the Holy Spirit, and the gift of divine light. That power and momentum is within you, dormant though it may seem to be for the time being, but it is being re-vivified as we continue to turn your outer mind and attention to the fact that you did have and do have a magnificent heritage which comes to you of God in the fact that you are individually created in his image and likeness. You are individually surrounded by substance which is His living body, and that substance is obedient because God the Father and Mother of creation have told that substance to obey you! That substance waits to be molded into form according to your thought, your feeling, your spoken word and your action.

At One With the Father

Therefore, you are NOW the sons and daughters of the Most High! You are NOW clothed in the power of the Most High Living God! You are NOW at one with the Father. You are NOW embodying and radiating the gifts of the Father which he, in turn, entrusted to you to bring to this planet Earth and you at one time, even like unto myself, knelt before him and said that you would bring those gifts to the peoples of Earth.

Those gifts are the virtues, the virtues of grace and healing, of forgiveness and peace, of opulence and understanding. We could describe them without number but those mighty and magnificent gifts are LOANED, shall we say, to each one of you as a gift of Lord Maitreya as the magnificent cloak of the Christ was given to me, in order to manifest the perfection of divinity here in this world of form. Lord Maitreya gave to me the cosmic cloak of his own gathered momentum and that coupled with my own enabled me to render certain services that seemed miraculous but are only the use of the natural law!

What The Human Veil Is

Although my embodiment came and I attained that mastery and left that example and though others have come with great light, yet while there are unascended beings who are using the creative centers of thought and feeling to move this beautiful light in a discordant manner, they set up a riptide of various qualities of anger and distress, and that is all that the human veil is! It is agitation of electronic energy which the thought and feeling centers of mankind, as well as the spoken word and the activities of the physical vehicles have spewed forth, and where there are a few to hold the peace, there are millions who cannot yet hold that peace for themselves.

As we anchor more and more of God-poise and God-peace through your own flames and that expands out and begins to STILL the energies of which I have spoken (which is the veil of maya), when they are still enough, there is no veil! It is just beautiful electronic light and the here and there are just one. Every person who has been raised in contemplation, who has come to a point of peace, who has come to a place of one-pointed concentration of mind, who has been humble and selfless in service, has reached that point of passing through the veil for a moment and some have had the glory of seeing the Presence and the angelic host and the various members of their kingdom. It is the great test to bring back that peace and benediction which you receive in such moments of upliftment and give of that gift without losing its virtue yourself but letting it flow forth from you.

Cultivate the Habit of Peace

When there are all over the planet enough lifestreams to hold the energy harmonized over and in and around these great cities, it is exactly like oil on troubled waters and will have the effect of placid lakes instead of those turbulent seas. These great lakes of energy will be magnetized and sustained by the trained students, and as they increase, they will have the same effects as the electrons as they expand and meet electrons—these lakes of peace will grow until the turbulent sea has been entirely stilled and then you have a planetary atmosphere of cosmic peace through which no discord can longer exist.

We live to create this kingdom of heaven on Earth, and we can create it only by establishing individual, collective and then planetary peace upon the surface of the Earth. In the atmosphere around the Earth there is this turbulent moving energy of which I speak, and yet in the midst of all that—ONE LIFE- STREAM, turning his attention toward God or myself or any Divine Being, can draw back enough PEACE to hold the balance for a community, city, state, or a nation! Believe me—I KNOW!

I have seen my mother draw that peace and sustain it after my ascension, when she performed that wonderful service of magnetizing the currents of light from my own ascended body, into the new Christian Order. I have seen her hold that peace. Now we offer, I offer you, she offers you, the great Lord Gautama offers you our power to HOLD THE PEACE in the small things and then when the greater things come, your momentum is gained, your pattern is set, you have a habit of holding the peace. A habit is only the repetition over and over of certain activities until a momentum is builded.

Is it not time to build now a cosmic divine habit of the Perfected Ones, rather than to continue in the habits of the human? Let us put on this morning while we are gathered together the divine habit and become truly men and women in divine order, bringing peace unto this Earth. Let us make our habit more than just a garment to cover the physical form—let us make this habit an activity of our nature wherein it was first designed, the divine habit of bringing peace, the divine habit of speaking words of a constructive nature, the divine habit of seeing perfection, the divine habit of refusing to enter into discord. Most every human being creates habits of a human nature, now I challenge you this Eastern Morn to consciously create the habit of divinity!

In the name of the beloved and blessed presence of God who created you, in the name of my own beloved mother, holy Mary, in the name of life and light eternal, I do bless you, asking that you feel that resurrective power which I have brought, and that it be for you eternally sustained, all-powerfully active and ever-expanding so that any instant when you feel the requirement for more than the momentum you have already drawn forth of God's grace and peace! God bless you, beloved ones!

LEARN TO LOVE BELOVED SERAPIS BEY
Letter to the Flame Class of April 15th, 1961, by the Maha Chohan

Beloved of My Heart,

I love you! All of heaven loves you. We are so extremely grateful to you, each earnest and sincere chela, for desiring the ascension for yourselves, your loved ones, every living thing, and the dear Earth, herself.

We open wide the doors at Luxor, where you may witness the actual crystalline Ascension Flame, carried—with no small endeavor upon our parts—from Poseidonis to Luxor. Into this Ascension Flame has carefully been gathered and guarded every prayer, aspiration and hope of the evolutions of Earth, all ascending and creating constantly a wider “open door” through which you, too, will one day, in dignity, ascend.

I have provided for your specific instruction at Luxor, and in your personal orbits at home or wheresoever you are, gentlemen sponsors trained at Luxor, and who have the buoyancy and happiness known only at the time of the ascension. Meet me there!

Learn to love beloved Serapis as all of the Divine Beings do. Look upon the Ascension Flame and know your own prayers, hopes and aspirations are there as well as the joy of those who have achieved their victory in its upreaching surging tide of light eternal, toward HOME, the Father's home, wherein you shall have full freedom to act in a way of service predominantly that of your own free-will choice.

BLASTING CAUSED THE SINKING OF LEMURIA

An Address by Beloved Ascended Master Serapis Bey

Friends of this planet Earth! Friends of great light! Not so long ago you chose individually to apply to the Karmic Board for the opportunity to take embodiment and to seize the opportunity that earth-life would give you in order to weave for yourselves the immortal robe and the purified soul which would require no further contact with the Earth, and which would give to you the glory of the freedom from the wheel of re-embodiment.

At that time, I was responsible for sponsoring your lifestreams. Having carefully looked upon the momentums of light in your Causal Bodies, having considered your potential strength and weaknesses, having looked upon the pattern of Earth-life into which your lifestream would be woven, should you embody. I stood sponsor for you, individually and collectively, with a sincere, deep heart-call and prayer that when opportunity disguised in the folds of maya in the world of form should present to you, either through spoken word or written word, through chance meeting or prepared meeting, the way and means by which you could sublimate the energies belonging to your own lifestreams, and sublimate that portion of the planet's energies that you volunteered to set free, that you might accept and with dignity, dexterity and enthusiasm become a co-worker with the Spiritual Hierarchy while yet unascended. This you have done!

Cooperate With Joy – Not as a Duty

Beloved ones, people think lightly of that which they cannot see. YET THAT WHICH YOU CANNOT SEE IN THE PHYSICAL APPEARANCE WORLD FORMS OVER NINETY-FOUR PERCENT OF THE PRESSURES OF BOTH GOOD AND EVIL. Those of you who can joyously become part of that cleansing and purifying activity, those of you who can lend your energies willingly to it are blessed indeed!

Happy energy is beautiful! In happy energy you can accomplish in a much shorter time that which is done with great tension and too great a sanctimonious consciousness because that closes off the natural flow of life, and that which should be done as a joy, when done as a duty, is poorly done at best!

We are going to discuss the activities of INVOCATION. To do this I must take you back to the continent of Lemuria in order that you may understand and watch in your teaching of others, to keep individuals upon the constructive path in their application and in the instruction which will later reach the masses.

From the first creation of individualized consciousness, vibration increased. The great Godhead, the angels, the seraphic host, the cherubim, all powers of light that have a thinking and feeling center, were contributing vibration into the universe. Each individualized I AM Presence when it was given a thinking and feeling center and first realized “I AM,” increased the vibratory action of that great kingdom. That was in harmony. I might explain it thus: A man playing on the piano gives forth a certain vibration. You join a group together and have a symphony. You increase that vibration but it is still in perfect harmony. In the creation of the individualized Presence, of which each of you is an externalization, the vibration of the inner realms was increased. The responsibility for the quality of vibration rested within that individualization, just as the quality, harmony and beauty of the musical score rests within the individual who belongs to and is part of the symphony. That should be simple to see.

Passing Through the Seven Spheres

With individualization was given energy, with energy came the thought and feeling centers, and vibrations immediately began to flow out from that Presence. Free will allowed each individualization to use that energy according to its own design to add to the music of the spheres.

Thus embodiment took place for some time—a voluntary thing again. We have described that in detail, so I shall not repeat. As the individual Presences passed through the Seven Spheres, many, many chose to remain within each one of them, being attracted to the light of Lord Michael, to the lovely illumination of Jophiel, to the love of Chamuel, to the strength and purity of Gabriel, to the consecrated benediction of Raphael, to the ministration of Uriel, to the invocative powers of Zadkiel. They never took form in the physical appearance world. They work through the Seven Spheres and form part of the host of heaven of which orthodox channels sing at the Holy Season, and they never tasted of light and shadow.

Some decided within themselves to take embodiment upon this Earth. That has also been described to you, and I shall not go into it except to the main points of the story to give you the understanding of the powers of application which I want to impress in your hearts and which you in turn as the shepherds of the race can impress into the hearts of others.

The First Golden Ages

The first Golden Ages were referred to as the Garden of Eden, and no lifestream used energy to create a discordant vibration—and the Earth was as harmonious as heaven. Each one was part of the great symphony, and each one was in complete obedience in the rhythmic radiation from his own Holy Christ Self and Presence—each one's inner bodies in perfect harmony. The fragrance of each one's own light was the natural aura and mantle of light around the form, the powers of precipitation giving the substance, the clothing, the food, everything that was required, because there was no vibration of disharmony. There was no static in the atmosphere and the angelic host, the Ascended Masters, the cherubim, the seraphim, the devas walked with mankind. There was not the haze which is caused when vibration is set into motion in discord and dissonance.

The first two ages completed their fourteen-thousand-year cycle, and Earth never knew discord at all. In the great crisis when the Earth council and the beings upon it decided among themselves that the people of Earth and the guardian spirits were strong enough to help to sublimate the dissonance and discord of certain planetary orphans, we come to the time when the vibratory action of the Earth changed.

The Laggards

You have some little idea of the powers of contagion in those souls you have spoken loosely of as laggards, who came from other systems. Who were they? They were CONSCIOUSNESS, just like yourselves—consciousness who had not maintained a vibratory action of perfect harmony, beauty, purity and perfection and therefore could not, or would not, accelerate the vibratory action of their inner vehicles to move forward with the planets to which they belonged.

It took a great deal of time and a great deal of thought before the guardians of the planet Earth offered this gift of mercy. The priests and priestesses of Lemuria were gathered together after the Cosmic Law made the decision, and for many, many years before the Lords of Karma would allow the first lifestreams through the gates of birth, the priests and priestesses within the temple, schooled in the powers of invocation and radiation under the mighty Zadkiel, made the call for the purification of the soul light of these lifestreams and for the amplification of the pressure of light from within the embodied mankind and the Earth people so that they could withstand the subtle suggestions of every kind.

The Priesthood Of Lemuria

The priesthood on Lemuria was a magnificent activity. These individuals, most of you among them, had learned how through the powers of magnetization to draw every blessing from the Sun and from every God-virtue to form a radiant sun through their temples and send that out into the atmosphere, qualified with whatever the priesthood itself had consecrated themselves to externalize. This priesthood, radiating and externalizing these pressures of light, increased the harmony, beauty and perfection of the Earth and made the atmosphere even more luminous, and the spiritual selves of men were more nourished by the reason of these foci. They were what you would call master of this “darsham,” which is merely, in Western parlance, the capacity of the soul to rise into contact with the Presence, draw the light from the Causal Body consciously back through the emotional, mental, etheric and physical bodies, and keep a positive radiation of some constructive quality, and master of all energy that is contacted by the individual. An individual who is the master of this activity of darsham is never subject to the vibratory actions of distress.

The Veil of Maya

These priests and priestesses, belonging to the House of Zadkiel, rendered this service, and the Earth was progressing very, very rapidly. The root races and the subraces completed their courses quickly in this outpouring of magnetized light. When the souls who had within themselves the germ of disintegration, the capacity through thought and feeling to create discord, when they took embodiment and reached enough maturity to control the consciousness, they began to let that out in thought and feeling, and it filled the invisible atmosphere. Some among mankind who had come into a false sense of security through the radiation of the priests and priestesses, began to rely upon them, and they began to absorb through contagion some of the thoughtforms and feelings, and playing in secret with them, they too began to create them.

Eventually, as a result of that, there was externalized much of distress, and the veil of maya began to cloud the light and the Great Ones were no longer visible to the masses but only to the priests.

Here you have the first great split in the priesthood and it is the reason for which I am bringing this to your attention. At the time when the priesthood began to realize that the masses were creating and sending forth those qualities of impurity and dissonance, there came a school of thought to the foreground that had agreed with reluctance to allowing the laggards from the other systems into our planetary scheme and who now felt justified in objecting to the pollution of the race by allowing them to remain.

Why it is Wrong to Blast

These beings were well schooled in the powers of invocation—and there you began those fiats and decrees that have come down to your present day—when they stood separated from the school that believed in sublimation and transmutation, and within the secret recesses of their own temples decided to BLAST THEM ALL FROM THE EARTH! What purpose would there be in blasting these lifestreams off the Earth into the discarnate realm, where they would have to stand before the Karmic Board and as soon as possible be placed back on the Earth? It was a rebellion against the decision of Cosmic Law. If the Law and the Powers of Light felt that the priesthood and the illumined COULD sublimate, and by radiation redeem those recalcitrant members, if the priesthood had remained ONE, the sinking of Lemuria WOULD NOT HAVE TAKEN PLACE! Think about that!

Beloved ones, it follows the same course—you take a wild animal, a hungry tiger and lock his retreat, and then you drive and drive and drive energy at him—what results? You are going to have a killer! DRIVING AND BINDING DISCORD BACK INTO THE SOUL IS NEVER THE WAY TO GOD. It is not the way of sublimation. That soul is sick in the first place, or otherwise it would not create the disharmony and discord, and that soul must be raised by constructive, purifying activities and redeemed. THAT IS THE LAW OF LIFE!

The Two Factions of the Priesthood

With the breaking of the priesthood into the two factions, the masses followed one or the other, and confusion ensued and the final release of the purifying powers of the water element became necessary. Those of you who participated on the side that thought you knew more than God, some of you have balanced that karma. When you draw great power, when you come to handle masses of people who are hysterical, you will find in the etheric bodies of some the consciousness that it is better to remove the physical form than to save the soul!

After Lemuria, then Atlantis and again the priesthood, the same individuals, for the priesthood has always been made up more or less of the few. On Atlantis, again there was great light—I was there—great beauty, great perfection, and hope for a permanent Golden Age through which every root race and subrace yet to come, would quickly find their way back home. And again the misuse of the powers of light, and again cataclysmic action. The flame that I carried to Egypt, burning there as the power of the ascension, that very flame brought Egypt to her greatest height, and yet within Egypt, no more corrupt priesthood has ever been!

The True Priesthood

Now in the name of great Zadkiel, the Archangel, in the name of the Ascension Flame, in the name of Saint Germain, Lord and King of the New Era of Freedom, I COMMAND by the power of light, that those who serve the cause of good, those who are the guardian spirits of light, those who are progressing in learning again the powers of invocation, may be CHARGED and CHARGED and CHARGED with a balance and wisdom of love that they sublimate and transmute all that they see, and that never again does Zadkiel's Legions train a group of unascended beings and find them split by the result of misunderstandings and etheric records of the past. This shall not be! UNITY, LOVE, WISDOM AND POWER are going together with ONE PURPOSE—to ascend life, to ascend life, to ascend life—through sublimation and transmutation into its own God-intent.

THIS IS THE TRUE PRIESTHOOD established under Alpha and Omega and followed by every avatar, saint and power through every system of worlds down on to this Earth! Let me remind you to remember my words! THE TRUE PRIESTHOOD WEARS ROBES OF LOVE! The TRUE PRIESTHOOD SUBLIMATES ERROR! THE TRUE PRIESTHOOD IN LOVE OF GOD, LOVES EVERY CHARGE PLACED IN ITS HANDS AND LOVES THAT GREAT LIGHT FREE!

IT IS EASY TO RISE INTO THE "UPPER CHAMBER"

An Address by Beloved Mother Mary

The Ashram

December 29, 1960

Hail thou, the anointed of the Lord, come into my presence as I come into your presence, and bring to you that anointing from the realms above, which is a sustained grace in, through and around your blessed lifestreams and becomes a part of the heart of Mary, alive forever within you! Will you join me permanently in that realm where the angels live and where we serve unceasingly in His name?

You Have Chosen Your Path

Beloved, from whatsoever star you have come, you are here for a purpose and that purpose is of your own choosing, even as my purpose ages ago was of my choosing. When the way seems difficult, temporarily, remember that even before you took embodiment, you chose the path you walk, and on that path, even as on my own, obstacles can be transmuted into light until you have victory in expression. On the glory of free will, children, the glory of taking upon yourself a physical vehicle and utilizing it according to the purpose of God upon this Earth, the glory of feeling that anointment which comes from above and abides in, through and around you constantly, as you are heaven's friends, and we are yours.

It has been, throughout the entire planet, a beautiful season in honor of the one, my son, beloved Jesus, and in the honor of all of you who are also my daughters and my sons. As more and more of that cosmic blessing seeps through the atoms, through your emotional, mental, etheric and physical worlds, it becomes a palpable living substance which lives in, through and around you and it can and should be utilized by you, each one, in the direction of your attention to the blessing of life less fortunate.

You Can Be Free From Limitation

Thus you gain in grace, you gain in individual mastery, and in honor in the heavenly court and you express more fully here on this Earth that immaculate concept which we have held for you since first you took a physical embodiment. Someone must hold that for you, hold it so powerfully, so lovingly and so constantly that no matter what the appearances may be, there is an anchorage within your beating hearts which tells you truth and enables you through the sheaths of the many selves to know that truth as I did, as Jesus did, as others before us and after us know, until you are eternally free from limitation of fear and dread of any type of human appearance.

Beloved ones, when the angels come and walk and talk with men, when Lord Raphael desires to give the mighty power of healing which is his, when I desire, as I do, to again anoint your vehicles with the substance of myself—accept that.

Physical and Spiritual Ablutions

In the East, the anointing of the bodies, even before the ascension, was part of the ceremonial for both the men and the women who represented the temple guards of God's truth. In the West, so many of these delicate and subtle activities of spiritual significance have lost their meaning and must again be resuscitated as the flower is resuscitated in the spring, until the ceremony of preparation, the ceremony of enjoyment, the ceremony of acceptance, the ceremony of benediction, are all united as a glorious unified activity for you, the anointed of the Lord.

Early it was, you know, that I first entered the temple, bound by the promise of my own mother and father, and early it was that I learned within the temple the sanctity of the Holy of Holies. I never slept at night before I performed not only the physical but those spiritual ablutions wherein if I should be called to render a service, I could say and truly, rising from my bed, "Behold the handmaiden of the Lord."

So it is with you, you are now the consecrated servants of our Lord, the Lord who created me and who has created you to render service in this glorious era of change and transformation, exhilaration of the divinity in you into the glorious perfection which can be manifest through your blessed selves, as was manifest through that strong and powerful God Being, whom I guarded, guided and loved well during the short thirty-three years of his earth life, and whom I love even more since, and you, too, honor—beloved Jesus.

Temple Worship Must Come Again

Blessed ones, temple worship must come again. It comes with reverence. It comes with understanding hearts. It comes with a cognizance in the outer mind of what you are doing with the light and free will entrusted to you by the Father who made you, and by those of us who love you more than we do the realms of perfection where Divine Beings dwell, remaining upon or at least on call from the children of Earth, and where everyone has freedom from distress, has faith through answered prayer, and is enabled to take upon himself that particular yoke of his own karmic creation and transmute it as valiantly, as powerfully and yet as humbly as did those who I had the privilege of associating with in Bethany, many of whom beloved Jesus brought to that focus when the Christian Dispensation was at its inception.

Teaching the Resurrection

Beloved ones, it is not the most easy thing to encompass, in real heart's love, peoples of every nation, creed, cult and race. For Jesus, born without taint of karma of his own, there was no question as to the development of any part of life as long as it was in distress, and he, in his great consciousness, knew it had to be resurrected into perfection, from a wounded bird, a broken flower, to a broken man, woman or child. That was the lesson which he gave to life. That was the lesson which he gave to me and endeavored to impart to his disciples and apostles, all seeking, unfortunately, personal acclamation instead of unification through understanding hearts.

I was grateful for those years in Bethany, after Jesus had ascended, to be a part of that unifying presence taking all the different strata of consciousness and unifying it so that it made a tremendous forcefield, radiating forth, which has carried the Christian Dispensation up to the present day. It is a great service to do that and to remain silent in the rendering of that service. It is a subtle test of consciousness when there is accomplishment, not to attempt to say or think or feel, "I did it." Yet you know that it is the power of almighty God vested in you, living through you, the anointed of the Lord, which can and will render such service and assistance as you may require at a moment, if invoked.

Perfection Through Invocation

When Jesus stood by Lazarus' tomb, if he had not invoked the power of Life Eternal and the great being, Serapis, and the great Maha Chohan, himself, as well, of course, as almighty God, before he spoke those words, that resuscitation would not have taken place. He remembered always to make that invocation silently or audibly when he was among friends, and then speak the word of authority and create perfection where imperfection existed. Yet, almost two thousand years have passed since he walked this Earth, a man among men—straight, strong and beautiful, refusing to cognize imperfection. Many who walked with him then, are still bound round and accept imperfection for themselves and their loved ones and the planet, itself.

How to Rise into the “Upper Chamber”

Rise you into the Upper Chambers of the highest consciousness which you know is possible for you to in safety dwell and sustain a perfect image, not only for yourself, but for those whose vibratory actions seem oppressive or depressive to you. Then you will learn to enjoy that vibration and to sustain it in a state of listening grace for those from above who desire at any moment through you or whom you may desire to invoke, to bless life and set imprisoned life free from the vibratory action which is imperfect.

Beloved ones, it is so simple. It is just the readjusting of the atoms, the electrons which make up the atom, which create and sustain for uncountable ages, if you desire, the physical and inner vehicles.

Man Has Lived 1,000 Years

In many Golden Ages which have preceded this, peoples have lived a thousand years or more. Why? Because the vibratory action of every electron and every cell and atom of their beings was held in harmony with their own Presence and with those Divine Beings, the messengers of almighty God, and they chose in such activities to remain, and crossed the planet Earth from place to place in service divine, rendering the service of resuscitation through the power of love and light.

Now comes the anointed of the Lord, I, who have taught the elementals, I who have guarded the son of almighty God, I who guard and guide you. COME FORTH from that shell, each one, of human creation into the light of this day. There is light in the day—the light and love of Mary!

HOW TO CALL FORTH THE IMMACULATE CONCEPT IN OTHERS
An Easter Address Delivered by Beloved Ascended Master Jesus

Beloved ones, gathered together in honor of a resurrection, one in which I participated through the help and kindly assistance of many Beings of Light, today I bring to you the feeling of my own resurrection, charging it with all the infinite combined gathered momentum of every being who has so experienced a resurrection from distress into perfection again! Even as that experience of mine has become well known to the peoples of the Earth through the efficacy of my followers, even so may I make that call now to the Universal First Cause that created and sustained me, that there may be in, through and around each and every one of your lifestreams those beautiful friends, ascended and embodied, to help you in the process of personal and individual, as well as planetary resurrection at this time.

The Earth and its Evolutions are in the Process of Resurrection

The planet Earth is quickening in its orbit as it swings around in the beautiful symphony of the spheres; the vibratory action of the very Earth, itself, and the water element and the air are quickened in action as we prepare the planet Earth for the forward movement which is to be forthcoming. Therefore, in like manner, all evolutions that use the Earth as a platform for their physical being—human beings, animal and bird creations—are being quickened too, in this process of the resurrection and life! It is a process that is not instantaneous in its activity but that does take place as from the very heart of Pelleur's kingdom that tremendous acceleration flows upward and upward and upward—and every cell and electron belonging to this universe to its very periphery is quickened by that pulsation from the heart of the Earth and then by the pulsation of the Ascended Master Realm which descends and anchors into the Christ Self of every human being.

The Christ is Alive in You

That which I have done and which has seemed so miraculous to some, shall become a common occurrence as the Christ stands forth through every man, through every woman and through every incoming child, that Christ nature which is dormant within the masses, stirred to life within my heart, brought to maturity to be an example to mankind—that Christ is alive in the world, in every beating heart. It is alive and responsive to my words and to my presence. It is alive and responsive to the Cosmic Christ directed through my lifestream for a specific service and to this living Christ which is within every human being unascended and every human being who has not come yet into embodiment but who has not attained the victory of the ascension—to this living Christ within you do I speak:

“In the name and by the power of Jesus the Christ, come forth and manifest now! Be thou the full and only power acting through the forms which you inhabit! Transmute the soul into the substance of LIGHT, and allow divinity the courtesy of expression here in the physical appearance world, or in the inner realms wherever you abide!”

The reward of service and love is in seeing this planet emitting more light, seeing its peoples resuscitated, their spiritual natures express through their flesh and everything in, through and around the Earth giving forth the music and harmony of the spheres until the planet Earth takes her rightful place in our planetary system as a magnificent jewel of light as she was designed by Helios and Vesta, and as she was, in turn, blessed by the directors of the forces of the elements and all who have served throughout the many ages to sustain her.

Your Cooperation Needed

Today, beloved ones, all over the Earth people are honoring the Resurrection Spirit. They are honoring that Spirit of the Christ as manifested through my lifestream. Today, I ask you to direct that to and through them, the realization that what I have done, EVERY ONE of these blessed ones shall and will do, and they must make ready now in courtesy to their Lord to allow this externalization through them of their own divinity. I ask you in the name of love and of light to CHARGE into the feelings of the people the realization that WITHIN THEIR OWN LIFE is that same power by which I did resurrect a physical form and finally ascended in the presence of several hundred people.

Healing Yourself

Dearly beloved ones, as we have sent forth the Resurrection Flame from the Resurrection Temple, as you contemplated it, as you have breathed it in and felt its exhilaration, let this be a permanent part of your world, quickening you every time there is a tendency to return to habits of depression, exhaustion and depletion. Step right within the heart of that magnificent opalescent flame, right within the heart of my own Luminous Presence or that of beloved Mother Mary, and FEEL THE CHANGE of the quality of the energy in your feelings, in your minds or any member of your physical body—any organ or cell that for some reason has gotten out of alignment—and thus you can do by grace what is so much harder to do by effort of will! When healing comes through grace, it is permanent and it is sustained. When it comes by the effort of the mental body alone—through will—as soon as that mental pressure is removed, unless the cause and core of distress has been dissolved, the condition appears again.

Accept now that there is a power right within your beating heart, and that power connects you with myself, with my mother, with your beloved Saint Germain, any one of the Ascended Host, the angels or the Archangels with whom you have an affinity, and the very moment you turn your attention toward them, silently or audibly, you are WITH THEM and THEY ARE WITH YOU.

An Immediate Answer

The INSTANT our names are breathed, the instant our image is thought upon, the instant any activity which it is our privilege to give, IS INVOKED, there we are rendering that service and assisting you. Come to that realization of ONENESS of the Celestial Realm with the human, the oneness of the Divine Beings with your own Christ Flame, and, entering deep within that inner Christ, feeling the fullness of its magnificent presence—you can have freedom, FREEDOM NOW, even as we are here to bathe you in the glory of the kingdom, the kingdom wherein dwells every being who has learned to govern his energy and to sustain harmony and not break the peace!

Beloved ones, that power is my power to give, it is your power to draw forth from your own Christ the power to see, to think, to accept, to call forth the immaculate concept from within every lifestream that you contact, and it will respond in an ever-expanding radiation of perfection through such a one if you can keep your human mind and senses from recording and accepting an individual personal concept rather than God's concept—which is perfection.

I know it is difficult when you wear garments of flesh and you see certain idiosyncrasies of the human nature to hold a concept of perfection for all the life with which you are surrounded when you try to do it through will, but if you will turn your attention to me, to the beloved Gabriel, beloved Mother Mary, any of those beings who are particularly concerned with holding the immaculate concept in the inner realms—we will help you to see your fellowman as God intended him to be. That does such a tremendous service for the Holy Christ Self of such a one and helps to anchor more and more into the feelings, the thoughts, the etheric consciousness and the very structure of the flesh, that divine pattern and plan which shall be externalized through that lifestream.

THE REALITY OF THE ASCENDED MASTER SPONSORS
Letter to the Flame Class of May 20, 1961

Beloved of My Heart,

I am so grateful for your earnest desire to visit the glorious Temple of Lord Zadkiel, pulsating in the ethers over the Island of Cuba. This means that you are earnestly learning to re-acquire the power and powers of the Violet Transmuting Flame, to purify your own auras as well as that of all life using the Earth as a permanent or temporary home. I shall meet you there and together we shall look upon, absorb and then project that purifying radiance to all life everywhere (that is imprisoned).

Not only yourselves, those you love and all life require that purification of the substance which has wedged itself into the spaces between the electrons which form each atom, where the temporary impurity is lodged. The speed of the electrons throws off that substance into the Violet Transmuting Flame, for the benefaction of all life, everywhere.

Lord Zadkiel has provided gentlemen sponsors from his own temple to help you not only to visit him at his temple, but to utilize the knowledge which you once had (before the fall of man) in invoking the Violet Flame for the freedom of life.

These Ascended Master sponsors are real. Please feel their reality as well as our presence, for in that manner we can do so much more for you than otherwise. As I have said before, those earnest chelas, who accept the truth and use it, are blessed indeed.

Anticipating a glorious time with Zadkiel and his Ascended court, I am always so lovingly yours,

Maha Chohan

USE THE GIFTS OF THE VIOLET FIRE

Excerpts From an Address by Beloved Archangel Zadkiel

Now again we come to the new day when the Seventh Ray is magnificent in its outpouring to the Earth. We ask you to learn this power of transmutation of small things first, in the orbit of your own blessed and individual worlds. You have opportunity within every twenty-four-hour period of invoking the FULL POWER of that Violet Fire which is mercy and love, to blaze through any appearance where there seems to be temporary shadow, and you have the FULL POWER VESTED IN YOU BY GOD, your own I AM Presence, of seeing the change in energy, even though you speak not a word.

The power and activity of transmutation combines the Threefold Flame in your heart, the power to be a representative of the Ascended Master Saint Germain, the wisdom to use the instruction that has been given you and the love that desires to remove shadows wherever they may be. That love, beloved ones, truly does surpass the understanding of the human mind.

For a good many ages, mankind has endeavored through various processes to transmute their limitations, but they have only succeeded in pushing them back into the deeper recesses of the etheric, mental and emotional vehicles, and at the first opportunity they press forth again and are manifest in the world and experience of the same individual, embodiment after embodiment.

Now, beloved ones, you have the scepter and the power of authority to use this Violet Fire, and in the using of it to know that where there has been shadow, there can be light, where there is unhappiness there can be happiness, where there has been disease, there can become ease. THESE ARE GIFTS THAT ARE HELD WITHIN THE VIOLET FIRE WHICH WE REPRESENT! The great Elohim Arcturus and the mighty Diana, my beloved Amethyst, the Ascended Master Saint Germain and beloved Portia, are all giving to you our full power and confidence in the use of this Violet Flame. No knowledge, beloved ones, written or read, unless it is utilized, can be of benefaction to an individual.

You have the power, because God, himself, in the glorious chalice in your heart has anchored it in you, you have wisdom because the Cosmic Law has repeatedly given to you these words of the Ascended Host of Light, and you have the love for God, or you would not be here, and you have love also for your fellowman to spread what may seem yet to you an invisible radiation of that Violet Fire and CHANGE the quality of energy. I challenge you on behalf of love to practice this and see wherein your own and others life is freed!

The life which flows from you through free will and attaches to any person, place, condition or thing on this Earth is a stream of electronic force, which moves so rapidly that the human eye cannot see it—but for the sake of clarification, we will say this, that we will slow down that life for a moment and when it reaches the ultimate in the point of your attention, then it draws back into your emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles, the actual substance of that on which your attention has rested.

Therefore, when your attention rests on imperfect conditions, on that which is not of God and his goodness, you are drawing—consciously or unconsciously, more and more of the substance upon which you dwell into your world. When your attention is upon the Ascended Host of Light, you are drawing (through your life energy which is pointed upward and through free will) back into your emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles the substance and energy of the Divine Beings in the form of emotional peace, mental alertness, etheric purity and physical stamina, which is so required in this hour and day.

IT IS REQUIRED THAT YOU BE IN 1961
A GREATER EXPRESSION OF DIVINITY
An Address by the Ascended Master El Morya

January 1, 1961

In the name of all that is good and holy, I greet you, chelas of my heart, with a feeling of gratitude that you are still in embodiment after the year of 1960, and that you are willing to enter into the year of 1961 under my supervision and constant persuasion. Please, in the name of almighty God, be seated!

Persuasion of the Gods may come and often does in a gentle manner through the promptings of the heart, but persuasion from my being comes in that strong vibration of energy which does convince you PERMANENTLY that there is a God in the universe and a divine plan for this planet Earth and for her evolutions. AND IT IS TIME NOW THAT THIS PLAN BE FULFILLED!

Carrying Out Petitions

Visualizing and looking upon the replica of the planet Earth as created by Helios and Vesta before imperfection was imposed on it, at the Tetons, you all were amazed at its beauty and perfection. At inner levels again many took vows standing before the Karmic Board, beloved Portia as the spokeswoman. These vows are activities that should be fulfilled in a six-month period. Some have questioned why we have said on several occasions, "All petitions have been granted." Let me make this clear to you now, once and for all, so that you understand that if a dispensation is granted it does not always manifest.

You can be granted a license to operate a business, but if you never raise your hand to do anything about it, your license runs out and your business is not manifest and expressed. Right! This is exactly the same thing in regard to the activities of the petitions presented to the Karmic Board. Although a petition is granted, whether to your own dear selves or one of the hierarchs of any Ascended Master Focus, that gives them, or you, or any group of people wheresoever they may be, opportunity and cooperation with other individuals, ascended and unascended—to follow through to victorious accomplishment on your cosmic license or to remain with the license in your hand and allow the precious energies to be dissipated before manifestation occurs.

The Expectations Of The Great Divine Director In 1961

We ARE THROUGH WITH THAT! I stand as one, as I did last evening (December 31, 1960), and as I do again today, before the Karmic Board on behalf of the Ascended Master Saint Germain, that there shall be a place upon this Earth during the year of 1961 for the incoming Seventh Root Race and its mighty Manu and Avatar. When you arise, what do you do? You prepare and dedicate yourselves for that coming—emotionally, mentally, etherically and physically. You prepare for that coming in yourself and wheresoever you find people who have interest of a spiritual nature, you join with them to make like preparation ahead of time. You know my nature—to accomplish in proper order, harmony, true, but without recalcitrance and without lethargy! You stand for a moment, true! If you were at Luxor, you would stand the entire time during the instruction. All the time while you waited to present your petitions to the Karmic Board, you stood. Of course, it was a little easier to do so in your etheric garment—but we allow now the flesh form to be seated.

The Spirit Of 1961

Think you on this being, mighty as one of the Archangels, who represents the year of 1961. Needless to say, her garments are golden and her hair is golden. She has the power and tenacity of the First Ray, to assist each and every one of you to GOD-FULFILLMENT OF THAT HOLY WILL, MANIFESTING PERFECTION ON THIS EARTH AS IT WAS BEFORE THE LAGGARDS AND THE OTHER HUMAN CREATION in, through and around it brought imperfection. WHAT OF IT!

Some laggards did arrive upon the planet Earth. The peoples of Earth were trained in the power of transmutation of imperfection through the Violet Flame, so were the high priests and high priestesses. They worked a hundred years to prevent contamination to the Earth, and yet they allowed those from lesser stars to come in and contaminate the beauty and perfection of this entire planet. Why? Because after only one hundred years, they became tired of application! There is no such thing, beloved ones, of ceasing application until you have accomplishment.

Otherwise you magnetize and leave in the ethers for somebody else to draw forth that which you had begun to magnetize. Remember that when you have your manifestation here in the physical appearance world for the blessing of all life, you have to develop and sustain constancy and rhythm of love divine and POWER AND POSITIVE ENERGY to sustain your manifestation so it shall always continue to be a constant blessing to the human race, the elemental kingdom and the kingdom of imprisoned angels, as well.

Your Talisman For This Year

Your talisman given to you each year should be a radiating center of God's holy will (this year your talisman is from Peru), and no matter how much virtue flows forth from it, there should be constantly magnetized new virtue into it. What is such a talisman? It is an object which has been magnetized by invocation of God-virtues and which is now a part of your lifestream, anchored primarily within your heart, as well as upon your person.

However, you made a glorious showing last evening (December 31st, 1960). Your attire was to be admired in the extreme, and also was your presentation of petitions of merit to the Karmic Board which echoed up through the great Teton Mountains, to the members of the Karmic Board, in a strong and positive manner so that Helios and Vesta and other Sun Gods and Goddesses would know that there are awake on the planet Earth individuals who have a semblance of understanding that something should be done, and each one knows something different which should be done.

The Straightening Of The Axis Of The Earth

That which should be done is THE PREPARATION FOR THE STRAIGHTENING OF THE AXIS OF THIS EARTH! That which should be done is the utilization of the energies which we have invested in you until you manifest and express perfection in the outer, as you did in the glory of your inner vehicles last evening. Yet, so often there is drawn back into your inner vehicles that consciousness of limitation which you let go in our presence, and then which you again accept as you enter into the ordinary orbit of your worlds. THERE SHOULD BE NO ORDINARY ORBIT! Your worlds now are extraordinary in their orbit, BLAZING WITH THE FIRE WHICH YOU SHOW IN YOUR SUSTAINED ENTHUSIASM FOR SERVICE TO THE ASCENDED HOST OF LIGHT.

Lest you forget, I shall be constantly reminding you, you may have a permanent seat in my temple, but you shall also have permanently a place of honor in that flame room where you can breathe in the actuality of illumined faith in the goodness of God as expressed through his divine messengers—for one purpose, and one purpose alone—to bring the Kingdom of Heaven here on Earth! We have talked about this kingdom long enough, too long for my thinking. It would seem imperative that this kingdom be manifest, and NOW!

Certainly I have been active in all the nations of this Earth, where peoples rise against peoples, creeds and colors, argue amongst themselves as to the supremacy of each one!

There is only one supremacy, and that is the mastery over the energies of your outer self that in turn you shall be the master of the energies of others.

What Is Utopia?

This gentle being, our beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, keeps on hoping for a UTOPIA to manifest through mankind. He spent centuries writing about it, and he spends every time he has opportunity to speak to you explaining gently what that Utopia is. The very gentleness of his nature seems not to reach to the center of your being. A Utopia is a place, a strata of consciousness, if you wish to call it such, wherein there are no vibratory actions of discord, a place of sustained harmony, a place of sustained peace, of sustained unity, of sustained love AND SUSTAINED ACTION—RHYTHMICALLY—to manifest more and more and more perfection in, through and around yourselves and then directed forth in, through and around the peoples of Earth.

If you are going to accept this Utopia—LET IT BE TODAY! Let is not be when again we close the pages of the year (1961). Saint Germain is required again to explain what a Utopia should be upon the planet Earth. It means a place, a start of consciousness, wherein all men shall be equally vitalized and vibrating the quality of harmony AT ALL TIMES, UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES, no matter what they shall be. THIS is the Utopia which beloved Sanat Kumara endeavored to bring to the Earth, which Lord Gautama is claiming for the Earth and which the Ascended Masters, like myself, who have foresworn Nirvana, are endeavoring to DRIVE into the outer consciousness of mankind, imprisoned angels and all elemental life, so that all can and will cooperate to bring that kingdom into manifestation RIGHT NOW.

Proving What You Affirm

Beloved ones, it is time now that you understand and through that understanding act constructively, manifesting that which you affirm! You can affirm for an age that you are God in action. I say to you, PROVE IT! The Karmic Board cognizing your light, does not look upon your personality, does not look upon the present or past accumulation of discord! It looks upon that light which you have already expanded. Then from the great reservoir held in store by Helios and Vesta, there is given to the Karmic Board enough energy to double your endeavors. That God-qualified energy in turn is released by Helios and Vesta to the Karmic Board, the Karmic Board gives the energy to the individuals who are desirous of these magnificent accomplishments, and then what happens?

Meeting Face to Face!

What happens when you have been energized and given your cosmic license to make this planet Earth and her peoples a more perfect place to live? If you do not so accomplish that service, to me you shall render an accounting! FACE TO FACE, in the full blazing power of the Flame of God's Will at Darjeeling or, if you are not interested in meeting me there—I SHALL FOLLOW YOU HERE! So we shall meet face to face until you cognize and accept for yourselves and all of life some of that beloved prince's magnificence and manifest it in God's holy name!

Once sentimentally I wrote "The Last Rose of Summer." All right, that's gone! Now let's have our first rose of Spring—the spring of enthusiasm in your heart, which like a mighty fountain rises and is sustained until mankind are all cognizant that association with Divine Beings, understanding of their Law and manifest expression of it does bring greater harmony and capacity to serve the Ascended Host of Light and all imprisoned life.

We are, of course, beginning today (January 1, 1961) the Year of Illumination. The great God and Goddess Meru and beloved Nada, all, are desirous of giving the Illumination Flame to and through you and all imprisoned life. They are beautiful beings and their love and light is unparalleled but withal we, the beings on the First Ray, shall continue to emphasize the power of utilizing the God within you which enabled you to enter this activity and today TO ACT IN A CONSTRUCTIVE MANNER for the blessings of all imprisoned life. It is not enough to accept, it is required that you BE in 1961 a greater expression of divinity! Turbans off or turbans on, WE ARE DETERMINED BY THE POWER OF OUR LIVES to set you free and to set all life free!

Unceasing Application

What is the purpose of having to constantly re-create your mantle of light? You should be enabled to sustain its protection and ENERGIZE IT BY THE POWER OF HERCULES AND AMAZON and expand it daily. You should have a permanence of God-qualified energy about you after all these years, a permanence of radiation through which can flow at will the gifts and powers of the Sacred Fire! That Sacred Fire which has no limit and which, through you and others, can render miracles of which the human or outer self knows nothing. I SPEAK TO YOU EACH AND EVERY ONE AS I STOOD WITH YOU BEFORE THE KARMIC BOARD LAST EVENING and gave again the pledge of my energies to match your own, that I shall expect your energies NOW, one-pointed to set life free!

There is a lot of life on this planet, a lot of lovely beings on Excelsior, there is also that other planet created for those of you who wish to sleep on or move with the vibratory action of the present Earth people, BUT BY GOD those who remain on this Earth are going to vibrate like those beings who represent the Seventh Root Race and its Lord Manu, the Great Divine Director, and this Earth shall be returned to the beauty and perfection she had in the beginning. The laggards can go! Incidentally, some laggards have proceeded marvelously on this planet, whereas some who came from other stars, have become so enamored of the laggards that they are below them in the process of evolution.

Who is a Laggard?

Now, who is a laggard? You will know. All you have to do is enter into the aura and atmosphere of such a one and if you have not a positive radiation of energy in, through and around you, what happens? Two laggards! Is that wise! IT SHALL NOT BE FOR THE CHELA IN WHOM THE ASCENDED HOST HAVE INVESTED SUCH ENERGIES AND SUCH POWER—THERE SHALL BE TWO ALERT GOD-FREE MEN AND WOMEN WHERE ONE PREVIOUSLY HAS BEEN! If one individual can through affinity of vibration draw another down, cannot one individual with affinity of vibration draw another UP? It is as simple as that!

As the spiral of life goes higher and higher, years matter not, so does the spiral of the entire planet and your lifestreams ascend to that peak where you are ready to either enter Nirvana or become like us—those who choose to serve on lesser stars.

Mercury shall go into the Sun (Helios and Vesta) by the energies and powers of our light. That means that your Earth horizontally will move closer to the orbit of Helios and Vesta. Think ye what that shall do to the vibratory action of the peoples, some of whom cannot stand the sight of the physical Sun, even veiled as it is by the gracious clouds of mercy which hide the Sun behind the Sun. One day, however, there shall be not such clouds of mercy. You shall stand like the Zarathustras and face the Sun God, the Sun Goddess, of your system, accepting their mighty power and then disseminating it in grace.

Our Initiation in Persia to Face the Sun God

One of our initiations in the early ages in Persia, was to render just such a service individually. Seven of us were chosen, in seven groups, making forty-nine aspirants. Seven of us were chosen at a time to ascend the forty-nine temple steps, then as we stood at the top step, the veil was rent, we had first to look into the physical Sun, see the orbit of Helios and Vesta and the SACRED FIRE which is around it, and then go through that Sun on the solar highway to the heart of Alpha and Omega without any by-pass and then return consciously, stepping down the vibratory action of our vehicles into the temple in Persia—THAT was before our ascension—and we were required to retain both sanity and balance, humility and wisdom gained from knowing WHAT one day we, too, should be! Sun Gods and Sun Goddesses in our own being!

Of each group of seven, six could not look upon the light of Helios and Vesta. Of the forty-nine who took the initiation, only seven remained who had—through the grace of God tenacity of purpose and oneness of being—reached into the Presence and stood before Alpha and Omega, absorbed their light, power and efficacy, and returned to the Earth. Where think ye came the Chohans of the Rays?

Practicing What is Taught

Now, I am not asking you to go so far, for without tremendous assistance it would not be possible for you to return. We have not the time to seek for you in cosmic tides with so much solar activity going on connected with this galaxy alone. I am asking you to learn what you have been taught and to act upon what you have learned, and to be what you have said, and to become fitting representatives of the God of Freedom!

THE FESTIVITIES AND SERVICE OF THE MONTH OF MAY, 1961

May 1st, Saint Germain's Ascension and Coronation

SAINT GERMAIN speaks:

Today is MAY DAY, and that name means so much to me! When a child, that was the one day I had to be alone with my own mother. Much later, it was the day I took my leave of this sweet Earth, and it was on that day in 1954 I was crowned as king for the incoming Era of Freedom. May Day is a day of happiness! Do you think it is happenstance that your air corps uses "May Day" as their signal of distress? You have been taught "The Light of God never Fails!" When those men in the high blue sky are at a point of great distress and that word "May Day" goes forth, who answers? I DO! Now we come again to my vision of a world where there is no sin, no cause for sin, no result of sin, where there is no unhappiness, no need for tears, where there is no disease, no disintegration, no death, absolute liberty.

May 8th, Lord Gautama's Enlightenment

LORD GAUTAMA:

How can I speak to human minds of the type of service and endeavor which I have followed through so many ages! To hold that infinite Middle Way of balance, no matter what the senses report or the eyes shall witness or the ears shall hear, whatever revelation shall have come, to hold that balance and retain conscious control of your own vehicles, is the mastery which I did teach and do yet teach to those who choose to come within the compass of my aura. To hold that peace, no matter what the distress of the elements, to hold that peace no matter what the chaos of the outer world—that is the application of the aspirant and the chela of one who follows the way of the Buddha.

May 11th, Jesus' Ascension

JESUS :

Beloved and blessed ones who honor the ascension of my lifestream, I greet you again on the anniversary of that day, a day made possible not by my own personal endeavor, but by the endeavors and conscious cooperation of every Divine Being. That wonderful cooperation of all these beings, with that of the spiritual White Brotherhood and my own teacher Lord Maitreya, that ascension, which was the whole point of my ministry, should stand out in the Christian Dispensation as not only a possibility, but the actual goal and purpose of every lifestream upon this Earth, of every imprisoned angel and elemental. In the name of the Father, in the name of the Son, in the name of the Holy Spirit, I bless you, each one, upon your own "Hill of Bethany" toward a like victory, and when you gain that victory, you, too, even as I, shall send benediction to those following.

May 21st, Pentecost (Whitsuntide)

THE MAHA CHOCHAN :

At the time of the ministry of the beloved Jesus, even the disciples were among the comforted while he remained with them. He was that great comforting presence to all the life privileged to stand within his presence and to touch the hem of his holy garments. But there came the time when the Divine Law, seeing that the growth of the disciples could not be effected until they themselves became the comforting presence, closed the mission of the Master Jesus and asked for the release of the Flame of the Holy Spirit, which on one Whitsuntide (Pentecost) changed the disciples from the comforted into the comforting presence. This assisted them in performing miracles and marvels which they were not able to do even while within the magic power of the aura of their beloved friend. So again today, as your attention is upon that Whitsuntide, may I draw your consciousness deep within that living flame, that flame of inspiration which makes you become a comforting presence to life, a healing presence, a peace-giving presence, a power in the hands of the Spiritual Hierarchy which governs the world, through which they individually and collectively may hasten the fulfillment of God's plan.

May 30th, 11:38 p.m. EST (Full Moon), Wesak Festival

As beloved Lunara blazes her light rays in, through and around the planet Earth while the mighty Neptune in cooperation with Lunara, reaches the apex of his capacity at this hour to unite with Lunara and the emotional bodies of mankind, imprisoned angels and elemental life, who everywhere hold the cups of their consciousness high, Lord Gautama becomes the conscious union between these two great beings and their elemental kingdom, bringing light into the world.

THE LORD OF THE WORLD (Lord Gautama):

I give my benediction as Lord of the World, to every member of the spiritual Great White Brotherhood and every member who made the endeavor to be here in person or through projected consciousness, accelerating by the power of my light the centers of light in the heart, head and hand. I AM the light of the world, I AM the light of the world, and that light is permanently from me, anchored in you, as you are the light of the world, in my name, in the name of the Lord of the World.

THE TEMPLE OF THE SACRED HEART ACTIVITY
(The entire Month of May every year)

MOTHER MARY:

I have met you again and again when the Karmic Board ordained that you were to be given new opportunity for re-embodiment—and together, you and I, fashioned the sacred heart in which burns eternally that Immortal Threefold Flame of God around the substance purified as best as it can be by the Sacred Fire and by Kwan Yin's, Meta's, Nada's and my own endeavors. Then we have always sent an angel, and still do, to stand in the aura of the parents, and the great angel who cooperates with the builder of forms. Most important it is, that within your hearts and the hearts of all who live on Earth now and in the future, the Three-fold Flame of almighty God be allowed to expand through the living chalice of each one's heart, made out of the elemental substance by my own hands, to be the dwelling place for the Christ in you. I say to you now—LET THE CHRIST IN YOU EXPAND, LET THAT CHRIST IN YOU SERVE THE LORD GOD! LET THAT CHRIST THROUGH YOU MINISTER TO ALL THAT LIVES.

NOTE: Please read in the May 1960 issue of the Bridge Journal an address on The Consecration of Souls at the Sacred Heart Temple, by beloved Mother Mary.

MAKE THE OUTER MIND THE MIRROR OF THE DIVINE MIND

By the Ascended Master Kuthumi

In spiritual study the “mirror of the mind” has been referred to on numerous occasions. The outer mind is a sensitive impressionable “plate” used as a “conductor” for the divine ideation released from God's perfect plan. It is the means by which the divine will is interpreted and then, according to the facilities of the interpreter, it is put into physical manifestation. The outer mind was never intended to be a generating center for independent thought processes, but really as the receiver of the impulses from the heart center of creation, which the individual then utilized to fulfill his or her part in the divine plan.

In the great scheme of things, there is only ONE MIND, not many, and this great perfect mind of God was intended to express itself through the many manifestations of the ONE, and the outer self was intended to be merely a conduit in the physical world to take the divine ideas and, through the uses of the substances of the four elements, mould them into form.

The Servant of the Divine Mind

Because of the nature of the outer mind working through the brain, it is constantly reflecting pictures of one sort or another, because that is its natural avenue of service to the lifestream. Having lost its focus, instead of the perfect pictures of the Divine Self, it reflects the conglomeration of thoughts and feelings and the written and spoken words of other outer minds who are likewise off focus! This conglomeration of “facts and fancies” form the intellectual accretion which in an individual is referred to as a “good mind” or a “brilliant intellect.” In reality it is but a trash heap for the effluvia of other ignorant, or sometimes illumined individuals.

Every person, some day, must come to realize that the outer mind is the servant of the Divine Presence. You may take that mind just as you would focus a telescopic plate upon the truth, and there would flow into that outer consciousness a perfectly clear understanding of that which is and that which is to be. The original crystal gazers were fully conscious of this, and the crystal ball represents the clear mind in which the truth of the universe is revealed.

The brain is the instrument that the mind uses, but the mind itself is the instrument of the Spirit! When these three are one, you have a balanced union and an awakened adept. When these three act independently of each other, you have an off-center expression which, through outer interest and desire, is oftentimes working wholly independent of the divine plan and seldom or ever is in accord with it.

The Instrument of the Illumined Mind

The mind substance fits into the brain as a hand fits into a glove. It is etheric in composition. Pure ether is crystal in substance and the mind, to become fully alert to the impressions of divinity, must return to this crystal quality of substance. Therefore, to work eternally on the purification of the mind is to achieve great dexterity in transmitting the thoughts of divinity into expression. This crystal-clear etheric substance, which we call the outer mind, should be constantly at peace, with no thought of self-generating expression, but like the sea, reflecting the Sun. It should be constantly open to the divine plan of the universe and then—seeing and knowing that plan—the individual should go forth expressing it.

The “case” into which the mind is fitted is the physical brain. This is made up of the Earth substance, the elementals of the lower octaves and is likewise impinged with the atomic chaos of wrong living. Pure as alabaster, light as the sun, must the brain structure become, and then the illumined mind is a beautiful and strong instrument with which to work.

The substances taken into the body as food are most quickly felt by the physical atoms of the brain, and as soon as they reach the solar plexus, their effect is felt on the brain structure. That is why at Crotona I was so extremely careful of diet. To achieve dexterity of the intellect, alertness of body and illumination of the mind, the diet should be carefully prepared and adhered to!

LETTER FROM THE MAHA CHOHAN TO THE TRANSMISSION FLAME CLASS OF JUNE 17TH, 1961

Beloved Ones Desiring to Precipitate World Peace,

I welcome you to the retreat, known to many, situated in the Rocky Mountains of Wyoming, U.S.A. Here, beloved Lanto, the predecessor of the present hierarchy, Lord Confucius, shall again teach you the necessary fundamentals for precipitation of good to the people of Earth.

As you enter your petitions for presentation before the Karmic Board, I shall stand by your side to give you the fully-gathered momentum of my energies, which, coupled with your own, will render the service in dignity and love divine. Your sponsors are gentlemen of this focus, Ascended Beings who accompanied Lord Michael and the First Root Manu to this Earth. They know how beautiful the Earth was, when first drawn from the consciousness of Helios and Vesta by the Planetary Silent Watcher Immaculata, and then created by the seven Elohim and builders of form.

We shall have at the Rocky Mountain Retreat a duplicate of this original design for the sweet Earth and her peoples. Look upon it, and you will be filled with the fire of enthusiasm to help re-create in the Ascended Master Saint Germain's Golden Age, this IMMACULATE CONCEPT MANIFEST NOW. In learning to precipitate—in constant control of your emotional, mental, etheric and physical vehicles—you SHALL become an open door through which much of this perfection will be released.

My love and blessings be upon you always,

Maha Chohan

THE IMPORTANCE OF SPIRITUAL FOCI ESTABLISHED AT VARIOUS POINTS ON THE EARTH'S SURFACE

By the Ascended Master Lanto

The focusing of tremendous currents of light into the atmosphere of the physical substance of the Earth is accomplished by the projection of the spiritual currents from the octaves of light, and the anchoring of those currents into the structure of the Earth by voluntary conductors among the world of men. At these points where the light rays are drawn and condensed, they become magnetic fields of spiritual influence which radiate force from every heart center rendering specific service in raising, transmuting and purifying the Earth and its inhabitants.

If you were to gaze upon the map at the Rocky Mountain Retreat upon which every ancient retreat and sanctuary is marked, you would find that the design is geometrically perfect, both as to the scale of miles between centers and occult symbolism. These great retreats that have been established for thousands of years are not only places of training for evolving mankind and places of storage for the wealth of the world, but living, breathing spiritual centers that act as fountains or vortices of force, to dissipate the evils of man's thinking, and raise the mass consciousness.

Wherever such a spiritual center has been established, or number of people have gathered together and drawn spiritual force, you will find the substance of the Earth has responded by large deposits of gold and precious jewels, for the forces of the elements are most grateful and responsive to this great outpouring of spiritual force. Such a retreat is the Rocky Mountain Retreat which we honor at this time, established for thousands of years as a center of spiritual radiance for the entire Western Hemisphere.

Under this new activity, the foci of light drawn by unascended beings as forcefields on the Earth, are as accurately distributed and render the same service in a cruder manner as the Spiritual Hierarchy render in the divine retreats. There is no such thing as a "happenstance" group, or an accidental gathering together of the students. Each conscious conductor of electronic energy from the Godhead and the particular Ascended Master whom each one represents at inner levels, becomes like a pipeline through which the greater spiritual forces are anchored in that locality. May the students become cognizant of their opportunity to BE "The Light of God that never fails" to all succeeding generations.

EXCERPT FROM THE ASCENDED MASTER CONFUCIUS

Long before my own ascension, I had read of Aladdin's lamp and the capacity to rub upon it and then to secure that which one desires. When I first found that the true lamp of precipitation was right here in the United States of America and that I had the opportunity to give it my love, my gratitude knew no bounds! Being of an Oriental background, my one desire was to give to the Precipitating Flame my love, tend the altar, bless it and just love it for itself. I never thought to ask for that Precipitating Flame to act through me to make me a precipitating power for good in my own world. My love was so deep for just the honor of loving it and guarding it. Then beloved Lanto taught me that I must BE the Precipitating Flame in action in the world of form, and I completed my course in the Orient and left those few humble sayings which are merely a part of the Law which I learned at Lanto's feet. The far greater part of that literature is yet held by Lord Himalaya.

I can say to you, beloved chelas, in loving it and adoring it and giving it your breath and your light, in turn you BECOME a precipitating presence of whatever God-virtue your own I AM Presence and Holy Christ Flame desires to express through you.

Come often to this retreat and stay as long as you desire, and know that you shall always be welcome not only during this particular thirty-day period, but throughout the entire year, to come into our presence and to love our flame, and to love all of those who have helped to sustain the Precipitation Flame to this day.

ADDRESS BY THE PLANETARY SILENT WATCHER BELOVED IMMACULATA (Tetons, July 1954)

I am the Planetary Silent Watcher, sent forth from the great Cosmic Silent Watcher, carrying the design for the Earth within my living, breathing being, and the Divine Presence of every lifestream sent forth by Helios and Vesta.

I am that being who has held within my bosom and consciousness and very life, the living, breathing presence of every guardian spirit who responded to the call of Helios and Vesta and chose to become part of the protection of the evolutions on this Earth. You are part of my body, part of the essence of my being—and your every breath, every pulsation that passes through the energy of your self-conscious being, passes through the energies of my body and my life. So truly, I know you well!

When Helios and Vesta chose to apply for the opportunity of creating a universe, they expanded out from their being, a great sphere of influence. The periphery of that sphere was the periphery of the universe, within which the planets, the stars and all belonging to that universe would abide.

In the fiat of “Let there be light,” they spun out of their very selves that universal substance from which the Elohim created the planets, and from whence has come into being all form. As each planet of the system was destined to be breathed forth from the heart of the Cosmic Silent Watcher, the Planetary Silent Watchers were sent forth. We, in turn, embodied just one planet, taking upon ourselves the responsibility of holding the immaculate concept for that planet—the rivers, the oceans, the mountains, the vast plains, and making available to the Elohim and builders of form that pattern which they then wove out of the universal light-body of Helios and Vesta.

The first activity of the Planetary Silent Watcher is to expand the Causal Body which becomes the cradle in which the planet will rest, and the seven great spheres are the bands of color of our Causal Body, into which the guardian spirits, the angels and devas come, creating the seven heavenly realms of consciousness for the evolutions that will evolve on each planet.

Out of the substance and energy of the colors of our Causal Bodies, are woven the temples, the very atmosphere of these inner spheres. Out of the substance of that body is woven the elements for your Earth! Out of the substance of the Causal Body of the Planetary Silent Watcher is woven the garments, the seven vehicles, which every lifestream wears. So do you see how truly ONE we are, and how the energy of your inner bodies and your flesh are a part of the living essence of my very being?

The Design And Purpose of Your Being

The design and purpose for your being as individuals, is to create through the primal essence of light entrusted to you, a duplication of the majestic perfection of your own Causal Body in this world of form. Your present auras, made up of the release of energy through your mental and feeling worlds, the etheric body and physical form, are not yet the proper conductors for the powers of your Causal Body, which you offered before the Karmic Board and to the Manu of the race to which you belong, as your gift of radiation in this physical world.

Each of you were chosen after you had passed through the Seven Inner Spheres, because you had gathered into your own Causal Body through free-will choice, certain momentums of peace, beauty, harmony, healing, and many gifts and powers that could be used to externalize the divine plan to bless the evolutions upon the Earth at any given time.

Learning To Become Still

It is the requirement that some means be devised by which you first may become STILL and in enough command of the energies of your own world to silence the violent pulsations in your aura, and then to consciously create through your mental body an accurate vehicle of reception to the divine ideas of your Presence.

Your emotional world must become your servant and not your master. You must allow the presence of God within you enough control so that when you say, "Peace be still," the energies of your emotional body become the grail through which the gifts of the Causal Body may be conducted into the worlds of those in distress, bringing harmony, healing, illumination or peace, or whatever the requirement of the hour may be.

The great sea of energy concentrated in the etheric body, must be purified so that you, abiding within that sacred presence of God within the heart, may no longer accept the many voices, the etheric rumblings of the centuries past, the half-truths and concepts and pressures that would exalt the outer self. That etheric body must be purified of all such nefarious endeavors that would lead the lifestream astray from the path of humility. Then can be revived and sent forth at your command, the divine memory, with all the magnificent powers and accomplishments that you wielded as guardian spirits on your own suns and stars, the memories of your inner activities in the Seven Spheres, and the remembrance of your contact with your Master while your body sleeps at night.

Only he who has learned the WAY OF THE SILENCE, only he who has learned the mastery of the energy which flows in such magnificent opulence from the heart of the First Cause into these vehicles of yours, only he becomes the conductor of the gifts of God into the world of man! Energy is the conductor! Energy and vibration, which is life, is that which carries either peace, love and perfection, or discord and disharmony into the world of form!

You, who have professed a deep devotion to God, who have come to a feeling of reverence before life itself, and a feeling of humility in the use of life, have come far! You, who have started each day in the great surrender of self, and kneeling before your Source asked what purpose and design your God would choose to manifest through you each day—you are upon the path, and sooner or later, according to your capacity to relinquish the control of your energies to the presence of God that is waiting, shall you know your reason for being, and the magnificent light from your Presence surging through the sea of your feeling world, transform conditions instantly, BRINGING HARMONY, HEALING, MASTERY AND COMFORT to the universe!

The use of life, the purpose for which you were created and have been sustained for millions of years, becomes the prime quest of the individual consciousness who is sincere! The use of the gifts and talents, the use of the momentums you have gained, the use of the substance loaned to you—these all should be the quest of your conscious self. Then the intellect no longer directs but the presence of God which has magnetized that life and sustained it that you might have self-conscious intelligence, and give it now the courtesy and honor of using that life to widen the borders of the kingdom!

The Use of Speech

How much of that life has passed through your lips in dissipation, in gossip, in unkindness that has done harm to others? The word, the use of speech, was given to each self-conscious being to create a cup, to invoke elemental life to fill it with feeling and to manifest a thing of beauty that has reason to exist forever! The power of speech, the lips themselves, are only to create that which is in accord with the harmony and beauty of life, and many a man that is dumb today, suffers for the prolific use of life through careless and unkind words!

How many words you speak each day would you care to see condensed in your aura so that every man that looked upon you could gaze upon them? How many words that you speak would you wish to have immortalized as a part of the heritage of your life with your name written across it? Yet this psychic and astral realm is filled with forms created by such words!

The tongue used as the lash, the tongue used as the instrument of self-righteous indignation! The tongue used to plant cores of poison that grow a harvest in another consciousness and mind that would be totally unaware of such imperfection did not the contributing factor of the energies of your own lips and tongue choose to conduct what you felt into the world of another. Speech, the use of the energy of life in the creation of form, will only be understood when the Law allows us to materialize before you, words which slip so carelessly from your lips!

Every word that a Master speaks, every word that passes from their lips, becomes an angelic being, ensouled immediately by conscious life in winged form, adding to the great legions of angels and elementals, clothed in garments of light, moving everywhere through the universal. Can as much be said of man!

I am the heart of the Silence, and you who enjoy the blending of your energies in magnificent decrees, you will see manifestations when you precede your application by entering the throne room of your own being, standing before the presence of your living God, becoming one with it, then in the center of that being, using the breath of life charged with the consciousness of the God-Self and directing those energies in that balance—manifestations will occur!

Give What You Receive

You have your extremes, those lifestreams who enjoy the peace of the silence and the comfort of drawing the power and activities of the Causal Body but who do not remember the rhythm of life—that which you receive must be given because it is only in the rhythm of the drawing, the assimilation and the expansion of the energies that the spirit grows. Then you have the extremes of the beloved lifestreams whose energies and vital fire are interested primarily in giving, and who rush with all the powers that they have gathered in the inner bodies, into the application, forgetting first the stillness and the receiving!

It is to draw these two extremes together that we come—that you may learn that even the Master, even myself as the Planetary Silent Watcher, first anchor in the presence of God and draw the energy, then expand it in service! Those who have drawn knowledge all through the ages, the great priesthood and individuals whose mental bodies have become a magnet and have drawn mighty momentums of knowledge and then through greed contracted that knowledge and held it within themselves, holding the peoples through fear and superstition, those have suffered because they have not manifested the rhythm of life! Knowledge received and NOT USED had better never been invoked and drawn into the consciousness!

Those who have drawn healing powers through the ages, who have become master of the power of the Sacred Fire, and who have commercialized those healing powers for the sustaining of self and not expanded them freely as the gift of life, they have not learned the mastery of that rhythm!

Those whose energies through the ages have been engaged in drawing substance, creating form, accumulating great wealth and who hold that within themselves for the blessing and satisfaction of self, know not the rhythm of giving, and sometime, somewhere must meet that balance!

You have used the magnetic power of life, itself and have invoked faith, knowledge, power or substance and life has been given to you qualified according to that upon which your attention rested, in order to do one thing only—expand the borders of the kingdom!

Those of you who in your Causal Body have these mighty storehouses that await externalization through your calm feeling world, those of you shall render an accounting if the energies of your world are not stilled enough that you may conduct them now, for it is the hour of crisis, it is the hour when mankind must have the assistance of conscious conductors, and YOU have chosen to be those conductors!

Why do I live? Only that you might have being in my Causal Body, only that all of elemental life, human life and angelic life might have a ladder of evolution through the Seven Spheres. When you live for like reason, you will know peace!

Evolution of a Silent Watcher

Briefly, I would like to say that the evolution which ultimately results in opportunity to become a Silent Watcher, starts with the tiny elemental who is trained in the nature kingdom under the direction of the beloved Mary, holy mother of beloved Jesus. In these magnificent kingdoms, tiny elementals are trained to embody a form under the supervision of builders of form. They gather together and the builder of form creates out of his own light body a beautiful flower or some design which is the lesson of the day. All the little elementals whose nature it is (like your own etheric bodies) to mirror that which they look upon, immediately take on the form of the flower. This is simple, but when the builder of form has transferred the form of the flower to the elementals, he relinquishes the form and assumes his own form as teacher.

Then the elemental is required to concentrate upon holding the pattern which is the lesson of the day. Many of them as soon as the builder of form returns into his magnificent robes, immediately turn into little builders of form themselves and mirror instantly any change in the teacher.

They are patiently trained, and this goes on age after age until they are able to retain the form which the builder of form gives them independently, and they stay as an apple blossom or a lovely peach, or whatever it may be, for the duration of the class. When they become such masters, tiny little beings, mind, they are ready to go forth and try to become part of Amaryllis' great court and bring beauty into the world of form. This is how the Silent Watcher's training begins.

Then they come and create, in some beautiful garden under a nature deva, a rose, pansy, a beautiful lily. They graduate up the ladder of evolution and become, perhaps, a nature deva of a garden. Then they are assigned, perhaps, to a Silent Watcher of a great hospital, drawing healing currents into themselves and projecting them down in the radiation which is the blessing to the people.

They graduate into greater service and become devas like the beloved Columbia, and those beings who watch over an entire nation. They may become great racial devas, watching over the beautiful races evolving, all holding the power of concentration, going up the ladder, holding the divine pattern of the highest for their nation, their race or country.

From among all of these one is chosen to work with the beloved Maha Chohan and learn to draw those magnificent currents which govern all nature and they come to a point where they may apply for positions as the Elohim, the great builders of form of planets, and from the Elohim, the Silent Watchers are chosen.

It is a long time since I embodied a flower and yet I remember it well. I remember those early days when it was such a temptation to flit from thoughtform to thoughtform, and I said, "Perhaps I may help!" And that is why I am here, for we are all servants, servants of the Law, and servants of all your life!

I give to you my peace, my love and I hold for you the immaculate concept, your own divine God-Image. I have not relinquished that for one instant, for if I had relinquished for an instant the image and trust of your God-design, given to me by the beloved Helios and Vesta, who would you cease to be in this particular universe! Think how long I have held for you the pattern which I ask you now, to hold for yourselves and each other!

YOU ARE AGAIN CALLED TO SEEK THE HOLY GRAIL OF THE UPLIFTED CONSCIOUSNESS

By El Morya, March 26th, 1961

Beloved, I come again into your presence to bring to you the blessings which are representative of the Spiritual Hierarchy who, you of your own free will, have chosen to serve and serve well. I bring to you the blessings of our beloved Jesus, his blessed mother, and the great beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, as well. May they be a benediction of lasting import in that consciousness which you have developed and accelerated to a point where at least you know I am within this universe!

It is very comforting to know that one is accepted as being a part of a planetary scheme when such a one involved himself considerably into the lifestreams of ascended and unascended beings belonging to its evolutions. It is more comforting yet to be loved by those who through the necessity of the disciplines of the First Ray, have accepted those disciplines as opportunity and in that opportunity have expanded as you have. That eternal light, which is burnished with the hands of the Gods until it shines like gold through the effluvia of human creation and brings light which is eternally sustained into the atmosphere of the Earth—that light which is within you is truly the essence of Deity expanded—Deity, which we can, through you, magnetize and express for the blessings of a recalcitrant race which has relied wholly upon Jesus, whom we love for his service and victory and who desires for you as we do, that you be the light of the world!

Once, long years ago, I had a vision, and in that vision I sought to make the great court with men in shining armor like unto the angelic host of Lord Michael, himself, the ladies fair and full of grace, wearing the gentle folds of the veil similar to that of Mary (mother of Jesus). I brought that vision to fulfillment at a place called, and remembered by me and those of you who were present at Camelot!

At Camelot we drew a table, whereat should sit the Knights of Camelot. There the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, as Merlin, gave the protection to those who had purity of purpose. There in a remembrance that around the Glastonbury area was buried the very grail from whence the Last Supper was served from the hands of Jesus, I re-designed in the minds and consciousness of my knights and ladies fair, a GRAIL made up of the pure essence of divinity. This grail to them became a tangible object and they forgot that the true grail would be their own magnificent physical vehicles—temples of the Most High Living God—and that the grail which was to be sought and found by the persevering few, was but the symbol of a grail of grace.

At our great table there remained one seat unfulfilled, for it was foretold that there should come to Camelot a lad so pure, so unconscious of the ways of man, that he should be able to sit on the Seat Perilous and in his time witness the grail, itself, and become that grail. One day came the Holy Spirit, and in a magnificent sweep of flame there stood in our midst whilst we were gathered around our table, the Spirit of God and the presence of a simple lad! Without armor and any of the bedeckments of the era in which we lived, he easily came and sat in the Seat Perilous. Among those gathered there was much whispering and (unseen) jealousy. They smiled one to another thinking of their own strong armor of steel, spears, bows, arrows, and they thought looking at this Galahad—”Hah, he shall not even leave Camelot!” Yet there came a day when even Lancelot fell before Galahad’s own sword. There came a day when there was retrieved the grail brought by Joseph of Arimathea and Mary to Glastonbury. That day, the service of Camelot was finished.

Now again you come to feast! Again you are called to arms, but in your call to arms today, your armor is of light, your spirits are illumined, and you know that which you seek and have already found is THAT GRAIL OF THE UPLIFTED CONSCIOUSNESS, that Holy Grail from whence all who are athirst may drink and none know hunger—spiritually, emotionally, mentally, etherically, or physically—for whosoever drinks of that cup and partakes of that virtue, as you in mercy hold it forth, shall in turn become imbued with the Spirit of the Holy Christ and not one drop shall be missing, for in giving, you shall receive until that grail, which is the expanded Christus within you, is so large that all may take of the virtues therein and never once shall you miss an ounce of that virtue.

So Arthur ruled in Camelot, and Arthur rued at Camelot, so have I held that grail within my consciousness and have it emblazoned upon the doors of my home at Darjeeling, and in my heart! So I give to you today, THE GRAIL OF CAMELOT!

APPENDIX

Geraldine Innocente, the beloved messenger of the Bridge to Freedom, gained her ascension on June 21, 1961. Words will never be enough to express our gratitude for her unselfish service to the Great White Brotherhood and to mankind. The following dictations, given through Geraldine, were published after her ascension.

HOW TO CONDUCT AND ATTEND A CLASS

By Saint Germain

You Must Give Back What You Receive

A group director comes into this activity, or any activity of the Ascended Masters, for one of many reasons. The motive which has prompted such a step will determine, to a large extent, the efficacy of the endeavor, the permanence of his work and his usefulness to us. I speak to you as I would if we sat before a fire in lovely lounging chairs, one to another, for I have no opportunity to speak privately to you except in this way. I speak not in a mandatory or arbitrary manner, but in a manner to convey to you something of the knowledge of the Law, which you, in turn, I hope, will convey to others. It is not enough to be an absorber, it is not enough to relax in the radiation—you must give back what you receive, in order to receive greater light and greater life.

The Group Director and the Orchestra Leader

A group director, in order to be in perfect balance, might be likened to the director of a symphony orchestra. He has, within his consciousness, a magnificent piece or composition which he desires his orchestra to play. He has a great number of varied talents before him. He tries to choose the best, but there is always a limit to the best of any man. He has a to handle many personalities and all of these he must join together in a harmonious way. If the director's motive is prompted by a desire to express vanity, to express a power complex, to express any human sense of self-aggrandizement, such a one will sooner or later fall by the wayside. There is only one type of director and leader who will last—and that is one who makes his vow to God, and his service to all life! Go alone and examine your hearts and find out why you are at this place on the path.

Now this symphony orchestra leader, if he is oblivious to his orchestra and too intent on his theme of music, is going to miss a great deal! The violins are liable to get ahead, the wind instruments behind, and chaos will ensue. If he is so interested in watching the individuals in his orchestra to see if they are wearied by the constant moving of the bow in playing the violin, or if he forgets the theme, or the feeling of the master composer, he will still have chaos. If he is interested only in the what an imposing figure he makes, and if he thinks nothing of the composition nor the orchestra, he will not last long. In one case you have the one-pointed individual concentrating only on service, and in the other you have the individual concentrating entirely on the group.

There is a Master Present in the Group

If you had inner sight, you would know that there is a Master or an angel present in the group, and you would see what is coming out of the energy of your group and thus understand better how to proceed to get something we can use. You would avoid the colors of resentment, rebellion, exhaustion, depletion, and what is worse, the pictures that rise in the atmosphere from the soul who comes in with the fire of enthusiasm and goes out with the fire of a different color!

The average person today, who is interested in the Ascended Masters, has obligations besides the obligation to the group. The average student has an unyielding load to carry—his own karma, the obligation of making a living, his love of the Light. I could go on indefinitely. He brings that all in with him to the class. Some day in the new temples, we will separate the chairs a little distance, because one's aura extends considerable distance in even the most lethargic person, and that aura carries a lot! It carries the cares that beset the day, the worries of the mind and heart, the family affairs, the annoyances, resentments, confusions and depression. Such auras are found in even in the best of students. Remember, anyone who comes, at least makes the effort to come to a place where the Masters are endeavoring to promote the work.

The Right Preparation

It has been suggested that people prepare for the group BEFORE they leave home, not only in physical cleanliness, but in mental peace, emotional stability and etheric purity. And may I say here, that many an ascetic man who obeyed the law of abstinence, who mortified the body and died in a hair shirt, but who did NOT perform the mortification of the feelings and mental body, has not risen as high as one more lax in fleshly things but more strict in the sublimation of the soul (etheric consciousness)!

Think it through! In the first place, you don't take your physical body with you, you take your soul. Many a man in a monastery, many a woman in a convent, performing certain abstinences and mortifications of the physical body, filled with bitterness, spiritual pride and arrogance of the soul, when that body is laid down in death, the soul, which was all that was left to go before the karmic Board is worse a soul than if they had lived a jolly life and gone home in a soul in which there was some semblance of tolerance and peace! There is a balance, in the Law. Moral and ethical obedience to the fleshly law of right living are good, and are to be commended IF they make faith in the soul, endurance in the consciousness, and purity in the nature, but if they build up frustrations and cause scars on the soul. It would be better they had never been done!

Blaze The Violet Fire Through Yourself

We start with the purification of the individual auras, trying to get out the coffee pots, the dollar signs, the desk drawers that overflow, the typewriters, the angry bosses, the disgruntled husbands and wives, bills, people—it sounds funny, but if you do not use the Violet Fire, that is what we have to work with! USE THAT VIOLET FIRE! Blaze it through yourself first, for you know you have coffee pots and tea pots and bills in your world, most of you—tight shoes and various other things. You know those are forms, very, very powerful forms!

When you touch the energy of the sanctuary or room, then get the Violet Fire going to purify it as best you can in a happy, joyous radiation. Let us not concentrate on these pictures. I want you to concentrate on the Light, but I want you to know what you are dealing with. When you come in and stand before a seeming stone wall, which sometimes is the case, it is just a solidification of people's auras and their troubles. They can't help it—they are smothered. If it were not for God, Lord Michael and the Powers of Light, there wouldn't even be a spark! I am amazed, myself, that mankind even makes the endeavor to try and understand the Law.

The leader in the ray, on the platform, has more energy, more power, more enthusiasm, more endurance than his group, which is a point that is well worth pondering! Therefore, you will "outrun" them every time! You have made your application, so you can never expect your group to be quite that which you have developed, any more than I would expect you to be the consciousness that I am. SPECIALIZE YOUR ACTIVITY! Specialize on something that needs doing! When you purify the elementals, if you could see the billions that go purified and free, you would realize something of the opportunity that is yours.

Specialize if you can on something, on some great Master, some great current need, or on that which your group is particularly interested in. THEN REMEMBER, THE MIND OR OUTER CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE AVERAGE MAN CANNOT STAY WITH ANY ONE THING EVEN FIVE MINUTES. CHANGE YOUR ACTIVITY AT LEAST EVERY FIFTEEN MINUTES IN YOUR AVERAGE GROUP. LET THEM PARTICIPATE, LET THEM USE THEIR PHYSICAL BODIES FOR A TIME, THEN LET THEM REST AND USE THE MIND, THEN LET THEM USE THE FEELINGS. You are supposed to be doing what the body elemental does for your baby form—getting all of the body used, through activity of the muscles. Suppose the body elemental used only one hand and left the other atrophied, you would have a cripple. The body elemental has the infant stretch, cry and kick and all of the body muscles are developed equally.

Balanced Activity Required

AS A DIRECTOR, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PHYSICAL, EMOTIONAL, ETHERIC AND MENTAL DEVELOPMENT OF YOUR PEOPLE. You will be interested in one facet of that endeavor more than another because you represent a particular ray—you will be enthusiastic on that and rather inclined to let the others go by, which of course is a mistake.

Balanced activity in service brings freedom! If you keep your people too long on a visualization, their minds will go back to those conditions which they brought in from the street. The mind is heavy. It is better to have one good point put into fertile soil and nourished by the decree pattern and your songs, than a thousand points which leave a person weary so that the consciousness tries to escape the concentration, and the person goes back into his own aura and beings to remember his own affairs.

The Length of the Class

This is very important! You take a group of people and blaze the flame through them and you charge your specialized activities, and if you are wise you will have them cooperate by telling them what you are going to do so you can hold the pattern. Then give them something to take home—some definite pattern to take home which will benefit them and their world. Don't let them go back into that shell! To the average man, an hour's work is considered a great spiritual achievement, two hour's work is considered super, so for the average man I would not attempt to hold the class more than two hours at the very most. What happens if you do, is that the vitality of your class work is an anti-climax and it slumps into a lethargy and the individual goes back into his cocoon and begins to think in his own world. He hopes the class will soon be over and becomes body conscious and emits the most terrific color of vermilion red, and then the leader has that to handle. Many a good man or woman who has taken the obligation of handling the karma of the group, has, within his own body the resentment of all the work he had hoped to do!

The Group is a Reflection of the Director

This Law is so practical. You have to get the ultimate out of your group, and you never will if you are not convinced yourself, if you are not enthusiastic, if you are not POSITIVE, if you are not desirous of giving your best. When you HAVE gotten the ultimate, THEN CLOSE ON THE HIGH NOTE like we do! Let the people take the light home. Remember, your group will be a reflection of yourself! If you are fiery and positive and filled with faith, courage and power, your group will reflect that. So, take a good look at yourself in the privacy of your own room and say, “Do I dare to duplicate myself in the souls of trusting men?” If not, there is the power of Holy Amethyst and therefore, no reason for depression or despair. The power of the Violet Fire will make of you something that mankind wants to duplicate.

I spent a great deal of time in Italy and in France. I used to watch the man press the grape until its essence came forth, and that essence became for them valued wine—but the pulp was thrown aside! Let us not be like that! Every individual from whom we get an ounce of energy, a portion of the substance of the physical world, let us not be like those men and women and take the essence and throw the pulp aside, but LET US LOVE THAT LIFE that gives us of itself! Let us be the loving brotherhood of angels, elementals and men! This is my word to you, whom I have loved enough to speak to as an equal, not as Master to pupil!

The Greatest Word In Any Language

I love you, love you enough to show you ways and means of greater efficacy in your service. A friend is one who comes, and if solicited will offer what wisdom, what strength, what physical substance, what emotional light he has in behalf of his fellowman. That is what I do! The greatest word in all the English language, or of Sanskrit, or of any language over the face of the Earth is “FRIEND”! Yet it is taken too lightly. I AM YOUR FRIEND OF FREEDOM, and you are mine, and together we shall make of this Earth a freedom star!

DIVINE LOVE, THE CEMENT OF THE UNIVERSE

By Lady Master Nada

Beloved ones, divine love is the most powerful activity in this universe, for it is the cohesive power which holds every electron in every atom that makes up every form—divine or human—and that cohesive power in the heart of the atom is divine love, whether it is in a human being, an Ascended Being, a solar system, a galaxy, or whatever it may be.

This power of love divine which the Ascended Masters wield, is the most mechanically accurate activity of the use of the Sacred Fire in holding together units, whether they are individuals whom you desire to assist in drawing forth blessings for mankind, whether they are the affairs of your household, the affairs of an entire nation or the planet, itself. This activity of drawing the cohesive power of pure divine love from our hearts into the very center of whatsoever unit you wish to hold a harmonized focus, will give you practical proof of our presence in this universe and our willingness to assist you at all times.

Some individuals seem to find it hard to love impersonally. If that is your feeling, then invite one of us who are the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of that love to direct it into the flame in your heart, and let us love through you, and love that life free.

In an Ascended Master retreat, individuals are prepared for the subtle as well as apparent tests and there is always an Ascended Master, Guru or guide by their side. You, who are receiving your tests, subtle and apparent, in groups, in your homes, and in the world at large, often forget THAT EVERY EXPERIENCE THAT YOU HAVE IS AN OPPORTUNITY IN DISGUISE, TO UTILIZE THE POWER THAT IS LEAST EVIDENT IN YOUR LIFESTREAM, and to magnetize through the call to the beings on the ray which is most necessary and to draw that flame and quality into yourself and the condition.

I want to emphasize first that love, real love and not sympathy (which is negative and draws you into the distress), is the power that holds the universe together. It is the power that Magnus and Polaris use to keep the axis of the Earth in its motion as it straightens. It is the power of divine love held by the Cosmic Rod in the keeping of Lord Gautama and Lord Maitreya, that holds the ten billion souls in the orbit of the Earth, and the three and a half billion souls on the Earth by what science calls the law of gravity. Otherwise people would be flying off into outer space.

The love of man for man is not as much as the love of God for man! The love of the Father-Mother God for you has been the constant pull that has kept your spines erect, that has kept mankind from becoming like the supine four-footed creatures that have to walk yet on four feet. What is that power? It is the magnetic power of divine love from the Godhead which, polarized through yourself, has kept your spine erect even though sometimes the weight of human creation does bend it a bit. If someone loved you enough to give you an erect body and a straight spine and the capacity to speak and think and feel, can you not love those who yet are forced by human creation to walk on four feet, or eight feet, or twelve, as it may be, and transmute that human creation through the use of the Violet Fire, until they stand erect in their respective kingdoms—beautiful and perfect as they were when the Earth was first created and when the beings of nature designed them, with no imperfect or distorted form?

Love begins in the center and externalizes outward, as does every lasting virtue, not from the outside, entering in. That which is to last and endure, even to the substance of your Earth, starts from within out. That is why the God who made you created the Holy Christ Flame within you, so you could have a good center and as that expands and expands, you become the fullness of it right here on Earth.

The precipitation that is to come forth is to make of Earth a Kingdom of Heaven, and it will not be manifested to the masses until the greed and selfishness and desire to hold on to the beautiful and magnificent expressions are removed.

You can test yourself very easily without saying a word to another living soul: test yourself on something of beauty, something very beautiful and not something with which you are usually associated. Take two minutes and become STILL, cognize the article of beauty and then FEEL YOUR REACTION! Is it just to love it, or is it to desire to have it for your own? If you will be honest enough in introspection, you will soon learn how to just love and enjoy the beauty of life, enjoy drawing forth that beauty for the blessing of others, and enjoy in full that which will come back to you! THE MORE YOU LOVE, THE MORE YOU ARE SURROUNDED BY BEAUTY AND THE MORE LOVING EXPRESSIONS OF LIFE ENTER YOUR WORLD. There is nothing in this unascended realm that the world needs more than DIVINE LOVE! I give to you the love that surpasses the understanding of the human mind, the love that can be felt within the hearts of all who are sincere.

THE HARMONY OF CREATION

By Beloved Paul, the Venetian

All creation, in accordance with the divine plan, consists not only of perfected forms, but harmonious sounds. Cosmic creation takes place in a symphony of exquisite melody. When the Godhead or the Solar Lords create a universe and a humanity, you may liken them to a composer creating a glorious symphony on a cosmic organ. Every individual sent forth from the heart of the Creator has a particular note or tone, which is established by the consciously-created wavelength of the cosmic energy flowing into the Threefold Flame of that Individualization. That cosmic tone, emitted by every electron in that particular lifestream, flows out continually as a conscious part of the Music of the Spheres. As the electrons swing around the central core of love, their speed determines the note which may be used in any number of blends, and thus creation is a cosmic harmony of sound.

There is no such thing as a false note, for the will of the Creating Intelligence establishes each tone and half-tone, and every succeeding electron flowing from the Godhead carries to its particular lifestream that same harmony and flow of musical beauty.

Harmony Important In Precipitation

The electrons, as they flow from the Presence through the personal self, carry this same natural harmony within them and take up their place as atoms of the flesh body—each electron moving in a harmonious motion, emitting the sound decreed into being by the Godhead for that lifestream. The cosmic note is sounded when the first atom of the physical body is brought forth and the builders of form and the devas of birth coalesce the substance of earth, water and air around this permanent atom in absolute harmony to that inner note. Thus, the flesh body, in its natural state, is a constant radiating center of uninterrupted harmonious sound and color, as should be the etheric, mental and emotional bodies, for the same color and sound follow through in their particular element.

The life-experience has shattered this natural harmony by constant shocks, irritation, annoyances, anger—and changed the speed of the electron around the core of love, changed their natural wavelength and put them out of harmony with their divine plan, thereby creating a discord and broken rhythm.

UNINTERRUPTED HARMONY IS ESSENTIAL FOR PRECIPITATION because the electrons drawn from your Presence as they sweep into your feeling world, are immediately thrown off-center, and as creation can only take place through harmony, any precipitation drawn forth without this harmony, is likewise off-center and unbalanced. THE MORE UNINTERRUPTED HARMONY THERE IS IN YOUR INNER BODIES, THE PURER AND MORE PERMANENT AND MORE BEAUTIFUL WILL BE YOUR PRECIPITATION.

THERE IS NOTHING THAT WARRANTS THE BREAKING THE HARMONY OF YOUR LIFESTREAM. This is the reason that silence and peace and “no human opinions” have been stressed, for most of you do not even know your note and none of you are expressing your cosmic tone.

You have heard the broken rhythm of your modern music, and when you step into the atmosphere of another human being, the jangle and discord of their atoms is more pronounced than even this distorted music. As a matter of fact, this distorted music is but a copy of the emanation of the lifestream of the composer!

The music of the Bridge Activity, or any harmonious melody, will assist you in rearranging the electronic substance of your body, and the heart of the Silence will pour through these electrons their cosmic note again. THE MIGHTY BEING HARMONY WILL GIVE YOU INESTIMABLE ASSISTANCE AS YOU CALL FORTH, COMMAND, DEMAND AND INSIST UPON UNBROKEN HARMONY FROM YOUR OWN LIFESTREAM. No person, place, condition or thing is important enough to destroy your harmony, because THE INDIVIDUAL ONLY CONDEMNS THAT WHICH IS OUTSIDE, WHEN HE HAS NOT MASTERED THAT WHICH IS WITHIN!

RAISING THE CONSCIOUSNESS

By Beloved Mother Mary

The God-consciousness in the universe is an eternal, ever-present state of thought and feeling, penetrating all strata of light. Into this God-consciousness, various lifestreams have tuned, through self-conscious endeavor, to unite their thought and feeling and continuous state of being with reality. According to their capacity have they received more or less of the ultimate realization, vision and beauty, and are those individuals rated in evolution as Ascended and Cosmic Beings.

The endeavor of every aspirant, chela and student is to come to a point of realization wherein his or her individual consciousness is raised to a point where it contacts and unites itself with the cosmic truth ever-present. This raising of the consciousness is the spiritual path, and the sustaining of the consciousness in truth is the spiritual way, and the realization of the ever-present consciousness of all-good is the reward of the lifestream who has determination and constancy to pursue this spiritual path to the fulfillment of realization.

We see, therefore, that the ascension of consciousness is an hourly process wherein the separate human consciousness, filled with its concepts and beliefs, is gradually quickened in vibratory action until by its very vibration it joins with ever-present truth, which previously vibrated so rapidly that the human consciousness was unaware of its subtle presence.

For an individual to achieve Ascended Master Consciousness, he must be eternally vigilant as to the condition of the thought and feeling bodies, as they form the vibratory action and wavelength of his state of being, and to accelerate the wavelength of the vibration of his consciousness to a point where it tunes into the Ascended Master Consciousness, the individual must entertain and maintain only those vibrations representative of the virtuous, harmonious, pure currents that form the ever-present God-consciousness of the universe and all Perfected Beings.

Great men and women who have followed in the footsteps of the Master Jesus, the Lord Gautama Buddha, and other great exemplars of good, have, by contemplation and imitation of their divine Masters, raised their consciousness to a point where it blended with and became one with the Master's. These people, while unascended, formed a perfect channel for the conducting of the Ascended Masters' particular gifts, which could pass through a consciousness only akin to their own, and these people thus became great forces for GOOD because through individual application, their consciousness had joined to and become one with the Master's work in his name.

If you, who seek to serve God and to unite your separate selves with the One, dwell upon the consciousness of any single Ascended Being who will train your consciousness into his or her way of thinking and feeling, this will bring about conditions and blending processes which will insure your individual ascension and make you an individualized outpost of the powers of that one. Then, all the Ascended Masters can use your consciousness as their own when it no longer dips into the vibratory action of the human state at the slightest stir of the ethers. I trust this will assist you in your earnest endeavors to sustain a realization of the consciousness "too pure to behold iniquity."

ON PRECIPITATION

By the Ascended Lady Master Nada

We have learned that man has been precipitating through the very faculties of the Godhead from the beginning of time, but the consciously directed manipulation of the processes of thought and feeling is mastery! You can see now from those stories you have read with wonder regarding the ability of a Master to create conditions in a seemingly miraculous manner, how these wonders can become a daily and natural experience in your life plan.

The life plan of the average individual is an uncertain series of experiences, resulting from the lack of control of the thought processes, energized unconsciously by the pressure of the feeling world and catapulted into expression.

The natural activity of every lifestream is to consciously direct his visualizing faculties according to the wisdom of his Holy Christ Self and to cut out of the universal light substance the pattern and form which he wishes to express—THEN TO PASS THE ENERGY OF HIS FEELING WORLD THROUGH THIS DISTINCT AND DETAILED PATTERN IN A CALM, EFFORTLESS BUT PERSISTENT MANNER UNTIL THE INNER DESIGN IS MANIFESTED.

When a golden vessel is created, a mould of a strong substance is first made and then the gold is poured into the mould. Thus, the vessel is formed first and then the mould is removed, and this is done in a methodical, tensionless manner. The thoughts and feeling processes of man can be controlled in exactly the same scientific manner and the science of precipitation gained through practice will bring manifestations more quickly.

FIRST GLIMPSES OF THE SEVENTH ROOT RACE

An Address by Its Manu – The Great Divine Director

The Ashram

April 1st, 1961

Beloved people of Earth, I greet you on behalf of my root race and its subraces. You know little of me or my service or of my people. Therefore, I invite you into my presence this morning. Now have the comfort of being seated.

A Manu is a being who primarily has taken the great opportunity of moulding a great number of spirit sparks into a specific God-design, to render a tremendous service when the time is required upon the planet, where the Manu is to either embody or to send forth his emissaries.

What Happened In Previous Eras

As you know something of the Manus who have preceded me and who are prisoners of love, you know also that my great Seventh Root Race must await the fulfillment of the divine plan and pattern for every one of the members of the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Root Races and their attendant subraces, at which time I shall be enabled to bring forth the first subrace of my root race. In previous eras, when the Lord Manu made this initial impulse upon the planet Earth, it was necessary for the Manu, himself, to take an embodiment, to hold an anchorage of the perfection of design, personage, activity and service. Then the subrace, the strongest of course of the entire root race, first built the groundwork, so-to-speak, for the activity and service for that era.

In our service, primarily upon the Seventh Ray, you have been told that we have completed our journey through the Seven Spheres and we await (in the Seventh Sphere, wherein the Ascended Master Saint Germain, the Violet Fire Temples and all activities of the Violet Flame are), the opportunity to be called by the Karmic Board and allowed to send in some of the children of our first subrace. If they come in too soon, before the great numbers of the Fourth Root Race have returned home, the Seventh Root Race, which has an entirely different keynote and service to render, would not always be able to fulfill in dignity its mission.

Purpose of the Manu

A Manu represents to the rootrace their God-Father, you might say. In my case, I shall not embody, because the Earth, through the assistance of the children of the Ascended Master Saint Germain and the tremendous calls for the Violet Flame, is being purified enough, particularly of the disembodied entities and the removal, at the close of the earth-span, of souls who would otherwise have to re-embody, and by the removal of the etheric records in the living and the so-called dead.

When it is of the hour of accomplishment, when the gates of heaven do open, there shall come forth the first subrace representing the activity of the Violet Ray of Ceremonial, all equipped with magnificent voices, all able to both precipitate and levitate at the time of birth, with the knowledge of their heavenly realm, with no veil between.

This great race is due to come forth, for the most part, in the South American Continent, although we have experimented, and successfully, with the inculcation of several members of the first subrace belonging to my dominion in the North American Continent. We have chosen South America because across Brazil and all through that country which is now jungle, the Earth has had some time to rest. Ask for me, or the Ascended Master Saint Germain to purify that stretch across the Equator which Lady Amaryllis, herself, will clear of the human effluvia and will adorn with beauty.

An Activity of the Violet Fire Beneath Amazon

Within the very Earth, down to about fifteen feet below its surface, all through and across from Peru to where the Amazon flows out to Rio de Janeiro, an activity of the Violet Fire is established. This results (and you will see it in your papers) in a great number of poisonous reptiles and various effluvia being spewed forth in the Amazon and then out to the ocean—and the Amazon will no longer be a flood of mud-tide, but that beautiful sapphire blue, which is the color of the waters in our kingdom.

Our kingdom, up where the Ascended Master Saint Germain is, is a comfortable and a happy one, and we are a patient group of individuals. We have waited long, but now we are assured by the Cosmic Law that the first subrace will be given opportunity—some of them will go before Mother Mary in the month of May, 1961—and I am quite sure that one or two thousand of these beings will take embodiment, primarily, in the North American Continent, because as yet the South American Continent is not ready for them.

Physical Description of Members of This Race

These people, as they grow to maturity, will be distinct from all other people which you have ever seen upon the planet Earth. They have hair which is amber of color, and they do not look unlike the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, except that they are all blue of eye and have the seraphic face, the slender figure, the long limbs, and long, tapered fingers. They will be artistic in the extreme. Drama will come to the fore again. The pageantry of life will be presented to the masses through these dedicated lifestreams only through that drama, ballet and music that depicts life as it should be lived. Much of the time which has been spent in the past in just enjoying, shall we say, the drama and the various media of entertainment to relax the consciousness of people will be brought to a focal point. This is our endeavor, and of course it will be accomplished according to the tenacity of the spirit sparks who will take embodiment with my blessing and with, of course, my ever-present vigilance and protection. These beloved ones will help the Ascended Master Saint Germain, tremendously, in his service and activity to life.

Materialization of the Great Divine Director

As a Manu, there is one root—and that has seven branches. It is like one tree with seven great branches, only they do not all flower at once. They flower, each one, starting from the left on to the right, until the seven subraces have found expression and completion. Then the Manu and all the subraces join together and ascend, even as they have descended before. This explanation may help to clarify this item.

As for myself, I shall materialize at the proper time. I shall not take an infant form but I shall materialize, when the beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain's kingdom is fully established on the Earth—when mankind, elementals and angels are all joined together in harmony. Then I can bring in the great numbers of those mighty beings whom I fathered and whom I love and they, in turn, will enhance the perfection of that Golden Age.

THE RESURRECTION FLAME

An Address by the Ascended Master Jesus

Easter—April 2nd, 1961

In the name, by the power and in the full authority of the Father of all life from whence I came into physical manifestation and remained upon this planet Earth for thirty-three full years, returning in redemptive processes which are also yours, I bless you on this, the anniversary of my first Resurrection Morning! May the love and the light, and the understanding and the POWER AND THE VICTORY of my heart CHARGE INTO, THROUGH AND AROUND YOU, all you hold near and dear and all life everywhere, until all mankind can understand, accept and do as I did, as I say with all the power of my being from within that flame within your own hearts: "COME FORTH NOW FROM THE DEAD—BE THE LIVING, BREATHING EXAMPLES OF THE CHRIST MANIFEST!" For this came I into the world, and for this came you, each and every one! Thank you for at least cognizing my resurrection and my presence—and will you be seated at my table!

The Table of the Cosmic Law

The table of the Lord is the table of the Cosmic Law, beloved ones, and everyone who has attained divinity's realm, no one who has risen above and beyond the realm of human creation but has had to taste of the Law, and tasting of the Law, impersonal in its aspect, has had to embody that Law in nature, in emotional stability, mental alertness, etheric purity and physical grace. That table, which is set by the powers of light who are far, far above us on the ladder of evolution, is large, indeed. I partook of the food of that table, knowing fully well in myself that Law, endeavored in my time, in my mission, TO PRESENT THAT PORTION OF THE LAW FOR WHICH THE PEOPLE OF THAT ERA WERE READY, as does your beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain and other members of the Spiritual Divine Hierarchy, partaking of the same gift at the cosmic table, present another portion of Cosmic Law whose essence is that beautiful impersonal love of which every Divine Being has spoken and which through you shall have expression for the benediction of your fellowman and imprisoned life, in the raising activity of all that is!

The Power Of The Resurrection Flame

The raising activity of life, which is the power of the Resurrection Flame, is your reason for being, so as to vitalize and accelerate the vibratory action of your inner vehicles, your consciousness, that you do become the raising presence wheresoever you move on this planet Earth, wheresoever the direct beam of your attention goes, so that there is lifted up in consciousness all to which you turn your attention and that uplifted consciousness is sustained through the power of the direction of the light rays from your Holy Christ Flame or your own I AM Presence.

Why I Could Heal

Sometimes you think you are not capable of rendering a specific service because in the outer mind you limit THE POWER OF YOUR OWN I AM PRESENCE, YOU LIMIT THE POWER OF YOUR HOLY CHRIST FLAME, YOU LIMIT THE POWER OF THE UNIVERSAL FATHER FROM WHENCE YOU CAME INTO BEING, WHICH CAN, AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE SEND A MILLION LIGHT RAYS IN EVERY DIRECTION far more powerfully than can your human mind. Why was it when they came to me and asked that I assist in the healing of the child, that even before the messenger and the servant of the household returned home, the child was healed? Because the light of the Father and the light of the illumined I AM Presence, the light of my Holy Christ Flame were given full freedom, and truly before people have called were they answered! Now, I have never been, and I never desired to be, a special being. I am just one who has embodied according to my nature, who has given of that love as best as I have known how.

Love Must Be Permanent

Time and again in my ministry, I was called upon to admonish those who enjoyed so-called miracles, those who enjoyed parables, to “love one another.” Yet, even as I have loved them, so I asked them that they should learn to love one another. That love comes from within the magnificent focus of the Holy Christ Flame, which is within your beating heart. That love is not abstract, it is not something apart to be placed upon oneself on a Sunday or upon the hours of contemplation as a mantle which is then taken off and folded away. No, it is to be a permanent and sustained portion of your feelings and the periphery of your emotional world, which is a constant gift of your Holy Christ Flame to all, for the world requires that love. It requires love more than any gift which can be given. It is not sympathy (which is a negation), but a POSITIVE CONVICTION that the Father of Light and Light is MORE POWERFUL than the creations of yourselves or any of mankind. Had I not that conviction myself, I could not have stood on Resurrection Morning, free of the tomb, resuscitated a mutilated vehicle FOR ONE PURPOSE AND ONE PURPOSE ALONE—TO PROVE THAT LOVE AND DISCIPLINE AND WORDS COULD BE MADE ACTIVE IN RE-ANIMATED FLESH FORM!

The Transfiguration

Beloved ones, you wear now consecrated garments of flesh, made up of billions of electrons, each and every one of which has known at one time such perfection in the inner realms as the outer mind cannot conceive. These electrons are but awaiting opportunity to be invoked to give forth more of their light, speeding up the rapidity of their revolutions, as they make up each atom and then, with the assistance of beloved Serapis Bey and the Great Ones, I rendered that service in the experience of the Transfiguration. So shall it be and should be for you TODAY and every day. When those atoms and electrons are so accelerated they should remain in that state.

You say the human mind cannot sustain the vibratory action and that is true, but the Holy Christ Self and the great I AM Presence and the Father of Light, who has given you the privilege of the very breath in your nostrils and the beat of your heart, is greater far than the outer mind has any comprehension. Therefore, release into the keeping of those powers of light your feelings of fear and distress, chaos and confusion, limitation and hate, decay and degradation, and the Father of Light will take from you that cross and return to you, instead, the feeling of victorious accomplishment, joyous vitality and buoyant youth and illumined faith which, through the Father of Life—the Father of myself and of yourself—all things can be done constructively and instantly!

Put Away All That is of Mortality

Let us put away from our minds and feelings, let us put away from our thoughts and our very bodies, everything that is of mortality, and don the robes of immortality and wear them well—wear them to the glory of your Father, wear them for the blessing of your fellowman, and wear them for the freedom of the Earth and her evolutions of distress. Thus you become, in your own orbit, as I was in mine, a magnificent magnet to draw those powers which are not miraculous but seem super-human because they are not in use. Draw them into the orbit of your own periphery and direct them selflessly forth wheresoever upon the planet Earth there is a requirement for assistance of any kind!

Beloved ones, when I took an earth body, there was no assurance given to me in writing by the Lords of Karma or any Divine Being that I should make my way successfully through 33 years on the earth-plane. I took upon myself the bands of forgetfulness, and of course I had the stainless spirits of beloved Mary and Saint Germain to hold the immaculate concept for me, until I was able, again, to remember it, but aside from that and the fact that I had no karma to transmute, I was as one of you! You have had your karma transmuted until where, with some of you, it was almost 100 feet, strong as concrete, around you, it is now but a mere shell, which can be burst by your love, one for another, or by one word which one of us speaks! When that shell is burst, the entire remaining effluvia is removed, and you shall have that glory, even while here on Earth, of knowing freedom and freedom's representatives from on high!

Why I Attained My Full Victory

On this Easter Morning, many, many cognize myself, some give cognizance to my mother, many hosannas are sung, many angels are cognized, but I say, if it were not for every angel in heaven, every Divine Being in heaven, every blessed prayer of my mother and my father and every blessed bit of strength from the weakest to the strongest of my disciples and apostles, I should not have attained my full victory. So I am indebted, was indebted, was indebted on Ascension Day, to ascended and unascended beings of light, as you also will be always indebted in a happy manner to those of us who love you and love you well.

The blessings of Easter, the blessings of conviction, and the blessings of the POWER WHICH I AM and WHICH YOU ARE, be upon you!

ADDRESS BY ARCHANGEL MICHAEL

I took a vow to the Sun of this system, that I WOULD REMAIN WITH THE EARTH UNTIL EVERY LIFESTREAM, every spirit spark called forth from the Sun, HAD FOUND MASTERY AND HAD RETURNED IN GOD-DIGNITY INTO THE REALMS OF LIGHT! This is my reason for being!

This makes me your humble servant, ever ready with the activity of the Sword of Blue Flame to cut you free from the accumulations of the ages, ever ready to raise you in consciousness individually, and passing through your feeling world, your mental world, your etheric body and flesh form, rhythmic pulsations of light that gradually and mercifully raise the vibrations of your vehicles. This makes you more aware of the truth of life, and more capable of receiving the instruction directly from the hearts and consciousness of the Ascended Host of Light. As that process continues, in unbroken rhythm, it enables you to return the full conscious memory of the experiences which you have in the full freedom of your Holy Christ Selves, when you lay down the weary flesh body at night.

You, in your Holy Christ Self, can function in higher realms than you can yet achieve through the etheric garment. The etheric garment is so much a part of your flesh form, that when it is purified, it will form for you a much better instrument for drawing back into the brain structure and outer consciousness, the memory of your inner experiences.

The purification of the etheric body is one of the services that we desire you to work on.

The etheric body, beloved ones, is like a mirror. It records instantly the thoughts, feelings, actions and spoken words of the individual. It imitates that which you do!

The etheric bodies of mankind have been so scarred, so mutilated, so deeply marred by the experiences of life, that they look for the most part, a sorry sight. They are what you would call in earth life, "pock-marked." These garments carry the scars of all the disappointments, the disillusionments, the hurts, all of the experiences wherein mankind has destroyed faith and trust and confidence in each other.

These experiences, imbedded in the etheric body, seemingly lie quiescent. Even as your flesh mends a cut or a wound, so does the intelligence and light within the etheric body weave over the scars and wounds a similar semblance of repaired tissues. But under tension of stress and strain, those inner experiences and weaknesses are very likely to burst forth again in renewed hatreds, renewed antagonisms, and it is my counsel to you to set about in earnest to purify these etheric garments and make them shine as they once were, pure white and exquisite, when you first began to record, through cause and effect, the experiences of life into them.

What mankind does to one another in creating those deep wounds in the etheric body is much more unfortunate than the distortions woven into the physical form, because when the form is laid down, the innocent flesh returns to the elemental substance and the wound does not remain. THE ETHERIC GARMENT MOVES WITH MAN FROM HIS FIRST EMBODIMENT UNTIL IT IS ABSORBED AT THE TIME OF TRANSMUTATION, AT THE INSTANT OF THE ASCENSION.

So watch ye well, beloved ones, what impress ye make on the etheric garments of each other, and watch ye well that ye purify those energies in your own! I speak from a heart that is filled with love for you. I speak on behalf of the angelic kingdom and my beloved brothers, who represent the seven cosmic feelings of the nature of God.

I would like to remind you that the first sin, the original sin, the sin that drew the angels from heaven and mankind from the Garden of Eden, and the elements into embroilment, was REBELLION AGAINST THE WILL OF GOD!

Will you look deep within your hearts and where rebellion flares, know you that it is part of the ORIGINAL SIN which brought you into the shadow planet. I SHALL HELP YOU TO REMOVE IT!

HOW TO ATTAIN TRUE FREEDOM By the Ascended Master Saint Germain

I have long waited the opportunity to consciously train a group of incarnate chelas in the use of the powers within the Sacred Fire. This opportunity is afforded me in proximity to your consciousness and my training shall be twofold: one, in the establishing of your consciousness in cosmic service, and the other in establishing the power within the Sacred Fire in your hearts to develop God-mastery and control in your individual worlds.

For many ages the teacher of the mysteries has had to deal with consciousness intent upon one thing, the gaining of power and mastery for individual freedom. I find myself with a group of selfless souls, so intent on cosmic service, that individual mastery and freedom have become a sideline. Again, we come to the "Middle Way." I want you to be God-free, beautiful men and women in the full mastery of perfect health, indestructible harmony, infinite supply and affluence, with the power to “make things right,” and to write the name of “freedom” in the hearts and consciousness of all that are bound, to remain as a living monument to the flame I represent—and to return each man, woman and child to his God-estate. To this end, as a personal and separate service apart from my cosmic office, shall I dedicate a portion of my life to this development.

Beloved hearts of freedom, what is freedom, in its essence? If you will examine the consciousness in the contemplation of freedom, you will find you think of it as a negative aspect of the Law, getting away from limitations, getting away from bondage, getting away from sickness, from age—escape out of shadows!

I am going to show you the positive aspect of freedom—getting into the heart of the Sacred Fire! As the self-conscious intelligence directing the fire element, you shall become master over circumstances. This is my request for you, that you learn the power which is in the Sacred Fire, until the Sacred Fire within your heart, obedient to the self-conscious intelligence which you are, flashes forth at your command and is instantly master of energy wherever you meet it!

In the bringing of the seven flames of the Archangels and the Elohim to you attention, we are endeavoring to show you the aspect of the Sacred Fire which you can wield. Within the flame in your heart is every one of these divine aspects, represented in the Hierarchy by some God-free being—Mercy, Purity, Freedom, Light, Opulence, Healing.

You must become acquainted with the Sacred Fire within your heart-beat. You must learn to free that fire at your conscious call, and then rely upon its efficacy to act for you, removing the sense of strain which comes from endeavoring to press the Law into service through human will.

The Sacred Fire acts—it is intelligent. It acts when invoked, and it will act for you according to the activity of it that you, in contemplation, desire to draw forth. Please, beloved ones, use these activities of the Sacred Fire in a practical manner for the regulation of the conditions of your worlds, in your homes, and in your affairs. If you are not the master control of the fire element which is abiding within your heart, which is only a few inches in height, how do you expect to be the master control of a series of fire bodies when you function as an Ascended Being?

Your feeling world is made up of water—our feeling worlds are made up of fire! Your mental bodies are made up ethers—our mental bodies are made up of particles of living, vibrating, pulsating flame! Your physical bodies, your garments, are flesh—ours are bodies of fire! For a consciousness to earn the right to function within fire bodies, they must first learn to draw forth and master conditions in the third-dimensional world, through the portion of the Sacred Fire entrusted to them. When you can utilize the latent power within the Immortal Flame of God that beats your heart, you have earned the right to the fire of your Causal Bodies, you have earned the right to the Fire of Freedom in its fullness.

Beloved ones, become acquainted with the power that is yours—experiment with the use of the Sacred Fire. How many centuries did I do so before I earned the right to stand before the Karmic Board and hear those words: “You have now earned the right to consciously function in a White Fire Body, because through the fire element, anchored within a physical body, you have mastered external and internal conditions, and you therefore qualify as a Lord of the Flame!”

That is your training now! You have been chosen, among all others on the Earth today, to be fashioned into the living heart of freedom, and you are being trained, through your conscious mind and feelings, to rely wholly upon the Sacred Fire, which is the immortal presence of God beating your physical heart, awaiting your conscious invocation to come forth through your world and manifest itself!

What are priests and priestesses of the flame? They are Individuals who have learned, through invocation, to set into motion the power of the Sacred Fire, and to rest in it until manifestation occurs!

How long I was attracted to the power of alchemy before I attained my freedom! The physical flame, itself, held a great attraction for me, and I felt, within myself, that in that fire element was the master-control of the various elements in the physical appearance world. In those ages, we were endeavoring to develop formulas for gold out of base metals. Our consciousness, stepping down the idea of transmutation, finally mastered it, but by the time we had done so, I had learned that which I wished to do most, was to transmute my lower nature into the divine nature of my Master and my great teacher, and the gold, like so many of the things that mankind feel are so important, was as nothing before that new and deep, burning desire—and one day that too was accomplished!

I know, therefore, the feelings your hearts. I know the tremendous interest in the things of a spiritual nature that has enabled you to pass through the initiations of these years, and to stand as enthusiastic, as powerfully vibrant in your spiritual energies today as you were when you first began. The spiritual enthusiasm of the average man lasts no longer than a year before it burns into ash and is no more, but the spiritual enthusiasm of a chela intensifies and increases by the various experiences that would dim the light of a lesser man adding coals to the fire of enthusiasm. Thus we know that the light, itself, will do the sifting and sorting for us. Those who remain, after the ash is swept away, are the pure diamond core of light, and on these we can say, in truth, that we will build a foundation which will last for many, many hundreds of years beyond the time when your blessed earth garments are outworn and you enter into the fire garments you have earned. Oh, we build for a beautiful day, my children.

LONG ISLAND IS SACRED GROUND

By the Maha Chohan

Five hundred thousand years ago, when the Atlantean culture was at its height, the substance of the land which today is Long Island, was considered sacred, holy ground. It was then, as it is now, completely surrounded by water, and the entire strip of land was dedicated to the priesthood.

The people of that age had achieved great illumination, understanding, and oneness with the God-presence, so that they knew the power of radiation and the importance of the vibratory action that passed through the bodies of embodied individuals.

It was the law that none but the priests and priestesses to the flame were ever allowed to set foot on the island, for it was a highly-magnetized center of spiritual currents. Through its purity and the protection afforded it by the gentle acquiescence of the people, this island became the most highly-charged spot on the Earth's surface. It was not advisable to step upon the island itself, for the currents of force were charged through it, and it was like touching a high-tension wire.

We intend to bring the same perfection forth, on a spiral higher, for the permanent Golden Age, and we are endeavoring to revivify those currents of light which have been drawn here for thousands of years.

THE MASTER CONTROL OF HARMONY

I greet you in the name of the presence of harmony! It has been my joy and honor and privilege for many years now, to carry the master-control of harmony wheresoever I am invoked, to assist those beloved lifestreams who show interest in the teaching of men, to become a harmonizing presence in themselves, and through themselves, the master-control of all circumstances.

Every messenger who ever came from the court of Sanat Kumara, sooner or later had to be the controlled power by which energy was channeled into constructive and beautiful form, through them. Until that accomplishment is woven into the energies of the lifestream, the secrets and powers of the Sacred Fire, that are held within the kingdom of harmony, cannot be released in their fullness into the receptive consciousness of the teacher first, and through him, imparted to his students. So, in a measure does the teacher become responsible for the amount of truth and understanding flowing from the everlasting fount, because upon the control and mastery of his own energy does the message and the truth, which flows into the lifestreams of the students in a movement, depend.

Within the heart of those great retreats and sanctuaries which dot the surface of this globe, the most exquisite balanced control of energy forms the pattern for daily and hourly living. If any of you were to step consciously, in your physical bodies, within such a holy and sanctified place, your first impression would be one of exquisite peace and relaxation. This accounts for the fact that even in the orthodox world, the kingdom of heaven is described as a place of exceeding peace.

In my service to life, representing as I do that great embodiment of cosmic harmony—whom you have come to know and love as our Lord Maitreya—it becomes my joyous opportunity, whenever given entrance into the consciousness of a devotee of the truth, to remind the outer self that harmony—like mercy, love, and compassion—is not a negative quality but a powerful and positive force, belonging only to the strong, and cultivated, through century after century of self-discipline.

It is often thought that individuals who sleep within the lethargy of inertia, are expressing and experiencing harmony, but nothing can be further from the truth! Those messengers, who are embodied peace, are not only masters of the energy, which is their own allotted gift from the source of life, but they are the constant masters of the whirling sea of emotion and thought force of even the physical bodies of those who are around them.

We all sat with the great Maha Chohan and discussed the coming opportunity, when the attention of the illumined, as well as the aspirants, will be focused on the great teachers—Lord Gautama, the beloved Lord Maitreya, the Brothers of the Golden Robe, and my humble self. The beloved Maha Chohan, in speaking with us, suggested that we emphasize that every facet of expression through the entire Seven Rays is embodied harmony—whether it is the strong drive of ordered service, in which every wheel fits into its proper place, whether it is the harmony which comes from understanding, or the harmony which is within beauty, the harmony that lies within the compass of the scientific balance of life, or that within the glory of our beloved brother Jesus’ worship and ceremony, or the perfection and harmony within the Seventh Ray.

We are so desirous of coupling the knowledge which feeds the intellect and stirs the feeling with that definite application by which those of you who are chosen to wear the Golden Robe may become the master-control of the energies that are yet within the compass of your sphere of influence.

It is the service of the Brothers of the Golden Robe to in some manner infiltrate the consciousness of those lifestreams who are given the opportunity to contact and blend with their own Christ Selves, against the mass pressure of the tides of energy which form the lower atmosphere of Earth, until they can at least sense the power of the Presence within the heartbeat.

Again and again in the East, century after century, is the student turned to that teacher of teachers—the Sacred Fire within the heart—until he can recognize its voice and comprehending its truth, lean no longer on form of any kind—neither Guru nor Master nor any externalized manifestation of the One. In our beautiful East, where the heaven is open and the cathedral of life provides the natural setting for the development of the soul, it is not difficult for the individual to become quiet enough so that the impressed directives of the Master opens the way for that communion by which soul growth and development and spiritual maturity are attained.

When we turn our attention to the West, the entire current and directives of our endeavors must adapt themselves to the rapid pace with which the vibratory action of mankind at present is so deeply enmeshed. I long for the opportunity to take you collectively, as well as individually, into an aura that has been protected and sustained in undisturbed harmony, for even thirty days.

Long before my own personal victory, when I endeavored to draw the spiritual community at Crotona, my contemplations led me to believe that in the silence this peace and harmony might be established sufficiently so that aspirants at least could find the way home. Some thought that discipline of the silence severe—and so it was, for it made every man face himself and without the crutch of words or contact, he had to walk alone back into that Secret Place of the Most High, and there abide, becoming cognizant through that endeavor of the Christ.

Many of you were with me then, but for all of that, you still remain, at present, enmeshed in this consciousness from which we would set you free!

As the beloved Saint Germain is intensifying the radiation of the Freedom Flame, we are preparing to accept the consciousness of those of you who wish to go beyond the collective unfoldment of the group to that height of understanding which you all once knew, and which is thus but a reawakening of the dormant memory, which stirs within you when we come together, but which slumbers again when the stimulus of our flame and presence withdraws. With each such coming, as our love enfolds you, that memory intensifies through the folds of your outer consciousness and you sleep not as soundly as before. So, in patience we return again, again, and yet again and gently feeding that Immortal Flame of Life within your hearts, we know that in so doing, one day you, too, will become that Master Presence.

May I thank you on behalf of our beloved Morya, whom I love as much as life, itself, for your kindness and willingness to serve with him. It was not so long ago that we sat together and he spoke of the design that he held within his heart, which he felt would help our beloved Saint Germain as he faced another crisis in his constant endeavor to serve the peoples of Earth. I promised to stand by his side, for I love him, and I love the service in which our hearts' light has bound us together, in a friendship which has been one of the sweetest experiences of my individualization. It is a beautiful thing for me to see that his circle of friends grows larger and that those who feared him, fear no more but have accepted the kindness, the sweetness and the great love that is within his heart.

As the days unfold into years and as you come to know us and join in closer association with us, I am sure you will cherish those friendships.

As you do, it brings us each into such a sweet association that enables us, through you, to serve the race, and you, through us, to taste the glory of heaven long before the day when your own individual call is come—the final page in your book of life written, your record balanced and your hearts return home!

We, who have passed this way, know well this yearning and the sacrifice entailed in remaining, for we, too, struggled with opinions, and we, too, hoped and felt disappointments through the accumulations of human selves, and yet we, too, stopped to build again upon the ashes of our previous endeavors.

I stood and saw my beautiful school at Crotona burned to the ground, within it all the records of a lifetime—all the exquisite achievement of pupils in whom I had invested all the energies of my being, art work the like of which had not been since the days of Atlantis, sculpture, marble figures dashed from their pedestals and crushed by vandals' hands. Gardens and exquisite trees destroyed—until only a rubble remained of a vision into which I had invested a lifetime. And yet the experiences within that life were such that they did enable me to become master of energy! My teacher said, “You are now a harmonizing presence which will never again be disturbed by any external distress nor any internal weakness. You are fitted to enter my service and become a member of my court, and one day soon, if you choose, shall wear my cloak upon your shoulders!” I was happy then that, although the tears rolled down my cheeks as I saw my dream destroyed, that I had held a certain peace, even in that suffering.

If you could see each one, beloved children, how you build up that mastery, you would really welcome opportunities to flood the flame from within your own God-self through energy of a turbulent nature—and one day when you stand before Lord Maitreya and you feel the benediction and blessing as he confirms your appointment as that presence, you will be happy, indeed, for every endeavor along this line.

I am grateful for your calls to nature. I am sensitive to the song of nature, and to her cry, for it was in the cathedral of nature that I found my peace and my ultimate victory. And even yet wherever I am, so long as I remain within the orbit of this Earth, I sense and respond to any cry from the Earth or the nature kingdom, the four-footed kingdom, or your own body elements when distress causes unhappiness. I have felt for the people of India and China, where famines wipe out millions of lifestreams. I feel exceedingly for the people in every nation who suffer, because the creations of mankind have been such that nature can no longer abundantly supply them.

There is no reason, there is no need for drought, flood, or any type of distressing situation to manifest in an area, where Ascended Master students are living. We always look with hope that one may open the door that we may render the service and bring the balance. It is one thing for the unconscious masses to suffer, but it is an indignity to our own life and our friendship for those who are our heart friends to allow such suffering in their presence.

May I commend you on your endeavors, and encourage you in my commendation to go further! I thank you and I bless you!

THANKSGIVING By the Maha Chohan

The Feast of Thanksgiving is a universal, cosmic activity, that takes place at inner levels and has been celebrated for aeons of time.

When America first acknowledged Thanksgiving, the early forefathers merely tuned into this cosmic day. It is significant that the United States is the only nation on the Earth today which celebrates this holy service, when life pours forth gratitude for all that is given.

With the great Helios, I represent one of the Hierarchy who is the recipient of the gratitude from all life for our outpouring through nature and the avenues that supply energy to the people of Earth. This has been my very great privilege for many centuries. At inner levels, the Thanksgiving Ceremony is celebrated by every angel, Master and nature spirit, for they know that the very breath in their nostrils has come to them through grace, and passes through my body.

Mankind's attention is more or less upon the satisfaction of the outer senses, but there will come a day when the people of Earth (as the early pilgrims) will pour gratitude to nature for an opulent harvest and the gifts of the Holy Spirit, manifest throughout the year.

The holy season, from Thanksgiving through New Year, is a God-send to the Hierarchy that govern this universe, for mankind's attention is the most valuable lever by which we can raise them again to perfection. Through the course of the busy year, their attention is not easily gained, even for a moment, but during the Christmas Season, the resentment and rebellion at Godly things, are held in abeyance, and through their receptivity, we can more quickly permeate them with the true understanding of life.

BELOVED SHAMBALLA

By the Maha Chohan

The magnificent activity which takes place at Shamballa each year, bears witness to the wisdom of the Cosmic Law, in allowing beloved Morya to part the veil and allow the students to participate in the activities that engage the energies of the Brotherhood.

Each year, as the twelve-month cycle draws to a close, Shamballa becomes host to the lifestreams dedicated to bringing remembrance to the outer consciousness of the divine plan and the way and means by which each individual unit may weave the energies of his own life into fulfilling that plan.

The Great White Brotherhood, composed of the Ascended Beings who have foresworn Nirvana to remain as the guardians and teachers of the race, have always looked forward to this yearly gathering, when they brought in the harvest of their endeavors working through chelas, but it was primarily a private and closed activity, in which, very seldom, would any chela participate who had a less spiritual standing than an initiate or an adept.

Now, thousands of unascended beings have woven for themselves a sufficient momentum of impersonal service, to give them passport into the presence of the Lord of the World. Millions, while not able to pass through the flaming ring of spiritual force which forms an actual periphery of the city proper, are enabled, at least, to stand around the central core of qualified God-energy and be bathed in the radiance which is emitted from the grateful, thankful hearts of all who participate in these festivities. PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING ARE THE PASSPORT BY WHICH THE SOUL IS SIGNED OUT FROM AMONG ALL THE SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF MEN, AND WITH A GUARDIAN ANGEL IS BROUGHT INTO THE CELESTIAL RADIANCE OF SHAMBALLA. THE MORE GRATITUDE AND LOVING PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING that the consciousness can generate and sustain, the closer will the soul come to the central temple, and the more often will it be allowed the privilege of standing in the blazing presence of the Lord of the World—and the more individual progress will be the return current of energy for such service.

The magnetic pull at Shamballa draws the souls of all the race, as does the magnetic pull of energy of every retreat, when it is set into motion on the 15th of each month. If you go unconsciously, you do not receive the mental benefit that you can receive if you go consciously.

There is no desire to cause stress or strain in the feelings of the blessed students, but if they were to start on a journey on the earth-plane with as little preparation and as little thought of the goal toward which they were driving or walking, I am sure they would not get there! The tendency of the human is to rely always upon a greater intelligence to do the actual work, but the joy and mastery within life comes when YOU incorporate the energies of your own world, and you find energy and vibration obedient servants that respond to your every directed thought and conscious feeling.

The great flame blazing on the altar at Shamballa is actually the receptacle into which the qualified energies, offered in impersonal service to life, are poured. The service at Shamballa differs from that at the Rocky Mountain Retreat where the Brotherhood and the chelas will give a worded description of their endeavors, their successes and their failures—at Shamballa only energy is used to create this mighty flame, which is the harvest of the year, but the description of the way that energy was gathered, qualified and consecrated, has no part in this service.

It is a magnificent and beautiful experience to go to Shamballa. Ask your own outer consciousness remember the glory of Shamballa and draw it into your feelings at this season.

WE DO REQUIRE AN ARMY OF LIGHT By the Ascended Master Saint Germain

Beloved friends of old, friends of life and my friends forever! God bless you for your perception of truth, which has enabled you to step forth from the mass mind—fearless, dauntless and determined to weave out of the primal essence of your own life, the magnificent robes of freedom, which you shall wear as representatives of myself in the world of form, and which you shall, in kindness, place upon the shoulders of the men, women and children of the race, in the Golden Age which it is our privilege, honor, and responsibility to bring forth in this physical appearance world.

LET US COUNSEL TOGETHER AS FRIENDS, AS BROTHERS AND SISTERS INTERESTED IN ONE GREAT VISION, IN EXTERNALIZING ONE DESIGN.

Those who have looked into the future, those who have listened to the words of the Master, speak freely of the Golden Age that is to come! It is pleasing to the tongue, amusing to the mind, and it gives hope to distraught feelings, seeking always some measure of peace in the sweet “by-and-by!” But WHEN are you going to begin to externalize this Golden Age, which it is my responsibility as Chohan of the Seventh Ray to manifest upon this planet? Common sense will tell you, you must begin with the students, with the individuals who have accepted even intellectually my presence in this universe. It is to you few that I look for the inception of the Golden Age upon the Earth, in your personal lives, in your home, in your sanctuary—and then you will become the magnet which will draw the masses, who will be more interested in the fruit and harvest of your endeavor, than the application by which you attained your victory.

I am asking you now to take an inventory of your own earnest and sincere world, to see what improvement—individually and collectively—you can make to prepare to externalize the Golden Age of absolute unconditional harmony, inexhaustible strength and energy, the youth of Sanat Kumara, the perfect health of the Master Jesus, the infinite supply which flows from your own God heart, and anything and everything which is an amplification of perfection. You, who are my friends, to you I give this assignment—to become now the establishment of the Golden Age of harmony, health, peace, beauty, and perfection through the orbits of your own individual worlds, your homes and cooperative groups. Every great thing had a small beginning!

I remember the vision which it was mine to impart to a few strong men and women of a land where they might have liberty to pursue and follow the dictates of their own hearts, and weave for themselves a new world, which one day would be the heart of freedom. A vision is a beautiful thing, and when it is accompanied by the enthusiasm of application, it becomes a fact! A vision shared, even between friends, when both parties embody their energies and talents to manifesting it, brings blessings, not only to them but to all life. But we, who have passed beyond the human veil, and stand in the realms where it is so easy to see the divine design, are dependent upon incarnate lifestreams to grasp our vision and through the acceptance in the mental body, to see the possibility of blessing the race through their own voluntary, self-conscious endeavor.

From this inner realm, where we abide, we constantly direct the energy and light rays from our hearts into sensitive consciousnesses, hoping that someone might grasp a portion of that vision—in dreams, revelations or contemplation, according to the development of the individual self. These incarnate friends become ourselves in action, for that is the Cosmic Law. We can only do, in the physical appearance world, that which we can do through those of you who still are a part of the mental and feeling world and the physical substance of the sphere which we desire to bless. So, my vision for freedom and a permanent Golden Age of planetary proportions, where all men and women are brothers and no such thing as disintegration, disease, or death are known, is dependent upon the receptivity of incarnate lifestreams.

In Europe, after I had accepted my ascension and the Great Divine Director recommended that I take that final step, it became my hourly occupation to look over incarnate lifestreams who had any desire to better the race or to do God's will, no matter how orthodox their faith might be. These men and women of good faith and goodly living became the recipients of my directed ray, which stirred within them sufficient enthusiasm to stand for the right to worship God as they chose, and be willing to leave home and family and security to travel across the sea to your beautiful shores.

Today, I am in exactly that same position. When I received the crown at the hour of coronation and saw the vision in its fullness for the first time, seeing the Earth as it will be in the Golden Age which must come, it was then, again, my obligation to look into the world of form and try to connect my energy with those lifestreams who could grasp, oh, just the smallest portion of that vision, through whatever medium was afforded me—a word of expression, of inspiration, a pressure of radiation to stimulate and sustain enthusiasm and interest in world brotherhood, in Godly living. This I am endeavoring to do to those of you who have opened your mind to me, and more important still, opened your hearts!

Blessed hearts, within your very physical form is the presence of the living and mighty God! It is this Presence that enables you to say, "I AM!" Let us return to that fundamental of contemplation within yourselves that the presence of the living God within you must be loosened and given opportunity through the energies of your world, to express and manifest perfection. It is not as important the creed or faith of a man, as it is that through that creed or faith—whatever it may be—he contacts that presence of God and becomes one with it, allowing it to surge forth into his world!

In our realms of Ascended Beings, who have risen on the ladder of evolution in every creed, in every religion, many of the religions no longer being known on the Earth today, but those who achieved the victory, made that contact with the living, breathing Ever-Presence, calling its mighty power forth, refusing forever the acceptance of a power opposed to it, and in the invocation and radiation of that Presence, they became again the fullness of incarnate gods! That is what I ask—that you turn back to the God that beats your heart and let the roots of your attention go deep into that mighty source and draw forth the healing currents required to restore your flesh, the substance you require to fill your world, the light you require to illumine your mind, the peace you require to establish and sustain harmony in you. When your roots are anchored deep within that living Presence, no matter what the world of form might show, you shall not be moved!

TODAY, A PERMANENT ERA MUST COME. IT IS COSMICALLY ORDAINED! A GOLDEN AGE IS TO BE THE PERMANENT STATE FOR OUR EARTH AND ALL WHO ARE SO HONORED AS TO REMAIN UPON IT. THOSE WHO DO NOT CHOOSE TO ACCELERATE THE VIBRATORY ACTION OF THEIR ENERGY SHALL FIND HOSPITALITY ON ANOTHER STAR, BUT THE PLANET AND THE FEW WHO ARE WILLING, SHALL GO FORWARD TO FREEDOM! IN THIS, YOU CAN HELP ME IF YOU WILL, THROUGH YOUR OWN ENDEAVOR TO CONNECT WITH YOUR GOD, TO EXTERNALIZE HIS PERFECTION AND TO GRASP AS MUCH OF MY VISION AS YOUR MENTAL BODY WILL ALLOW YOU TO ACCEPT.

When your inner bodies are refined and have that consciousness of “listening grace,” then easily at times of crises, we can flash the flame and easily, the brain consciousness absorbs and the physical body moves into action if necessary, and performs the service for us. YOU ARE OUR HANDS AND YOU ARE OUR FEET, YOU ARE OUR LIPS, THROUGH WHICH WE CAN SPEAK! YOU ARE OUR EYES, THROUGH WHICH WE BLESS. WE HAVE NO OTHER IN THIS WORLD OF FORM! When your vehicles are unwieldy, when they are heavy, it is impossible for us, at a moment when a service can be rendered, to direct that beam through with sufficient intensity to reach your outer consciousness and your earnest hearts.

This is most important—for in the days that are to come, WE DO REQUIRE AN ARMY OF LIGHT ALL OVER THIS EARTH, of individuals in a constant state of alertness, a constant state of grace, a constant state of harmony, balance and poise, ready to move at an instant! Then if an activity is about to take place, and we desire to direct a thousand light rays simultaneously, A THOUSAND LEADERS WILL STAND, and a THOUSAND GROUPS WILL GO INTO ACTION and disaster will be averted. This is the training for the few, who walk under the banner of freedom in my name!

PREPARATION OF A WORLD TEACHER

Address By Jesus, The Christ

My beloved Master, Lord Maitreya, asked me to give you an explanation of the preparation of a World Teacher, since I have passed through the experience and initiation myself.

The cosmic cycle of spiritual nourishment required to mature a newly-born spirit spark, takes approximately fourteen-thousand years. That is one complete revolution of the cosmic wheel—two thousand years being under the specific radiation of each one of the seven rays through the directed energies of the Chohan representing that ray.

As the cosmic wheel turns, it is similar to the advancing seasons upon your Earth, all of which are required to bring to maturity a harvest planted in the spring. Each two thousand years, a certain current plays upon the soul of man, and at the end of the fourteen-thousand-year cycle, the harvest is ready—or should be—to be garnered. The great World Teacher, and presiding Chohan of the Ray in that two-thousand-year cycle, work out together a plan or religion, ceremonial worship and radiation, which will best benefit the souls of men who are to have the privilege of embodiment during that period of time.

The World Teacher looks upon the radiation and the particular gift of that ray as it will flow upon the Earth. Then, with his lieutenants, he examines the souls who are to embody and have the experience of developing within that two-thousand-year cycle. Looking upon the divine plan, he examines the souls of those who are to embody and have the experience of developing within that cycle of time. He designs a pattern of worship which will stimulate the soul light and life in that entire cycle. This was completed by the beloved Lord Maitreya, preceding my earth life. The Christian Dispensation was worked out in detail at inner levels to give the greatest blessing and benediction of the Ray of Devotion through the planet Earth, and the lifestreams who were to evolve and develop during the two thousand years while the Sixth Ray was predominant.

Before the Christian Dispensation was brought forth, a great cosmic council was called, and this presentation of the entire Christian Dispensation was thrown upon the cosmic screen, showing how it would be first originated and developed by a humble group of individuals, then how it would be matured as greater intensity of the ray began to play through those who would dedicate themselves to such service.

At the close of this presentation, volunteers were asked who might choose to partake of the great privilege and honor of bringing the first impulse of that dispensation through the veil of birth into the physical appearance world. Many of us, having such tremendous love for mankind, and being eager to see the fulfillment of God's will on Earth, volunteered, and from these volunteers, Lord Maitreya—looking at the Causal Body and the development through the ages and the specialized talents and characteristics of the lifestreams—chose my beloved mother, myself, my beloved father, and the disciples. All of those were among the volunteers!

Lord Maitreya was required to test the strength of each one, and through the process of initiation, certain lifestreams were eliminated. Finally, the heart group who were to perform the pageantry in the world of form, was consecrated and blessed by Lord Maitreya and sent to the Temples of Purification to await the summons by the Karmic Board. At the moment when their part in the divine drama was about to be enacted, Joseph, Mary and the disciples appeared in physical bodies in various places. They were humble individuals, and most of them were not remembering much of the inner vision or vow, but awaiting the cosmic moment when that clarion call, which is invisible and known only to the heart, would go forth and summon them to fulfill their destiny.

I, too, at the cosmic moment, was called. I, too, received the blessings of Lord Maitreya. I, too, was bound and passed through the period of forgetfulness and took an earth body. I, too, awoke to a world of form, to a world of shadows, and had to find, within myself, the reason and purpose of my being. Well do I remember those early days in Egypt, when I was taken at a tender age into those temples, when I learned the Law before the priests. Well do I remember my gratitude for the love of my mother and my father, which balanced the austerity, the discipline, the tremendous pressure required of even a child who applied for mastery in one of the temples at Luxor.

I remember the first day, when suddenly the consciousness of Lord Maitreya entered my own! Then it seemed as if I had awakened from a bad dream. When I saw, with the clarity of the inner sight, his glorious shining face, I said, with every fiber and cell of my being, "Oh, Father! Oh, Father!" And back on that beam of energy came the joy of his heart in that recognition, "My son! My son!" Never again did I walk alone! Closer and closer we drew—no veil between, no shadow that could claim power, one with the Christ, and he one with God!

And so I grew, matured and fulfilled a humble part in the destiny of this great evolution. It was my joy to walk the paths of Earth. It was my joy to show my confidence in that father in manifest works. It was my joy to walk the path to Golgotha, and it was my joy to burst forth triumphant from the tomb!

Do you know the hardest experience of that whole life? It was the parting on the Hill of Bethany into the Ascended Christ—the leaving of dear hearts and consciousnesses that I knew yet needed comfort and strength, the leaving of my mother and John and those who had loved me well! Yet had the magnetic pull of my love turned earthward, the currents would have been broken. Every atom and cell of my being had to be sent up into the heart of the Electronic Presence to make FOR YOU the pattern of the ascension, which it is your joy and your destiny to fulfill. Beloved ones, I love you. LOVE YOU NOW ONE ANOTHER!

UNINTERRUPTED HARMONY

Address By Beloved Mary

I come to give to you my feeling of the kingdom of harmony! Will you accept it?

Oh, thou beloved Holy Christ Self of each and everyone, I charge you, in the name of my beloved son, the Ascended Jesus Christ, to command the emotional bodies, the mental bodies, the etheric and physical bodies this day, with the vibratory action of the Ascended Masters' uninterrupted harmony! Relieve and release the pressure of all outer tension. Give conviction to the emotional world of our presence and reality and desire to befriend all that lives! Help them to realize the moment our names are spoken and their attention is placed on us, that very moment we respond—in person, if possible—if not, then in our Luminous Presence of light. In the name of the Ascended Jesus Christ, I call for God-protection in, through and around you, my beloved of the light!

Oh, thou great emotional body, wherein is stored the energy of acceptance and the energy of unbelief, in the name of the Ascended Jesus Christ, OPEN THYSELF to the acceptance of all that I am!

Oh, thou mental body, in which is stored all the distortions of the recognition of imperfection, open thyself to the immaculate concept of the Deity anchored in these hearts.

Oh, thou etheric bodies, in the name of the Ascended Jesus Christ, I command you to LET GO, LET GO, LET GO of every record wherein these lifestreams have failed, where they have not lived up to their light, every record and memory of distrust, suspicion, and imperfection of every kind. LET GO, LET GO, LET GO of these etheric records into the Violet Transmuting Flame, and let these records be no more!

Oh, thou beloved flesh bodies, in the name of the Ascended Jesus Christ , I call to you to send forth into this Violet Flame, every record, every record of age, disintegration, and imperfection that would result in so-called death—LET GO, LET GO, LET GO and be thou no more!

What I have called forth in, through, and around each one of these blessed lifestreams, oh, powers of God, I call forth now on behalf of ALL MANKIND, and every lifestream who requires healing and assistance of any kind! May these words be issued, and re-issued, through the emotional, mental, etheric and physical bodies of ALL LIFE, until there is no longer a lifestream on this planet, embodied or to come, who knows distress or imperfection of any kind.

Oh, beloved infinite God I AM, I thank you for the privilege of acting in this physical appearance world, speaking to the hearts and minds of the faithful, using them as radiating centers by which my gifts may flow to all mankind!

ADDRESS BY THE ASCENDED MASTER SAINT GERMAIN

I stood at the beginning of the Christian Dispensation and into my arms the beloved Master Jesus (who was to be the first impetus of that entire dispensation) was placed—even before his mother received him. I stroked tenderly the soft down on that baby head. I looked into those large liquid eyes that had not yet focused upon the plane of consciousness and shadow into which he had come to function. I touched those soft hands that one day would call the dead to life, and through which would flow the energies by which withered arms would be restored and the blind be made to see. As I looked upon that infant form, there did not seem, at that hour, to be much except faith to carry us forward in the hope of establishing a creed which would become the lifebreath of millions.

I walked the long way into Egypt with that infant and that beautiful girl bride. I made the first pair of sandals for those baby feet. I listened as my beautiful Mary spoke to her son about the importance and devotion that each man should feel toward the souls of other men. I learned of the tenderness of the Eternal in that simple life. Who would have thought then, as we lived so simply, as I earned our meager bread as a carpenter, that one day the Christian Religion would be accepted by millions, great edifices would be builded, and thousands of voices would join in song and adoration to that small child and his blessed mother—and yet, it has been done!

I see your hearts, I see the strengths and weaknesses, and I see the tenderness in each of your souls. Yet, I know, for now I see with freedom's sight, that tomorrow's world is being builded today through the consciousness of individuals WILLING to sit at the feet of the Masters and accept their word, their understanding, their promise, as much of the vision as their blessed minds can accept, and as much of the truth as their feelings can absorb.

Be of good cheer! For centuries I desired to establish a world brotherhood, where every man will love his neighbor and the good of all life will be the paramount feeling within each heartbeat. My beloved heart friends, you are building a foundation today just as surely as we—that innocent humble family in Galilee—builded a foundation in, through and around a few fishermen, which has become the strength of a dispensation that has lasted for two thousand years. What is religion, in its final essence, but a way to find God, and in that finding, each man to become a God incarnate!

Contemplate, in the silence of your room, the power of God within you, and allow it to transform your world. I shall help you, for YOU are my representatives! You are the lifestreams that mankind can see! Your bodies, worlds, and consciousness represent my teaching, my world and my very self! I am dependent upon you to mirror that which you have received through the years from me. Arise in the mastery of your Godhood! Wear the robes of freedom which I give you! Use the power of the Sacred Fire. Who among you is going to arise and BE? We shall see!

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE GARMENT OF LIGHT

By the Ascended Master El Morya

The building and sustaining of a personal atmosphere in which you may unfold your latent capabilities, is not only within the scope of your lifestream's present capacity, but is also an important, though unrecognized, requisite to progress.

The power to visualize and create, through the mental faculty, a wall or garment of pure white light around the energy of the lifestream, must be developed either here or hereafter. In the realm of the disembodied, the environment and necessities of the soul are dependent upon the power of the thoughtforms generated and sustained by the individual. In the realm of the Ascended Master activity, all cosmic service, manifestation and sustained activity, are resultant from the concentrated, controlled thought, energized by the substance of feeling, which creates a star, a sun, a temple, a planet, or a self-luminous diamond of iridescent hue!

Again and again the Ascended Masters have stressed the visualization of and the conscious creation of the protective circle of flame around the energy of the lifestream. It disconnects, or short-circuits, so-to-speak, the discordant energy waves, which otherwise would be tied into and become a part of the mass pressure of every lifestream living in the present stratum of unascended beings. The energy flowing from your God-Presence I AM, through your lifestream, is constantly meeting, mingling with and being affected by other energies drawn, projected or released—consciously or unconsciously, by other facets of life. The moment that your energy contacts another flow of energy through a person or a condition, one of two things happens:

- 1) Either your energy is requalified by the energy which is met and connects with yours, or
- 2) The power of your energy is the master that controls, transmutes and re-directs the energy toward which it is focused.

The Ascended Master is always the controlling power of any energy which his lifestream contacts during the progress of his spirit through any experience of life.

The student, who has drawn a greater power of energy through his calls and invocations, who does not visualize himself enfolded within this garment of white light, finds that when his energy meets a discordant condition, the greater energy, which he has drawn, is re-qualified by the discord and causes him more difficulty than one who had less energy around him.

If the student had only the energy from his own God-Presence coming to him, the natural flow of that perfect life through him would regulate, supply and purify his own accumulation within six months to a year—but as he is being constantly bombarded by invisible streams of force to which he has connected himself through his attention, the pure energy released from his God-Presence is visibly and tangibly affected, and tends to keep him bound within his chains.

Sit down undisturbed, and turn your attention to your God-Presence I AM—visualize a wall of flame around you, through your own mental capacity. Accept joyously that radiant garment of light, so that your feeling fills it with happiness and gratitude for its protection. Let the energy from your Presence flow through you, undisturbed, for five minutes, washing you clean. Then begin definitely to CHARGE the energy within that protective ring of blazing light—with the Ascended Masters' God-control of ALL ENERGY with which you come in contact, whether it is in your business, social, or spiritual life, and charge this energy with power, mastery, purity, peace, harmony, beauty, etc.

Take no quality into your world which is charged with energy waves expressing less than perfection. Thus, your energy becomes qualified with God's perfection, and your electronic circle or aura is a constant guard around you—waking and sleeping.

Every Master is so enfolded, and the oval of light in which they appear is the consciously drawn, visualized and sustained activity of God-energy qualified to master all energy of a lower vibration, wherever such energy is catapulted against or connected with the lifestream of such a Master.

No man can live unto himself! Your energy connects with the store clerk when the substance of the purchases is placed within your hand. It connects with the individual with whom you shake hands. It connects with all your contacts over the telephone, through mental force, or to whom you write or with whom you associate. It connects with your radio commentators and with authors, through the power of attention! It is, therefore, always either acting upon or registering the radiation of the person or condition contacted.

This is true of every part of life you contact, and I cannot stress too powerfully the cultivation of controlled attention and the visualizing of these activities presented for your FREEDOM!

GOD'S WILL AND THE DIVINE PLAN FOR YOU

By the Maha Chohan

For centuries, man has sought to know God's will, but God's will is not a fast, tight, unchanging series of orthodox statements! God's will is a free, unfolding, changing, expanding expression of beauty!

The will of God is presented to the emissaries of his kingdom, and each twelve months as much of that will as can be received, assimilated and radiated, is drawn down by the Ascended Masters into the outer consciousness of the people of Earth. These divine thoughts and ideas enter into the inner bodies of the people and, by radiation, set up similar currents within their mental and feeling worlds and stimulate the individuals to endeavor to express them.

When a man builds a house, he does not spend all his time pouring concrete in the basement, but moves from place to place in the creation of his structure—and so the God will does not stress one particular virtue in building the spiritual nature. Each year stresses the unfoldment of a particular quality of feeling, but mankind are so stubborn and set in the idea that they know God's will to be either austerity, self-denial, or any number of mistaken ideas, that they always seem to be pouring concrete in their basement!

The divine plan contains no unhappiness, no sordidness, no limitation. The divine plan is not a stereotyped set of immovable bodies that will never change or expand their consciousness. It is a heart center of perfection for every lifestream belonging to this universal scheme, and it can be expanded, without limit, according to the creative powers of the individual.

The divine plan of the Spring is abundance of flowers, blossoms and trees—an outpicturing of beauty and perfection, but the quantity of spring flowers is determined by the individuals who have chosen to cultivate them!

In like manner, your divine plan is for a harmonious, beautiful home, a happy, healthy body, and illumined mind, and a definite part in the eternal scheme of creation. From the heart-center of your divine plan YOU MAY WEAVE AS MUCH BEAUTY, PERFECTION AND HARMONIOUS EXPRESSION AS YOU CHOOSE. You are pre-destined to perfection, but the quantity of perfection is subject, always, to the discretion of your own lifestream.

Know always that every physical expression from any part of life that widens the realm of beauty, peace and well-being, is a pulsation from the heart center of God's divine plan for all.

Therefore, dear students, open your hearts to the perfection of God's will for you and let your divine plan manifest now!

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY IN THE USE OF LIFE

By the Ascended Master Kuthumi

Watching the descent of the radiant energy of the lifestream into the individual's conscious use, we see the tremendous responsibility that every individual has in being the dispenser of life. The glorious pure energy of God, each electron of which contains the fullness of the divine plan, not only for the individual, but for the solar system of all these planets, continues to flow into the individual's use under the conscious direction of the personal self, and for every electron loaned to the individual shall he render an accounting!

When you call to the Holy Christ Self and ask to have released into your conscious use all the powers of your being, the Holy Christ Self takes note of your use of God's energy in a twelve-hour period. The energy you use daily is only about ten per cent of the allotment of your lifestream. How many of you can say that even one hour of the twenty-four, these electrons, this radiant energy, the spiritual essence of divinity has flowed through you clean and uncontaminated, and qualified only with divine love? How then can you be considered fit to be the conscious custodian of more of that precious life essence?

Ask, then, for the assistance of your Holy Christ Self in the dispensing of your life energy each hour of daily living, and not alone in decrees!

Remember, man is like a sieve with a thousand holes and the energy of God is constantly flowing from each one in emotions, in thoughts expressed and unexpressed, in the actions of the flesh body, and in the spoken words. Jesus' statement, "Be ye faithful over little things, and I will make you master over many," is this truth expressed.

Those who aspire to Godliness and to give greater service, and who desire the full use of all the energy of their lifestream, must make concerted, conscious effort to guard the life flowing into them each hour. Check impatience and irritation and thoughtless words! Stop the conscious churning of thought processes that re-qualify God's pure life and energy, and keep pouring forth as my great Lord Maitreya said, an emotion of "rest in action." Then the Holy Christ Self, looking upon your use of the talents in hand, may double those talents in your experience. Otherwise, it would not be the part of mercy or justice to increase your responsibility, while you are yet unable to dispense, constructively, the small allotment of life that God has given to you.

When you study and contemplate, you draw celestial power into your world. When you decree, you pour forth this power to bless all mankind with your increased light. ACCORDING TO YOUR USE OF KNOWLEDGE, IS MORE GIVEN.

LOVE LIFE FREE

By the Ascended Master Saint Germain

Beloved friends of love and light eternal, my wish for you, each and every one, is a God-victorious New Year, in the establishment on this Earth of that pattern and plan divine which I have held long in my heart for a Utopia to manifest here and now. What is that Utopia? I wrote of it long, long before I was given opportunity to attain a position of using it!

This year let us be about the establishment of God-freedom, which comes through understanding of the Law by which we attained freedom, and which we give to you by which you, too, can attain freedom, when those laws are put into action.

The minds of men are being cleared, as are their thoughts, feelings, and emotions, and even their physical bodies, as the great cosmic slate of life requires, under the direction of Cosmic Law, to quickly bring into physical manifestation, all the perfection which is within the realm where the Seventh Root Race and the Great Divine Director and his children abide.

What is a root race? It is just like the root of a tree—it is the root from whence extends seven beautiful branches. The root race is first established through its Manu and then the seven beautiful branches come forth. When it is completed, you have a magnificent manifestation, and in this case, the Violet Root Race and the seven subraces. The Sixth Root Race and its subraces are preparing for the entrance of the Seventh Root Race into the world of form. If this seems difficult to understand, I ask you to think about it and love it until you make way, through the power of your own love and light, for the coming into being of this Seventh Root Race and its mighty Manu, whose servant I am and shall remain!

Beloved ones, feel alive within you enthusiasm and encouragement in the cause of freedom, in the spreading and expanding of the powers of the Sacred Fire of Transmutation of the seeming distresses until you are the fullness manifest in the physical appearance world of the glory of God! It is God who made you and made me and every ascended and unascended being! The only difference is that you, through thought, feeling, word, and action have created temporary shadows, while we have passed over the “bridge” from the human realm into divinity’s realm in our thoughts, feelings, words, and deeds. We are in a position to give to you our energy, our love, our light, to carry you to the same victory when your call comes for your blessed spirits to have their eternal freedom!

I have promised that freedom to all those whose souls and spirits seem to dwell for a time in distress and it is my joy to continue to fire you with the enthusiasm for true freedom, until all life will experience that freedom of consciousness and move in that pathway of freedom, using life only to expand perfection!

The freedom of consciousness of which I speak is that which is anchored constantly in the realization of the power of the Holy Christ Flame in the heart. Thus, the human free will and all its attendant foolishness will let go! The freedom of the consciousness of mankind from the limitations and distresses of its past, will be an eternal verity manifest here on Earth!

In America you have known great freedom—politically, scientifically, religiously, and spiritually. These are all gifts of freedom. Now we offer you the permanent freedom of God, the consciousness to hold sustained, within you, that realization of the power and powers of God to act to, through and around you and give God-assistance wheresoever it is required. Thus, stepping through the veil of human creation, we are heart friends serving always to free imprisoned life through LOVE, remembering that LOVE ALONE gives that freedom, and LOVE ALONE raises the vibratory action of distress into that which is harmonious enough to accept the calls and invocations which have been given.

You can change the vibratory action of yourselves into that of pure divine love, by calling to beloved Charity or any one of us to love through you the divine plan and pattern for the Earth and all that seems distressing upon it, until love becomes as automatic as breathing! Love, in that great impersonal devotion to the divine plan fulfilled, must become and manifest in, through and around you until you can CONSCIOUSLY LOVE LIFE FREE!

You can’t escape it! I tried! I went all the way to Bermuda to escape those conditions which I knew were imperfect in England, and yet I took every one of those memories with me and I knew I had to return and love that life free! That, with the assistance of the beloved Great Divine Director, I was privileged to do!

So, take opportunity in this embodiment to LOVE LIFE FREE and become a flame-bearer, your cup filled with the essence of divinity's great and holy light!

When you feel that you want a deep breath, as you draw it into your lungs, at the same time think, "Now I will call for this presence of pure divine love, which is a positive quality, in, through and around me at the same time!" Take it as a gift, a gift to be received and accepted.

A brand new book of life is yours in this New Year! Through the power of the Violet Transmuting Flame, we shall endeavor to help you make of it a God-victorious year for you, each one. Accept myself as one with you in the God-feeling of love of life! I love this Earth! I love all upon it, all who have ever been upon it, and all who are to come here! I am truly interested in their well-being and the perfection of the planet and all its people and life, from the tiny elemental to the great angelic host who guard it, and that love and interest combined becomes ENTHUSIASM which carries you forward into God-love and light.

I offer you now my hands, my heart, and my book of life! Will you write and autograph it with your names, in my name!

HOW YOU MAY BECOME MORE BEAUTIFUL

By the Maha Chohan

Before man can come to the place where he may join the Ascended Masters, he must master the vibrations of his bodies to a point where they do not create dissonance in their own world or in the world of another.

IF YOU WILL THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK AND ACT, AND ALSO BEFORE YOU FEEL, IT WILL ENABLE THE ELEMENTS OF YOUR BODIES TO RETURN TO THEIR ORIGINAL BEAUTY, HARMONY AND PEACE. As soon as the pressure of discord is consciously controlled, the lifestream's natural state of being begins to establish itself as the Holy Christ Self returns the electrons to their natural orbits. That is why individuals who have come to the place of mastery and peace, attain great beauty, and why all the Gods and Goddesses (the Ascended Masters) are expressions of majesty, dignity, beauty, glory and harmony.

Old Age And Disintegration Not Natural

THE APPEARANCE OF YOUR PHYSICAL BODY IS DETERMINED BY THE AMOUNT OF LIGHT THAT IS USED WITHIN THE FOUR LOWER VEHICLES—THE EMOTIONAL, MENTAL, ETHERIC, AND PHYSICAL BODIES.

The natural emanation of light through these lower bodies forms the protecting wall referred to in your instruction as the Tube or Pillar of Light. When the electrons move more slowly in their particular organs and cells, they draw less light from the Holy Christ Self and the natural resistance of the lifestream grows weaker.

When the race becomes harmonious and the energy released through their bodies is never qualified discordantly, there will be no such thing as old age, disease, and the vehicles, when abandoned at the close of that phase of life's experience, will be in as perfect a condition as when they were designed by the builders of form and the Higher Self.

Grow More Beautiful As You Grow Older

When mankind will take a real interest in the vibratory actions that they allow to pass through their bodies, a state of very great harmony and beauty will be expressed within their lifestreams. The bodies of the Ascended Masters, the angelic host, as well as the cherubic and seraphic guards, are ever growing finer and more beautiful as the energy through the electrons is ever charged with more light, love and balance. Thus, the Master Jesus, who ascended many centuries ago, is a far more majestic figure today than at that time!

AS ABOVE, SO SHOULD IT BE HERE BELOW! THE LIFESTREAM WHO HAS ATTAINED MATURITY SHOULD BE MORE BEAUTIFUL AND EXQUISITE IN FACE AND FORM AS THE YEARS GO ON, and so shall it be in the days that are to come! IT WOULD BE A GLORIOUS EXPERIENCE AND MANIFESTATION IF A FEW INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE A KNOWLEDGE OF THIS LAW, WOULD CHOOSE TO EXPERIMENT WITH THE LAW OF HARMONY AND ALLOW US FREEDOM TO HELP CREATE BODIES SUCH AS HAVE NEVER BEFORE BEEN SEEN ON THIS EARTH!

The Holy Christ Self of each individual is as beautiful as the most perfect angelic being that you could conceive of, and the individual Holy Christ Self will duplicate that beauty through any flesh form who desires it, with a little cooperation and conscious study by the personal self. I am willing to assist in this experiment with any or all who choose to make the necessary effort at self-control.

You would then be a marvelous example which Saint Germain could set before the whole world, which would “SELL” the kingdom of heaven far more rapidly than the precipitation of gold would do.

You have full authority to build this same perfection into the children and young people you see around you. The Elohim of Peace, the powers of harmony and purity and the builders of form will join you in this, and it will be a very great privilege for your lifestreams to render such a service.

THE NECESSITY OF HARMONIOUS ENERGY

By the Maha Chohan

Many individuals think that for energy to be harmonious, it must all be spent in devotion, prayer, ceremonial service and solemn invocations, directly concerned with spiritual aspiration. The truth is, that ALL constructive and harmonious energy is a natural expression of the God-life, whether it be the loving service of friend to friend, or the constructive creation of a bench, a chair, or a garment.

A woman may be scrubbing a floor on her hands and knees, immersed in suds and water, yet her energy may be very harmonious and peaceful in that activity, and there will rise to her Causal Body every electron released in such an act. A priest may stand on an altar with the host elevated, in a state of rebellion, resentment or hate—and not an electron of that elevation will add an ounce of energy toward his freedom!

Saint Francis of Assisi, and so many holy ones, dedicated their lives to humble service, walking the roads, serving the poor, feeding the hungry, and ministering to the ill.

If you can understand that making a bed can be a devotional act wherein the energy passing through you becomes part of the magnetic pull to raise you into your ascension, you are receiving, in the hourly occupations, opportunities for you to complete the spiritual pull which will raise the tortured soul into peace, which is its rightful estate as a member of God’s kingdom.

Let us take an example. If you find a child weeping, the energy of that child is unhappy and therefore the Holy Christ Self can receive NONE of that energy to build for the ascension of that baby. The Holy Christ Self has no use for that despondent energy.

If the conscious student, entering the aura of that child, can charge the feelings, not by suppression or fear which might make him stop crying but continue the radiation of rebellion, but by replacing the despondency with happiness, instantly the Holy Christ Self of the child receives the ascending energy and that becomes part of the glory which will ascend that lifestream one day. The marvelous thing is, that the Holy Christ Self then directs into YOUR Causal Body exactly the same amount of energy that the child has released in happiness, plus interest, so to speak, for YOUR freedom!

IT IS THE MOST MARVELOUS INVESTMENT TO AWAKEN GOOD FEELINGS WHEREVER YOU MOVE, AND IT IS THE ONLY INVESTMENT THAT WILL ENSURE YOUR OWN ASCENSION.

Every tear you cause another to shed, may be just the ounce of energy that COULD have freed the spirit at a given moment. Can you then see, how intricately are interwoven the threads of individuals' lives, and how potent a force you are in your environment and community, for you are either generating good karma for those around you, or you are adding to their chains!

Take an inventory and see what effect your lifestream has on the members of your family, as well as the people you contact daily, in the grocery store, or on the street or wherever it may be. If you have left each individual happier and more peaceful when you leave, then you have fulfilled your divine plan for that moment, and you have rendered a spiritual service in lightening the burden of the world.

Wherever you go, if there is the slightest disharmony left behind you, through any thought, feeling, word or act of your lifestream—you are responsible to the God-Presence and the other people for the discordant energy, and also you take back into your own world more discordant energy which adds to the chains by which you are already bound! "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" is a law that still applies today.

Energy, in order to qualify for "payment" of one's debts, need not be spiritually qualified, as long as it is constructively or harmoniously qualified. This opens a wide field for thought and contemplation, and it enables many a lay-brother who is yet bound by obligations, to understand that this spiritual unfoldment is not delayed by reason of his present limitations, but that he can achieve his victory in any state of circumstances and environment in which his karma has placed him. Each individual can rest in peace, knowing that whatever work or activity by which his outer mind thinks he is earning a living, can be a funnel through which his energies are returned to his Causal Body to form the glory and the magnet which will one day draw his body into the union with Spirit.

When fifty-one per cent of anyone's energy is constructively qualified, he or she is ready for the ascension—and your energy can be constructively qualified, whether you are a bootblack or a banker!

Let the students not seek the long-robed garments of outer ritual and mistake the opportunity of each day, where not a vestment but the HEART can determine the glory of tomorrow!

If you will divide your life into a twelve-hour span and watch how the energy of your lifestream is qualified within that period, you can check yourself at the close of each day as to whether 51% of that energy is written off constructively, or otherwise. You can then see how many wasted days and years there are in the average life. If a twelve-hour period passes and the energy has been discordantly qualified for over 51% of that day, you have not stepped closer to your freedom.

When you pin the personal self down to a small day's chores, you can realize that if your shoes are laced in a harmonious manner, that energy goes on the side of the constructive balance which your God-presence can use to ascend you.

The Law is—that the energy MUST BE harmoniously released—not spiritually released—to ensure your freedom.

If, each night before retiring, you would recall, in a backward order, all the happenings of the day, classifying them as constructive or otherwise, then rejoice for the good deeds, knowing that you have made deposits in your spiritual bank in the Causal Body—and for the discordant situations invoke the Law of Forgiveness and resolve the next day the number of good deeds shall be greater, it would be most helpful to your spiritual progress.

The bridge from the human octave to the divine is love—on love mankind went forth and crossed the great divide, and when they lost love, they lost the pathway home!

Who among you will open the hearts of the people and let that great bridge of love from within their own lifestreams, made up of their own life energy, surge forth like a golden tunnel of light and provide for them the natural means of reunion with divinity? How many hearts can you open? How grateful will be the lifestreams who can pass on the bridge of their own love into the kingdom! You think you have experienced ecstasy, but I tell you, each one, that once you generate in another soul the quality of LOVE which forms that bridge into the heart of God and see one pair of feet walk across into freedom, you will know why God created us and endowed us with the ability to share this spiritual ecstasy that I know so well, and because I know it, I want you to share it!

LET THE ELOHIM HELP YOU BUILD PERFECTION

By the Elohim Vista

The full cosmic power and pressure of creation is vested in the seven mighty Elohim, and through them has become vested in the individualized God Flame manifested as man, woman, and child. A portion or spark of that creative fire, with all the creative ability of the Godhead, is thus the natural heritage of each individual—BUT, the cosmic pressure of creation may be invoked through the personal or individualized power by means of the self-conscious decree of any part of life, and this cosmic invocation results in cosmic action.

Therefore, when one builds with his or her hands in the hands of the Elohim, the resultant perfection and speed of accomplishment are, to the outer mind and senses, uncanny, for to take into active partnership the cosmic builders of ALL form is to unite yourself under Cosmic Law with the forward progress of divinity. When man and divinity blend, through the invitation of the lower manifestation, it becomes an activity that is no longer bound by the natural laws of the lower realm, but the manifestations and precipitation becomes part of the fourth-dimensional world. It is such a cosmic union that we are endeavoring to encourage! The Gods are willing, but man has not yet been bold enough in his approach to these tremendous pulsating God-powers.

The devas and builders of form who work under the direction of the Elohim, are beings of such magnitude, that they can cover an entire locality with their personal presence, and when they are directed by the Elohim toward a certain accomplishment, they render service inconceivable and they could explain away the mysteries of the pyramids and the colossal physical edifices of the past that make modern science wonder. Even the building of a mountain is but the work of a moment to the nature devas and the transferring of a lake but a ten-second sport of one of the devas of Neptune's kingdom!

These great devas are real and tangible. They have life and form and substance. They have intelligence far superior to the most advanced men, and their service is a service of love to the Gods around whose thrones they abide.

When the seven Elohim unite around their cosmic table and with one accord decide to manifest perfection, they call uncountable legions of these great devas to their assistance. Some of the devas of Hercules are larger than your greatest mountain.

Yours merely to CALL—opening the door—through your conscious agreement with the desire of these elemental builders, and if you can keep one-pointed in your inner invocation, you will see that what I say is the truth!

A LETTER TO A STUDENT FROM BELOVED EL MORYA

Beloved Friend,

The great Law of Life is that an Ascended Master cannot intrude upon the natural progress and unfoldment of your lifestream until INVITED to assist you by your own God-presence I AM!

Your great Presence of life, the individualized focus of God, is a mighty Being of Fire, that dwells with us in realms of such exquisite perfection as would stagger the human intellect. This Presence has worked with us CONSCIOUSLY for centuries of time, knows our particular powers and abilities to assist, and when in its great wisdom, it sees that you (or that part of your self which you consider you) have made sufficient endeavor to serve the Light, have been steadfast in your desire for the light, and have to be best of your small ability desired to master your thoughts and feelings, then and THEN ONLY does your Presence come to those of us who it sees can best assist the personal self, and YOUR PRESENCE REQUESTS OUR ASSISTANCE TO YOUR UPWARD PROGRESS.

THE PRESENCE OF LIFE “I AM,” IS THE SUPREME AUTHORITY! WHEN THAT PRESENCE “REQUESTS”—ALL LIFE FROM ELEMENTAL TO GODHEAD OBEYS—EXCEPT MAN!

I am here at the REQUEST of your God Presence, which sought my cooperation and the particular quality of life which I represent to assist you at this time.

Each flame of God, through centuries of momentum, carries a particular quality of life. Each individualization, such as Saint Germain, Jesus or myself, is a cup filled to the brim with the essence of the “I AM,” qualified with freedom, healing, strength, purity, as the case may be. Your Presence offers you a brimming chalice of a particular quality from time to time.

ACCEPT the cup of El Morya from the hand of your own Presence. Drink deeply of strength and purity, both of which qualities are intertwined—it takes great strength to be pure! When you are pure, it is a defense against all that is not of the light; it gives you tremendous strength.

OPEN YOUR HEARTS AND MINDS TO MY RADIANCE WHICH YOUR GOD PRESENCE HAS COMMANDED INTO YOUR EXPERIENCE NOW, AND BE FREE!

THE RETREAT AT LUXOR

By Serapis Bey

The Luxor Retreat is known as the Temple of Golden Light—"Lux" meaning light, and "or" stands for gold. The service which the Luxor Brotherhood renders is to draw the golden light through the lifestream of the advancing initiate, until the light expansion from within overbalances the magnetic pull of Earth, and draws the remaining substance from the Earth into the Ascended Presence.

As the retreat at Luxor begins its service, we shall establish a direct tunnel of living flame into your world, over which will flow our consciousness, radiation and understanding of Light, its presence within you, and its expanding radiation which lifts all into the fullness of itself.

We shall endeavor, for the next several weeks, to disassociate you from the personal self and reconnect your consciousness with the divinity from which you have severed yourself. The discipline of the initiates will now be to identify themselves with the GOD LIFE in all that lives and to remove themselves from a separate, independent existence as being apart from the whole!

The burial of the initiate in a stone sarcophagus was for this purpose, that the spirit of the initiate might be freed into the world of the real. When the form is acknowledged as but a cloak for divinity, it assumes its light and becomes important as a channel for divinity.

INVOKE THE FLAMING PRESENCE OF THE SERAPHIC HOST

By the Ascended Master Serapis Bey

Beloved candidates for the ascension, you who have come again, again and again into my midst, with hope in your hearts and with a little subtle bundle of untransmuted desires in your etheric consciousness, I greet you again! You have now opened up that bundle of human desire and we have placed it in the power of the transmuting Flame and it is no more for you, unless the cunning of the human mind chooses to re-accelerate it.

Our Long Service Together

We long have been friends. We long have been teacher and pupil. We long have served together for one purpose, to bring an understanding of eternal life to a planet and its people, who have accepted the erroneous concept of death. More than one Avatar, more than one Divine Being, has suffered upon this planet Earth for the one express purpose of showing man that there is only immortality! Over the cross on Golgotha's Hill, I, myself, spread the winged seraphim so the shining eyes of beloved Mary might have something beautiful to look upon!

I ask you to render the same service, wheresoever there seems to be an expression that is less than Christ perfection. There are seraphim without number from Luxor's temple awaiting your call, and wheresoever you shall see, or there shall be brought, specifically, to your notice, any feelings of distress, imperfection, disintegration or decay, INVOKE THE FLAMING PRESENCE OF THE SERAPHIC HOST!

Today, the gates of heaven are opened to mankind! Today, because we have persevered, because we have loved our Ascension Flame, because we have woven into it consciously and constantly, every upreaching prayer of the smallest infant to the greatest prelate, there is a way back home into that realm of eternal light, from whence you shall have to come out no more, at the close of this embodiment upon the Earth. Watch you well, that throughout this embodiment, even though there be blazoned across the breast of your etheric garment—"Candidate for the ascension"—that you do not attach yourselves to the things of Earth, which might draw back the energies of your attention. Gather into yourself now, in this final embodiment, all of the happy experiences, all of the joys, and allow yourself the freedom to go home in dignity, as the beloved Ascended Master El Morya would desire, and as I, representing the Ascension Flame require, for those of you who are strong enough to believe in that everlasting light, wherein is your personal and eternal freedom!

How Jesus Was Set Free

When beloved Jesus passed through his experiences and it was required of him that he make a public ascension, which is more than is required of you, the only question in the minds of all in the realms of divinity was, “Would the pull of love for his mother and his bewildered disciples be stronger than the upsurging tide which we had prepared for him, and the magnetic love which he had for Lord Maitreya and the Heavenly Father, through whom he did all his works?” Yet, even with that love he completed that mission and accomplished that service—John, the beloved, and Mother Mary, knowing fully well that his love for them might hold him, helped to set him free! Not by a breath did they hold him, but all of their energies rising with him, made that magnificent ascension a possibility. That, beloved ones, is love!

No Place For Selfishness In Heaven

When you have a bird within a cage and that bird has enjoyed the freedom of the trees and the forest, although you give it the greatest care and excellent food, that bird will beat its wings against the cage, until its heart stops beating! So it is with man! When every man realizes that his loved ones, as well as himself, are temporarily encased in the sheaths of the physical form, that when the mercy of the Cosmic Law will allow it, that sheath is to be loosened and the spirit fly free, there should be REJOICING IN THE HEARTS of those who have witnessed the transition, and who, in like manner, in their day, shall also know that freedom. Only selfishness, only unconscious personal solicitude, causes grief!

Beloved ones, there is no place in the house of the Lord for selfishness or grief, for jealousies and differences. There is no place in God’s universe for that which does not express harmonious vibratory action at all times! You are required to bring the kingdom of heaven to the earth, even as the beloved Master Jesus was. He said so beautifully to his Father (my Father and yours): “Thy kingdom come, THY will be done, here on Earth, as it is in Heaven.”

Let us have on Earth now, those chelas who desire that kingdom to come, in the name of the Ascended Master Saint Germain. Let us have the cooperation of a few illumined souls, so that his kingdom shall reign forever, and those who follow after you, the new generations coming into embodiment, shall find this Earth a place of beauty, when the seraphim, the cherubim and angelic host and the divine beings walk and talk freely in that permanent Golden Age.

It is time now, that those of us who represent the austere power of purity, strip from every man, woman and child every bit of human creation—and that I do—replacing it by a feeling and desire to express their divine plan here upon this Earth. IT IS TIME NOW that beings like El Morya and myself take a hand, so that the gentle Ascended Master, beloved Saint Germain, may see manifest, now, that freedom to walk through the human veil, that freedom to stand forth, visible to your physical sight, that freedom to produce upon this Earth that glorious Golden Age, wherein there is no longer war, nor rumor of war, wherein there is no veil of human creation, wherein there is nothing to hide mankind's illumined sight from Divine Beings, and there is no destructive karma left upon this Earth!

Time of the Human Sense, Not the Divine

The beloved Ascended Master Saint Germain, trusting, gentle, loving and kind, has behind him the MIGHT AND LIGHT OF LUXOR, THE MIGHT AND LIGHT OF EL MORYA, THE LOVE OF THE SEVEN CHOHANS, AND THE BLESSING OF THE GREAT MAHA CHOHAN, so that the kingdom, which is prophesied, shall not have to wait hundreds of years to manifest, but shall be manifest on this Earth, if necessary, WITHIN THE COMING TWELVE MONTHS! If even truly God-directed clairvoyants in the past have seen the perfection which the Earth shall once again manifest, why require a time limit! Time is of the human essence, not of the divine! Your twenty-four hour period is short indeed. Those of you who have been within the temple of Luxor know we do not count time but we count CONSTRUCTIVE ACTION. That action expressed through the chelas in works well done, allows an applicant to remain as a pupil so long as his works improve, so long as in those works, he becomes more humble, stepping forward from temple to temple, each one reaching a greater magnificence in that power of the use of the Sacred Fire and becoming more humble as he rises.

You Require The Measure Of Humility

I can tell you, that anyone representing the Ascended Host of Light, if he be a true representative, requires no measure of length or width, but requires the measure of humility, for he who is greatest among you, IS ALWAYS THE LEAST! We have seen that kings and pharaohs at Luxor as well as many laymen of both the Occident and the Orient, those who wear the crown of temporal power, oftentimes would not enter even the first temple, because they had to accept the fact that a member of the lowest class of their own nationality, as their next brother or sister, was in the temple with them. Invariably, we place those of stubborn consciousness and pride of personal prestige with the untouchables, for wherein is the crown, the scepter and the robes of temporal authority when you take those initiations?

Every man, woman, and child is dressed alike and only each one's heart light moves him forward, up to the graduation point wherein he is a master of the Ascension Flame.

Creating Your Ascension Day By Day

People spend a lifetime accumulating the fortunes of this world and at the close of the earth life, usually when the death knell is rung, they begin to seek a way of salvation for their soul in a hurry! That is no longer wise, because you are, or should be, creating your ascension day by day, and hour by hour, in your living, in your thinking, in your feelings, and in your actions. There is nothing hidden from us, although you wear the mask of a smile and can perhaps deceive even yourself and others. So, be cognizant of that power which we have to help you, and the love we have for you. If we did not know what is within you, if we did not know the capacity of God-qualified energy and light, which you can both assimilate and utilize, we would be poor teachers. Your light, and that which we give to you, is balanced by that light which you have given to us in service, not only in this embodiment, oh no, but also for aeons and aeons of time!

So, picture, realize and accept across every crucifix, every cross, and every bleeding head and wounded heart and soul, a winged seraphim of blazing light, with golden hair and flashing blue eyes, dressed in the crystalline garments of the Ascension Flame, FOR THERE THEY ARE AND SHALL REMAIN, until every figure represents THE RISEN CHRIST, the SMILING JESUS, the VICTORIOUS ONE!

TODAY YOU LIVE THROUGH MANY EMBODIMENTS

By the Maha Chohan

When an individual comes under the personal direction of the Ascended Master Saint Germain and enters the service of the New Age as an active conductor of the Violet Ray, he has the marvelous privilege of taking from twelve to twenty-five embodiments, without the necessity of discarding the flesh cloak and taking a new infant form. As he passes from one embodiment to another, he will find many old friends dropping away, and he will find his environment changing and new friends coming into his world and his life re-ordered, as though he were living on a different planet.

This rapid succession of embodiments also offers relief and release from parental heredity, racial heredity, as the spirit entering the new cycle of embodiments really is no longer born of flesh! This will result in a change, even in the appearance of the flesh and is one reason why the student is urged not to look to earthly parents, except in love.

THE "DEGREE" OF MASTERY

By the Ascended Master Morya

We, whom the world calls "Masters," are but those who have received the degree of mastery from life, even as the world confers degrees upon the man or woman on Earth who has completed, successfully, in a university a series of lessons, and passed with satisfactory grades, the various examinations.

The courses laid out for those who desire to enroll in the school of life, are as carefully laid out and as strictly taught as any university might offer. All pupils must pass through exactly the same series of experiences to receive the sheepskin at the end of their training.

It is regrettable that in a world where "higher education" has come to the foreground, that men of such education cannot realize that their science of learning is but a poor copy of the university of life, and that the "professors" who have graduated from the university of life should be the authority to whom they turn for counsel and instruction. It will be so in the days that are to come.

Therefore, the great inner council, who for many centuries of living mapped the course of those who choose to enter into the stern curriculum of chelaship leading to mastery, has now chosen to widen the list of eligibility and allow many who heretofore might have been rejected, to start upon the elementary studies. Those who are already in the “class-rooms” may be called upon to tutor the beginners. Let them always remember that instruction for such assistance will come from the “professor” in charge!

BELOVED KUTHUMI

“In the search for peace, the soul of man must follow the inner light, the soundless music, the illusive perfume of the Christ that leadeth ever onward, where, the seeking soul cannot yet tell. Love of God, and service to his creation, brings all out of the darkened morass of early striving to the illumined path, where you consciously move upon God’s way. It is love that sustains each one, during the groping years, ere the fullness of the light has come. To enter the Ascended Master’s world, you must become ONE WITH US IN PURPOSE AND ACTION!

FOREWORD

This book contains dictations, mostly by the Maha Chohan, given during the “Bridge to Freedom” Dispensation, in the 1950’s, through the authorized messenger of the Great White Brotherhood, Geraldine Innocente.

The beloved Ascended Master El Morya, who applied for, and was granted the dispensation, functioned as editor, using the name “Thomas Printz.”

These dictations were originally given, on a love-gift offering basis, to those students who were subscribers to the Journal, the monthly newsletter of the “Bridge to Freedom.” They were published on pink paper, using a blue-ribbon typewriter.

After the ascension of beloved Geraldine Innocente, in 1961, these dictations were no longer published. The AMTF re-published them in 1990, as Photostats, in bound format, under the titles “Thomas Printz’ Private Bulletin,” Book 1 to 4. They are now consolidated into two books.

We believe the reader will enjoy these dictations, which together with the Journals and the book Dictations, form the very core of the Bridge to Freedom teachings.

It is our joy and privilege to present, to the reader, this publication, newly typeset, published for the first time in book form.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS BULLETIN

One of the important reasons for acquainting mankind with the councils where the flame is most active at any given time in the earth cycle, is that the energies of every visitant can become part of the expansion of that flame, and each interested party is "fuel" to the fire. The greater the concentration of the gift, which is always of some specific benefit to the race, naturally, the greater the individual blessing to every component part, the brighter shines the fire, the greater its gift of light.

Following is a description of the current activities at the Ceylon Retreat, which is dedicated to the Flame of the Holy Spirit and of which our present Maha Chohan is now in charge. The Retreat is open May 15 to June 14.

From the heart of the Sun, at the inception of humanity's journey upon the physical structure of Earth plane, came the first representative of the Holy Spirit, and through his body was focused the initial impulse of that flame, which is the TRUE NATURE of the completed and matured God-Being.

When humanity began incarnation upon planet Earth, the first great kingdom was a natural one of innocence and gentle, child-like beauty, wherein the life principle was developed in love. These beautiful qualities enabled this entire civilization to complete its round without suffering, hardship or pain, and when the great Manu of the first race (root race, Ed.) or round returned to the heart of the Father, the first day was completed.

Each successive Maha Chohan has the increasing responsibility of a nature kingdom which, through provocation, works in less complementary harmony with its evolutionary mankind, and so the second and third rounds were a little longer and more difficult of accomplishment; but eventually the second and third rounds were completed, and the Manus, with their accompanying Christos and Maha Chohans, returned with an emancipated people to God's bosom. The fourth round has yet to be completed and that—as well as the fifth—are under process of redemption at the present time. The sixth has yet to enter on the stage of life. The above short dissertation is necessary in order to make plain and understandable the present activities at the Ceylon Retreat.

The present Maha Chohan, who is the keeper and watcher of the Flame of the Holy Spirit established in this retreat so many ages ago, and which each succeeding Maha Chohan is responsible for, invited the first three Maha Chohans to this conclave, and to his great joy, they accepted, and are his guests during the thirty days the retreat is opened. The first Maha Chohan, at the opening of the council, addressed the assembled guests (composed of ascended and unascended mankind—many of the latter in their Higher Mental Bodies). The following is a short excerpt of his discourse.

ADDRESS BY THE FIRST MAHA CHOHAN

Oh mankind, who seek knowledge whereby to attain happiness, know that your lesson lies within the contemplation of love. Let me point you to the love within the kingdom of nature, which, on the evolutionary scale, lies far below the potential power of man. Nature mirrors so much more of God love than you, who are pre-chosen to be the lords of creation.

Through the body of nature comes all the substance to sustain the physical bodies of all life expressions. Without the gifts of nature, there would be no food, no clothing. No physical bodies could endure for a period of more than a few short months.

In return for her gifts, which furnish your bountiful tables, she receives back into herself the poisonous excrement of breath and body, and, finally, the very decadent garments which you have worn—all this with the patience that is not of a century, but of so many countless aeons of time, that it would stagger the human even to contemplate it. Can you say as much for yourselves? Are you willing to absorb the evils of each other, and actively replace them with the substance of happiness and good? Can you do this for the matter of a month or a year, to say nothing of an eternity?

The rhythm of nature is the constant refinement of the human race, or a natural purification by the chemical action of self-conscious beings, coupled with the actual throwing off, by the same chemical means, of the worn out particles of the human body and then the renewal of the body and brain substance of the race, which is ALSO a conscious and positive action of love.

I speak of nature today, not only to make man aware of the love principle that is within it, but in gratitude to the countless million intelligences engaged in the service of mercy, and to point out to the souls of men the activity WHICH MUST REPLACE the present consciousness, that refuses to lift the load or share the burden of these beings because, until this consciousness is replaced, MAN CANNOT COME UNDER THE BENEFICENT PROTECTION THAT THE NATURE KINGDOM WILL AFFORD IN THE

CATACLYSMIC CHANGES.

If nature serveth you by taking the excrement of your body, the carbon monoxide of your lungs and the decadent flesh of your garment, and, with love, gentle hands, gives you, in their place, the leafy green, the fragrant blossom and the soft, warm wool or gracious silk, and you cannot take the conscious or unconscious discord of your fellow man, consciously consume it and, more than that, give back a gift of tolerance, forgiveness and love, YOU HAVE NOT EARNED THE RIGHT to live ABOVE nature's kingdom, OR EVEN PARALLEL WITH IT.

I speak because the hour comes WHEN WE MUST HAVE IN INCARNATION those who are at least EQUAL to the nature kingdom. We do not ask that they be SUPERIOR to it.

WHITSUNTIDE

Address By Thomas Printz

This great feast day was celebrated by a great concourse of Ascended and unascended Beings, who joined in the intensification of the Flame of the Holy Spirit, and, for the first time in the history of the planet, unascended beings became CONTRIBUTING FACTORS to the intensity of the flame, and to the EXPANDED SPHERE OF ITS INFLUENCE.

All in white the Brotherhood came, and all in white were clothed the inner bodies of those who directed their attention toward the retreat, either for help or for service. The flame, itself, within the heart of the sanctuary, rose like a white column, and on the raised dais stood the four Maha Chohans (the first three and the present Great One) and the lady, Pallas Athena.

At a given signal, each member directed the beam of HIS OWN ENERGY into the flame and, through the added fuel, there began an expansion that covered a major portion of the Eastern Hemisphere and then was re-directed by CONSCIOUS OUTPOSTS in the Western Hemisphere as well.

This release is a grace of "the hunger and thirst after righteousness" into the feelings of the peoples of Earth. The activity continued for twenty-four hours, from the midnight preceding Whitsuntide, until the midnight following, each Chohan successively becoming the officiating Master, directing the focusing and then the expansion of the flame.

Whenever possible, the ORIGINAL actors who formed the heart center of the Christ Pageant will be in the position that they occupied at that time, and where spiritual endeavors or duties have called them from the conclave, their places will be taken by suitable representatives.

The Master Jesus, himself, has prepared the Pageant of Whitsuntide, which is the outpouring that gave the disciples the capacity to perform more than ordinary service, and as hundreds of thousands will witness its re-enactment (in their inner bodies), they will receive the feeling with which the original beneficiaries, who took part in that first service, were charged.

The finding of the Holy Grail by King Arthur's knights, which is the consciousness of the Christ, through the office of the Holy Spirit, will also be enacted, as well as many of the accomplishments and activities of these gentlemen of the Round Table. Many of these are in embodiment today, and wherever possible, they will take the same part they took in the original drama.

The beautiful scene depicting the spiritual intervention of the Third Person of the Trinity in Lemuria and Atlantis, and those early Golden Ages, will be enacted to charge the feeling world of the people who did not achieve the ascension at that time, and who have forgotten their participation in such a holy outpouring.

At the end of the series of these representative pageants, Pallas Athena and the present Maha Chohan will re-enact the role of the first Holy Spirit or Maha Chohan and his Divine Consort, in receiving from the Sun the Flame of the Holy Spirit, anchoring it in their own hearts, and then descending to establish it in the present retreat at Ceylon at the beginning of time.

When the pageants close, there will be a course of intensive training given, in the gifts that lie within gentleness, harmlessness, humility and selflessness. These classes will be conducted by the four Maha Chohans, assisted by the seven Chohans of the rays, as well as the resident brothers of the retreat. All aspirants are asked to direct their consciousness to this retreat, not only before retiring to sleep, but also by day, during the remaining days of the conclave.

Explanatory Note—THE GENTLE READER IS REMINDED THAT ALL RELIGIOUS DOCTRINES AND FAITHS ARE BASED ON THE FINDINGS OF INDIVIDUALS WHOSE HIGHLY-DEVELOPED, PURIFIED FACULTIES, EXALTED VISION AND UPLIFTED CONSCIOUSNESS ENABLED THEM TO PERCEIVE

Activities at the Ceylon Retreat May 15 to June 15th, 1952

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 1952

The magnetic power of each retreat does not go into action until the very instant the preceding retreat has completed its outgoing rhythm, lest at inner levels the souls be swept into the current of the new retreat before the retreat of the month has given the maximum of its blessing to life. There is an exact moment when the magnetic currents begin to draw the souls of men, and an exact moment when that connection is severed in favor of the next outpouring.

The intensity of the flame and powers focused through each retreat is increased by each member of the ascended and unascended mankind, who voluntarily or unconsciously join the conclave. The periphery of the sphere of influence to which the benefits and gifts of the retreat may reach, is in like manner determined by the intensity of the flame drawn and focused by such participating lifestreams.

Because of the free will of man, we cannot be sure beforehand of how many will attend, or how far the benediction will reach, or with what potency or power. It is always, therefore, gratifying to have the response exceed our hope, because the greater blessing is derived for all peoples.

Can you imagine for a moment the delight of the hierarch of the retreat when the magnetic currents set up, which represents his gift to life, begin to draw in on the rays so many thousands and thousands of torches for that flame! This was my experience, and although the Brotherhood was pressed to exert every available ounce of energy, and although the harvesters were not nearly enough to fulfill the demands, yet by this experience are we gratified, for we will be better prepared at each successive council by calling more volunteer teachers from inner levels to "feed the sheep."

Mankind, in contemplating the activities of the Godhead through his representatives, so often makes the blessings and the gifts of the Masters abstract and ephemeral. Yet, the most mundane activities in which the personal self is engaged—when constructive—come under the direction of the Chohans of the seven rays, and all the channels which contribute to the COMFORT OF LIFE, to the well-being of peoples, are under the direct supervision of the Third Person of the Holy Trinity, and myself as his representative in the world of mankind. The magnetic pull of a complementary vibration drew great numbers of these people to the Ceylon conference, not only conscious students, chelas, and spiritually-minded individuals, but those from among the masses, who have voluntarily chosen to hold the office of comforter to groups of people through the medical profession, the religious orders, the educational channels, the world of art, literature and music, and specifically, the world of science and invention, which contributes no small part to the comfort of the people of Earth and the nature kingdom, witness mattresses, easy chairs, automobiles, vacuum cleaners, and so forth.

My seven sons, (the Chohans of the seven rays), have been delighted with the attendance, and engaged in the tremendous task of receiving all individuals who work under any of the ramifications of their particular ray, endeavoring to raise such a potential server to his highest possible manifestation of good in his capacity to serve life.

This council will have a marked effect upon the forward movement of constructive energies through inventive endeavors, mechanical perfection, architecture, etc., as well as a forward effect upon the impulses for a much higher type of music, drama and literary perfection, which shows some of the possibilities and promise that come within the scope of the Master's beneficent powers when the flame in any retreat is intensified and fed by focusing cosmic and world energies and attention into it at a given time.

The Master Morya was specifically engaged in receiving and instructing the inner consciousness of the statesmen and practically-inclined individuals whose constructive desires and interests drew them (consciously or unconsciously) to the conclave.

The Master Kuthumi has been expending every effort, together with his body of chelas, in receiving and offering intensive training to the individuals who represent the parents, teachers and guardians of the younger generation, as well as the spiritual teachers of the race.

The great Venetian has spoken to the entire conclave once every twelve hours on the necessity for the development of tolerance and understanding and brotherhood in all seven avenues of service. His reminder was potent: "Remember, however, that tolerance is a virtue which can soon run to seed, and become indifference."

Master Serapis had a double task because he not only works along the fields of beauty, art and architecture, and the actual designing and inspiring of future temples, homes and cities, but through his cosmic designation as the Master of the Year, he must perform the service of uniting the outer consciousness of every lifestream who comes to the retreat with the essence of the lectures and the particular instruction of each twenty-four hour period, so that none go away without a permanent enrichment of consciousness. To this end, he has had to draw the Higher Mental Bodies of each one who has been given the first grant for the experiment allowed by the Karmic Lords at the January Conclave from the fourth sphere to insure its presence and cooperation at this time.

The work of Hilarion has been to meet and assist those whose service in the outer world lies in the realm of science, inventive genius, medical perfection and, wherever possible, correlate the findings of science with the truth of spiritual law.

The Master Jesus was host to the Christian teachers, and all those working along devotional religious lines. Here he was enabled to open the inner consciousness to a greater receptivity to the truth through the dissolving of orthodox barriers and superstitions.

In January of 1952 the Higher Mental Bodies (Christ Selves) of the entire human race asked for a dispensation whereby human free will would be set aside, and they would be allowed to cooperate in the cosmic push of the hour through the personalities which they had sustained through the centuries. The Lords of Karma, together with a messenger from the Central Sun, made a partial grant to two thousand particularly prepared individuals, as an experiment. The result of their endeavors will be reported on June 30th, 1952, at the Royal Teton Conclave.

The Master Saint Germain became sponsor for each lifestream who volunteered and was accepted, and so it became his great duty, along with his usual activities in instructing individuals in the drawing, focusing and directing of spiritual energies, to hasten the liberation of the sense consciousness and to provide a way and means by which the outer mind might be connected with the plans of the Brotherhood.

He has labored without rest this entire thirty-day period, twenty-four hours a day, receiving those particular individuals, talking and coaxing them toward cooperative action. Perhaps you can understand the love in my heart for this son, not only in his hope but his service. I said to him, “Now, son, let me for an hour stand guard over those who are coming in on your ray, and you find relaxation elsewhere.” But he did not leave his post, nor has he ever left it since first he took his vow.

REPORT FROM THE GREAT ROCKY MOUNTAIN RETREAT

June 15 to June 21, 1952

Beloved Maha Chohan

June 22, 1952

The opening of the great Rocky Mountain Council Halls fills us all with anticipation, as we wait for the report of the first six months of the year 1952, through the cooperative action of the Higher Mental Body of the outer personality of the selected group whom the Great Central Sun messenger designated as the experimental individuals, the result of whose activities will determine how much greater grant could be made for the remaining six month's period.

These early days have been filled with the preliminary councils and the various Masters bringing in the petitions and plans which are to form their specific activity for the remaining period of 1952.

The Great Central Sun messenger will again favor the retreat with his presence on the 30th of June, and the Karmic Lords will examine the results of the experiment and have presented to them the actual individuals who, through their outer personalities, have cooperated with the endeavors to spread the light of truth across the face of the Earth.

As we can count on some of the powerful messengers of Saint Germain among this selected group, we are very hopeful that a large dispensation—including a much greater number of souls—will be included in the second grant.

Only a few of those who have been chosen, and whose Higher Mental Bodies have been endeavoring to work through them, have not responded; and we are hoping, before the 30th of this month, that we can count them, too, among our number of cooperative spirits.

Be it known that in Shamballa are recorded the names of the souls whom the Great Central Sun allowed to form the innermost circle of this spiritual endeavor, and THOSE WHO HAVE NOT RESPONDED will be asked to show cause before the entire assembly and the Karmic Council, so that all may see in what way we can remedy this condition and so avoid a repetition of this in the future.

INSTRUCTION ON CAUSES, GIVEN AT THE RETREAT

By the Beloved Maha Chohan

There are causes born in heaven's realm which are divine ideas projected from the heart of the Sun of the system, or generated through the heart consciousness of any being who has achieved the Christ Estate.

Individual lifestreams who become interested in such a cause are not of necessity its creator. For instance, the cause of freedom was a God-intent from the heart of the Great Central Sun itself, and the Master Saint Germain—in contemplating the Godhead in selfless devotion and adoration—perceived that idea of the Father for planet Earth and her people. He then made that cause his own, offering before the Throne of Heaven to invest his energies, intelligence and life-purpose to manifesting its effect for all men, the nature kingdom and the planet upon which humanity is presently evolving.

The development OF THE WAYS AND MEANS OF UNFOLDING THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM was left to his own God inspiration, and the interesting of lifestreams in that cause, to a point where they might VOLUNTEER to become a part of the motivating power behind its manifestation, also became his personal responsibility.

Such cosmic causes are always ensouled by a cherubic or seraphic being at inner levels, whose voluntary service is to keep alive the momentum gathered by the sponsor during the time while he is incarnate, effecting the details of the plan, and during the time at inner levels while he is using his energies to interest consciousnesses to assist him. These cosmic angels, on occasion, send one of their legions to render the same service through a group of incarnate spirits when the service is more than ordinary.

The designing of a universal scheme by a pair of God-intelligences fills the universal oval, which forms the periphery of that particular creation, with more potential God-ideas than there are grains of sand on the seashore, or drops of water in the ocean, or stars in the heavens. These are the germs of future greatness, and from observation, it has been found that the intelligences belonging to other systems of greatly-advanced evolutions, have not come anywhere near utilizing or unfolding the potential perfection that is theirs for the asking.

When the great Master Saint Germain grasped the desire of the Godhead, to give fullest FREEDOM to his creation, so far as planet Earth is concerned, in the inner realms was begun a Fire Temple in which he placed the initial impulse of this flame, and here came the cherubic and seraphic hosts, who have remained in constant attendance to that flame through all the succeeding centuries.

In the inner spheres, the discarnate realm, as well as the incarnate realm, it became the individual responsibility and obligation of the Master—while yet transmuting his own karma—to foster the cause of freedom, and in any manner that he could effect an interest in such a cause, forward his design. Imagine the magnitude of such a task! Of course, in the realm of the Higher Mental Bodies, where such great freedom and clarity of consciousness are present, it is not difficult to secure the interest and cooperation of life; but in the realm of the discarnates, where so many of his pupils dwelt between embodiments, and in the realm of incarnation where he, too, was bound by karmic limitation, it was a most difficult task.

Now, in his fuller freedom, he works in the realm of incarnation through those he can reach by word, impression and love. Also, he has free access to the discarnate realm, as well as the inner spheres, which has given him great assistance in his task. BUT, because he has not the power of HIS PERSONAL MAGNETISM in a HUMAN FORM, he has lost, to a degree, a certain influence on flesh bodies; although gaining in the inner realms much freedom. And it is, therefore, up to the people who yet WEAR BODIES OF FORM, and who are HIS FRIENDS, to represent that freedom cause, and spread it with power and positive assurance.

There are tentative plans for the education of the young people, who are the hope of the future. This activity comes under the direction of the Master Kuthumi, who has been interested in this important question for many centuries and who, as Pythagoras, established his famous school for young people at Crotona in early Greece.

There are also plans, yet to be worked out, for establishing transmitting centers at strategic points on the Earth's surface, whereby instructions, as well as positive radiations, can be sent to all points on Earth's surface through trained students by the Masters in charge of that part of the work.

June 29, 1952

From out the centuries of darkness, planet Earth and her people are now standing upon the threshold of a light that shall never again be extinguished, but will grow into the cosmic eternal day, in which the fullest manifestation of the potential plans for planet Earth, its humanity and its chain will be understood and made abundantly evident.

In this significant year, we are setting into motion the actual causative centers through the consciousness and vehicles of chosen chelas, by which we may tie the cosmic plan into the substance and energy of the third dimensional plane. It is the actual “bridging” of the chasm between the consciousness of the people, and the etheric perfection already designed and lowered into the seventh sphere and which forms the pattern for the combined activities of the Brotherhood in this current twelve-month period. It is our hope and intention that through the etheric counterpart of each lifestream (whose dwelling place is the seventh sphere), that the outer consciousness may be awakened to the plan and to the individual possibility to serve in that plan for the good of the entire race.

There are a goodly number of fine people whose heart motivation is to serve life and the Master Presence of the universe, but their service and endeavors must be coordinated through the direction of the outer intelligence in order for it to have the efficiency of unified endeavor.

Tonight, the Great Karmic Lords will again enter into the atmosphere of Earth and take up their solemn duty in the Council Hall, and their decisions will determine the activities of the Brotherhood for the remaining six-month period of this pivotal year.

Volumes could be written, alone, on the tremendous endeavor put forth by every member of the Brotherhood attending these planetary councils over the last two weeks, and the exquisite and efficient plans that have been prepared for presentation to the Lords of Karma and the combined assemblage, in this most important half-year period.

Last evening, the seven Chohans, in successive order, addressed the assembly, which included a great number of the inner bodies of mankind, and their word and message brought tremendous inspiration, hope, enthusiasm and promise that the coming six months will see even greater actual coordination and endeavor through self-conscious, illumined and willing lifestreams, who have dedicated themselves to the task at hand. The Chohans have other plans and petitions which they will place before the gathered assembly tonight, which will be augmented by the presence of the Lords of Karma, who will hear and weigh all petitions placed before them both by Ascended as well as unascended Beings.

It is difficult to confine the magnificence of the Chohans' addresses to a few short words, but the following little excerpts are taken from notes made from their talks:

The Master Morya (who secured from the Karmic Council the right to establish this new order of contacting the consciousness of certain dedicated spirits) proved through his chelas not only what has been, but what SHALL BE done.

The Master Kuthumi spoke in behalf of the race, which shall be the actual builders of the future.

Paul, the Venetian, spoke at great length on the establishment and maintenance of an understanding, cooperative, gentle and friendly relationship between all men serving in the ONE CAUSE.

Hilarion endeavored to draw the attention of the Brotherhood to the possibility that lies within the scientific confirmation of spiritual truths, and he presented several of his advanced pupils, who are working with him in the world of form, and whose discoveries within the next six-month period will truly revolutionize the thinking man's concept of this universe and the intelligences that are behind it.

The Master Serapis, in his cosmic capacity as presiding Master of the Year, spent no little time in showing the Brotherhood and the assemblage how every facet of the Ceremonial Ray becomes a BRIDGE to link the outer mind and consciousness with truth. Because of his momentum and interest in things of beauty, in music, art and creative endeavor, he, together with the Venetian, is instigating a renaissance of the soul, and an inspiration of the artistic development by which so many people of Earth can be reached, who are not yet intelligently developed along spiritual lines, but who, through their emotional response to these activities, can be swung into constructive endeavor.

The Masters Jesus and Mary have prepared a petition, which I would like every individual to join, and that is, that the body elemental of every unborn lifestream be required to immediately become enrolled in a schoolroom, under the guidance of the Goddess of Beauty and the Goddess of Purity, and that all of the stubborn, distorted manifestations which those body elementals repeatedly re-create, when they are entrusted with the building of an envelope for the incoming lifestream, be burned out of them immediately, as well as the antipathies and resentments to the soul to which they are tied, and which causes such a clash in the feelings of the egos incarnated.

Kuthumi immediately rose and asked that the body elemental of all conscious chelas and INCARNATED souls be included in this grant, and that during the time of sleep and relaxation they may be also included in this roll, because he pointed out that the indwelling spirit has sufficient cause for concern with the tendencies of the soul and the heritage of the incarnated ego, without the added burden of the propensities of the body elemental.

I then asked that when the body elemental is drawn before the Lords of Karma and examined before the incarnating ego and given his or her assignment, that the allotment of karma which would result in bodily restrictions, be assigned to me, and I WILL MAKE IT MY PERSONAL OBLIGATION TO BALANCE THAT KARMA BY ADDED ENDEAVORS AND APPLICATION ON MY PART. If this petition, which is being formulated, is granted—then we will see an incoming race through which the individual ray of the spirit may function without hindrance.

Saint Germain, who, as we all know, is the Chohan in charge of the incoming New Age, was deeply touched and grateful to all the members of the Brotherhood, ascended and unascended, for their unselfish service and unprecedented endeavors in establishing the foundation of the work that he is responsible for. He is so modest in his desires for assistance in his gigantic task that the Brotherhood are obliged to use all the strategy at their command in their efforts to give him the help he should have. We shall doubtless hear from him tonight or tomorrow.

The seventh sphere, which comes under the direction of Saint Germain, contains within itself all of the perfected designs that have been released from the heart of the Sun of our system, and in rhythmic pulsations, have been clothed in the substance and power of each succeeding sphere through which it passes upon its outward course toward manifestation. It is, therefore, the obligation of the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, together with his constituents and disciples, to project this etheric perfection into the third dimensional plane, and thus complete the outgoing rhythm for the planet and its people.

This is why the activities of the Great White Brotherhood will be centered through the Ceremonial Ray, and why the Master Serapis, in his capacity as bridge builder, is so actively engaged at this hour in establishing, again, a connection between the etheric realm and the physical consciousness of the first group of selected beings who have been chosen for the experiment, and who will form the heart-center of this great work.

Every Chohan, each one of whom represents one of the seven spheres, has contributed, together with his sphere of activity, to the perfection that lies now within the etheric belt, awaiting its condensation into form. It is, therefore, a cooperative activity of the seven rays to see this externalized beauty and glory manifest for Earth and its people. Hence the unflagging interest and energy that each one is giving to this glorious movement, and the (one might almost say) insatiable desire to contribute as much of his own particular sphere as the Earth and its people can take. One might liken the etheric realm to an impatient cow, with her udder almost bursting with milk, waiting to be relieved of her burden.

As this etheric perfection can only manifest THROUGH THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THOSE members of humanity who are still a part of the human race, the cooperation, understanding and receptivity of these individuals is essential, to get the amount of work done that must be accomplished within the short space of time allotted to Earth and its guardians before we must move in our orbit into the next succeeding sphere, which has been already prepared through the kindness and love of Venus and her people. In other words, a planet of the beauty and perfection now expressed on Venus must be evolved IN LESS THAN TWENTY YEARS OF EARTH RECKONING, from planet Earth and its civilization of today. To this end have we begun a new rhythm, in which EVERY MAN WILL DO THE WORK OF TEN. Are we ready and are we willing?

Tomorrow, (June 30th), the first two thousand lifestreams who had been called by the Lords of Karma after examination of their entire record and blessed by the Great Central Sun messenger with the first dispensation, upon whose outcome would depend the next action of the Karmic Council, will be called upon to report individually (in their etheric body, Ed.) and will have to speak before the entire assemblage in the presence of their sponsors. These are the first incarnate members of humanity to stand in the Hall of Judgment before the time of so-called death. They have, unfortunately, been divided by their individual endeavors, and they will appear in that order, classified according to what they have done, their potential activities, and what they have allowed to slide by.

The next grant, which I believe will form the first activity of the Karmic Board, will be determined by the results of the initial experiment. We will endeavor to find cause as to why certain members have chosen not to avail themselves of the dispensation, which their own Christ Self applied for, in order to make certain that the second grant will have greater efficacy and ultimate victorious accomplishment. However, on the whole, the sponsors are exceedingly pleased with the results, and we all feel that the Lords of Karma will be favorably impressed with the idea of allowing the Higher Selves of the people to commandeer the energies and powers of the personality, and so fulfill its own purpose and design.

No matter how great the struggle and resistance of the outer self may be, when the Higher Mental Body has been given this authority by the Lords of Karma, there is no possibility of lasting rebellion on the part of the individual, although for a time there may seem to be a terrific struggle. The Christ Self has not chosen idly to sustain an ego for millions of years, and when it is authorized by the Sun of the system to set aside the human free will of the individual, that authority will never again be relinquished, and sad it is that it was relinquished in the first place.

ACTIVITIES AND INSTRUCTIONS AT THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN RETREAT (From June 29th To July 6th, 1952)

Beloved Maha Chohan

June 29, 1952

How shall I describe to the finite mind the coming of the Great Central Sun messenger ?

The Lords of Karma entered the atmosphere of Earth a day preceding their usual entry, and their impersonal observation was, for the first time, tinged with anticipatory interest, which tended to make this cosmic gathering more of a family gathering, and set at ease even the hearts of those Masters who have approached them century after century on behalf of the people of Earth, because it looked as though they were preposed to grant the proposed petitions.

The messenger from the Sun was not the same being who came in January, but rather a much older appearing, more dignified and mature being, whom you would describe as one well prepared to grant the countless thousands of people an opportunity to connect with the Higher Mind and Consciousness through GRACE and not through MERIT.

In appearance he was more like unto Lord Maitreya. He wore garments of pure white, heavily banded in a silken fiber that had the appearance of fur, but which did not require the sacrifice of any four-footed being. He carried with him the scepter that usually rests within the heart of Shamballa, and as the inner body of each of the two hundred thousand (200,000) individuals who have been chosen to represent the second circle of dedicated beings knelt before him, he touched each one lightly on the shoulder in much the same manner as the kings of old created a knight.

Two sponsors were required for each lifestream called from the ranks of the hopeful billions in attendance. Past connections, friendship, and association determined, to a great measure, which of the members of the emancipated Masters would be sponsors. Contrary to human belief, there were more sponsors than accepted souls, lest anyone should be called forth and not find one ready to stand by his or her side. THESE MASTERS BEING WILLING, MIND YOU, TO TAKE ON THE KARMA OF THE ACTION OR INACTION RESULTING FROM SUCH DEDICATION, AS THE CASE MIGHT BE.

Then the lifestreams were chosen for the second grant; their names were proposed at a Council in Shamballa from among more than two million souls who were examined as to past record, potential service, possible weaknesses, as well as strengths. Sanat Kumara, himself, placed the Star of Initiation within the etheric body of each one of those who were to become the vanguard of a larger rhythmic release of beings, whose human free will is to be superseded by the Christ Self for the next six months. Neither the Higher Mental Body nor the outer self was aware of the choice until the night when the Karmic Board met. The sponsors were previously informed and prepared.

The assembly waited with bated breath for the coming of the Great Central Sun messenger, and after the preliminary dedication of the heart's Flame of Love to the Source of all Life, one of the angelic host began to call the roll, and from the audience stepped the etheric or inner body of the dedicated spirit simultaneously with the descent of the Christ ego of the Higher Mental Body from the atmosphere above. The two sponsors then poured the substance of their flame and ray into the kneeling neophyte, and Serapis made the dedication by the placing of one hand on the head of the Higher Mental Body, and the other right into the center of the consciousness of the potential server. This work, of course, should be effected by the application and evolution of the outer ego, but the Master chose to make that bridge out of his body's own light, and if you think that this was not an expenditure of priceless energy, then you are unaware of the fact that every God-being who so much as raises his hand in benediction, allows so much virtue to pass from him, which must, through conscious application, be replaced for future service.

The Higher Mental Bodies of the greater number of the human race dwell in the fourth realm, and they, through their own initiative, made application to the Cosmic Law for the opportunity of proving what they might do through the outer self, if, once again, the authority could be vested in them to set aside the human free will.

In a great cosmic conclave, whose size is indescribable to the finite mind, they presented their proposal to Serapis and the other six Chohans toward the close of last year. Serapis, for reasons of modesty, we will say, could not very well approach the Cosmic Law regarding this grant, and it was for this reason that the Master Morya El, who represents the mind of God, the will of God and first cause, chose to take it upon himself to enter Shamballa's halls and, speaking with Sanat Kumara, (who, as you know is Lord of the World), secured from him the permission to allow Serapis the honor of becoming the presiding Master for the year, and in so doing, provided the initial impulse for this grant.

In January, at the Conclave, when Serapis was vested with this power, he permitted the spokesman for the Higher Mental Bodies to approach the Karmic Board and the Great Central Sun messenger and the very small grant of two thousand was allowed as an experiment. During the time since then, Serapis has been constantly at work in the fourth sphere with the Higher Mental Bodies of the rest of the race, and it was he who presented the scroll to Sanat Kumara, upon which was written the names of several million potential candidates for the second release. From this large number, about two million souls were selected, and after the most minute examination of the lifestream of each one, the final 200,000 were decided upon as likely candidates, who can be depended upon to assist in the important work at hand.

Saint Germain, in every case, has said he would stand sponsor for each lifestream. No one unascended can understand what this means, because every lifestream for whom you stand sponsor is constantly using energy, and the successes and failures of that individual determine how much of the Master's energies must be consumed in balancing any unpaid debt to life occasioned by this grant.

Of course there are among those receiving the grant certain students who are the particular chelas of the various Chohans and the other Masters, and they come under their sponsorship, but Saint Germain has taken by far the greatest number of these souls into his own sphere of influence foregoing the time in the Great Silence where all Emancipated Beings who give service to the planets go periodically for a renewal of their energy, and which they find absolutely essential to their well-being.

The most solemn moment of the conclave was when the two thousand souls who had been given the grant in January were called forth from the audience, ONE BY ONE. The council halls in the Rocky Mountain Retreat seat several thousand individuals, but through the magic, mystical power of precipitation, we were able to accommodate millions, and the atmosphere over the entire countryside was filled with the inner bodies of the countless millions drawn there by the magnetic power of its light.

The Higher Mental Body and the sponsors were among the first to arrive, then the etheric body of the neophyte was called from among the audience, and stood there on the rostrum in plain view of the whole assemblage. The entire record of what such a one had done to help the cause of life and light for the first six-month period of this year was then read by one of the angelic host, in a most disconcertingly loud and distinct voice, which rang right through the atmosphere, and penetrated even into the souls of the somnambulistic guests. This was really the first judgment in which incarnate souls, not only had to meet the Karmic Board, but also their fellowmen. At the time of death of each incarnate, each go through a private judgment, in which only the souls who have been in some manner connected with that lifestream during that embodiment, stand as mentors or judges before it.

After the record was read, the souls of these two thousand individuals were called upon to speak, each in its own behalf, and careful notes were made by mentors of the Karmic Board and the sponsors, in order to see that the errors incurred might not be repeated in the future, and that in the new grant these mistakes might be avoided by careful planning, supervision and protection.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 15, 1952

With the closing of the Teton meetings, the attention of the Great White Brotherhood is now turned toward the gracious host of the Transylvania Retreat, he who is known and loved by the Brotherhood as the Ascended Master SAINT GERMAIN.

After the dedication of the second group of individuals, who were chosen by Sanat Kumara, and granted the dispensation whereby their Higher Mental Bodies might endeavor to fulfill the God plan through them in this next six months' period, the Great Central Sun messenger and the Lords of Karma listened to the petitions and proposals of the various foci of light, retreats of the planet Earth, and individual beings and powers of light belonging to our system, including representatives of the forces of the elements who had taken advantage of the opportunity to present any plausible plan to help the evolution of the race.

This is a world of cause and its ultimate effect. It acts under the natural Law of the Circle, called the Cosmic Law. If it were not for the initiative, interest, and personal sacrifice of intelligent beings who have made mankind's welfare their business, the Karmic Law would act with FULL FORCE and there would be no possibility of transcending its effects, or softening its lash. The dispensing of the karma to individuals, nations and the planet, itself, is under the direction of the Lords of Karma. They are embodied justice, but also mercy and love. It is part of the heritage of every lifestream, ascended and unascended, to use the authority of his own life and call for the transmutation of evil, mitigation of karmic retribution, and the creation of new causative centers which will yield good to the whole human race.

The scales upon which such requests are measured must be evenly balanced. On one side, the potential good which such a proposed measure will effect in the evolution of the soul, the race, or the planet, is weighed, and on the other side, exactly how much energy the sponsor can offer to the Karmic Board as evidence of the voluntary support of his cause by both ascended and unascended beings.

The exact procedure followed by an individual, a master, or a group of dedicated beings who are to apply to the Lords of Karma for dispensations of mercy, is somewhat as follows.

The Master or bold member of the race receives a divine inspiration in the quietude of his own God contemplation. He recalls it again and examines its possible worth as a means of fulfilling the divine plan, and widening the borders of the Father's Kingdom. He then develops and matures this idea in his mind, and nourishes it with the love and strength of his own feeling nature. If he is a member of a retreat, he will no doubt present this proposal to his brothers, and it will be incorporated in the group petition of the retreat at the great council. If he is working independently, he may prepare this petition, and upon entering the Teton halls, give his scroll to the being who is in charge of placing them upon the great bulletin board which is situated outside the audience chambers.

This enables many lifestreams to acquaint themselves with the proposals that are to be presented, and if they find merit and interest in any particular petition, they are allowed to place their names on the scroll, this signifying to the Master sponsoring the petition, that the lifestream so signing is willing to support the measure, at such time as the Karmic Board will hear the petition and ask for the presentation of individuals who will back such proposals, release the energies required to fulfill them, and cooperate according to the best of the individuals' powers and capacities in forwarding such a cause for world good.

The retreat or individual being sponsoring such a cause is then assigned a private meeting room and here they are free to entertain the members of the race and the Brotherhood who have signified an interest in their proposed plan. Thus the representatives from the retreats of the world, as well as the individual Masters, spent the first 15 days of their stay at the Rocky Mountain Retreat in gathering constituents for their cause, knowing full well that when they have the opportunity to present their plan before the assembly, the number, nature and capacities of those who stand as voluntary supporters of such a cause will determine the final extent of the grant given them and the freedom with which they may exercise their powers in drawing on the universal cosmic storehouse of energy to make that cause appear on the screen of form as an effect worthy and lasting in merit.

When the Karmic Council sits, each retreat and individual is called forward in successive order, according to rank and purpose, and given the opportunity to present the proposed petition before the entire assembly and the members of the human race who have been magnetically drawn into the atmosphere. After hearing the proposal, one of the members of the Karmic Board always asks the sponsors to call forward as many lifestreams, ascended and unascended, as have offered to dedicate a portion of their individual energies to such a cause. Besides the individuals which the sponsor has secured through his concentrated preliminary meetings, at the public presentation usually a goodly number of those present, who have either arrived too late, or who have not been interested enough to read the petitions of the Brothers beforehand, will rise and join the ranks of one movement or another. Then the Karmic Board deliberates on the potential good which will be effected by such an investment of cosmic energies in the particular cause before them. Their measure is the amount of good that can be effected with regard to development of the individual God flame, and the evolution of the planet, and not so much with the temporary comforts or pleasures of the people.

After the cosmic grant is given to the sponsor, he must endeavor to launch his movement on the flood tide of the spiritual energies dedicated to his cause by the Cosmic Board. Thus, after the July and January meetings, while the spiritual tide is full, there is at inner levels always a tremendous impetus in the world causes which will benefit the race as a whole.

If the retreat, the Master or the individual does not secure much support from the voluntary energies of the race, his grant from the Cosmic Board is small, and he must wait the opportunity at the next meeting to increase the interest of the people, or if the Board feels the service can be superseded by another of greater merit, he cheerfully and willingly gives up this proposed idea, and either enters into the activities of some other member of the Brotherhood, or, in time, evolves another idea which will perhaps be more pleasing and beneficial to the evolution of the race at that time.

When the final grants have been made, and the retreats, Masters, forces of the elements and human beings have been given the sanction of the cosmic court to proceed, each returns immediately to the center of his own sphere of influence, and sets into motion the most intense activity whereby the cause he serves may quickly find fruition in the world of form. This is very important, for he is called upon to report on what he has done with the grant of energy given him by the cosmic council at the next half-yearly meeting, and if he has not availed himself of it, his future grant will be limited thereby. Then the Master is at liberty to follow the Brotherhood to the retreat which is to be the host of the elect for the next thirty days.

The grant of the dispensation to the Higher Mental Bodies of 200,000 lifestreams, of course, took precedence over all other grants, because so much depends upon the outcome of this great cosmic experiment. The entire activity, however, was very joyous, and no one who came with a petition was denied at least a partial grant, and the blessings of the Karmic Judges of the day.

The four major activities under consideration concern planetary changes, international politics, the spiritual awakening of the race as a pre-requisite to freeing Sanat Kumara in order that he may return to Venus, and the possibilities within Jesus' and Mary's petition to secure the training of the body elementals. This was amplified to include a specific training for the mental, emotional, and etheric bodies of the race, as well. Jesus, Mary, Kuthumi and I were given complete authority to provide the schools for these instruments, through which the individual spiritual self must work, and we shall start first on the 200,000 chosen by Sanat Kumara as the most potential workers for the vineyard. The support of this petition by the entire assembly, human, elemental and divine, was unanimous.

My petition for my beloved Saint Germain to give him more assistance in his endeavors to further the cause of freedom drew forth a sponsorship and support of the entire Brotherhood, and over half of the human race as well. THE DEVAS OF THE NATURE AND ELEMENTAL KINGDOMS ASKED FOR RELEASE FROM THE DOMINATION AND VICIOUS IMPURITIES IMPOSED UPON THEM BY MANKIND. THIS GRANT WOULD HAVE MEANT GREAT CATAclysmic CHANGES, AND ONLY A PARTIAL DISPENSATION WAS GIVEN, for which we, who work with mankind's good, in our hearts and minds continuously, were grateful.

The political situation, national and international, is not outwardly too pleasant, and the amount of voluntary energies that can be drawn forth by the peoples of the various countries will be a great factor in the experiences through which mankind will pass in this next six months' period, along this line. The attention of the Host of Heaven, the chelas of Earth, etc., will deal primarily with this situation while in Transylvania now, through August 14th.

The God Meru has a tremendous natural momentum of power in working with the forces of the elemental kingdom, and we are hoping that the anchorage of the power of the Brotherhood in and around Titicaca early in August will assist us through this important period. The ray through the Gobi Desert has given the apex of its power, and the ray of Titicaca is yet to increase and become the predominant permanent ray, which forms the center of the new race, which will find its fullest expression in South America in the future. These two rays are a balancing power of the Earth, and the more intensely the attention of mankind is focused upon them, the greater the possibility of avoiding, or at least minimizing, cataclysmic activity at this time. As you perhaps know, the Andes Mountains in South America have been shaking for the past two months, and the reason for this is that certain balanced powers from the Sun are being fed through this ray into the very center of Earth for this coming period.

I return to Ceylon with my own grant, and shall set up those currents required to further the cause of the Holy Comforter in the world of mankind. Then I shall proceed into the inner realms, and set into motion the necessary purifying energies to handle the accumulations of the body elementals who choose to avail themselves of my offer. Then I am off to the Central Sun for a meeting with the great Holy Spirit of the entire galaxy, whose radiation I dispense with regard to planet Earth alone. I shall not be in attendance in Transylvania until next Saturday, but have asked Lord Maitreya to take my place in case my good sons and chelas wish to confer with someone on any particular problems, or require authority to proceed on specific activities connected with their individual causes. I am hoping through this meeting with the Holy Spirit of the Central Sun to receive certain additional powers that will help my blessed Saint Germain and his messengers and also Polaris and Magnus through this time of earthly travail.

Beloved Maha Chohan

I would like again to remind the reader that the establishment and maintenance of specific God powers, which form the radiating centers for the spiritual impetus of the race are drawn, focused and maintained by the self-conscious free will of individual intelligences, who voluntarily engage in such activities.

It has been said by the illuminati of every age that the Godhead, to express in its fullness in the world of form, needs a body, and that the God-intelligence must find expression and fulfillment through dedicated lifestreams who form a part of the race (which is the beneficiary of this more-than-ordinary assistance).

The establishment of the ancient sanctuaries, retreats and foci of light upon planet Earth, as well as upon other planets of our system, comes directly under the supervision of the God-Parents of our universe, and from the fire temples around the Sun, itself, are taken the spiritual nuclei for the flames that are to be established within these spiritual foci, and radiating therefrom, hold the balance for the constructive forces through the lower atmosphere in which mankind has chosen to function.

When an individual being belonging to the race chooses to ensoul one of the active principles of the fire element, and has through conscious application and centuries of discipline and dedication of his individual energies, prepared himself for such an honor, he must pass through the halls of the Karmic Board, and then be vested with the powers of the flame by the Sun, itself. Then the flaming center of that cosmic quality is anchored into the Unfed Flame of his own spiritual identity, and he is allowed to take incarnation, that through the medium of his physical and inner bodies the flame might be anchored into the substance of Earth, and with every heart beat, increase its momentum of power and sphere of influence.

Before the close of incarnation, such a one has always to pass on the responsibility of guiding and guarding that flame, until a new body can be secured for the original “anchorite,” when the process again is repeated, and the momentum and power of that flaming spiritual center is increased by his presence in that locality. This continues for century after century until the Cosmic Law determines the focus to be of sufficient intensity and permanence, and then the anchorite, together with his chosen band of disciples, is allowed to incarnate once more and establish a permanent spiritual focus, which will remain a radiating center through which the powers and activities from the electronic belt around the Sun will be focused permanently.

The double activity of the retreats is a magnetic power which draws the lifestreams of those ready to be benefited by the acceleration of their own spiritual endeavors, and the diffusing of the spiritual qualities whose presence in the atmosphere keeps the outer consciousness from devolving into a completely animal state.

As the number and variety of the cosmic qualities of the Godhead and the powers and activities of the Sacred Fire around the physical Sun alone are limitless, and the evolution of the consciousness of the race makes it possible for more and more self-conscious beings to perceive the qualities and powers that might enrich the race, the process of establishing, maintaining and expanding spiritual centers is a continuous one, and although the ancient foci have the momentum and power of centuries of application and devotion to the flaming substance of the God power drawn and nourished by the spiritual community, new centers and foci have come into being through the centuries, which will in time greatly increase the heritage of the race, and externalize more of the Godhead, not only through the community, but also through radiation, stimulating the growth and development of these qualities within the consciousness and nature of all mankind who share alike breath, water, air and the subtle etheric currents, which carry the gifts of the Godhead directly, and through these foci, to the people.

The Master Saint Germain, when he ensouled the cause of freedom, and passed through the initiation whereby that flame was drawn into the substance of his own embryonic nature, first incarnated as a shepherd boy in the hills of the Transylvania woodland, and as he pursued his simple occupation, the flaming power of freedom passed through that innocent boyish form, and began to pulsate through the substance of Earth, and the akashic record of a future greatness was thereby begun. Now, many centuries thereafter, came again this gentle son of freedom, until the hour when the momentum was sufficiently intensified that the Karmic Lords, the beloved Vesta and Helios, and Sanat Kumara, gave permission for the establishment of a permanent spiritual community, and made a PERMANENT IMPERISHABLE FOCUS OF FREEDOM which shall endure throughout all time.

At the close of the earth life of Francis Bacon, when this son of heaven was released into his own immortal freedom, it was only fitting that from within the heart of the Transylvania Retreat, his liberated consciousness rose on this very flame into the realm of God Perfection from whence he labors ceaselessly today, in an endeavor to complete the manifestation of a free world, a free people, a free nature kingdom, which will be the ultimate manifestation of his God gift to the race, and to the chain to which we belong.

Therefore, the final activity of Freedom's Flame must find its expression through the hearts and consciousness of these dedicated men and women who choose to be the "anchorites" for his cosmic momentum and power, wherever they may be. And from the heart of Transylvania into the hearts of these dedicated men and women, there is being directed and will be sustained, like the spokes from a mighty wheel, an actual precipitated ray from the heart of the Freedom Flame which, in its turn, will be a radiating center connecting with the life energies of all who form the present humanity incarnate, and for those to come. Some of these will be impelled to establish spiritual communities, builded on the same premise as the original Transylvania Retreat, and thus freedom will walk Earth again through the incarnate forms of his disciples.

The Sun, the primary planets, and the satellites that form a universe, have a periphery which closes them in, so to speak, in exactly the same manner as every planet has a localized sphere of influence, in order that it may not adversely affect the sister planets of the system until it has achieved a harmonious vibration within which no discord is generated or radiated. These beings who have achieved the ascended state are free to rise to any heights within that great sphere of influence, which includes the electronic belt around the physical Sun, but once the bold being leaves the localized vibration of his own universe, and enters into the cosmic highways, becoming subject to the magnetic pull of other suns and systems, he must have developed a tremendous capacity to maintain the course set by the conscious mind, and not be pulled by the magnetic powers of love, attraction, sympathetic vibration, from the cosmic highway which proceeds to his destination.

When it is said that the individual pursuing the road to mastery must look neither right nor left, but always into the heart of the Presence, this same Law is the criterion by which the Master, himself, may pursue a course into the heart of the Central Sun of our system to secure dispensations, grants, and assistance for a cause in which he is interested. I have known more than one such selfless and wholly free being who has set out to enter the cosmic highway for a hearing before the cosmic throne of the Central Sun, itself, who has been drawn by one attraction or another from his original purpose, and as the grant to leave the localized atmosphere of one's own universe is only for a certain period, such a one has had to return without securing audience.

Therefore, it is not without definite application that we prepare to visit the Central Sun of our system, lest we be swept in some cosmic tide into an enjoyable by-way, and forfeit our right for audience.

I am happy to report that I was enabled to meet the great cosmic representative of the Holy Spirit for our entire system, Suns, and worlds, and I was enabled to receive from the Great Central Sun and this beautiful Holy Spirit, a specific grant to enable Saint Germain to utilize the energies of his carefully-trained and dedicated students during the coming six months, and we feel that this will give us a greater cooperative release from these, whom we can reach, and who are ready to become the vanguard of his advanced activity.

I have also secured the voluntary assistance of a number of beautiful seraphic beings who will assist the great and selfless beings who are keeping our Earth from completely slipping out of its axis, and they will share the weight of the human creation, which has been the sole responsibility of those beings, until the purifying agents can lighten Earth's load, and the axis can be gently elevated to its proper position—all in God's good time!

THE TRANSYLVANIA RETREAT

7/28/52

The intensification of the Flame of Freedom in the heart of the Transylvania Retreat was effected by the direction of a cosmic ray from the Great Central Sun and the physical Sun of our system at the EXACT moment when the vibratory action of the Rocky Mountain Retreat receded into its usual pulsation. This added impetus of the directed rays from the Sun, expanded the sphere of influence from Transylvania, just as an added release of electrical current lights a greater area in the physical appearance world.

The liberated Masters and all emancipated beings who direct their consciousness and individual powers to the councils being held, again intensified the parent Flame of Freedom by their own light, each one contributing from the very substance of his own heart an added stimulus, which again expanded the sphere of influence. As the momentum gathered as the magnetic power of the cause of freedom began to attract the conscious and unconscious members of the human race, seen with the inner eye, wave after wave of an outward-flowing substance of freedom, like a growing tide, expands the periphery of Freedom's Flame, until even from our state of consciousness, the ultimate accomplishment cannot be estimated until the contributing factor of each free will being has poured the substance of his own life into the momentum already gathered here.

All during the period while the councils are in session and the individual Masters are engaged in the instruction of their students, there is a successive group comprised of angelic, cosmic and devic hosts, who form the anchorage through which the rays from the Central Sun and from the physical Sun are directed into the flame room, where the actual cosmic Flame of Freedom has burned undimmed through the centuries. Into this Holy of Holies, no unascended being, even in the finer body, could enter and retain his equilibrium. Therefore, outside the circular room in which the actual flame is focused, we have three circular corridors, wherein the light of Freedom's Flame is tempered, and the development and maturity of the attending student determines how close he can come to the flame room, receive the benefits derived from its radiant presence, and yet not be overpowered by its light.

In each of these corridors there are always present twelve of the Liberated Host, who regulate and balance the inner bodies of the visitors, so that they may receive the greatest possible benefit from such close proximity to Freedom's Flame, and can carry that radiation back into their own personal atmosphere and orbit, on re-entering the physical world in the waking state. Each group who is allowed entrance into one of the three outer rooms, has signified before the angel deva of the Freedom Flame his own heartfelt desire to contribute to that flame by the expenditure of some of his own voluntary energies, and this is the "passport" which allows him such entrance.

The direction of the heart flame from the Central Sun and the physical Sun, the angelic, devic, and cosmic hosts, as well as from the Liberated Masters and the members of the human race, is regulated by the rhythmic breath. The outbreath of the Sun is followed by the outbreath of all connected with the adoration and devotion to the Freedom Flame and the heart essence is absorbed into that flame, making a concentration of power. Then all participants draw the flame inward into their own bodies, holding it until the Master in charge of their section bids them to direct it outward to the periphery of the sphere of influence of the Transylvania Retreat. At the instant that the individuals begin to outbreathe this flame, the concentrated heart flame, itself, begins to expand through the conductors—divine and human.

To look at the action of this retreat from above, it would seem like a great breathing wheel, the light concentrated in the hub and then flashing out to the periphery and returning to the hub in that rhythmic pulsation of the breath. Now, every lifestream that is drawn within the actual physical aura of the retreat is blessed by the radiation on the outbreath of that flame, BUT ONLY THOSE WHO HAVE SIGNIFIED WITHIN THEIR HEARTS A DESIRE TO SPREAD THE CAUSE OF FREEDOM BECOME ACTUAL PARTICIPATING FACTORS IN EXPANDING THE PERIPHERY OF ITS SPHERE OF INFLUENCE. The many hundreds of thousands who float in a somnambulist state in the atmosphere, in and above and around the retreat, are more or less absorbers, their value mainly lying in the fact that as their inner bodies are mechanically and electrically charged with the substance, intelligence, power and quality of freedom's cause, they do bring that back with them into their waking state, and it becomes an emanating force for good in their communities, as well as in their individual endeavors to live a constructive and positive life.

Those who enter into the great circular rooms are really batteries of such tremendous concentrated power, that it is with the wisdom of centuries of experience that I say the guard over this added energy must be maintained by the alert, indwelling spirit so that the mental, emotional and physical bodies, particularly, do not dissipate this great gift through misqualifying the cosmic energies in any discordant manner.

After about an hour, in which the lifestream is engaged in the adoration to the flame, as described above, he is then free to enter the particular council chamber where the Masters are working on current projects, most of which are connected with the dispensations granted by the Lords of Karma in July. Here they may act through their etheric or Higher Mental Bodies, and the other instruments, the mental, emotional and physical, are released for their training in the schoolrooms which are being presently provided through the kind offices of Kuthumi, Lord Maitreya, and Jesus and Mary.

Any student who chooses, then, may make his own home and environment a similar wheel, and following the pattern and visualization set forth above, become an outpost of the flame directed from the heart of the Transylvanian Alps at this time and, in the future, duplicate this activity in cooperation with whatever retreat Sanat Kumara designates to be the focus for the Great White Brotherhood in the coming days.

August 3, 1952

Because of the significance and import of the year of 1952, all the beings who are directly concerned with the evolution, not only of planet Earth but of the universe and galaxy to which we belong, have turned both their attention and the gifts of their own life expression toward the victorious accomplishment of transmuting the "dark star" into a star of love and freedom. The possibility of the Great White Brotherhood securing the conscious cooperation and continued support of the outer consciousness of mankind prompted the grant of the dispensation at the January conclave, whereby a certain limited number of lifestreams were to be given specific benefits and assistance in an endeavor to bridge the chasm between the waking consciousness and the directive intelligence which forms the focus of the true identity for each such individual.

In the fourth sphere there live, in great freedom and beauty of expression, the Christ Selves of the majority of the human race. They are under the direct supervision of the Master Serapis, and each time the outer personality is called by the Karmic Lords into incarnation, it is the responsibility of the Master Serapis, or one of his lieutenants, to connect as much of that directive intelligence into the incarnating personality as the evolution of the personal self will allow.

The vibrations of the Higher Mind, in order to connect through the brain structure of the individual, must have a certain amount of assistance through the raising of the atomic consciousness and the atoms of the inner bodies through which the consciousness functions. Therefore, when the two thousand lifestreams were dedicated to this experiment, to see if they would move forward more rapidly in a more practical, efficacious and positive manner until the outer mind had such a contact with the will and purpose of the inner spheres, it became essential to find a means of bringing the will and design of the Great White Brotherhood and the Christ Self into a vibratory action that could be absorbed and interpreted by the student until, through individual application and assistance in the inner realms, through various activities of the Sacred Fire, the conscious contact with his own Christ Mind becomes the directive intelligence of all activities in which the personality is engaged.

Thus, the Lords of Karma and beloved Vesta granted permission to use "The Bridge" and its supplements to so acquaint those interested in knowing and effecting the will of God, but whose personal evolution had not yet raised them to the place where a dependable, constant and accurate personal contact with their own Christ Self is established.

Now, in the choice of these two thousand souls and the second grant of two hundred thousand souls, these were chosen after very careful consideration of the entire lifestream, which was studied from the time of its conception through all incarnations, up to and including the present day. And although there are among the holy men of the East many who might qualify more perfectly with regard to their conscious connection with their God Ego, these men for the most part lack the momentum of activity whereby divine will becomes form. Their contentment in their own adoration of the Godhead would not be of any particular value in our present endeavor to create of planet Earth a star similar to Venus within the short twenty-year period allotted to us by Cosmic Law. These, then, were automatically excluded.

When Sanat Kumara, from the several million souls suggested by Serapis Bey as potential workers, chose 200,000 to receive the added impetus of our light, directives, radiance and presence for the balance of 1952, I very carefully took into consideration what each applicant had accomplished with the use of his own talents and powers in the past, and therefore, you will find that some of our members are among the less illustrious from the standpoint of human measure, but of this dedicated group ALL have the possibilities and potentialities required to raise the vibratory action of the planet and its people—IF they will avail themselves of this important but limited grant.

As the Master Saint Germain has taken the responsibility of sponsoring virtually every one of these two hundred thousand life-streams, he, as well as Serapis, is spending every free moment not otherwise occupied with cosmic tasks, in endeavoring to raise the vibratory action of the physical and inner bodies of this group, making them more amenable to the flame and pressure of their own Higher Mental Bodies' directives, and, in cooperation with the Elohim Arcturus, they are also endeavoring to clear the bridge from the heart to the throat and head so that the individual's own inner bridge becomes an infallible guide, guard and directing presence. Then, we could widen our activities, and at the January council receive permission and opportunity to work on, perhaps, two million lifestreams.

The response of each one of those who have been chosen for the indescribable benefits, blessings and privileges which the Cosmic Law offers them under the new dispensation cannot be emphasized too strongly, because the individual personal accomplishment of each lifestream will be a prime factor in the decisions of the Lords of Karma to give us more freedom to continue our endeavors for the balance of mankind in the year that is yet to come.

The calls for the purification of the inner bodies of each person who is aware of this particular assistance coming through the Higher Mental Body this year, will help us as we work without cessation in the establishment of the schools for the lower bodies which are the block between the perfect direction of the Presence and its receptivity by the outer intellectual self.

Each of the two hundred thousand souls are required to spend at least one hour of each night in the Transylvania Retreat where the focus of purification and freedom is so powerful, and we know that the six months that yet lie ahead of us will yield a far greater harvest of accomplishment because it started within this purifying activity established and maintained by my beloved son, Saint Germain.

The individualized consciousness of the lifestream which dwells in the higher octaves is ONE with the nature and purpose of God, and the thought and feeling centers of these Christ Selves are always actively engaged in creating and expanding God's kingdom. As the far greater majority of the Higher Mental Bodies, or Christ Selves, of the humanity of Earth dwell within the fourth sphere, and activate the universal life substance of that sphere by their constant creative endeavor, you will see how tremendously charged with the perfection and beauty of God's divine plan this fourth sphere is.

The great activity of this year (1952) is centered in the forming of a BRIDGE, which will connect the thought and feeling centers of the Higher Mental Bodies with those of the outer consciousness who represent them in the world of form, and lower over the bridge thus formed, the beauty and perfection of the higher realm. Let me here remind each incarnated ego that his or her Christ Self has been actively engaged for untold centuries, in creating and externalizing such beauty and perfection as the Earth has not dreamed of, and but awaits the connection with the lower part of itself to lower it into the physical appearance world. It is, therefore, expedient for the individual's outer self to earnestly contemplate the NATURE and ACTIVITIES of his own Christ Self, in gentle and humble adoration, in order that the Christ Self may, through him, externalize in this lower octave not only the beauty and perfection that is its natural expression in the higher realm, but also its actual NATURE of Godliness.

In the fourth sphere the Higher Mental Bodies of the people of Earth became active WORKERS in the kingdom at the time the planet became habitable, and a personalized consciousness was projected forth from them into the world of form. Each Christ Self became interested in, and dedicated itself to become, some FACET of God expression, and has lived through all the countless centuries of time since then, using its energy in developing perfection along this particular line, which forms the fully gathered cosmic momentum of the lifestream, and which is its individual self-conscious GIFT to planet Earth, and which can only be externalized through the outer personal self which it has sustained since the beginning of recorded time to be just such a channel for its expression. You will see, therefore, the responsibility and the OBLIGATION of the outer self to contact that Christ Self, and find out what activity has engaged the life energy of that self through the centuries, and so become, without further delay, the channel through which it may pour its perfection.

The whole crux and meaning of this expanded activity is to find ways and means by which the outer self may tune in, contact its Higher Mental Body—consciously—and open the doors and windows of its soul to this Divine Self, thereby fulfilling God's divine plan for Earth and its people without further delay or interference, saying with the Master Jesus, "To this end was I born, for this PURPOSE came I into the world, that the glory of God may be made manifest."

When the physical Sun directed the flame into the universal light, and, with the Elohimic Builders, created the planets of our chain, certain beings, of a superior order and development, volunteered to come, and at the direction of the parent Sun, become the guardians and teachers of the races which were to develop into God beings in the course of the Cosmic Day.

As each planet became the focal point for the evolution of a portion of the lifestreams drawn forth by our Sun, these guardian beings entered into the atmosphere of the planet presently active and, through the radiation of their love, the power of their light, and the gifts of their wisdom, enabled the younger spirits to attain God maturity.

When Earth became the scene of greatest activity in our solar system, those beings moved into her sphere of influence, and formed the spiritual stimulus which became the very atmosphere of the first Golden Age of perfection, innocence and peace.

The effulgence of their bodies and their very proximity to the peoples of these early ages, made it a most easy process to complete their evolution, but the Cosmic Law required that, as soon as possible, a spiritual order be evolved from his child-like race, who would be the teachers and guardians of their own people, thus enabling the cosmic exiles to return to the natural sphere of their own activity and light.

It was the will of God that a Brotherhood be formed from those very lifestreams who had so long lived within the radiance and blessing of their elder brothers and sisters from the other planetary chains, but for some reason or other, no lifestream who had its inception through Earth planet seemed to pick up this vibration, but all lived on in a state of happy innocence, completing their round of evolution, and GAINING THE ASCENSION WITHOUT CONTRIBUTING IN ANY MANNER TO THE SUCCEEDING RACES. THEN ON MU AND ATLANTIS THE NEWLY-DRAWN-FORTH SPIRITUAL EGOS DESCENDED FURTHER INTO MATTER BY BREAKING THE LAW OF HARMONY, BEAUTY AND LOVE. AT THIS TIME THE SUN OF THE SYSTEM WAS CALLED BEFORE THE PARENT SUN, AND THE EARTH WAS TO BE WRITTEN OFF AS AN IMPERFECT AND USELESS EXPERIMENT.

Sanat Kumara and the beloved beings on Venus interceded on behalf of Earth and its evolving mankind, and offered to enter into the orbit of Earth, its atmosphere and its peoples' karma, with the sole purpose and intent of creating, from among the human race itself, a governing council and directive body composed of the voluntary members of the race, who would interest and increase its membership by the exertion of their own initiative. Thus, Sanat Kumara's first service to life, after his entrance into Earth's atmosphere, was to set up the skeleton of this spiritual order, which is known in the world today as "The Great White Brotherhood." Of course, there was none of the human race among the membership; it was composed entirely of these same guardian beings, the Archangels, and the devic hosts.

The tremendous impetus of Sanat Kumara's love and the magnetic pull of his heart flame were all that he had to work within stirring the souls of men and drawing—not by force nor argument, but by the invisible and yet governing power of his love—the sleeping spiritual senses of some members of the race. It was an entirely impersonal activity, in which he engaged for many centuries, and neither he nor those who worked with him allowed themselves to designate any lifestream as a potential, giving the opportunity to respond equally to each soul.

As you know, the first two souls so to respond were the beings presently known as the Lord Buddha and the Lord Maitreya, and from this small beginning, the Great White Brotherhood has grown in strength and numbers through the centuries, until almost all of the cosmic guardians and spiritual protectors have had their places filled by the dedicated men and women of the human race; and even the office of Sanat Kumara will soon be assumed so that he, too, may return to his own cosmic home.

The Great White Brotherhood today works on the same premise, and with the same powers of magnetic love and impersonal benediction, and the response of the spirit and soul form within itself is the only passport into active membership.

Those who represent the Brotherhood in the world of men may take example from its cosmic founder and its members and, becoming such a magnetic power of love divine, they will find drawn to them those whom the Father has called, and who will remain, not because of personal allegiance, but because of the affinity of the soul light with the spiritual essence which is the Brotherhood's nature in the universe.

It is found within the wisdom of the great Cosmic Law to draw to the attention of mankind the particular significance and cosmic import of Mount Meru in the evolution of our planet and its people.

Throughout all the religions that have been faucets through which to draw or dispense cosmic truths, reference has been made again and again to the "Mystic Mount of Attainment," which represents the apex of spiritual evolution, both with regard to the individual, and to the race as well. This Mount of Attainment is one of the ancient sanctuaries, or retreats, in the heart of the Andes Mountains, and is presently the hope of the Ascended Master Brotherhood, for as many members of the human race as have chosen to respond to the magnetic pull of its spiritual currents at this time.

When the Sun of our system delegated the power and authority to create a planet to the Elohim, the masculine and feminine aspect of the Elohimic Builders directed from their heart the two rays which, joined together, formed the permanent atom for Earth. For the purpose of illustration, the picture of the old-fashioned ice tongs, as used by Saint Germain, is practical, the prongs entering the Earth's surface, one on each side of the globe. The magnetic power within the Unfed Flame then drew the universal life substance into the cradle formed by these convex rays. As the life and pattern of the parents flow into the form of the infant, so does the spiritual design of the planet flow through these rays from the heart of the Elohim, and these rays form the most intense focus of light for planet Earth. The masculine ray enters Earth in Asia, in the neighborhood of Shamballa, and the feminine ray at almost the exact opposite side, through Mount Meru, in the neighborhood of Lake Titicaca.

Both the oral and written expression of truth, up to the present time, are predominantly masculine in their expression, in their beauty and in their presentation, with very few exceptions.

The masculine ray focused in Asia was the spiritual stimuli for all evolutionary progress of God-unfoldment, and it has been the magnet which has drawn the seeker for life and light into those Eastern countries from the very beginning of unrecorded time. Each such a one entering within the aura of that ray took some of its vital essence into his own being and, in the course of the centuries, thousands of lifestreams have ascended from within its sphere of influence. This accounts for the fact that the East has always been the fount of spiritual knowledge, and the natural radiation of Tibet, China and India has been conducive to the unfoldment of any spiritual quality within the individual.

All the individuals who have attained the ascension through the feminine aspect—such as Kwan Yin and Mary (the mother of Jesus)—were drawn within this ray at Mount Meru, and received their inner training under the Brotherhood who have guarded this ray until this hour.

Whereas the masculine ray has expanded its greatest powers, and given the full stimulus of its potency in the fullness of its gifts, the tremendous heritage of the feminine ray is only now beginning to be felt, in its subtlety, by the elect, who are more sensitive to the changing currents at inner levels, and their response in their finer bodies to the magnetic pull of its attainment in the control of the feeling nature.

While the vibratory action of the feminine aspect of Meru is yet such a subtle activity that it is not apparent to the outer consciousness of the majority of students, it will increase in its irresistible force, and be a tremendous assistance in the blanketing of the individual emotional nature as a peace-commanding presence, which will enable them much more easily to become master of their own feeling world.

Those who are conscious of the service of the God Meru, and of the service of the ray which is focused within his retreat, may mark the effect in their own feeling world, if they direct their attention into the sphere of influence of this retreat, particularly within this present thirty-day period (August 15 to September 14, inclusive).

The heart center of the universe, which mankind has chosen to call “God,” and which has been designated by the later organizations of spiritual thought as “The Great Central Sun,” is literally, practically, and absolutely the source of each individual soul, who must attain mastery over the individual energy which forms his heart-beat and his life essence.

In the endowment by the God-parent of the motivating power of light, every individual focus of that light is given the opportunity of learning the power that is within light, and the possibility of training his thought and feeling centers to mould that light into whatsoever form his free-will shall indicate.

Men use their light to create automobiles and contrivances of every kind and description, all the time; others use their light to compose music or the substance of art and literature, and all the particular expressions that feed the mental bodies of the people. Other men and women—recipients of the same universal light substance—choose to dedicate it to the nourishment of the soul, or in the perfection of ways and means by which the bodily ailments of their fellowmen may be alleviated. Thus, through free will, the receivers of the substance of the Universal God, activate and concentrate this light essence into forms of a perfect or imperfect nature; the constructive lifestreams becoming channels for the diversified activities of the Holy Spirit when the produce of their free-will choice enriches the universe to which they belong.

The small number who have responded to the vibration of the Seventh Ray are desirous of utilizing their life energies under the direction of its mighty Chohan, to relegate evil to its native nothing-ness, and to create conditions under which the race may unfold its God-pattern without pressure of sickness, limitation, unhappiness and distress of every kind.

These individuals, through the stream of electronic light which is their heartbeat, form conductors for the spiritual energies and powers that pulsate within the inner realms, requiring but an instrument for expression, with no more mystic evocation than is employed by the mechanical radio or television which contacts, draws in and condenses the ever-present vibrations consciously emitted by transmitting centers for the entertainment, education and enjoyment of those who voluntarily desire to participate and connect with such activities.

These spiritual conductors, through the use of their light, direct the one-pointed focus of their energy into the dissolution of the causes of evil and, at the same time, through the trained control of their mental and feeling natures, create new forms, which are the patterns of future perfection. This is the work of the Seventh Ray and its great lord, Saint Germain, and wheresoever upon planet Earth there can be found those who—freely, happily, intelligently, devotedly and fearlessly—desire to become a part of this great activity—to these lifestreams WE COME.

The Ascended Masters are individuals who have utilized their light on behalf of the Universal Good, and they radiate their blessings to the entire human race, with the same impersonal devotion that the Sun in its shining expresses; but they can only become “way-showers” to the sons of men who are inclined to join their energies with the purpose and plan of the Brothers.

To this end we have endeavored to bring forth a printed publication by which the design and plan of the Brothers might reach into the minds and hearts of men, BUT NO MAN IS REQUIRED TO READ IT OR TO ABIDE WITHIN THE WISDOM OF ITS COUNSEL, even as no man is required to become a Master of the law of mathematics, or a linguist or achieve the ultimate perfection in any other line.

Through our printed word we are reaching out to those who do so desire, for they, each one, will become the embodied presence of the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, and when the life energies of the less fortunate return for redemption, and they desire a way and means to extricate themselves from the living force which they have, by free will, drawn from the heart of God, stamped it with their human imperfection and imposed it upon the universe, the Masters will have, not one, but many, ready to teach them the way of life. Blessings and love.

The activity of the retreat at Lake Titicaca, wherein the concentrated God power was established through the feminine ray at the inception of planet Earth's manifestation as a member of our solar system, drew a response from mankind that was beyond the hope and expectation of the Brotherhood. As this ray represents the feeling nature of God, and embodies within itself the qualities which are the manifest garment of the Godhead, every lifestream which was drawn within the compass of its radiation began to absorb, either consciously or unconsciously, the very nature of God while within its spiritual aura.

As the aspirant who once looks upon the Master's presence, becomes aware of the divine pattern which he, himself, must one day fulfill, so were the mankind of Earth deeply imbued with the nature of Godliness by which they might measure their outer selves in all future contact HOW TRUE AND ACCURATE the presentation of truth might be through those purporting to be the messengers and directors that carry the light to the people. Once an individual has been bathed in the aura of the Master or stood in the sacred aura of the Godhead, himself, there is no external mental force or human persuasion that can deceive his heart consciousness, when an individual masquerading as the God nature and yet not expressing a like or complementary vibration, presents a certain aspect of so-called truth for his acceptance.

For thirty days while the great retreat of the God Meru was open to the members of the race, out of three and a half to four billion people presently incarnate, over three billion attended at least once, and well over ten million people were present nightly. Here they saw and felt the aura of the Godhead, which is the natural atmosphere of the holy mountain, and entered into its sanctified presence, finding the peace and ease which comes only through abiding "within the Secret Place of the Most High."

Here, night after night, beautiful and perfect beings addressed the multitude, and in their embodied grace and intense love, they manifested the inner, but palpable, God-nature through perfected form.

This was done with the purpose of impressing the attending souls with the reality of the God-like love and perfection of the Master, to a point wherein "sham" would be as evident as the difference between Gabriel's horn and a tin trumpet.

It will be understood that among the billions who are drawn by the love magnet into the aura of the holy mountain, those who were consciously present in their awakened senses numbered only in the thousands, but those witnessed such a profession of perfection of the God-nature night after night, as has not been seen in the world of form since the curtain fell on the last Golden Age.

We are DETERMINED that man shall no longer be deceived in the representation of the God-power and God-nature through any finite form, and at this council it was voted, among other things, that every seeking soul be taken once in every twenty-four-hour period into the actual breathing, Ascended Master Presence of some perfected being and, literally sitting at the feet of the Master, learn first hand what a God-perfect individual is in nature, in manifestation, in purpose, and in action.

To render this service, it was required that an individual being volunteer to accept the responsibility of taking the consciousness during sleep to such a perfect Master Presence, and here the angelic host, under the direction of the Archangel Michael, made this voluntary dedication, and no individual who is sincerely seeking the truth, no matter what the avenue of his endeavor may be, shall miss this experience ONCE IN THE TWENTY-FOUR HOUR PERIOD.

It is impossible, therefore, to continue to veil truth, because through proximity and pressure of feeling, sooner or later, every manifest man measured against the Christ Perfection of the Divine Order of God Beings, will reveal his professed representation of the God-nature.

The Lords of Karma will meet at Luxor every seventh night during the thirty-day period just begun, and at least three of them will be in constant attendance to pass upon dispensations and grants which cannot wait the coming of the half-yearly conclave.

September 28, 1952

The opening of the great Retreat at Luxor for the first time to the consciousness of mankind, as a whole, was an event that will not be forgotten by any of us who were privileged to witness it. Because Serapis holds the office of presiding Master for the year 1952, the greatest outpouring of the twelve months takes place within this thirty-day period. For several weeks before the retreat was opened, the Brotherhood of Luxor prepared diligently for those guests who would come, not only from our system of worlds, but from sister systems and galaxies as well.

The sphere of influence of each retreat on the planet forms a very beautiful sight when seen with the inner eye. The retreat, itself, forms the flaming heart center, and the concentric rings of living light that flow forth from it make it look like a veritable sun against the dark background of Earth. The quality of the service determines the color, and the radiation takes on the sound of a most exquisite melody, altogether making it not only a joy to behold, but to contemplate as well. IF IT WERE NOT FOR THESE RETREATS, THE MANKIND OF EARTH COULD NOT HAVE MAINTAINED THEIR PHYSICAL BODIES, DUE TO THE EFFLUVIA OF THEIR HUMAN CREATION. The number of members and residing brothers of each retreat, the length of time it has been established, and the momentum gathered through each member's invocation and devotion, determine the size of its sphere of influence, so that the inner picture of each retreat shows a great variation in size, color, and cosmic tone, but all work together in perfect harmony, making a cosmic picture of exquisite harmony.

WHEN THE PATTERN FOR THE YEAR IS GIVEN BY THE SILENT WATCHER TO SANAT KUMARA, IT IS HIS RESPONSIBILITY TO SAY WHAT RETREATS CAN FURNISH THE BEST SPIRITUAL IMPETUS WHICH WILL HELP THE INDIVIDUAL SOUL TO COOPERATE WITH THE DIVINE PLAN IN EXTERNALIZING THAT PATTERN.

From his cosmic consciousness, Sanat Kumara observes the revolving Earth and against its darkness sees the various retreats pouring out their color, song, and influence and then, like a master musician, pulling out the stops on a cosmic organ, he mutes the radiation from one and emphasizes that of another according to the need of the moment. Thus the radiation from the various retreats becomes a symphony in the mind of the Lord of the World long before it is played, with the difference that each retreat (instead of being an unconscious note played by a will outside of itself), becomes a voluntary self-conscious contribution to the divine symphony. Once he has designed the pattern for the twelve months, Sanat Kumara leaves it up to the hierarch of each retreat to provide the maximum outpouring, by the enlisting of whatever voluntary energy he can secure from the people of Earth, as well as from the active members of the retreat.

At the close of the January council, the Brotherhood of Luxor became the voluntary sponsors for the two thousand lifestreams who were given the first grant by the messenger from the Sun, and later to the two hundred thousand chosen in July. They took it upon themselves to open up some of their council rooms to give nightly instruction to these lifestreams. This was a very difficult assignment, because the membership of this retreat is much smaller than the others, on account of the rigorous discipline imposed on them due to the nature of its work.

When the council moved from Mount Meru to Luxor on the night of the 14th of September, the Lord Maitreya transferred the directed ray to the latter retreat, thus making Luxor the focus of light which draws the consciousness of men during this thirty-day period. This caused its natural sphere of influence to expand as far south as the Cape of Good Hope in Africa, eastward to India, northward to include the Norwegian Peninsula, and a goodly portion of Russia, and westward, not as far as the continental United States. If we had a directive center along the European seacoast, we could have carried the radiation across the Atlantic. However, the blessing and power of the retreat is very active over that portion of Earth's surface, which stands badly in need of spiritual radiation today. As we still have two weeks in Luxor, we hope, by enlisting the service of more lifestreams to increase its sphere of influence to cover the remaining surface of our planet.

When some lifestream draws forth enough of the Sacred Fire, stamped with a certain quality, to warrant the establishment of a permanent retreat for its radiation, he draws toward him certain lifestreams imbued with the same desire and quality of radiation, and these egos reincarnate again and again, feeding their life energies into that particular focus, thus increasing the sphere in influence of such a retreat or sanctuary.

When the Cosmic Law, through Sanat Kumara, notifies the hierarchy of such a focus that he will be given the opportunity to serve a world cause through intensifying the radiation of his particular retreat, every lifestream who has ever contributed his energy to that particular quality is notified at inner levels, and he is given the opportunity to contribute his energies as powerfully as possible to push the sphere of influence of that sanctuary outward as far as their united efforts can, to bathe both mankind and nature with its beneficent radiation. Most people, upon hearing of the opening of a retreat, are delighted at the thought of attending, but when they are apprised of the idea that they may become contributing factors to the widening of its sphere of influence, the importance of their service through their attendance and presence cannot be over emphasized.

Besides the general momentum of the retreat, when the Cosmic Law gave the grant that the consciousness of mankind be made acquainted with the activities from month to month, the cosmic impetus of a directed ray from Sanat Kumara, through his representative, Lord Maitreya, was added to the momentum of each retreat, and this becomes a permanent gift which is not withdrawn when the succeeding month brings a new outpouring. You will see, then, how much is accomplished between the cooperative efforts of ascended and unascended beings:

FIRST: The retreat and its members are permanently benefited by an expansion of light through a directed ray from the Sun.

SECOND: An intensification of the size of the sphere of influence bathes a much greater portion of the planet in its specific gifts and powers than would ordinarily be possible.

THIRD: The drawing of the attention of mankind to the retreat through the magnetic pull of that ray enables the inner bodies of millions to experience the necessary stimulus of the spiritual appetites which will work their way through the outer consciousness.

FOURTH: The chelas and earnest individuals have an open door by which their faculties, powers, and free-will cooperation may tangibly forward the divine plan, which formerly had been closed to them by reason of the veil of their own human creation, a corner of which has been drawn aside through the mercy and love of the Holy Spirit.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 5, 1952

The activity which will form the final state of man's expression upon Earth, being the development of the Holy Spirit within themselves, the Master Serapis invited me to speak at Luxor before the assembly, on the nature of the Holy Comforter, and it gives me pleasure to record herein excerpts of my address.

When the God-parents of our system directed the preparation of a habitable abode to be the cradle for the evolution of certain self-conscious intelligences, one of the first of their spiritual services was to invite, from the higher octaves, a representative expressing the full nature of the developed Godhead, who would be a comforting presence to the life about to embark on their journey to spiritual maturity.

This being, voluntarily entering the aura of the Sun, was vested with the cloak of the Cosmic Holy spirit and accepted the responsibility of providing and sustaining the presence of comfort, no matter how far the lifestreams might withdraw themselves from the understanding of the nature of God. This office has been held successively by different individuals, and at present is within my keeping. It will one day be given to another intelligence who is qualified to accept and sustain God's comfort to his creation.

It is difficult to describe, in a few words, the diversified activities that lie within the responsibility of the Holy Spirit, and how the avenues of my service seem to be less one-pointed than other facets of the God nature.

At the same cosmic moment that the God-parents within the Sun gave the Elohim directions to create a habitable globe for a future humanity, THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS CHARGED WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF DOING EVERYTHING WITHIN HIS POWER AND CAPACITY TO MAKE THE ADVENT AND SUSTENANCE OF SELF-CONSCIOUS LIFE UPON IT A HAPPY AND HARMONIOUS ONE.

It was the Holy Spirit who invoked the beings of the air through their great cosmic director, Aries, to form a localized atmosphere, AND TO SOFTEN THE RADIATION OF THE SUN, SO THAT IT MAY NOT BE TOO POWERFUL FOR MEN'S VEHICLES.

It was the Holy Spirit who invoked Neptune and his beings, who represent the cleansing, purifying and energizing qualities of water, in which the body of Earth might float, thus preventing the jarring activity of a solid mass.

IT WAS THE HOLY SPIRIT WHO DREW FORTH THE SPIRIT OF VIRGO, AND THE BEINGS OF EARTH, TO CREATE A PLATFORM UPON WHICH MANKIND COULD ACT OUT THE THEME OF THEIR EVOLUTIONARY EXPERIENCE; AND IT WAS THE HOLY SPIRIT WHO INVOKED THE BUILDERS OF FORM BY WHICH THE SPIRITS OF NATURE MIGHT PROVIDE FOOD AND CLOTHING FOR MEN'S BODIES. This is why the office of the Maha Chohan is the supervising authority over all nature's kingdoms.

It was the Holy Spirit who, in cooperation with the Sun, created a mantle composed of the bodies of cherubic and seraphic beings, through whose bodies might pass only as much of the cosmic fire as the evolving mankind could absorb with safety. This was all accomplished before the advent of Lord Michael and the Lord Manu and the spirits who voluntarily signified their willingness to enter the evolutionary experience by which they might come to God maturity, radiating in their turn the same unselfish love and comfort that was expended so lavishly on their own lifestreams.

As we know, the cosmic service of the Father-Mother God is diversified through the seven great rays, the first and second representing the activities of the first and second Persons of the Holy Trinity, the remaining five rays coming under the jurisdiction of the Third Person, or the Holy Spirit, known as the Maha Chohan, which office I presently hold. The individuals at the head of these seven great rays are known as the Chohans of the Rays.

When planet Earth was made as comfortable as possible, and the first Golden Age was spread across its face, like a beautiful smile of welcome to the newly-come sons of men, the specific service of the Holy Spirit began. For this purpose he created the five great rays, whose activities would cover every portion of evolving life in his charge. At the head of each ray he placed a responsible intelligence who was already fully acquainted with the needs of that portion of life which it was to serve.

The office of the Chohan of the Third Ray represents myself, to the five facets of force, just as the physical Sun represents the dispenser of the powers of the Great Central Sun; and in the ordinary course of evolution, the one holding the office of the Chohan of the Third Ray will become, in time, the Maha Chohan of the future—even as the Chohan of the FIRST RAY is the lieutenant of the Manu, and the Chohan of the SECOND RAY, the lieutenant of the Cosmic Christ. The office of the Chohan of the THIRD RAY is presently held by the being known as “The Venetian Master,” and his service to life will be made abundantly manifest in the near future.

The interpretation of the will of the Holy Spirit is the office of this ray, and he is the consultant for all the expressions of perfection that manifest along the other rays. The comfort that comes through beauty, music, and art flows along the FOURTH RAY; the comfort that comes from the restoration of mind and bodies of people through harmony and health, comes under the jurisdiction of the FIFTH RAY. The correlation of the scientific findings of the day with the spiritual truths of life also come under the office of this ray. The comfort of men's souls, the peace to their hearts and their faith in God is the expression of the SIXTH RAY. The bringing of freedom to the hearts of men, in order that the life flame may expand to its fullest glory and become the God-nature in its entirety, is the gift and service of the SEVENTH RAY.

These are all services of COMFORT to life, and all expressions of the cosmic activity of the Holy Spirit under whatever being is Maha Chohan of the age.

We are entering the age when the divine edict has declared that the lifeboat of every human heart must create and sustain an individual aura of comfort to all the life around him. It is the age when the Holy Spirit becomes the natural estate of every man through self-control and understanding.

When the evolving spirits first came to Earth, the Father-Mother God sent with them an exquisitely beautiful being who embodied the full nature of himself. This was the divine example of what all could and would become. He was known as the Manu, and remained with the people of the First Golden Age until a son from the group developed and matured and became his natural successor through the externalization of his own Christhood. When this was achieved, the Lord Manu invested this son with his power; he placed upon his shoulders the robe of authority, in his hand the scepter of dominion, and, kissing his brow, the Manu returned home, leaving the rulership of his people to the “first born” in spiritual nature. Owing to the fall of man, the Manus of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh races are still engaged in an endeavor to bring their respective people to full Christhood. This accounts for the overcrowding of the planet at this time, as well as its strained axis and its turbulent aura.

Because the cosmic hour has run out, the Manus are responsible for not only one Christ, but a complete series of Christs. Therefore, it is required that every man BE a comforting presence and a Holy Spirit to life! Let every man make his earnest call to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, that he may attain his natural God-estate while there is yet time.

Beloved Maha Chohan

When an individual intelligence signifies to the Source of Life that he desires to become a self-conscious radiating center, through which the Godhead may focus more than ordinary powers, gifts, and activities of the Sacred Fire, such an intelligent being, when accepted, becomes an outpost of Divinity, extending the sphere of influence of the center of God-intelligence in his particular universe.

In such a manner, does the Central Sun of our system endow Cosmic Beings with the magnetic and radiating powers which enable them to form and sustain the lesser Suns of the galaxy, and to create and nourish the planets and satellites which form a system of worlds.

From the heart of the Central Sun of a system, down to the smallest atom, we see the precision of the circular rhythm of life. The cosmic love of the Central Sun Intelligences draws exquisite Cosmic Beings who form the INNER CIRCLE OF THE GODHEAD. Their service is to absorb the divine perfection, the Sacred Fire, the God-qualities of the Father-Mother God and, by the power of their own life flame, expand these gifts into the universe.

They condense the glory of the Godhead, mercifully stepping down its tremendous light and power so that it can be enjoyed by those beings who have not yet evolved to a point where they might stand in its unveiled radiant aura. This Inner Circle nourishes and protects the heart of God by the outpouring of love and light, consciously generated from within the individual heart flame of the Cosmic Guard around “The Throne” of the Most High! Thus in giving, they receive, and in receiving, they are increased in the power and capacity to give!

Each Sun that is sent forth from the Central Sun, in like manner, steps down the light and power of the Central Sun and radiates the gifts and powers of the Central Sun THROUGH the Inner Circle of Cosmic Beings who form the aura of the Sun itself. These beings are the messengers of the Most High to the planets belonging to that Sun, and all life evolving thereon. You will see that the activity of the Inner Circle adopted by the Great White Brotherhood is patterned after the design of the universe itself.

When an individual on planet Earth has expanded his light to a point where more than ordinary power can be safely focused through him, the Lord of the World is immediately advised of the fact by the Christ Self of the individual, and the sponsor from the Ascended Host of light, who has taken the responsibility for assisting such a one to the expansion of his light. If the lifestream is found pure enough and balanced enough to become an outpost of the more-than-ordinary powers, gifts and activities of the Godhead and its representative organization for the planet Earth, the Great White Brotherhood, such a one is INVESTED with specific magnetic currents, which will draw toward the individual, lifestreams who can work in harmony with such a one and form the Mystic Circle around which a localized, national or international expansion of light will take place.

As the steel magnet unerringly attracts the particles of steel toward it, but has no effect whatsoever on other types of so-called matter, so do the lifestreams of those who are ordained to be the heart center of a specific activity draw complementary heart flames, which can respond to the magnetic pull of their vibrations, and others will be totally unaffected by this subtle centripetal force.

In the case of great Cosmic Messengers, like Gautama Buddha and Jesus, you will remember how the Master would greet a newly-come expected one with the words, “I have waited long for thee,” the Master knowing full well that the magnetic power of cosmic love would—in God's good time—draw those specifically dedicated individuals who were to become the inner circle, the radiating center, the hands and feet of their Lord, by which his message and his word might be stepped down to reach the lesser sons of men.

In forming the inner circle for the expansion of this light, wherever an individual is fired with the desire to become a focus for the added power and responsibility, there will be drawn around that lifestream those individuals who choose to become a localized order, radiating from the central circle which represents the Sun (the I AM God Presence and the Masters), surrounded by the messengers and their disciples who, in turn, carry their love, light and understanding to the local groups (the planets of the spiritual organism), and the local groups in turn nourishing and developing the mankind cradled in their aura.

The spiritual vibrations for the expansion of light through “the Bridge” will draw specifically-prepared lifestreams, who will respond joyously to the magnetic pull of God’s love. They will become outposts of this particular outpouring, which will in no way interfere with the “light from many candles” that are already burning on the altars of the world. As I have said repeatedly, the light of even one penny candle increases the light of the Sun, and we must rejoice in each such individual or group as he chooses so to shine, each according to his light, his understanding, and HIS CAPACITY at present. For those who can respond to my vibration, I am grateful indeed.

In the endeavor to bring the consciousness of the Holy Spirit into active radiation through the energy of the individual lifestream, I shall again and again stress the great need which arises from the life imprisoned in the shadows, for the comfort which comes alone from the Presence of God.

Comfort is not the negative condonement of imperfect patterns of thought, feeling and action, but it is the positive, kindly, encouraging, enlightening consciousness conveyed by thought, word and feeling, by which the individual one may self-consciously cooperate with the irrefutable and impersonal laws of love, harmony, purity, and perfection, whose causative centers will yield in effects only peace.

Comfort, like every other quality of the Godhead, is interpreted by each man according to his place upon the path. To some it means no more than to lie in a bed of ease, freed from the necessity and responsibility of sustaining the body’s life. To another, it is embodied in the presence of a loved one; to still another, an occupation of delight to the natural talent of the soul for the essence of comfort received.

The Mystic Law of the Universal works upon the principle that the self-conscious intelligence must give of itself the first impulse carrying the vibration of the quality that he desires on the return current to receive. A smile begets a smile, and a frown, a frown. A man must be a friend to have a friend. He must give up one breath to receive another.

It is, therefore, my express and deep, heartfelt desire to help you, individually, to comprehend the peace which you can enjoy when you become a comforting presence to life. For then will you experience the active return of comfort through every externalized form, the invisible ethers, and the great beings who have foregone the glories of the higher spheres to remain the comforting presence by which mankind can sustain their life and progress in a world, whose aura is so heavily charged with shadow that it would not be possible even for the eel-mental kingdom to sustain a physical garment through which the life flame might find expression, were it not for their presence in this universe.

When you call to your own great God-self, and to me, for the FEELING and desire to be a comfort to life, you will find opened within the realms of your own consciousness, a new attitude toward the life around you, and that which has seemed a battle for survival will become a joy, each day fraught with new opportunities to feel your reason for being, in externalizing comfort to life.

When the Elohim signified to the Sun of our system that planet Earth was ready for the habitation of those lifestreams whom the God-parents would choose to send forth, the Great Being who had taken the responsibility of creating and sustaining a system of worlds, called forth a number of spiritual egos who were to form the first group to incarnate upon the planet. The mercy and love of the God-parents, foreseeing the details required to manifest the Kingdom of Heaven through the mankind about to incarnate, divided this group of spiritual pilgrims into seven distinct classes, whose cooperative endeavors would most quickly fulfill the God-plan for the planet Earth.

Then before the throne of the Eternal Father-Mother were called the children of the First Ray, and to them were given the plan and the vision held in the mind of these God-parents and the will of the Father, for the expression of the great perfection that was to be called forth in all of the seven avenues of service.

The children of the Second Ray were next called before the throne and they were vested with the responsibility of becoming the teachers and educators of the race, and they were charged with the task of developing the God-nature through instruction, explanation and example.

The children of the Third Ray, in their turn, were vested with the power and responsibility of keeping and sustaining peace through a perfect understanding of the purpose and design of the destiny of each of the Seven Rays, and the gifts each one was to contribute for the good of the whole.

The children of the Fourth Ray were shown the exquisite perfection that was to be drawn into manifestation in cooperation with the builders of form through music, art, literature, architecture, and so on, and they were vested with the power and responsibility to create the perfect designs of the Kingdom of Heaven through the substance of the third dimensional world.

The group drawn before the Father who were to represent the Fifth Ray were given the fullest understanding of the scientific understanding of the irrefutable Law that governs the atom and the universe, that they might use the principle within that Law to draw toward them the required substance, as well as the cooperation necessary for the fulfillment of the God-design, and, conversely, radiate from their own creative centers whatsoever qualities were desired to further the cause for good.

The children of the Sixth Ray were drawn before the throne and vested with the power to stir the spiritual nature of mankind to devotion to the God Flame, and through the presentation of an orderly ritual, that the inhabitants of the inner realms—both angelic and divine—might quickly mature the spiritual nature of the people.

Then the children of the Seventh Ray were called before the throne and vested with the power to enter into the consciousness of all the peoples working under the entire Seven Rays, and drawing forth the best in each one. They were to provide a government, an educational system, a universal brotherhood and a cultural system of science and religion which would represent the apex of each of the rays, thus unifying the work of the seven, and closing a cycle of time.

When the first Manu went forth, some of the children of each of the Seven Rays went with him, but the predominant number were First Ray people. Therefore, that cycle of two thousand years emphasized the quality and nature of the First Ray, while the people of the other six rays, although present and performing their services as designated by the God-parents, were in the minority.

The second two-thousand-year cycle emphasized the qualities and services of the Second Ray people, and so on down through the Seven Rays. You will see, that as we now enter the two-thousand-year period which is the cycle of the Seventh Ray, it becomes the harvesting time for the entire evolution of the cosmic field, and that the development of good for the past twelve thousand years in every line of endeavor must be drawn together by the great Chohan of this ray and the particular lifestreams who were originally created as Seventh Ray people, who performed minor parts while the other six rays were successively active upon the planet.

You have, therefore, Seventh Ray people who were among those who came forth when the First Ray was active, and who have performed services connected with the Seventh Ray during the entire twelve thousand years that have passed, and you also have the newer consciousnesses who will be spiritually active for the first time under this ray which they instinctively recognize as their own.

Because this is the closing of a fourteen-thousand-year cycle, the spiritual lifestreams who have achieved a momentum of good on any of the other rays are likewise entering into the activity of the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, bringing the harvest of their own particular development as a gift of that ray in this final cosmic hour. When the individuals who choose to work for the great Chohan of the Seventh Ray can realize that in this diversity of its nature there is no conflict, but rather a natural expression of the sevenfold nature of the Godhead, the Chohan of the Seventh Ray, through incorporating the nature of all the rays, will sustain a system of ceremonial worship in which each distinct and individual type will find full expression for its talents and the necessary impetus for his own God-development and ultimate victorious accomplishment.

The inner spheres around the Sun, which form the aura or electronic belt, are, of course, sevenfold, and in these spheres dwell the entire number of egos who were to find development on the different planets of our system, but today I have only mentioned those connected with planet Earth. You will, of course, understand that the activity in connection with Earth was duplicated on each planet as each one became habitable, and that in these inner spheres are not only those egos who are to take part in the evolution of Earth, but also those who are to form the population of the other stars and planets.

In each of the Seven Spheres dwell one of the great Archangels and a spiritual being who represents the Chohan of that Sphere or Ray, but who is not of the evolution of the Sun of these planets, but rather a volunteer from a superior system. Through the aeons of time connected with the evolution of an entire system and its planets, there were developed from among the intelligences within each sphere, certain individual beings who qualified for the office of Chohan of each ray, and this position has been held successively by different beings through the centuries of time that have passed. The office is permanent, but the officiating director is an intelligence who is chosen by merit, and holds the office only until a successor is developed who can take over and allow the preceding Chohan an opportunity to progress in his service to the Universal Cause.

Because of the cosmic hour, and the fact that the ten billion lifestreams belonging to Earth's evolution have not yet evolved a consciousness which can emit enough light to meet the Cosmic Law's demand, THE SPIRITUAL AND RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS PRESENTLY FUNCTIONING ON EARTH TODAY HAVE BEEN FOUND WANTING.

Anticipating the need for a new opportunity to release certain forces which would give that spiritual impetus to make every soul emit more light, the Masters Morya and Saint Germain requested from the Sun the right to create a new channel through which the instruction and the spiritual impetus might flow to meet the Cosmic Law's demand. The Higher Mental Bodies of the race then put in a petition whereby they might throw the full weight, so to speak, of their influence into that endeavor at the January council.

The limited grant of the Sun to a number of Higher Mental Bodies proved so efficacious that the further grant was given in July, and the Higher Mental Bodies, through the lifestreams who did respond to the new vibration, began with the builders of form (under the direction of myself and other members of the Ascended Host) to build an actual SPIRITUAL HEART made up of the alert individuals who chose to offer their bodies as a CELL in this living organism, which is to be truly the spiritual body of the Cosmic Christ for this era.

We are still in the very delicate process of creating the heart itself. The heart cells are the most highly developed in the construction of a vehicle; the brain cells following closely in importance (although the Occult Law has delegated the supremacy to the brain cells because the mental consciousness has been predominantly emphasized up to this point). The magnetic power of the Master of the Universe which forms the heartbeat of this organism is drawing, by a selective process, those lifestreams who can be fitted into this great spiritual heart, and QUALITY, not QUANTITY, is the measure of this particular phase in the development of this new body.

The creation of a new spiritual organism is a most beautiful experience when approached from the aspect of the inner consciousness within which the Masters dwell. It follows almost exactly the progress which the builders of form use in the designing of a new physical body.

The spiritual movement is born when the existing organism, through which the Flame of God is endeavoring to express, no longer meets the requirements of the evolving spirits within it, and the minimum amount of spiritual force is not allowed free play through the open doors of such existing organism. Planet Earth, of course, being so far behind its natural evolutionary course on the scale of life, requires a tremendous spiritual impetus to hasten its development through the expanding consciousness of its people.

If existing orders, after a given time, are not found sufficient to supply the necessary spiritual currents which are the impetus to the raising of the souls of men, there are cosmic grants given for the establishment of a new spiritual organism, and some members of the Great White Brotherhood, in cooperation with their chelas, apply to the Sun of their system for the grant required to set into motion the new endeavor. THIS IS WHAT THE MASTERS MORYA AND SAINT GERMAIN RECEIVED FROM THE HEART OF HELIOS AND VESTA.

Because of the grants given to the Higher Mental Bodies of the race in January and July of this year, we have had more than ordinary assistance and very gratifying cooperation from certain lifestreams, who, by the acceptance of the opportunity afforded them, have been builded into the HEART of the new endeavor. We are still engaged in building or creating a perfect heart, which is the chalice of love, and each cell (lifestream) is being individually molded and blended into the greatest perfection, so that when the spiritual organism begins to build around the heart, it may be fed by a strong, healthy, imperishable center; because a body with a WEAK HEART is ineffectual.

It is, therefore, my deep heartfelt petition, that each of you who have any comprehension of the present activity, give all the power of good in your lifestream to strengthen each cell by the love, confidence, faith and nourishment which a spiritually-minded mother in the physical octave would devote to the embryonic organism which is to be the body of her infant.

At the instant when Saint Germain directed the flame from the heart of the Transylvania Retreat into the hearts of the waiting inner circle in Philadelphia, the initial impulse of the Great Central Sun's magnet was established through that flame, and the lifestreams assembled there formed the nucleus of the sacred heart, which is yet in the process of development and purification. Other cells are being constantly prepared and will be added as soon as they are ready. The second and third meeting after this did not show much increase, but by the time the fourth pulsation of that magnetic pull was released, a goodly number of lifestreams responded, and we had an infusion of fresh spirits at the meeting in New York City on the occasion of Suva's outpouring. While the retreat at Suva was active, the Higher Mental Bodies of those who had accepted the Masters' presence behind this movement, were busily engaged preparing the outer self of each one to be ready to become part of the heart of the activity by the time that the ray from Shamballa will strike the planet on the 15th of November.

It is very difficult to explain the importance of the creation of a new spiritual organism to the outer mind of man, but looking at it with the inner eye, you would see this beautiful pulsating flame, which is the Masters' gift, and each of the lifestreams who form the initial core like a pure, shining light cell—the whole forming a circular band around the flame—drawn to it by its magnetic power, and each cell drawn to its neighbor by love. When new “cells” are added, they come in around the central flame and all are molded then into the form of a great heart.

The power of the heartbeat forms the rhythm of the body. The cosmic body of Christ is made up of the lifestreams of every individual belonging to the race, and when the heart is composed of chosen, self-conscious, comprehending individuals, it is but a comparatively short time before the whole body is filled with light.

THE OPENING OF THE RETREAT AT SHAMBALLA ON THE 15TH OF NOVEMBER OF THIS YEAR—SPECIFICALLY DEDICATED TO THE FORWARDING OF THE PROGRESS OF THE HIGHER MENTAL BODIES OF THE RACE—REPRESENTS A COSMIC MOMENT, WHICH IS EQUAL IN IMPORTANCE TO THE DESCENT OF SANAT KUMARA FROM VENUS. For this reason it is of cosmic import that the student body be in attendance in their various places of meeting when Shamballa sends forth her first cosmic impulse.

Daily we are being offered new “cells” which the builders of form are joyously weaving into this great cosmic heart, and it goes without saying, the sooner it is completed, the quicker it will commence its own rhythmic pulsation by which it will draw around itself the complete corporate body composed of every member of the race. This is the Cosmic Christ, the building of whose glorious body becomes the activity of the new day.

The office of the Holy Comforter to life embodies many diversified activities, because there are so many countless ways and means of creating and sustaining comfort. This morning we will speak of the activity of spiritual re-education.

Every self-conscious, intelligent being created by God—through the use of his own thought and feeling centers—creates vibration and contributes to the motion of the energy of the universe to which he belongs.

In the early Golden Ages where the life energy flowed in agreement with the Cosmic Law of love and harmony, there was no such thing as discomfort, because each individual was a comforting presence, according to the natural law of his own being. The office of the Holy Spirit amplified the natural harmonious vibration of each lifestream and all—because of the affinity of their own vibration with the cosmic vibration of the Holy Trinity—were imbued with the nature of the Holy Spirit.

When man began to experiment with the creation and projection of inharmonious vibrations, he set up the CAUSES which would manifest in the EFFECT with discomforting results, such as sickness, limitation, separation, death, and so forth. The centuries which followed increased the tendencies to create inharmonious causes, until the entire race was in travail of one kind or another, and the cry from the planet and its people for comfort became a universal petition, although its worded form was varied. The vibration of the energy in any being (human or divine) is magnetically drawn to all other beings who vibrate according to the same pattern.

This, then, is my service to those who choose to come within the aura of the Holy Comforter, and even though they may not yet be a comforting presence to life, if they expose themselves to the vibrations which are my very being, they will one day embody the capacity to externalize comfort. This I promise.

My reason for being in this universe is to bring COMFORT to every electron and atom, every elemental, human and angelic being created of the Father and endowed with the gift of his life.

All of the energies of my intelligence are dedicated to evolving, through the intelligence at my command, ways and means of increasing the efficacy of my life energies toward this service. EVERY CRY OF PAIN THAT RISES FROM THIS STAR PASSES THROUGH MY HEART, for I am he who has been endowed by the Father of all Life with the opportunity and privilege of bringing comfort to life.

No lifestream is comfortable until it comes into a knowledge of the Law of Love and Harmony, and chooses self-consciously to abide within that Law. Temporary surcease of pain and distress is effected through mercy and the great Law of Forgiveness, which wipes out the effects of former transgressions, but it is the EDUCATION OF THE CONSCIOUSNESS so that each one becomes the comforting presence THROUGH HIS OWN LIFE which engages the services of the Seventh Ray at this time.

Therefore, in my capacity and service, I endeavor to encourage the individual to enter into an understanding of the vibrations of my nature, and externalize that comfort through conscious cooperation with the principle of love and harmony, rather than create—through my own efforts—a canopy of protection which is the essence of MY being, and not of the CHELA'S. This is the path of the spiritual Father, which seemingly is more strict than that of the indulgent human parent, but yet, in the great love of the Cosmic Christ, builds a PERMANENCE in the consciousness of the lifestream, which will sustain such a one were the Sun to dissolve in the heavens and the host of heaven cease to be.

I would suggest that you withdraw into yourself, if it were only for five minutes, three times a day—morning, noon, and evening—and there contemplate whatever Master you seem to have an affinity with; let the Master's consciousness flow through your affairs; get his FEELING about the people you are associated with; ask for and receive his picturization of your presence through your flesh—for let me assure you that it is in this way and this way only that you will attain the Ascended Master Consciousness.

Sanat Kumara and those who came with him from Venus have been called “Lords of the Flame of Immortality.” In his descent into the heart of Shamballa, he brought with him a concentration of the flame that had never been known on the planet Earth, because it represented the vibratory action of VENUS. This flame he externalized at Shamballa, and it has grown and intensified through those millions of years since that time, pouring out the keynote of Venus and the vibration of this superior star into the atmosphere of Earth and the consciousness of her people. A stream of light from this Cosmic Flame is anchored into the heart of EVERY human being who incarnates on Earth.

The action of the flame from Shamballa was primarily designed to create self-conscious, generating centers of light through the life intelligences inhabiting Earth, and the sole purpose and reason for Sanat Kumara's presence is to create these self-conscious light-bearers. This is the only way and means by which the planet can fulfill its destiny and contribute to the universal solar song. Therefore, when the plans were made to expand the light at Shamballa for the current month (November 15 to December 14), the nature kingdom, the elemental kingdom, as well as the human kingdom, all offered to become a part of the activity, and the beings who are in charge of the forces of the four elements; the builders of form, the angelic host and the devas all sent representatives to Shamballa. (Of course, the human family was represented by certain Ascended Master sponsors.)

All these representative beings were authorized to direct the flame into their specific kingdoms, and it was a marvelous sight to see the flame entering the various oceans, under the direction of Neptune, cleansing and purifying the inhabitants of that element; to see it entering the substance of earth, and through all its creatures under the direction of Virgo; into the air, and all the bird life on the planet, under Aries. Then, with the assistance of Lord Michael, the mighty Astrea and the angelic host, it was directed into the realm of the discarnates, penetrating through darkness which had not been visited by a beam of light for countless centuries.

When Sanat Kumara entered the flame room last evening (November 15, 1952), accompanied by the other Kumaras, and the Brotherhood at Shamballa, there began the intensification—through the power of that flame—of the spiritual light in the HEARTS of all peoples. After he had directed the Rod of Power into the flame, it expanded to almost three times its usual size, and naturally the beam of light connecting it with every human heart received a tremendous added impetus.

The Masters held the expanded flame concentrated in eastern Asia, through Korea and the war belt, for over one minute before it began its journey around Earth. As the ray from this great flame was received in each waiting sanctuary, an Unfed Flame sprang up, taking the appearance of a large tulip bud, which held the sanctuary and all within it in its cosmic presence. The presiding Master then directed the ray to the next retreat or sanctuary, and the same activity took place there. The flame followed a concentrated course, its iridescent rays creating these exquisite flame flowers wherever either the students or Masters were in attendance, and then returned to Shamballa.

The next time the ray went forth to Suva and (Mt.) Shasta and on across the continental United States into Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia, the band of light was wider, and when it reached the various retreats and sanctuaries, the flame flower was increased almost twelve fold in size, the large petals began to open and the radiation covered a much larger area in the environment of the focus.

The third time the ray went out from Shamballa, the wide band of light looked like a great highway, as compared to a footpath, and the beautiful flame flower increased to almost continental proportions. At this point, Sanat Kumara stepped into the flame, which caused it to expand to a universal size, and the blazing light that poured toward Suva was as wide as the ocean, and the flame at the Suva Retreat reached up almost to the ten-thousand-foot level, the flame flower opening its petals to their fullest extent, like the water lily of lotus plant when they are in full bloom. This was repeated in every retreat and sanctuary—the presiding Master in each case duplicating Sanat Kumara's action of stepping into the ray and becoming the stamen in the center of the flame flower.

When the flame returned to Shamballa and the final outpouring took place, ALL of the Masters stepped into the flame around Sanat Kumara, and Earth and Venus became ONE. When the flame reached Suva, it connected that retreat with Venus, and all the Masters at Suva stepped within it, and so on, around the world, the same activity taking place in each retreat and sanctuary. Thus was completed a most marvelous spiritual service to life, which will have a permanent effect upon the soul growth of all mankind, all in the discarnate realms and nature itself. This action will continue throughout the entire month.

The rays will go forth at the same appointed time every evening, and we invite as many as possible to take part in the drawing in and projection of the flame at the same hour you held the ceremony in your sanctuary—no matter where your bodies may be at the time. It is always possible—even in the midst of outer world activity—to withdraw into yourself for a few minutes, consciously connect your thoughts with the activity of Sanat Kumara and the Masters in Shamballa, and experience the joy of assisting to bathe the planet once more in Sanat Kumara's Cosmic Flame of Cosmic Love.

The light is not an INTELLECTUAL radiation, but rather one of FEELING, and we are hoping that through the impetus of this mighty activity at Shamballa, the capacity of mankind to create and sustain shadows will be lessened, and the desire and power to EMIT LIGHT will be increased, first, through the self-conscious cooperating students and then through all men.

The opening of the retreat at Shamballa represents the close of a great cycle of time, during which the very existence of Earth was sustained by those blessed beings who voluntarily chose to lend the power of their developed radiation to a planet whose existence contributed NO SPIRITUAL VALUE to the system of which it is a part. Millions of years have elapsed since these Great Ones took on our responsibility, and the time of the dispensation runs out, with yet the far greater majority of mankind engaged in creating shadows rather than sunshine.

Even the patience of the Universal cannot allow the sacrifice of beings as great as Sanat Kumara to go on indefinitely; hence this great impetus of expanding the light was set into motion by the Brotherhood, in the hope that it would stir the souls of men and provide a proof to the Cosmic Law that the mankind of Earth were rising to fulfill the office and service of these great friends of life. THE YEAR 1952, THEREFORE, REPRESENTS THE BEGINNING OF A GREAT COSMIC 'PUSH' IN THIS DIRECTION, WHICH WE HOPE WILL RESULT, WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE SELF-CONSCIOUS STUDENTS, IN THE REDEMPTION OF THE RACE.

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 23, 1952

As we come to the close of the twelve-month cycle, all of those who represent the Spiritual Hierarchy are gathered at Shamballa, and here we celebrate a cosmic Thanksgiving in which every one of the Brothers is a participant.

It is a marvelous opportunity to release the concentrated blessings of life upon each and every one who has served and increased the comfort of the universe during that period.

The great audience chamber is open for this festivity, and the evening before your national holiday and for four days and four nights thereafter, there is a constant outpouring of blessing and benediction upon every electron, elemental, animal, human, angel, deva, Ascended Master and Cosmic Being, who have consciously or unconsciously contributed to the forward progress of the race.

It is a beautiful sight to see the various kingdoms gathered to receive the honor and blessing of the Sun of our system through its representative, in conscious gratitude for life well-spent. Also to this great feast of Thanksgiving certain members of the human race are invited and given the honor and recognition which they have earned through meritorious service in the world of form. There is no lifestream who has given "even a cup of cold water" in the name of the presence of God but is acknowledged and blessed therefore, and such is the memory of the Perfected Beings, that no electron is slighted or overlooked in this time of Thanksgiving.

This year, because of the tremendous response of the lifestreams who have been chosen to represent the vanguard in this NEW MOVEMENT, there will be a particular blessing upon the individual members and their cooperative groups, for the strength of their light and the accuracy of their reception, which gives us the opportunity to apply for a greater dispensation at the January council.

One of the most exquisite ways of preparing for the Christmas Season individually, is for each lifestream to prepare consciously and earnestly his own ceremony of Thanksgiving, and—officiating upon the altar of his own Christ temple—invite into the Presence of his own God Flame, ALL of the life that has served him during the twelve months that have passed and, through a special blessing and benediction, confer upon that one the added substance of his own Christ nature. This ceremony will show each man how rich he is in the blessings that have filled his world through the channels in every kingdom—natural, human and divine. In such an activity no bitterness nor discontent can live. Also, every Master to whom the individual extends an invitation to his ceremony will respond and enter into the sanctuary of the heart, where such a Thanksgiving is being celebrated, and this visitation alone will bring a return of spiritual blessings far beyond the comprehension of the outer man for the individual effort involved in preparing such a Thanksgiving Service to life.

If you will rise on the tide of the Flame of Thanksgiving, which is a rhythmic pulsation from Shamballa, directed by Sanat Kumara, the Chohans of the Rays, the Cosmic Beings in charge of the forces of the elements, the great Archangels and devic lords into their kingdoms, you will find an acceleration of your own life wave which can become a permanent blessing and conductor of their constructive energies into your world and activities.

This Flame of Thanksgiving has gone forth rhythmically since the day when the thirty beings knelt before the coming of their Lord, and it has builded in power as each lifestream became aware of the benefits which have poured through it, for the most part without recognition, for centuries. It is only the outer self that is not alert enough to realize the measure of Thanksgiving which they owe the universe, even by reason of the sustenance of a physical body alone; and the further the lifestream proceeds on the pathway to the heart of God, the more each one finds what there is to be thankful for. Man, on the lower rungs of the ladder of evolution, is not even aware that there is a Spiritual Hierarchy, so thanksgiving to these beings is not a ceremony of the heart.

But, when we enter the Ascended Master consciousness, and see the workings of the inner Law and the tremendous assistance of the elemental kingdom, the angelic host, as well as the Brotherhood, we realize more fully our indebtedness to life. For myself, I am told that in those realms to which my consciousness has not yet ascended, the intricacies of the blessings of which we in this universe are the recipients, and of whose source we are wholly unconscious, is unbelievable! So, the higher we go, the more grateful we are and the more HUMBLE we get before that power which is our life.

We have been advised by SANAT KUMARA, THAT ON THANKSGIVING OF THIS YEAR, THE SEVEN RETREATS OF THE CHOHANS OF THE RAYS AND MY OWN RETREAT WILL BE PERMANENTLY OPEN, in order to allow the lifestreams evolving upon the planet the opportunity of intensified training upon the particular ray which forms their natural vibration.

This opportunity should do much to increase the capacity and power of each lifestream to become master of the energy of his own life, and I would like to set forth the location of these retreats at this time, :

El Morya, Darjeeling
Kuthumi, Kashmiri
The Venetian, France, near Marseilles
Serapis, Luxor
Hilarion, Greece
Jesus, Arabia
Saint Germain, Transylvania
Maha Chohan, Ceylon

This activity will in no way conflict with the progressive radiation which will form the pattern for 1953. It is a SUPPLEMENTAL activity, whereby the Chohans of the Seven Rays, and my humble self, will be given the opportunity to accelerate the progress of the people who belong to their ray at this time. For lifestreams who are not yet aware to which ray they belong, there will be Beings provided who will take them to their proper retreat while their bodies sleep.

A GOOD WAY TO FIND YOUR RAY IS TO REPEAT OVER THE NAMES OF THE DIFFERENT CHOHANS, AND THEN WAIT FOR THE VIBRATION WHICH WILL STRIKE THROUGH YOUR ENERGY WHEN YOU REACH THE ONE WHICH CORRESPONDS TO YOUR NATURAL HERITAGE.

Now, in the name of the Giver of all life, I enfold you—each and every one and all mankind—in the Cosmic Flame of Love and Gratitude, that rises like incense to the throne of the Most High on this glorious feast of Universal Thanksgiving.

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 1, 1952

As the planet Earth comes to a fulfillment of its yearly revolution around the Sun, the vibratory action of the twelve months begins to sound its final chord and note, which contains within itself the keynote of the year, and which, for the remaining days of the year, is the predominant vibration felt by all people everywhere.

The members of the Great White Brotherhood, and every being connected with the evolution of the planet, endeavor to complete that portion of their service (which had been allotted to them at the beginning of the year) by the fifteenth of November. Each one makes it his personal or cosmic business to “close his books,” so to speak, by this date, and turn his footsteps, as well as his thought and attention, to the great conclave at Shamballa. Here all these blessed children of the One Father come, filled with happy anticipation of the joyous reunion and loving association with their celestial brothers, coupled with the gladsome expectation of celebrating the glorious feast of the Christmas in the bosom of their Father.

Every being, whether incarnate, discarnate or ascended, is a vibratory center, like a plucked harp string. In the ascended and cosmic capacity, the pulsation of vibration which forms the radiation of service, takes on the single note at this time, which is the keynote of the year, and all the variegated services of the Brotherhood blend gently into that note, forming “the Christmas Spirit,” which is felt, absorbed and enacted by the race. Thus, the keynote of the year is once more impressed powerfully on the bodies, the akashic records and the atmosphere of Earth, so that the greatest possible service to man might be stamped on the consciousness of all people before the new vibration of the coming year is felt and interpreted.

It has the same effect as the repetition of a theme of music, which eventually is picked up and made part of the consciousness of a listener. It has the further purpose of stilling the consciousness of all beings, preparatory to the reception of those new forces and currents that become the predominant vibration when the Lord of Life releases the thoughtform and feeling vibration which will become the keynote for the coming year.

Speaking of the “keynote,” you will remember in retrospect how, the instant the last stroke of midnight sounds on every New Year's Eve, the Great First Cause projects through the Silent Watcher, into the consciousness of Sanat Kumara, and through this great being into the consciousness of the Great White Brotherhood and the assembled multitude at the Rocky Mountain Retreat, the cosmic design of some particular and specific keynote and its representative thoughtform, which becomes the heart of the diversified activities of the Brotherhood for the twelve-month period ahead, so far as the radiation to and through the consciousness of mankind is concerned.

Shamballa is a most unusual retreat for many reasons. It was the first one established on Earth, forming the pattern for the Great White Brotherhood, which Sanat Kumara, himself, instituted. Besides the great council halls, record rooms, and treasuries, there are enormous guest houses, in which each member of the Brotherhood is assigned a permanent room. This room belongs to him forever, or as long as he cares to use it. Many unascended beings who, at inner levels, are members of the Brotherhood, have rooms here at Shamballa, and these remain for each one a permanent focus on the Earth long after their ascension. Even the Lord Buddha and the early Krishna's still retain their own compartments in this mystic retreat, and the fragrance and vibration of each private contemplation room is distinctive and descriptive of the being who, from within that sanctuary, has served life.

As these joyous sons and daughters of the kingdom return “home,” they are each enfolded in the outstretched, welcoming arms of the Father (Sanat Kumara) and then each one is escorted to his or her own particular compartment. Here they immediately begin to reverse the currents of their own life or consciousness, preparatory to entering the Great Silence, where the “pull of Earth” ceases for them and the “pull of the Father” becomes the magnetic attraction in their feelings.

When each being has become imbued with the silence, he returns to the great hall where he mingles with his friends and they have a happy time, comparing notes about their work, talking about their respective chelas, (each one very proud of his own), and so on, all contributing the joy of their combined consciousness to the festive occasion. When all the members are assembled, they repair to the great banquet hall, where a magnificent feast has been prepared for them. There are speeches and laughter and song, for be it known that these sons and daughters of the kingdom are gay and charming and happy. They have not lost their sense of enjoyment through the attainment of their ascension, rather is it expanded a thousand fold.

It is understood that each member is free to utilize the Christmas season (from the 21st of December to the 27th) as their heart dictates. Some go on visits from one star and planet to another, or from home to home on the Earth plane, all carrying the love and light of their own lifestream to enrich the presence of life wherever they go—whether it be the Godhead, the Guardians of the Race, of the friends of their bosom.

It is a time when the Masters don the festive robes of the feast days, and the glory of the unbound hair and the golden sandals blend gracefully and beautifully with the exquisite design of each being's garment, woven of the love and service of his lifestream in the twelve month period that has passed.

The vast temples—where the Perfected Beings join voluntarily with the great Host of Light, in praise and devotion to the Source of All Life—are filled to overflowing with a reverent and joyous multitude. It is thus that we revel for this small period of time, following the light of our hearts, and the upper heavens sing with the glory of beings who reverence and respect the slightest show of service, in gratitude that is selfless and true, and an expression of friendship indestructible.

Let me say here, that it is an opportunity for the friends of the heart, yet in bounden Earth form, to rise during the sleeping hours and the time of contemplation, on the wings of gratitude and love, into the heavenly realms and homes of those whom they feel have enriched their lifestream during the twelve-month period, where each Master keeps “open-house” for his friends, ascended and unascended. The peace and exhilaration of such cosmic excursions of consciousness, will prove a marvelous lever that many a grateful heart will wield into the raising of the self into the ONE.

Lest you should feel that the Earth plane is left without succor while the Brotherhood have entered the higher octaves through Shamballa, let me explain that each one establishes, in the locality and atmosphere which has been his field of service, a permanent pillar of light, magnified and magnetized by his own life and light, and pinned into Earth through his directive will. This activity he sets in motion several weeks before he enters the Great Silence, and into this pillar of force he directs the radiation and sustaining power required to hold the focus which he has set up until his return. Therefore, although he, himself, withdraws to take his short and well-earned holiday in the heart of the Great Silence, the radiation and comfort of his presence remain to sustain his activity while he re-energizes his own valiant spirit.

As this is our Christmas message, designed to give you a little joy of the season, I thought that this short description of how we, the Ascended Host, spend the Holy Season of Christmas, might please you.

All the Host of Heaven join me in wishing you, each one, a most holy and happy Christmas time.

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 7, 1952

One of the most beautiful activities connected with the closing of the yearly cycle is the mystic ceremony whereby the Lords of Karma close the individual Book of Life for every lifestream incarnate upon Earth during the twelve months that have passed.

This ceremonial takes place the last evening of the old year in the great Temple of Karma located within the etheric belt. It is a particular service for embodied individuals, and, although it includes those who have had any portion of an embodiment within the year, it does not include the discarnates, or those who have not had an active Earth experience for at least one hour of those twelve months. This is the merciful office of the Karmic Board, and is performed in order to allow the lifestreams of the race to be freed from a portion of the errors and mistakes of the past year, made—not so much through willful disobedience to the Law, as through lack of discernment, discretion and discrimination. In other words, the mitigation of evil effects relate only to those whose causes were motivated with no evil intent, but which, nevertheless, oftentimes produced unnecessary confusion and distress in their wake.

You would be surprised and gratified to know that almost a quarter of the karmic legacy of the race is caused through “blundering,” rather than willful disobedience of the unseen or manifest Law, and the mercy of the Karmic Board (from the beginning of mankind's experiment with the Law of Cause and Effect) has always allowed, at the close of the year, this merciful melting away of the karmic punishments, due to this laxity, which accounts for the lightness with which individuals enter the New Year—filled with hope, resolutions and strongly-imbedded desire to improve upon their nature, character and manifest expression.

There are over four billion souls who come under this beneficent mercy of the Karmic Board during this ceremonial. Each lifestream, from the ignorant savage to the most elect and select student, passes through the Halls of Karma, and his load is lightened according to the intent of his motives during the past twelve months. Thus, all are enabled to enter joyously into the New Year councils, and receive the greatest possible benefit from the directive energies of the Master Beings, who set up the keynote for the coming year.

The Lords of Karma, themselves, allow the lifestream of every individual, at the close of each year, a certain percentage of grace and mercy, which mitigates anywhere from one to forty or fifty per cent of the karmic debts of the year; and this mercy is always measured AGAINST

THE MOTIVES behind all action. After the Lords of Karma have measured the light of the lifestreams, each one is then placed within the Ceremonial Fire of Purification, which is projected and sustained, of course, under the direction of Saint Germain, with the help and direction and sustenance of the angelic kingdom and the initiates, who are educated in the direction and sustenance of the Sacred Fire in its purifying aspect.

Thus, consciously or unconsciously, every lifestream upon the planet tastes and experiences within his own body, the purifying action of the Seventh Ray at the close of every year, and the soul and inner bodies step forth from this purification with a greater opportunity for progress and less accumulation of a binding nature. Of course, it must be understood that each lifestream receives the ultimate amount of mercy and grace THAT HIS OWN MERIT FOR THE PAST YEAR HAS ALLOWED HIM.

If it were not for this yearly purification, mankind would, within seven years, destroy their minds, bodies and possible useful service for that incarnation. To a certain extent, it performs the same service that every soul is blessed with at the close of each embodiment, when—through the purifying fire of cosmic mercy—it is released of the karma of that entire life span, which was created more through IGNORANCE AND STUPIDITY than CONSCIOUS INTENT to do evil. This is the comfort and mercy extended by the Father of love to his children, and it is the only hope for the survival of life upon the planet. My particular office requires my presence in the hall of the Lords of Karma during each individual judgment, because every lifestream comes under my individual radiation, and it is important for me to see what the year has yielded in soul growth and possible expansion of light.

You have been told how, at the stroke of midnight on each new year, the Silent Watcher releases into the consciousness of SANAT KUMARA the keynote for the incoming year, and it may interest you to know that the keynote for the year 1950 was THE LOVE STAR, for 1951 it was my own insignia—THE DOVE OF PEACE, and for this year of 1952, it was an EAR OF WHEAT, signifying the accomplishment of each lifestream.

In this year of 1952, which is called “the Year of the Harvest,” we find that the accomplishment of the individual intelligence will be a paramount issue before the Karmic Council, because the edict for the year was that every intelligence—Divine as well as human—was required by Law to utilize the talents, powers and capacities, developed by the lifestream, in contributing to the expansion of the light through the human race.

As the great conclave at Shamballa closes, and the Brotherhood prepares for its individual and collective audience before the Lords of Karma at the half-yearly conclave, every unascended being will do well to remember that as he has shared in the vision of the new day, and is aware of the significance of the year, he will likewise be called upon to render a personal account of the utilization of his talents and energy during the course of the past year in a PUBLIC MEETING before both the Lords of Karma and the ENTIRE ASSEMBLAGE of Ascended and unascended beings, who will all enter the final outpouring of 1952, each one carrying his own sheaf, born of the single ear he had received on New Year's Day from the hands of the Silent Watcher and Sanat Kumara.

It is needless for me to say that it is the earnest and heartfelt prayer of each member of the Ascended Host who has stood sponsor for the unascended lifestreams present, that the harvest gleaned by each one will justify the faith such sponsor had in the capacities and endeavors of each individual student and chela.

The consciousness that a man has evolved from the beginning of time is really the only intelligent possession which endures through the cycles of birth and death. An individual's consciousness is also the only focus through which the Godhead can increase the wealth, not only of a particular lifestream, but of the manifest world. Each individual endowed with a consciousness, the faculties of intuition, of spiritual perception and inner sight can, by self-conscious effort, raise his own consciousness to union with the Cosmic Christ, and by so doing, become an invaluable instrument in the fulfilling of the divine plan through cooperation with the will of the Father.

When great lifestreams, such as the Master Jesus, prepare the instrument of their consciousness for many lives, in order to provide an incarnate focus through which the Godhead's purpose might be fulfilled, they are serving a cosmic purpose far beyond the comprehension of the human self.

In the physical birth of the Master Jesus, we have the far more mystic and exquisite manifestation of an individualized, self-conscious intelligence, how, by persistent effort through centuries of time, evolved a consciousness whose vibratory action was pure enough, sensitive enough and rapid enough to be the GRAIL of the divine will of the Universal Father. The Father and Son became ONE, not only through the descent of the Cosmic Consciousness, but through the TREMENDOUS INDIVIDUAL ENDEAVOR of the Master Jesus, to evolve and quicken the vibratory action of his own consciousness through century after century of personal effort, and to sustain it at a high enough level that the subtle currents of the Cosmic Christ might be held within it, and translated by the mercy of transmutation into a language of light as well as sound that could be interpreted and understood by the outer mind of the masses.

In entering the Holy Christ-mass Season, the human consciousness of every aspirant to the light may become a grail into which the divine consciousness, which Jesus lived and expressed, may enter. To cultivate, to think and meditate upon the consciousness, the feeling and the radiation of the Master, is to become like him in NATURE, and to become like him, is to gain your own freedom and to give him another instrument or vehicle through which he may pour his radiation, in order to fulfill his work as representative of the Cosmic Christ.

There could be no more beautiful gift to life than to dedicate one's daily activities, one's whole nature and one's being, to the Presence of ALL Life and to the expansion of the Christ Spirit, for, in losing one's lower self, one finds the greater glory of the higher life.

As the presence of the Master is only able to reach the consciousness of the individual through the medium of silent prompting within the feeling nature, or through brilliant flashes of illumination through the medium of the Higher Mental Body, we must all learn to cultivate—particularly through this Holy Season—enough SILENCE in our own outer nature, to allow the vibrations of the Presence to record, with sufficient quality of intensity, the inspiration which becomes the guiding activity of our daily lives.

Let us practice, then, the HABIT OF LISTENING to the voice of God, instead of the clamor of the outer chaos, because this voice of the Presence has, unfortunately, too few outposts through which it can guide and protect the destiny of the many in the days ahead, and the momentum of balance must be gained BEFOREHAND if we are to be of use in the coming hours and days.

If you can and will make this effort, you will find the divine teacher will set your path in order, and things will progress to a point where you become of greater help and assistance to those around you. This must come for every man, every woman and every child—for it is pre-ordained by life—BUT, WE CAN PRESS THAT DAY IF WE ARE WISE.

This is the happiness and privilege, joy and ecstasy of the true nature of man, when he fulfills his divine estate, and, tasting the joy of co-creation with God, becomes established as a potential Sun of a new system.

Let this, then, be your Christmas and New Year's endeavor!

May the joy and accomplishment of the beloved Jesus' Cosmic Christ Consciousness be yours now and forever.

The great council chamber at the Rocky Mountain Retreat was opened in order to accommodate more than five thousand members of the Ascended and angelic host who participated in the transmission of the flame around the world last evening.

It was a beautiful sight to behold, as every guest, in honor of the Year of the Harvest, wore pure white robes with a sheath of wheat embroidered upon it in gold, resting over the heart, and bands of color on the full sleeves and around the hem, designating the particular ray and sphere to which each one belonged. Each one also wore the golden-crested scarf over the shoulders, carrying the insignia and office of each member.

The floor of the great council chamber slopes gradually toward the front, and each high-backed throne-chair was draped in velvet, bearing the insignia representative of the office of the occupant. The color of the velvet corresponded with the band around the sleeves and the hem of the garment of each one. A large velvet cushion of the same color with a tassel at each corner, on which the feet rested, completed these appointments.

The throne of Sanat Kumara was centered, facing the high altar, with the throne of Lord Maitreya on the right and that of the Maha Chohan on the left. Those of the other members of the Hierarchy were arranged in a semi-circle around the central throne.

The beautiful throne-chairs are the permanent property of each Master. They are fitted into a groove in the floor, but can be removed and re-arranged according to the nature of the ceremony or the position of the Master officiating.

For instance, the thrones of Serapis and Lanto were placed upon the platform facing the audience, but on New Year's Eve, the throne of Sanat Kumara will be moved from the audience floor and put in the place of honor on the platform.

The entire council room was decorated with lilies, and the Master Kuthumi, wearing heavily-embroidered golden bands on his sleeves and robe complementing the natural beauty of his appearance, played on the great organ.

Lanto and Serapis, because of the great number of guests, chose to draw the flame from its own chamber into the council room, as there were not sufficient facilities in the flame room to accommodate all the members who wished voluntarily to participate in the expansion of the flame.

On the center of the great altar the Golden Flame took the form of a lily, and the Green Flame (the leaves and the stem) rose as high as the nave in the vaulted ceiling.

The thrones of the Lords of Karma faced the audience from high in the atmosphere over the altar, and the presence of the Silent Watcher, clothed in azure blue, encompassed the entire assembly in his radiant presence.

The throne-chairs of Jesus and Mary, each canopied entirely in lilies, were placed one at each end of the semi-circle forming the first row, so that they connected with the wide altar and formed two arched doorways of lilies into the great flame.

Because of the interest of the Higher Mental Bodies in the activity of 1952, the upper atmosphere was filled with a great multitude of these Christ Selves, and a beam of light from the heart of each one entered into the lily-formed flame on the high altar.

The sponsors of the various groups left their seats just prior to the actual ceremony, although all the Masters spent an hour in contemplation of the flame before taking up their posts in the different localities. Through the faculties of their own vision and contemplation, they drew a tremendous concentration of the flame into their own consciousness and re-created these beautiful lily forms in the vicinities where the groups were gathered.

The Master Serapis, completely clothed in white, and whose vestments were unrelieved by color, presided over the actual projection and direction of the flame. His robe was of a shimmering material, the contrast on sleeves and hem, emphasizing his ray, being of a crystal-like substance.

The Master Lanto, who served with him, also wore a pure white vestment, but his was complemented with jade green.

The members were asked by Serapis to visualize the flame-lily around every lifestream belonging to Earth's evolution, both incarnate as well as those waiting for re-embodiment, and, for thirty minutes, while Kuthumi played the sacred songs honoring the birth of the Master Jesus, this visualization took place. Then, at the moment when the flame was to be directed, both Serapis and Lanto projected their flame into the sacred flame-flower, which made it grow larger and more brilliant. This was the signal of the Brotherhood to breathe it IN and then project it FORTH upon the pathway around the world.

The reception of the student body was so beautiful that it took less than thirty seconds to encircle the planet and return to its source. Every lifestream upon the Earth received a PERMANENT FOCUS of that flaming flower, which will act as a stimulus to the development of their own Christ nature.

The entire Earth took on the appearance of a gigantic lily resting on a green base, and during the half-hour's contemplation following the projection, the inner atmosphere of the planet and the various kingdoms, as well as the very substance of Earth itself, was blessed with the greatest outpouring of the Cosmic Christ light that has been known since the last Golden Age.

Now, may the happiness and joy of this Holy Season enfold you, each one, and those you love.

The glorious ceremony of purification and merciful forgiveness for the misuse of energy and light during the twelve-month period that is passing into eternity, begins today in the heart of the great Rocky Mountain Retreat.

There are no words to describe the compassion of that forgiving love of the Cosmic Christ into which the souls of every lifestream upon the planet are consciously drawn, that their karma might be lessened, and that they may step forth into the pulsation of the New Year with a new opportunity to find mercy and, through mercy, peace.

The great audience chamber is completely decorated in all the variegated tones of the Purple Ray, from the most delicate pink-violet and blue-violet tones to the rich, deep purples, which represent the most concentrated essence of that Flame of Mercy, Forgiveness and Compassion.

The velvet chair backs and cushions are all a royal purple, embroidered in gold, and the Masters and visiting guests wear robes of the varying degrees of the purple color-tone representative of their particular activity in connection with the Flame of Mercy.

Saint Germain's throne-chair is placed in the center of the platform, facing the audience. On his right is the throne of Kwan Yin—the Goddess of Mercy—and on his left is that of Mary, the mother of Jesus. Sanat Kumara maintains his position in the central throne facing the altar, and the two end seats of the semi-circle (previously occupied by the Masters Jesus and Mary) are the throne-seats today of Oromasis and Diana, the Prince and Princess of the fire element.

The glorious archways connecting the platform with the audience are composed of violets, shading from a delicate pink to the deep velvety purples.

The vestments of Saint Germain embody all the beauty, dignity and courtliness which have earned for him the reputation of “The Prince of Heaven.”

A moment or two before the ceremony commences, the Lords of Karma take their places in the atmosphere above the high altar. They also wear their robes of state, with seven-pointed crowns upon their heads, richly encrusted with diamonds and amethysts.

The Silent Watcher, standing high in the atmosphere above the mountain, with Arcturus, bathes the entire locality in the substance of the violet light which flows from his luminous body like a beautiful garment of the finest of chiffon that has yet a softly-luminous quality in its gentle radiance.

The Master Saint Germain, at the moment of the invocation, CHARGES into the atmosphere directly in front of the altar (before which he stands) a FLASH OF FLAME from his heart, head, and hand. This becomes the initial impulse for the Flame of Mercy, through which the mankind of Earth will pass.

From the center of this flame, petals unfold, until a great Lotus flower is formed, its purple petals extending the full width of the wide platform. This beautiful thoughtform is at first transparent, of a gossamer substance, but which continues to intensify and condense until it forms, at last, a fairly wide pathway which can be observed by the Lords of Karma, who are facing the audience, as well as by the audience itself. This beautiful lotus pathway is suspended in the atmosphere by a gently-curved band of purple light, which is anchored through the violet archways at each end of the platform.

The Goddess of Justice, as “spokesman” for the Lords of Karma, then begins to call the roll of mankind. As their names are called, they pass through the archway of violets up onto this pathway of purple flame, accompanied by their sponsors (if they are conscious chelas) and by their guardian angels (if they are among the masses).

As each one stands for a moment in the very heart of the lotus-flame, the MOTIVE which prompted the creation of the karma for the past year is examined and as much of that karma is wiped away as the motive within the heart would allow.

A steady stream of souls thus proceed across this flaming pathway of mercy, and down the further side, joining the assembly (if they are students of light) and returning to their various homes, if they are not yet awakened to the inner life.

Every lifestream who has had even one minute of incarnation during the closing twelve-month cycle is given this opportunity for purification and soul-cleansing; therefore, you will see that the process is a lengthy one, and comprises a steady and constant stream in order to bathe and free some four billion souls prior to the release of the vibration of the New Year. We expect this purification process to continue, day and night, up until the midnight preceding New Year's Eve.

The mass of the people is passed through speedily, but the students of light receive individual attention and assistance.

At the close of this exquisite ceremony, the lotus-flame is expanded out over the entire assembly, and then, through their cooperative endeavor, it flows outward and covers the entire Earth with its merciful and forgiving radiance.

After the completion of this purifying activity, mankind is prepared to receive the impetus of the spirit who is to ensoul the coming year and the thoughtform which will be the directing intelligence.

May each and every one of you experience in your FEELINGS the uplifting grace and the joyous release which the participation in this exquisite ceremony of compassion and mercy imparts.

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 1, 1953

In preparation for the initial pulsation of the year 1953, all of the members and guests of the great Rocky Mountain Retreat wore robes of blue, shading from the most delicate sky-blue to the deep, intense royal and indigo tones. The chair backs and cushions were of an exquisite royal blue velvet trimmed in gold. Each member present wore the insignia of his own retreat, embroidered over the heart, making it easy for the assembly to recognize their specific service and representation.

Upon the great platform, the throne-chair of Sanat Kumara was centered, facing the audience, with Lord Maitreya on his right and myself on his left. Sanat Kumara wore vestments of the most exquisite sapphire blue, with crystal bands over eight inches deep at the hem and round the flowing sleeves. The garments of Lord Maitreya and myself complemented his appointments, only the details of the Illumined One's vestments revealed the supremacy of his great office.

From Shamballa, Lord Maitreya was allowed to bring the Scepter of Power, which is the mystic pole holding the souls of men within the orbit of the planet, which has been designated as their theater of evolution.

The seats in the first three rows of the assembly were occupied by the hierarchs and representatives of the retreats of the world, the members of the Brotherhood and the conscious chelas filling the rest of the vast assembly hall, as well as the atmosphere above the entire locality.

The Lords of Karma wore pure white robes with sapphire blue neck bands, and each one wore a seven-pointed crown (which is the symbol of his office) and the crowns were studded with sapphires for this occasion.

The first activity of the year was the presentation of the petitions and suggestions by the members of the retreats as well as by the conscious chelas. After reading them, the individuals making the petitions were given the opportunity of asking for what voluntary support any member of the assembly or the Brotherhood might choose to give to their cause.

The Goddess of Liberty, as "spokesman" for the Lords of Karma, recorded the requests as well as the sponsorship of each, for the private deliberation of the Karmic Board before the answers to these petitions are handed down within the next several days.

I was so pleased and delighted at the initiative and the voluntary contributions of the various students who had become aware of this great opportunity, and made such requests as they felt would be of benefit to the individual soul as well as to mankind at large.

At the end of the ceremony of presentation, the Master Serapis Bey presented his report on the progress of the Higher Mental Bodies, through the 200,000 individuals who were chosen to be the vanguard of the new dispensation. This report was also given to the keeping of the Karmic Board for due consideration, upon the findings of which will depend the grants for 1953. This will be made known within the next few days.

Sanat Kumara acquiesced to the petition of Serapis Bey that the Retreat at Luxor might be host to the people of Earth for the first period of the new year, in order to give the strongest impetus possible to his illustrious successor's endeavors—so from January 15th to February 14th, mankind's attention will again be focused in the heart of the Luxor Retreat in Egypt.

The exquisite ceremony by which the Master of the past year transfers his authority to the succeeding Master is beautiful in the extreme.

The seats at either end of the first semi-circle in the audience were occupied by the beloved Archangel Michael, and the great angel representing unity. The center seat facing the altar was occupied by Serapis Bey—the presiding Master for the year 1952.

The beautiful arches on either side, which connected the platform with the audience, were made up of living cherubim, their “forms” bathed in every conceivable shade of the Blue Ray.

When Sanat Kumara signified that the moment had arrived when the Thoughtform, which would be the keynote for 1953, was about to be delivered from the Silent Watcher, the entire assembly arose quietly, and Lord Michael, the Angel Micah and Serapis Bey joined us upon the platform. We stood in the form of a five-pointed star, with Sanat Kumara in the center, facing the audience. The Silent Watcher, who had overshadowed the entire assembly in his cosmic proportion, chose to condense his great being to a point where he stood plainly visible to the entire assembly in the atmosphere just above our heads.

Sanat Kumara then directed the thoughtform of a cup or chalice into the omnipresent universal light, to which we all contributed by our concentrated and directed energy, and this chalice became the receptacle into which the Silent Watcher was to direct the exquisite pattern which would form the keynote for 1953.

When all was in readiness, the Silent Watcher, raising his hands above his head, revealed within them an exquisite pair of outstretched wings, with the head of a most beautiful cherubic being resting between them. Slowly, majestically, as the Great One lowered his hands, this form descended and hovered over the chalice and began to pour through the vessel, as well as our up-reaching consciousness, an essence and substance of love indescribable.

Sanat Kumara, reaching up his hands, took the chalice in his own and lowered it, then, holding this exquisite vessel (with the beautiful cherubim hovering above it) in front of the entire audience, he maintained this position until every member of the assembly had absorbed it into his or her consciousness. At no time, however, did the cherubic figure enter the cup; its essence just poured into and through it from about an inch or so above its rim.

For about thirty minutes, every member of the assembly concentrated upon the absorption of this exquisite design, which is the symbol of LOVE COUPLED WITH ACTION, and which is the grail or cup of mankind's invocation for union with God—no matter by what term the individual knows him.

The great Lord Michael and the Angel Micah (co-sponsors for 1953) then received the cup from the hands of Sanat Kumara, and together held it with hands intertwined, while Serapis knelt and received the blessing of the Lord of the World for his service for the year 1952.

The two new sponsors for the current year, with Sanat Kumara, then signified to the assembly that the moment had come for the sending forth of the thoughtform to the waiting world, through the cooperative endeavors of each of the assembly's own creative faculties.

As ONE, Sanat Kumara and the two angelic beings stretched forth their hands and the entire assembly took a long in-drawn breath. Simultaneously with this action, across the breast of everyone present, the grail and the hovering cherubic figure were formed. Then on the out-breath, the whole assembly and the entire host of inner bodies, representative of over half the race, breathed out this thoughtform, and it was as if the mountain itself shook with the powerful radiation, and millions and millions of angelic beings sped North, South, East, and West over the face of Earth and into the consciousness and feeling world of all people everywhere, bathing both the incarnate and discarnate souls in the glory of the Holy Grail.

(Let it be understood that a thoughtform of an angel or a cherubim is a CUP, which may be ENSOULED by a living, breathing being from the angelic kingdom, IF the lifestream receiving it can sustain and magnetize it and keep itself worthy of such a visitation.)

This activity of sending forth the thoughtform for the year is like the planting of the seed from whence a crop of merit MAY, by wise gardening, be raised up. I might add that, of the countless millions of this beautiful thoughtform sent forth through the thirty-minute period of consciously-directed precipitation, many millions were returned to the universal, and perhaps only hundreds became the habitation of those beings who are willing to enter and ensoul those thoughtforms, if so be they are sustained and nourished by the recipients. Thus, do angels come to dwell among the alert and receptive, and the humble.

The Great Central Sun messenger, who will bring the result of the grants and dispensations through the cooperation of the Karmic Board—giving the Brotherhood certain liberties in directing the work of the year 1953—is expected on Sunday, January 4th, and our report on his merciful gift from the Supreme Father of ALL LIGHT, will follow.

Beloved Maha Chohan

When the Ascended Masters choose lifestreams who, they hope, will assist them in carrying out the divine plan for the planet, they are limited by the fact that they may only take volunteer workers. They cannot go to a university and place their fingers upon likely members of the race, but must await the voluntary offering of some lifestreams to the work of serving humanity, which is, in most cases, a thankless as well as a tedious task.

When the volunteers do appear (at rare intervals), the Master in charge of a certain type of work, which the applicant feels he is fitted for, first takes stock of the NATURE of the individual. He finds out how calm this one would be under emotional strain. He has to decide on the quality of his mental body, and whether he is capable of setting aside his own personal opinions on a given subject and accepting the inspiration of the Master, although it may seem to be against all human “reason.”

He can tell by looking at the inner bodies how an individual will act if he is put into association with lifestreams who have hurt him in the past, and whether the applicant will react unpleasantly to this etheric memory, thus hindering the Master's work. He must also examine the fortitude of the physical body, as well as look into his intuitive development, which latter will form the only link by which the Master can reach his student in times of crisis.

Having carefully gone over the lifestream, the Master will then place the student in a position where the strain will not be beyond the development of the entire nature. This position oftentimes seems of great importance to the outer self, but very unimportant as regards the Master's work, and vice versa, BUT, as soon as the Master takes this material in hand, no matter how poor it may be, he must, like a wise carpenter or engineer, use MECHANICAL MEANS to repair the weak places, and, if possible, make the lifestream more capable of the service he is to render him in the future.

Thus, it very often happens that an individual will, at inner levels, present himself before the Karmic Board and offer his services along some particular line in which he has a sympathetic interest, in the majority of cases the outer mind being utterly unaware of this act on the part of the ego. This very often accounts for the strange conditions and circumstances that the aspirant on the path finds have come into his experience and which the outer mind cannot account for. This, however, is but a strengthening and tightening of his spiritual "muscles," so to speak, preparatory to his entering the cosmic service he has applied for. This condition should not cause undue distress to the outer mind, for be it known that every being who has ever made his ascension from the wheel of birth and death, has been tested and tried in every conceivable way in order to prepare him for his cosmic service of the future.

"A chain is only as strong as its weakest link," and the con-scrounges of the evolving spirit must be tested over and over again for hidden weaknesses, lest perhaps when he has attained to great cosmic heights and the fate of a planet, let us say, depends upon his decision, this hidden weakness might assert itself and cause what could be a cosmic catastrophe.

If the students of the light will look in upon themselves and determine wherein their weaknesses can be strengthened, we shall have material which we can use with much greater efficacy in the future. All require a TREMENDOUS INTENSIFICATION OF POISE AND EMOTIONAL STABILITY, which will allow a greater responsibility from the higher octaves to rest upon natures capable of accepting the direction of more energy and the sustaining of that energy in a constructive channel.

Up until the last few years, the meetings and work of the Brotherhood were completely isolated from any contact with the consciousness of unascended beings, and the plans, once promulgated, were sent forth for execution. As all such plans, however, must pass the Board of Karma, the very fact that mankind was not an active and cooperative part of the formation and manifestation thereof, limited the acquiescence and backing of this august assembly (the Karmic Board).

We are well pleased, therefore, with the opportunity which this conscious cooperation between ascended and unascended beings affords us, and I cannot urge you too strongly to ACQUAINT AS MANY AS POSSIBLE OF THE STUDENT BODY OF THE MONTHLY GATHERINGS OF THE RETREATS DESIGNATED, so that their outer consciousness may be turned toward them and their feelings open to the expression and infiltration of the plan and design of the new day. In this manner they may, according to their capacities and worth, become valuable instruments of expression of the God-will.

Let us all, then, with humble hearts and contrite spirits, send our love and gratitude to the Great White Brotherhood and the Lords of Karma, from the bottom of our hearts at this season as we begin the new year, that the keynote of the year may abide in our hearts and direct our destiny, keep us free of error, and make us radiating centers of good for the future.

THE ASCENSION FLAME OF THE LUXOR RETREAT

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 18, 1953

The honoring of the Ascension Flame at Luxor through the conscious recognition and cooperation of individuals functioning yet in the physical appearance world, is another milestone on the pathway of progress from darkness into light.

The Ascension Flame, in itself, is a bridge from the third dimensional world into the inner spheres, where emancipated man may live freely in his fulfilled destiny.

It is the most powerful concentrated action of centripetal force, by which the gravity pull of Earth is reversed, and the soul of man swept upward again into the God-estate from whence he came.

The keepers of this cosmic bridge of pure flame are the Brotherhood at Luxor, who, together with their great Hierarchy, have maintained a constant watch over the focus of the Sacred Fire, so that whatever few members of the race might desire to return home within the yearly course of each minor cycle, could have the impetus of that concentrated power of the Sacred Fire which has been drawn from Atlantis and sustained to the present day through the fidelity of the few.

The Brotherhood at Luxor, as well as all visiting members of the Hierarchy, last evening wore white robes—the beloved Serapis wearing the headdress of the retreat, a golden band with two wings of flame from the forehead, which was the sole distinguishing characteristic of his high office.

The Luxor Brotherhood entered the sanctuary of the Sacred Fire, and at the given moment, the entire thousand members stepped consciously within that flame. In exactly the same manner as physical fuel expands a fire, so did their individual heart flames increase the sphere of influence and expand the Ascension Flame westward to the tip of Africa, northward to cover the entire European continent, southward to the Cape of Good Hope, and eastward through the Arabian Sea to India. This was the size of the great flaming lily of white fire BEFORE its transmission around the world began, and you will note that it covered a great deal of the landed surface of the Earth, where particular world conditions at present warrant the assistance of the Brotherhood in dissipating vortices of evil.

As Serapis Bey prepared the Brotherhood for the direction of the flame, all breathed it in, and it was sent to the retreat of Jesus and Mary in Arabia—forward to India, and then followed the same track as previously used around the entire globe.

Whereas the previous flame circled the Earth several thousand feet above its surface, this time, through the cooperation of the forces of nature, the flame was projected right along the surface of the land and sea, so that the physical bodies of man and beast were permeated with its pressure, and not only the inner bodies constructively affected. It acted, in a measure, like a razor cutting the lines of force, which connected the consciousness and vehicles of the inhabitants of Earth with the downward currents which have grounded the consciousness. As this was repeated over and over again, the pull of the senses, appetites and passions, which are all part of the gravity by which man is held in the lower octaves, was tremendously lessened.

It served in a measure like the Sword of Flame wielded by Lord Michael and the angels who work in the astral and psychic plane in literally shearing the accumulations which had grown into the consciousness like barnacles attach themselves to a ship.

You will see that when the tremendous downward surge of energy was lessened that the buoyancy of the heart flame in the people could respond to the upward surge—which is the Ascension Flame in its essence.

After fifteen minutes of the cutting away the “adhesions” in the consciousness, the Brotherhood began to pour the buoyant raising action, which is the true nature of the Ascension Flame, into the hearts and into the individual flame, and it seemed to have the same effect as helium within the dirigible.

If the conscious students and those aware of this service wish to revivify this activity through their own consciousness in private application, and particularly to overcome a tendency towards depression, they will find the use of the Ascension Flame at Luxor a most powerful means of sustaining the enthusiasm which is life's rhythm by which the soul and consciousness rise Godward.

We are extremely grateful for the cooperation of the groups who, together with their cosmic sponsors, made this possible, and we look forward, with joy, to the day when thousands of such foci will be actively engaged with the Brotherhood during such thirty-day periods, in cosmically remedying the conditions under which the masses function in so limited a degree of awareness of the ever-present and potent powers of the Sacred Fire which are available for their use at any moment.

The fruit tree is a beautiful example, or likeness, of the entire identity of man, and that is why in the early days, the symbol of the “tree of life” was used as both a method of teaching the Law of Life, and a reminder to the multitude of the great scope which one's individuality in its entirety covers.

The great trunk of the tree is representative of the cosmic ego, or the spiritual presence, and its many branches were indicative of the ego's activities throughout the various spheres of life. The bud, followed by the leaf, flower and fruit, were representatives of the temporary personality, and expression of the lifestream in a given incarnation (season).

The nature and identity of the tree endured unchanged. As maturity is reached, the branches spread out and increase, and the ultimate manifestation of fruit makes for a larger harvest.

Studying the rhythmic course of the season would show that bud and leaf and flower and fruit make but a temporary entrance, abide for a time, and then disappear, but even the unawakened know that the tree nowise ceases to be by reason of the passing of its seasonal harvest. Yet, in the course of man's entrance into thousands of individualizations or incarnations, he places all his interest, faith and consciousness on the bud, flower and fruit of one SEASON. If, through late frost, or some other natural manifestation, the bud is lost, and the flower does not bloom, man suffers unnecessary grief in seeing the extinction of what he would call the presence of a soul on Earth. Yet, in nature's kingdom, the early bud is replaced by another bud or flower in another season, and there is no great harm done in the produce of the tree itself. It is thus also in the world of man.

Study, then, the kingdom of nature, for in its natural expression that surrounds all people, is a lesson of the truth of life. From the great trunk the branches derive their sustenance, and from the branches the bud, the flower, the leaf and fruit receive their perfume, substance and nourishment. Jesus understood this well when he gave the parable relative to the branches of the fig tree, and it is often that the great parent tree, itself, ceases to pour the substance of its life into an avenue of activity and service that is not to the ultimate good of the whole. In these cases, particularly at times of cosmic import, the parent stem of the lifestream can, and does, withdraw the sustenance of the personality which opposes the progress of the race as a whole, and in such a case the spirit and cosmic ego of the erring personality does not, by this action of the Presence, suffer any more than the tree does by the removal of a withered branch, and in time it will bring forth new shoots of a healthy nature.

It is in such an hour that we live, and these individualizations who represent tyranny and human aggression will, in the mercy of life, cease to feed the discord of the world.

Although the diversity of activities that come under the direction of the being who is vested with the office of Maha Chohan requires a tremendous expenditure of energy, it is a personal pleasure for me to see the wisdom of the God-plan through those intelligences so far superior to the growing and evolving life expression. My activities in the nature kingdom have helped me greatly in understanding the development of the divine plan through the human race.

I will confess, however, that working with the kingdom of nature is a more comfortable and happy experience than working in the human kingdom, because of the absolute obedience and cooperation of the inhabitants of the former kingdom and the almost complete absence of the same qualities in the latter. However, working with mankind brings with it an opportunity to develop greater light, patience and understanding, by which, I, too, prepare for a greater responsibility and opportunity to serve the God life.

Many students have wondered why it is within the compass of the Third Person of the Trinity to deal with the evolution of the individuals and to draw, control, and direct the energies by which the nature kingdom is sustained, and yet, when understood from the inner standpoint, the two services are very parallel in nature, and it is a marvelous thing to see how through the consciousness of the beings in each kingdom, greater perfection and beauty is manifested.

It is a cause for wonder, too, why lifestreams are drawn together in such intimate relationship, but it is that some quality in each one might be developed, and another tendency retarded, which will eventually make the harvest of that "tree" so abundant and beautiful. In my capacity as "cosmic gardener," I often actually "feel" the distress-comfort of the little roots and bulbs underneath the earth in their growing period, as they seem to jostle and push each other in their eagerness to grow and expand, but then I also "feel" their individual joy and happiness when, at last, their little heads appear above the hard earth and they "see" their reason for being. It is the same way with the human consciousness. Sometimes it wonders and rebels at the positions in which life places them, not understanding that a wise and loving "gardener" is hovering over them, watching their "growing pains," and rejoicing when they glimpse even a tiny portion of the cosmic divine plan.

The only thing I can say in closing is that, as I give you a small picture of the garden of the future, you will have faith in my clarity of perception, and that you will all flower together in great beauty and harmony, and the perfume of your individual beings blend to make this star one of the most glorious in our firmament.

This is my desire. This is the hope of my heart and, knowing you, I am confident in its fulfillment.

The Law of life is so simple in its essence, that mankind passes it by for the very complicated, involved terminology with which they have completely smothered the simple truth.

The Law of THE NEW AGE—the religion of THE NEW AGE—will be so simple that NO study will be required to understand it. It is THE LAW OF HARMONY. Some people call it love, but when you call it LOVE you immediately begin to enter into variations of expression and interpretations that distort its true sense.

As the representative of the Holy Spirit, it is my office to present to mankind the PLAIN TRUTH so that “all who run may read.”

LIFE IS ENERGY. Every man, woman and child who breathes, draws that energy into himself by a CONSCIOUS ACTION, for the in-breath is a drawing into oneself from the one source—God—the priceless energy that is his life, and when an individual does this, he or she becomes ACCOUNTABLE to the whole universe for the use of that energy loaned to him by the Godhead.

The breath in your body is yours because you DREW IT FORTH from the heart of God. In your inner soul you promised God that you would enrich his universe if he would allow you the USE OF HIS LIFE, and God, BEING LOVE, granted your request, and gave you all the love you required—and still does—with but one counsel or condition—that his life or energy must go forth from you QUALIFIED HARMONIOUSLY, to bless and enrich his people, his universe and all its parts.

If the energy is not qualified harmoniously, the Cosmic Law governing the universe is, that your own Higher Mental Body will draw that energy back into your world after it has accomplished that for which it was sent forth, and it comes back with the same qualification with which you clothed it on its outward journey, amplified by vibrations of a like quality which it has attracted to itself while it was absent from your aura. The reason for this is that the evolving soul may learn, first, the nature of the energy he is using, and, second, that the guiding intelligence within his own soul is an integral part of God, and therefore love in action. The outer personality then is forced to learn from this return of his own energy that it is more comfortable to abide by the Law of Harmony and enrich the universe by the life that God has loaned him, than to suffer the consequences caused by the unlawful use of the fire-breath of God.

The particular traits and characteristics that annoy you in other people are, almost without exception, the energy of your own world that you have sent out in a similar manner in previous lives. Your Higher Mental Body shows you how discordantly-qualified energy distorts the universe. When the individual becomes uncomfortable enough, he feels and speaks resentfully of these appearances, but if the person would recognize that he or she has created those very things in the past, he would, on encountering them, call on the Law of Forgiveness for HIS part in creating those inharmonious appearances and, then through his knowledge of the Sacred Fire, BLAZE the Cosmic Fiery Flame of Freedom's Love through the cause and effect of such a manifestation, he would not only be cleansing and purifying his own consciousness and world of the cause and effect of these qualities, but would be helping to eradicate them completely from the universe in general.

If a person is BIG enough to bless those human appearances that manifest in the lifestreams of those around him into FREEDOM, he will find those very annoying traits and characteristics will cease to appear in his own world, because the law of his lifestream is, when he is cleansed and purified from those habits that he dislikes, and their momentum consumed in the flame, he will not be required to live under the pressure of any experience that is not of his own making.

Your Higher Mental Body is your only judge. It is your mentor and your spiritual teacher, and until you fully awaken to a full realization of your own divine identity, it is consciously and constantly returning the energy that you have sent out discordantly qualified in the past, asking you to BLESS it, CHARGE the purifying flame through it, and set it free, once more, into that glorious state of peace and happiness which it knew before you drew it into your world through the conscious act of breathing.

When the energy which you have drawn forth from life to date has been harmoniously requalified and freed, then Earth can no longer hold you—your divine plan is completed, your service to Earth finished—and you rise, an Ascended Being, having completed your cycle of individual evolution and learned the Law of Harmony, which is the Law of the Universe.

Saint Germain and other members of the Ascended Host are balancing and removing thousands of tons of misqualified energy from Earth and its people daily and yearly, and I trust, for the sake of your own speedy freedom, that you will learn to live gently and kindly, and that you will realize when you experience through others that which seems to be so distressing—it is not really someone else's fault, but the reflection of what you have done to life through the centuries, and that you will use the purifying flame of freedom's love unceasingly, so as to banish it forever from God's universe.

I am come this morning to bring the FEELING of COMFORT, which is experienced when the lifestream learns to KNOW THE POWER that lies within the constantly-flowing stream of energy which forms the very heartbeat of all animate form.

Comfort lies within the recognition and acceptance of the ever-present power of God, forever MASTER over energy through the individual being.

When the chela applies for admission into my retreat at Ceylon, motivated by the desire either to RECEIVE comfort or to BECOME a comfort to life, it is my endeavor to acquaint his consciousness with the master power of the God within himself.

When the outer consciousness is able, at will, to enter the Secret Place of the Most High, and let the ever-flowing substance of the Universal Life, through him, externalize God's will, he is then prepared to be a comforting presence, and he, himself, lives in the assurance of the ever-present power of God as the master control of all circumstances.

In the Twenty-third Psalm I endeavored (through the con-scrounges of David) to convey the assurance that, in the natural flow of life through the heart, to the periphery of the lifestream, there was everything required according to the specific activity of the moment.

For the student to follow the flow of energy from the Presence into the flame within the heart, and then visualize the substance of that flame become the path upon which he proceeds through the universe, is to enter into the FEELING that truly this intelligent light does lead him "into paths of righteousness, and prepares a table before him," according to the requirement of the hour. Such a one abides in that feeling of "goodness and mercy all the days of his life."

The intelligence within this natural flowing stream of energy (if acknowledged and actually visualized as externalized substance fanning out from the heart) would make every day a day of grace, harmony, happiness and fulfillment, and by the intelligence within that substance would the pertinent need of each hour be fulfilled.

If the student could visualize this substance becoming a cup from which he would drink, the knowledge upon which he would rest; the bread of life which is the nourishment of the body; the mercy by which returning karma would be melted into nothingness; an actual shield between him and all appearances of evil; as well as the inspiration of the soul and the cleansing, freeing, purifying spirit by which all lifestreams who contact it would be blessed—then truly would he find the counsel of the sage filled with wisdom, when he bade the aspirant:

'BE STILL AND KNOW THAT I AM GOD.'

As we close the thirty-day period during which the Master Serapis Bey was host to a number of the members of the human race, as well as the Ascended Masters of the Spiritual Hierarchy, I would like to incorporate the final address which he made on Saturday evening, February 14th, to the assembled guests. The number of lifestreams who attended the meetings at Luxor was much smaller than the number in attendance at the Rocky Mountain Council, because people—even in their inner bodies—shy away from the purity and honesty of purpose and motive which the Ascension Flame and its great guardian demand of all who come within its compass and its aura. MAHA CHOCHAN

Beloved Serapis Bey speaks:

All the world is seeking peace—individually, nationally, and internationally. That peace comes only when the outer self voluntarily returns, like the prodigal son, to the home of the Father and decides to surrender the personal will and purpose to the wisdom and design of the God-self.

Watching, through the centuries, the constant conflict between the light within the soul of man which desired to come home, and the ceaseless demands of the senses for the USE of life, to gratify their temporary appetites, I am well equipped to engaged in the joyous endeavors of the Cosmic Law to bring peace to every man who honestly is willing “to pay the price.” What is this price? Surrender of the personal self to the Presence of God within.

Many times, through the centuries, I have stood absolutely alone, guarding the flame at Luxor, and every one of my disciples, grasping in his hands the gift of life, went forth, each one taking some blind alley, seeking happiness and peace, the blessed ones—scattering the precious life energy carelessly upon their journey—sooner or later coming to the end of the road, where stood the Karmic angel with the flaming sword, who pointed them back along the very path they had so eagerly come, believing it to be the way of freedom and to peace! And to each one, the angel gave a basket, commanding the soul to gather up the life energy thrown away in careless abandon on the heedless adventure. Ah, the wearisome return, reaping the harvest of tears, the soul required to wipe away the traces of carelessly-expended energies from the lifestreams it had passed upon the road, until again, each one came to the point from whence he had started forth.

Here, for a time, subdued and humble, the soul-light again asserted its desire for freedom, and into Luxor would return the aspirant. I—mirroring the karma of the centuries in my heart—would bind up the wounds of experience, and endeavor to provide the necessary disciplines and applications by which the seeds of undeveloped vices might never grow and prod the neophyte to another journey into the world of maya—and I would hope and pray!

But, when the flame flowed freely, and the memory of the unpleasant journey of the past grew dim, and the life vitalized the restored inner bodies, again the neophyte would ask that he might take “his portion of life” and go forth—usually to redeem the world—another blind alley, for the most part, because for the one who might remain true to such a course, there would be a thousand who, although motivated by sincere desire to raise the race, would be soon caught up in the momentum of the people, and the life energies blend with “the ways of the world.”

Today, the Christ Selves of 200,000 lifestreams presently incarnated upon planet Earth have applied to the Cosmic Law for permission consciously to impress and direct the outer selves which they have sustained through the centuries. This grant has been given, and I, myself, have stood sponsor for each such one. My service is to pre-prepare the “field for the sowing.” In other words, it is my particular service to reach the outer consciousness, and make it willing to accept the God design and receive the spiritual bridegroom (the Presence) NOW. In this manner, the Christ Self through each one may stand revealed in all the glory and perfection which the Master Jesus manifested in his ministry.

You, who have gathered here each night, know something of what is required of you—surrender of the outer self to the Presence of God that beats your heart; constant, conscious returning of your attention to the Presence as the directing intelligence, until you become acquainted with its nature, devoted to its purpose, and sensitive to its slightest prompting—not only in times of contemplation, but in the noisy, tumultuous currents of daily living as well!

Your life must become a channel for the power, the peace, the healing, the supply of your own Presence—which is ONE with the Father of all life! This is your reason for being, and for this came you into the world. You shall know neither peace nor happiness until you fulfill this purpose CONSCIOUSLY.

PRESS your outer consciousness against the great body of God, until you can actually and actively FEEL his strength, his omnipresence, his omnipotence, his vital health and well-being, his peace and his power. The nature of God is the most contagious of all natures, but you must expose yourself to its influence in order to experience its Presence alive within you, and flowing through you to expand the borders of the Kingdom!

The transmission of the currents of mercy, forgiveness and love divine from the cosmic temple of Kwan Yin in China last evening, through the kind contribution of the energy, time, visualizing faculties and breath of the beloved students in conscious cooperation with the Ascended Host of Light, was another cosmic milestone in the spiritual evolution of the race.

This accomplishment fills by heart, particularly, with gratitude, that so much has been accomplished in such a very short time, and that the beloved students have grasped so quickly the importance of this endeavor, and have become such a valuable and active part in assisting us to render this service to our evolution and to the beloved Sanat Kumara—that is, the releasing of cosmic vibrations with a certain definite qualification, whose rapid revolution around the Earth and through the bodies of the people and the nature kingdom represents the most concentrated action of the Sacred Fire ever drawn, focused and projected for the upliftment of mankind on this planet.

Many times have great heights of spiritual glory been attained, and Golden Ages manifested on the face of Earth where the power of the Sacred Fire was invoked and utilized locally for the benefit of the people, but this is the first time it has been consciously directed around the entire globe again and again, with the specific intent and purpose of setting mankind free from the misqualification of energy, with its attendant results of karmic misery and limitation.

The beloved Kwan Yin began to draw the cosmic power of the Sacred Fire twenty-four hours before the actual transmission of the currents was to take place. The Brotherhood who abide within her Temple of Mercy have woven for her the most exquisite robes of state, and vestments of power, in the glorious royal purple and gold, which she wore over her own simple gown of mauve silk. She, together with the twelve ladies who represent her spiritual court, took their positions before the altar upon which blazes the Cosmic Lotus of Mercy, long before the assemblage gathered, and began to tie in the currents from the temples of light around the physical Sun and the spheres of light, which caused the flame to expand and intensify in its concentrated power until it was so brilliant in its activity that even we found it difficult to look upon its blazing presence for more than a few moments at a time. From the cosmic temple of the Elohim of the Flame of Mercy around the Sun, the great Purple Ray flashed forth and connected with the focused flame in the temple at Peking.

Then, from the seven temples of mercy, forgiveness, love, freedom, purity, kindness and ordered service, that abide within the Seventh Realm, seven great rays were directed by angel devas of the Violet Fire, which—joining with the master ray from the Sun—entered the heart of the cosmic lotus, expanding it until its petals covered the entire country of China, well up into the Siberian state, across Tibet and the Malay Peninsula and out through the Pacific, blanketing the Korean battlefields in its potent power.

From inner levels, it looked as though the lovely Earth had put a beautiful jeweled lotus in her hair, and the attention of beings from other stars and planets was forcibly drawn by the tremendous, magnetic power of that light. These glorious celestial visitors began to gather, in a wholly spontaneous spirit of homage to the flame. Earth has not offered such cause for spiritual visitations since she was first created as the cradle for the evolving race.

The spiritually-sensitive chelas and students, fortunate enough to be within the actual physical locality of this activity, were also drawn by this concentrated power of love, and it was not unlike the gathering of the wise and innocent around the birthplace of the beloved Jesus at Bethlehem so long ago, as they again responded to the magnetic power of love and the gift of God imparted for the blessings of all peoples.

Just before the transmission of the currents was to begin, the members of the Brotherhood took their places within the temple proper, and at the given moment, Kwan Yin gave the signal, and all breathed into the purple fire lotus their blessing and their breath. Kwan Yin and her court stepped within the flame, and then the Brothers each drew in a deep breath, absorbing the power of mercy, forgiveness and love divine, and then breathing it out powerfully toward the retreat at Suva, where it was immediately conveyed to the blessed ones on the Western Coast of the United States of America.

In the matter of less than thirty seconds, this exquisite transmuting power of merciful forgiveness had completely circled Earth, and there was not a home, a hospital, an asylum, a human heart, or a member of any kingdom evolving upon Earth but had that current pass right through its center, melting away shadows as the sunlight melts away the darkness of the night. Although the center of the ray passed from each designated group of beloved Masters and chelas, the entire activity was a blanket outpouring of purple flame that reached from pole to pole from the very first breath.

All at the temple were so intent in the amazing power being released that we were not prepared for the magnificent visitor who was to come among us, in his usual silent, humble and beautiful manner, to sweeten the essence of mercy with his Presence.

Suddenly, at the edge of the group of pilgrims who had gathered in the large field that surrounds the temples, it was as though a gentle wind had blown through a wheat field and each pilgrim silently prostrated himself to the ground. The stir of energy soon reached those in the heart of the temple, and upon looking toward the opened temple doors, there stood the beautiful presence of Lord Gautama Buddha, with his hand on the arm of the faithful Ananda. Smiling gently, they proceeded down the aisle of the temple to the place of honor immediately prepared for them. As always, he wore only the simple robe, with no adornments, his dark brown hair hanging loosely around his serene and gentle face, his luminous eyes smiling at each one with the love which he has learned is the nature of God.

It took the utmost self-control and concentration of the Brotherhood to continue the unbroken rhythmic breath, because even at the Wesak Festival, at which time Lord Buddha blessed the race, he has never come into an assembly in his actual Light Body, since his liberation so many centuries ago.

Kwan Yin offered him, silently, the place of honor as officiating Master within the heart of the flame, and it was with great personal effort that she continued in her service, so overwhelmed was she with gratitude at the presence of her great Lord and Teacher. He just smilingly waved her on, and remained the center of all hearts' love and interest as the transmission continued.

At a given moment, he arose and, with his beloved Ananda, they together placed their holy feet on the bridge created by the breath of the Brothers, and these two beautiful gods walked slowly and majestically over that bridge toward the Retreat at Suva, from whence they proceeded into every retreat and sanctuary and home where the currents were being drawn, focused and transmitted, until after about fifteen minutes, they again appeared in the temple, having circled the Earth, and blessed personally and individually each lifestream who was a part of the transferring of the Mercy Flame of Love Divine.

There is no need to emphasize the tremendous import of such a visitation, nor to point out the spiritual significance which lies within the return of Lord Buddha. There is only the reminder that you walk in strange days, and in the presence of guests whose coming is even unheralded to the Brotherhood, and blessed are they who are gathered together awaiting such blessing on whatever day it may come!

Through the great gift of free-will, the evolving life on every planet and in every system, determines within itself the course of its evolution, and the specific qualities and momentums required all stem out of the use to which the evolution puts the priceless gift of life. Those causes are the pointing finger by which the intelligences, whose sole duty, responsibility and joy is the ultimate victory of every particle of life, know what the future requirements of the race will be—each cause bound to manifest effects that will either help or hinder the manifestation of the divine plan.

Therefore, different planets, different systems and galaxies have representatives of distinct qualities, which that evolution requires, or will require to fulfill its destiny. ON MANY PLANETS THE RESURRECTION

FLAME IS NOT REQUIRED BECAUSE THERE HAVE BEEN NO CAUSES SET UP WHICH WILL MANIFEST AS DISEASE, DECAY, DISINTEGRATION AND APPARENT DEATH.

THE OFFICE AND COSMIC ACTIVITY OF THE HOLY COMFORTER CAME INTO BEING AT THE MOMENT THAT THE FIRST MAN (ADAM) CHOSE TO EXPERIMENT WITH THE CREATIVE CENTERS OF HIS OWN THOUGHT AND FEELING, and a form short of perfection was conceived and externalized, which was the first chain of the karmic heritage of the race. At that time, the Great Silent Watcher, knowing that every cause breeds effects, and the effects in like manner generate many causes, realized that SOME TIME and SOME WHERE would the call come from life for comfort. Unto that day and hour was prepared the Cosmic Temple of Cosmic Comfort to life, which abides within the heart of the electronic belt around our Sun.

Therefore, you will see that the cosmic release of comfort to man was pre-ordained from the moment that the first shadow stole stealthily from the mind of man, and the Silent Watcher—knowing the prolific generating quality within that shadow—prepared for the hour when the light in the heart of man would know the spawn of the first parent error, and be smothered beneath the pressure of the “original sin.”

It was then that the first Maha Chohan drew from the bosom of the Father of light the quality of comfort, and the glorious cherubim with him created the chalice into which, through all succeeding ages, every comforting presence has poured that portion of his life which he chose to dedicate to such a cause—and in the history of the ages there have been many such blessed hearts. Today, the final hour in the history of our planet is at hand, and the message of Aquarius is to be fulfilled as the cherubim inverts the pitcher, and allows the comfort of life to flow, which will bring release to the light in the heart of every man.

The past, present and future are as one to the Great Intelligence who governs the evolution of planets and galaxies, and truly the statement, “Before they call, I have answered,” is a manifestation of the love and compassion of the Great First Cause, who has prepared for a race's evolutionary nourishment, which will be a sustaining comfort as well as salvation to them in a given hour.

The Angels of Comfort have winged their way century after century into the Cosmic Temple of Comfort which is presided over by the glorious cherubim, whose service it is to hold this quality in its concentrated essence. Here they have filled their cup with Gold's comfort, carrying it to hungry hearts who have sent out a call or prayer for this divine quality, and for every cup that was filled, from the heart of the Sun came ten times that amount again, so that in no measure would the gathered momentum of comfort, guarded by the cherubim, be lessened. The activities of the great cherubic hosts are particularly concerned with the guarding of qualified energy which is to be utilized by the intelligence of the Godhead for a specific purpose.

All of the energy qualified by a certain quality, which will be of benefit to a cause which would benefit a race, a planet, or a galaxy, is seized by great beings who ensoul it, to keep it from returning into the primal state of universal light. Thus, when a great being becomes invested with the responsibility of embodying a quality of the Godhead, and through his very self awakens a like quality in any sphere, a member of the cherubic host volunteers to hold the drawn, concentrated and qualified energy of such a one, and all the CONTRIBUTED ENERGY of those lifestreams which the sponsor can interest in a similar cause BECOMES THE MOMENTUM which builds until the hour of fulfillment is at hand, and then through the heart center chosen to be the channel or faucet for its release, the gathered momentum of the ages flows, and the life of a planet or a galaxy is enriched thereby. The guarding of the energy until such a moment arrives, is the service of the great cherubim.

These beings never, for an instant, deviate from his concentrated service to life. It is almost impossible for the human mind to conceive of such one-pointed patient, constant devotion, and yet there are beings belonging to this system and others, who have rendered service of this kind for billions of years. They become Silent Watchers of Universes, systems or worlds and galaxies, in time. The small elementals that sustain the pattern of a flower during its comparatively short existence in a given season, and the greater devas who sustain the pattern of the oak tree or the great redwoods of California for hundreds of years, are examples in the kingdom of nature of this service to life.

The name of the beautiful cherubim who sustains the quality of comfort in the great cosmic temple devoted to that service and quality is LOVELEE, and I ask that your conscious recognition go to this being who, voluntarily of her own great love, chose to preserve and sustain the quality of comfort until the hour when men should require it most, and the demand for comfort rising from the hearts and minds of all men might no longer be denied.

At this moment, I, as the privileged representative of this quality, will act for myself and my illustrious predecessors, and ask that the pitcher of Aquarius be inverted now, and cosmic comfort to life flow to every evolution which belongs to this chain.

Beloved Maha Chohan

This week I would like to elucidate a subject which, perhaps, has not come to your thought and, not being presented to the mind, could not be meditated upon for the enrichment of the spiritual nature. It is in regard to service and the balance that the lifestream can VOLUNTARILY PAY to the universal law of love in order to ensure freedom from the wheel of birth and re-birth.

YOU HAVE BEEN TOLD THAT THE COSMIC LAW HAS OFFERED TO BALANCE 49% OF THE DEBT EACH LIFESTREAM OWES TO LIFE THROUGH THE MISQUALIFICATION OF PURE GOD-ENERGY. This is done through the cosmic expansion of the Sacred Fire through the beings and worlds of evolving humanity. This means that 51%—or a little over half of the energy of the individual—must have gone forth in a constructive manner (through impersonal service and the harmonious qualification of energy in everyday life) before the pendulum of your life's experience swings toward freedom from the magnetic pull of Earth and the things of Earth, and your ascension is assured.

Now, we must understand that all lifestreams are not alike. For instance, a powerful, forceful, intense person releases ten times the energy that a lethargic and placid individual would emit. Therefore, the quantity of energy cannot be measured equably with regard to every evolving spirit. Strong spirits, who have incarnated from the beginning of manifest time, have released sometimes as much as five hundred times the energy that has been released by the masses, and for that reason, fifty-one per cent of the energy of these “hard-living” individuals is uncomfortably more than fifty-one per cent of those who have not lived life so intently. This is true of all outstanding individuals since the beginning of time, and, therefore, the Law of Life, which is inexorable, requires the release of as much constructive energy as the destructively-qualified energy released by these people in the past.

Looking at this picture objectively, one is inclined to become a little weighted down with a sense of responsibility and futility, but this need not be, because the lifestream who has built a momentum of drawing and charging a large amount of energy can balance his debt much more quickly, because his every gesture, every word, every movement, releases the momentum of energy he has builded in the past, and he may build his account for good in the Causal Body as rapidly as he has built the chains in the past, when he is willing to face the score written against him on the book of life, and return the energy passing through him daily as a balance. On reading these lines, some might regret the enthusiasm and zeal that prompted them to incur such large obligations, but let me assure these people, that in drawing the larger amount of life energy, they were merely following the promptings of their divine nature, as their future destiny lies, for the most part, in the cosmic field of service.

It is my endeavor to show you that THE ASCENSION IS A PRACTICAL ACTIVITY, THAT IS TAKING PLACE THROUGH YOUR HOURLY LIVING, and not just a transcendent burst of glory at the end of Earth life, predicated on nothing. It is safe to say that all those lifestreams who have rallied to Saint Germain's banner have rendered valuable service to life in the past, and it is for this reason that the Cosmic Law has permitted you to have this private instruction now, wherein your balance to life can be paid in cosmic service while you still walk the Earth, through your decrees and calls for the freedom of life everywhere on this planet. WEARY NOT, THEREFORE, IN YOUR SPIRITUAL SERVICE, for every ounce of energy USED in this endeavor is accepted by your Higher Mental Body as partial payment of your individual debt to life.

NOW, WHEN WE SAY THAT FIFTY-ONE PER CENT OF THE ENERGY OF THE LIFESTREAM MUST BE BALANCED HARMONIOUSLY, MANY PEOPLE THINK THAT THE ONLY WAY THIS CAN BE DONE IS THROUGH DEVOTION, PRAYER, CEREMONIAL SERVICE AND SOLEMN INVOCATIONS DIRECTLY CONCERNED WITH SPIRITUAL ASPIRATION. I WOULD REMIND YOU, HOWEVER, THAT ALL CONSTRUCTIVE AND HARMONIOUS ENERGY IS A NATURAL EXPRESSION OF THE GOD LIFE, WHETHER IT BE THE SINGING OF A HAPPY CHILD OR THE DANCING OF HAPPY FEET; WHETHER IT BE THE LOVING SERVICE OF FRIEND TO FRIEND, OR THE CONSTRUCTION CREATION OF A BENCH, A CHAIR, OR A GARMENT.

All those expressions are expressions of the Holy Spirit, whom I am privileged to represent. ALL constructive activity and service are facets of my consciousness, and they are ALL accepted by the Cosmic Law as a balance for each lifestream, wherein that one may ascend into his eternal glory.

The passing of human experiences, however, have grown so heavy, that in the course of a natural life, sometimes there are less than TWENTY OR THIRTY HOURS wherein the energy of the people is qualified harmoniously enough to become part of the constructive balance of that lifestream, and at the close of Earth life, when the book is read, after all the fluctuations of years of living, the Higher Mental Body has but a fragmentary balance of good, and a heavy balance of unhappy energy, which shows that the soul has made so little progress on the spiritual ladder toward freedom. Therefore, aside from all the great spiritual knowledge of service and work which we have opened to your consciousness, there are so many homely things that a lifestream can do in the course of daily living to engender the leaping of the flame in another heart and the release of a burst of constructive energy from that one, which the Higher Mental Body immediately seizes and adds to the constructive balance. For instance, the baking of a cake, the bringing of a flower to an ill person, or rendering some fleeting small service to lighten the burden of a lonely heart is a service of comfort, and the resulting happiness to the recipient is very often the only energy that the Higher Mental Body of that lifestream could USE in that entire embodiment.

Therefore, any individual who is the means by which another person releases even an OUNCE of happy energy has given him an eternal gift, because in a far distant day, that energy which you coaxed into harmonious expression may be just the ounce required by the Presence of that one to bring the balance over the fifty-per cent limit and take such a one home. Can you see, then, how intricately are woven the threads of different individuals' lives and how potent a force you are in your environment and community, which is either generating good karma for those around you, or adding to their chains?

I would suggest, then, that you keep watch on yourself over, say, a twelve-hour period and see if more than fifty per cent of your energy was qualified harmoniously. If the answer is yes, then you are making progress—if not, you will see there is a certain amount of retrogression which must be balanced later. I could go on and on, giving you these homely illustrations by which you may add to the treasures held in your Causal Body, against the day when you will stand yourself before the Karmic Board and render an account of what you have done with the God-life entrusted to your care. Let your light shine before men.

Beloved Sons and Daughters of God,

May I congratulate you, each one, on the very glorious contribution of your life energies in creating a bridge over which the holy and blessed feet of the Lord Buddha and his dear disciple could pass in their self-chosen visitation through the concentration of mercy, forgiveness and love divine at the retreat of our blessed sister, Kwan Yin, in China? The Mercy Fire from the Spirit of God was a magnetic power, that drew the attention and presence of many beings who had not had any connection with planet Earth in many centuries.

As the attention of the chelas turns toward the great Lord Maitreya, and the mankind of Earth experience the radiation and feeling of the Cosmic Christ love, which he is preparing to release on the next night of the transmission of the currents throughout the world (Saturday evening, March 21st, 1953), we are hopeful on that occasion to establish greater cooperation between the outer selves of the sincere God-loving people of Earth and their own individual God-Presence.

This is the particular service of the Great Initiator (Lord Maitreya), who is always present when the contact and connection between the Christ Self and the outer self is permanently established, and the individual ego moves forward to externalize the divine plan. You will remember this spiritual baptism took place when the beloved Master Jesus (through his precursor, John) “was visited by the Holy Spirit” on the occasion of his baptism in the River Jordan, when his outer self became anchored in his own Christ-nature.

What the Lord Maitreya accomplished for the Master Jesus, by fusing his own Christ Consciousness with the individual divine self of Jesus, giving the full cosmic momentum and power of his (Lord Maitreya's) lifestream into the “keeping” of Jesus to further his mission, he desires now to do through all mankind. THE SECOND COMING IS NOT TO BE AN INDIVIDUAL, BUT A COSMIC, EVENT, AND EACH BLESSED CHELA, STANDING WITH UPRAISED HEAD AND HUMBLE HEART, WILL HAVE THE BLESSING OF THE LORD MAITREYA PASS THROUGH HIS OWN CHRIST SELF, TO ASSIST IN THE BLENDING OF THE DIVINE NATURE WITH THE PERSONAL CONSCIOUSNESS, WHICH IS THE INSTRUMENT OF THE ONE IN THE WORLD OF FORM.

We are informed that the great ceremony will take place in the countryside around the Kashmiri Hills, for there is no auditorium in the Eastern Hemisphere large enough to hold all the guests who will attend, not only from this planet, but from other systems of worlds as well. The Christ Self of every lifestream belonging to this evolution will be in attendance, even that of those whose souls are sojourning in the astral and psychic realms.

No Divine Presence, whose hope lies in working through the personal self, which it has sustained for eons of time, will miss the opportunity of having the presence of Lord Maitreya fill IT with the pressure of his presence, which, like a strong HAND, will move the individual God-Presence toward the personal self with a power that cannot be denied. Of course, the Higher Selves of the conscious chelas will be particularly blessed, and each lifestream should prepare for this hour, that he may be ready for the coming of his own Lord of Life.

The Great Initiator and the representative of the Holy Spirit (Maha Chohan) are always present at these cosmic baptisms, and that is why the dove is often seen with the inner sight by those who have developed that vision, at the moment when the Christ Self draws close to the incarnate consciousness.

I would suggest that the beloved students visualize the gentle slopes of the Kashmiri Hills and FEEL themselves among the group of pilgrims awaiting the coming of the Great Brothers, each chela contemplating, according to his individual capacity, the nature of God within himself.

Above the huge assembly, the Christ Selves of the entire human race hover, like a canopy of glorious white angels. Let each individual, then, turn his attention toward his own Christ Self, until the magnetic power of his love draws his own Christ Self from the hovering group, and it stands clearly and distinctly above the head of the contemplating chela. The love from the Individual Presence and the love from the chela, flowing back and forth from the heart of each, makes a bond of unity and oneness, so that when the Lord Maitreya comes into the atmosphere and ENSOULS each Christ Self with the Cosmic Christ Consciousness, the soul, working through the outer consciousness, has drawn its own Presence as close as it can by its own endeavors, and then the cosmic impetus of Lord Maitreya's love will sweep the two into one.

The keynote of Lord Maitreya's Retreat will be best sounded within the lovely song, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and the color of the Cosmic Christ Flame is a beautiful canary yellow, delicately shaded with white toward the outer edges.

Speaking of the breathing activity in the transmission period, I would remind the students that the RHYTHM sustained in each of the four parts of the activity is most important—that is, the IN-BREATH, the HELD-BREATH, the OUT-BREATH and the DIRECTING BREATH; also, that the visualization held in the mind, of the flame, and your part in its expansion, is invaluable. The vision of this sweeping flame and its effect upon the life of the planet, held strongly in the mind, makes each one of you an important and integral part of this cosmic service. COMPREHENSION of an idea is an activity of the intellectual body, but the PERFORMANCE or carrying out of the operation belongs to the emotional or feeling body, and it takes the cooperation of both to render any service effective.

It is our desire to make it as easy as possible for each dear heart to contribute his breath to this great service without strain, struggle, tension or depletion. ALL our activities are EMBODIED HAPPINESS AND PEACE.

I am looking forward to greeting you all in beautiful Kashmir.

Beloved Maha Chohan

March 22, 1953

The activity at Kashmir last evening will be re-enacted every evening through the fourteenth of April, in order to give every possible assistance to the Christ Selves of the entire human race in their endeavors to become the master control of the outer personality which they have sustained through the centuries through the outpouring of love, light, blessings and patience indescribable!

May I point out that the beautiful Christ Self of every lifestream belonging to this planet was created by the Father-Mother God long before the personal self came into physical incarnation. This beautiful presence desires, through the personal self, to complete its glorious pattern and plan in the world of form, fulfilling the edict of the Eternal Father and rendering a particular service which adds to the glory of the divine pattern and plan of the universe. Until each presence is enabled to fulfill itself, the full perfection of the divine plan is not manifest, and no other Christ Self can render that particular service for such a one.

Through the unhappy use of the free will, the Christ Selves of the far greater part of this evolution have been denied fulfillment, and have sustained the personality with the hope that some day enough grace would enter the heart and consciousness of the outer self so that it would at least desire to cooperate with the Presence and manifest its reason for being, and justify the expenditure of the energies of God, nature, the angelic and elemental kingdoms, which have sustained life in the personality in the eons of time.

The Cosmic Law, however, has taken a hand, and refuses to allow further expenditure of pure energies of God, angels, Masters and elementals to sustain the foolishness of the human ego, and within the next twenty-year period, the Christ Selves MUST connect with their own outer selves and serve their cosmic purpose, or descend with the personality to the solar system below the one on which they are presently evolving, and endeavor on this lower sphere to complete their evolution. Naturally, the Divine Selves desire to complete their service to God and man in the evolution to which they belong. Hence, came the request for the dispensation whereby human free will might be set aside, and each Christ Self surge through the outer, and compel the divine plan fulfilled.

Lord Maitreya is the Cosmic Christ, representing the Father of Life to all the Christ Selves of unascended mankind, evolving on planet Earth or awaiting incarnation. Through his momentum and power, the individual Christ Self is enabled to draw much closer to the outer self, and also impress the outer self with the hunger-thirst after righteous-ness and spiritual understanding. It is for this reason that he has been asked for the thirty-day period in which we now abide to enter the Christ Selves of the entire race, and increase the pressure of the individual Christ Self through the silver cord.

The beloved Sanat Kumara and Lord Buddha were the guests of honor, and a beautiful bower of lotus was woven over the white marble thrones upon which these noble Gods sat together, facing the members of the Brotherhood. When the hour of transmission was almost upon us, the Christ Selves of the race gathered together in a great, shining, white spiral of living beings over the hillside, and Lord Maitreya stepped into the center of this spiral, which stretched from the surface of Earth well over 10,000 feet into the atmosphere above. Lord Maitreya wore pure, snow white garments, and a lei of white lotus flowers around his neck was the only adornment of any kind.

The light of his Presence is so exquisite, that one is always drawn toward his Presence just to bathe in the substance of that divine love. His hair shone with the radiance of the Godhead, and his beautiful violet eyes were filled with the warmth and love that are his nature. A snow-white dove perched upon his shoulder, and two lovely angels, also in pure white, walked behind him, each carrying a long white staff, from whence blossomed the mystic flower of Shamballa.

We all stood as he entered the circle composed of the Christ Selves of the entire human race. Even Lord Buddha and Sanat Kumara inclined their heads toward him in honor of his service and office as the Cosmic Christ.

As the moment of the first breath approached, a pure white flame rose around his figure, and he disappeared within it. The flame, itself, rose from Earth in a pillar of white fire, to the crest of the celestial figures surrounding it. At a given moment, a burst of music, containing Lord Maitreya's keynote, sounded from within the flame, and we all breathed it in, blessed it and sent it forth for its journey around the world.

Simultaneously with the direction of the flame from Kashmir, the Christ Selves of the race spread out and took their positions above the physical bodies into which their flames have been anchored for the centuries, and Lord Maitreya again appeared from within the vestments of flame, shining like the Sun. With each breath, the Christ Selves drew the flame of his Cosmic Christ power into their own hearts, and then individually directed it through the outer self. You will see how this personalized the outpouring, each Christ Self giving full attention to the outer self, which is its own responsibility. This was the first universal release of the Cosmic Christ power through the personal selves of every member of the human race to take place on this planet. No lifestream belonging to this race was excluded from this service.

After the flame had circled the Earth for about fifteen minutes, I entered the central focus of the flame and, standing with Lord Maitreya, called forth the messengers of my office, and suddenly there appeared countless millions of white doves, each of which flew forth with my blessing, and entered the aura of the Christ Self of every lifestream, duplicating the service rendered Jesus when he was baptized of John under Lord Maitreya's blessed presence centuries ago.

At the close of this part of the ceremony, the celestial choir began the great cosmic songs of praise to the Heart of Creation, and then the Brotherhood and assembled guests took up the song, and we all felt the heart of peace and abided in great joy therein.

We shall render this service every night, to intensify the feeling of oneness between the Christ Self and the personality from now until we enter El Morya's radiation at Darjeeling. I hope, sincerely, that each one, particularly my chelas, will enjoy this Dove of Peace, which is now their joyous companion upon life's way.

The great Karmic Board, through Sanat Kumara, chose the current thirty-day period during which the Easter pageant would again be celebrated, as the time when Lord Maitreya, himself, would outpour the radiation and blessing of the Cosmic Christ.

In order to give the chelas, particularly, and then the entire race, the triple activity contained within the union of the Cosmic Christ consciousness with the outer self, the baptism and benediction of the Holy Spirit, and the radiation of the Master Jesus, himself, beginning last evening and extending up through Easter Monday following the resurrection service, we shall nightly re-enact the spiritual baptism of the beloved Jesus, at which time the cosmic consciousness of Lord Maitreya joined his own illumined Christhood and, through the benediction of the Holy Spirit, prepared him for the fullness of the mission which he was to manifest before the sense consciousness of all men.

Last evening, as the moon poured down her silver rays on the gentle hillside of Kashmir, the beloved Lord Maitreya entered the atmosphere of Earth, and our beloved Master Jesus, walking toward him, was received into his aura for that spiritual baptism before the reverent eyes of more than four hundred thousand members of the human race. At the moment when the full rays from Lord Maitreya's heart flashed through the gentle presence of beloved Jesus, I, too, entered the picture and anointed his great consciousness with the blessing which is the particular gift and outpouring of my office.

It is no idle thing to have re-enacted on the physical substance of the Earth plane these great initiations and mysteries which form the pattern for the evolution of every lifestream on the planet, both incarnate and discarnate. It is one thing to revivify the akashic and etheric records of a past activity, and to have re-embodied lifestreams take the parts of the original actors and attempt to incorporate, through their own consciousness, the nature and feeling of the actual first participants, such as the good men and women of Oberammergau have done through the years, but it is quite another activity to have the original Cosmic Beings enter into that service again in the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of their light, and bring that experience into the feeling world of the outer consciousness of unascended beings.

On Easter morning, we shall again proceed with the activity of the Resurrection, and we are told that we shall again have re-enacted, through the body of Jesus, the actual vibratory action and RADIATION of the ascension, and I, myself, shall bring the release through the service of the Pentecost.

It has ever been the way of God to teach through example, because the enacted scenes enter into the feeling and heart-beat much more deeply than the worded expression, and the outpictured Christ manifestations which were witnessed by so few during the ministry of the Master Jesus are being drawn forth again within the seven-day period so that all of the 200,000, at least, (and we expect a great number of the Christian people of the world, as well, who will respond to the sympathetic vibration of Jesus' ray), will be able to absorb the feeling of Christ activity as they see the Master, himself, re-enact the exquisite manifestations of his victorious power over human appearances.

Each evening, Lord Maitreya will precede the pageant with a talk on the power and nature of the Cosmic Christ, and the beloved Saint Germain, who so enjoyed the drama whereby lifestreams could present a lesson of some kind, together with some of the Chinese beings who have inspired all of those exquisite plays through which the people of the East learn the mysteries, have prepared the theme from the life and ministry of the Master Jesus, during which he made "the blind to see," "the lame to walk," and "the dead to rise."

Of course, we are eliminating all reference to the trial and crucifixion, but have included the formation of the Lord's Prayer, the Sermon on the Mount, the silencing of the waves, the precipitation rendering the balance unto Caesar, and some of the lovely home scenes in which the disciples, the beloved Mary and Martha, and his own dear mother enjoyed the companionship and friendship of his presence.

For mankind this year, the life of Jesus will be more real, and for the chelas and students he will become such a powerful living presence, by reason of this service of the Holy Week, that they will be greatly helped thereby, and I only wish that we could have reached the student body in time to bring each member some phase of Jesus' victorious accomplishment, that they might present it to their collective groups preparatory to their entering the heart of the silence, where we do such honor to his name.

Beloved Children of God,

I bring to you the blessings of the Easter Season. The spring celebration of the returning life that begins to pulsate through the responsive Earth, drawn forth by the magnetic powers of the Sun, is as old as life on the planet itself, because, among the children of Earth, there were always those who were cognizant of the dependence of mankind upon the cooperation of the forces of nature for their very existence in human form.

The rhythm of the seasons has ever been regulated by the great beings who offered to provide, through their presence within the aura of the planet, the atmosphere which would conduct the rays of the Sun, the living, breathing Earth, through which the precipitation of the food and nourishment of the evolution could be accomplished, the crystal-clear waters bringing refreshing, purifying essence in their presence, and the air, which is requisite to life in a physical form.

Under the direction of the Maha Chohan of each age, the nature kingdom and the great beings who direct the forces of the elements, have labored ceaselessly, and if it were not for their constant unchanging cooperation and service, there would not be a lifestream that could live for one minute on the planet—were the air, the platform of Earth upon which the homes and the very feet of the people stand, the water element of which even their bodies are mostly composed, or the life and the light of the Sun to be removed.

Under God-direction, the life force is drawn by those of us who serve within the Cosmic Temple of Nature, and there, great pulsating rays of intelligent energy are prepared to be released, as the planet enters the spring cycle. It is a most glorious ceremony when the great devas of the air, the earth, the fire, and the water gather together, and the cosmic rays of another springtime are anchored within their bodies and they begin the great rhythmic release of the Resurrection Flame through their bodies. The most beautiful music accompanies this ritual, and the inner spheres are alive with the song of resurrection and hope.

It was for this reason that the beloved Master Jesus chose the springtime to fulfill the final manifestation of his mastery, so that he might take advantage of the natural outpouring of the Resurrection Flame.

I was privileged to stand with him from the time when he breathed his last breath on the Hill of Golgotha, and I received that breath into my own body to preserve it for him, until he chose to call it back and re-establish the rhythm through his physical garment. Although I held the breath of his life within myself, the actual calling forth of that breath HAD TO COME THROUGH THE CONSCIOUS ENDEAVOR OF HIS OWN LIFESTREAM, and if he had not been able to magnetize that breath, even though I stood by his side, I could not have given it to him.

However, at the appointed moment, his great purified soul was enabled to take possession of that body—and in-breathe. At that moment, I stood close by his side, and from my own lips I gave back to him the very breath he had breathed out on the cross, and again the rhythm of life animated his body, and the concentrated Resurrection Flame soon raised it into the vibratory action of his Christ Body, and he easily burst from the tomb, the victor and example of life eternal to all of mankind who might choose to accept his victory. Of course, if they do not, they can never hope to share in its joyous accomplishment.

April 12, 1953

This morning I have come from the heart of India, which, for inconceivable centuries of time, has been the guardian presence of the spiritual understanding by which mankind (if they choose) might fashion from the heterogeneous mass of subtle ether which they call the soul, a fitting white garment of the spirit which, like the seed, contains, within itself, the pattern for the immortal Ego.

Last evening, in a service in the heart of the Kashmiri Hills, we demonstrated, visibly, the development and purification of the outer consciousness to that point of development befitting the entrance of the spiritual self, in its fullness, into the possession of the entire personality.

The soul of the mass of mankind, which has given rise to the innumerable stories of the supernatural, is a shapeless and impure mass of subtle ether that has been, on many occasions, perceived by those whose sight was attuned to the vibratory action of its inhabitant.

The soul of the initiate chela and the holy one, in which the experiences of life have been woven into mastery, purity and peace, externalizes, however, the well-defined form of the pure white dove—symbolic of the harmlessness and virtues of the beautiful harbinger of peace—the embodiment of innocence.

When the initiate has achieved within himself that consciousness whereby the dove is externalized within his own aura, such a one is ready for the spiritual baptism, and to him comes Lord Maitreya in the fullness of his glory, and to him come I, the Holy Spirit, and into that consciousness, evolved through centuries of righteous living, is released the full pressure and power of the Christ Self.

Such a one becomes, then, the “only-begotten son,” and his mission, like that of the Master Jesus, is to externalize the will of the Father who sent him.

Here we see that no external mark, no word, no advocate can mark such a one for this visitation; but rather the substance and energy of each life fashions, one day, the chalice which is worthy of the Christ-Power incarnate.

Beloved Sons And Daughters Of God,

To attempt to describe to you the beauty of the council chamber belonging to my son, El Morya, who is representative of all that is majestic, dignified and exquisite, not only in the realms of life eternal, but on any planet to which he chooses to give his attention, would be like trying to paint the sunrise in words.

The chamber in which the Crystal Flame of the Divine Will of God is kept is not open to any unascended beings, but the great council chamber in which we all gathered last evening seats well over five hundred guests. The beautiful altar is outlined in diamonds and sapphires, and the circular nave behind it is made up of three great blue stained-glass windows which, with the light shining through them upon the altar, brings to the consciousness of those assembled there something of the radiance and color of the beautiful First Ray.

The brothers had arranged a beautiful floral display upon the altar, composed of the exquisite French Iris, so similar to the Fleur-de-lis of France, combined with the lovely white Jasmine flower so beloved by the people of the East.

The assembly gathered about an hour before the ceremony was to commence, in order that all might blend their breaths in that rhythm that forms a mighty force and momentum, and is the initial impulse of the Transmission Flame.

Before the ceremony began, an acolyte carried from the ancient Holy of Holies and placed upon the altar, THE GRAIL AND THE GREAT DIAMOND SPEAR WHICH BELOVED EL MORYA HAS HAD IN HIS POSSESSION SINCE THE TIME OF KING ARTHUR, and which are symbolic of the two activities embodied within the will of God.

THE GRAIL SIGNIFIES THE CONSCIOUSNESS UPHELD, INTO WHICH IS POURED THE DIVINE WILL, ALONG WITH THE INSPIRATION OF THE DIVINE PLAN TO MANIFEST THIS WILL OF GOD, AND THE SPEAR SIGNIFIES THE PROJECTING FORTH OF THE ENERGY INTO ACTION AND ACCOMPLISHMENT.

In the East, many have completed the action of the grail, but it is to the West that we look for the action of the spear in the manifestation of God's will through the actual energies of each life-stream.

Every branch of the Great White Brotherhood was represented at the council—each showing the color of the retreat in which they serve, on the cowl which they wore thrown back over their white robes, and their degree of mastery was made known by the crest embroidered in the same color over the heart.

Our beloved Sanat Kumara carried the Rod of Power from Shamballa, and his exquisite raiment was symbolic of his office as King of Kings. With him came Lord Maitreya, who carried a number of scrolls, each bound with golden thread, representing missions to be delivered to certain members in the assembly after the ceremony.

Beloved Lord Buddha and Ananda both came dressed in simple white robes of coarse fiber—with a lei of flowers around their necks. The seven great Chohans each had chairs placed in the order of their rank, although beloved Kuthumi, as recorder of the ceremonies, did not occupy his chair, and the chair of beloved El Morya, as director of the proceedings, was placed on the altar platform.

At a given moment, there appeared in the atmosphere over the palace, a gorgeous canopy of Blue Light projected by the great Elohim of the First Ray, the mighty Hercules, and the great Silent Watcher of the planet, in a luminous body larger than the entire globe, stood in the atmosphere and seemed to hold the planet within her arms. She, too, wore blue, but it looked like the soft blue of the sky on a clear day.

The hillsides all around Darjeeling were crowded with pilgrims and holy men who live but to obey the magnetic pull to any location which their meditation reveals within their hearts. They are known as “wandering mendicants,” free as the wind, led here and there by the concepts and purposes not easily discernible even to their own fellow-countrymen. The light from a hundred thousand campfires made their presence known upon the hillsides.

It was not surprising to us to see Mahatma Gandhi enter the chamber in order to avail himself of the opportunity, at the completion of the transmission of the flame, to walk among his countrymen, and there were many among them who saw his presence. Here, I wish to say, for the enlightenment of the outer minds of my gentle readers, that in the sweetness of his Ascended Master Body, he is not the grotesque little man whose light blessed India, but is rather a majestic, serene and dignified presence, not unlike the great Gautama Buddha himself.

From the heart of the Himalayan Mountains came the great God, Himalaya—his exquisitely-carved and delicate oriental features emphasized by the simplicity of his raiment. The ladies were represented by Kwan Yin, who wore her hair piled high, in oriental fashion, and held in place by three beautiful fan-shaped combs of diamonds. The beloved Nada, Leto and Mary, as well as many other beautiful goddesses, all wore robes of various shades of blue. The Goddess of Liberty presented a predominant figure among the ladies. She came dressed in a robe of exquisite sapphire blue, and wore the seven-pointed crown of the Lords of Karma, which august body she represented at the council.

The chelas who, by merit, and not by outer position, had earned the right to enter the great council chamber, were seated back of the Brotherhood, and then, when all was in readiness, through that magic, mystic accomplishment known only to the higher consciousness, the substance of the walls of the great room seemed to dissolve so that millions on the hillsides might not only have the benefit of the radiation from the assembly, but could also experience the joyous upliftment of actually seeing the council in action.

There was a sponsor for every group representing the outer world education—such as statesmen, artists, musicians, brotherhoods, as well as all those interested in healing, and a great number from the Christian dispensation came who are feeling the action of this flame, and almost the entire student body of Saint Germain was present.

The beloved Master Morya entered the chamber just before he breathing was to begin, and as he stood before the altar, the Crystal Flame within the chalice rose upward something like the flame from a physical fire. It then spread out in the form of a great lotus flower, and at a given signal from the Master, the entire assembly, including the Great Ones in the atmosphere above, breathed it in, blessed and qualified it with their own consciousness, and then directed it forth on its journey from place to place across the surface of Earth. It swept into Shamballa, and from there to Suva, and as it went, it spread until it permeated every atom and cell of Earth—and the consciousness of every lifestream, incarnate as well as discarnate, received a clarity that will enable the Holy Christ Self of each individual to reach the intellect more easily.

Each time, when the flame had swept over Earth, it returned to its starting place, and the Brothers sent it forth again and again, its action becoming more and more rapid until it seemed as though the planet were a blazing Crystal Star. AS THIS CRYSTAL FLAME WAS BREATHED IN, EITHER CONSCIOUSLY OR UNCONSCIOUSLY, BY THE PEOPLE, IT BEGAN TO MELT THE HEAVY DARK SUBSTANCE IN THE MENTAL BODIES, SOME OF WHICH HAD BEEN CONDENSED THERE FOR MILLIONS OF YEARS. This action will continue during the entire period that El Morya's retreat is open, and those people who are endeavoring to present truth, in any form, will find that the wall of prejudice will be broken down considerably during the activity of this beautiful Crystal Flame which represents God's will.

When the Master El Morya descended from the altar platform at the close of the flame activity, his place was taken by Sanat Kumara, and a new action was set into motion, pertaining directly to the government of the people, which will be manifested in due time.

Each beloved child of God has been created by the great Eternal Parents to fulfill some glorious destiny through the weaving of the individual energies of the lifestream into the tapestry of the world plan.

Within the consciousness of the Great Silent Watcher of planet Earth is held that individual divine plan, as well as the glorious vision of the completed evolution with regard to Earth and all its kingdoms. The Christ Self of every lifestream presently engaged in contributing energies to the atmosphere of Earth steps down the divine plan for the individual, and becomes the silent watcher of the evolving soul.

Through the constant drawing and qualifying of energy through the centuries, the instruments (physical, mental, emotional, and etheric bodies) of the race have become so heavily charged with impure substance, that it is difficult for the outer waking consciousness to catch even a glimpse of that individual divine plan in order to cooperate intelligently in endeavoring to externalize it. Yet, until the outer consciousness can be purified and attuned to a point where the intelligent God-direction may flow steadily in an uninterrupted rhythmic outpouring, the entire planetary evolution is “locked,” so to speak, in the blind gropings of the earnest, but uncomprehending endeavors of the personal self.

While the Great White Brotherhood is focusing its attention and the power and momentum of its individual and collective light at Darjeeling, it enables the beloved El Morya to draw all that energy into the Crystal Ray of Divine Perception and Comprehension, for which earnest students are so sincerely calling, and then, with the cooperation of the Cosmic Silent Watcher, the individual Christ Self of each member of the human race receives a directed ray from his cosmic focus into its own electronic heart. This is a specifically added concentrated ray of power and is not to be confused with the natural flow of electronic light from the Central Sun, which forms the lifestream.

As the individual Christ Self, rhythmically, on the hour, receives the added charge of his Crystal Ray into this heart, it directs that ray through the silver cord, and into the mental body of the student, wherein are lodged concepts, thoughts and beliefs that have been accumulated by the soul for millions of years. Some of them are so deeply embedded, and so far recessed from the so-called “conscious mind,” that the individual himself has no concept that there is yet so much of the voodoo and the fakir in his inmost acceptance of things as they are. Through this accumulation, the God-direction must flow—then, through the further confines of the physical brain structure, each cell of which is charged with the thought patterns of centuries, because THE SAME ELEMENTAL SUBSTANCE IS USED OVER AGAIN IN SUCCEEDING LIVES.

When the Christ Self surges this flame through the mental body, it is like the opening of a sluice in a great dam, and the rush of pure energy sweeps out tons of this accumulation, loosening other older and more concrete substance, and gradually the process of purifying the mental bodies will be completed, although the process itself is likely to stir up certain energies that are both surprising and distasteful to the individual. May I give you the comfort of reminding you that all actions of the presence of God are blessings, and so receive this purification in joy. The action of the Crystal Ray through the brain structure then renders the same service in quickening the actual vibratory action of the cells in the brain, and helping them to throw off the accumulations which make reception sluggish and spasmodic. The beloved Morya is determined to open the channels of the individual's consciousness to the higher mind and the will of God, and knowing his will, I am happily convinced that it is about to be accomplished.

We are very interested in the tremendous forward impetus that is being experienced by the chelas at the present time in the coordination and cooperation between the inner and outer selves. This cooperation is the necessary forerunner of the expression of God's will for the people of Earth.

It has been to gain this cooperation, assistance, and willing, loving understanding of the outer selves, that we have been waiting through the centuries, and now that we have found lifestreams, unascended, who are willing to dedicate the vehicles loaned to them by the Presence of Life for the sole purpose of expanding God's kingdom, we can begin to go ahead with tremendous power and speed and action in releasing those plans and ideas which will form the foundation of the new day.

The Spiritual Hierarchy formulated and perfected, long centuries ago, the design for the planet Earth and her people, which is in accord with that of the God-will for the universe. We have but awaited the voluntary cooperation and assistance of the mankind of Earth who were to be the beneficiaries of all the good that has been planned and designed for the people before lowering it into physical form.

The awakening of the individuals who have already turned their thoughts and feelings Godward fills us with joy in the promise that if we can sustain their attention until the human accumulation can be dissolved to a point where they can become intelligent co-workers with us, we shall have formed a fine bridge from the human to the divine, strong enough to bear the weight of the cosmic plan that, in its fullness, will bring assistance and freedom to the entire race.

At present the great task is to sustain the enthusiasm and application of those who are to be the bridge in consciousness while we work, with almost feverish haste, to repolarize their outer vehicles, dissolve their accumulation, and purify their lifestreams to a point where the desire of their hearts is coupled with the efficiency of their instruments.

This period of purification, polishing, raising and harmonizing requires the patience of the over selves as well as every assistance that can be given from heaven and earth to accomplish the necessary transition of nature, so that the perfection promised can become form in even a limited number of cases, thus giving the necessary courage and confidence to the greatest number of potential co-workers to sustain their application in the knowledge that, like fruit, will grow upon their trees.

Enthusiasm, patience, constancy, zeal and confidence in the hearts of the forerunners for yet a little while will enable us to show that our words are truth, our promises are life, and our friendship is a tangible force for the betterment of the planet and her peoples.

I am deeply grateful for the many letters that have reached me from all the loving hearts that my words have reached, and let me say that these responses and gifts are our encouragement and hope in the arduous task to which we are dedicated.

On the anniversary of the day dedicated to the remembrance of motherhood—human and divine—I take pleasure in drawing the curtain aside to allow my earnest students the opportunity of seeing the inner action of the comforting Cosmic Law by which justice, mercy, love and balance are ever operative in the lives of mankind, appearances, judging by human standards, notwithstanding.

Reincarnation is truly a mercy to the soul evolving in the present atmosphere of planet Earth because the accumulation of individual, national, racial and planetary karma is such that a respite from struggle, and from the necessity of mitigating the evils of the past causes, is essential to ensure the continued existence of that soul with the qualities of hope, faith and determination to persevere until the soul is consciously absorbed into the Christ Self, and the immortality of the ego is assured. The souls of mankind, after passing through so-called death, sojourn for a time in those inner realms to which they have fitted themselves by the qualification of their energies in the past earth life. All such are given instruction and assistance according to their capacity to understand, absorb, digest and assimilate the truth of life, and none is committed to punishments for the sake of chastisement, although some, through learning the lessons of cause and effect, do temporarily suffer, and in that suffering, build into their consciousness a realization of right and wrong.

Because of the tremendous personal karma of the majority of lifestreams, the Cosmic Law and the Lords of Karma do not allow more than a third of the lifestreams belonging to this evolution to incarnate at the same time, lest the combined weight of their karma bend the axis beyond its present strained strength. In the course of each twelve-month cycle, however, due to the multiplicity of births and deaths, this general figure varies slightly, but not enough to affect seriously the physical safety of the globe.

However, once in each year, during the beautiful and mystic month of May, the Lords of Karma draw together all the lifestreams that have been chosen to incarnate within that twelve-month cycle. I render the same service through the kingdom of nature, and at the same beautiful and impressive service, ALL the potential mothers of the race are also brought, in their finer bodies, to the assembly, and each soul meets and embraces the mother chosen, for reasons of past ties, karmic debts, or potential service, to be the channel through which the soul shall secure a physical garment. If either the child or the mother chosen by the Karmic Board does not approve of the alliance, they are given the opportunity of speaking, and then the Christ Self of each soul—child and parent—makes the final decision.

If the lesson to be learned will best benefit the soul, even if there is an antipathy between the two, the union is inwardly consummated, and the builders of form take upon themselves the assignment of fulfilling the Law's command through the year. For the vast majority of the race, this beautiful ceremony does not entail too much detail or too much time, but when the ceremony takes place by which a high initiate, such as the beloved Jesus, and Mary, his holy mother, were joined together, it is a glorious and impressive ceremony, which remains forever in the heart and consciousness of the observer.

In the case of the beloved Jesus, after his mission had been accepted, and he had been blessed by the Lord of the World and his own teacher, Lord Maitreya, the blessed Mary volunteered to go before him and be the channel through which his love and light might reach into the consciousness and world of mankind.

I remember well that beautiful ceremony when the great Lords of Karma, all wearing pure white robes and crowns of blazing gold, called the Christ Self of the blessed Jesus before them, and asked if he was willing to perform the service which had been laid out to his inner vision. I remember well the clear ringing tones of that beloved one as he accepted the mission.

Then, from the arched doorway, the vision of eternal motherhood stepped forth. A wreath of flowers similar to lily-of-the-valley was woven into her hair which cascaded like a golden sea over her shoulders. So slight and delicate was her form, and yet there was such tremendous strength in her presence. Her garments were of the delicate “Mary blue” which has since become the symbol of dedication to her services. She stretched forth her arms toward Jesus, held him for a moment in her embrace, and then as they knelt together, it was my great privilege to bless them both.

As it is part of the office of the Holy Spirit to breathe the first breath into the nostrils of the newly born, and to take, with compassion, the last breath from the passing soul, in that part of the ceremony which is repeated for every incarnating lifestream and the mother, I asked, “Have I the right, my children, to loan to you the immortal breath of life?” The responsibility of accepting the breath lies entirely within the free will of the soul, and to give the opportunity of accepting that breath lies within the free will of the chosen parent. Both of them then placed their hands on mine and said, “You have!” Then I said, “In the name of the Holy Spirit, I consecrate this union, and at the time of physical birth, I take the responsibility of breathing the breath of life into the lungs of this infant. So be it!”

At the close of the ceremony, the holy ones, in turn, blessed all the other lifestreams, including the little four-footed creatures who were to be given an opportunity to redeem the energies in which they found themselves imprisoned. Such is the care and kindness by which lifestreams are joined together, always with the greatest possible personal and individual benefit to all concerned—whether it be in the balancing of debts to life, or whether it be in the furthering of some cosmic cause.

So, to all my readers, beside whose mother I stood at the time of your birth, I bring my blessing this Mother's Day, with the assurance that, at the close of this embodiment, I shall again stand ready to accept that precious loaned breath of life from your soul, and with the hope that I may say, truly, “Well done, my child!”

As the great Resurrection Temple opened its doors to the mankind of Earth, the pure white flame from its heart reached up beyond the ten-thousand-foot level, opening the door into the octave of light, and connecting the Resurrection Temple on Earth with the Ruby Temple of Jesus and Mary in the Sixth Sphere.

It was a beautiful and majestic sight to see the brothers and sisters of the Resurrection Flame in their white robes embroidered with the lily, honoring the presence of that resurrecting power, without which no man can enter into his Christ Estate.

As we had celebrated Ascension Day on the evening preceding the first public meeting (the 15th of May), the tremendous currents of the Master Jesus had greatly accelerated the power and intensity of that flame, and its pulsation could be felt that evening, even by the unawakened outer consciousness of those living in close physical proximity to the Holy Land.

As the flame was directed around Earth and accepted through the cooperative endeavors of the beloved students, we endeavored to charge the feeling, power and mastery of our own consciousnesses into each one's acceptance of that restorative power to act within his own conscious world and personal activity.

Because the great powers and foci of the God Authority are only as important to the mankind of Earth as the acceptance of their reality will allow them to be, I, who have utilized the Resurrection Flame to bring forth the beauty of each springtime, can bear witness to this great impersonal and potent power, and it is my hope that my FEELING of the power within the Resurrection Flame to act in the lifestream of every chela will, perhaps, pierce through the outer consciousness sufficiently so that each one may grasp that power and set it into action in his own world.

The beloved Master Jesus spoke on the ascension and told, so simply, the story of the conscious descent of the individual lifestreams into form, and explained that the moment of the ascension for each individual was determined by the specific service that lifestream was destined to render in the evolution of the planetary scheme, and that it was not necessarily merit which allowed some individuals to complete their course more quickly than others, but sometimes it was that their service was completed in a shorter time, for none may return home until the fiat of his own God-Self (which forms the motivating power by which the lifestream incarnated) is successfully accomplished. Then, and then alone, does the call of the Presence come, and the individual, his service completed, may, if his inner bodies are in order at the completion of that service, accept his freedom.

Here again, however, is the fine point of the Law. The service of the lifestream may take the soul down the whole course of history, and the circle of that ego's completed incarnations encompass the entire recorded time in the history of the planetary evolution, or the circle of the lifestream's service may be a small one, requiring perhaps no more than two or three incarnations, but, in the performance of that service, whether it is as early as the spring violet or as late as the autumn aster, the condition of the inner bodies will determine how long after the service is completed it will be before the soul may accept the release from the service and return home.

Those people whose service is well done, if they have not "soiled hands" or "impure hearts," may enter at once into the glories of the kingdom.

This portion of the Law has not been elaborated upon, but I bring it to your notice because at the instant that the Master Jesus completed his mission, the condition of his inner bodies and soul was such that he could accept the freedom and ascension into the heart of his Electronic Body. Other blessed ones, in the long, tedious course of living and service, when the final line which marks the periphery of their outgoing activity is reached, and by Cosmic Law they should be released from the wheel of birth and rebirth as the Christ Self speaks the words, "It is finished," find that, in their service, they have so distorted the condition of their inner bodies that they are not ready to accept the invitation of the God-self without some purification and the re-establishment of harmony and balance within the instruments of service.

Beloved Jesus, in speaking, described the necessity, while serving, for the soul to find time to prepare itself through the clarity of peace and balance of purity of the inner bodies so that when the mission is fully accomplished, it may not be necessary to spend centuries of personal application which is required to redeem the instruments by which the mission was accomplished, before they enter the kingdom in its fullness.

This is an action of the Law which must be stressed through the consciousness of mankind, and it is one reason why we are enabled to give more than ordinary assistance to certain lifestreams to balance and purify the distortion of the inner bodies which has resulted from a personally-rendered service.

The address was tremendously instructive in its simplicity, and particularly efficacious because the consciousness of the Christian world, as well as the chelas, has accepted the ascension of Jesus, and are willing to listen to the Word because he manifested this activity in action.

I would ask each student to make daily preparation in learning, through the control of the energy of their various bodies, to reach that peace haven within themselves in their dealings with others, that if their call should come in any hour, the condition of their inner bodies might be such that they could slip easily into the glory of the kingdom and not be detained in some lower sphere until the energies of the inner bodies are fully redeemed and the lower nature entirely transmuted into the divine.

When we look at the flow of energy from the heart of the Presence, we see a rapidly pulsating river of prismatic light. If we were to slow down the vibratory action of that life energy, we would see that the electrons making up the flame of the Presence carry a distinct design which differs from all others, even as the geometrical perfection of the snowflake is singular.

As this energy is molded by the thought and feeling body into form and sent forth into the universe, it carries the plan of the original design of the lifestream. That energy goes forth in a handclasp, so that the individual receiving the handclasp, when the hand is removed, has upon the palm, superimposed over his own energy, many thousands of these tiny forms representative of the lifestream of the giver.

The second individual then goes on his way, performing one act or another, yet he carries with him some of the energy from his friend, and this is how one's energy passes on in an endless chain from one to another in handclasps and other services requiring contact in different modes of service until the energy from each one goes out to many, many parts of the planet. The outer world has touched the fringe of this in their science of personal magnetism, but they refer to the human effluvia which covers the pure particles of light, whereas we refer to the life structure and picture within.

The manner in which the particles are charged forth determines the resulting effect upon the lifestream releasing them. The energy may pass to another in a handclasp, but the predominant feeling in the emotional body as it goes forth, will determine whether its passage through the universe carries friendship and love or otherwise, and in its return circle, of course, it will pick up vibrations only similar to its own, and so its return again unto its source, brings amplified a millionfold, the initial vibration with which it was sent forth.

If a woman could see the sparks of light going forth from her fingertips when she is cooking, and the substance of light that goes into the food she handles, she would be amazed to see how much of herself she charges into the repasts that she prepares for her family and friends.

It is one of the most important and least understood activities of life, that the radiation and feeling that go into the preparation of food affect everyone who partakes of it, and this activity should be unhurried, peaceful and happy. It would be better that an individual did not eat at all, than to eat food that has been prepared under a feeling of anger, resentment, depression or any outward pressure, because the substance of the lifestream performing the service flows into that food and is eaten, and actually becomes part of the energy of the receiver. THAT IS WHY THE ADVANCED SPIRITUAL TEACHERS OF THE EAST NEVER EAT FOOD PREPARED BY ANYONE OTHER THAN THEIR OWN CHELAS, and if the individual who sometimes is possessed of the only advanced spiritual understanding in the household, and who seems to have little time for personal application, would make the preparation of his or her culinary efforts an active charge of happiness, purity, peace, opulence, and freedom, what the other members will not get by study, they will eat. I might say that there are more ways than one of allowing the Spirit of God to enter the flesh of man.

THE PATTERN OF YOUR LIFESTREAM IS A BEAUTIFUL DESIGN, AND THE ELECTRONS THAT MAKE UP YOUR PRESENCE ARE ALL COMPOSED OF THAT ORIGINAL FORM. THE LIGHT FLOWING FROM YOUR PRESENCE INTO YOUR HEART ALSO CONTAINS THAT FORM. FOR INSTANCE, THE ELECTRONS THAT FORM THE BODY OF SAINT GERMAIN ARE IN THE SHAPE OF A MALTESE CROSS, AND THOSE OF LORD BUDDHA ARE IN THE FORM OF AN OPEN LOTUS. When those individuals speak, the words that proceed from their mouths and set up vibrations in the universe are made up of countless millions of tiny crosses or flowers.

When they raise their hands, the electrons passing from the hand are composed of myriads of tiny forms representative of their lifestreams. The atmosphere around them is filled with millions and millions of these tiny forms going out into the universe. The places where their feet have stood, have the imprint of these tiny electronic patterns, and that substance is superimposed upon the garments that they wore, the rooms in which they lived, the trees that shaded them, and the beds they laid upon.

The most powerful concentrated designs are closest to the physical body, or to the place where the individual abode during his last incarnation, and that is why you will find a certain identity in spiritual centers where great men and women achieved knowledge and spiritual victories.

Your home, your environment and your personal effects are, likewise, powerfully charged with the electronic pattern of your lifestream. THAT PATTERN ITSELF IS NEUTRAL, BUT THE FEELING THAT YOUR ENERGY RELEASED THROUGH IT DETERMINES ITS RADIATION. IT IS LIKE YOUR FANCY COOKIE CUTTER THAT WILL MAKE A FORM OUT OF MUD OR DOUGH. When the pattern of your lifestream is charged into the Universal Light Substance, if your feeling is harmonious, its radiation will be of benefit to all life; if the feeling is inharmonious, it still carries your pattern, and as it proceeds from you into the universe, you will bear the responsibility for all the life it affects discordantly before it returns in its circle to you. There is no man who can stand before the All-Seeing Eye of God and deny the pattern of his own life energy imposed upon any part of life constructively or destructively, for where your "stamp" is, like your footprint, there is where you have been, and you must answer to life for what was done there.

The Master Jesus used his hands, almost constantly, as conductors of the energy drawn from God, and charged them, through the electrons of his great lifestream, with healing power for those requiring assistance. HE AND HIS DISCIPLES HEALED BY THE 'LAYING ON OF HANDS.' In this manner, the electronic particles of the Master's energy were charged into the physical structure as well as into the mental, emotional and etheric bodies of those requiring assistance.

These particles of light remained with the individual, and radiated the feeling of the Master long after he had proceeded on his way. His purpose in this was to sustain his consciousness in the individual thus assisted, lest the mass mind draw him back into his former way of thinking. Everybody close to the Master Jesus in that embodiment was literally covered with the "stardust of his light," which was as tangible a robe of grace as was the white garment which he wore. Likewise, the whole planet was benefited by the radiation of his presence.

Therefore, be careful how you speak, because every time you speak a word, energy rushes forth from your mouth and creates a thoughtform composed of the pattern of your lifestream. If Saint Germain were to pronounce the word “cat,” that form would be composed of myriads of little open-ended crosses, and if Lord Buddha said the word “cat,” his thoughtform would be composed of tiny lotus flowers. It behooves us, then, to be careful how we use our energy because, according to the manner of sending it forth, do we receive happiness or otherwise in its return.

I would like to describe to you the heart of God. It is a task that I cannot, faithfully, put into words, but I would like at least to stir your interest to the point where you begin to journey, through the medium of your consciousness, deeper and deeper and deeper into that stillness which forms the Sacred Heart from whence has come forth into being this universe and all of us—small and great alike.

It is HOME in its truest and deepest sense. It is security and safety and understanding and love without censure, and peace without price. It is light such as the most exquisite sunshine that your imaging faculties could conceive, and yet it is as restful as the twilight. It is as silent as the sun in the heavens in the performance of its cosmic duties, and yet, it is filled with sound in perfect harmony. You might say it is every pair of opposites in their perfect sense—without dissensions or imperfections of any kind, for every quality has two poles—silence and sound—activity and stillness, although mankind has falsely created in this world of form an opposite to love, which is hate, an opposite to silence, which is noise.

However, within this great Cosmic Heart is a realm, Saint Germain calls it the Great, Great Silence. Jesus called it the Kingdom of Heaven. Others call it the Sacred Heart. David called it the Secret Place of the Most High. I call it the power of love divine, but whatever name it is called, it is the ultimate goal toward which all life is journeying, and it can be experienced by the evolving consciousness of any unascended being when he has become still enough.

Once you have entered into the heart of that exquisite stillness—where you will meet with every being who has mastered the outer self, where you can see the full design of God's Plan for every creature—you will, like myself, never leave it again, but you will work from within that heart, abiding in perfect peace. Your physical heart is a replica of the great cosmic heart of the universe, and through the door of that heart you can enter the place of stillness, and you will find it increasing and becoming more tangible as you practice the cultivation of that inner peace.

I smile when I see the mankind of Earth so intent on travel and vacation, when they may go into this inner realm on a breath, and come back more restored than any resort or any physical sunshine or water spa could manifest for them.

Dear children of my heart, I implore you to enter deep, deep, deep into the heart of the silence and KNOW for yourselves the fullness of life that is there for your health, enjoyment, prosperity and PEACE.

Humility and grace are both of spirit alone. Neither can be brought under control by the outer senses of man, for each quality is given through man by the breath of the Spirit of Life.

Humility is an inner reverence, letting the Power of Life express or flow through the cup of one's consciousness, with no effort of the outer senses. In this way, humility, like the Sun from the heart of Helios, flows forth in quiet gentle streams of life—a blessing and an anointing on all life.

Grace of the spirit is that beautiful, joyous, effervescing happiness of life that, from within the hidden inner depths of man's heart makes each of them a delightful companion to all everywhere—be it in Heaven or on Earth. The grace of Spirit shines forth from him who knows his oneness with all life; who is willing to join himself with other forms—no matter where—thus making a greater, firmer bond of spirit, whereby man shall know himself AS spirit—not flesh.

Dearly beloved hearts of mine, I offer to each of you the gift of my own humility and grace of life. It may be for you, each one, a living, breathing, pulsating, eternal reality with each breath you breathe if you so desire. It needs only your acceptance, and then sustained consciousness of that oneness with me. Within the Secret Place of your own heart you will contact your own divine identity, and there, also, may be found the gifts of all who are of the heavenly consciousness. Again we see the meaning of the Master Jesus' words, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven (your own Christ Identity), and all other gifts of consciousness shall be added unto you." So often has man heard the words "man is but consciousness," and they remain but "words" for him. Raise your own consciousness, by an effort of will, from the human or outer man's thinking, and fasten it to the mind of your own Higher Self within. In this way, your creative faculties will be raised, and you will find yourself thinking and feeling like unto your own Christ Self.

Beloved ones, you are known by and express your form of consciousness each moment that you breathe. Man expresses mostly from the outer consciousness of himself, yet if he will identify himself with his true identity, then in truth will he express the consciousness of Heaven itself.

"The Kingdom of Heaven is within," and, "the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand," are words spoken so many centuries ago, and yet man has not learned to BE this beautiful Being which IS his TRUE IDENTITY.

Enter deep within until you find the "I" of you, then kneel, in spirit, and be enfolded in its divine embrace and absorbed into its way of thinking and feeling. Beloved ones, I welcome you, this day, into the inner consciousness of spirit, and ere this year has flown, there shall be those of you who shall move wholly and eternally free as spirit upon this Earth, and, also in the higher octaves of light, where your ascension is assured.

This week, I present, for your enjoyment, a short description of the preparation made by the brothers at the great Rocky Mountain Retreat for the opening of the half-yearly grand council of Ascended Masters in charge of the evolution of our planet. These remarks were made by our beloved brother, Lanto, the Master in charge of this retreat.

BELOVED ASCENDED MASTER LANTO speaks:

The Cosmic Law opens the barriers that keep universal schemes from inter-blending, and from all the stars, volunteers of love descend on pathways of flame, their light increasing as they approach the great meeting place.

The hosts of the Rocky Mountain Retreat, in their golden robes, welcome the divine messengers, the air devas, the angels, the Masters, and the Solar Lords. The whole atmosphere is ablaze with effulgent light, but as we become accustomed to its radiance, we can distinguish the Masters with their chelas in groups—Kuthumi with his chelas, the teachers, educators and parents of the race; the Master Morya with the government officials who make up his group; Hilarion surrounded by the etheric bodies of the doctors and nurses and scientists.

The largest group of all is around the Lord Buddha, made up of the holy ones of the East. The next in size and radiance is the Lord Jesus with his Christians—ministers, missionaries and good people of the various Christian sects, filled with the serious intent of doing good, and drawn hither by their desire to serve life and to contact the Master in their inner bodies. Saint Germain, our shining one, is surrounded by his students and the etheric bodies of all those interested in the work of the new day. High in the atmosphere, seven golden thrones have been prepared for the seven impassionate and serene Lords of Karma who are to preside at the council meeting. Over all, the fragrance of the lotus and the rose mingle, and the music of the spheres fills the air with harmony and peace, as the magnet of love draws from the human race all those whose desire and design is for good.

When the meeting is called to order on June 30th, each Master presents, in color and radiance and fiery word, his plan and design for the balance of the year to come. Then, the voice of the Lords of Karma will ask: “Where is your sponsorship? What can you offer the solar system in place of the release of this light and mercy for which you ask?” Then the Master turns to his chelas and asks that they emit their light and, according to the light emitted by all his chelas in unison, is the Master granted a release of certain authority and dispensations to fulfill his plan. If the light is great, his opportunity to fulfill his plan is likewise backed by Cosmic Law.

If the Master has little or no sponsorship from unascended beings, these great impersonal Lords must, perforce, refuse his request. Many petitions are presented at these great council meetings which would improve the conditions of the race, but due to lack of interest on the part of humanity, they must be set aside until such time as the majority of the people of Earth sincerely desire that those qualities and conditions asked for by the small minority and invisible sponsors of the race, be granted. The chelas may sponsor several Masters' services, and when the call for light is made, they may join other groups and add theirs to the flash of light which is the judgment of his plan. Thus is decided the fate of our nation and of all peoples.

As we approach another of these great council meetings, I would urge that each earnest student make a heart call to the Christ Self of every member of the race, discarnate as well as incarnate, to be present, bringing the etheric bodies of their lifestreams with them, that they might observe, firsthand, the efforts being made by the guardians of the race for their redemption and ascension. This should have a salutary effect upon the outer personality, because the conviction of the divine plan, charged into the inner bodies through attendance at these impressive ceremonies, cannot fail to reach the intellect and awaken it to its responsibilities, not only to the life that beats its own heart, but to all life in general.

Blessings and love.

Beloved Children of Life and Light,

This morning, I again bow before the exquisite stream of electronic light flowing so constantly, so joyously, and so happily from the heart of the great Sun, itself, into and through your human forms, and containing, within itself, all the potent powers which man has called mastery over circumstances.

Looking at the form and essence of this pure light as it flows to the individual, which appears like billions of beads of light strung together, making a river of electronic substance, it becomes my heart desire, as well as that of all those who witness the entrance of the God-light into the body, that we might convey to you the comfort and the knowledge and power that lies within your own light to fulfill all your needs, and yet this great river of force flows through you, for the most part, unclaimed, filling the aura of each day with nothingness.

The great world of science has said that if they could build machines powerful enough to crush the atom, that from the energy released, one tiny molecule would be enough to carry a great ocean liner across the sea, and yet, in the course of a second, each one receives into his own heart (unrecognized) many countless billions of these atoms that pass out into the universe, unused, because man has not learned the power that lies within his own lifestream—just like an orange that lies upon the table untouched, or a nut from which the kernel has not been extracted. One could sit for days with both these articles of food within reach without enjoying the succulence of the one or the nourishment that lies within the other, unless an effort was made to unclot the garment in which their essence was enveloped.

It is the same with your precious light. At the moment you are born into this world, your own Christ Self agrees to accept the prana, or substance of the air, and becomes responsible for as much of that commodity as you will use in the course of a lifetime. Also, from the time you breathe your first breath, the powers and beings of the air become your servants; the beings concerned with the sustenance of Earth supply you with food and nourishment for your body; the shining sun helps you to perform the acts of your daily living, and the elements of the water supply you with your ablutions as well as giving the necessary refreshment to your inner bodies. All of these elemental beings bend the knee before the throne of the One from which all have come, and who breathes the first breath into the nostril of the new-born and sets the akashic ethers into motion. Do you think that it is for naught that, age after age, and eon after eon, mankind has been so served, and yet has not signified his willingness to accept the responsibility of using these powers of nature without, in some manner, contributing, even impersonally, to the progress of the planet and the race?

At the close of your earth life, my beloved ones, it is I who takes the last breath from your nostril, as your soul signifies that you have abode long enough in this “vale of tears,” and that it desires a surcease from the karma of your own making that you may receive light from the Suns of Heaven and prepare to return again to fulfill your divine plan. I have met you there hundreds and hundreds of times, your soul clutching in its tired hands the sheaves of its own harvest, pitifully small for the most part, and even I, whose energy has sustained your earth journey, must repress a feeling of discouragement (if such a quality could be expressed in our realm) to see a soul so distressed. So this morning I again endeavor to turn your attention to the power that lies within your electronic stream of light which is your heart-beat.

You do not have to look without—to any person—for within that heart-beat is your precipitating power by which I myself have manifested the glory of each succeeding day.

In the heart of the retreats, WHEN WE EMPHASIZE THE PHILOSOPHY 'KNOW THYSELF,' IT DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU HAVE TO DELVE INTO THE VARIOUS DOCTRINES OF THE DAY, WHICH ONLY RESULT IN THE MANUFACTURE OF SHEATH AFTER SHEATH WITH WHICH PEOPLE HAVE CLOTHED THE OUTER SELF IN THIS OCTAVE, BUT WE DO MEAN THAT YOU BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH THAT EXQUISITE STREAM OF LIFE AND LIGHT THROUGH WHICH YOU ATTAIN YOUR MASTERY.

Report by beloved Kuthumi on the activities in the Rocky Mountain Retreat half an hour before Transmission of the Flame

June 20, 1953

Beloved Maha Chohan

Tonight, as the great retreat which forms one of the most ancient sanctuaries known upon planet Earth today plays host, not only to the Ascended Masters and their chelas of love and light, but also to the souls of millions of incarnate lifestreams and members of the human race who are awaiting incarnation in the discarnate realm, we choose to bring to your attention an eye-picture of the activity in order that you may enjoy, and consciously participate in, the service as manifested through us all.

Because of the momentum of the student body over the many years in turning their consciousnesses toward this retreat at least twice in each year, the inner currents are more firmly established than in the retreats which have just been brought to the attention of the outer consciousness, and I might say that it is like traveling along a well-cut highway in comparison to that of a grassy footpath for the consciousness and the soul of the mankind of Earth as they turn toward this retreat.

The seven great thrones of the Lords of Karma in the atmosphere above the council chambers are already filled. These beloved beings have come several weeks in advance of their usual visitation in order that they, too, might contribute the energies of their love and breath of life in this powerful and magnificent opportunity.

They each wear upon their heads the seven-pointed crown symbolic of their office, and all are in green and gold in honor of the colors of the beloved host of the evening, with the exception of Kwan Yin, who, as spokesman, has chosen to wear the deep royal purple significant of the concentrated action of mercy and compassion.

The Ascended Masters, themselves, are now gathering and entering into the vast chamber, taking their accustomed seats, each of which is provided with a green velvet cushion and footstool. The rostrum, itself, is decorated in a most exquisite display of gold calla lilies combined with a rich green vine which grows in China, and brought hither for the occasion by some members of the Brotherhood. Over the entire mountain stands the canopy of force that was drawn from the heart of the music festival, which is made up of the combined energies of the thousands of lifestreams who attended, and which will be offered on behalf of Serapis Bey when the 200,000 are called before the Karmic Board to render an accounting for their participation in the progressive unfoldment of the evolution of the race.

The beloved Lanto is already upon the platform, and the concentration of the Green and Gold Flame, standing around his body for about three feet in every direction, is so brilliant and beautiful that his form is hardly visible within it.

The back area of the chamber is filled with the inner bodies of the conscious students who are aware of the Masters and their service, and the action of the whole audience is to enter deep into the heart of their own flame, and endeavor to duplicate the great cosmic green and gold lily which is the form the flame will take in its expanding activity around the Earth. The sponsors for each location have established around each sanctuary a similar flame flower. They are all closed like great tulips, and will not open their petals until Lanto gives the signal for the breathing to commence. It is the desire of the sponsors (through the student body) to expand all of these flame flowers, entwining one with another, until the entire Earth is garlanded—which is balance.

As we stand here, we see the discarnates being drawn into the atmosphere by the great Astrea, the beloved Oromasis and Diana, and Lord Michael. There is a great amphitheater prepared for them, for they have asked that they might give their breath in passing this same flame through their realms. Previously, the Masters have drawn the flame through these realms as well as the elemental kingdom, but this is the first time that the discarnates have asked for an opportunity to consciously participate in the activity themselves. I would ask now that you send a thought to anyone whom you think might be within those realms, as it will make it easier for them to accept the benefits of the flame.

The beloved Sanat Kumara and Lord Buddha have just come, and Lord Maitreya has entered also, bearing with him the Rod of Power. All are now seated—quietly contemplating the flame.

Report of the Transmission Flame Activities by the Lord Maha Chohan,

June 21, 1953

As the Flame of God encircled Earth on the evening of June 20th, 1953, it was interesting to note that the tracks which had been cut through the lower atmosphere of Earth from sanctuary to sanctuary by the breath of the student body were clearly defined before the great invisible helpers began to set the currents into action from the higher realms which would enable the greatest possible service to be rendered at this time.

I can best describe it by saying that the lower atmosphere of Earth is often temporarily “parted,” so to speak, by a strong thought or feeling form, through a cooperative service or group endeavor, but after the service is completed, the atmosphere again “closes in,” just as an individual leaves no trace of his pathway behind him in passing through water. However, as the great Law, through its messengers, has witnessed the fidelity, constancy and enthusiasm of the unascended beings who have joined together, month after month, in invoking and directing the flame, and who have contributed the energy and substance of their own breath as a conductor of that flame, this bridge of breath and energy has been made permanent, and remains a visible, tangible, constant “conductor” from one focus of light to another at all times.

This means that even when the added impetus of the conscious co-operation of the students is not intensifying the blessing of the particular retreat which is the focus for the evening, the rhythm of that flame, like water pouring through a prepared channel, continues to flow, and the sphere of influence of each retreat is no longer “localized,” but world-wide in its outpouring. This is more important than perhaps the human consciousness will realize upon first thought, because instead of having one “treatment” in a thirty-day cycle, the entire momentum and power of radiation from the retreat which is active during that period becomes the constant, pulsating and raising activity of the entire world throughout this thirty-day cycle.

Each time the group activity is repeated, all the breath released from each lifestream is woven into this “spiritual track” to widen the bridge, so that from a tiny “thread,” which is barely perceptible among the shadows of Earth's present garments of pain and confusion, it will one day be a blazing highway as wide as Earth's periphery, and then all will see, know and manifest God accomplishment.

In July of last year, when this humble experiment first began, the sphere of influence of each retreat covered a localized area, but there were no conscious unbroken connections between these foci of light and power. When the student body first contributed its timid breaths, there being but one such group of unascended beings conscious of our endeavor, those combined breaths did not reach across the Atlantic Ocean, and it was the pleasure of the Ascended Host to provide the necessary strength, impetus, and cosmic breath to carry that frail offering around the world. Like a “wisp of smoke,” the student's breath was dissipated at the close of the ceremony.

As the year has progressed, and as more and more groups of unascended beings are participating, the power and momentum of the students carry the breath around the world—accomplished solely through the conscious endeavors of unascended beings. We merely intensify the flame.

Because this contribution has come voluntarily through the hearts of members of the human race, the Law has permitted us to sustain this channel through which the energies flow, and it is a tremendous forward impetus for our endeavors, for rather than receiving the “food” once in every thirty-days, all kingdoms are receiving it every second throughout this period.

May I bless and thank those lovely spirits who have chosen to invest their breath in this cosmic endeavor!

We begin our second cycle of the Transmission Flame on July 18th, from the retreat of the Master Saint Germain in Transylvania, and I am grateful that, as the “Book of Life” closes on our first year's endeavors, I shall be able to offer the Lords of Karma such a beautiful report from the hearts of those who love life enough to contribute their breath to its glorious fulfillment.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Report by Saint Germain on Activities in the Rocky Mountain Retreat
June 29th and 30th, 1953

Again, through the cooperation and balanced enthusiasm of your lifestreams, we are enabled to establish a precedent this evening as the great half-yearly council convenes for the presentation of the lifestreams who received the grant last year.

The balance of energy required by the Cosmic Law to promote a more than ordinary world cause forms the measure of all dispensations granted by the Lords of Karma. From our octave, we are permitted to design various plans whereby the evolution of the race may be accelerated. However, it is a requisite of the Law that we must secure the interest, cooperation and voluntary support of some members of the human race, yet unascended, in order to set aside certain restrictions which limit our freedom of action in the sphere of life which is not our natural habitat.

These various petitions and designs are always presented to the Karmic Board and the half-yearly council. At inner levels, some members of the human race respond and offer to cooperate with the Masters' individual or collective plans. The Lords of Karma examine carefully the capacities of these volunteers, to see if their energies can be utilized practically, and if their instruments of expression (inner and outer bodies) are sufficiently developed and reliable enough to count on fulfillment of the vow taken by them in the fuller freedom of the inner levels.

Upon the number of individuals who volunteer to assist the Master in a particular cause, and upon the evolution and development of each volunteer, is the grant or dispensation given or withheld. Some of the beloved Brothers receive a tremendous response because individuals are vitally interested in their projects—like the annihilation of war; while other members of the Brotherhood receive little support because their plans and projects do not appeal to the personal selves of mankind; the selfishness of the personality (which is part of the etheric envelope also) does not prompt even a passing interest by such life-streams. Thus, when a proposal is made and the Lords of Karma ask for backers among the human race, no one responds, and the petitioner is forced to place his hopes upon the shelf, hoping that at some future time he will be able to impress some individuals with the importance and possibilities of his cause.

The days before the Lords of Karma take their places are given over to the Brothers, that they may post their petitions and further their causes as best they can. Small council chambers are placed at their disposal, and certain chela are invited to sit with them and study the merits of the various plans. Thus, before the night of the great council, the individual sponsor knows fairly well what response he can expect from mankind, and also what support he will receive from the Karmic Board. There is always hope, however, that when the actual petition is read, those attending will become interested enough to back his cause, and when the Karmic Board asks, "Who, among unascended mankind, will assist you?" there will be enough to warrant the Master's receiving permission to at least TRY to externalize his plan.

As the students have become conscious of the service being rendered at these half-yearly councils, and they have added the petitions inspired by their hearts and spirits, the Masters often incorporate the students' petitions into their own and "adopt" such petitions, offering to give the support of their own hearts to the presentation of such petitions to the assembly.

The messenger from the Great Central Sun is empowered by that Central Intelligence to release from the cosmic storehouse of energy an equivalent amount of universal light energy to that offered to the Masters through the mankind of Earth, which doubles the power invested in any cause or design.

BUT, for the first time since the veil of maya closed the inner sight and hearing of the human race, we experienced, last evening, a release of energy from mankind simultaneously with the promulgation of our plans, which enabled us to pass with merit 100,000 of the 200,000 lifestreams who were chosen for the first wave of spiritual impetus in the Cosmic Christ entrance into the outer consciousness of the race.

This brought to mind a new and wonderful opportunity, for if unascended beings would choose to give their energies at the same time we are presenting the petitions to the Lords of Karma, wave after wave of harmoniously-qualified God-life flowing from the hearts of mankind would bear witness to mankind's willingness to stand behind every design and plan that the Brothers might present. Then the Lords of Karma could not, in good conscience, refuse any such petition, and tremendous dispensations and grants could be effected.

So tonight, as the Masters prepare for their audience before the Karmic Board, we are opening the great channel of energy from the class, and the fully gathered cosmic momentum of your many years of service is being drawn through your decrees and flooded into the great assembly hall, not only for the awakening of the 200,000, but for every dispensation that appears to have merit in the eyes of God. Remember that all the momentum of every decree, every song, every visualization you have ever made, is added to your application this evening, and then the Central Sun is giving a balance of the same amount of victorious Christ energy which is pure God force.

It is one thing for the students to be totally unconscious of what we are doing currently, which has been the case of the past years, but it is a great step up when the students consciously know where we are, and engage (as in the Transmission Class) in cooperation with us at the same time the activity is in session, but this third development where you are working simultaneously with us in the accomplishment of current events, at the same moment, signifies the greatest spiritual milestone of this era, and within it is the hope of an absolute unity between our work and yours—stimulating your endeavors by the certainty of accomplishment, and ours by the joy of knowing that we can secure energy, when the Law requires it of us, from mankind.

May I point out that we can do much from this end, but the Law requires the interest and energy from yours, and it was the Christ Selves who drew the small number of lifestreams into that particular sanctuary last evening where the release of their energy, at the psychological moment it was needed, has given birth to this marvelous opportunity of Ascended and unascended beings working together simultaneously and bringing forth such unprecedented results.

In order to present this “Bulletin” in proper sequence for your understanding, let me explain that on the evening of June 29, 1953, a small number of chelas gathered together in their sanctuary to do some decree work on certain activities which they knew were in session at the great half-yearly council, but they were not aware that they were offering their energy at the precise moment it was needed by their ascended friends in order to promulgate a certain cause presented to the Lords of Karma by these great Brothers for the benefit of mankind. This unpremeditated, simultaneous action on the part of the students gave rise to an opportunity similar to the idea of the united action in the transmission of the flame, whereby if the students can be notified, beforehand, of any event requiring simultaneous action between Masters and chelas, and they choose to offer their energies at the precise moment it is required, it would have a tremendous effect upon future accomplishments through cooperation action. Now I will let Saint Germain present the balance of his report.

BELOVED ASCENDED MASTER SAINT GERMAIN SPEAKS
(June 29th, 1953, 10:30 p.m.)

May I congratulate you on a magnificent activity here tonight! I would like to show you how close you have come, in your outer consciousness, to cooperation with our endeavors. When you began your class this evening, Serapis and I were sitting in the council chamber provided by the Brotherhood at the retreat, where he might interview the 200,000 lifestreams he had sponsored before the Karmic Board, to find what merit may be offered on their behalf at the meeting tomorrow evening (June 20th). Serapis said, "If I only had some energy to use!"—and just then the pulse beat of the decrees from your class began. I slapped my hand on the table and said, "There is your energy!"

Before this energy was released, only 10,000 of the 200,000 had qualified, but through the tremendous release of energy in your decrees, the number was increased to 100,000. Just then, Kwan Yin came to the door and said, "I do not come in an official capacity as spokesman for the Karmic Board, but I can tell you that we do not require that the outer selves of the 200,000 be completely awakened and consciously cooperating with the Christ Selves. If you can show that they have even a "spark of interest" in spiritual truth, we will pass them, and increase the grant for the balance of the year."

Upon examination, the Christ Selves of these people showed that the difficulty was due to the impurity of the inner bodies and the turmoil in the emotional bodies, and if these could be purified by the application of the Sacred Fire, it would be possible for the Christ Self of each one to register through the brain and into the outer consciousness. So, to our joy and the happiness of all concerned, the 200,000 passed through.

I congratulate you for having your "lamps filled with oil," for truly no one knows "at what hour the Bridegroom cometh," and in the days and years ahead, many opportunities will arise when we will be able to so contact you without previous notice.

Beloved Saint Germain

June 30th, 1953, 10:30 p.m.

Beloved Friends of My Heart,

Do you know that, tonight, seventy thousand years does not seem such a long time since you and I pledged one another, at the close of that civilization, to endure, and through the power of light within your hearts, you have passed through the shadows of the intervening centuries and have not been found wanting. It will give me great happiness to report to you later on the results of your endeavors tonight. Thank you.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 12, 1953

Your Higher Self is a real and tremendous being of light, power, dignity, beauty, and freedom. As you feel your heart beating, think of the energy that has flowed from that being, to sustain your body's life, and think of the plan that being has for your lifestream, which it has endeavored to fulfill for millions of years. Age after age it has provided you with a strong and beautiful body and endeavored to manifest through you the design which God, the Father, desired that your Presence fulfill.

Again, you are in possession of a vehicle provided by this Presence, and I would counsel that you turn to that Presence and listen to its promptings through your heart. This will require a certain relinquishment of your consciousness to the passing things of Earth. If you can and will make this effort, you will find that the divine teacher will set your house in order, and things will progress to a point where you will become of greater help and assistance to those around you. This must come for every man, every woman, every child, for it is pre-ordained by life, but we can press that day if we are wise.

The Ascended Master is always in complete control of all the energy of his lifestream, and the vibrations passing from his thought and feeling world always express the harmony of his keynote. They are always in agreement with the divine Law of Love, which is the consciousness of the Father as manifest through the Celestial Kingdom, the angelic host, and the Hierarchy.

If you would visualize your consciousness like a great ball or sphere rotating like the hands of a clock, from left to right, at a certain speed, and all the time throwing off electrical waves into the atmosphere, you would have a very good picture of the activity of your consciousness as seen with the inner eye. Then, if you would visualize the Ascended Master's consciousness like a great iridescent sun filled with the prismatic colors of the rainbow, as much larger than your own as the head of a pin is to the sun in the heavens, and whirling in the same direction as your own, but so rapidly that you cannot see the rotation, and sending off tons of flame into the atmosphere that makes the entire heavens glow with its radiance—you would see THAT towards which you aspire.

Now if you will take the lesser consciousness (which is your own) and place it, mentally, in the very center of that great whirling sphere of the Master's consciousness, visualizing the absorption of the one into the other, and center that whole contemplation at the point between your eyes where the inner eye is developing, you will experience the most marvelous expansions of consciousness which has become like an open book to the advanced chelas of the past. If you will dwell upon this explanation, you can hasten tremendously your own unfoldment, and if you will consciously blend your human consciousness into any Ascended Master's consciousness upon which your mind dwells, you will find his powers flowing through you freely to assist mankind.

ON CAUSE AND EFFECT

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 19, 1953

The mixing of certain foods together forms a very pleasant and edible concoction, which is a source of delight and satisfaction to your families and friends. You set up a CAUSE by mixing those various individual foods, and the ultimate result will be the effect you desire. In this very simple example, you have the Law of Karma—CAUSE and EFFECT. You know before you begin what the effect will be, and you proceed with assurance that if you adhere unerringly to the necessary rules and regulations, your ultimate presentation will not only be beautiful, but tasty.

What you have done in your culinary experience, you can do equally well in life. If you would put the proper qualities together, you would have the same effect—with the same degree of accuracy—and you would have as desirable a manifestation as you had in your cooking, BUT because the qualities of fearlessness, confidence, strength and purity are unseen qualities, mankind feels that they can put a little less or a little more of one or the other into their original CAUSE and still have a desirable EFFECT, where no wise person in a culinary department would tamper with an intricate recipe and expect perfect results.

You may draw as much love, as much fearlessness, as much light, or as much happiness as you desire into any picture that you may hold in your mind, whether it is for the strength and endurance of someone you love, or for the freedom of the whole race, and if you continue to reject all unpleasant feelings and thoughts from your mental and emotional picture, even as you would reject poison or any other unpleasant substance for your cake, you would be successful in your manifestation.

If you were preparing a special dish for your family, you would not allow anyone to drop any form of waste matter into it. You would know, without my saying so, that the result would be imperfect, and yet human beings, in drawing a perfect picture for their loved ones or for their house or their business, allow any passing thought that proceeds from the ignorant minds of men to flow into that form and pollute it. Remember, that the EFFECT will carry the taint of that which you allowed to enter your CAUSE, either consciously or unconsciously—for that is the LAW. In the realm of the Ascended Masters, they, too, follow the same law that is being worked out with such difficulty in the third dimensional world as CAUSE and EFFECT. The Theosophical world has called it KARMA, and it has become mesh of intricate design which has caught the soul, rather than an exquisite proof of the creative power focused within each human heart. In the Ascended Master Octave, if EFFECT did not proceed from CAUSE, the Masters would have no power to follow through any design, but as the human mind is thoroughly convinced that two and two makes four, so does the Master know, without question of a doubt, that EFFECTS will follow CAUSES set up within his heart and mind consciousness.

Report by Saint Germain on Activities in the Transylvania Retreat before Transmission of the Flame

Beloved ones, tonight is an anniversary, and one that I can celebrate with particular personal happiness, for this magnificent activity brought to such full fruition, PARTICULARLY WHEN THE CURTAIN HAD ALL BUT CLOSED UPON MY HUMBLE ENDEAVORS THROUGH THE PAST TWENTY YEARS.

Tonight Transylvania is a beautiful sight as we look at it from the inner standpoint. It is not a large state at most, but from border to border it is ablaze with deep purple fire. Devas and angels and elementals clothed in every hue of the Violet Ray are bathing in this tremendous aura of pulsating Violet Flame, and from the heart of the Sun, a directed ray of the most intense purple fire that has ever touched the Earth is anchored through the focus of the Freedom Flame, which it has been my privilege and honor to guard for many centuries.

The Freedom Flame is burning upon the altar, and the beloved Brothers and Sisters have decorated the entire assembly room in Maltese crosses made up of exquisite floral offerings representative of the various countries from whence they came. Each has followed the pattern of my own Electronic Light Pattern, but the flowers symbolize the location of the retreat or sanctuary from whence the Brothers and Sisters have joyously come to offer the energy of their life this night, and I shall always remember the beauty of this kind expression of their love.

As we go into action in the drawing of the concentrated power of God freedom into this mighty flame, and as we direct it through the channels which have already been opened and established, we are going to endeavor to create around every student unascended, a similar cross, larger than the physical body, made up of the actual substance of this concentrated flame which has become the atmosphere of Transylvania tonight. The vibratory action of this prepared cross will be much more rapid than the natural vibration of the physical and inner bodies of the students, and should enable them to breathe in the flame with greater ease, and absorb it into the inner bodies with much less difficulty.

As I am speaking to you now, the beloved Serapis is taking his place before the rostrum, and it is his great joy to ask the Brothers and Sisters of the Ascension to create out of their thought, forms of this great Maltese cross before the entire assembly. The Ascension Brotherhood is particularly noted for its power of concentrating thought force, and invoking the universal light to fill it, and condense its vibratory action until it is visible even to the physical sight of unascended mankind.

As I am watching the proceedings, we see this great cross taking form. It is well over one hundred feet high, and very clearly distinguishable, as its periphery seems to be made of a silver substance which clearly defines it from the violet in the atmosphere. Then we witness the drawing of the Violet Fire from the atmosphere into that cross, condensing it just as you would fill a mould with a particular substance. As this is completed, the Brothers of the Ascension then relinquish their places to the great angel devas of ceremony who now, under the direction of the Archangel Raphael, are stepping within this cross and greatly expanding it in size, and it is beginning to pulsate with the motion of their own heart-beat.

Raphael, I know from my own feeling, is preparing them now to carry the replicas of this original cross into the sanctuaries particularly, and into the auras of the students. From the higher atmosphere, more and more of these devas and angelic beings come, and they are drawn, just as the moth is drawn to the flame, into this great cross until it becomes deeper and deeper in color, larger and larger in periphery, and more radiant in its pulsation, which is so rapid now that you can scarcely distinguish it in their outbreath of that flame.

The great Freedom Flame is also expanding and flowing into the cross, which now becomes as large as the entire European continent, and yet the signal has not been given for them to step forth from it. They are still concentrating and drawing more beings into it from the four corners of Earth. This activity is a surprise to me, and a gift of love to my lifestream, as well as yours. I trust, as it takes place, that you may enjoy contributing your energies to the intensification of this great cross which grows until it extends well into the Asiatic continent and down into Africa.

I must soon enter into the heart of the Flame, but I had hoped that they would start the expansion while I was still speaking to you so that you might enjoy it. Beloved Raphael, in answer to my request, now raises his hands, and as they are lowered, you can almost hear the burst of music as the angel devas pass out from the flame—every one of them carrying an exquisite Maltese cross of blazing light. The great devas are carrying some as large as a city, and there are smaller devas and angels who are carrying little crosses no larger than an eight-inch ball.

Let us follow them now as they swing outward. You can hear the song of the Freedom Flame and the rhythm of their motion. They go, instantly, into the sanctuaries, and wherever there is an activity established, the cross is as large as the city, and the deva who carries it settles it down, like a plate, in a parallel form over the entire city, and the heart of the cross stands over the leader of the group. Where there are only isolated members, the cross is always larger than the room in which the activity is held, and the deva holding that then calls to the local angelic kingdom and they are coming and creating little crosses around the individuals, for they love to work with substance.

So it is now before the beginning of our great service. If you were to stand in the atmosphere a mile above the surface of Earth, it would be like looking down at a garden of beautiful Maltese crosses which look a little like pansies, when looking down from above, and in the center, you find the student body in the various countries, each group now preparing for the drawing of the Freedom Flame, and because it is my office, I must address my people. So I leave you with this visualization, and if you will hold it for a few moments, I am sure that you will feel the power that is within it tonight.

Report of the Transmission Flame Activities , July 23, 1953

Beloved Maha Chohan:

I stood in the atmosphere of Earth last Saturday evening, and looking through the murky folds of her aura, I witnessed the beautiful open flowers of the Ascended Masters' retreats and ancient sanctuaries shining like celestial jewels, the heart center of each made up of beautiful God beings, who had offered to take the responsibility for establishing and sustaining such transmission stations themselves. One day there will be permanently established at strategic locations all over the Earth, these foci of the God power in which unascended beings will have earned the right to guard the focused flame which comes only when the Law sees that such a flame will be rhythmically, systematically, reverently and constantly guarded.

This will be the era of the Age of Freedom, and these flames of hope, peace, healing, supply and illumination will be the source at which each spirit may receive the personal impetus to develop and mature through the individual lifestream. These flames will be the BALANCE holding the Golden Age of the Master Saint Germain as the PERMANENT, ETERNAL AGE OF PERFECTION for the planet, and in this small beginning, we see those responding who have, throughout the centuries, drawn, guarded and wielded this flame for the protection and illumination of the civilization in which they lived.

I witnessed, besides the shining immortal glory of the established retreats, the open flowers of the sanctuaries and rooms where some lifestreams had responded to the impetus of this new era, and had, through the love of their hearts, drawn around themselves other devotees of the flame, writing on the Book of Akasha the solemn words, "The guardians of the Flame of God are again ready to apply to the THRONE for the direction of that flame into the atmosphere of Earth, visible and tangible to the physical sight of all mankind, and unto this end do we offer ourselves, our breath, our life, our being!"

It has taken twelve months for that sentence to be written, and the Silent Watcher, herself, drew the energies of the breath of each lifestream who has participated in even one Transmission Class into the focused pen of light with which she wrote those sacred words which represent a spiritual milestone in the evolution of our planet, and because of our planet's debt to the solar system, a milestone in universal progress as well.

The establishment of the transmission centers is the beginning of that preparation for the focused rays from the beings in the heart of the Sun which, through qualified students, may become the master control of the energy and atmosphere of lifestreams that are within the compass of its sphere of influence.

The very breath of the students forms an electrical forcefield—the substance qualified by their own consciousness—which is as large or as small as the collective group's endeavors make possible. This forcefield has been made permanent, even when the group is not in session, and can be used as a “conductor” of particular rays of protective energy which the Masters will, from time to time, choose to direct into the locality where such sanctuaries and sanctified homes are established. Conscious acknowledgment of the forcefield, and conscious feeding of it by a few minutes of cooperative breathing at each class, would greatly increase it in size and strength for those desiring to cooperate in this service.

When this forcefield signifies to the Law that it is strong enough, powerful enough and permanent enough to warrant the establishment of some quality of the Sacred Fire from the higher octaves through it, we shall begin the actual ritual of the descent of the flaming virtues and qualities which are the nature of God. In one locality, the focus may be of healing; in another, of peace; in another, of illumination. The sensitive will easily discern, from this time on, the particular quality which is to be the radiation of that group, or where individuals are unable to join together, the quality which is to radiate through an individual—his home as well as his heart. The great foci, however, will be established where there are sufficient numbers to warrant the investment of the flame, except in those exceptional cases where the priest or priestess has the cosmic momentum of centuries of such service in the temples of the ages when the flame was the manifest expression of “God with us.”

During the first year, the endeavor was to interest lifestreams in the fact that, each thirty days, the Brotherhood focused their love and attention upon one retreat and amplified the quality and power of that retreat for the blessing of the evolution of which they are the guardians.

During this second year, the endeavor will be to prepare, individually and collectively, those who have voluntarily joined this particular activity so that the forcefield of their local endeavors may quickly transmit the flames of God just as the retreats do at present. This requires the purification of each unit, the harmonization of each one's inner bodies, and the balanced control of the breath through personal daily application, so that the collective endeavors, each month, may benefit by such personal application, study, training, and proficiency.

As the beautiful Maltese crosses were established, which description our beloved Saint Germain has given you, he gave the first wave of this qualified power of freedom through the focus of his own electrons—represented by that cross. This added cosmic impetus is now permanently established in the aura and world of each one who participated on the evening of July 18th, and it is a rhythmic motion, just like a sea tide, that sweeps the Freedom Flame through the inner bodies on a beat that takes about a minute. Each time it flows, it dislodges some of the accumulations in the inner and physical bodies, and this continues permanently, aside from the personal application in the use of the Violet Flame, etc.

In a similar manner, through the forcefields around the sanctuaries and homes, the rhythm has been set up, and it flows through the cities, towns and villages where unascended beings abide who have participated in this activity and thus magnetized the flame.

People do not yet understand what a service they may render the environment in which they live by participating in cosmic activities which allow us to focus and maintain the blessings of those cosmic outpourings only when a conscious lifestream has magnetized the blessing through conscious cooperation with the endeavor.

May you proceed throughout this year, beloved children of God, in constant remembrance that you are now preparing to become the guardians, in outer physical action, of those activities of the Sacred Fire which have not been manifest on this Earth in any age, but which form the nucleus of the fire temples around the Sun of our system. Let your every breath, your every thought, your every feeling and action be consecrated to that individual preparation which you have signified your willingness to engaged in by your presence in the Transmission Classes and your interest in their service to the Earth—most of which has not yet been revealed to you.

THE HAND OF GOD

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 2, 1953

The impersonal activity of the Holy Spirit is well represented in the hand because there can be no personality connected with the office and service of the hand when the veil is drawn between that hand and the body from which it ensues. We have heard of the expression, and we have all required the services of, “a helping hand” many times in the course of a lifetime, and oftentimes we knew not from whence that “hand” would come.

The Holy Spirit, in choosing a body through which he wishes to render a service or answer a prayer, must, of necessity, accept the services of a lifestream who wears a garment of flesh, and throughout planet Earth, the Holy Spirit has, many, many times, reached forth a “helping hand” through the wholly unconscious vehicle, and by it has rendered a service of charity, of blessing, and of comfort.

In the activity of the New Age, which will be the final manifestation of an era of great perfection for Earth and her people, every hand of every lifestream will become a hand of the Holy Spirit. The capacity to clench the fist, either in greed or anger, will be replaced by the outstretched hand of blessing, of giving, of raising. The fingers upon the physical hand are indicative of the Chohans of the Rays, and when the Seventh Ray has completed its service to the Earth and its people, the Cosmic hand of the Universal Christ will stand revealed in the heavens, and from its radiant, vibrant fingertips will the advent of the Second Coming flow in unceasing benediction upon the children of Earth.

The dedication of the hands to the Holy Spirit was a most important ceremony in the days of Atlantis. It took place within the temple, and was a most sacred sacrament. Individuals who, after long thought and serious contemplation, chose to relinquish the free will acting of their hands into the greater use of the invisible Deity, would place their hands upon the altar, and through the offices of a priest or priestess of the flame, have those hands united with the cosmic will of the Universal First Cause. Through the centuries, these individuals have carried that particular connection, and their hands have become naturally qualified to soothe, to heal, to convey blessings. This custom of the “consecration of the hands” is pursued down to the present day, when an individual has chosen to dedicate his lifestream to a cause and is admitted into a certain order. There is no limit to the service that life can render through the hands of an unascended being when dedicated to a cause. Like a draft in the army, every man must, sooner or later, give his hands, as well as his heart, to God, but those who volunteer and precede that draft are not only more loved of God, but experience the ecstasy of pre-dedication within themselves. The willing hand, dedicated to the Holy Spirit, can become the hand of God in action.

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 9, 1953

Beloved Ones,

The sweetness of the opportunity of reaching the conscious minds of sincere and earnest students fills my spirit with gratitude before the heart of all life, and I welcome the invitation which has issued from your own life energy by which I may enter your world and become a companion upon your pathway. It is a beautiful experience for us who have so long been denied entrance into the minds and feelings of the race, the members of which we serve, to see the doors of the individual consciousnesses open, pressed by the flame of love and service, and held wide by the faith of the individual spirit which, now commanding the soul, shall arise in the mastery which God intended, and walk, in full freedom, in communion with the Perfected Beings, in service to the bound. We bring freedom that you may dispense it. We bring comfort that you may be such a comforting presence and, in all ways and in all manners, not only represent us, but embody our nature, for it is through you that we may stand manifest to the world of men.

To those who have gathered in the upper chamber and have stood within our presence, comes the opportunity to bear witness to the visitation—not by word, but by living. From the time that the veil of maya closed the consciousness of mankind away from that realm of great perfection in which the wise and the free abide, the Law has required that service which we would render must be conducted through the consciousness of those who stand above the masses—who are yet in the world, but no longer a part of it.

Your responsibility and your opportunity are both without parallel, for where is our profit if you profess communion with us and yet embody not that which mankind seeks—which is the nature of God? Communion goes further, my children, than the word—than even the visible Presence, and no man, no matter how dense the clothing of the senses, is so lost that he cannot perceive the embodied nature of those who have entered into the FEELING of the brothers and sisters who form the Great White Lodge, and who have voluntarily taken upon themselves the obligation to accept chelas and students, voluntarily accepting the karma of each one.

In my position, it is required that the Masters of Wisdom apply always for the acquiescence of my office before the acceptance of a chela into their own worlds. The reason for this lies in the fact that, cosmically speaking, it is my great joy, privilege and honor to draw the great energies from the Sun and delegate them, each according to their proper channel of expression, and knowing the priceless and precious gift of life for what it is, each electron pulsating with the POTENT POWERS of Eternal Life and all the mastery of the Sacred Fire, I can realize what it is to invest energies in a lifestream or in a cause, knowing full well the balance that is required for such an investment, and impersonally weighing the possible benefit, not only of the individual soul, but the race, against the sacrifice entailed by the drawing of the attention and the energies of a Master into the focalized interest of one individual.

Therefore, I can say with great emphasis that those of you who have been accepted as conscious chelas by any member of the Ascended Brotherhood, have received such an honor through merit, because of your possible and potential service to the recalcitrant members of the race, and not because of our particular desire to release you, as individuals, from the wheel of birth and re-birth.

In the past, the evolution of the individual formed the basic interest of the White Lodge, and the acceptance of a disciple by a guru was acknowledged, above as below, to be predominantly based on the assumption that the one unit desiring to rise above the masses might ultimately be free, and such individuals, leaving the slower progress of the race and entering into the aura of the guru, did often attain their victory and pass into their eternal liberation, BUT, the dispensation under which individuals, today, are given the blessing and the attention of the Masters is based on the SERVICE that can be rendered the race as a whole, and the measure of such association will be determined by the balance offered to the Cosmic Law by each such a one.

We are not in a day or a time when entertainment of the intellect or peace to the sea of emotion is the order that brings the presence of the gods. We are in an hour when we are willing and desirous of investing countless tons of primal substance (by which creation takes place and is sustained) in any lifestream, no matter what the condition of the vehicle in which it functions, providing such a one is willing to live now for the cause. Rather the sinner intent upon the evolution of the race than the saint intent upon his own.

It is required of me, by the Karmic Board, to bring again to the attention of those at present basking under the passing illusion that we have little to do but paint pictures of our individual activities for the pleasure of any self. We stand at the end of time, and it is only because of our love for Earth and the evolutionary beings imprisoned upon it, that I have chosen to acquiesce to this experiment.

It is difficult indeed when one, by nature, loves, then, to remain impersonal enough to consider only the balance of energy in the granting of a favor or the withholding of a grace, but in the wider scope of illumined consciousness, seeing well what each grant requires in balance from the soul so favored, sometimes it is fairer, by far, to withhold more knowledge, more counsel (with its resultant obligation to show results before the Court of Heaven) than it would be to grant that which love would indicate to be pleasing to the hungry, knowing that the tenacity of spirit, the integrity of the soul, and the constancy of the nature are not yet unfolded to a point where the full significance of such investment of both the time and counsel can be grasped.

In July, when we appeared before the great Karmic Board, it was pleasurable indeed to show the tremendous release of the Flame of the Sacred Fire through the Transmission Classes, and this alone was the balance which we could offer to the Cosmic Law as proof that our investment was not in vain.

But as you have come to understand, our endeavor now is to draw the powers of the Sacred Fire through these established foci. The individual development of the guardian priest or priestess becomes essential, and I am drawing each one with such a potential within my aura at Ceylon in an endeavor to convey to the consciousness, through the etheric envelope, that individual mastery and balance must precede the release of these gifts and powers, which can form the control of every appearance which might be spewed forth on the screen of maya, not only from the consciousness of the race embodied, but from the vast solidified mass of etheric creations that have not been redeemed, but which, like the frozen ice of the North, have been mercifully atrophied in order that a race could survive. Even this, ere Earth's redemption can manifest, must be purified, redeemed, and transmuted.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Oh, my beloved, blessed children, can you feel, with me, the joy in the hearts of those of us when we can part that curtain that has so long separated you from our sight and our hearing, and say, with sufficient clarity to pierce through the doors of your sense—we love you with all the love of a cosmic mother, with all the love embodied in the radiation of the Holy Spirit, whom it is my honor, my privilege, my obligation and my responsibility to represent to the life evolving upon this small Earth today?

You can, perhaps, understand the gratitude that wells up within my own heart flame to find you at the doorway of eternal freedom, for I have watched your footsteps; I have watched your coming and your going. It is my honor to be the guardian presence on the path, when once the light has expanded to a point where the figure of the Golden Man is drawn out of that small spark which has represented, up to that point, your individuality through form.

The great elemental kingdom, which has chosen to create your rivers, your valleys, your hills, and all the glories that are nature, is localized, for the most part, and held within a natural orbit. Some of them, the small and dainty ones, never pass outside the sphere of a few small yards, living their lives developing the grasses and the flowers in someone's sweet garden. Others, the larger ones, perhaps live their lives within a mountain or a lake, but they are all localized and do not travel.

Particularly, since mankind, through discord, has created antagonism between the two kingdoms, has the Cosmic Law more and more powerfully stressed the Law that these beings be leashed within these local spheres, lest they all rush away from the great cities where discord, impurity, and imperfection drive against their fine bodies, and mankind would find that without the assistance of the elemental kingdom, life itself could no longer be sustained. But when love, consciously generated, is released through a corporate body of unascended beings, even the Cosmic Law itself bends its head, and there is no sphere from whence these beings cannot be drawn for the blessing of love.

Mankind, for the most part, does not even know that the members of the elemental kingdom have being, and they know not that they (mankind) live by the sacrifice of this great unseen kingdom, the members of which work unceasingly, day and night, to keep the pollution of the effluvia of mankind from smothering them, even to the point where the breath could not be drawn into the nostrils or sustained within the form. Would that there were individuals or groups interested in blessing this kingdom—in making friends with the kingdom of nature. You must remember that they are of an innocent consciousness, like small children for the most part, and they desire, always, to render a balance for love. I would humbly suggest that, within the activity of your class work, there are no heights to which you cannot reach in invoking the assistance of the elemental kingdom in balancing these extremes that are manifesting at the present time through weather conditions. IF, ON EVERY CONTINENT, EVEN ONE SUCH GROUP WOULD BE ESTABLISHED WITH THE MOTIVE OF JUST LOVING THEM, AND NOT FOR THE SERVICE THEY MIGHT RENDER, WE COULD HANDLE THE BALANCING OF THEIR ACTIVITIES, WHICH OTHERWISE RESULT IN CATAclysmic FORCES RELEASED.

Now may I take you on a journey away from the world of form? You are no longer among those who desire to be comforted. All of life inherently has within the heart-beat that desire, but your names are written on the Scroll of Life as those who desire to be a comforting presence. Therefore, each one of you, individually, becomes my disciple; becomes, according to your capacity, your perception, and your application, myself in action—in your own home, in your own service, and then, in your greater development, cosmically.

In order to be such a comforting presence, I want you to take that journey into the secret place within your own heart. Just for a moment, stand there and listen to the music of the electronic light as it is released from the Presence, enters the heart, is inverted, and becomes that beautiful Threefold Flame of eternal truth. Listen to the harmony within your own light, and then you will feel that light as it begins to flow through your bodies as life, no longer seized by the appetites of the feelings, of the mind, of the etheric memories or of the flesh, but moving outward in that same musical radiation until it just blankets all the energy around you—at first for just two or three feet in every direction, and later, with practice, expanding to an unlimited degree.

The flame is the conductor through which I and every other son and daughter of Heaven may direct the quality, the virtue, the momentum and the gifts of our own lifestreams for the blessing of man. As your attention is on that flame, you can have the same experience that the disciples had who gathered together in the upper chamber—the feeling of my comfort to life riding forth on your own energy into the world of men. You will never know the fullness of comfort in your own feeling until you can, at will, direct that flame consciously to be the master control of the energy within and around you, according to the requirement of the hour—for comfort is manifold, my children, and each experience of your daily life will require of you a different activity in order to be a comfort to those you contact. In some, the requirement may be for peace of mind; in others, the comfort may be for the manifestation of supply; in others, it may be in the melting of a creation of hate or confusion. All are manifestations of comfort, and when you have learned to let your own heart flame, like an open lotus flower, just conduct my substance of comfort, then whatever the requirement of the hour may be, I will give you my momentum and, through you, will render the service.

I give to you today the full momentum of my own magnetic fire. Seize upon it in your feelings and accept it, for it is only as real to you as your ability to accept it. Now, as I speak, I am recording into the substance and energy of your etheric bodies, into the vibratory action of your feeling worlds, as well as into the pliable substance of your thought bodies, the truth that I am as close to you as your call to me for comfort either for yourselves or, through you, to others.

Today I invite you into a closer association. We desire to be friends with the people of Earth, for there is a mystic bond in friendship that can render such a mighty service, not only to the bound lifestream, but to the free. So I accept your friendship, and I trust that you will accept mine.

On behalf of my seven sons; on behalf of the great Lord of the World, the Lord Buddha and Lord Maitreya, I bless you for yourselves, for your light, for your presence in this universe, and for your love of each other and the elemental kingdom. I thank you.

August 16, 1953

Waiting in the octaves of light and beauty, there are a great number of selected spirits who have spent anywhere from five to one hundred years in the schoolrooms of the Masters of Wisdom, learning the law of their own Godhood, and the way and means by which the flame within their hearts might be utilized to hold a connection with their own Presence, with their cosmic teachers, with the vision which has become their own through study (along with their brothers and sisters, who are to incarnate with them, in order to hasten the coming of the new day).

These beings are to embody within the next five to seven years, and they must be born under the old dispensation, unless the Lords of Karma can be led to believe that it would be to the advantage of the race for a number of these people to receive a grant which would allow them to bring back the memory of past lives, not only when they were in physical embodiment, but particularly during their sojourn at the inner levels.

These souls have, for the most part, volunteered both to study at inner levels in the temples of the Masters and to devote and dedicate their lives, upon taking embodiment, to try to awaken the masses. This is their responsibility and their true service, and we, who have been their sponsors, their guides, and their teachers, particularly regret to see these souls born in the bonds of forgetfulness, and their mighty spirits hampered by new physical brains which, for the most part, will not be of development sufficient to draw forth the fullest vibrations held in their Holy Christ Selves.

We have, through Kuthumi's intervention, advanced their cause before the Lords of Karma, and we were referred, by these Karmic Lords, to the people of Earth, with the recommendation that if we could secure the cooperation and intervention of some members of the race in this cause, and would bring the petition before the Lords of Karma again, showing that we had secured sufficient application, that this grant might be given to us on behalf of these spirits. I am hoping that there will be enough chelas interested in this cause to give us the desired application.

The spirit for whom this service is rendered would be obliged to appear personally before the Lords of Karma, because when the band of forgetfulness is removed, the individual would remember both good and evil, and unless his karma was properly expiated, the weight of remembrance would be too much for the emotional body to stand when added to the experiences of the current life. When an individual incarnates, he is allotted so much karma for that embodiment. When the statement was made, "the Lord fits the back for the burden," this is what was inferred, and therefore it is not expedient to remove this blanket law until the forgiveness of sin has wiped out the memories of mankind's PERSONAL HATES AND PREJUDICES.

However, where souls have very little destructive karma, or else such a tremendous generosity of nature that it does not harbor past error, I feel that the Lords of Karma would, in these circumstances, be willing to make the grant, not only for the discarnate spirits mentioned above, but for those already incarnate, and may I say here that when one has lost the capacity to retain an ill-feeling in his life, he is ready to enter this dispensation, if granted. BUT, if the lifestream, in this embodiment, can yet hold ill-will to another, it is proof positive that if the past were known in its fullness, that ill-will would be a greater intensity.

If I could show you those shining and beautiful beings who are awaiting embodiment, I am sure that I would have no difficulty in securing both your interest and your cooperation, as well as your sincere assistance on our behalf in this petition.

August 30, 1953

As the bee and the hummingbird are drawn to the sweet nectar within the flower, so are we drawn into the world of form through the love in the hearts of those who choose to invite us into their presence.

I shall never cease to bow my head in gratitude before the invitation of a son of man incarnate who desires to invest some of his time and energy in communion with any member of our Hierarchy, for it is in the opportunity thus afforded us that we are enabled to infiltrate the word of God and his truth into the consciousness of mankind.

Today I come in the name of the Holy Spirit, and I come to give you, perhaps, a feeling of his nature. I am the representative of the Holy Spirit to Earth. I would like to explain that to you so that, on occasion, if you choose, you may, in turn, illumine the consciousness of those you contact in regard to this particular office, for if the people become acquainted with it, perhaps in time they, too, will apply for understanding, and I may be privileged, in that repetition, to assist another member of the race to develop into God maturity.

The Holy spirit is the FEELING WORLD of God, himself. It contains within itself every feeling of virtue and beauty and harmony and perfection that the human mind can conceive, as well as many qualities that, unfortunately, you are not even acquainted with mentally. The representative of the feeling world of God for each planet has the opportunity, as well as the responsibility, to develop through the feeling world of every lifestream, the same spirit of holiness in which all the God nature is consciously embodied and radiated at will.

Planet Earth, as you know, is a planet of the evolution and development, particularly, of the feeling world, and mankind, in activated ideas of every kind, is constantly using life, and the spirit in which he USES that life determines the efficacy of manifestation. People proceed in the spirit of mischief, the spirit of fun, the spirit of malicious intent, and I could go on and on enumerating indefinitely, but it is the qualification of the energy of the feeling world—in other words, the feeling which determines your action, whether physical or mental—that determines your karma.

This is very hopeful, particularly for earnest hearts and souls, who endeavor to assist life with the feeling of helpfulness and a desire to benefit, and even if the action does not produce the effect desired, there is no karma of destructive merit. BUT, when the feeling world is geared toward destructive intent, that is the sin which is preached in the orthodox churches as “the sin against the Holy Ghost” which is unforgivable.

The seven Chohans each embody one of the supreme qualities of God—the spirit of divine will, the spirit of wisdom, the spirit of tolerance, the spirit of beauty and genius, the spirit of mathematical balance and scientific perfection, the exquisite spirit of devotion, and the spirit of ritual. Before one is entitled to hold the office of the Holy Spirit, he is required to incorporate all these qualities in himself.

Beloved ones, in your feeling worlds, you embody, particularly, the quality of life which is the natural spirit of your lifestream, but it is subject to constant change through the pressure of your feeling worlds, and it is my endeavor, through the chelas who have been drawn into my radiation, to help you consciously to create a spirit of helpfulness, a spirit of optimism, a spirit of faith and reverence—of positive assurance, of sanctity, before you draw the energies of life forth to perform even the slightest activity in this physical appearance world. Don now the vestments of your spiritual nature, which make every activity of life a ritual of rhythmic harmony and balance. This is the service which the Seventh Ray will bring to the consciousness of all mankind in time.

The beloved Master Saint Germain has said that your activities of daily living should be a ritual of ordered service, and this, which I am bringing to your attention today, is to intensify that consciousness within you, that your ceremonial activities are not merely to be confined to the group work and sanctuary worship. You are drawing, molding, directing and releasing life, waking and sleeping, twenty-four hours out of every twenty-four, and the vestments of your feeling world determine, for the most part, whether you are living within the natural harmony of the Holy Spirit, or within the caprice of the uncontrolled emotional vehicle which, in sullenness or hurry, in zeal or depression, drives these living human qualities into the food that is being eaten, the bed that is being made, the letter that is being written, or even the steps that you take upon a stair, the manner in which a door is opened or closed, a car driven or a horn sounded.

It is to infiltrate the understanding of life into the daily, hourly living that makes the “theory” of the Master manifest fact. Oh, beloved ones, if you can understand that your daily life can become this ritual of harmonious expression of the Holy Spirit through your own feeling world, that your life may become SANCTIFIED as it flows from your fingertips, from your lips, your eyes, the soles of your feet, from your heart, then the so-called monotonous and “hum-drum” experiences of everyday living can become such happy and joyous opportunities of qualifying with comfort and beauty this beautiful and impersonal life as it flows through you—wholly dependent upon the feeling world of each receiver for the garment it must wear in form.

Beloved ones, I love life so much, and I always want to bring you comfort, hope and promise, and never to point, in any way, to conditions in your worlds or experiences that are limiting your service, and I congratulate you on the fact that you know now, in your feelings, that we are REAL and desirous of helping you.

If you will allow me, daily, before you start into even the simplest action of turning on the faucet or combing your hair, to give you the FEELING of the Holy Spirit, and if you will become still enough to accept it, then the energy of your feeling world will be activated by holiness, and as you proceed into your activities of the day, you can do so in that harmonious, gentle, impersonal manner which allows your life to flow forth as a caress to everyone you contact. If this were practiced, there could never be exhaustion or depression, and at the end of a twelve-hour period of service, the physical form would be as refreshed as when you began—and more so. I give you now the blessings of the Cosmic Holy Spirit, and hope that you will don the vestments of your own Holy Spirit every morning before proceeding on your course.

Beloved Maha Chohan

With the interest in the activities of the Transmission Flame running so high, I think it only fair and kind to your outer consciousness to turn our attention first toward the description of that magnificent activity, so that you may enjoy the beautiful spiritual service which your own life energy makes possible through your voluntary and kindly cooperation with our humble suggestion.

Oh, the joy that rises in the heart, when the consciousness is aware of accomplishment through the individual's dedicated life energy. I hope that the day will soon dawn when your inner sight is opened, and every earnest and sincere heart, interested in the invocation and direction of the Sacred Fire, may see the instantaneous response of intelligent energy rushing forward to God-accomplishment as the consciousness, through the vision, the invocation, or the breath itself, chooses to mould into some constructive endeavor, the substance of the living body of God.

How can I describe to you the beauty of Kashmir—the natural peace which has been builded there through the centuries of adoration to God, the aura of tranquility and harmony which forms the setting of the spiritual jewel whose great unselfish service is to bring ILLUMINATION, and through it, freedom to the sons of men? In the heart of these beautiful Kashmiri Hills, the elevation was chosen which was to be the chalice into which the Spiritual Flame for God-Illumination would be spoken, and from whence it would flow, through this current thirty-day period. An altar of natural stone was erected, and the brothers' skill entwined between the stones the green vine and the yellow lotus flowers, until no portion of the stone surface was visible, the altar looking as though it were made of flowers that, through my humble cooperation, have not faded, nor will fade, throughout this entire period.

The center of the altar was left open for the focused flame, and beloved Sanat Kumara, the beloved Lord Buddha, Lord Maitreya, the Master Kuthumi, and the beloved Manu of our race, in all the exquisite golden glory which is symbolic of the ray which we honor, took up their physical presence before the altar itself. A great semi-circle was made, facing the altar, with the center seats being occupied by the beloved Jesus and Mary, also clothed in that lovely yellow. Around them were gathered the great teachers who, from the beginning of recorded time, endeavored, through their own life energy, to carry the word of God to man. In all, there were forty-nine members in this group—representative of the Law—some from Lemuria, Atlantis, Egypt, Babylon, China, India, Persia, and every known place where the light was once drawn and expanded through an incarnate lifestream.

In my office, as representative of the Holy Spirit, I was asked to focus over this gathering a great white dove, symbolic of the Cosmic Holy Spirit, which has breathed through all religions and all the spiritual education that has ever activated truth, or through any compilations or complexities of truth that have stirred the souls and spirits of men since the beginning of time. Over Asia, this great dove was established with a wing-spread that reached out across Korea into the Pacific Ocean, and over into continental Europe. At a given moment, the beloved Lord Maitreya asked the forty-nine great leaders to rise—making a great semi-circle before the altar. Their bodies took the appearance of great petals of flame, forming the Cosmic Lotus that was to be the pulsating center of the radiation and blessings which were to be the core of the evening's activities.

Through the magnetic pull of the mighty teachers of the past, who drew the attention, faith and conviction of great masses of people who followed their individual religions, over half of the incarnate lifestreams on Earth were present, and through the kindness and mercy of the Karmic Law, all the discarnates who had belonged to these different faiths were also invited, and hovered around the great leaders who represented their religion while in incarnate form.

Preceding the actual moment when the pulsation of the flame began, exquisite angel devas wearing garments of lemon yellow, with garlands of flowers of the same delicate color on the heads, entered into every sanctuary and home where even one lifestream was consciously taking part in the Transmission Service, as well as into every church, synagogue, and metaphysical temple in that locality, so that the entire planet was wired, one might say, for the release and illumination of all mankind through the combined life-energies of the particular units or groups taking part in the transmission, through the spiritual complements of some of the members of the race, and through the angelic kingdom.

At the time appointed, the beloved Kuthumi and Lord Maitreya gave the signal for the release, and through those forty-nine petals of the cosmic flower, the entire multitude and I (through the medium of the Holy Spirit) directed our rays into the heart of the flame, and then the blessing and illumination began to pour forth on the first breath. The melody that went forth on the flame was not unlike the one that is sung in the churches called "Faith of our Fathers." For the ensuing thirty-minute period, each of these forty-nine leaders intensified and increased the spiritual understanding as it was carried by the breath of the student body all around the world. It was the most magnificent cooperative endeavor that we have seen manifested since mankind chose to separate the worship of God into “isms” and sects that form the modern checkerboard of spiritual comprehension.

The entire activity of this thirty-day period is concerned with bringing understanding to the consciousness of those who profess to lead the great masses of people along many lines of spiritual thought which form the present credos.

This is a small outline of the exquisite release that went forth from the hearts of the Brotherhood assembled at Kashmir, and you are invited to tune in at any time during this thirty-day period to the pulsations of understanding and illumination that are vibrating constantly through this mighty cosmic lotus flame.

Beloved ones, it is with a feeling of sincere gratitude and pleasure that I acknowledge receipt of the many responses to my appeal for your interest and cooperation, on behalf of those blessed spirits mentioned in the Bulletin of August 16th, who are desirous of re-embodiment in the course of the next five to seven years, that Earth might have the benefit of their radiation and the knowledge they have attained during their stay in the octaves of light, especially during the crucial period which she will be called upon to pass through, in the next twenty years. In answer to many inquiries as to how you might assist in this endeavor, I would suggest:

(1) That you make daily calls to the Lords of Karma on their behalf, asking that they may be allowed to come into embodiment exempt from the restrictions of suspended memory, which would limit the service they are eager to give.

(2) I would ask that through the power of the Sacred Fire in one of Saint Germain's Temples of Mercy, every vestige of human creation—with all its memories and tendencies, causes and effects—may be erased from their consciousness.

(3) That through cosmic love they may not tie themselves to the karma of family, race or nation, which freedom would allow them to serve anywhere on the Earth's surface without strain on either mental or emotional bodies.

(4) That these blessed ones may take up their earthly habitations in families of exemplary virtue, both in inner and outer expression.

Regarding this “band of forgetfulness,” I would like to explain that it is most expedient that a brother from beloved Kuthumi's Temple of Wisdom stand by their sides always, to guard, guide and protect them, until they grow into the full conscious knowledge of their own Christ Selves. You might add this invocation to your list of calls. This represents a unique and most important service to the evolution of the planet, and is the result of a personal petition by both Kuthumi and myself before the Lords of Karma. It should also help tremendously in the restoration of the divine memory of the more advanced members of the race, and should encourage individual efforts toward the transmutation of the human nature, it being obvious that the band of forgetfulness cannot be loosened in the individual until all traces of tendencies to hate and resentment are eliminated from the consciousness. If these qualities are still present in the lifestream when the memory is restored, they are apt to be stirred to new life and intensity, especially should one encounter those who were connected with those unpleasant experiences of the past. This, needless to say, would retard the soul growth, and would not serve any end. We are, as it were, throwing out many celestial hints at this time, due to the importance of the hour, and I rejoice that so many of you have been so quick to respond.

Beloved Ones,

Knowing your interest in the great half-yearly councils, I have asked my beloved son, Kuthumi, to give you a resume of the scenes enacted there, the events leading up to the petitions to the Lords of Karma, and the considerations taken into account by that august body before these dispensations are granted.

Dear Friends of Love and Light,

The beloved Maha Chohan has asked me to touch lightly upon the activities preceding the grants in the half-yearly council, and with your permission, I shall endeavor to do so.

When the great Lords of Karma gather and take their thrones at the mighty conclave in your own beloved Rocky Mountains, opportunity is afforded to every Master, every retreat, every angel, deva, cherubim and seraphim whose life is dedicated to the forwarding of God's plan on Earth, to apply for and receive energy to further increase the manifestations of their particular plan or petition. Of this you are already aware.

The grants and dispensations, up until the last few years, were dependent entirely upon the energies we could secure at inner levels, because there was no way of contacting the outer minds of the millions who would voluntarily contribute their energies if they knew of the activities taking place, but since you have responded so marvelously, so happily, so wholeheartedly to our endeavors, since you have directed your energies and your consciousness to our conclaves and meetings, the energy has been increased a thousand times over that which was our offer before the Karmic Board in the past.

Therefore, for every petition we make now (if the students are aware of them in advance), we can offer the combined energies of all the students, whether they belong to sanctuaries or pursue their course at home, and for every one petition granted in previous times, we now receive one hundred. Can you understand what that means?

I have seen beings from China and India who have made the same petitions for ten thousand years, some wonderful plan for relieving mankind's mental or physical distress, and at the completion of their plea, not one soul stood and offered his energy to help them. At the next council, the same kindly, patient individual would present his plan again, with the same negative results. You will realize, then, how I felt when every petition that was offered received response, and when the souls among the human race yet unascended stood and offered their energy, every Master's face shone with acknowledgment and gratitude for the energy offered in forwarding the cause so close to their hearts.

You will be pleased to know that I have received a grant for something for which I have been asking for a long time—that is to equalize the development of the seven bodies of the students and chelas. It was after this that we sat together, the Divine Director, Lord Maitreya, the Maha Chohan and myself, and we developed a series of talks which would enable you to understand and feel us as persons, and to develop the feeling between us as between two individuals, and that association through the veil is not fraught with magic, fear or uncertainty. That is why we come to you now in these informal talks, that you might enter into that friendship with us which is built upon cooperative endeavor. So, be happy, be joyous, be loving in our mutual love and friendship.

Beloved Ones,

The following is a description of the activities at the Transmission Ceremony, which was held this month at the retreat of my beloved son, Paul, known to you as the Venetian, Chohan of the Third Ray. The report is by the beloved Kuthumi, and I know that you will enjoy it.

Address by Beloved Kuthumi, Saturday Evening,
September 19, 1953

Good evening, beloved Friends of Liberty,

Many times, in the course of the centuries, has your love of liberty caused you to rise, individually, and at no small personal cost, pursue a path toward a land, a goal, where you, individually, might weave the energies of your own lives according to the dictates of your conscience, the impulses of your own Christ Self, and the earnest, honest, and sincere beliefs of your faith of a given hour.

Tonight man is again given the opportunity of worshipping at the throne of the Goddess of Liberty, and within the great retreat guarded by the Chohan of the Third Ray, they feel the spiritual impetus of the Immortal Flame within the heart which is liberty in design, and manifest God-mastery, because that is its pre-ordained destiny, and the reason for which it has been sustained within the hearts of mankind for countless eons of time.

Why do you think a canopy of love, a guardian power of angels and Masters and devas would sustain that immortal Threefold Flame of Life within the least of men, except that they knew consciously that within that flame was the POTENTIAL POWER by which each soul might be transmuted into mastery and God-dominion?

Tonight I point you, as my own Guru did before me, to the majestic power of the Threefold Flame of Life within the heart, within which is healing, within which is illumination, and from which is woven supply. Out of its essence is designed every prospective power by which the soul could move through the most intense discord and be untouched. It is the pathway of light upon which the spirit rises to its own eternal freedom. It is the majestic power which holds the very physical form, each atom, in its perfect place, each organ in its natural orbit, and restrains the elemental life from flying back to its freedom in the heart of the Sun.

Within the Immortal Flame of Life is the call which must be answered by deva, angel and God, but man uses it not, and the priceless stream of electronic light flowing into it, is spilled in imperfect living.

As we enter the heart of the Venetian's retreat, we, who are dedicated to loosing the power of that flame, and bringing to the consciousness of the outer mind a realization of the manifold activities that are within it, are determined that, for those who desire liberty in order to pursue the course of mastery, the powers of this flame shall be manifest. Are you so determined? We shall see.

Tonight, the sanctuary, wherein the Liberty Flame is focused, has been opened, not only to the Brotherhood of Earth and our universe, but also from the Suns which stand behind Helios and Vesta, and from their planets and satellites, have come the Beings who represent the Lords of the Flame, individuals who, like the mankind of Earth, evolved an understanding of the power of that God-given gift—which is the immortality of the soul.

Not only on Venus do the Lords of the Flame live, but on every God-free planet. They have come, and shall remain within the aura of this sanctified retreat, to give the pressure of their feeling to any lifestream who chooses to enter within this sanctuary and, in the inner bodies, learn the law of centripetal and centrifugal force as controlled through the heart-beat.

You have come to know Sanat Kumara as the Lord of the Flame, but this great Master is only ONE representing a single planet. There are Lords of the Flame on every superior planet of every system. It is a beautiful sight to see all these Great Ones clothed in garments of spotless and seamless white—the Threefold Flame within their hearts filling their entire bodies from beneath their feet to about three feet above their heads and making an aura of more than three feet in diameter around them. They are deliberately imprinting the power of the immortal Threefold Flame upon the inner sight of all the gathered chelas so that whoever enters this assembly within the current thirty-day period will see everything muted before this concentrated flame.

The sanctuary itself is beautiful, with the glorious Liberty Flame rising from the altar about twelve feet. The Venetian stands to the right of it, clothed completely in an exquisite shade of emerald green—his tunic, his mantle, his scepter. This beautiful shade seems to enhance the golden glory of his hair, making of him a truly magnificent figure. To the left stands Lord Maitreya in pure white—the Threefold Flame within his heart clearly revealed through his light body.

As each Brother enters, the flame on the altar takes on a deeper hue, and increases in intensity due to the power of his presence.

The Brothers have decorated the altar completely in the Fleur-de-Lis in both the blue and white shades, arranged in urns of exquisite design in crystal, marble and alabaster, emphasizing the power of the threefold nature of divinity.

The beloved Maha Chohan and the other Chohans are already seated, and are engaged in an activity which has not been described before. As each Master enters contemplation, he emphasizes his own magnetic power, and consciously draws toward him the chelas and devotees who work with him. Thus, whether their bodies are asleep or consciously cognizant of his presence, he draws them here, and it is interesting to see them come in, one by one, and in groups. Jesus has drawn many from the orthodox channels, and while a few of these seem to be on the timid side regarding this new action of the Law, nevertheless, they have come and seem interested. Lord Michael is magnetizing the discarnates, and millions of them have already gathered.

Sanat Kumara is now entering, and everybody rises. He carried, amazingly, the brazier in which is held the Threefold Flame for the Earth. This he puts within the Liberty Flame on the altar, and then takes his place in the center of the audience, with two of the Kumaras on each side. The Lord Buddha has not yet arrived. There must be a cosmic reason for this which, no doubt, the Maha Chohan will explain later.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 4, 1953

While we are yet in the radiation of the retreat which is under the direction of the Chohan of the Third Ray, beloved Paul the Venetian, I would like to point out to you that the activity and service of this particular ray is to develop brotherhood, tolerance and understanding in their widest and most spiritual sense. The beloved Venetian is empowered through this ray to assist to understanding every lifestream who wishes to rise above the separateness which forms the ceiling of the consciousness of the masses, and to help them cultivate a sympathy with, and an understanding of, the people with whom they come in contact, that, through understanding, they may be assisted, each one, in the development of their own God-mastery. We are, therefore, continuing, in a measure, the activities which formed the basis of the thirty-day period in the retreat in Kashmir, in emphasizing the tenets of world brotherhood and the fundamental truths which lie as a basis beneath all the evolved religions of the human race.

In the Western Hemisphere there are less third ray men embodied than in the East. However, there is a quality and nature that must be encouraged, particularly through those who desire to assist great numbers, that is, the faculty to develop the flame of sincere interest in one's fellowmen. I therefore encourage, with great pressure and feeling, the direction of the consciousness toward this retreat and this Chohan, that the chela might know and feel the spiritual aspirations within the souls of those who might come to them for assistance.

No man comes into the full powers of his own being until he has become master of the vibration of the third ray, in tolerant understanding, diplomacy and tact, which is the gift of this Chohan to all who seek him.

On the evening of the transmission activity, September 19, 1953, we began the actual creation of the permanent forcefields around the sanctuaries and homes of those who participated in the drawing and direction of the Liberty Flame around the Earth. When I say "forcefield," I would like to describe to you exactly what I mean, in order that you may be able to participate in increasing both the size and quality of that forcefield, for any specific service.

The rays of light directed from the heart, governed, more or less, by the nature of man, have a natural periphery, and the circle created by the outer edge of these rays forms the forcefield of such a one. An intense, dynamic person has a forcefield of greater size than a lethargic person. An individual who has become cognizant of the Threefold Flame within the heart, and who has learned the control of the balanced breath, also has a larger forcefield than the uncontrolled and undeveloped man.

All of the energy from the physical and inner bodies that reaches out to this imaginary circle or periphery, is called his SPHERE OF INFLUENCE, and affects all the life that comes in contact with the quality of the vibration flowing through this forcefield at any given moment.

In a spiritual activity, when a group of individuals gather together, they combine the energies of their lifestreams, and a great artificial forcefield is created, made up of the cooperative energies of all who are gathered there. The nature of the leader, and the amount of qualified energy such a one draws forth through song and decree, visualizations and rhythmic breathing, determine the amount of efficacy that this forcefield can render us in conveying qualified flame, representing a particular virtue or gift which we see will benefit a locality at any given moment. Naturally, when a group disperses, this great artificial forcefield is returned to the universal, and it is the office of the builders of form and the angels of ceremony to recreate it at each class or meeting as the case may be.

Because of the service which we desire to render through the transmission groups, we have asked for permission to sustain the forcefield which is builded of the rhythmic breathing, visualizations and group activities of the transmission centers. The Cosmic Law required that we wait certain months to see if the students would be constant in attending the classes, and show continued enthusiasm in becoming a bridge over which the flame would ride to encircle Earth. We have now been given that grant, and the night of the last Transmission Class, the forcefields created by each group activity were each ensouled by a deva, an angel, or a builder of form who has agreed to remain within it, and represent the heart-beat while the individual students, who have made it up, return to the ordinary course of their daily living.

The importance of this from a spiritual standpoint cannot be overestimated, for it provides for us, over all the landed surface of Earth, certain conductors already harmoniously qualified and permanently pulsating, through which, at a given moment, a flame of protection, of balance, of peace, healing or power may flow to give assistance to a locality which we, with the inner sight, see will require more than ordinary assistance by the Watchers.

If you will be so kind as to give conscious acknowledgment to these forcefields when you next enter within your group activities, you will see that the expansion of your spiritual stimulus, individually, will be greatly benefited because, rather than having to rebuild the stimulus through the group activity, it will be a gathered and sustained momentum from meeting to meeting.

The beloved Silent Watcher of our planet, the Elohim, and the beloved Lord Buddha, from cosmic heights, anchored into those forcefields a small Threefold Flame, which is the pulse beat within the keeping of the deva or angelic form, and as the flame encircled the Earth, each time it went around, it was as though it burst, and blanketed the Earth with sheet-lightning, north, south, east and west, from every such center.

It was the first time in the rhythmic encircling of the planet that the flame, as it touched these forcefields, continued to explode and give this sheet-lightning effect, each explosion larger than the one before, and all releasing the Liberty Flame into the inner consciousness and inner bodies of the race, the chelas, and the elemental kingdom as well. Because of the creation and sustenance of these forcefields, it will be possible to keep this rhythmic motion going continually throughout the thirty-day period, and it will not cease until we enter the new vibratory action of Hilarion's retreat at the close of the cycle.

This date will be remembered as it is the beginning of the establishment of the transmission centers to carry the Sacred Fire, which qualified life is the redemption of all energy, of substance and vibration. This accomplishment marks a milestone for us.

Beloved Children,

You who have responded, through the veil of flesh and through the vibratory action of the outer consciousness, to the magnetic pull of our hearts, and you who have bared your souls to the vital rays of truth, are blessed among the sons and daughters of men.

Today, it is my pleasure to give you a short digest of the addresses on RELIGION and its relation to man's spiritual evolution, as presented by various members of the Brotherhood at the Kashmir Retreat while that august assembly was in session recently.

What, truly, is RELIGION? Is it an opiate for the weary sense, wherein the seeming reality of the distresses of the outer world may, for the moment, be forgotten?

No! Religion is based on a seven-fold principle, and mankind, for the most part, including conscious students of the Law, and even advanced chelas, have not fully understood its seven-fold nature.

In its journey back to God, the soul passes through each of the seven rays.

Surfeited with the enjoyments of the sense and impelled by the divine teacher within the heart, it at last comes to its knees before its Creator, and here you have the action of the FIRST RAY in the invocation of the bemuddled consciousness to learn the WILL OF GOD.

The soul next passes into the radiation of the SECOND RAY and learns the Law of Cause and Effect through the recoil of its own energy, which is the pleasure or pain occasioned by the qualification of the life given into its charge. A little later, under this ray, the divine design of the Hierarchy is explained, and the place where each individual belongs in the great plan. It is the place of ILLUMINATION where, after asking the will of God, the revelation of the divine scheme of things is presented to the earnest soul.

Then the aspirant passes through the portals of the THIRD RAY, and under its radiation, he endeavors to make his understanding of practical value to his fellowman, developing TOLERANCE, UNDERSTANDING, and a sincere deep interest in the spiritual growth and welfare of the race to which he belongs.

He then passes into the FOURTH SPHERE, and looking upon the sordidness and distortion of the life principle which has become his body and environment, he recognizes the truth that BEAUTY, HARMONY, and PERFECTION are God-ordained as part of the RELIGION of the awakened man, and he begins, through the molding of his thought, the purifying power of feeling, and the direction of the Sacred Fire, to externalize that which should be a credit and example to all life.

In the FIFTH SPHERE, following the same pattern, he passes to the illumined understanding of the mathematical accuracy that lies within CREATION, PRECIPITATION, LEVITATION, ETHEREALIZATION and all those powers called mystic by the mind of the undisciplined.

He next passes into the SIXTH SPHERE, having received within himself the gifts that all the preceding rays have offered him, and here he kneels, but this time in THANKSGIVING and DEVOTION for the gifts of life.

Then the Hosannas rise from the heart and lips, the Aves fill the atmosphere, and “Praise God from whom all blessing flow” becomes the illumined heart prayer of the initiate of the Sixth Temple.

Having expressed his gratitude to God through devotion to his Christ Self, to the angelic host, to the Masters of Wisdom, and to his fellowman, he is then ready to pass on into the Seventh, and final, activity of his RELIGION—whether he be Moslem, Jew, Christian, Metaphysician or student of the “I AM”—whatever label he gives to his religion, he then enters the Seventh Sphere.

Here, in the SEVENTH SPHERE, the words of the Master Jesus ring through his consciousness: “Hitherto the Father worketh, but now the Father and I work!” and all of these gifts of energy, all of the teachings of the Brotherhood, and all of the beauty and sacrifice, illumination and devotion gained by the lifestream in its journey through the preceding spheres now become his responsibility to offer on the altar of humanity in ORDERED SERVICE, which is the watchword of Saint Germain, Chohan of the Seventh Ray or Sphere, in which the spiritual traveler now finds himself.

In this Seventh Sphere, knowing the will of God; illumined by understanding; loving his fellowman, the elemental and angelic kingdoms; filled with the beauty and opulence which is his birthright; understanding the powers of centripetal and centrifugal force; heeding the cry that comes from the hearts of the brothers and sisters still in bondage, and answering that cry with hearts overflowing with good—not with the lips, but through the feelings—THAT is the man through whom the ceremonial worship of the Seventh Ray, the final ray, shall be effected.

Next week we shall talk a little more on the nature of religion, and what is expected of the mature man in return for the assiduous care on the part of the Celestial Hierarchy in guiding his footsteps through the various spheres necessary for his spiritual development.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 18, 1953

Beloved Spirits of Immortal Life,

Following up our remarks of last week on religion, I would like to ask you this: What, in your religion, distinguishes you, who are its followers, from the masses? Peace, perhaps! But it must be more than that!

What is meant by the mature man? Saint Germain, Chohan of the Seventh Ray, represents the perfect man to planet Earth. He is the bridge between the kingdoms of the angels, the elementals, and his brother—man. He is the bridge between the Kingdom of Heaven and Earth. It is he who, with outstretched arms, forms within himself the Maltese cross of freedom—the united kingdoms of angels, men and elementals—the angels and elementals making the horizontal or cross arm of the cross, and the Master, wielding the powers of the Sacred Fire united with his own consciousness through his body into Earth, making the upright bar. That is the mature man, and the man who understands religion.

Oh, that I might convey into your feelings the desire that is within Lord Maitreya for your spiritual awakening, which is manifested in the fact that he has ordained that we come, and in speaking our hearts to those who are willing to listen, we are endeavoring to convince your feelings of your ability to change conditions through the direction of the power of your life.

Worship has begun to mean relaxation of the senses, and well can I understand that—seeing, with the inner eye, the desires of the day, how you long for the peace and sanctuary of God, away from the thralldom of your own creations. I do not condemn, for I love you more than you can ever love yourselves, but I DO want you to be what God intended you to be—not what you want for yourselves. I want you to be FREE! I want you to be MASTER! I want you to be that which Saint Germain can utilize as a living example of the free man—in which is embodied the seven-fold nature of religion.

Now be not unduly concerned, for every man is strong in one point out of the seven—which is natural, because each of you is one of seven types. Saint Francis of Assisi achieved his freedom, and found his God walking through the fields, Saint Augustine in a cathedral, Saint Paul walking along the dusty road with bitterness in his heart toward the one who was to be his own great Master. It is a wonderful thing that you have even one facet developed, else you would not be interested in this activity. You would be “gamboling in the fields” with the rest of the race.

At least one of your developed designs of worship is strong enough to have brought you to the feet of the Master and the Cosmic Christ.

Now I want you to do something for me. I want you to take your soul, each day, through the seven temples—one in each sphere. Discipline that soul. Abide for a time in the temple—at least until there is a response to your own vibration. If you are proud and stiff-necked, and your knee knows not the capacity to bend, kneel at the feet of the great Morya and learn from him the joy of surrender, and to say: “Thy will, my God, be done—not mine!”

If you are mentally lazy, and prefer to have another design your religion for you, enter into the heart of the Temple of Love in the Second Sphere, and demand God's illumination from within. Leave not that temple until understanding, not born of another's word, but your own, makes service a happiness. Do you know why men make the practice of religion a duty? Because they are building their faith on someone else's word. Therefore, the practice of their religion is performed through duty and fear, without feeling its truth—just because some other part of life has said so. Oh, when your heart flame has revealed to you the cause behind the action, you will serve like the angels; your feelings will be happy, and your hearts will sing.

Do you find that loving your fellowman is a chore? Then keep your soul centered in the Third Sphere, under the great Venetian Master until you hear the cry in the heart of that fellowman, until you sense his struggle, his hopes, his needs. Do not leave it, children of my bosom, until you FEEL that love. This is my own temple as well.

Do you believe in austerity, in self-denial, rigid surrender of all your senses to the penitential doctrine built into your sweet lives through early living when the hair shirt and the vow of poverty were considered a virtue? Then abide for awhile in the Fourth Realm. Observe the garments of the angels and the beauty of your own Celestial Mother, and the divine perfection of the heart of the God-self—not for vanity, mind you, but because the world needs beauty.

Suppose that I made all your flowers square, or black, or green, with no perfume—conserving on the energy required to put color and scent within the flowers? Where would man be? Oh, it is good to pour beauty into the world when the motive is to bring happiness to life. Do you see?

Then, on your journey into the Fifth Sphere, where the great Hilarion and the Goddess of Truth abide, watch the combination of the rays that make certain powers available. Look at love mathematically, and see how it draws the goodness of life toward itself. Ask the Master to show you a vortex of hate and see how it repels money, friends, and every good thing, and there confirm your faith by practical witness.

And the Sixth Temple—oh, I do not have to urge you to enter here, but I would have you elaborate on the manifold blessings in your individual life. Mark them off one by one, if you can count them! Draw into your feeling world the love of the Master Jesus, which permeates this sphere, and do not leave it until you have felt that peace which fills the atmosphere of that holy realm.

You are now ready to enter the Seventh, and final, Sphere, and here you may consciously step into the arms of the sacred love of the Sacred Fire, asking the loving presence within its heart to remove from your four lower bodies every human tendency—raising them by its divine alchemy into the perfection of itself.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 25, 1953

Beloved Children of the One Father,

A THOUGHTFORM IS A PRODUCT OF THE CREATIVE PROCESS OF THE MIND. IT IS THE RESULT OF DRAWING ENERGY FROM THE UNIVERSAL SUBSTANCE AND MOLDING IT INTO A CERTAIN PATTERN WHICH FORMS A 'CUP' OF SMALL OR LARGE DESIGN. THIS 'CUP' IS THEN FILLED WITH THE ELECTRONIC LIGHT SUBSTANCE THAT VIBRATES AT THE SAME RATE AS THE ORIGINAL THOUGHT PATTERN. Therefore, your thoughtform can vary greatly in its effect upon your individual life, and the universe in which you live.

Every time a person reads a book or listens to a lecture, the process of creating thoughtforms, begins immediately in the outer mind, because every word written or spoken contains within itself a mental picture, and a corresponding thoughtform is exuded from the lifestream. When an individual has been a student or scholar for centuries the mental body is a tremendous conglomeration of such thoughtforms, and is not, therefore, as pliable or fluidic as that of one who has not drawn such a quantity of mental force into himself—but on the other hand, the student or scholar has built up a power of concentration and precision in creating thoughtforms far beyond the individual who very seldom uses his intellectual faculties.

Therefore, when the student or scholar, with great intensity, consumes the hundreds of thousands of unnecessary thoughtforms that have cluttered his mental world, including preconceived ideas of spiritual truths, he clears the way for the creation of very clear and definite thoughtforms which can be used to fulfill his or her divine plan, and because of his very momentum of thinking, he is closer to the precipitating power than the unthinking individual. This consuming process is done through the use of the Sacred Fire.

It is safe to say that the great majority of the students of Saint Germain belong to the positive thinking class of individuals described above, because each one has, of his own free will, chosen to accept the truth that the redemption of the race is an individual process, made possible only through the complete surrender of each one's outer mind to the nature and direction of the indwelling Christ Self that beats the heart of every man.

Such a person then, in his contemplation, can begin consciously to create thoughtforms of a highly spiritual nature. He can form a picture of the Threefold Flame in his mind, or the faces of the Masters, or the beautiful forms of the angels, or any expression of beauty that his heart desires, and these "cups" will immediately start, through the magnetic power of attraction, to draw the substance from the hearts of the Perfected Beings whose thought images he is creating, and these creations will form his environment, bringing beneficial results into his world. You could sit entirely alone, and through the projection of these powerful concentrated thoughtforms, enrich the lives of mankind without limit. They could be a mantle of protection around those you love, they could be an expansion of your physical assets, and could carry the consciousness of God to other people. It is the thoughtforms of my own cosmic heart that you see expressed in the beauty of nature, and which I began to create in just such a manner centuries ago. Try it now for yourselves.

Beloved Friends,

It is my pleasure and privilege to present for your enjoyment a report of the activities covering the ceremony of the Transmission of the Flame, which took place on the evening of October 17, 1953. The beloved Kuthumi will now give you an eye-picture of the events of the evening. Blessings and love.

Beloved Kuthumi's Address

Beloved Friends,

Tonight we witness a most exquisite festival in the etheric realm, where the beautiful Temple of the Goddess of Truth stands as a focus for the Brotherhood, who have dedicated their lives and purpose to directing into and through the consciousness of mankind, the pure White Flame of Understanding and Illumination, the acceptance of which brings comprehension of the eternal verities.

This beautiful Temple of Truth stands on a high eminence, reached by a magnificent marble stairway of four hundred or more steps. On either side of this beautiful stairway, extending all the way up to the wide columned entrance, stand exquisite angelic beings clothed in iridescent colors, holding in their upraised hands garlands of bright-colored flowers, woven into patterns somewhat similar to the Christmas wreaths you enjoy in your outer-world activities today.

As we ascend to a point parallel with the wide entrance door, we come in sight of the great altar, rising well over one hundred feet in height, at either side of which stands a great carved pillar upon which rests a golden brazier from whence flows the Green Flame of Truth. Before each of these pillars is placed a massive throne-chair of early century design, the raised arms of which are upholstered in what looks like white velvet. These chairs have been provided for the beloved Pallas Athena, Goddess of Truth, and our Lord, the Maha Chohan.

Many of the brothers belonging to this focus are already gathered here in the assembly hall. They all wear white robes with the emblem of the lighted lamp over the breast. Some of them are mingling with the guests, others are acting as receptionists. There is an air of expectancy, silence and reverence over the whole assembly, because of the presence of the unveiled Flame of Truth, which offers to the Brotherhood a tremendous opportunity to direct into the consciousness of their chelas, everywhere, more of the understanding that lies within the tenets of the particular religions and outer world activities which this Brotherhood fosters. They all seem to be conserving the energies of their individual lifestreams, which are being impregnated with this flaming substance of truth, that they may be more powerfully directed when the climax of the evening's activities is reached, and the Transmission of the Flame goes forth on the Holy Breath.

The beloved Maha Chohan is now entering, accompanied by the beloved Pallas Athena, and they do present a magnificent appearance. The hair of Pallas Athena looks like golden flax, and she wears it piled high on her head, held in place by an ivy garland. The hem of her white robe is embroidered in the same exquisite green leaf design—the same motif appearing on the neck band of the garment, the ivy leaf being symbolic of eternal life.

As they take their places and are seated, the entire assembly comes to attention. The whole scene is one of such magnificent perfection that it gives cause to wonder why people seem to fear, so much, the presence of truth. This beautiful and gracious lady embodies the true nature of the feminine aspect of the Deity, and it is her happy responsibility to give, to any member of the race desiring it, her consciousness of perfection, which is the only truth and unchanging reality behind this unstable world of form. Looking at her, I can only think that it will be a happy hour when men and women, alike, can accept the design of their own Godhood, and externalize truth through their forms as she has done. It makes an exquisite complement—truth bringing comfort, and comfort bringing truth.

How perfectly-balanced is the design and order of the universe wherein God-Flames are focused and qualified by certain intelligences, and held like lighted lamps in the darkness, as a magnetic focus of a certain quality until the evolving race, emulating the embodied virtue, becomes the fullness of that virtue also.

Were it not for beings who chose to embody the nature of Divinity, there would be no pattern toward which the outer consciousness of man could look. It is to be regretted that the love and honor and respect which were accorded the gods and goddesses in the early days has been stamped as paganism, in the endeavor that has been made to wipe out their memory from the consciousness of the race.

There were ages when the beloved Pallas Athena was visible to unascended mankind. Her presence was sought, and she held connection with the seekers after truth through the Delphic Oracles in Greece. Now again, through the conscious understanding of the student body, an opportunity is being given to direct the flame from her temple and her brotherhood into the magnetized centers of the receptive minds and hearts of the people. He who wishes to know truth may do so now. He who wishes to stand in her presence has the opportunity, and he or she who wishes to become that which she is will receive the warmest blessings from those of us who serve to set life free.

The beloved Hilarion has just entered. He is wearing the white robe of his order, but it is hemmed in ever-deepening shades of green, from the very pale spring shade at the top, to the deep bottle green at the bottom of the hem. He takes his place at the center of the altar between the Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena. As he does so, the entire audience rises, including the honored guests.

The Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena now draw the flame from the braziers above their heads, directing it into the raised hands of Hilarion, where it assumes the form of a closed tulip, not much larger than his hands in size. He now raises his hands above his head. The flame which he holds does not increase in size, but it does in brilliance, until it looks like quicksilver or mercury, and now little diamond-like points begin to shoot out through his fingers—the white light of truth—so brilliant, that his entire form disappears, and only the tulip form of light remains, seemingly suspended on a pillar of flame.

His body, which has taken on the semblance of a pillar of flame, pulsates before the assembly. Every member of the Brotherhood present directs, from his own consciousness, a beam of white fire into that tulip form, until the room looks as if filled with thousands of fine steel wires, all converging into this small pulsating focus.

While this activity is silently taking place, the Maha Chohan is informing the assembly that they have asked every representative who has ever brought truth to the planet during every hundred-year-period since man first descended upon it, to be the guest of the Brotherhood this evening, and, in orderly procession, to stand before Hilarion, receive from this concentrated Flame of Truth, a beam, and direct it through the teachings he represented, into the etheric bodies and worlds of every lifestream who ever listened to his word, studied at his feet, or endeavored to partake of truth through the avenue which he provided. This activity should take us through some forty-eight hours, and will continue through the Transmission of the Flame period in conjunction with the expansion of the Flame of Truth through mankind.

As the individuals who have been invited to participate in directing this flame through the constituents and followers who have believed in them through the centuries gather together at the rear entrance behind the altar, I can look down over their heads, and they stretch well over a mile beyond the doors. This is a magnificent thing—each one of these individuals having touched the lives of many hundreds of thousands of their fellowmen.

There are among them poets and philosophers, scientists, inventors and explorers. There are men of letters, and men of the spirit of God. Many of these are in embodiment again, and will have to give their cosmic service while their physical bodies are asleep. Others are ascended, and enjoy the full freedom of the time required for this service. Some of them are discarnates, and have been invited from the sphere in which they dwell, to which they will return after the ceremony, and there await the summons for re-embodiment, but all must fulfill the obligation imposed upon them by the pure White Flame of Truth—to bring its light and illumination to their followers.

While we have been speaking, the beloved Hilarion has continued to hold that focus of white fire, which has been drawing into itself all these lines of force directed toward it. It has increased in brilliance, and has now begun to unfold, so that it forms a canopy over the entire audience—its petals reaching outward and upward.

Now it is about time for the drawing-in action of the flame, and for its transmission, which will send it forth, in its cosmic outpouring over the entire Earth.

May God, through man, reveal truth this night, and may every earnest heart and soul, calling for understanding and illumination, find both in the presence of truth.

May every student and conscious worker in God's kingdom stand in the visible presence of Pallas Athena, herself, and have cut away from the lifestream all misconceptions and shadows of mind and body, and through the acceptance of the reality of their own divinity, become eternally free.

This is our decree for humanity tonight, and may every brother and sister who stands before this altar FEEL that flaming fire of truth blaze through their brains and consciousnesses, as they direct it forth to bless mankind.

Report after the Transmission Ceremony

As the great initial Flame of Truth was breathed in by the assembled Brotherhood, qualified by the fully gathered cosmic momentum of truth within their consciousnesses, and directed forth on the breath toward Luxor, it became greatly increased in both size and brilliance. The entire locality was so brilliantly lighted by its presence as it took its course around the Eastern and Western Hemispheres and back to its starting point, that its current path was indistinguishable in the great white light that was world-engulfing with each revolution. In the meantime, the procession of the sages, saints and teachers had begun its slow movement, and the first of the great leaders had taken his place before Hilarion.

It was wonderful to see, as the Cosmic Flame of Truth touched his consciousness, the beams of light going out into the students who had, at any time, contacted that individual or his teaching, and this same activity repeated itself through each of the others as they stood before the Flame of Truth. The entire activity took place, and still continues pulsating, with the lovely melody held within the hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers." If you could hear that hymn sung by the angelic choir accompanied by the beautiful voices of the Ascended Masters, you would understand what a stirring vibration of truth that song sets into motion.

I cannot emphasize too much that this month holds an opportunity for receiving more of truth, and in its receiving, to become an open door for its dispensing. I thank you, and I love you, and I bless you.

Beloved Ones,

This morning I come to you very informally to bring the love and the radiation of my friendship, my association, and my presence.

Do you know that when the Masters choose to speak to you through the energy of your own electronic stream of light, there flows a permanent substance, which is part of our own life, and which actually qualifies the electronic flow from your own Presence with our consciousness, our feeling, and the qualities which we are privileged to express in this great universe?

For the period of time that your attention is upon us, you feel the comfort of that qualification by the Master, and you experience for that time something of your own natural feeling when you become master of energy. The upliftment, the peace, the radiation which earnest and sincere men and women and children have felt all through the ages, when they touched the hem of the spiritual garment of some Master Presence of life, was just a foretaste of the natural activity which the God-parents of the race desire for every soul evolving on the planet.

Sometimes people become despondent because, after such an exhilaration of consciousness, they revert again into their own mental and emotional turmoil, but each time we come, each time you partake of that holy communion, it will become a little easier for you to recreate consciously, and at will, that same, happy, comfortable feeling that you experience in our presence. Perhaps I should qualify that by saying—which any lifestream receives when he accepts our presence.

I have witnessed great congregations gathered together to worship and find God through many ages. I have witnessed the diversified consciousnesses that make up such a worshipping body, seeing clearly the motive that has drawn the individual to that place, and I have seen the outpouring of the spiritual force from whatever Master Presence has been invoked as the patron. I have also noticed that the benefit which each individual member of the congregation received depended upon the acceptance, within the feelings and intellect, of that Master Presence. Some have gone away from such a place renewed and revived; others have gone away empty. That is one of the questionable gifts, let us say, endowed upon the individual in the use of free will, for neither the gifts of God nor his messengers; neither the peace nor the healing, nor the comfort of the worded expression, can intrude unless the consciousness of the individual opens the door and will accept it.

That is why we are doing everything possible to make you feel that we are actually living, breathing beings, who have been the guardians and protectors of this Earth for such a long period of time. That is why we are so filled with gratitude for every opportunity that will bring to the attention of mankind something of the service which the Celestial Hierarchy renders—those great personages who have chosen to embody the virtues of God, and from whose lifestreams emanate those exquisite feelings which mankind seek within themselves and which they think would represent happiness, security, or heaven.

The other evening, I was sitting with my beloved in our home in Ceylon, and I had just received from those messengers who have been entrusted with that particular facet of service, the letters written in sincerity and kindness by hundreds of people here in your Western Hemisphere. I do not believe that I could describe to you the happiness within my heart at this phenomenal acceptance of myself as a tangible, conscious and intelligent being, who is as easy of access as a father, or a brother, or a friend.

You see, up until the last few years, my service has been very remote from the consciousness of the average man. I relied almost entirely upon my Chohans and their accepted chelas to draw the consciousness and understanding of the people up to a point of adeptship, where they became Master of all but the most subtle vibrations, and then I would only have a passing acquaintance with the individual lifestream.

Suddenly, in an almost unbelievable manner, considering the many thousands of years such an event was hoped for, the Western mind has accepted the possibility of reaching the hearts of those of us who live beyond the veil.

Every word and every line in every letter written through the physical substance and energy of some sweet, earnest, trusting and sincere heart, impressed on each emotional body, on the substance of the mental world and written into the etheric consciousness of the lifestream—I READ MYSELF—and back on the flow of that energy, once each month, I direct the substance and flame of my own presence, and it follows the same course, pressing through the etheric body, the mental, the emotional, and the physical garments of the writer.

Now, when a man pens his word in mind alone, the return current from my world, returning to its causative center, blesses the mental vehicle. When the gratitude or blessing flows from the emotional body in an upflow of praise, the return current blesses the emotional body, but when all of the bodies are incorporated in the physical act of joining the energies of the electronic light of the lifestream, the return current from my heart flows through them all.

Order and system comprise the first Law of Heaven, and an exact mathematical precision, one might say, is essential for those of us who govern energies by which planets and evolutions are sustained, and we will never ask of any man anything that does not have an absolutely scientific reason, which will bless the lifestream if he will comply with our request.

My beloved and I sat for a long time that evening just talking informally, and thanking God that man is now so consciously interested in truth. It is lovely, you know, to address great numbers of people and exhort them to greater endeavors to serve God, to assume their natural God nature, and to externalize the qualities of the Holy Spirit—but, do you know, I enjoy most drawing closely into the feelings of the few who are my heart friends, and picturizing for you the activities which prove that we, too, are individuals who share companionship and friendship, and who have to evolve out of unexpected circumstances, like the present one, new methods to bless and help the race.

Wishing you, each one, a holy and happy Thanksgiving, may the comfort of the Holy Spirit enfold you and all mankind in its embrace of love and light.

Beloved Spirits of Immortal Truth,

I address you thus, because each one of you is a Spirit of Truth in essence, because only TRUTH lives eternally, and the very fact that your presence in the universe has been guaranteed immortality, signifies to life that you are a Spirit of Truth. That with which you have clothed this essence may be less than truth, but in a flash, in the Flame of Purification, the accretions of the ages become ash, and the divine image in which you were created from the bosom of the Eternal Father stands revealed.

We have honored truth through this cycle—through the entire twenty-four-hour period of each successive minor cycle of thirty days. Member after member of the Hierarchy has addressed the souls who deeply desire to know truth, and that desire has drawn them into the aura of this great and mighty focus, which has been sustained through the ages in order that those who sought—refusing acceptance of partial truth, and refusing acceptance of error—might stand in the presence of truth unveiled, and partake of her gift and realization.

You would be amazed at the tremendous impetus that is alive within the souls of men to know truth individually—not only the incarnate spirits, but the billions awaiting summons before the Lords of Karma for opportunity to work out their life plan on this small star. This is the first cosmic impulse which has stirred in the human heart and in the hearts of the discarnates, because every one of the evolving spirits belonging to Earth were present.

The desire to know truth is a pre-requisite to illumination, and even though the dispensation was not granted to the Holy Christ Selves of the entire evolution, for reasons that are obvious, the pressure of the Flame of Truth playing upon the feelings and entering into the activity of the soul has been universal, and every lifestream, some feebly, and some intensely, has begun to call from deep within the recesses of its being for truth to be revealed. It is the first completely unanimous response of the evolution since the Transmission Classes were started.

Let me elaborate on this a little for your own illumination. Each time the flame from the retreat is released, it flows forth universally through the three kingdoms, and impersonally bathes the consciousness of all life in the same manner that the sun and air bless the just and the unjust alike. The conscious reception of the blessing from the retreat is limited to the students who participate in the Transmission Classes, and in the nightly acknowledgment of the active service going on during the thirty-day period, but a conscious impulse from within the souls of the entire ten billion lifestreams belonging to this planet and the entire nature kingdom, and the angelic kingdom in response to the pressure of the gift of truth from this retreat has never been experienced until this month.

For example, the sun may shine on a dozen individuals, all of whom will absorb its light and healing and warmth, and only two may be conscious of the presence of Helios within that Sun, and who, through acknowledgment of his gifts, may greatly intensify his blessings through themselves, whereas the other ten are unconscious beneficiaries of that gift. In the activity of this thirty-day period, while the conscious students drew intensified blessings from the retreat, a tiny tongue of flame rose from every soul belonging to the planet, in response to that gift, asking for more, even though the outer mind was not aware of the activity. In some it may not have been as large as the smallest decimal of an inch, while in others it seemed to rise a thousand feet into the atmosphere, but there was not one who did not pour forth that White Flame, which is the desire to know truth, in a greater capacity than that which the lifestream has experienced up until this time. It was a beautiful sight as seen from inner levels.

This will do much to remove bigotry, ignorant human concepts, intolerance, and bitterness because, no matter how biased the consciousness may be, and no matter how convinced the ego is of its own concepts being correct, there is no one who is not eager to have more light upon his own concepts, even if he feels that that light will but emphasize the truth of his particular belief, creed, message, or revelation. He does not know that sometimes, in asking for truth, his concepts may be shattered, although in his spiritual pride, he expected confirmation. Yet, when he asks for truth, HE SHALL RECEIVE IT! Do you see how the Celestial Hierarchy sometimes USES the weaknesses of a man in order to forward the evolution of a system?

The orthodox people, the metaphysicians, and the atheists, are all seeking for a confirmation of their concepts through the revelation of truth, and this we shall give to them.

With the closing of this retreat, we come to a preparation for the entrance of the soul and spirit into Shamballa, where the thirty-day period of bringing in the sheaves and harvest of the year's endeavors combines gratitude, happiness, and joy as the members of the Brotherhood and the unascended beings join together in the heart of the holy city.

I would ask that you prepare yourselves as much as possible for the next Transmission Service which will be, by far, the greatest outpouring we have ever yet experienced, and I would also ask that you try to contemplate the great honor of entering the halls of Shamballa and sitting at the feet of the king, Sanat Kumara. This is the first time that hundreds of students will consciously be present in that assembly—this honor being heretofore limited to a few unascended members of the race.

Now, on behalf of the beloved Pallas Athena and myself, the beloved Hilarion, and the Brotherhood of Truth, I would like to offer our heartfelt gratitude to the students who have come so frequently into our presence during this current month, and for their calls that the mankind of Earth might find their way into this Temple of Truth, and thus become spiritually stimulated themselves, which has enabled this cosmic truth to not only be planted, but actually show the seedlings sprouting from the souls of men in such a marvelous manifestation of flame.

COSMICALLY SPEAKING, THERE IS LITTLE CHANCE THAT THE GRANT WILL BE INCREASED AT THE END OF DECEMBER, FOR THE MILLION TO WHOM IT HAS BEEN GRANTED ARE YET SLUMBERING PEACEFULLY AMIDST THE SHADOWS OF THEIR OWN KARMA, BUT IF WE ARE ALLOWED, BY SANAT KUMARA, TO RETURN TO THIS TEMPLE EARLY IN THE NEW YEAR, WE FEEL THAT IT SHOULD DO MUCH TO AWAKEN THEM, AND BY JULY WE SHOULD HAVE AN APPRECIABLE HARVEST. The designing of the course of the flame currents for 1954 will depend upon the divine thoughtform as it is lowered by the Silent Watcher to Sanat Kumara on the 31st of December. We have thought that it would be a lovely experience if you would remain over the midnight hour on New Year's Eve, when you would receive it at the same time it is externalized at the Teton. This would also be another milestone in history.

Beloved Children,

I submit, for your pleasure, beloved Kuthumi's report of the occurrences in the retreat at Shamballa during the Transmission Flame Ceremony on the evening of November 21st, 1953.

Address by Beloved Kuthumi, Shamballa,
November 21, 1953

Beloved Friends,

Tonight, the beloved Sanat Kumara is wearing royal purple, banded heavily in deep embroidered gold—a truly magnificent figure. Seated upon his throne before the great altar, the aureole of colors which emanate from his nature radiate like mother-of-pearl, and enfold the whole atmosphere about him. There is a beautiful oval of scintillating light, so that when you step within the room, you do not, at first, discern his majestic figure within the light which is externalized, which represents the blanket of electronic substance that has enfolded our planet and her people, and which has been their salvation through the centuries.

The homage, the adoration, and the devotion to Sanat Kumara have occupied our days and our evenings since the evening of the 15th, but, beginning now with the focusing and the direction of the Transmission Flame, the Ascended Masters, and angelic host, and the awakened mankind of Earth will begin the offering of their year's endeavors at the feet of the Lord of the World.

First will come Lord Michael and the beloved Micah (the angelic being who represents unity), bearing in their hands the composite energy of both ascended and unascended lifestreams that has been invested in the new endeavor. Then will come Lord Maitreya and Serapis Bey, representing the million lifestreams who have been given the grant of grace by the Cosmic Law. Next will come the Lord Maha Chohan and the beloved Morya, offering their endeavors through the “Bridge,” the “Bulletin,” and the published addresses in booklet form. The mighty Chohans of the Rays will follow, each one representing his own retreat, and with them will come those of you who are their conscious chelas, as well as those other faithful chelas who work in orthodox, scientific, educational, artistic and musical endeavors.

From the very beginning, the ceremonials have been very beautiful. The main temple is several hundred feet in length. From the vaulted ceiling over the altar is suspended Sanat Kumara's star. The great Threefold Flame is focused upon the altar, which is approached by marble steps in several tiers, so that the flame itself is a good twenty feet above the eye level of the audience. The entire chamber is just a huge bower of the most exquisite flowers, which are even suspended from the ceiling and festooned around the long windows.

Tonight, all the participants, and even the atmosphere itself, seem to have taken on a festive air. There are visitants here from every star and planet in our galaxy, each one bringing, within his own aura, the heritage of his light, his consciousness, and the pressure of his illumined feeling, and accompanied by the members of the angelic host and celestial beings who comprise his court.

All over the vast continent of Asia, the light from Shamballa can be seen even with the physical sight, for the nights are not as dark, nor the days as filled with the haze of human creation since the great doors of Shamballa have swung wide on their golden hinges and the celestial trumpeters sounded the first note at inner levels, signifying that the Lord of Life was ready to hold audience, and the Spiritual Court was assembled, awaiting the coming of those intelligences who had vowed to use their energies in helping to redeem this dark star, as well as the conscious and unconscious chelas of Earth who will offer the harvest of their year's endeavors at his feet.

The great procession will start at the temple door. The beings bringing their harvest will each carry a vessel symbolic of the garnering of their energies. They will walk slowly up the main aisle, make obeisance to the flame, and then kneel before the Lord of the World, placing the vessel at his feet. He will bless each one, who will then take his or her vessel from the altar step and pour its contents into a great white urn, held by a magnificently-clothed seraphim standing at the side of Sanat Kumara. As this act is performed, the energies through the silver cord at each one's head, magnetize the endeavors of the year. Each dedicated pair then part, one going to the right and the other to the left, taking seats prepared for them, making room for the next pair who will proceed likewise until every member in the vast procession has reverently placed his or her harvest at the Lord's feet.

The seraphic choir, which will accompany the processional, has already taken its place in the atmosphere, and their voices are muted in preparation for the exquisite music that will be rendered throughout the ceremony, which will begin at exactly nine o'clock. Already I can see Lord Michael with the beloved Micah standing at the golden temple doors, at the head of the glorious procession, which stretches down the many steps into the main avenue, and even over the bridge, itself.

Each of your inner bodies is there even as my words are spoken. You carry a vessel fashioned from your own thought, and in it is your whole year's accomplishment. When you draw the first breath of flame into your body, the flame on the great altar will begin its expansion, and every electron that has been used in impersonal service to life will add to the size, the brilliance, and the power of the Threefold Flame, and none will escape recognition and benediction of the beloved Sanat Kumara, himself.

The temple, as yet, is empty because everyone who has had any part in the evolution of this planet is in the procession. A member of the cherubic and seraphic hosts will give the signal for the first breath, when the procession will proceed slowly along the central aisle, each member breathing in and expanding the Threefold Flame, even as he walks. Sanat Kumara will rise and, facing the oncoming Archangels, await their presence at the foot of the altar.

The Threefold Flame, as drawn forth here, is not the Secret Flame which is too brilliant to be looked upon by unascended beings. This is a focused ember from the Great Flame, which has been drawn, guarded and expanded for this purpose. The triple action on your part of offering the gift of your life, receiving the benediction of Sanat Kumara, and absorbing the flame into your own bodies, will be of tremendous assistance to your individual evolution.

We shall have to complete our report in the morning because the major portion of the ceremony will not take place until the entire procession has poured its offerings into the flame, and as I, too, am among the humble members who carry a vessel, in which are some of your energies also, I must take my leave now and say, "Goodnight!"

Beloved Children of My Heart,

I am happy to announce to you that my beloved son, El Morya, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, have been chosen by the Celestial Hierarchy as joint sponsors for planet Earth's evolution for the coming year of 1954.

The Christmas Season is at hand, when most of the whole world celebrates the birthday of the beloved Jesus. I have thought that you would enjoy hearing from dear Mary's own lips, how the Holy Family kept their son's birthday in those days long ago, in Judea.

Thanking you for your past year's endeavors, and for the many kindly expressions for a "Happy Christmas" that have already reached me, I enfold each one of you, beloved ones, in the consciousness of your own immaculate Christ Self. May its full illumination enfold you and those you love hits holy Christ Mass Season. Blessings and love,

BELOVED LADY MASTER MARY speaks:

Dear Ones,

As there are so many of our friends walking Earth today who celebrated with us the birthday of our son in those days long ago in Nazareth, I often think of those days, and wonder how many of you recall the simple homely "family honors" accorded him.

Early on that morning, I baked fresh unleavened bread, and drew sparkling water from the well. Our friends gathered leaves and vines, and we garlanded the simple rooms with loving hands and gentle hearts, and he would smile, and sometimes, with his own blessed hands, he would weave the responsive leaves into the garlands, himself. Oh, the blessed leaves within his hands—shining with the happiness of his presence! Nature always rose to its full responsive height in his presence, feeling that which man is oftentimes unable to sense, in his greater arrogance and self-importance.

Those of us who loved him would walk, long before the people were yet about, to the temple, and there, together, we would glorify the Lord, and I know that, silently—for he would have rebuked us otherwise—we would thank God for HIM. On that day, he would not "go forth," but give the day to us. How precious were those few days when I did not, with trepidation, see him go forth upon his mission, but felt the comfort of his presence, and the abiding joy of his proximity.

Sometimes one of you would ask me to tell of the nativity, and sitting, perhaps, in the shade of the trees, we would go over the beautiful story that has now been woven into your Christmas pageant. Jesus would often bring in a point of Law to clarify the experience as I wove them, for our pleasure, sometimes accompanied by my busy fingers weaving the flax into a tapestry. In this way was recorded, in the minds of those who loved him, the story of the Gospels, which would commemorate his coming to generations yet unborn from the womb of time.

The children of the village and the close friends would come in the evening, and we would sing together the old songs of David and of Israel's glory, and then he would talk to us of heaven, and tell us of the One Eternal King and Father of all hearts and souls and spirits, and thus, the birthday of our beloved Jesus, now called the Christ Mass Day, would pass, and he would walk forth again on the morrow.

Thank you, beloved friends of the ages, for remembering both my beloved son and myself. May the fullness of the Christ season manifest through your hearts and spirits, and those of all mankind, and may you enjoy the association which I anticipate we shall have one with another, in the New Year, in my office as co-sponsor for your dear lifestreams.

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 13, 1953

Dearly Beloved Children,

The approach of the Christmas holidays brings the presence of the Masters very much closer to the consciousness of the people of Earth, and we shall appreciate any particular thought you may care to give on the unfoldment of the higher nature of the race.

As this season is most advantageous for our spiritual harvest, we press into the seven-week period all the light that the Cosmic Law will allow, by the upreaching of mankind's thought and feeling to the octave of celestial giving. Therefore, the intensification of the calls and invocations of the students at this time doubles and trebles our opportunities to give. So, if you can lift your thought heavenward, particularly during the Christmas week itself, you will have afforded us a personal blessing, as the greatest good that we can give is more of ourselves.

The CHRISTMAS SPIRIT begins to flow around the first of December, and carries through for seven weeks, until the 12th or 14th of January. The Christ Spirit is an outpouring of love and all the perfect qualities from the angels, Masters, and other Divine Beings, and it pours over Earth like a golden rain of beautiful particles of light. Each particle is like a nine-pointed star, and the entire lower atmosphere of Earth and the bodies of all the people are enveloped in it. It increases in power until Christmas Eve when its potent presence is almost palpably felt by even the coarsest outer minds. To that outpouring of all the Celestial Beings is added a tremendous radiation from the retreats and sanctuaries throughout the world, under the direct guardianship and guidance of the Masters and conscious chelas.

Now will you remember that for the remainder of the Christmas Season I shall expect each of you, my dear ones, to BE the Spirit of Christmas as much as you can, in order that this outpouring will be worthy of carrying MY NAME, MY BENEDICTION and MY LOVE to all mankind, and when we have become the Spirit of Christmas for that period, it will be an easy matter to preserve that radiation permanently.

In my own ashram at Ceylon, at Shamballa, at Luxor, at Kwan Yin's retreat in China, at Lake Titicaca, at Darjeeling, and many other places, the Christmas wreath is already manifest in the upper atmosphere. This is a constant outpouring of a ring of flame, qualified by a radiation of peace and good will to men. These retreats present a beautiful sight to the spiritual eye, and there is no part of life on planet Earth, from a lump of coal to a singing sparrow, that does not receive a gift of love and blessing from each retreat and sanctuary. Each year this outpouring increases, just as a musical creation builds to a crescendo of blended harmonious sound, and EACH Christmas is more perfect and glorious than the preceding one, because the momentum from the ascended as well as the unascended state is growing constantly.

It is also wise to accept all that the Christmas Season offers, because it is one of the greatest opportunities for soul and spirit growth that the whole year affords, and when one is aware of this potent force, it can be greatly intensified in and around you for the evolution and progress of the spiritual nature. You can INVOKE this radiant outpouring, and as the electro-magnet draws particles of substance from the atmosphere into itself, so can you draw the substance from God's kingdom, and so feed the evolving spiritual nature of your being. During the Christmas Season, the atmosphere of Earth is literally "stardust," which the people breathe in, unconsciously filling their inner bodies with a sense of ease, peace and happiness, which they attribute to the “Spirit of Christmas.”

In India we celebrate Christmas with lighted tapers and holy incense, and gentle sweet songs to the beautiful Christ Spirit. We have not enjoyed the glory of the fir trees, so all the Masters of the East take particular pleasure in the beautiful display of lighted trees here in the West.

Man somehow thinks that the Gods are above the homely pleasures of the Earth, but even though our joys and our experiences are so gloriously perfect, there is a nostalgic sweetness in the efforts of the bound Earth men to release light, which makes our hearts happy, and many a Christmas tree has a Master standing by its side, giving that tree new radiance, warmth and light. I might add, that when people are through with the trees, it would be a good idea to burn them rather than throw them carelessly aside. They have been light bearers, and should be returned to the flame when their service is ended.

Therefore, from the realms of pure light, surrounded by huge Christmas trees decorated by the angelic host in flaming ornaments of electronic light with great nine-pointed stars blazing at the top, I send you, each one, my Christmas blessing, which carries happiness from a realm where there is no sorrow. It carries the peace that comes from perfect understanding, it carries the vital life from the Presence of All Life, which is an inexhaustible fountain of flame, and it carries the love and blessing of my seven sons.

A blessed and holy Christmas be yours, and a New Year in which only victory shall be the experience of each of your lifestreams.

A Christmas Message given by Beloved Master Jesus

December 25, 1953

Dearly Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

I am with you always—especially when the priceless beam of your own life is voluntarily turned toward me, either in supplication, in invocation, in loving gratitude, or in contemplation of my world, my works, or my consciousness.

Mankind has not yet fully realized the tremendous power that lies within the attention of even the most undisciplined lifestream, because through the energy that flows from the individual toward any person, place, condition or thing, the door is opened into the personal world of that individual for the anchorage of good or evil according to the subject contemplated.

During the celebration of the Christmas season, my mother and I have particular opportunity to bless life, because the attention of so many individuals is turned toward us. Every song, every prayer, every church ceremony, every card and display that reminds the outer consciousness of the Christ is an open door through which we may pour our love, our gathered momentum of light, and our Ascended Master Consciousness into the world of form.

The subject of my Christmas message to you, who have already come out from the masses and have signified to life that you desire to become master of circumstance, and to be God-free of limitation, is LOYALTY to GOD!

LOYALTY is builded on LOVE! LOVE is developed through contemplation of the gifts and blessings and the kindnesses of life that issue from a benefactor—human or divine. To KNOW God is to LOVE him! To love him is to believe, with every fiber and atom of your being, that he is ALL-POWERFUL! Contemplate for a moment the significance of that statement! How loyal are your feelings to the all-power of god to always act instantly when you call him into manifestation at your point in the universe? It is not the timid, uncertain, mildly-hopeful consciousness that rationalizes with appearances who signifies LOYALTY to the ILLUMINED FAITH IN GOD to manifest perfection instantly. It is rather the consciousness that BELIEVES that the nature of God is to give every good and perfect thing to his own creations, the children of his bosom, who were externalized by him in LOVE, in order to multiply his own divinity and increase the centers through which perfection could be externalized.

For a moment, let us look at my own experiences, which have formed the pattern of the religious thought of the past cycle of time. My entire ministry, and my victory, too, was based on absolute LOYALTY in feeling, thought, word and action to the conviction that God, the Father, was not only ALL-POWERFUL in his own sphere of activity, but also in mine—wheresoever I was at any given moment. I could not allow myself to think, even for a moment, of the possibility of a power opposed to God, either within me or outside of me. I did not dare to leave the comparative privacy of our humble dwelling until I had ANCHORED MYSELF in the active realization that my Father, who had created me and sent me forth into the world to represent him, and to manifest his will, could possibly either refuse to respond to my call, or withhold immediate, God-victorious, miraculous assistance whenever I should invoke him to dissolve shadows, dissipate error, or flash the fire of perfection through appearances, making them yield to the God design.

What is the most fearful appearance, but a concentrated mass of energy humanly qualified? Think of that for a moment! then—is human qualification more powerful than God qualification? No, thank God! Within that mass of energy is imprisoned life—the very body of the Father-Mother God awaiting the summons to come forth and throw off the human qualification and, responding to the God qualification—BE PERFECT!

You are either loyal to the power of human qualification, or you are loyal to the power of God through you, or any of God's children, to compel energy and substance to manifest according to the direction of the moment.

I walked the ways of Earth, and shared the instruments of expression in this physical world with the other incarnate spirits of my time. I worked through a feeling world, a mental world, an etheric world, and a physical body, just as each of you do today. I was in possession of the five senses, through which there could have been recorded the tremendous appearances of evil, which had stamped themselves upon the flesh of my fellowmen, as well as upon the writhing substance of the etheric envelope, and the clouded vessel of mind. I saw the pressure of desire, that impelled the weak to succumb to lust and passion, but I knew that it was imperative that I remind myself constantly of the fact that energy and substance responded to qualification. True—but, although it was imprisoned by human qualification—it could be freed instantly by the power of God to act in a manner in accord with his divine will.

If you are loyal to a friend, you believe in his potential goodness. You endeavor, in every way, to stand by him, regardless of appearances. Oh, the blessed mothers of the race! How they have manifested this loyalty for the children of their flesh! But where is the GOD LOYALTY to the ALL-POWER OF YOUR FATHER—YOUR COSMIC MOTHER—to flash through you and around you, instantly, the Cosmic Flame of Freedom from shadows, pain, limitation, and distress?

Children of God, the measure of a man's loyalty to God is determined by what he allows to remain in his world, his body, his affairs, his home, and his aura. Submission to circumstances is disloyal to the Father. I do not mean an outward violent show of emotional zeal. I mean a constant looking toward the nature of that Heavenly Father, until you realize his power as supreme, even over the appearance of death, until you come, through contemplation, to love him enough to trust him to respond instantly to your slightest whisper, or your strongest command to manifest his glory, his freedom, his healing, his supply, his will at your point in the universe.

I give to you, as my Christmas blessing, my loyalty to the beautiful Father of Light and his exquisite complement—your own Cosmic Mother. I trust that when you move forward into the new cycle of 1954, you may start your day contemplating the love and power of your own God, and walk through each twenty-four-hour period not giving power, allegiance, or loyalty to any appearance or feeling of fear or uncertainty which might confront you (EVEN FOR AN INSTANT), knowing that where you are—GOD IS, and his power acts INSTANTLY when called into action.

May you have a holy Christmas, and a God-victorious New Year!

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 20, 1953

Beloved Children,

How sweet are the souls of men when they come, voluntarily disassociating themselves from the world of form, and choosing to bare their consciousnesses to the shafts of light which bring truth first, and for those willing to accept truth—comfort.

For planet Earth, I am the representative of the Holy Spirit. This great Holy Spirit is the mother activity of life, and on every planet of our system, as well as on every planet of superior systems, there is a being who holds the same office as mine, and for that planet, the evolution of all life expressions upon it endeavors to externalize the nature of the Holy Spirit of the One Eternal Father.

Before I was given this office, other intelligences represented the Holy Spirit, and when I have completed my service, and the wisdom of the great Cosmic Law, in kindness, desires that I shall proceed into a different activity of life, another being will take upon himself the obligation, the responsibility, and the opportunity of being the comforting presence to the evolution upon this Earth.

I bring this to your mind again, because we are endeavoring, in every way, to reach into your consciousness, and impress upon you the conviction that the service, the radiation, the quality and the office is a great deal more important than the particular specific intelligence and conscious being who functions, for a short or long period, in that office. I am the channel through which flows this Holy Spirit, which must one day make every electron, atom, human being and angelic being belonging to this evolution perfectly comfortable and at peace. The way and means by which comfort is brought to each particular part of life is dependent first upon the evolution, upon the specific requirements of the hour, and upon the capacity of the lifestream to receive and embody the radiation or instruction. So—you will see that our endeavors are diversified in the extreme, and so will it be with those of you who choose, while you yet wear garments of flesh, to be a comforting presence to the life around you.

COMFORT to one man might mean extreme discomfort to another. It is entirely an individual comprehension of the need and requirement of souls, which is demanded of the teacher or shepherd, endeavoring to carry the comfort and radiation of the Holy Spirit to the sons of men. For this reason, we have divided the Third Ray into five distinct offices, and at the head of each subdivision of that ray is placed a Perfected Being, who steps down the radiation of the Holy Spirit, and brings comfort to a specific number of mankind, who can respond best to the developed momentum and quality of energy of his particular lifestream.

We are at the beginning of a new era, and, as at the beginning of the Christian Era, the harvest is truly plenteous, and the workers few. There are not yet developed, from among the volunteers who have professed an interest in being a comforting presence to life, enough lifestreams evolved and sensitive to the particular ray under which a great number of mankind and the elemental and angelic kingdoms function. Then there is the discomfort which often times results when a shepherd evolved in momentum along one particular ray endeavors to represent the Holy Spirit of God to people belonging to another ray. We are endeavoring now to train the shepherds, and it is our hope, our desire, and our prayer to the God that made us all, that tolerance and understanding may be evolved within the hearts, and spirits, and consciousness of each lifestream who is passing through the crucible, and preparing, according to his own evolution and momentum, to become a comfort to life.

I submit, for your enjoyment, the beloved Kuthumi's report covering the Transmission Flame activity which took place on the evening of December 19, 1953, at the great Teton Retreat in the Rocky Mountains of North America. HE ALSO DESCRIBES THE UNPRECEDENTED EVENT OF A CERTAIN NUMBER OF THE ANGELIC HOST ABOUT TO TAKE UP THEIR ABODE IN THE AURAS OF CHOSEN HUMAN BEINGS, WHO HAD CONSCIOUSLY PREPARED THEMSELVES TO RECEIVE THEM. This is actually what you might call a celestial experiment on the part of the Cosmic Law, at the insistence of Lord Michael and Saint Germain. Certain individuals had reached a place on the path where they were capable of maintaining sufficient harmony in their feelings so that these heavenly visitors could remain with them for a designated time. It is also the introduction of the brotherhood of angels and men, which is part of Saint Germain's activities of the new day.

Beloved Kuthumi's Address

Beloved Friends,

This evening, not only in the heart of the Teton Mountains, but all over the world, the sanctuaries and retreats of the Brotherhood are garlanded with flowers and greens in preparation for the celebration of the Christ Mass, also afforded the Master Saint Germain the opportunity of bringing into the lower atmosphere of Earth more of those pure and perfect cherubic beings, who have not left the inner realms since their creation.

The entire upper atmosphere of Earth is literally thronged with visitors, not only from this planet and from the heavens belonging to this planet, but also from other stars, planets, universes, and galaxies as well. All of these beloved beings are looking earthward tonight. Can you understand what that means, as the beam of their attention plays upon Earth, and through that beam of energy flows their life, their nature, their quality and their consciousness, which becomes part of the atmosphere in which mankind moves, part of the air they breathe, and part of the substance and form by which they are surrounded.

At the Christmas season, when mankind's attention is, for the most part, raised above the ordinary everyday consciousness, the beam of the attention from Earth upwards gives an opportunity to the Heavenly Host that does not have a parallel throughout the entire year. The psychic and astral realms, then, are literally bombarded with electronic particles consciously directed from those mighty Beings, not only from those who are waiting to descend, but also those who are watching this cosmic event—cosmic, because it has been many, many ages since mankind and the angelic host have consciously walked and worked together.

Single individuals belonging to the angelic kingdom, working through the human evolution, have had extraordinary experiences, have pierced through the veil, have conversed with, and have had companionship with angelic beings. The record of these unusual and mystic bonds is written in your holy books, and told in myth and fable today, but for great numbers of yet imperfect lifestreams to even qualify to have, within their aura, a being of absolute purity as a conscious co-worker, companion, guardian and assistant, is another milestone on the spiritual path mankind is traveling, on its way back to God.

Earth has gone far off the course to the throne of the Eternal—to the very end of the road, the blind alley, and only through the love of Sanat Kumara and the members of the Hierarchy, which have magnetized her, can she now walk upward again into the light. With her comes the evolution which has depended upon her for habitation and as a platform to sustain their vehicles. Earth is moving back toward the Sun. Those individuals who live on her bounty have opportunity without parallel. Those who do not wish to become refined, as she is being refined, are at complete liberty to remain at the end of that blind alley, BUT, for the upward-moving planet, garlanded with light tonight, we are very happy.

We are happy for this planet that has suffered so much, that was created so beautiful in the beginning, and that has been so kind and generous to the people evolving upon her, who have shown so little gratitude in return. But now Earth has decided to be FREE! Isn't that a beautiful thing? That living, breathing being, the Planetary Spirit, walks back into the light. THE ANGELS COME TO MEET HER, AND THE INDIVIDUAL BEINGS WHO ARE WITHIN THE BODY OF EARTH, ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO ARE CONSCIOUS OF HER, RECEIVE TONIGHT, INTO THEMSELVES, SOME OF THE VIRTUES OF THE MOST HIGH.

Again let me point out to you the nature of these cherubim. Their entire evolution consists of learning to hold qualified energy—until a given moment when its release will be beneficial to life. It is exactly the same principle which, in self control, should be incorporated into the life of every intelligent human being. To receive energy, as every man, woman and child does each day through the silver cord, to qualify it in moments of consecration—in those rare moments of grace when one is within the contemplation of God—and then to be able to sustain the qualification of that energy as an aura of healing, of peace, of purity, of protection as the occasion demands, is to show a maturity and mastery in the self.

The exact same thing is true of the entire angelic kingdom and the elemental kingdom. The cherubim embody the nature of God. Each and every member embodies one facet of that great God nature—happiness, peace, purity, love, light, joy, beauty, reverence, fidelity, and so on. They absorb that quality into the energy which is their own self-conscious life; then they are at liberty to move in the inner realms with that quality radiating from them. If they lose it, through pressure from either within or without, they must return to the Source, again absorb that quality, and hold the radiation which is their to guard, until the deva, the Master, or the God Being in charge instructs them to pour that substance and radiation forth for a given purpose.

Angels of mercy qualify the energies in their own bodies with mercy. They fly through the atmosphere of Earth at the direction of Kwan Yin, of beloved Mary, of the other lady Masters dedicated to love and mercy, and they hold that quality, which is QUALIFIED LIFE, within themselves, until, at the call or prayer of some human being, the Master in charge asks them to release it. Then it pours from their bodies, just as you would pour water from a receptacle, giving its substance into the world of the receiver.

The angelic beings who work and live at inner levels are in a much more perfect position, we shall say, to maintain their qualities and virtues, than those who descend into the astral and psychic realms, in which the outer selves of men abide. These latter must withstand the pressures in the auras of the lifestreams with whom they live, and must hold a radiating center of their quality against the flares of the emotional body, the pressures in the mental body, the impurities in thought and deed, and the various human activities which engaged the outer ego of man. Therefore, it is essential that they be well trained and developed before they are released from the throne of the Eternal.

THE ENTIRE GROUP OF CHERUBIC BEINGS WHICH ENGAGED IN THE FIRST ENDEAVOR TO LIVE WITHIN THE AURAS OF CERTAIN LIFESTREAMS, WERE ABLE TO HOLD THEIR PARTICULAR VIRTUES, WITHOUT REQUALIFICATION, FOR THE ENTIRE YEAR, AND THE GROUP THAT COMES FORTH THIS NIGHT, AND GOES INTO EVERY COUNTRY ON THE PLANET, ARE ALSO WELL TRAINED. They will carry a tremendous balance into the lifestreams of the students who can accept them in FEELING. I cannot emphasize too strongly that it is not enough to play with the idea as a mental fancy, but the acceptance of a perfected radiating center of God virtue in the feelings, is to FEEL and BECOME ONE with the angel visitor in your aura, and to cooperate with that one in service for mankind. This is what we are hoping to see. This is the endeavor that occupies our attention at the moment.

These beings will be examined once every thirty days, and if we find that their virtue has gone from them, they will be returned to the Sun, from whence they came, to be re-polarized and re-assigned to some new and more favorable mission.

This week, at the great Rocky Mountain Retreat, all the glorious chambers are open. The Karmic Board will not sit until Christmas Eve and Christmas Day festivities are over, and then, for the entire period up to December 31st, they will hear the petitions for the year 1954. We are counting upon the combined energies of the Philadelphia Christmas class to give us the required energy which we may offer to the Karmic Board, that we may receive greater dispensations, and that we may again increase the grant of additional souls. Meanwhile, the beautiful musical instruments, the gorgeous flame flowers, the glorious robes of the various Masters (the ladies having taken great delight in designing exquisite garments for the occasion), all add to a picture which is truly representative of the kingdom of heaven. The celestial choir, the magnificent chants of the seraphim, the glorious high soprano of those exquisite voices, all represent a picture that no words can describe.

The Brotherhood of this retreat has opened seven more large council chambers. They are all joined to the original council room, which has been described elsewhere. These can be separated by a series of sliding doors, so that any one may be used for smaller conferences throughout the year. They are arranged like the petals around a flower—seven rooms around the central conference hall.

The whole idea of enlargement is magnificent, for it will enable many thousands of students and chelas who before were not permitted to enter the retreat proper, but had to remain in the etheric atmosphere above to witness the ceremonies. This will bring them great light, and will enable them to bring back into their consciousness more of the opportunities that lie before them in service for 1954.

From all over the planet, from every retreat in the world, the Masters have come, since the 15th of December. The great bulletin board outside the large council room is already filled with the mighty petitions that have come from the Chohans of the Rays and from the seven Elohim. There are petitions from the seven Archangels, from the elemental kingdom, and the four beings who represent them. I have never seen so many. Some of these petitions are written on colored parchment, some in gold script, and some are even carved in wood block. It is perfectly magnificent.

We are already enjoying and anticipating the greatest conference and council that planet Earth has known since the last Golden Age. Do not forget to write your petitions, individually, to the board. Direct them, mentally, toward the large council hall, and they will appear on the board through the power of precipitation.

Beloved Lord Michael is now getting ready to release the cherubic beings, and they will descend into the auras of the students preceding the breathing activity. I have been in each sanctuary here, in Europe, Australia, Canada—all over the planet—to see that all was in readiness. Many of us have seen the celestial visitors “bustling about” their meeting places in preparation for this cosmic event.

Now will you feel, as those cherubim descend (beloved Lord Michael is bringing them), the FEELING of their presence.

I thank you for your presence here. I thank you for the beauty of this room. I thank you for the lovely Christmas tree, and all that has made it such a happy and beautiful experience both for me and for yourselves, and for the beloved chelas and students everywhere who are tuned in.

We anticipate a magnificent Christmas service, and we do anticipate a lovely and a happy New Year for all.

Beloved Children of My Heart,

It is with joy and gratitude that I submit for your enjoyment the report of my beloved son, Saint Germain, on the activities of the Rocky Mountain Retreat during the last week of 1953. I have also been delegated to extend to each one of you the love and appreciation of every soul, ascended as well as unascended, who attended the ceremonies at the Teton, for your loyal and spontaneous attention during the week, as well as the conscious and loving energy that you released both in groups drawn together for the occasion, and in the privacy of your own homes.

I do not need to tell you that special members of the Brotherhood, as well as the angelic host, were commissioned to stand in your midst and gather up every ounce of that precious life essence qualified with your individual love and desire to set life free. This Saint Germain proudly offered to the Lords of Karma, and it played no small part in their decision TO EXTEND THE GRANT TO THE ADDITIONAL TEN MILLION SELECTED SOULS. I feel the surge of gratitude that rises from your own dear hearts at this mighty accomplishment, all of which also fills me with a pardonable pride in my children. God bless you, each one, and sustain you with his grace of perseverance, until the last vestige of unredeemed life is safe in the bosom of the one Eternal Father, from whence it came.

Saint Germain's Report
11:30 p.m., December 31, 1953

Beloved Friends—everywhere,

Tonight, the heart of freedom is filled with gratitude and devotion to your beautiful spirits.

Three times, in the course of my long journey through the world of form, have I experienced that height of exultation and gratitude which I feel again this night. Once in the dark of a lowly stable I held a newborn infant in my arms and, walking to the door so that the light of the brilliant night might reveal those tiny features, I breathed a prayer of gratitude to God for the deliverance and the safe arrival of a dear son.

Once again, on a beautiful May morning, in the heart of the Transylvania Mountains when through the open windows came the sweet scents of the spring flowers and when the dew still upon the grasses imparted a sweetness to the memories of Earth, I prepared to bid “adieu” to the dear planet, and to return my breath into the keeping of the great Maha Chohan, who gave it. I thus closed my book of Earth experience, and found the joy of freedom in the arms of my beloved, returning home, “to go out no more.”

Again, last evening, when my beloved said to me, “Tonight, my dear, the Lords of Karma themselves shall watch your students, and witness the fruits of your labor!” I could feel that wave of exultation surge up within me once again—faith justified—labor bringing a harvest of merit—friends standing by in dignity before the Lords of Heaven, consciously invoking mercy for Earth and its evolution. I tell you, friends, I shall never forget this dear night. I shall never forget the gift of your lives given in my name, and I shall endeavor, through the energies of my Violet Flame and whatever worth the momentum of my individual consciousness may be to you, prove my friendship as each one of you has proven yours, this blessed Christmas time.

How shall I describe to you the beauty of the Teton this night? A little while ago, I smilingly said to El Morya, "This is one New Year's Eve, my brother, when my children will not go to rest in trepidation, and awaken in the morning in desolation. All of the years of preparation will yield them a harvest of remembrance of the celebration and majesty of this night."

Over the great mountain stands the Threefold Flame, brought from Shamballa by the mighty Kumaras, made up of the harvest of energy of each and every Master Being, each student, angel and deva who has contributed, during the year 1953, to the progress of the evolution of Earth and its attendant lives. When you stood before the throne of Sanat Kumara and poured the harvest of your energies into that flame, the flame was then held, sustained, and carried westward, until it stood over the Teton Mountains, and there it remains until the stroke of midnight when the chalice that holds it will be inverted, and its substance poured before the thrones of the Lords of Karma as a living proof of the fidelity of lifestreams to a spiritual and impersonal cause for the benefit of the race.

The seven glorious chambers that have been opened this year are all connected with the main council chamber, as described to you before. Each one of these beautiful chambers has been placed at the disposal of one of the great Chohans, and all the chelas, the angels, the devas, and the elementals working along that ray are gathered in the particular room devoted to his service. The archways connecting those rooms with the large council chamber are outlined in flame flowers, the color of each ray. At the head of each council chamber sits the mighty Chohan, representative of the ray, and my place awaits me. The blue flame flowers make a fitting frame for the majestic figure of the Master Morya, and all the beloved Masters, chelas and angels who work with him.

The golden flame flowers form the setting for the exquisite presence of Lord Maitreya, the beloved Kuthumi, and those who work with them. The pink flame flowers frame the beauty, delicacy and majesty of the great Venetian; the beautiful white lily flame flowers surround the archway of the blessed Serapis, the Masters and the friends, ascended and unascended, who work with him. The green ivy flame flowers, representative of eternal truth, form the archway to the beloved Hilarion's chamber where he is surrounded by the Brothers of Truth. The glorious deep pink and rose flame flowers form the archway to the chamber of beloved Jesus and Mary, and the deep purple violets surround the entrance to my room, where sit the beloved Diana, Oromasis, and those who work with me.

The center, or grand council chamber, has been reserved completely for the presence of beloved Helios and Vesta, who have accepted the invitation to be present in their beautiful ascended bodies; also the beloved Sanat Kumara, the beloved Lord Buddha, the seven Elohim of Creation, the great Archangels and Archaii, the Planetary Lords of each one of the seven planets of our system, an emissary from the Central Sun and a representative from each one of the seven Suns belonging to our galaxy. These beings are all in snow white.

The retreat makes an exquisite picture as seen from the atmosphere above, with its white hub, and the beautiful colored spokes representing the seven colors of the spectrum, with the great Master Presences, and the chelas filling in the wider part of the wheel.

The thrones of the Lords of Karma are in the atmosphere above the mountain. The flame on the circular altar in the center of the white council chamber has the outline of the Threefold Flame. It has been so placed that it is equally visible from all sides, and this living flame joins with the great created flame brought from Shamballa. It is a most magnificent sight.

Over the Lords of Karma, who tonight wear white, and the glorious diamond crowns with the seven points, indicative of their office, is the Silent Watcher, who always wears robes of blue. Tonight her robe is studded with stars, and the great tiara on her head is also star-studded. It is her great service to draw from the mind and heart of the Universal First Cause the divine pattern for the new year, which she holds within her consciousness until the moment of midnight, when Sanat Kumara raises his consciousness to that of the Silent Watcher, and draws the thoughtform down into himself. Sanat Kumara immediately externalizes it in the atmosphere in front of him.

This thoughtform will be made out of the energy of his own light, and all the Brotherhood, and everyone else who is present, will create a similar form in the atmosphere in front of them, each one endeavoring to accept in consciousness the import that is within it. Then, at a give signal, everyone present releases that thoughtform into the atmosphere, and literally hundreds of thousands of these thoughtforms will be catapulted out into the world, to be accepted by the inner bodies and the sensitive consciousness of the race.

In every retreat on the planet, one individual has been chosen to be the receiver of the thoughtform for that retreat. Each such member has sacrificed his presence at the Teton to remain within the heart of his own retreat, and with the small body of guardians who also elect to remain, they, like yourselves and other beautiful individuals and groups throughout the planet, are “alerted” for this magnificent cosmic event. I cannot emphasize too much how grateful we are to have groups of unascended beings willing to cooperate with the endeavors of the Brotherhood, and to re-create, as best they can, the same ceremony as it takes place in the heart of the Teton.

At the completion of the release of the thoughtforms, the great beings at the Teton will enact the same flame-lighting ceremony that you beloved ones have in mind (a candlelight service), and the song drawn forth by one of your members is one that was used by Sanat Kumara and the friends at Shamballa in the ages when he was visible to the physical sight, and the yearly celebration of the acknowledgment of the flame took place in the city of the bridge (flame bearers). So you will not only receive the thoughtform, but you will be re-enacting the procession in honor of the flame, at the same time that the Brotherhood is performing the same ceremony at the Teton. You should be able to feel the currents that pass through your bodies as unascended God-flame bearers.

We have endeavored to time the ascended and unascended activities exactly, and as the digest of the magnificent accomplishment of the student body for the year 1953 was being read to you, the great sponsor for the year 1953, Lord Michael, was presenting the address to the assembly at the Teton. From this you will see how closely the students are now working with the Brotherhood.

BEFORE THE ACTIVITIES OF THE EVENING BEGAN, THE BELOVED LORD MICHAEL ARRANGED THAT THE MEMBERS OF YOUR FAMILIES WHO HAVE PASSED THROUGH THE VEIL, AND ALL THOSE WHO WERE GIVEN THE GRANT, BE DRAWN TO THE TETON, AND BE GIVEN THE NEWS (SEE BELOW) AT THE SAME TIME THAT YOUR HEARTS LEAPED ON RECEIPT OF IT. IT IS A WONDERFUL THING, BELOVED ONES—SOMETHING THAT HAS NEVER BEEN DONE ON THIS EARTH BEFORE.

LORD MICHAEL HAS SECURED A DISPENSATION WHEREBY THE MEM-BERS OF YOUR IMMEDIATE FAMILIES ARE NOT REQUIRED TO RE-EMBODY, BUT WILL BE PERMITTED TO COMPLETE THEIR LIFE'S WORK IN THE OCTAVES OF LIGHT.

12 o'clock Midnight, January 1, 1954

Now if you will look for a moment, with your mind's eye, at the figure of the Silent Watcher, you will see the tremendous vibration, through the blue radiation which forms her permanent aura, when the thoughtform for the year 1954 passes into the consciousness of Sanat Kumara, who stands with upreaching hands to receive it. The whole assembly stands in expectant adoration, and then comes the dramatic moment when Sanat Kumara projects, by his own life energy, the thoughtform for 1954, which stands in the atmosphere directly in front of him. Every eye of the assembly is upon him as he stands, visible to all, at the circular altar, and when he raises his hand, every member present draws forth from his own life energy a similar expression, symbolic of their united efforts for the coming year. For the year 1954, the thoughtform is THE DIAMOND HEART, representative of the beloved co-sponsors for the new year—the beloved Morya and the beloved Mother Mary.

It is a magnificent sight to see hundreds of thousands of these exquisite shining hearts stand in the atmosphere before each bright-robed, reverent figure. Then, at a given signal, they will be literally catapulted into the atmosphere and taken by angels and elementals into the auras and receptive consciousnesses of unascended beings.

To you, Lord Michael, great being who has rendered such transcendent service to our Earth, to you, blessed Micah, to you, beloved Spirit of 1953, to you, great Morya, to you, beloved Mary, friend of my heart, and to you, beloved Spirit of 1954, year of opportunity, when each of my beloved chelas may write across your pages his or her own victory, I give my love, and to you, my children, as you acknowledge the flame within your hearts, accept the sweetest blessings from one who but lives to love you FREE.

THE PEOPLE OF ORTHODOX THINKING FIND IT ALMOST BEYOND THEIR POWER OF BELIEF THAT THE PERFECTED AND HOLY BEINGS WHOM THEY HAVE HONORED AND WORSHIPPED THROUGH THE CENTURIES, WOULD CHOOSE TO BREAK THE LONG SILENCE IMPOSED UPON THEM BY AN UNBELIEVING WORLD AND SPEAK. Why is this? Because the very people who have created the altars of worship to the gods, have, by their own egos, created these gods in the form and character that would best suit their individual purposes.

Through the centuries they have taught the mass mind to bow the knee before these representatives of grace. It becomes highly uncomfortable when the gods whom they have created to suit their own purposes choose to rend the veil, and show themselves to be other than that which they have been represented to be. It is cause for gentle amusement on our part to see the rebellion and disbelief which floods through the minds of these people when their objects of worship respond, and in a manner befitting intelligent and self-conscious beings, take an active part in the previously one-sided friendship which rises from the human octave to ours.

Human beings remind us of individuals sitting outside the gate of a great stone castle, boasting of the friendship the lords within, although they have neither seen nor conversed with them. Then, when the great lord of the castle throws open the gates and issues forth with his companions, these so-called friends and companions, waiting outside, flee in fear before his presence, and deny that the lord has either reality or authority to speak.

It so happens that the gods have chosen to answer the petitions, the prayers, and the invocations sent up by the outer minds of man through the centuries. In the answering of these calls by the Celestial Hierarchy, there will be much confusion and much re-adjustment in the human mind when they find that their “gods” have a consciousness, an intelligence, and an individuality that is not completely within the scope and pattern of their making, and when the door is opened wide, they will find that the powers they have invoked will not recede, but will come forth in power to accomplish that for which they have been called.

Yes, man's awakening must come! It has come, in a small degree, through those blessed ones who have believed in us and accepted our presence—for which we are eternally grateful. BUT—there shall come an hour when the physical manifestation of these Great Ones will leave no room for argument, and furthermore, will leave no structure of hypocrisy behind upon which the human edifice will longer stand.

You can assist us, whenever the opportunity presents itself, by spreading the Gospel that the Celestial Hierarchy does, in fact, exist. The conviction of our reality within your own feelings will carry more weight than many human words passed in arguments. You can also assist us by insisting, in your calls, that the Ascended Beings come—and come quickly. It could be that the invitation of one, if made with enough persistence, could bring the answer of the Gods to many, for the illumination of all.

Heaven is consciously maintained by the one who accepts no “hell” into his world. Each one is allowed to people his world with creatures of his own choosing. The resident of the eternally-sustained kingdom in which we dwell are more constant in their vigilance, than are the people of Earth, and while serving in this lower realm, the ones who have earned their eternal freedom are wise enough to repel, immediately, any imperfect impression that would seek to intrude upon their attention. The attention is the open door through which flows every experience into your world. For you, the attention has become the connection with the “sinister force,” as you call it, and for us, the attention is used as the constant connection with God—both inside and outside ourselves.

Govern the faculty of your attention for one hour, and place it, unwaveringly, on good, and I defy any shadow to approach you during that period. Then increase the time, until it becomes a habit, and in this way you will be able, ultimately, by perseverance, to keep evil of every kind from entering your world and experience. Your attention must be drawn to a thing before you can become aware of it. This is true of pain, for many a boy on the battlefield lost a limb, and in the heat of conflict felt no loss, until the attention was loosed from the crisis he was engaged in. Then fear flowed in and acceptance of loss followed.

If we could persuade you to keep your attention on good for as long as you keep it on a hurt feeling or a sense of privation, you would have the open door to your complete freedom. You of the Western world are not accustomed to discipline of mind, emotions or body—but for those who aspire to mastery, the easiest way to achieve peace is to throw the full power of your attention on some good manifestation of life all the time.

It could be a quality in yourself or another, a beautiful picture or a poem, a Master's words or likeness, but it is necessary that you be constantly alert as to that upon which you allow your attention to rest. You would not dream of swallowing arsenic or other poisons, yet you pollute your whole lifestream every moment you allow your attention to rest, with acceptance, on any record less than God's full perfection. If I, myself, or any other Master were to allow ourselves to recognize you as you see each other, within fifteen minutes we would be like you. THINK THAT THROUGH! Therefore, if you want to be like us, then you must see everyone as we are. TREAT EVERYONE YOU MEET AS YOU WOULD TREAT US—then your flesh will reflect that which you recognize as REAL through your attention.

Your world is a mirror, reflecting back to you that which you BELIEVE is real—not what you affirm—through your attention. If you, my beloved children, will LEARN this truth, and not just READ it, I should see a great improvement in you and your worlds when I visit you in the “Bulletin” next week. The “Word” must become your flesh, and dwell among you. The Masters' words, as Jesus said, are LIFE, and must take root and grow in you, otherwise the Ascended Host are not permitted, by Cosmic Law, to give their life where there is no soul growth. Therefore, my friends, let every word of truth we have given you become part of your eternal identity. Practice this, and be FREE!

Beloved Children,

Do you know how much I love you? How close we have drawn as your earnest hearts and sweet spirits have pondered upon my word, and your innocent souls have winged their way into my presence, following the beam of your attention and seeking the comfort of the light! How often have I placed my arms around you! How often have your weary heads lain upon my bosom, as through you I poured my life, and the comfort which it has been my privilege and honor to radiate to your Earth in the name of the Holy God, creator of us all, sustainer of our beings—majestic, and powerful and mighty. All glory be to His Name!

My children, I want you to feel the radiation of my light as it flows out through the magnificent forcefields you have created by your own voluntary energy, woven into song, into dynamic application, into clear visualization, through a period of months and years of selfless, kindly, constant service to this universe, and the humanity evolving upon the planet. On the path of your love and on the very energies of your own lives have we walked again into the presence of mankind, sustained by your faith that our reality, our gifts, our consciousness, our counsel might reach into the hearts and feelings of the members of the race, willing to accept the conception that there are Free Beings governing and directing the course and destiny of this evolution.

Do you know how precious to us are the friends who have created that BRIDGE from the human side? Ah! Your hearts cannot conceive the love we feel for men and women wearing bodies of flesh, living in a realm and world of chaos and confusion and unbelief, and yet who have enough grace of spirit, enough faith and confidence to reach out a friendly hand, and through the veil, grasp our own; to accept a Hierarchy who, on their rare visits to the mankind of Earth, have caused the bodies of the people visited to tremble in fear, and made them cover their eyes with their hands, because they believed that they dare not look upon the light of our presence; a Hierarchy now accepted without fear, superstitious dread and confusion, but accepted as comrades and fellow-workers—makes us exceedingly grateful.

In those rare intervals when the Cosmic Law allowed us to pass through the veil and contact a member of the human race, so often was our presence such a shock to the individual; so greatly was the emotional body stirred, that it was completely beyond the power of the one to whom we came, to receive either our message or our instruction. From this you can see that it would not be possible for the veil to be rent so that the host of heaven could step through until a prepared body of conscious, incarnate individuals was ready to receive them, and in intelligent, mature, dignified, reverent acceptance, work with that Hierarchy in forwarding the cause of God-freedom for the race.

Such preparation, beloved ones, is in progress. Such men and women have been found. Such men and women belong to this endeavor of ours, and I bow before your light in gratitude to the source of all that lives, that the day of our return into the consciousness of all the mankind of Earth looms closer, because the door has been opened by faith, and held back by the arms of love—and the pathway of consciously-dedicated energy passing out of your bodies and molded into form is witness before the great Cosmic Tribunal, that the mankind of Earth DO wish to walk and talk with a free Hierarchy, the angels, the devas and the Gods once more.

We come in answer to an invitation from your hearts. We have waited many centuries for such an invitation, and our gratitude to the lifestreams who are able to accept the logic within our words and counsel cannot be measured by any human concept, but it can be felt, I am sure, by those of you who are now sensitive enough to note the radiation of our individual presences.

The matter of stepping up the vibratory action of your consciousnesses is accomplished gradually, in order to balance the various bodies that make up the instruments through which your souls function. We return again and again, bringing the very qualities and vibratory action of our momentum, blending them all together, and passing the flames and rays of our individual worlds through you, preparing you for the hour of visitation, and believe me, it will come at the instant when a cooperative group gathers together, and can RETAIN THE HARMONY IN THE INNER BODIES sufficiently to stand the pressure as the veil is rent and the Electronic Presence flashes before the physical sight for the first time.

How many centuries have passed since mankind, as a group, have gathered together and raised their voices in song to me and the seven Chohans who work with me! My heart is so filled with gratitude every time I hear it, that I invariably ask the Cosmic Law for some added dispensation, to return on the very energy of your words and music, to help set you free.

Oh, how I love my seven sons! How magnificent they are—individually! How distinctive in their service, and yet how cooperative in their endeavor! How could I describe to you the unity of consciousness between us—working as one body—deeply and sincerely interested in each project and idea born out of the hearts and souls and spirits of each other—and now standing as ONE behind the beloved Saint Germain in his great endeavor to externalize the permanent Golden Age for the dear Earth.

Another week I shall tell you how our beloved Morya conceived the idea of assisting him by raising up those God-free men and women (your sweet selves) who were willing to step forward into a greater understanding of the Law, and now I want to thank you for your attention to my words; I want to thank you for your love, for your faith, and for your friendship—and I would like you to accept, my children, through your feelings, my own sincere love and the love of God which, flowing through you, is VICTORY. It is just that—ACCEPT IT NOW!

I can give you no more than my word. My word is my life! It is my pledge, my bond. I know your struggles, for I walked the way of Earth. I walked from darkness into light, and I stand in that light now, holding your hand that you, too, may pass through the veil and stand with me. I am your friend of the ages, your companion, and all that your comfort is. Come to my arms, feel my arms about you, and know that friendship in our realm does not vary with the weather—it is eternal. I thank you and I bless you, forever.

The opening of the Resurrection Temple, which has been guarded and sustained by the Ascended Masters Jesus and Mary for centuries of time, was accompanied by a tremendous spiritual acceleration of the souls of incarnate lifestreams, as well as those who wait at the door of birth.

The great Archangel Gabriel, who is the Angel of the Resurrection, accelerated the power of the beautiful Resurrection Flame in the circular flame room, itself, which forms the heart of the retreat. The seven great Archangels stood, all in snow-white garments, drawing the flame into their bodies and breathing it outward through each of the circular corridors which form the graded order of chambers in which initiates gather, according to their light and capacity to stand the pressure of the flame.

The beloved Mother Mary chose to welcome each guest herself, standing at the great open doors at the extreme outer circle of rooms, so that the first contact the beloved aspirants might have, would be her warm and gentle presence. It was my pleasure, as director of the great powers of nature, to anchor a ray from the nature temples through the Resurrection Flame, and then expand it to bless all the forces of nature, the beings who direct them, and the elemental substance that makes up the physical and inner bodies of mankind.

The beloved Master Jesus, who manifested the power of the Resurrection Flame through a flesh form, revived the records of the first Easter Morning through the lower atmosphere of Earth, and through the etheric bodies of all who had witnessed that event, as well as all the Christians who had accepted that event as not only a possible accomplishment, but an actual fact.

The beloved El Morya, as hierarch of the Brothers of the Diamond Heart, directed the assembly in the creation of diamond hearts out of the sparkling atmosphere of the retreat, and millions of these thoughtforms were literally catapulted into the atmosphere, with every outbreath of the august company which participates in the transmission of the flame around the world. As the flame was released by the assembly, beloved Morya, and his assisting Brothers and Sisters of the Diamond Heart, began creating a diamond heart around each sanctuary, home, worker, and student, made up of the qualified energies drawn from the Resurrection Temple. These hearts are a practical, tangible, and positive protection against the invisible, as well as visible, forces that flow through the psychic and astral realms, and act as a further insulation around the Tube of Light of each individual and group activity. Daily recognition of this service will greatly strengthen and intensify this blessing and this gift given.

May I congratulate each sanctuary and group, as well as each individual student, for their ability to control the breath and hold the visualization, and also to contemplate the activity of the evening with such clarity through the mental body as well.

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 21, 1954

Beloved Children,

I shall endeavor to set before you the plan conceived by beloved Morya and presented by him one day, as he, the other Chohans and myself sat around our council table at Ceylon. BELOVED MORYA PUT FORTH THE IDEA THAT IT WOULD BE OF TREMENDOUS ASSISTANCE TO SAINT GERMAIN AND HIS EFFORTS TO BRING IN THE GOLDEN AGE, IF ENOUGH GOD-FREE MEN AND WOMEN WERE RAISED UP AND WERE WILLING TO TAKE THE ADDED DISCIPLINE REQUIRED TO HOLD THEIR BALANCE AS THE PRESSURE OF THE SACRED FIRE INCREASED WITHIN THEM.

SO, AS ONE IDEA BEGETS ANOTHER, IT WAS MY HONOR AND PRIVILEGE TO CONCEIVE THE IDEA OF THE TRANSMISSION FLAME CLASSES, an activity which now engaged the attention of students in almost every country on the planet. May I just touch lightly upon my idea to give you a picture of my vision and that which shall be established through it, and beloved Morya's idea, in the days and years ahead.

OVER PLANET EARTH, BEAUTIFUL RETREATS HAVE BEEN FUNCTION-

ING FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS, with great God-free Beings tending the powers of the Sacred Fire drawn within them, welcoming the few among mankind whose light drew them into that vicinity, and radiating out from those heart centers, certain purifying powers, which did much to dissipate the psychic and astral creations that make up the lower atmosphere of the planet. Mankind at large had very little, if any, conscious knowledge of the existence of these retreats, not to mention the activities, past and current, that went on within them.

An exception was the few lifestreams who were drawn into their sacred precincts throughout the years, and who usually passed therefrom into their eternal freedom. However, through the past several years, more of mankind have become aware of the existence of these holy places, and so it became the beloved Morya's project to give these people a knowledge (if they would accept it) of the current activities going on within these retreats. THUS YOUR BRIDGE WAS BORN—and it has prospered.

Then I, looking upon his vision and approving of it, conceived of an idea by which the conscious students might become part of the radiation—through their own bodies—of the retreat that drew the attention of the entire Brotherhood for a period of every thirty days, until the entire twelve months were covered. In other words, there would be twelve retreats active within the year, each covering a thirty-day period, and each covering a different activity, all under the direction and supervision of members of the Hierarchy.

I envisioned a plan by which the students might become part of the radiation of the active retreat through their own bodies, and transmit this radiation from point to point on the Earth's surface, in a manner similar to the transmission of the radio and television programs, thus intensifying the power from each retreat, drawing into their very bodies the substance gathered by the God-free Brotherhood, and then projecting that forth into the bodies and minds of the people of Earth, as well as into the very atmosphere. I outlined this idea to the Brothers present, and then asked the beloved Morya to present it to a certain group of students. Thus was the action of the Transmission Flame Classes established. Now it has become a world-wide activity, which shall increase in power and intensity through this year of 1954.

What are you doing, beloved ones, besides contributing the breath of your life every month for the awakening of the race? Let me tell you—you are building a forcefield, which can be used by great hosts of Masters, at any time, through which they may conduct cosmic currents for the blessing and protection of your locality, for the alleviation of conditions that would otherwise externalize, and for holding the balance of continents and, perhaps, a whole planet, during cataclysmic disturbances.

A FORCEFIELD, dear ones, is merely a focus of energy—of qualified light. Your own aura is your forcefield, and the forcefield of your sanctuary is the energy made up of your cooperative endeavors through the years, both of which are natural conductors for the vibratory action of the Sacred Fire. And what is this mysterious Sacred Fire? Just QUALIFIED LIFE. The fire that beats your heart is primal God-essence, unformed God-light, and when it is qualified by you with healing, peace, or purity, it becomes the Sacred Fire emanating from your body, and filling your aura, which can be transferred at will to others in distress.

The Sacred Fire I wield is my own life essence, which I qualify with cosmic comfort. It is the life that I draw from the Sun, qualified with the radiation of my love of life. This I hold around my body, intensifying and increasing its condensed pressure by my love, releasing it, then, in a beam of directed energy, which follows my attention, into the energy of the individual invoking my assistance. Where my energy meets the energy of the one making the call, my beam is the stronger, and breaks down and melts the discordant energy of the other, thus becoming the consuming power of the Sacred Fire in action—that is all.

All these foci are conductors of the power of the Sacred Fire. The Fire Temples were once manifest on your Earth, and they are to come again. On Atlantis, on Lemuria, and in all past Golden Ages, certain lifestreams were priests and priestesses of the Sacred Fire. That meant that for many entire embodiments, these people dedicated their lives to God, and through contemplation, adoration and invocation, they drew forth life, clothed it with certain qualities, and created an aura both within and around the temples where they served, which quality was the master control of all the energy drawn there.

The people who needed that particular quality came there for assistance, and those temples were known through the length and breadth of every land. The masses of the people, when they found that they could no longer control the energies of their own lives, would enter within the stronger focus, where the Sacred Fire was the master control, and as their energy met the power drawn by the priest and priestess, it was brought back again into harmony and balance.

Every Ascended Master renders the same service. The Master Jesus, during his ministry, proved it time and time again. The quality of his energy, held under the control of his God-self, met the energy qualified by discord and disease, changed the vibratory action of the discord and disease in the distressed one, and raised it into his own peace, his own healing, and his own power of mastery. That power will come again. It will come through you and others—all sincere, earnest and loving children of God.

Beloved ones, the future has much in store for all of you. Today, just lean on the Everlasting Arms, feel the love of God flowing from my heart into yours, feel all the Masters' love for each of you, individually, and feel your own Holy Christ Self setting your house in order. Just feel the radiation—and accept it!

THE SPOKEN WORD IS THE CREATIVE POWER OF GOD, THAT MOULDS THE UNIVERSAL LIGHT SUBSTANCE INTO FORMS SIMILAR TO THE CUP WHICH THE SPOKEN EXPRESSION CREATES, WHETHER IT REFERS TO PERSONS, PLACES, CONDITIONS, OR THINGS.

THE HOLY BREATH IS WITHIN THE WORD. THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE INDIVIDUAL IS CHARGED AND SURCHARGED WITH DISTORTED FORMS THROUGH THE MISUSE OF GOD'S ENERGY IN SPEECH. IN THE SAME MANNER, IF THE SPOKEN WORD IS PEACE-GIVING AND HARMONIOUS IN ITS EXPRESSION, THE CONSCIOUSNESS TAKES ON AN ADDED GLOW OF LIGHT, AND THE INDIVIDUAL BECOMES A COMFORTING PRESENCE TO ALL HE OR SHE CONTACTS. DECREES WERE CONSCIOUSLY PRESENTED TO MAN'S INTELLECT AS A BALANCE FOR THE MISUSE OF THE SPOKEN WORD, AS WELL AS FOR THE IMPURE SILENT THOUGHT, PRODUCED THROUGH THE CENTURIES OF EMBODIMENT.

IN ORDER TO SHATTER THESE DISTORTED CUPS, ONE NEEDS ENERGY VIBRATING AT THE SAME RATE, BUT CONSTRUCTIVELY QUALIFIED. IN OTHER WORDS, IT IS POLICY TO 'BREAK A CUP' CREATED BY WRONG SPEECH BY A VIBRATORY ACTION OF CORRECT SPEECH RATHER THAN BY MENTAL FORCE. SECONDLY, THE CONSTRUCTIVE DECREE, WHICH IS ALWAYS AN INVOCATION TO A MEMBER OF THE ASCENDED HOST OR TO YOUR OWN CHRIST PRESENCE, BECOMES A CUP THAT THE MASTERS OR YOUR CHRIST SELF CAN FILL WITH THEIR LIGHT SUBSTANCE, WHICH CREATES A PULSATING VIBRATION IN YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS OF A QUALITY AND ACTIVITY FOR MANIFESTATION THAT WILL BRING MORE OF THE

DIVINE PLAN INTO EXPRESSION. THIRDLY, THE SPOKEN WORD, VIBRATING AT THE LOW RATE WHICH CAN BE HEARD BY THE PHYSICAL EAR, IS MORE EASILY CONDUCTED THROUGH THE MENTAL AND FEELING WORLDS OF INCARNATED SPIRITS, SETTING UP FORMS OF A CONSTRUCTIVE NATURE IN THEIR BODIES AND AURAS, WHEREAS THE FINER ETHERS OF MIND SUBSTANCE WOULD, BY REASON OF THE BODIES' DENSITY, PASS AROUND THEM UNFELT AND UNNOTICED.

ONE OF THE RULES OF THE GREAT WHITE BROTHERHOOD IS NEVER TO PICTURIZE AN INDIVIDUAL IMPERFECTLY. Every lifestream is endowed with the birthright of perfection. God, the Father, created everyone in HIS OWN IMAGE AND LIKENESS, and decreed perfection as the natural law of their beings. When an individual recognizes imperfection in any other lifestream in the universe, he is dishonoring the will of the Father, who created all. Every person, through thought, feeling, and the spoken word, emits energy and substance from his lifestream, and when the substance and energy is charged with a picture of imperfection, driven against another individual through the channels of thought and feeling, and intensified channels of thought and feeling, and intensified by the spoken word, it forms a film or coating around the one to whom the force is directed. This seeks to cover up the divine image which God intended, and makes a tremendous karmic link, which can only be obliterated by powerful decrees or the use of the Sacred Fire by the sender of the destructive energy. All mankind are condemned by one another, but when an individual becomes a conscious chela, he must learn to think as the Father does about his creation.

Beloved Maha Chohan

March 7, 1954

Beloved Children,

A question that is often asked is, "What is consciousness?"

A man's consciousness is comprised of that of which he is aware, or has been acquainted with through the experiences of life. The outer world divides the consciousness into the SUB-CONSCIOUS, wherein is contained the experiences of the past, and which is sometimes buried deep within the nature, the CONSCIOUS, which comprises the experiences of the present, and the SUPER-CONSCIOUSNESS, or higher unfoldment, toward which man is striving.

The students, as well as the average man, are constantly enlarging their sphere of conscious knowledge through every-day experience, from the time of birth until the end of their embodiment. A child of two has not the consciousness of the grown man, and the experiences, education, and instruction of childhood make him aware of a great deal more in the universe than his infant mind could comprehend.

For illustration, we shall take an individual at the foot of a great mountain. He is conscious, through the medium of his sight and hearing faculties, of his surroundings, of the ledge from which the climb would begin, of his fellow-travelers, of the plain, the shrubbery, and other things. If it happens to be his initial journey or ascent, he will not be conscious of what is at the apex of the mountain until, through his own life energy, he has made the grade.

He may have, implanted into this consciousness, a vague picture of the top, through the description given by others, through photographs, and so on, but, although the top of the mountain, the surrounding scenery, the snow-capped summit shining in the sun, is even now presented to him, it is a view—or a consciousness—into which he can enter only through personal effort. Now once he has climbed the mountain by the energy of his life, that experience will record the fullness of the beauty that is at the top, and that consciousness will be his forever.

You will see, then, that many men and many women will never make that climb, and for them, the consciousness of the mountain top will ever remain in the super-consciousness, because they are not aware of it, except by the tales, descriptions or photographs of others, and the effort daunts them.

It is exactly the same with the human and the Ascended Master Consciousness. The Ascended Master Consciousness (like the summit of the mountain) is ever present. The mass of mankind live beneath it—the few hear of it through description or allegory—but in order to make it your own, the ascent must take place through the energy of your own lifestream. However, once you have achieved that summit of mastery, although you return again to the affairs of the outer world, it is a part of your nature and experience which no one can erase.

No one can take from a man, ascended or unascended, any experience that widens the consciousness—whether it be a sight of exquisite beauty in nature's cathedral, or whether it be the entrance of the soul into the realms of spirit, for consciousness is the sole property of each individual lifestream, and is one activity that cannot be stolen or destroyed. Therefore, what a man builds into his consciousness by contemplation and effort, is his for eternity. The path leading to the summit is reached through contemplation, initiation, invocation, and perseverance. Why stand ye at the foot looking upward? Ask your own Holy Christ Self to lead you to the apex and be FREE!

March 14, 1954

Beloved Ones,

It is my pleasure to offer for your enjoyment this week, the reports of my beloved sons, El Morya and Kuthumi, on the transmission activities from Darjeeling on February 20th, 1954. Thank you for the good wishes and sweet energies embodied in your communications, on the return current of which my individual, as well as my cosmic, blessings go back to you to bless your worlds and that of those you love.

Address by Beloved El Morya

Beloved Friends of God,

Greetings, blessings, love, light, freedom, hope, courage, strength, vitality and fire from Darjeeling to the sons and daughters of man everywhere upon planet Earth tonight—the elemental kingdom, to the angelic host, to the Cosmic Beings, the Ascended Masters, and all those who have turned their consciousness and attention toward the heart of India, and who choose, voluntarily, to open the doors of that consciousness, in order to receive the impetus of the will and nature of the Godhead.

To mankind incarnate, to mankind who stand at the gates of birth, to mankind in the astral and psychic realms, and to the imprisoned elemental kingdom, I speak tonight in the name of God, the Father, God, the Mother, and God, the Holy Spirit. It is the fiat from the heart of creation that the will of God shall now be manifest through your life, through your energies, through, your senses. I speak these words into the mental and feeling worlds of the planet—into the groaning substance of this dark star—into every appearance which enfolds an earnest son or daughter of the kingdom who has forgotten the divine destiny of God mastery.

Tonight, the will of God, through the energies of unascended beings circles this planet. On every breath it is charged into the energies of the four elements, which make up the atmosphere. It is charged into the animal kingdom. It is charged into the reluctant souls of the sleeping masses, and into the bold, who have chosen to lead those masses in sunshine rather than in shadow.

Tonight Aries has opened the currents of the air. The great Himalaya has cooperated again in making world-wide these inner fibers of spiritual light.

The WILL OF GOD IS GOOD. The WILL OF GOD is for a free people. The WILL OF GOD is for a free people. The WILL OF GOD is to free the great Lord of the World that he may resume his own natural place on his star.

The WILL OF GOD is that the axis of the Earth shall be straightened—that the extremes of climate shall be mercifully blended together into a habitable and happy balance.

The WILL OF GOD is that every man, from within himself, shall draw forth the substance and supply which is the need and requirement of his everyday existence.

The WILL OF GOD is that disease, death, poverty, limitation, and unbalance of mind and body shall be no more, that impurity, viciousness, and unkindness shall die, that elemental light shall again shine, that the Earth itself shall take on the hues of iridescent beauty, which it had when it came forth from the bodies and souls of the Elohim.

The WILL OF GOD is that there shall be no veil between man and God, and that angels, devas, and all God-free Beings shall walk and talk as freely with the evolution of the Earth, as men now talk with one another.

This is the WILL OF GOD—the lame to be made whole, the sick to rise, the diseased to become filled with ease and balance, each one entering into the deep recesses of his heart, facing his own Supreme Divinity—seeing it face to face, and becoming so enamored of its light that the externalized form he wears becomes the magnificent perfection preordained and destined for each lifestream.

It is time that the WILL OF GOD be impressed with such strength and power into the consciousness of mankind that there cannot longer be any dallying in the shadows nor acceptance of limitation as part of this great Universal First Cause.

Every hour, on the hour, during this thirty-day period (February 15th to March 14th inclusively), either I, myself, or some member of the Brotherhood of the Diamond Heart, intend to speak the WILL OF GOD into the energies of this physical appearance world, which will carry those vibrations around the planet. Those in unascended bodies, interested in sending forth, at least five minutes at a time—three times a day—the following strong, powerful thought (and spoken word if possible) will be MYSELF IN ACTION:

THE WILL OF GOD IS GOOD.

THE WILL OF GOD IS LIGHT.

THE WILL OF GOD IS HAPPINESS.

THE WILL OF GOD IS PEACE.

THE WILL OF GOD IS PURITY.

THE WILL OF GOD IS BALANCE.

THE WILL OF GOD IS KINDNESS.

I have stood now, for many centuries, while man and his teachers have prattled about the will of God and the submission to circumstances. That shall CEASE TO BE. Within life is the power of mastery, and within my fully-gathered cosmic momentum is the pressure and assurance of faith in the fulfillment of that will. I now give the platform to my brother, Kuthumi. Thank you, and good evening.

Beloved Kuthumi's Report on the Transmission Flame Activity of February 20, 1954

Beloved Friends,

Tonight, Darjeeling presents a heart-stirring and exquisite sight. Looking at it from the hillside, the great palace is ablaze with light—the great towers, the central globe, and the entire building is shining in that supernatural way that all places do which are the foci of the Ascended Brotherhood.

Tonight we are engaged in the study of the WILL OF GOD in relation to every avenue and channel by which mankind is guided, served or nourished.

The heads of all the seven rays, not only the Chohans, the mighty Archangels and the Elohim, but individuals of other great initiate development, are present.

The manifold expression of the will of God could not be described to the finite mind, but there is no channel that serves constructive endeavor that can succeed or expand without humility in the consciousness and heart of the leader, to the will of God, himself, and it is this great humility in the hearts of the elect in Darjeeling, tonight, which gives us such hope that we may be able to infiltrate our instruction through them to the consciousness of the people who work under them, according to the people's development and capacity to recognize truth, and the development of the teacher who imparts it.

The beloved Master Morya is acting in his capacity as representative of the First Sphere tonight. He wears brilliant iridescent white garments. A magnificent diamond—the largest known on Earth today—gleams in front of his white turban, and he brush, which is a good eight inches high, is royal blue. The girdle at his waist is banded in this same royal color, and tonight he wears (which is unusual for him) exquisite blue sandals embroidered heavily in pearls, and encrusted with diamonds. On the forefinger of the left hand he wears a great sapphire ring, and on the forefinger of the right hand he wears a large diamond.

Master Morya is already upon the rostrum. At his right is his own great teacher, the mighty Hercules, who is in royal blue from head to foot. On his left is the great Master with whom you are not yet acquainted, but who is the teacher of the power element in the nature kingdom. He, also, is clothed in the same royal blue.

The Brotherhood of the Diamond Heart all wear white tonight, with the diamond heart encrusted with diamonds and outlined in royal blue over the left breast. Each wears a cowl cape, ranging from deep electronic blue, down to the pale blue, each shade representing the graded service of the brother in the order. The Master Morya has had created an exquisite heart of white lilacs to encircle the magnificent diamond and sapphire altar, which is the pride of all India. Through the lilac is interspersed, at intervals, the lovely blue wood violet which is the favorite flower of El Morya.

Tonight he is demonstrating (for the benefit of the lesser brotherhood, the representatives of the orthodox channels, and the great governmental heads) the power of the Great Central Sun Magnet, as focused through the Chohans of the Rays. He is magnetizing, through the jewels of power, the divine ideas from the mind of God in the First Sphere.

It is a most interesting thing to watch. As El Morya lifts the left hand, the power jewel, the sapphire, becomes a magnet, and from the First Sphere, the seeds of God-ideas respond, and actually take form before our eyes. At first, when they begin to emerge from the invisible at the nave of the chancel, they seem vapory and ethereal in outline, but as they progress to the jeweled ring, they become quite tangible, and are very beautiful in appearance. Then through the jeweled finger on the right hand, Morya directs them. He now makes a motion, as if drawing them through his body, and then projects them over the audience with the five fingers of the right hand—the great diamond on the forefinger flowing and sparkling like living fire.

As these thought ideas enter his body, you can see their form in scintillating white light, but as they leave his body, they take on color and vitality. They are coming so rapidly now, that one cannot distinguish one from another, but it is a manifest expression of the magnetization of divine ideas from the heart of God, that has never been externalized before by any son or daughter of God. These God ideas are so subtle, and vibrate so rapidly, that they could not be felt by the consciousness of any incarnate lifestream, unless “stepped down” by some God-being.

As these beautiful thoughtforms fill the room, they may be absorbed by anyone who is present, each idea having the capacity, within itself, to grow and develop into some exquisite perfection of music, of education, of politics, of invention, of religious endeavor, and a myriad of other expressions. The alert ones in the audience are magnetizing the thoughtforms as they leave Morya's hand, and are drawing them into themselves by their own heart's flame; others are “just watching the show,” and letting the precious ideas float past them. It is an interesting sight to watch the activity of each one's light.

In the great gardens outside the place float the exquisite Angel Devas of the Diamond Heart. These are really the most beautiful devas. Tonight they wear tiaras of exquisite diamonds, of which some are seven-pointed, some nine, and some are complete crowns. The great leader is feminine. Her tiara comes to a point at the top, and it is almost eight inches high. Her garments are something similar to what you ladies would call “chiffon,” which is heavily studded with a diamond-like illumination, which flows from her body. These beings of the Diamond Heart are waiting to receive the magnetized thought and feeling forms, which the beloved Morya is projecting forth. They will take them north, south, east and west on their breath, and it is the intent of Morya to drop a group of them into every sanctuary and every reading room and home where there are students gathered, and we shall all be interested to see how many will pick up a new idea, nourish it, and bring it forth into form. Morya, himself, is checking very carefully tonight to see how receptive the individual consciousness is, how many can feel the gift, and how many will have the perseverance to follow through.

The breath track is very powerful tonight, because Himalaya and Ar-ies, themselves, have gone around the world to strengthen it, and Morya's activities will continue through the entire breathing ceremony. He is not using the throat, heart or head centers—just the hands—drawing in with the left and directing with the right. There is a reason for this that may not be described to you now. Absorb the ideas—follow the breath track, and God be with you.

Beloved Children,

It gives me pleasure to offer herewith, for your perusal and enjoyment, the commentaries of my beloved son, Kuthumi, on the Transmission Flame Ceremonies held in the retreat of the beloved Himalaya, which is situated in one of the largest of the great mountain peaks that bear his name, and which was opened to the chelas of the outer world for the first time on the evening of March 20th, 1954. It is my hope that you will tune in as often as possible during this current month to the mighty Master of this beautiful retreat, and draw into your consciousness the powerful Flame of Illumination and Love Divine which he has drawn forth from the heart of Helios, and sustained there for untold centuries, until the cosmic moment when the souls of men would voluntarily seek its raising and transmuting essence.

My love and gratitude enfold you individually and collectively, beloved ones, for the dear expressions of love that come like little shining messengers from your hearts to mine. We might well say that the veil that separates your octave from ours is being rent—through your own blessed efforts.

Beloved Kuthumi's Address

Beloved ones, this evening I address you from the Retreat of the Blue Lotus, in the heart of the great Himalayas, and I bow before the Presence of God, alive within your hearts, in gratitude for the blazing flame of light which forms a focus over every sanctuary and home where an activity of this Transmission Flame is held.

Beloved Father of Light! Direct to all mankind, through me this night, the blessings from the heart of the mighty Himalaya, and from the Brotherhood gathered here, following the initial impulse that was set up when this activity came into being, two years ago. Charge the beloved students with the fully-gathered momentum of spiritual illumination, peace and tranquility from the heart of this mighty Master, from that of the great Lord Buddha, from my own beloved Guru, Lord Maitreya, and from every Master Presence who has stood within the sacred aura of these majestic mountains, and who, through proximity to the flame of light established here, attained their victory and freedom.

Tonight East and West truly meet! The conscious minds of individuals in both hemispheres weave out of the energies of their lives an immortal bridge and span, that girdles this planet around. Tonight is manifest brotherhood in its truest and most perfect expression. Around that girdle of living light will flow those blessings that have been confined to the East since first the ray from the heart of the Elohim struck into the universal light, and form began—as far as this planet was concerned.

Here in the Retreat of the Blue Lotus of the beloved Himalaya is being enacted tonight one of the most beautiful ceremonies that mankind has ever been privileged to witness. It is one of the most sacred foci of light on the planet Earth, equal in power to that of the God Meru in Titi-caca. Directed through it is the permanent ray, which is half of the cradle—the matrix—around which planet Earth itself was drawn, and guarded by the mighty Manu of the Fourth Root Race.

There are over ten thousand souls gathered in this great chamber. Most of the religious houses or lamaseries in this vast mountain range are of Herculean proportions, and many thousands of monks and lay brothers belong to these various organizations, so it is not an unusual thing to have mighty audience chambers to take care of these multitudes.

I have asked our Lord Himalaya if I might describe the retreat to you, and I have received his acquiescence. The entire top of the mountain, which is rather cone-shaped, is hollowed out into seven magnificent chambers, arranged in tiers, one above the other, much like steps of stairs. The entrance is well down the side of the mountain, even with the lowest room. The chamber at the apex holds the Blue Lotus Flame, and is held sacred from the public.

Now, if you will step through the door with me, passing the lovely pond of crystal-clear water in which some blue lotus flowers are floating, we will find ourselves within the lowest chamber, an amphitheater arrangement, but with the difference that the seating adjustment slopes downward and backward from the front seats, instead of upward. The great altar is high up in front, and the seats are similar to wide white marble steps with the whole arrangement sloping backward gradually, so that it is quite possible for the people on the lower steps (who all sit oriental fashion), to see the great altar and everything that goes on—the front seats being the highest, and the back ones the lowest.

The front of the altar is covered with fine gold filigree work, and in the exact center is a large folding door of the same exquisite material and design, which may be opened on occasion, allowing a view of the room and the great altar in the next room above. Tonight, for the first time, those individuals who have earned the right to enter the first or lower chamber only, will be privileged to see all of the seven great altar doors open, one by one, and will have a clear view of the main altar at the summit.

Now the procession is starting at the rear of the lower chamber, with the beloved Himalaya in an exquisite mandarin robe of buttercup-yellow Chinese silk, at the head, with the beloved Sanat Kumara, the beloved Lord Buddha, the beloved Lord Maitreya, the beloved Kwan Yin, and other members of the Hierarchy, in ordered rank, following. As the procession reaches the altar of each room, two acolytes, in the same buttercup yellow, hold back the sides of the center doors, and the Great Ones, with their retinue, pass upward from room to room until they reach the foot of the main altar at the apex of the mountain upon which rests an exquisite statue of Lord Buddha, over sixty feet in height, which is famous all over Asia, but which has never been seen except by high initiates, until tonight.

In front of the statue of the Buddha stands, what looks like, a large baptismal font of beautiful purple jade, from which rises the Blue Lotus of living flame.

We have a special treat in store for us tonight because, as members of the beloved Himalaya's procession are seated, we shall see the procession of Spring, which is usually held in the audience chamber of the Lord Maha Chohan's retreat, when the spring cycle opens, as it does this night (the eve of the 21st of March).

The beloved Spirit of Spring, whose name is Amaryllis, leads the procession (which starts at the rear of the lower chamber) on the arm of the Maha Chohan, as representative of the nature kingdom, wearing green and gold apparel. Amaryllis is wearing an exquisite yellow robe with an over-train of emerald green, which is borne by seven cherubim, and before them proceed many similar little beings, scattering petals and flowers of spring. Next in line come the mighty directors of the elements, the mighty Helios and Vesta, in flame yellow, Virgo in fern green, the mighty Neptune in the blue of the sea, and Aries in snow-white. The guardian spirit of every flower, shrub, tree and fruit follow. This gorgeous procession passes through every sanctuary and home where the Transmission Flame is honored tonight.

I must now proceed to my own station, so will say, "God bless you, and good night!"

The Maha Chohan:

April 4, 1954

Beloved Ones,

We have been told in the course of our studies that each lifestream is equipped with seven bodies—four lower bodies, which function on the earth plane, and the three higher bodies, which function in the higher octaves, but which, nevertheless, form an integral part of the individual's equipment by which he may attain his full mastery of life energy, and thus gain his eternal freedom.

All seven bodies of each lifestream contribute to the consciousness of each individual. The three higher bodies hold a consciousness of perfection, but the four lower bodies are constantly adding to the sum total of the consciousness of the lifestream through their reports of good and evil. These lower bodies, by reason of their limited unfoldment, accept the appearance world at its face value, and add to the conglomerate mass of human thinking, which forms the average consciousness of mankind as a whole.

Let us take, for example, the great mirrored hall at Versailles, in which was reflected all the glory of the French Court, its beauty amplified time and time again by the reflections of the mirrors. That which was present within this hall was reflected upon the mirrors, and according to the subject within the room, was the reflection pleasing or otherwise.

Now, man stands in exactly this same relationship to the world of maya (universal atmosphere) around him, which is like a great mirror, and WHOEVER OR WHATEVER HE ENTERTAINS WITHIN HIS CONSCIOUSNESS IS REFLECTED AND AMPLIFIED IN THE WORLD ABOUT HIM. Whatever picture he allows his mind to dwell upon within, that picture will reflect itself in his world, just as if you walked an elephant through the Hall of Mirrors you would see thousands of elephants reflected upon the paneled walls. The foolish man might break the mirrors in annoyance at the reflection, but the wise man would remove the elephant from the hall and place, in its stead, some exquisite piece of statuary or other uplifting expression of beauty, which would be reflected in all its beauty on the wall, and amplified a thousand-fold to increase the initial beauty of its expression.

To chomp and rage at the appearance with which the individual is surrounded, is as foolish as breaking a mirror to destroy the reflection of something one does not choose to look upon, because the original subject remaining will reappear, when the mirror is restored, in exactly the same manner as it was before, and during the time that the mirror was broken. As we have stated so many times, the inner thoughts and feelings of men are reflected in the universe around him, and the REFLEC-

TION is what causes people so much grief. The medical world, the educational world, and the scientific world are constantly dealing with these EFFECTS, attempting to balance them one against the other, but they are as impotent as the man who attempts to destroy the elephant in the mirror with a rock, rather than removing the elephant itself from its place before the mirrored glass.

If disharmony, limitation, ill-health or any other unpleasant effects appear in our "mirrors," we must raise our thought and feeling faculties to our Holy Christ Self, and let its exquisite consciousness of harmony, peace, love, wisdom, health and plenty contribute its part to the manifestation and expression of our worlds. Let the glory of your higher vehicles reflect itself in the mirror of your life's expression.

Beloved children, use ALL the instruments belonging to your lifestream! Why limit yourselves to the four lower bodies, which have placed themselves, through ignorance, under the domination of the senses? It would be like children and young people when they enter school and college hoping to get an education without submitting themselves to the guidance of their teachers and professors. Call your higher bodies into action!

If your world contains disharmony, limitation, ill-health or any manifestation that is not pleasing, the inner consciousness must be PURGED through the medium of the SACRED FIRE (just as you would sweep a room clean), of any grotesque form that you do not want to reflect or amplify in the mirror of your life's expression. Set into action the Violet Fire of Freedom's Love. COMMAND it to consume mistakes, and illumine your consciousness.

Jesus said, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," and you will remember what Saint Paul said, "Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, THINK ON THESE THINGS."

I cannot stress too much the need of each student changing the thoughts and feelings of his inner nature, and setting his inner house in order, so that the reflection that he casts from him may express the beauty of his spirit and soul, raise his outer world to a place of beauty and perfection, and be an example before all men of what a perfect son or daughter of the One Father of all should be.

Let us see how we can change the reflection in our mirrors.

Beloved Maha Chohan

April 11, 1954

Beloved Ones,

Referring again to that all-important subject of “consciousness,” with which we have been dealing in our recent “Bulletins,” I would like to bring to the students' attention the fact that, IN ORDER TO REMEDY CONDITIONS IN THEIR WORLDS AND AFFAIRS, THEY MUST CHANGE THEIR THINKING AND FEELING HABITS, because the appearances in which they find themselves are just REFLECTIONS of the innermost THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS of their individual natures. Your worlds today express what you think and feel. The bodies you wear, your habits, your features—even your business—are all the effect of this thinking and feeling. Some are good and pleasant, while some are not so good, and not so pleasant. The same rule applies to those you love, and to your children.

Taking the visualization of the great mirrored hall that we used recently, you will find that these picturizations will give the intellect a very clear idea of the POWER OF ONE'S CONSCIOUSNESS to create in the appearance world, the conditions which he or she desires to manifest to the glory of God, and to the unfoldment of the divine plan. Every soul incarnate today lives in such a Hall of Mirrors. His station in life, his body, his world—all are proof to whomsoever can read what his consciousness is.

Many people have in their consciousness a great accumulation of error and imperfection and yet these individuals sometimes do not reflect in the world without, all the iniquity that is within. Other individuals with seemingly greater light find that in the hall of their mirrors the forms are more grotesque and unpleasant. This seems like a contradiction, and your question is, then, “How can this be so?” It is a very simple thing to answer All of man's consciousness IS NOT AWAKE AT ONCE; sometimes it slumbers for hundreds of thousands of centuries It would be like the great Hall of Mirrors at night when the lights are out and, although there be an endless number of grotesque, misshapen forms sleeping on the floor, in the darkness they would not be seen reflecting in the mirrors.

The individual who BEGINS TO AWAKEN to the spiritual currents of his or her lifestream begins to draw light into his individual “Hall of Mirrors,” and that light not only illumines the room and the forms within it, but it AWAKENS THOSE SLEEPING FORMS, who then begin to rise and gesticulate, and the reflections in the mirrors become more and more apparent as the greater light enters the “room.” It is, therefore, NOT always a sign of spirituality when one's outer experiences are placid; it can be either a sign of great darkness or great light. It could be the awakening spirit drawing the light into the consciousness, and bringing to life the thousands of centuries of accumulation of appearances that have lain dormant all this time, for these must come forth and be transmuted, before the lifestream is perfectly free, or it may be that the soul is content to sleep on, regardless of THE LATENESS OF THE HOUR. This waking process is the agony of soul, through which all must pass, but in the use of the Sacred Fire, this awakening and transmuting period may be effected with great ease, peace and little struggle.

While children are yet in the pliable years, the parents could mould their creative processes of thinking and feeling by SILENT, but determined picturization. The silent work done for children can become a fundamental pattern which their Holy Christ Self is eager to cooperate with, but parents invariably err on the side of their solicitude, and the very pressure of their feelings is not an aid, but a hindrance to the lifestream. People always picturize what THEY DO NOT WANT, and put as much, if not more, energy into the "do not want" as is usually required to manifest that which they do want.

TO CHANGE THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF MANKIND, WE MUST UTILIZE THE SACRED FIRE. This Sacred Fire can be drawn by any one individual, through the entire number belonging to this evolutionary system, without the outer intellect of any lifestream being aware of the service rendered. As this Sacred Fire of purification passes through the consciousness of the people, it removes the inner causes of diseases and maladjustments, and the effects automatically disappear, as when a mirrored room is completely cleared of all debris, you will find in that room no reflection of a grotesque or unpleasant nature.

To treat the consciousness of the people of Earth, invoking the Cosmic Christ Consciousness to sweep through each one, is to assist Saint Germain's Golden Age in a manner alone beyond description, for when hundreds of thousands of people begin to use their consciousness in a constructive manner, the building of the incoming Golden Age will go on in a manner that will surprise even the most progressive of natures.

Now, may the enfolding love and the abiding Presence always be a garment of protection and peace around you as you, go forward to your eternal freedom.

April 18, 1954

Beloved Children,

Many of your letters contain the question as to whether the Masters have places of worship in the higher octaves, and do they attend divine service. My answer is, yes, the Masters do have beautiful places of worship, and exquisite cosmic services dedicated to the adoration of the one great and good God. The church worship of the people of Earth is but a pale reflection of the glorious, united devotion of the Celestial Host, and of the Perfected Beings who dwell in interstellar space.

When individuals leave the orthodox beliefs, and enter into the metaphysical plane, they come to a place of barrenness, wherein there is no such cooperative devotion, but later they come again into an obedient, illumined devotion, which forms the core, or the heart center, when they enter within Saint Germain's Ceremonial Ray. Many people think that because individuals have made their ascension there is no longer need for worship, and that as every Master's heart is his shrine and altar, he may not choose to join with the others in his outpouring to the Eternal Father. This is not the case. The worship, the rituals, which draw Earth children together in a dutiful manner, are also the heart center of spiritual companionship in the higher octaves.

To see the great hosts of divine beings gathered together in celestial service, to hear the outpouring of their heavenly music, the song and chants of the angelic choirs, the tremendous radiation of the presiding Masters, is to draw into the soul a vision of the future when the Ceremonial Ray of Saint Germain will be, in like manner, expressed through the people of Earth.

These great cosmic gatherings of spiritual worship, in adoration to God, of course emit a tremendous radiation of light. That substance flows into the devas, who are guardian angels of the cathedrals and churches of Earth, and that is why in those places of worship, individuals are so often caught up in an ecstasy and devotion to God.

You often ask how you may assist us in this spiritual work, and this is one way by which you can become of great value to our cause. PROJECT THE BEAM OF YOUR ATTENTION INTO THE OCTAVES OF LIGHT—DRAW THE SWEET ESSENCE FROM ABOVE INTO YOUR BEINGS, AND PRACTICE, LIKE THE ANGELS, TO BECOME RADIATING CENTERS IN YOUR VARIOUS HOMES, SANCTUARIES, AND VICINITIES.

My Beloved Little Correspondents,

Oh, can you feel the love within my heart for you — sweet, innocent, faithful, hopeful little souls unfolding! I love each one of you, as a mother loves her children! Do you know how much of my lifestream is woven into your energies? Do you know how much of your life has become a part of my aura, as we have interchanged back and forth, month after month, the dedicated, consecrated energies of our lives, in mutual correspondence?

We are in the heart of the Easter Season, and so many of us have contributed to that season. Those of us who were present at the tomb that first Easter morning, recall with joy, the incidents which made the victory of the resurrection a manifest example, that yet stands before mankind, and which will one day help them to resurrect from within themselves the Christ Spirit. You see, it is my service to life to guard the breath, and to give it into the keeping of the soul at the moment of birth. I have stood, therefore, beside your mother when you were ushered into the world of form, and was really the first Intelligence to greet you on your arrival. At the close of your life span, I shall again stand by, and your last breath will be gathered into my own heart.

So, it was required of me to be part of the cosmic initiation that took place on Golgatha as well as a part of the glory of the Resurrection Morning. I stood beside the beloved Jesus that day on the Hill of Calvary, and received from him his last breath and I stood beside him on the first Easter morn with the beloved Gabriel, Angel of the Resurrection, and returned it again into his keeping for all eternity, so you see I was part of that great victory on Easter morning as the beloved Gabriel rolled away the stone of the sepulcher and the resurrected Christ stepped forth.

Now, to turn our attention to the Transmission Activity, I am grateful in the extreme, for the expansion of these classes, which began so humbly such a short time ago, and which have increased in power and intensity month after month, as your energies—your breath—have contributed to the creation of the concentric circles of light around this sweet Earth.

As your individual aura may be a conductor of the gifts of God, which would be a blessing to the world at large, so does the sphere of influence of each retreat become a spiritual aura, made up of the qualities and energies of every member who has ever been a part of it. The members of these retreats, who have ascended from within them into the eternal light, have left the ladders, made up of their own prayers, their disciplines, abstinences, and illumination, behind them, as a heritage, so that every succeeding member would have the strength of their victory as an added impetus to his own soul light.

Thus has been built the spiritual heritage of the ancient sanctuaries and retreats around the planet, and these radiating centers have been the salvation of mankind, because they have been the dissolving alchemy, that has consumed great quantities of the effluvia of human discord. These spheres of influence, or forcefields, vary in size, according to the number of members who have made the ascension from them, according to the number and consciousness of those who still serve within the retreat, the type of service they render, and the length of time they have been established.

These retreats and sanctuaries were established at strategic points across the surface of the Earth, under the direction of the God-Beings, who felt that certain points must have protection and radiation to hold the balance for the entire sphere. At inner levels, many individuals who were interested in mankind's greater good, oftentimes volunteered to take into their bodies a concentration of a certain ray and then literally dived down into the astral and psychic realms, and into physical incarnation and pinned that ray into the Earth through their flesh bodies. Such individuals magnetized these locations in the very first place. Your beloved Jesus rendered this service many times.

He magnetized those places in JERUSALEM AND GOLGATHA AND BETHANY. He also magnetized places throughout continental Europe, various places in England and in Asia that have not yet been activated, by drawing currents through his own body, and standing in the silence for seven long years until there were literally light plants set into the Earth where his feet stood. Some of these were activated by himself, and BY MARY LATER AT JERUSALEM AND LOURDES, and many more will be picked up by sensitive lifestreams in this present century, and the centuries yet to come.

SITTING ONE DAY SOME TIME BACK AND LOOKING AT BELOVED MORYA'S INITIAL ENDEAVOR TO ACQUAINT MANKIND WITH THE EXISTENCE OF THE RETREATS, I CAME UPON THE IDEA OF HAVING THE STUDENT BODY GATHER ALL OVER THE WORLD AND, BREATHING IN THE FLAME OF THE QUALITY AS THE RETREAT IS OPENED, FEEL THE PRESSURE AND PULL OF THE SPHERE OF INFLUENCE OF EACH RETREAT, SECURELY FASTENING IT IN PLACE WITH THE PEGS OF THEIR ENERGIES AND MAKING IT WORLD-WIDE AND WORLD-ENGULFING. Everyone is helping and pulling through concentrated effort, and you can see how this activity can readily transform the planet. You can see, then, how our hearts thrill with gratitude and happiness.

Instead of reading and studying the metaphysical and occult literature that deals with activities THAT HAVE CEASED TO VIBRATE THROUGH THE ETHERS HUNDREDS OR THOUSANDS OF YEARS AGO, WE ARE ASKING MANKIND TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CURRENT ACTIVITIES OF THE DAY, CONSCIOUSLY, AND IT IS BECAUSE OF YOUR intelligent grasp of the need of the hour, and your wholehearted cooperation with us, that we have come through the veil and met you half way.

You will be interested to know that Spring is the time when the Lords of Karma meet, to decide which lifestreams will incarnate within the year, and at the present time, five hundred million souls are passing before the Judges. As you have been told, for every one permitted to pass through the gates of birth, two are refused. THERE IS A PETITION UP BEFORE THE BOARD, REQUESTING THAT ONLY THOSE BE ALLOWED THROUGH, WHO ARE WILLING TO COOPERATE WITH GOD'S DIVINE PLAN FOR THE SPEEDY REDEMPTION OF THE PLANET. WE ASK YOU TO MAKE CALLS FOR THIS BENEFICENT DISPENSATION. Tonight, then, the beloved Lord Buddha is officiating at the Mercy Temple at Peiping, as the beloved Kwan Yin, as spokesman for the Lords of Karma, is at her post in the halls of judgment. She will speak to you herself, later in the evening.

Visualize now the beloved Lord Buddha—first pupil of Lord Himalaya—standing before the altar with the Mercy Flame of Forgiveness and Compassion, sending its beams into the atmosphere. Many, many, thousands of men and women, who are the monks and initiates of the East, kneel before it in prayerful worship, and many millions of discarnates, who are drawn like moths to the flame, hover in the atmosphere. Thank you, beloved children, for the opportunity of talking with you, and with love and blessings, I am,

Beloved Kwan Yin

May 2, 1954

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I speak to you tonight from the throne in the heart of the Karmic Council Chamber—the first time we have ever spoken through the atmosphere into the consciousness of unascended beings.

I bring to you from the universal council, which is the guardian presence of the Law, the blessings of our lives and our personal gratitude for the magnificent adoration which has come from your hearts, your souls and your lips, in our direction.

The Judgment Hall has been clothed in human concepts and used as a weapon to flay the souls of men into reluctant obedience for many centuries, by the priests and guardians of religions, through the various ages. The mankind of Earth have, therefore, within their etheric consciousness, a dread of Judgment Day, and a dread of those who administer justice. We (the Karmic Board) are in the unenviable position of being the impersonal spokesmen for the Cosmic Law.

The conditions which you face, you have made yourselves through the ages. It is you who are your own mentor, your own judge, your own punishment and your own reward, but through man's unconscious desire to place the blame on any shoulder but his own, he has made a scapegoat of the Karmic Board. However, this—through the kindness of your understanding, your music, your songs and your love—has been reversed, and we—who have sat age after age, meeting again and again the same hopeful spirits, filled with vows and promises, awaiting birth, and the same sad and disillusioned ones returning, in the course of a few short years, with a pitiful harvest—are happy indeed to say that we are accepted now, not as instruments of punishment, but of opportunity and hope. It gives us pleasure indeed.

Tonight you honor the Retreat of Mercy, and I think back through many ages, to a China of such beauty, that there has never been a land so fair outside of the kingdom of heaven, where men and women walked in such grace and beauty, that it was impossible to distinguish the Ascended Beings from the evolving ones on Earth. In that great land I lived and taught the meaning of compassion and mercy, of not only giving genuine love to all life, but giving just a little more than the Law's requirement—a little more pressure in the hand clasp, a little more energy in the service, a little more sincerity in the smile than law and convention required, mercy that rushes forth as from God himself to give a little more forgiveness than is required—that is my service to life. I hope you will enjoy it.

I would like to say that I am very grateful that the Mercy Flame is active while the dispensation of souls is being acted upon in our octave, as it enables us to bathe the lifestreams applying for re-embodiment in a regular cosmic baptism—in a cosmic baptismal font. That service is going on even now, while I speak, and will continue as your bodies sleep.

We are intensely interested in this endeavor, and if you would, in kindness, sing to us again the song, we call it ours now, "The Karmic Board," you will feel our love return to you. Thank you so much, and good evening.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children,

VIBRATION AND RADIATION ARE CO-EXISTENT WITH FORM. EVEN A BLADE OF GRASS, A FLOWER, A ROCK, A TREE EMITS, UNCONSCIOUSLY, A RATE OF VIBRATION WHICH AFFECTS THE COSMOS AS A WHOLE, AND WHICH, MIND YOU, BY THE UNDULATION OF ITS ENERGY, REARRANGES THE ATOMS OF THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE. Thus, all life is constantly contributing to a changing of the actual center of the cosmos. This law applies to the Ascended Host as well as to men evolving on the Earth's surface, and even to the Godhead, itself.

THE UNIVERSE, ITSELF, IS FILLED WITH ELECTRONIC LIGHT, WHICH IS INTELLIGENT. THESE ELECTRONS HAVE THE POWER AND CAPACITY, WITHIN THEMSELVES, TO RECEIVE DIRECTIONS, AND, BY THE EXERTION OF THEIR OWN INTELLIGENCE, PERFORM THE NECESSARY ACTIVITIES REQUIRED TO MANIFEST THOSE DIRECTIONS.

Within this universal light substance, which fills the universe from the heart center to its periphery, are self-conscious beings who alone have the power to set this electronic light substance into motion. THE INTELLIGENCE WITHIN THE LIGHT SUBSTANCE DOES NOT ACT UNTIL SET INTO MOTION BY A SUPERIOR POWER—A THOUGHT AND FEELING FOCUS ENDOWED WITH GOD-AUTHORITY. The electronic light would remain in the unformed state if some God Intelligences did not charge into it a direction for pattern and outline.

These individualized foci of intelligence, who are the motivating power behind creation are the God-Beings (Masters). Mankind also is endowed with the capacity to rearrange electronic particles; therefore every individual is a student in the classroom of life.

Any individual, no matter how ignorant or untrained, ENDOWED WITH A THOUGHT AND FEELING PRINCIPLE, is a conscious or unconscious influence upon the distribution and arrangement of the electronic substance of the universe in which he finds being, and it is for the purpose that he may CONSCIOUSLY COOPERATE with the design of the Godhead, that mankind is now being trained. This CONSCIOUS control of the electronic substance, in accord with the God plan, lies within the evolution of both his intelligence, and his capacity to embrace the God-Consciousness. Meditate, my children, upon the power of the spark of God that lives within your hearts. Consciously place the problems that beset you in the Transmuting Flame of its Presence. Surrender your human will to its guidance, and say with Jesus, "Not my will, but THINE be done." Then you may also say, "Whosoever seeth me, seeth the Father." Blessings and love.

Beloved Children of My Heart,

If man could even partially comprehend the Law governing energy and vibration, he would be in a fair way toward self-mastery. As we have said before, there is no such thing as a being without vibration and radiation. Man is in training and he will come one day to a realization that the power to create vibration is not only a responsibility, but an OPPORTUNITY by which mastery and divinity can be experienced through the individualized ego.

For millions of centuries, man, by accepting individuality, has created vibration, which moved from the center of his being to the periphery of the cosmos, and is constantly, throughout the entire course of his individualization, affected by every electron within that cosmic orbit, to some degree. JUST AS WHEN YOU DROP A PEBBLE INTO THE CENTER OF A POOL YOU SEE THE EDDIES GO OUT IN EVER-WIDENING CIRCLES UNTIL THEY REACH THE PERIPHERY, RETURNING AGAIN TO THE CENTER—SO EVERYTHING WITHIN THAT POOL IS AFFECTED BY THE VIBRATIONS CAUSED BY THE ACTIVITY AT THE CENTER. From the very moment man took being, the electronic light, in obedience to the decree of the Father, became his servant.

When the vibratory action that he set into motion reached the periphery of its circle, it began its return journey back INTO HIS OWN EXPERIENCE and the bombardment of the returning light sent back from the sounding board of the universe became that which is known as karma—the more positive and intense the individual, the more powerful the vibration and its amplification back into the lifestream, whether the outgoing quality was good or evil.

As the vibratory action around him became more and more chaotic, desire for knowledge and a way and means of finding peace arose within the heart. Then the man became an applicant for Godhood, and it is at this point that the training of the lifestream began. The intricacies of vibration are such that I could spend a full week in illustrating the TREMENDOUS IMPACT of ONE INDIVIDUAL ON THE UNIVERSE, each organism within the body vibrating and emitting certain energy waves that contribute to the light or shadow of the planet. Thus, the body elemental alone AFFECTS THE PASSION OR THE ASPIRATION OF EVERY INCARNATE SOUL. Then the soul has a vibration which, when awakened, is a powerful force for good, for every seeker—no matter how confused the search—AFFECTS THE MASS-CONSCIOUSNESS OF ALL SOULS toward aspiration.

Then the mind tunes in and vibrates, according to its choice of material, affecting in turn all the mind-stuff in the universe, and so we could go on and on in amplification of the powers of vibration —unconscious vibration, that is. Now, we come to the OPPORTUNITY of CONSCIOUSLY DIRECTING into the universal light a vibration that would be of beneficent interest to the universe. The mind, the heart, the intelligence can be incorporated into this experiment: VISUALIZE ELECTRONIC LIGHT—UNFORMED—WITH EVERY ELECTRON, RECEPTIVE, OBEDIENT, ALERT, WAITING FOR YOUR MESSAGE. THEN SET UP A VIBRATION CONSCIOUSLY IN YOUR FEELINGS. SEE THE ENERGY WAVES PASS OUT FROM YOU IN EVER WIDENING CIRCLES AND THE OBEDIENT ELECTRONS START INTO MOTION. CHOOSE, IF YOU WILL, A PARTICULAR QUALITY OR A BLESSING THAT WOULD BENEFIT THE RACE.

It is a beautiful pastime for spending an hour of relaxation and is a wonderful treatment for the body, the nervous system and the soul. First, one must experiment with the mind, the heart, the feelings, and later the ganglionic centers can be trained to send forth these vibrations even when the conscious mind is busy with other matters. The untrained people of the world do this unconsciously in the sending forth of Christmas and Easter blessings. Let me see now what my chelas will do CONSCIOUSLY.

Beloved Children,

The great Universal Intelligence becomes the Father of the universe long before a planet and its people come into manifest expression, and this great Intelligence works out in detail every facet needed by the lifestreams who will incarnate upon it. Through this “Father Presence” there are directed out into universal space with geometrical accuracy, certain foci which will be radiating centers through which the life force of the incoming planet shall pass, qualified according to their service for the good of the race which will evolve upon it. The intelligences who enter into these foci are, for the most part, voluntary beings from other spheres who, by their own self-conscious effort, draw the life force from the universal and radiate the required substance such as the sun rays, the air, as well as the qualities and virtues that make up the individuality.

At a later date, from among the mankind of the planet, individual intelligences will be evolved, and the volunteer occupant of that cosmic center will relinquish his position in favor of the being whose evolution has prepared him to hold such an office. It is thus that I achieved and entered into the office of the Maha Chohan, which I presently hold, having succeeded many previous exalted beings, whose wisdom, effort, radiation, and power have made possible my present position and who at any time, particularly on Feast Days, may return, and with me radiate the blessings of the Holy Spirit to the people of Earth.

In like manner, all offices now held either by beings from other spheres or from the evolved mankind of Earth will be relinquished joyously to members of the human race as they rise above the vibratory action of the outer self and, desiring to become part of the cosmic service, begin to build a momentum of some universal cause or quality, such as healing, happiness, purity, mercy, or any virtue or quality for which the individual may have an affinity. Thus the great beings who hold the various offices, like Helios and Vesta and the Elohim, are constantly on the alert to find, among the evolving race, any lifestreams who have a sympathy or possible attunement to their vibration and cosmic service.

When such individuals are found, there begins a “grooming” that goes on for many thousands of centuries, during which the great being who has singled them out endeavors—as much as the restrictions of the Cosmic Law will allow—to expand and balance the radiation of the lifestream, with the possible hope that in a future day such a one may become an aspirant for his great office. It is only after many, many centuries of love and selfless care that the intellectual consciousness begins to raise itself toward this unseen but beneficent force, which is molding and guiding the evolving soul.

Then, there is always the question of “free will,” for no lifestream, even when highly advanced and evolved, need reciprocate, in the least, for the centuries of service and individual attention, by pursuing the course which the Greater Ones, in their light and wisdom, have mapped out for them, and it very often happens that at the end of this long time, the beloved chela decides to follow a different course.

It is thus that great Cosmic Beings have developed among their characteristics and qualities, patience and a willingness to abide in their self-chosen positions until, for love's sake, some members of the race choose to follow in their footsteps, and qualify for their offices, allowing their benefactors to continue their own evolution.

Beloved Children,

Each spring the Lords of Karma convene for the purpose of deciding which lifestreams are to re-incarnate within that year. This year the convention took place in the early part of May, the souls applying for re-embodiment running into many, many millions, due to the setting up of the Purification Temples in the psychic and astral realms and the inhabitants of these realms being made aware of the necessity of fulfilling their divine plan on the Earth plane before their eternal freedom can be attained.

This year, the convention of the Karmic Board attracted almost universal attention, owing to the FIAT ISSUED BY THE COSMIC LAW SOME TWO YEARS AGO THAT SANAT KUMARA'S EXILE ON THIS PLANET IS TO COME TO AN END AT THE COMPLETION OF THIS CURRENT TWENTY-YEAR PERIOD. Unfortunately, our fair Earth has become known among her sister planets and the neighboring stars and galaxies as the "Dark Star," the intelligences evolving upon them being fully aware that this condition is due to the ignorance as well as indifference of the lifestreams evolving upon her.

The reason that I mention the other stars and galaxies is that the Celestial Hierarchy governing our Earth were amazed to discover that MILLIONS OF LIFESTREAMS FROM OTHER CIVILIZATIONS HAD APPLIED TO OUR KARMIC BOARD FOR EMBODIMENT ON THE PLANET EARTH THIS YEAR, in the hope that the essence of their innocence might be a contagion to the Earth people—THAT THEY MIGHT AWAKEN TO THE SERIOUSNESS OF THEIR CONDITION IF ENOUGH LIGHT IS NOT FORTHCOMING FROM EARTH TO HOLD HER PLACE IN THE SOLAR SYSTEM.

THESE VISITING SOULS ARE NOT ENTIRELY FREE; THEY ARE EVOLVING ON BEAUTIFUL SHINING STARS SIMILAR TO VENUS, and they were willing to take flesh bodies, submitting themselves to the laws governing the evolution of this backward planet, in order to help its inhabitants, through precept and example, to fulfill their divine plan. In making this offer, they were fully and consciously aware of the fact that BY SO DOING THEY MIGHT DELAY THEIR OWN EVOLUTION INDEFINITELY, depending upon their susceptibility to earthly conditions and the karma of the family, race, and nation into which they would incarnate under the impersonal Karmic Law.

Think of the love that prompted the offer of that sublime sacrifice! There they stood, beautiful beings—tall, golden-haired, and blue-eyed—all dressed in exquisite garments of soft pink, awaiting the decision of the Karmic Board. HOWEVER, JUSTICE AND MERCY BEING THE ORDER OF THE NEW DAY, THE BOARD SAW FIT TO ACCEPT ONLY ABOUT ONE THOUSAND OF THESE BEAUTIFUL BEINGS, WHO WILL BE DISTRIBUTED HERE AND THERE ON THE EARTH'S SURFACE FOR ITS EDIFICATION AND ENLIGHTENMENT. The others returned to their various stars, followed by the loving benedictions of the entire assemblage.

Besides these loving volunteers, ONE HUNDRED BUDDHAS FROM OTHER PLANETS OFFERED TO INCARNATE THIS YEAR. These are beings without karma and have earned the right to enter what is loosely named Nirvana. They are on a level of development with Lord Maitreya. ONE OF THESE WAS GRATEFULLY ACCEPTED. MAKE YOUR CALLS NOW FOR HAPPY HOMES FOR THESE INCOMING SOULS AND DO NOT NEGLECT YOUR PETITIONS FOR THE PEACEFUL PASSING OF THE OUTGOING LIFESTREAMS.

Beloved Children,

The convention of the Karmic Board, in early May, for the purpose of deciding upon the number and type of reincarnating souls for this year, was one of intense interest, not only to the members of the Celestial Hierarchy who serve our planet, but to the evolutions of neighboring stars and galaxies as well.

Since the fiat issued by the Cosmic Law about two years ago, in which it allowed the planet Earth just twenty years to meet the demand for sufficient light to warrant her being sustained as a member of the Solar System, MANY PETITIONS HAVE BEEN OFFERED TO THE KARMIC BOARD BY BOTH ASCENDED AND UNASCENDED BEINGS, REQUESTING THAT NO SOUL BE ALLOWED TO RE-EMBODY WHO WAS NOT FIRST WILLING TO MAKE A VOW TO LIFE THAT IT WOULD USE ITS ENERGIES NOT ONLY FOR THE EXPANSION OF ITS OWN LIGHT, BUT ALSO FOR THE EDIFICATION AND UPLIFTMENT OF THE WHOLE RACE. The Board's decision was, therefore, anticipated with tremendous interest by everyone who had the interest of the planet at heart.

After the successful candidates had been gathered in one large body in the Halls of Karma, it was noted with surprise (if not disappointment) by the assembly that more or less ONE-THIRD OF THE APPLICANTS

PASSED THROUGH BY THE BOARD WERE WHAT MIGHT BE TERMED 'RE-CALCITRANT SOULS.' That is to say, they included in their number many who were indifferent not only to the fate of the planet, but also to the fulfillment of their own divine destiny as well. Many of them were not necessarily evil, but were those who, through selfish interest, chose to invest their vital energies in the so-called material things of life and thus were not interested in either the spiritual progress of the race or in altruistic endeavors of any description.

It was then kindly explained to the gathered assemblage that in making decisions of this kind, where the welfare of a planet is at stake, many points must be taken into consideration by the Karmic Board. It was shown that if only constructive and spiritually-minded lifestreams were allowed to re-embody, much of the karma belonging to the destructive members of the race would remain unmitigated in the Earth's aura, due to the absence of its creators. It was further explained that the Law of Justice demands that certain lifestreams be brought together again in embodiment in order to give them an opportunity to mitigate and dissolve the karma accruing from mutual participation in the same destructive cause or causes. Many other interesting points dealing with Karmic Law in relation to the evolution of a planet and its people were elucidated, which amply demonstrated to the interested assemblage the wisdom, love, and mercy that are required in the development of a lifestream who aspires to become a member or hold an office in this exalted body of judges.

Before the souls were returned to their respective schoolrooms, where they will be prepared for re-incarnation, there was a beautiful and impressive ceremony, presided over by Sanat Kumara, in veneration of the vow, during which this vast concourse of souls knelt in unison before the Lord of the World and solemnly promised that when they returned to Earth they would obey and serve the light within their hearts.

As they pronounced this sacred vow, the Unfed Flame in their hearts expanded and glowed right through the breasts of their garments. In its recessional activity, this flame will never again return to the tiny embryonic spark that it was before this voluntary act. Their happy enthusiasm proved itself to be a contagion because as the light of the Unfed Flame shone and scintillated all around them, the seemingly recalcitrant souls, by spontaneous and unanimous consent, dropped to their knees and took the vow. It was indeed a cosmic moment never to be forgotten.

The law of retribution (cause and effect) was imposed on willful mankind that they may learn through the pain of returning energy the law of the circle, or whatever goes out from man comes back to him. But to the spiritually enlightened man of the New Day, under the beneficent radiation of the seventh ray, has been given the knowledge and power of the Transmuting Violet flame, by which he may not only wipe out the karma of the present life, but may sweep it back through his whole lifestream, canceling through the forgiving love of mercy's flame his entire debt to life. This mercy carries with it an obligation to extend that mercy to others and for each one to be the Father's outpost in the flesh.

Beloved Children,

While our attention is still vibrating on the activities within the great council chamber where the Great Karmic Board met to decide on the incoming lifestreams for the year, I thought you would be interested in a digest of the address by the beloved Kwan Yin, spokesman for the Great Karmic Board, to the souls about to incarnate within the year. Her words might well apply to every soul in embodiment, as they carry great comfort as well as great encouragement.

BELOVED KWAN YIN speaks:

NO LIFESTREAM WHO INCARNATES RECEIVES, IN ANY EMBODIMENT, MORE KARMA THAN HIS DEVELOPMENT WILL ALLOW HIM TO COMPLETELY EXPIATE WITHIN THAT LIFETIME. There is no disease—no distress or condition which, through the Law of Justice and Mercy, is to be experienced by any lifestream in that embodiment, THAT IS GREATER THAN THE DEVELOPED CONSCIOUSNESS AND POWER OF THE INDIVIDUAL to whom that karma rightfully belongs. This is the Law, and you may tell it from the housetops.

Mary has said, “The Lord (Law) prepares the back for the burden,”—yes, to a degree, but the Law does not inflict the burden of returning energy upon the lifestream until, within the flame in the heart and the capacity in the consciousness, there is the potential power to balance that debt.

Where would justice and mercy be, were the debts to come back more rapidly than the power developed within to expiate them? Now, the potential power is within the soul to expiate every bit of karma that belongs to and is allotted to each lifestream, but very, very few men, women and children adore the Presence of God enough to externalize that power and make that balance. When they do, disease and death, disintegration and failure will cease to be.

Man, receiving back into himself the return of his energy and knowing that the Cosmic Law will not burden him in any one life with more than he can handle, will rejoice when he seems to have a return of a considerable amount of karma, that the God of Love has thought he was mature enough not only to wipe that quality out of his own world, but from the face of the Earth.

June 20, 1954

Beloved Ones,

When planet Earth was first prepared by the Great Builders of Form (The Seven Mighty Elohim) to be the cradle for the new spirit sparks drawn from the heart of Helios and Vesta, the design for the Earth's unfoldment and development was given into the care of the Silent Watcher, and drawn by him into the Fourth Sphere. Here it has lived and breathed ever since, as a subtle but palpable blueprint, which has become the actual inner atmosphere of this realm, always held within the thought and feeling centers of the Silent Watcher and animated by the directive energies from the Universal First Cause.

The cosmic magnet was given into the hands of the hierarch of the Fourth Sphere just prior to the time when the first wave of humanity was to take incarnation, and the entrance of the Christ Selves of all who were to be part of this evolutionary scheme was in response to this magnetic pull. Here they have abided, living within the thought and feeling form of Earth's perfection, incorporating as much or as little AS THEIR OWN CONSCIOUSNESS COULD GRASP AND EXTERNALIZE of the God design in the universal substance of this inner sphere.

It is in the exact manner that the mankind of Earth live—right within the etheric design and perfection of the world of form—every man INTERPRETING AS MUCH OR AS LITTLE OF IT AS HE CAN GRASP, the rest remaining SUBTLE, until some portion of the God-mind, working through man, externalizes it.

Now, the activity in which the Higher Self has been engaged, through initiative and its own perception of the God-Will in the Fourth Sphere, will determine to a great extent what the outer self will accomplish in the world of form, because the momentum IS ALREADY ESTAB-LISHED, and the perfected design of that portion of the God Plan is already a palpable and living experience in the Fourth Sphere. It is, therefore, the RESPONSIBILITY OF THE OUTER SELF to find out (through contemplation and meditation) WHAT ITS OWN CHRIST SELF HAS BEEN ENGAGED IN PERFECTING IN THE FOURTH SPHERE, and then, become like a faucet, through which its influence might flow without stress, strain or struggle, thus lowering into the world of form the result of its centuries and centuries of creative endeavor on behalf of the God Plan.

Let me repeat now—in the Fourth Sphere, each Christ Self, when it came to dwell there, became interested in, and dedicated itself to, some facet of God expression and has lived through all the countless centuries of time since then, utilizing its energies in the development of perfection along that particular line. This devotion to and development of any one expression of God's Perfection becomes the fully gathered momentum of the lifestream, which is its individual, self-conscious gift to planet Earth—and which can only be externalized in the world of form through the mind and feeling world of the outer self. You must also bear in mind that this outer self has been sustained from the beginning of time by the Christ Self to be a channel for its expression.

You will see, therefore, that the heritage of every man has been pre-ordained, so to speak, through the decision and development of some particular part of God's Plan by constant endeavor through untold centuries by the Christ Self—and that it becomes the responsibility and obligation of the outer self, while still in embodiment, to find out (through contemplation) without failure, mistake, interference or delay what has engaged the energies of that Christ Self all through this long period of time. Then, in powerful, positive and determined activity, allow the full outpouring of that Christ Self to manifest through the head, heart, hands, and creative centers of the outer self, thus fulfilling its mission, saying, as the Master Jesus did, “To this end was I born—for this reason came I into the world.” You have, beloved ones, instant and constant connection with your Christ Selves through the flame in your hearts. Arise now, and be about the Father's business.

Beloved Children of my Heart,

Etheric records are infallible reports of man's activities as he proceeds on his journey through form. To read those records, which are printed in the sensitive ethers that make up his aura , and also entered in his individual book of life, is to read the inner story of that which has been—the omissions as well as the commissions—and when one is of the awakened consciousness it is an easy matter to trace the future EFFECTS which will spring from these causes. Besides these etheric records, there are also the fiery records held in the Mind of God of THAT WHICH IS TO COME.

These two sets of records are distinct and separate, one dealing with what has been—by which one may see that which is to come, through either perfect or imperfect causes set up in an individual's past—and the other with the divine plan, which is pre-ordained and has nothing to do with the etheric records, except that the higher plans are either helped or hindered by the human veil that stands between them and physical manifestation.

Around each lifestream, or over a locality, stand the etheric records dealing with the experiences of life through the centuries. These may be revived so that the lifestream may consume them (if they are of a destructive nature). When these records are fully transmuted and purified, the awakened soul sees that the divine plan or cosmic cause is also present around the individual and above the locality. THUS WHEN A MASTER ATTEMPTS TO FORESEE EVENTS, HE MUST TAKE SEVERAL THINGS INTO ACCOUNT: FIRST, THE DIVINE PLAN, WHICH MAY BE MADE MANIFEST, NEXT, THE ETHERIC RECORDS IN THE LIFESTREAM, WHICH WILL PRODUCE EFFECTS FOR OR AGAINST THE PLAN, AND, FINALLY, THE HUMAN FREE WILL, WHICH IS CONSTANTLY SETTING UP NEW CAUSES TO EITHER ASSIST OR INTERFERE WITH THE FULFILLMENT OF GOD'S PLAN.

YOU WILL SEE, THEREFORE, THAT PROPHECYING EVENTS CONCERNING THE HUMAN PERSONALITY IS AN IMPOSSIBILITY—except that the Master may state that which will be the ULTIMATE RESULT of the lifestream's journey, because the divine plan is foreordained for fulfillment, sooner or later, and the wise man, on learning what the divine plan is, tries to make it SOONER.

Cosmic Law is as accurate and precise as the multiplication table. Every man is life, and within life is the responsibility to use the Law of Being according to the free will of the individual and none can say him may. As we teach the Law we give the hints which enable many shortcuts to be made on the path, and which would be of great assistance to the awakening soul, but yet the APPLICATION OF THE LAW lies with the individual self. WE CAN AND HAVE 'STRETCHED THE COSMIC LAW THIN' in pointing out part and parcel of the divine plan to our chelas, which could be ACHIEVED BY APPLICATION on the part of the individual—but the Law of one's own lifestream WILL NOT PERMIT ANOTHER to apply the Law for him. The Master also is prohibited by Cosmic Law (even if he had the desire) to apply the Law for his chela, any more than the wise teacher would solve a difficult problem for the student, leaving his pupil still vague as to the successful application of the theory under consideration.

The God Self and the human self are as distinct and separate as day and night. The qualities, expressions and manifestations of both are entirely different. THE SIGN OF AWAKENING IS THAT THE SOUL BEGINS TO MANIFEST THROUGH THE PERSONAL SELF SOME CHRISTLY QUALITIES. This is the mystical process referred to as “transubstantiation,” during which the Holy Spirit begins to flow through and redeem or CHANGE THE NATURE of the outer personality. Oftentimes, qualities (good or bad) lie dormant in the etheric body for centuries and are not stirred into action until this transmuting process begins. Beloved ones, call the Holy Spirit into action and cooperate fully with this Transmuting Flame that you can more quickly be set free.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 4, 1954

Beloved Children,

The individualized consciousness of each lifestream, known to you as the Holy Christ Self, is ONE with the nature and purpose of God. This Higher Self of each one of you is actively engaged in creating and expanding the externalization of the kingdom of heaven in the realm in which it dwells.

As the far greater majority of the Christ Selves of the present human race dwell within the Fourth Sphere and activate the universal life substance of that sphere by their constant creative endeavor, you will see how tremendously charged with the beauty and perfection of God's divine plan is this Fourth Realm.

The will of God is the motivating power of each Christ Consciousness, and the divine ideas which proceed in an unbroken stream from the directive center of the Universal First Cause, are incorporated into the individual consciousness of these many intelligent channels and externalized in the realm in which they dwell. There is no opposition to the unfolding and developing of the God Plan in the higher octaves; therefore, these ideas are intensified and multiplied by these beautiful beings, who thus expand and manifest the expression of God's Kingdom every moment of their existence.

The great activity of the moment is to form a bridge to connect the consciousness and the thought and feeling centers of these Christ Selves—who have been so long expanding God's Kingdom—with the personal egos who represent them in the world of form. Over each bridge so created, there can then be lowered into the third dimensional plane and the physical substance of Earth, the glorious manifestations which the Christ Self of each incarnate being has been engaged in externalizing through thousands of centuries of time.

The great hierarch of the Fourth Sphere, the beloved Serapis Bey, in his office as Chohan of the Fourth Ray, represents the guardian spirit of this phase of planetary development. He, therefore, is vitally interested in the establishment of these intricate currents whereby the Christ Selves of the race might obtain and sustain a CONSCIOUS DIRECTIVE INFLUENCE on that PART OF THEMSELVES REMAINING YET IN THE WORLD OF FORM. That is why he is known as “THE KEEPER OF THE BRIDGE” for those who have either consciously or unconsciously destroyed the stanchions which kept their bridge as an unbroken span between their higher and lower selves.

I strongly advise each one of my beloved chelas to earnestly contemplate the nature and activities of his or her own Christ Self in gentle and humble adoration, in order that the Christ Self of each one may externalize—not only the beauty of the higher octave through the lower self into physical manifestation—but also its ACTUAL NATURE AND GODLINESS.

Call, beloved ones, to this great and loving friend, the beloved Serapis, to help you re-establish the conscious connection you once enjoyed with your own Christ Self and WHICH IS THE ONLY MEANS BY WHICH THE GLORY OF GOD'S KINGDOM CAN BE MADE MANIFEST ON EARTH IN YOUR INDIVIDUAL EXPERIENCE. It is also the only means by which you will gain mastery over form and substance in the resurrection and your final ascension into the octaves of light—having completed your mission in the world of form.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 18, 1954

Beloved Friends of My Heart,

Today, as we study the use of life, let us realize that we draw life pure and perfect from the heart of God, just as you would draw water from a spring—cool, refreshing, and crystalline. We know that certain habits in the personal self are like great conduits, that this pure energy drawn from the heart of the Father is poured into those habits and that the more life people draw, the stronger grow the habits and the human emotions of the centuries. For this reason, God, in his mercy, has held back a greater outpouring of the life substance to mankind, lest more and more of this pure essence would be dissipated in human habits.

If you have a fungus growth on the trunk of a tree, it draws the strength intended for the blossom; thus if one has human habits of tremendous intensity, they will draw the strength from one's spiritual nature, intensify the human tendencies and leave the evolving soul undernourished and depleted.

THE LIFE THAT FLOWS THROUGH THE EARTH, NOURISHING THE KINGDOM OF NATURE, COMES OUT OF MY HEART, AS WELL AS THAT OF VIRGO. In a plot of ground forty feet square, you may have exactly the same quality of earth and the same life currents—yet, according to the seeds planted within that plot will you have a different harvest. You might have a fig tree, a lilac bush, an onion or a carrot, all in seed form, looking much alike, but, as the life principle flows through—carrying the same elements, the same currents, the same essence—each set of seeds becomes an entirely different manifestation.

These simple expressions of nature are like the lives of different types of men, but men live so fast, and are so enamored of their own thoughts, that they never stop to contemplate these so-called miracles of nature. The life principle flowing through each one of you IS THE SAME IN ESSENCE, as it is in that forty-foot plot of ground. As it flows through you, it expresses in YOUR words, in YOUR thoughts, in YOUR feelings. As it flows through Jesus, it expresses HIS way. It expresses differently as it flows through all men, good and evil. Why? Because man has the privilege, through God-given free will, of taking that life principle and making of it that which he decrees.

In nature, the carrot, the onion, the fig tree and the lilac bush are pre-ordained by the Silent Watcher, who CHARGED THEIR DESTINY into the seeds, and none of these seeds would think of changing that plan. Into man, too, is charged his destiny—but he, being granted the gift of free will, through the grace of the Eternal Father—chooses NOT to express his destiny in peace and harmony as these lower manifestations do.

UNDER THE COSMIC LAW THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS 'FAVORITISM.' The sinner and the saint both enjoy the same breath, the same heart-beat, the same sunlight—oh! but the harvest—the HARVEST—from the USE OF LIFE is ultimately laid at each man's feet. When he stands in the Halls of Judgment he must give an account of every “jot and tittle” and in another embodiment he is required under the Law of Justice to make things right through being called upon in a seemingly natural manner to suffer the same injustices that he imposed upon others. The Law of Retribution is irrevocable, and until mankind learn the Law of Love, they must remain in the schoolroom of retroactive experience.

Let the life of God flow through you, my children, but—remember the harvest. Use this precious essence not lightly, I implore you.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 25, 1954

Blessed Children,

My office, the Holy Spirit, as its very name implies, means that I represent the Life Principle which is allotted to the humanity of this Earth by the Solar Logoi, who took the responsibility of drawing into expression some nine billion lifestreams, whose eternal identity must be proven to be of importance to the enrichment and expansion of God's Kingdom.

The qualities created by the Life Principle (God) represent the sum total of mankind's use of the primordial substance. As the petals on the lotus flower represent the beauty of the Deity drawn through the life essence of the plant, SO MUST THESE QUALITIES OF GODLINESS BE EXPRESSED THROUGH THE LIFESTREAMS OF THE HUMAN RACE.

AS EXPLAINED HERETOFORE, EACH LIFESTREAM REPRESENTS A COSMIC QUALITY, which is REQUISITE to the full flowering of not only the individual, but the whole human race, even as certain elements are required to make the grass green, the daffodil yellow and the robin's breast russet. Without these elements in the nature kingdom you will have a distortion. Grass not exposed to the sun's rays turns white, and the plant covered by leaves and debris, which keep out the radiation of the sun and air, is “peaked” and dwarfish.

So it is with men. Without any one of the qualities or “elements” necessary to make a healthful organism, the mankind of Earth would express in a distorted manner. The Science of Alchemy dealing with spiritual evolution is as exact as the ingredients required in preparing a mixture of alfalfa or the homely, oft-used simile—a loaf of bread.

The Cosmic Masters, representing these qualities required by the starved souls of men, have not been allowed full play on the Earth plane by reason of mankind's "free will" in turning aside from their gifts, so these Great Beings have remained in the Heart of the Silence, the doors of the Earth plane remaining closed to an outpouring of their forces. Therefore, THE SORRY AND DISTORTED EXPRESSION WHICH ENGULFS THE HUMAN RACE TODAY ARE A RESULT OF THIS MASS STARVATION. You can take any cross-section of people and look over their qualities, which are the "fruit and flower" of their PERSONALITIES, and you would see what "the garden of human beings" looks like to the Spiritual Hierarchy.

THE END OF THE CYCLE IS UPON US. I would suggest that each one of you, in the privacy of your chamber, examine yourself carefully and see how many "flowers" and how many "tares" are in your own garden. All the spiritual qualities and virtues are represented by Great Beings in the higher octaves, who have ensouled these gifts of God. Faith, hope, charity, love, wisdom, strength, courage, are among the countless legions of qualities that makeup the nature of the Godhead. If you find yourself weak in any of these great gifts, or entirely lacking in some, you may invoke the Cosmic Being who has ensouled that virtue or quality and FEEL the inrush to your spirit of the gift you have invoked.

In these weekly instructions, beloved ones, I have endeavored to teach you the importance of your personal use of the Life Principle. KNOWLEDGE WITHOUT APPLICATION IS USELESS. You must, by personal effort, pluck out the "tares" (human qualities) in your individual "garden" and plant in their stead the divine qualities which are part and parcel of your divine nature. THESE DEVELOPED QUALITIES REPRESENT THE ONLY HARVEST I CAN OFFER TO GOD FOR THE ENERGY HE HAS ENTRUSTED ME WITH AS HIS REPRESENTATIVE, AND WHICH I HAVE POURED OUT UNSTINTINGLY TO YOU. This is the responsibility which I voluntarily assumed when I became invested with the Office of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, I am asking you now, if you love me, do not let a quality endure in your lifestream that I cannot offer to our Eternal Father as a "flower." Remember, beloved children, YE ARE QUALITIES, AND TO THE HOST OF HEAVEN EACH ONE OF YOU IS KNOWN ONLY BY THE NAME OF THE GIFT OF GOD YOU REPRESENT. Cultivate NOW that special quality you have an affinity for and BE.

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 1, 1954

Beloved Children of My Heart,

Need I tell you how dear you are to me? As the devoted gardener loves every little plant coaxed from the seedling, so do I love you, but my care and solicitude far exceed his, in that his “children” live sometimes but for a short season, whereas I have watched you unfold through countless centuries of living. You see, I am the cosmic gardener and your unfoldment into the full flower of your fulfilled destiny as a divine quality of the Godhead is my harvest, which I must offer to your and my Heavenly Father as a balance for life and breath.

When, from our octave, we look at the human race, we see each lifestream a constant pulsation of qualities. These qualities are the habits, the thoughts and the feelings into which the personal self is constantly pouring the pure essence of life. The whole human race, then, is merely a series of qualities. In reality there is no such thing as a “person.” That which appears to be a “pleasing personality” or a “constructive individual” is merely life molded into a harmonious series of vibrations, which respond to the heartbeat and are sent forth at a comfortable rate of vibration into the universe.

You might liken a man unto a tree, and his quality to the fruit thereof. His heartbeat is the life flowing into the fruit, and the essence of that life sustains the qualities he has builded with the life principle. Now, all through the ages certain people have builded very powerfully certain qualities which have endured embodiment after embodiment and which have become the “personality.”

In seeking for people to help the divine evolution of the race, we have looked over these “trees” in God's garden, and have tried to use these qualities that are beneficent condensations of God's energy TO HELP AVERT THREATENING CATASTROPHES, and also to help the human race to build up in their minds faith in God, which is the only means by which they will come to a place of peace and security. In you, my chelas, we believe we have found the help we need. We have found some such qualities in each one. There are no two who have the same qualities developed; therefore, each one will be of tremendous assistance to the whole endeavor—not necessarily by the spoken word, but by radiation. There are also certain other qualities which are like thorns and tares and thistles, which likewise could affect the whole in an adverse manner if they are not honestly recognized and eradicated through conscious effort and the help of the Transmuting Flame of God's Mercy. Through cosmic intervention, we are WITHERING UP, you might say, these HUMAN QUALITIES as quickly as possible and blending the DIVINE QUALITIES into one constructive whole, but we do need your conscious cooperation in this endeavor.

An unascended being may call these divine qualities and virtues forth for all the people and by allowing the love of the Holy Spirit to radiate through you, not only those in your immediate families, but the people in your vicinity and environment will be enriched and express more according to the divine plan. Thus, you can become, each one, a gardener in the spiritual garden of my heart, as well as becoming one of the band who helps me to unfold the spiritual grace latent within the bewildered breasts of all mankind. You have asked me many times how you may help—this is one way in which your services would be invaluable.

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 8, 1954

Beloved Ones,

We are studying today the law of energy and vibration. The Electronic Body and the Christ Self of each of you emit a beautiful radiance, which fills the inner ethers with beauty and with harmony. The Unfed Flame within your physical hearts has been the magnet which has drawn the spirit of freedom, ensouled in the presence of Saint Germain, from cosmic heights. He has chosen to bring the song of freedom into the atmosphere of Earth, bringing into harmony the outer bodies of the people now inhabiting it, as well as those who are to come here in the future.

An Ascended Being can, in this manner, pass through the physical, emotional, and etheric bodies of all mankind a vibratory action which changes the dissonance of their lifestreams into a more harmonious expression. It is as if you had a large symphony orchestra, with no conductor, each man playing his own tune to his own time, without any recognition or interest in the other members of the group. The resulting discord and chaos would pollute the atmosphere and create great distress to the forces of the elements, as well as to the physical ears of all who heard the rendition.

Then a conductor would rise and, tapping his baton, draw the attention of the group, unifying them as to time and the selection of the piece, and—behold, the same orchestra, under the direction of such a conductor would fill the atmosphere and all who heard it with harmonious sound. Such a conductor is the Master Saint Germain, and his cosmic training will enable him to bring harmony and balance through the individual lifestreams of the great orchestra made up of all souls belonging to this planet.

Each of your lifestreams has an individual note and tone through which the cosmic waves flow. If the outer self would cooperate with the great inner self, you would be able to render a tremendous service, because then the unascended body would be a natural conductor for Saint Germain's cosmic note of freedom.

MANY PEOPLE FEEL THAT THEY HAVE NOTHING TO LIVE FOR, THAT THEY HAVE NO REASON FOR BEING, BUT IF THEY WOULD ACCEPT THE PRIVILEGE OF BEING A HARMONIOUS CONDUCTOR OF THE FLAME OF FREEDOM TO THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH, THEY WOULD BE RENDERING A TREMENDOUS SERVICE TO THEIR FELLOWMEN AS WELL AS TO THE PLANET.

Many people say they have not time to devote to altruistic endeavors, or even to spread a little light and sunshine on the darkened souls of those they meet in the course of their daily lives. They will tell you that their immediate families or their individual interests take all their energies. In this regard, the Master Jesus admonished his hearers to "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." WE MUST NOT NEGLECT THE SERVICE TO GOD THROUGH OVER-ATTENTIVENESS TO OUR FAMILIES AND FRIENDS. YOUR INCIDENTAL FAMILY LIFE IS OF NO IMPORTANCE IN THE HEAVENLY SCHEME OF THINGS. You, each one, have had millions of such experiences and your families, in turn, have had the same, but with the conscious knowledge of the Law and the realization of the service you can render to life, especially at this crucial time of Earth's history, YOU WILL NOT BE HELD GUILTLESS BEFORE LIFE IF YOU DO NOT ATTEMPT CONSCIOUSLY TO BECOME A HARMONIOUS EXPRESSION OF YOUR OWN HOLY CHRIST SELF AND RENDER WHAT ASSISTANCE YOU CAN IN BRINGING FREEDOM TO EARTH AND HER PEOPLE.

BELOVED CHILDREN, LET ME WARN YOU NOT TO NEGLECT YOUR OWN SOUL IN YOUR SERVICE TO THE WORLD.

It gives me pleasure to submit for your enjoyment a short resume of the activities that took place in the Retreat at Crete on the occasion of the last Transmission Flame Ceremony, by the beloved Hilarion himself, hierophant of the retreat.

BELOVED HILARION speaks:

Beloved Friends of Truth,

Thinking on the activity of the Transmission Flame and what it means, we marvel that any group of unascended beings can be so stimulated as to offer their own consciousness and cooperative forcefields as a magnetic pull and transmitting center for the currents of this flame. Looking at the atmosphere in which such good and selfless individuals abide, it is truly the miracle of the ages to see a rhythm unbroken over a period of more than a year, which provides us an opportunity to step down those blessings and gifts which we have generated and radiated forth from our various foci for many centuries.

THE CHANNELING AND CONDENSING OF THE SUBTLE ENERGIES OF THE COSMOS REQUIRE THE INVESTMENT OF TREMENDOUS COSMIC ENERGIES UPON OUR PART WHEN THERE ARE NOT PHYSICAL CONDUCTORS PROVIDED. The great Cosmic Law has not seen fit to allow us to create artificial channels very often; that is why the establishment of the transmission centers—where voluntary conductors and transmitters are available—has brought such great opportunity to us.

Regarding the Transmission Flame at Crete, we believe you will find the description of the Temple of Truth interesting. In design it is similar to the great Parthenon, except that it is made of self-luminous and translucent material. The frieze all round the front, sides, and back of the building is of pure gold, in design something like the lovely Wedgwood which pleases the eye in the physical appearance world. It follows a consecutive, chronological pattern—the history of the visitation of the first beloved virgin of truth, the great Vesta, herself, the conferring of the authority of this office to the beloved Pallas Athena, the establishment of the Oracle at Delphi, the reception by Phidias of the idea of the Parthenon, the building of the Parthenon, and the great Golden Age of Greece. Many other portions of the development of truth at inner levels, and in the physical appearance world as well, are depicted in the panels of the frieze.

Over the Temple of Truth tonight (July 17, 1954), the beloved Raphael, Archangel of Consecration, is standing, clothed in robes of emerald green. Around him in a great circle are thousands of the angels of consecration, in every shade of green, from the soft, spring “apple green” to the deep “bottle green.” The mighty pillars—the Grecian columns—are all entwined with the five-pointed ivy leaf (symbol of eternal life and motif of the beloved Maha Chohan). The temple steps are covered with a deep green carpeting.

As the procession has long since begun, the brothers and sisters who are the guardians of the Temple of Truth here at Crete, have already entered the temple proper—all wearing their white robes with the embroidered symbol of the Brotherhood (the lighted lamp emitting the Flame of Truth), over the heart.

The procession has been arranged so that the least experienced of the brothers entered the temple first. The floor of the temple has geometrical designs in mosaic work set into the marble floor, each with its own outlined periphery, indicating the position where each brother will stand, and arranged so that each one's aura is completely and distinctly separated from the other.

Tonight we are honored by the presence of the beloved Vesta, herself, whose attendants are bringing in a great, emerald green brazier, holding a focus of the Flame of Truth from the Sun. She will enter the temple last. She is wearing the nine-pointed crown, with great diamonds at the end of each point. Her hair, almost platinum in color, reaches practically to the hem of her garments. Her robe is in the graceful Grecian style, and her long train is diamond-encrusted.

Directly preceding the Lady Vesta, acting as her hand-maiden, walks the beloved Pallas Athena. She is wearing the seven-pointed crown, which is her symbol of authority as a member of the Karmic Board.

We (the Maha Chohan and myself), in conjunction with them, will focus the Flame of Truth at a given signal and the current of truth will then begin its outpouring around the planet.

An exquisite choir of the seraphic and cherubic hosts have taken their places at each side of the great altar. They will sing the keynote of each one of the Seven Rays, representing the seven types of individuals—all who will receive the Flame of Truth this night.

Standing at the foot of the steps leading to the temple and looking upward, the green ivy entwined around the white pillars, with the beautiful celestial light reflecting on the golden frieze ornaments, makes a beautiful picture. Raising the eyes higher still, one may see the glorious Raphael standing in the atmosphere above, and we will have some picture of the activity as it is now taking place. The consecration from his hands is pouring out to all the Earth in the form of the most exquisite flowers. They look almost like a snowfall of light flowers, which settle over the entire temple and are then wafted over the planet.

Tonight, as the flame begins its journey through the lower atmosphere of Earth, I have invited the entire Karmic Board to stand with us, so they may see what can be done toward our receiving the dispensation that the lifestreams passing from the body in the current twelve-month period might be brought into our Temple of Truth and taught the rudiments of the one truth. My very deep interest in the disillusioned (after death)—which disillusionment and bitter disappointment has been the cause of the spiritually broken and the agnostics—has impelled me to press this petition. Will you add your prayers to mine that the Cosmic Law may grant us this dispensation, especially for the redemption of the disillusioned and embittered, due to their disappointment after death through the misrepresentation of truth, which was done intentionally or through ignorance? It would mean much to the Earth, and it means so much to me personally. God bless you each one, and thank you for your loving cooperation on behalf of mankind.

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 22, 1954

My Blessed Children,

How dear to my heart are your expressions of love that come to me in your individual epistles, and return back to you on the beam of your own sweet energies with my radiation and blessing, not only for your final victory, but for your present comfort and encouragement. Have you thought that while my office is that of “comforter,” you, in turn, are a “comfort” to me through the sweet intercourse we have one with another? Love is life, itself, and everything—from the smallest molecule to the Godhead—responds to love. The more one pours out love to life in general, the more peace and harmony and blessings of every kind return. Weary not of well-doing and well-wishing. These activities pay dividends not only in the “hereafter,” but in your everyday living.

Life, as you know, is an activity of energy and vibration—a receiving and a giving. We are constantly receiving, through the heartbeat unsullied life and are just as constantly, through our individual thoughts and feelings, transmuting its quality into whatever expression the mood of the moment dictates, when all our efforts should be centered in raising the quality of our energy by consciously directing forth pure thought and feeling into our life.

We often hear it said, “Oh, how I wish I could see and feel the angels' presence.” You know, the angels are very like birds and the nature kingdom at large, such as the fawn and the rabbit or any of the gentle creatures who represent the realm of nature. If you study the reaction of these little creatures to vibration, you will begin to understand how peaceful and gentle vibrations will enable a bird to alight upon your hand, or a fawn to lie at your feet, and THIS SAME VIBRATION IS REQUIRED TO BRING IN AND SUSTAIN THE PRESENCE OF THE ANGELIC HOST during your meditation, or as a protective presence within your household, or around the lifestreams of those to whom you feel yourself dedicated at the moment.

To cultivate that peaceful feeling in yourself, which you can test again and again by the reaction of the physical nature kingdom toward you, is to prepare yourself to become a co-worker with the angelic kingdom, and thus greatly assist in their outpouring of love and light to the people of Earth. Saint Francis of Assisi could draw any creature of the forest by his radiation of peace, and by his actual love for these beings, and he was surrounded constantly by countless members of the angelic host, who did his bidding on more than one occasion by protecting and sustaining lives, dissolving plagues, and preventing storms of catastrophic fury.

Thus, individuals who can become one with the consciousness and radiation of the angelic host, could walk into the center of a tornado, and return that energy to peace, and these people will be a tremendous power in the days ahead. They will also be a peace-commanding presence, through radiation alone, having a quieting effect on the turbulent natures of those they meet in the ordinary course of their daily living. WE ARE BEGINNING NOW A WORLD WIDE SEARCH FOR VOLUNTEERS, AND WE FEEL WITH GOOD HOPE THAT WE CAN TRAIN ENOUGH OF THE HUMAN KINGDOM THAT WHEN THE ANGELIC HOST COME INTO EMBODIMENT IN GREAT NUMBERS, THERE WILL ALREADY BE ESTABLISHED CENTERS TO WHICH THEY WILL NATURALLY GRAVITATE BY THE SEEMINGLY NATURAL COURSE OF EVENTS.

Beloved Maha Chohan

August 29, 1954

Beloved Ones,

It is with great pleasure that I submit, for your enjoyment, a resume of the report of my beloved son, Kuthumi, on the Transmission Flame Ceremony held at my retreat on the Island of Ceylon, on the evening of August 21st, preceding. It is my hope that each one of my children will join his or her energies with ours every evening while this retreat is active.

You have each asked me, at one time or another, how you may assist in this endeavor, and I say to you, my children, that EXPANDING THE TRANSMISSION FLAME IS ONE OF THE MOST EFFICACIOUS MEANS OF AWAKENING THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PEOPLE, because the light stirs the flame in the heart INTO ACTION, and IN A DIVINELY NATURAL WAY ILLUMINES THE INTELLECT, THEREBY AROUSING AN INTEREST IN GOD'S PLAN FOR THE UNIVERSE. I welcome each one of you hourly or daily into my retreat.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

For those of you who have contemplated, even intellectually, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, there must come a realization of the magnificence of this being, who embodies the fully-developed mastery and control of all of the qualities. Those of us who are given the opportunity of qualifying our energy after the pattern of the great Holy Spirit, and creating a rhythmic pulsation of even one of these gifts, know full well the amount of mastery that is required in becoming a radiating center for all of those virtues, in order to supply—upon the demand of embodied mankind, as well as of all the Ascended Master Kingdom—as much of that virtue as any life shall call forth to use.

Have you thought, when you call for purity or when you call for peace, that if some being had not chosen to qualify primal life with the gift you ask for, there would be no source of already-consecrated purity, peace, healing, or forgiveness? Some intelligences, even like yourselves, facing the Source of all life, have taken primal life and—through the use of free will—have passed the energy of feeling through it, and thus created the foci of these great cosmic gifts. Then, after they had created these great foci, these beings have stood guard over that qualified life energy, holding it and increasing it with every heartbeat, until the hour when it should be invited into the world of men. Then a beam from that Cosmic Presence and that aura carries the virtue to wherever it is called.

Touch the hem of the garment of the Holy Spirit, you who need comfort. Invite a ray from his great cosmic heart into yours, and let the energies of your world embody the magnificence which he has gathered from the Sun. Long before you call has he answered and builded that comfort, for the day when you would require it. Within that comfort are those gifts of forbearance, of fortitude, of humility, reverence, and piety. Within that comfort are all those many gifts of the divine nature of goodness.

The beloved Maha Chohan, himself, presides tonight in the great flame chamber, where he is demonstrating to the gathered Brotherhood the activity which engages his energies, as he becomes the magnet for all the primal life that is used on the planet Earth. This activity is a most sacred one, and it is seldom that unascended eyes have been privileged to witness a being drawing such power. However, as every unascended being is also a magnet drawing primal life, the Maha Chohan thought that perhaps if individuals witnessed, with the inner sight, how life is magnetized, drawn and qualified, it would give to each witnessing this activity a greater realization of the responsibility of drawing this primal life, as well as a desire to use it to create something of beauty, something that would be a blessing to the universe, or something which would be a spiritual heritage for the rest of mankind.

The flame chamber in the heart of the Ceylon Retreat is the focus on the Earth through which our beloved Maha Chohan pours the blessings of life into the nature kingdom. As you stand near the entrance of that great chamber you can see the White Flame of Comfort, which has the appearance of a large and beautiful water lily. As the flame reaches out to the periphery of the room, it becomes a delicate pink at the edges. In the center of that lily-flame stands the living presence of the beloved Maha Chohan, in his seamless white robe and beautiful white turban, with the great emerald in the center. Around his body dances the tremendous light which is his natural aura, being the magnet for all the energy of the Earth.

The nature devas have created a canopy over the entire Island of Ceylon, duplicating the same beautiful white lily. That canopy of light is exquisite, because they have created the flower with the cup facing downward, the stamen being pink, the flower itself having pink edges to match the large flame flower in the temple. The entire island is held within that canopy, and the fragrance of comfort and peace emanating from it is magnificent.

From the center of the large flame have been created seven similar flowers—one for each of the Seven Chohans. In the center of the lesser flower each one of us has focused the particular gifts of our rays—a cosmic pulsation which will join with the mother flame as it passes into the inner bodies of the students when the transmission of the flame around the world begins.

The beloved Maha Chohan now has turned his attention inward, which makes the flame in his heart visible. This is expanding now until his form is no longer visible within it. As you look upon him now you can see the activity of magnetization in its greatest power as far as the Earth is concerned, and from the Sun comes that tremendous concentrated river of force which is not automatic, but is invoked and magnetized by the spirit of the Maha Chohan. As that mighty river of force enters into the heart of the flame, one has to recede, because the entire room becomes a battery of such magnificent concentrated light that is too powerful for those even while acting in the freedom of the etheric body.

However, as one looks into that river of force from a safe distance, it will be seen that it looks like a rainbow in the seven colors representing the rays. As these rainbow-currents enter the heart of the Maha Chohan they are deflected, one color going into the heart of each one of the seven lilies, as well as into the Chohan who represents that particular ray. Now you get the picture of the great cosmic currents flowing from the heart of the Sun and how—as they enter the atmosphere of Earth—they are diffused into the seven colors. The light is pure white until it enters the body of the Maha Chohan, where it is transformed into the seven colors, like a living rainbow.

As the seven colors pass into the body of the Maha Chohan they are, in turn, drawn into the bodies of the seven Chohans, each one magnetizing his own ray. Now, if you will look, you will see that each Chohan diffuses his ray and directs it out through the angelic, human and elemental kingdoms. For instance, in the First Ray, the most intense, pure and deep sapphire passes into the angelic kingdom, the delicate hue, the baby blue and the powder blue goes into the elemental kingdom, and the medium blue flows into the human kingdom. It is an easy matter to pick out chelas by the depth of the concentrated ray, each chela magnetizing the ray from the Chohan under whose direction he comes.

All around the world, even as I am speaking, in the sanctuaries, groups and homes, the conscious chelas are magnetizing the ray, each from his own Chohan, so that the diffusion of colors is very intricate in its design. As these rays pass into the chelas, they, in turn, diffuse the rays again—some consciously and others unconsciously—until the atmosphere around them is suffused with the various colors. The Silent Watchers of the various vicinities gather up these colors in the atmosphere, and anchor them into the mass of the people, until every soul in embodiment gets a part of the ray to which he belongs, and embodied in the ray is the gift which it represents.

The angelic kingdom follows the same procedure, but the angels, rather than diffusing the radiation as the human kingdom does, intensify it. The elemental also takes its portion of that color, say of the powder blue, and holds it until, by a concentration of his faith, he brings it up again into the deep sapphire blue. The devic, the angelic, and the elemental kingdoms, for the most part, intensify the colors.

Mankind, as a whole, think very little of the life they use, but this being, who has magnetized the light and passed it down to us, has given us the responsibility of CHOOSING THE LIFESTREAMS WHO CAN BEST AMPLIFY IT. We, in turn, pass that life on to you, hoping that you will amplify it POSITIVELY. You, in turn, give it to someone who you see will benefit by it, and so on and on, ad infinitum. Then, on the return current the RESPONSIBILITY PASSES BACK. THE CHELAS ARE HELD RESPONSIBLE TO THEIR CHOHANS, WHO GAVE THE LIGHT TO THEM IN THE FIRST PLACE. THESE CHOHANS ARE HELD RESPONSIBLE TO THE MAHA CHOHAN. THE MAHA CHOHAN IS RESPONSIBLE TO THE SUN. Therefore, he is most careful of the conscious energies that are given in dictations, and in the conveying of confidences to individuals who might be just playing with the Law.

Now we come to the heart of this Earth. From the Sun flows this magnificent stream of energy. I have never seen a more concentrated outpouring of that cosmic rainbow into the heart of the Maha Chohan than tonight. The seven great Elohim and the seven great Archangels are standing over Asia and pouring their radiation into that continent. The radiation spreads out until it covers the planet. The Archangels are concentrating on India. The Maha Chohan is responsible for all that energy poured out by those mighty beings. It passes into his consciousness, and the greater the pressure from the beings above, the more control he has to hold as he embodies it. He then releases that energy to each one of the Chohans, and each one of us is taxed to his full capacity this night.

At the moment that the Transmission Flame Activity begins, each Chohan enters into the heart of his own lotus-lily and presses the momentum of his gift upon every member of the race belonging to his ray. We have opened the door tonight so that the discarnates and those awaiting physical birth may be similarly blessed. The beloved Djwal Kul, acting for me, is standing with the Maha Chohan. He is rendering the service, as always, of acting as sponsor for the retreat, and he has welcomed the guests since the 15th of the month. He has been acting for me until I can enter the flame, myself. Now, I will ask you all to enter the heart of the silence, and draw into yourselves the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit from the heart of the Maha Chohan.

Beloved Maha Chohan

September 19, 1954

Beloved Ones,

Holy men and women, whose motives were pure and who aspired through the feeling of their own hearts to union with Divinity, have often been pictured as surrounded by cherubic and angelic beings, who poured the gifts and radiance of their presence into the soul of the aspirant, bringing that spiritual nourishment and assuaging the heart thirst for the higher realms toward which they aspired. You have all seen, I am sure, the picturization of Saint Cecelia, whose music was truly said to have drawn, not only the recognition, but the pleasure of the angelic host.

In the lower realms that make up the atmosphere of Earth, there are many members of the angelic host, of the seraphic and cherubic guard, who have voluntarily entered into this unseen realm of thought and feeling, and minister by radiation to the heart flame of both incarnate and discarnate souls. These heavenly beings always welcome the aura and radiation of lifestreams whose own heart flame is aspiring toward a greater expression of oneness with God, and a greater expansion of God's kingdom, although the outer mind is oftentimes unaware of the ways and means by which such accomplishment can be effected.

The coming Age of Freedom will bring a tremendous at-one-ment between sensitive Earth spirits and the angelic host, who will work hand-in-hand and heart-to-heart in the establishment of God's Way on Earth. Meanwhile, as these heavenly spirits are temporary exiles from the realms of peace and harmony, the creation and sustaining of an atmosphere in which they can find refreshment and peace is a great service that has as yet not been understood by the travelers on the path. In the physical homes and gardens of people there could be set aside sections where everything could be made conducive to the presence and sanctuary of the angelic host—and those places would be so highly charged by their presence and their gratitude, that any human being who steps within them would experience the ecstasy of the kingdom of heaven, which is the natural radiation of the angel.

In the East, in the south of France, in the Scottish Moor lands, there are certain old gardens and secluded spots in nature which, many centuries ago, were dedicated by pure souls to the angelic kingdom, and sensitive people can instantly feel these radiations. In the future, PLACES LIKE THESE WILL BE NATURAL HEALING CENTERS. Any lifestream can dedicate such a place, and then take the responsibility of drawing and focusing the love of the angelic kingdom therein, to render a service to these exiles of love.

In the great Himalayan Mountains there are way-stops for the travelers, where they may gain rest and protection from the forces of the elements, as well as gaining the opportunity of rebuilding their strength for their spiritual journey. In a like manner these foci for the angelic kingdom must be established preceding their entrance and their stay in the lower octaves of Earth. THEY LOVE FLOWERS, NATURAL PERFUMES, LIGHT AND AIRY SPACES, MUSIC AND — OF COURSE — PRIMARILY PEACE.

Let me see now what you will do with this suggestion.

Beloved Maha Chohan

September 26, 1954

Beloved Ones,

It is my pleasure to present once again, for your enjoyment, the report of my beloved son, Kuthumi, on the Transmission Flame Activities which took place in the retreat of the beloved Paul, the Venetian, on the evening of September 18th, immediately preceding.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Blessed Children,

Beloved brothers and dear sisters, I always welcome the opportunity of parting the veil just a little and saying, "I love you." Oh, how deeply my heart is stirred when an opportunity is provided and the welcome from unascended beings is sufficient to magnetize our presence and give us, before the Cosmic Law, the freedom to speak into the world of form to record, for the blessings of men, those particular activities of life which we feel will be of benefit to the evolving consciousness.

You feel that your present state of bondage is a trial, when you so desire freedom and, yet, if we, in the greater freedom which we enjoy, could feel bondage, it would be in the fact that there is so much spiritual knowledge available for the use of mankind, so much in the way of instruction and application, so much in the way of consecrated radiation which, if we could find open doors through which to pour it, would much more quickly hasten the evolution of the race.

Yet, no matter what amount of spiritual knowledge and experience we have gathered through the centuries and the ages, we must abide in the patience and wisdom of the Cosmic Law, until a voluntary hand from unascended mankind parts the veil—until the prayer from the unascended heart pierces through the psychic realm and opens the door. When even the slightest opening is made, we rush to avail ourselves of every moment that the opportunity is offered, before the attention is drawn again into the things of the world, and even the most well-meaning have forgotten us.

We wait, with far more eagerness than you, these short visitations. WE PREPARE CAREFULLY, HOPING AND ENDEAVORING IN THE FEW SHORT MOMENTS ALLOTTED TO US, TO ANCHOR INTO YOUR SWEET WORLDS AND CONSCIOUSNESS SOME SEED WHICH, IF YOU WOULD NOURISH IT, WOULD BEAR FRUIT FOR YOU, and that fruit, being sweet, would give you faith and confidence, and encourage you to come again and sit at the feet of the Master. However, perhaps in time you will find such comfort in that aura, such comfort in our association and our presence, that the world and all that there is therein will not have such an enticement for you.

Thus will the passing interest and curiosity of the first students on the path become transmuted into friendship of sorts, into an interest in the purpose and design of the Brotherhood, and finally into a comradeship, a mature association, where the unascended being not only enjoys listening to the accounts of the happiness of the higher realms, but also desires to incorporate his own sweet energies in the causes and the plans, in the hopes and dreams and visions which are ours to give and which just await the receptive consciousness of man, that they may be externalized.

You have come, beloved ones, from that group of curious ones. You have come from the group of wishful thinkers and from the worshipping group which, in themselves, render small service, and now you stand at the point where you are willing to be comrades and friends with the God-free. Therefore it is that I rush with all the energies of my being towards you tonight, bringing into your worlds the gift which is mine to give, primarily, that is, spiritual perception—for, after all, what can a man do if he does not perceive the first plan? No matter how willing the heart, no matter how strong the will to serve, there must be PERCEPTION WITHIN THE MIND of that which is to be done.

There must be a clear understanding of the part that the lifestream can and will play in fulfilling a portion of the divine plan—a perception of our purpose, coupled with a wise, discriminate understanding of the talents and gifts you possess, which presently might be used in our cause. So, while I am entertaining your minds with a description of the magnificence of the Chateau de Liberte', I am driving the Flame of Gold into your outer consciousness, to still the vibrations of your mental bodies. I ask you now, therefore, to please be still and listen!

When the chelas enter any of our retreats, the very first discipline that we give is embodied in that short admonition, "Be still and know that I AM God!" Some chelas spend long years in coming to that point of stillness, but it is worth it, for when the mind is still and mirrors clearly as a lake the light of the Sun, when it mirrors the directions of the Holy Christ Self—then the consciousness moves into action and manifestation can occur in peace, in mastery, and in tranquility.

Where are you seeking, children, for your miracles, for your strength and for your faith? Where are you seeking for your healing? May I point your attention to the Liberty Flame this month! There, within your hearts, is the flame that liberates from within your own life the healing, the peace, the supply, and all that you require to attain your mastery.

Are you seeking a myth? I implore you, during this precious month, which is dedicated to the Liberty Flame, to turn to that Liberty Flame within your own heart and COMMAND THE GOD-LIBERATION, FROM WITHIN YOURSELF, of that which you require most to set your world in order.

Now, may I transport you in consciousness to France! Have you thought what a beautiful medium of conveyance your consciousness is? How quickly you can fly from star to Sun, or to the planets of the system? Tonight, I take you in consciousness, to the south of France, where the blue Mediterranean reflects the glory of the star-studded sky, where the nightingale sings its soft song, and the fragrant perfume of the late flowers wafts in the soft breeze to enhance the magnificent setting of the chateau of my beloved brother, the Venetian. He is the embodiment of grace and beauty, dedicated and consecrated to loving your flame of life enough so that all the talents and powers of the Godhead within you, as well as those of all mankind, shall be loosed, for he is, in very truth, "his brother's keeper."

We were speaking the other evening—the Maha Chohan, my brother Chohans and I—of what a change has taken place these last few years in the visitation of the Great White Brotherhood to the retreats, and how small retreats like the Chateau, equipped to hold perhaps ninety or one hundred of the good brothers, are now—through the bringing of the understanding of the flame to the consciousness of mankind—hosts to thousands, and sometimes millions, of souls who attend the opening of each one.

In the case of the Chateau, the beautiful flame room seats less than one hundred people. I will take you through it so that you may enjoy its beauty. Most of our visitors will not enter this room at all tonight, but will be entertained in the glorious pink amphitheater created by the beloved Archangel Chamuel and the Angels of Adoration, and which is now, even before the pulsation begins, larger than the country of France, itself.

Many, many hundreds of thousands of souls are drawn by the Pink Flame and the radiation which is pouring out from this amphitheater, and they are seated, just waiting to see what is to take place, enjoying the love and comfort of the radiation.

I will ask you to please come with me now into the heart of the private flame room, which holds the Liberty Flame. This room is approached through a long corridor, somewhat similar to the Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, the entrance to which is gained through wide folding doors, with the dove encrusted in gold on the white panel of each. Walking along this hall with me now you will see that between each of the mirrors has been painted a magnificent picture of the Archangels, three on the left and three on the right. The beloved Venetian rendered this service, himself, in the gorgeous, imperishable colors which always mark his work.

On one side of the hall he has made the beloved Michael in blue; the beloved Raphael in green; the beloved Zadkiel in purple; on the other side of the hall the beloved Uriel is in green, Jophiel is in gold and the beloved Gabriel is in white, on a golden background. The beloved Chamuel, you will notice, is depicted in a life-size tapestry at the end of the corridor facing the door through which we have entered. The tapestry is of a shimmering silk-like material, with the Archangel painted upon it in pink. This forms the entrance to the flame room and is constructed so that it can be divided in the center, thus allowing the individual to pass right through the Pink Flame and presence of the beloved Chamuel into the flame room.

Now, as you walk in consciousness along this beautiful corridor, FEEL the radiation of the Archangels and the current of energy, as your body passes through that magnificent draped picturization of Chamuel. FEEL for a moment the stillness. As your eyes become accustomed to the light of the flame room, you can look upon the great altar, made of carved crystal. In the center, the hand—symbolical of the beloved Maha Chohan—holds the golden chalice from which rises the Immortal Liberty Flame in gold, pink and blue. This flame, of course, is the focal point of interest in the room. Above the altar is a magnificent likeness of the Maha Chohan, pictured with the dove at his breast. In a stained-glass effect over his head is the radiation of the Pink Ray in a fan-like form of five pink rays.

On the left side of the altar you will notice the artistry of the beloved Paul depicted in a full-size picture of the beloved Morya, done in sapphire blue on an exquisite stained-glass panel. Above that, a similar design is carried out of myself in gold, and above that, of the beloved Venetian himself, in pink. On the right side, on similar panels, are pictured the beloved Serapis Bey in crystal, the beloved Jesus in green and gold, and the beloved Hilarion in green. Beneath the Maha Chohan's picture, is depicted the Master Saint Germain in magnificent purple.

Now, if I may ask you to step back through the tapestry curtain at the entrance, we will proceed to the central hall, where we have a view of the grand staircase. To the strains of the Marseillaise we are in time to see the brothers and sisters from the various retreats, all in pink, descending in pairs, dividing where the stair separates, one going to the right, the other to the left, and meeting again at the foot, from whence they proceed in a magnificent procession to the flame room.

The Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena now appear on the upper stair balcony. The beloved lady is beautiful in the Nada pink. She wears small, pink flowers in her hair, which is dressed high in Grecian fashion. Tonight she is wearing two long curls, which hang down over the left shoulder. Her long train is upheld by several cherubic figures.

The Maha Chohan will preside within the flame room. He is deviating in dress from his custom of centuries tonight, by wearing pink, even to the turban, in honor of the Venetian's activity. He is wearing a magnificent pink diamond, about two inches in diameter, in the center of his turban. On the forefinger of his right hand he is wearing a similar stone, but of a smaller size. Perhaps you have not seen, in the outer world, the pink diamond, which is a most powerful focus of divine love!

We come now to the end of the procession, the Maha Chohan and the beloved Pallas Athena being the last to descend. They, too, separate where the stairway divides, and meet again at the foot, from whence they proceed slowly to the flame room, where we will leave them for the present.

On the magic carpet of our consciousness we will now rise into the heart of the magnificent amphitheater, above. There is so much to say and such little time in which to say it! I wonder if you realize how much energy and life is expended in creating a tremendous form such as this amphitheater, which has been brought into being by individuals through the use of mind and thought and feeling like unto your own. I will tell you how they did this in such a short time and where they obtained the substance out of which it is built; it may interest you. THE ENERGY OF THE PRAYERS THAT HAVE GONE FORTH FROM THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE, INCLUDING RUSSIA, FOR THE PAST SEVEN HUNDRED YEARS has been used as substance to build this gigantic stadium. The form builders applied to the devas of the old cathedrals and churches, where momentums have been gathered in the forcefields that surround them, with the hope that the return current of this energy will carry back to these places the blessing that is charged into it this night.

You have seen pictures of the ancient Roman and Greek coliseums and amphitheaters, which will give you a pretty good picture of the design of this one. The angels usually follow these forms, for in the realms in which they dwell, they have no weather problems. Therefore they do not need canopies for protection. They like to build graceful, fluted columns, garlanded with flame flowers, and size being no object, these edifices are magnificent in their spaciousness.

This great amphitheater has expanded already since we began our talk, for now it covers nearly all of continental Europe. You know, dear friends, these beautiful activities have been taking place at inner levels for many ages, but nobody has opened the door for you to look upon them. Blessed are you who can believe within yourselves that what I say is true.

The beloved Chamuel! Oh, the magnificence of that glorious, golden Archangel! He is standing in the center of the altar, which occupies the central point of the amphitheater, in full view of the entire audience, and is drawing into himself the flame that is directed by the Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena from the flame room beneath. He draws it up and up until it looks like a gigantic fountain, fully revealed to the hundreds of thousands of people in attendance. Many, many people who never heard of the Unfed Flame are here tonight, drawn hither by the magnetic pull of its glorious presence.

The beloved Goddess of Liberty has chosen to canopy the whole activity with the aura of her presence. Another innovation—I have never seen her in pink. She almost always wears the white and blue, but tonight she is in pink and wears a great pink diamond crown. The ladies all wear beautiful Grecian gowns, modified according to their individual tastes.

The activity, as it goes into action, will be to IMPRESS THE CONSCIOUSNESS that the FLAME OF LIFE WITHIN THE HEART CONTAINS THE ANSWER TO EVERY HEART PRAYER. As the Transmission Flame surges round the Earth each month, DRAW THE CONVICTION INTO YOURSELVES that the FLAME IN YOUR HEART is all-powerful, and hear it say: "All this I can do for you - and more." RELY upon that immortal flame and PRESS YOUR HUMAN CONSCIOUSNESS INTO IT UNTIL IT YIELDS TO YOU THE MIRACLE YOU REQUIRE.

I thank you for the opportunity of speaking with you. Your friend and brother.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 24, 1954

Beloved Ones,

Again it becomes my privilege and pleasure to offer you beloved Kuthumi's report on the Transmission Flame Activity, which took place this month (October 16th) at Luxor, in the retreat of the beloved Serapis Bey.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Tonight, the activities of the planet Earth are centered around the highest, purest, and most magnificent flame, the Ascension Flame, which forms the ultimate activity of the individual consciousness. There has been created over the temple at Luxor a magnificent Grecian amphitheater to take care of the great numbers of lifestreams, all of whom desire deep within their hearts, above all things, TO GO HOME. The great Archangel Gabriel, in blazing, white garments, is enthroned in the atmosphere above it, and the Ascension Flame is visible around the entire Earth, acting as a magnet to the light within the souls of men.

The beloved Serapis, in the white robes of the Ascension Temple, wearing the crown with the winged sun upon his head, is already standing before the altar and is breathing that magnificent flame into his own Electronic Presence and then externalizing it in a white fire cloud through the consciousness of the assembled Hierarchy, who, in turn, are amplifying it by their own feeling of the ascension.

The Ascension Flame, to one who has been raised on its crest into the heart of freedom, is most dear, and when the attention of the individual is turned toward it in love and gratitude, the flame is intensified, and increased for the use and benefaction of the life that yet requires its buoyant energies to rise above the various despondencies that comprise the limitations of Earth.

The entire activity is to convey the buoyant, rising energy (which is the natural activity of Life), through the heavy, misqualified energies of those devoted chelas who are functioning in Earth bodies as well as through every lifestream who has been chosen for the ascension, whether or not they have even manifested a passing interest in the things of the spirit so far.

The Brotherhood at Luxor has carefully marked every lifestream upon the planet Earth who has the possibility of making the ascension in this embodiment. At the moment when the flame begins its activity around the Earth, one brother from this retreat will enter into the aura of each such one and reverse the currents of the physical, mental, emotional, and etheric energies at inner levels, through a concentrated focus of this Ascension Flame.

We hope that you will accept and acknowledge this activity, and cooperate through the buoyancy of your own feeling world with the added impetus and upliftment which will be set into motion for this thirty-day period.

The Retreat at Luxor, which opened its doors yesterday to the beloved Sanat Kumara, Lord Maitreya, our Lord the Maha Chohan, and the other august members who represent the heads of the Hierarchy, is decorated beautifully in the white Easter lily and the flame flowers representative of the Fourth Sphere.

Like all the retreats on the Earth, it is not large enough to hold the vast assemblage of lifestreams that gather now, showing interest in this cause, and it is for this reason that the angel devas and builders of form have designed this magnificent Grecian temple. The people are now filing into their seats, and are enjoying the magnificent play of white fire through their inner bodies, as well as the radiation from the mighty Gabriel, and acknowledging, within themselves, the renewed hope and vital fire which the Ascension Flame always brings.

The altar, itself, is raised in the form of a pyramid in the center of the temple, and the seating completely circumvents the altar, the flame rising like a white cone from the cap of the pyramid so that it is equally discernible from all points of the auditorium.

The beloved Serapis faces East, as the flame in its procession will go from his heart across the Arabian Desert to the focus of Jesus and Mary in the Holy Land.

This is the first time the beloved Serapis has had world attendance at Luxor, and there is great joy and anticipation. Beloved Serapis has worked long and hard at this endeavor. The forces that have been opposed to the ascension of mankind and the elemental and devic kingdoms to their rightful estate have kept the flame from receiving world-wide recognition. Yet tonight—a full half-hour before it goes into action, cosmically speaking—it is visible from every continent upon the planet.

The four presiding Masters who will officiate, one at each side of the pyramid-shaped altar, are now taking their places—the beloved Jesus, representative of the ascension in the Christian Dispensation; the beloved Lord Ling, who was Moses, representative of the ascension in the Judaic Dispensation, the beloved Lord Buddha of the Buddhist Dispensation—facing south, west, and north, so that the currents passing through their bodies, as well as that of Serapis' facing east, will make an open-ended cross, carrying the Ascension Flame to all individuals in their respective faiths, as well as to those portions of the Earth's surface toward which their Ascended Master bodies are facing.

The Brotherhood of the Ascension Temple are in white garments, with a wide band of crystal at the hem and cuff. These brothers make a living circle around the base of the pyramid—the brilliant sun emblazoned on the breast of each one—forming another facet through which this concentrated flame will pour, first to the assembly, and then to the world.

All the guests of honor are wearing magnificent robes of white. Beloved Mary, mother of Jesus, instead of her usual soft blue, is in an exquisite white garment, the long train of which is embroidered in lilies of the valley. The other goddesses are wearing beautiful creations of white also, with over-drapes and long trains.

Mankind at large, as well as the students, do not realize how seriously and how intently the Brotherhood awaits the honoring of some concentrated focus of the Sacred Fire each month, giving the strength and breath of their own life to the sustenance of its gifts, not only for the mankind of Earth, but by drawing back with them into their own retreats this concentrated radiation.

It is our hope and our sincere desire that those who, even in consciousness, turn toward these retreats may, in like manner, draw that flame and feeling of its efficacy into their own activities for the benefit of their life and that of their environment.

During the entire month you may contemplate that great cylinder of flame flowing from the top of the pyramid-shaped altar, and those magnificent beings at its foot, pouring out their love and radiation to the planet and its people. As you draw the flame into your being, accept for humanity in general, incarnate as well as discarnate, the essence of its perfection.

God bless you, each one.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 31, 1954

Beloved Ones,

The pressure of purification charged through your lifestreams by the use of the Sacred Fire is dislodging much atrophied substance and many latent qualities held in the etheric bodies.

In many lives an individual will build up a habit or a trait, drawing the pure energy of God through it, thus gaining a momentum by the use of this pure energy to manifest that habit or trait. Then through circumstances and environment in following embodiments, he may not continue in that habit, yet in the etheric body and in the substance of the other bodies as well, these discordant qualities have found anchorage and are like dried up figs, causing the individual little or no concern. He DOES NOT EVEN KNOW THAT THOSE QUALITIES ARE LYING DORMANT WITHIN HIM—UNTIL HIS CONSCIOUS AWAKENING ON THE PATH.

In order to become an Ascended Being, every ounce of energy that an individual has used since he first took the responsibility of drawing God's energy and using it, must be purified and redeemed. This is the Law of Life. It is inexorable. It is the Law of the Circle.

When a person enters the stage of his final Earth life, the Cosmic Law must, of necessity, call him to account for all the energy that he, as an individual, is responsible for. If the energy has gone forth harmoniously qualified, it is "written off the books," but if it has carried a destructive quality, that energy is returned to its creator for redemption.

Now, this returning misqualified energy is what seems to cause the individual much unhappiness and concern, because it shows up as trouble of some kind, like illness, limitation, and so on. The proper attitude of the chela should not be discouragement at the appearances which seem to engulf him. He should realize that once he sets his foot on the final path back home, these appearances are but Life presenting its account from the “cosmic ledger,” which must be balanced. THEY ARE NOT A PUNISHMENT OR A FAILURE ON HIS PART WHEN THEY DO APPEAR.

The “account” of most people shows that an amazing percentage of the energy drawn forth must be “taken back” by the individual, purified and sent out, once more, HARMONIOUSLY. It is really like a person making a million pairs of shoes—all for the left foot—and then all at once these shoes begin to come back to be made into pairs. The individual can take many embodiments to cut “right” shoes or he may do it all at once. That is free will. But he will never get off the wheel of birth and rebirth until every bit of energy that he took from God's heart, during all the countless centuries he has lived, is cleansed and purified, and his debt to life is discharged.

This is where you, beloved ones, ARE SO FORTUNATE IN THE USE OF SAINT GERMAIN'S VIOLET TRANSMUTING FLAME, for, it would be an eternity before some of the “ledgers” would be balanced without the mercy of this Sacred Fire. Do not allow yourselves to be engulfed by these appearances, which are really life's way of presenting its bill, but KEEP ON BLAZING THE FLAME THROUGH THEM AS THEY APPEAR. IT IS ALSO A GOOD IDEA TO BLAZE THAT TRANSMUTING FLAME THROUGH THE DISCORDANT ENERGY BEARING YOUR STAMP IN THIS UNIVERSE, BEFORE IT PRESENTS ITSELF TO YOU FOR REDEMPTION. Keep yourselves surrounded always by that Flame of Love, which is God's mercy and forgiveness in action.

November 7, 1954

Beloved Children,

The Great Central Sun is the distributing center through which the soul-light flows, which forms the body of God, and fills the universe. All the planets and stars in interstellar space are composed of this electronic substance, and through this substance constantly flows the rhythmic breath of the Great First Cause, or Great Central Sun, which is the heart center and head of this particular universal scheme. Through the Great Central Sun came the smaller suns, of which Helios is one, there being seven in the system. Around these smaller suns move the planets of each system.

That is the large and expansive scope of vision. Let us now see the physical Sun, sending forth millions and millions of smaller suns, which represent your lifestream and every other lifestream belonging to this system of worlds, each one endowed with self-conscious intelligence and given as much of the body of God as they choose to utilize to create perfection. You see, my children, EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU IS A SUN IN EMBRYO.

The electrons that fill the universe—which you term the atmosphere, and which even form the substance of the material gifts which you use so freely—are the body of God. They have come from a pure, clean heart center which is the heart of heaven. They are imprisoned temporarily in the forms created by man, yet they pulsate constantly with life. They have intelligence within them, and they are aspiring, like all of you, toward the full expression of their own Godliness. EVERY TABLE, EVERY CHAIR, EVERY BOOK, EVERY CARELESSLY SCRAPPED PIECE OF PAPER, HAS WITHIN IT, LIVING ORGANISMS AND BEINGS EAGER AND DESIROUS OF FULFILLING THEIR EVOLUTION and becoming perfected beings in some future scheme.

I have watched mankind use a piece of furniture or a piece of paper and, when the required need is over, discard it roughly and carelessly. HOW, THINK YOU, DO THE ELECTRONS WITHIN THAT ITEM FEEL? Think you it is idly that Saint Germain has suggested that when such an article has served its purpose it be PLACED IN THE PHYSICAL FLAME, AND THE ELECTRONS FREED TO RETURN TO THE SUN? This is a universal teaching applying to all. I have seen a withered flower crushed and thrown carelessly into the garbage—HOW, THINK YOU, THE BEAUTIFUL ELECTRONS THAT MADE UP THAT FLOWER MUST FEEL—rather than the gratitude of the lifestream that enjoyed them freeing them through the flame into the universal! This refers to everything that serves mankind—not only people—but the very rugs beneath one's feet, the outworn shoe or the discarded note upon which a message has been transcribed.

Beloved ones, as you pass through the course of your daily outer world activities, if you would learn to be aware of these lovely, intelligent electrons that make up the atoms of life and would HELP THEM ON THEIR COURSE BY LOVE AND GRATITUDE AND PRAYER, YOU WOULD FIND YOUR WORLD SO FILLED WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF GOD IN MONEY AND SUPPLY THAT YOU WOULD HAVE TO SECURE HELP TO DISPENSE YOUR OPULENCE. The electrons that form the material wealth of this universe love LOVE, and they will seek to be in the presence and the aura of one so loving. Remember the line from the song, “Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life”—“Oh, 'tis love and love alone the world is seeking.”

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 14, 1954

Beloved Children,

There is only one life that flows through every one of the ten billions of lifestreams belonging to this system of worlds. Every lifestream is a channel for the one life. There is no difference between the life that flows through each one, any more than there is a difference between the water that flows through the faucets on the main floor or the second floor of a building. The Father of all life, and the Ascended Masters are constantly pouring their peace, their perfection, their mercy and their freedom through every lifestream, and there will not be even ONE ATOM on this planet which will not achieve perfection and immortality.

The great Saint Germain, who represents freedom to this Earth, has achieved this honor because his love was great enough to cause him to stand before the throne of God and DEMAND THE OPPORTUNITY to save this Earth from dissolution. This boon was granted him and his answer was the gift of the Violet Transmuting Flame to mankind whereby they might cleanse and purify and redeem the electronic substance which they so boldly drew from the heart of the Eternal and forced it to assume such shape and form as to make the angels hide their faces.

Beloved children, life is beautiful. It is a magic, mystic thing, because it is substance composed of the body of God. It is a conscious emanation of the life of the individual pouring forth constantly into the atmosphere of Earth everywhere. It is the electronic energy of love itself, taking humbly whatever form is required of it by the user at the moment. The substance of my life is always obedient to my conscious command, whether it be to form a flower, a blade of grass, a sheaf of wheat, or at times—for a loved chela—even a dollar bill.

Now, the QUALITIES of God are also substance. When I say “substance,” I mean just this. When an Ascended Master answers your call for help, what does he do? He draws the essence from God's heart, which is a stream of electrons. These he projects toward you qualified with his consciousness. These electrons are actual substance, which can be molded into any form you require—into the answer to your prayer—into health, supply or illumination. ASK AND YE SHALL RECEIVE. Your thoughts and feelings mould the substance of the electronic body of God into any shape or form you require.

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 21, 1954

The sweetness of the opportunity of reaching the conscious minds of sincere and earnest hearts fills my spirit with gratitude before the Heart of all Life, and I welcome the invitation which has issued from your own life energy, by which I may enter your world and become a companion upon your pathway.

It is a beautiful experience for us, who have been so long denied entrance into the minds and feelings of the race whom we serve, to see the doors of the individual consciousnesses open, pressed by the flame of love and service, and held wide by the faith of the individual spirit which, now commanding the soul, shall rise in the mastery which God intended, and walk in full freedom in communion with the Perfected Beings giving service to the bound. We bring freedom that you may dispense it. We bring comfort that you may be a comforting presence, and in all ways and in all manner not only to represent us, but to EMBODY OUR NATURE, for it is only THROUGH YOU that we may stand manifest to the world of men. From the time that the wheel of maya closed the consciousness of mankind away from that realm of great perfection in which the wise and free abide, the Law has required that the service which we would render must be conducted THROUGH THE CONSCIOUSNESS of those of you who stand above the masses—who “are yet in the world, but no longer a part of it.”

Your responsibility and your opportunity are both without parallel. Communion goes further, my children, than the word, than even the visible Presence, and no man—no matter how dense the clothing of the senses—is so lost that he cannot perceive the EMBODIED NATURE of those chelas who have entered into the FEELING of the brothers and sisters who form the Great White Lodge and who have voluntarily taken upon themselves the obligation of accepting chelas and students, as well as their karma, in their selfless service to this planet.

In my position, it is required that the Masters of Wisdom apply always for the acquiescence of my office before the acceptance of a chela into their own worlds. The reason for this lies in the fact that, cosmically speaking, it is my great joy, privilege and honor to draw the great energies from the Sun, and to delegate them each according to their proper channel of expression. Knowing the precious and priceless gift of life for what it is—each electron pulsating with the potent powers of eternal life and all the mastery of the Sacred Fire—I can well realize what it means to invest energies in a lifestream or in a cause, being well aware of the BALANCE that is REQUIRED BY LAW for such an investment. Therefore, before I give my permission for such an alliance, I impersonally weigh the possible benefit—not only to the individual soul, but to the race—against the SACRIFICE ENTAILED BY THE MASTER in drawing his attention and energies into the focalized interest of one individual.

Recently, when we were called upon to appear before the Karmic Board to show what balance we could offer for the release of our energies, it was pleasurable, indeed, to be able to point out the tremendous release of the flame of the Sacred Fire THROUGH THE TRANSMISSION CLASSES. Your willing participation in this one activity, alone, was proof to the Cosmic Law that our investment in your energies was not in vain. Weary not, therefore, my children, in this cosmic endeavor, which will result not only in your own eternal freedom, but that of your fellowman and your planet—keeping in mind its crowning achievement, which will be the release of the beloved Sanat Kumara from his countless centuries of exile from his own beloved planet, a sacrifice he voluntarily assumed because of his love for the sweet Earth and its evolutions.

Thank you, beloved ones. May I offer for your acceptance the love and radiation of the assembled Brotherhood at Shamballa as we enter this most Holy Season!

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 28, 1954

Children of My Heart,

Words are inadequate when I try to express the love and gratitude that we, your friends in the ascended realm, feel when we view your achievements of the past year, and what has been accomplished through our joint participation in the Transmission Flame Activity, which is so dear to my own heart. As earthly parents rejoice in the accomplishments of their children, so were we proud and glad to manifest before the celestial envoys from other stars and planets, who gather at Shamballa during the Christmas Season, THE TREMENDOUS HARVEST THAT HAS BEEN GLEANED THROUGH CONSCIOUS COOPERATION OF ASCENDED AND UNASCENDED LIFESTREAMS.

It is also a source of joy to me that each one of you FEELS, in the rhythmic return of your own energy, the gratitude and love of both myself and my beloved for your monthly expressions of loyalty, generosity, and love for our common cause. Please accept this as an individual expression of our love and appreciation to each blessed one. I will now let my beloved son, Kuthumi, give you an eye-picture of the happenings on the night of the transmission.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Sisters and Brothers of Great Light,

It is my privilege and my honor to bring to you something of that which your own light has set into motion, and to draw aside once more the gossamer veil (I use the word advisedly), for thinner and thinner becomes the veil between the here and the there.

Tonight, we witness a most unusual and yet a most gratifying spectacle, the conscious and voluntary emergence, one might say, of intelligent beings from the realm of the compound. Perhaps you would like to know what differentiates the beings held in the compound from those in the general astral and psychic realm! Let me explain it to you! The beings in the compound are individuals of great mental acumen and tremendous occult power, who have held positions of trust and authority in the various continents of the planet through the ages, and who, through the misuse of power, RETARDED ITS EVOLUTION AND HELD BACK ITS PROGRESS.

Individuals who have done evil to one another, even unto murder, where only one lifestream or a small group was affected, do not come under this category. The only beings impounded here are those who have AFFECTED THE PROGRESS OF THE RACE AND YET, MIND YOU, THESE INDIVIDUALS, ALONE, NUMBER UP TO THE HALF-MILLION MARK.

Messengers of mercy from the Karmic Board enter the compound once a year, bearing scrolls of invitation to appear before the Lords of Karma. The acceptance of these scrolls is wholly voluntary, and due to the arrogance and willfulness of the inmates, this merciful invitation has been ignored for thousands and thousands of years. I am happy to say that through your calls, two hundred of these people accepted the scrolls this year, and expressed their willingness to appear before the Karmic Board. They come now, all wearing simple white garments and each one holds in his hands the scroll tied with the purple ribbon, which is their passport to the Halls of Mercy.

The seven great Lords of Karma are already seated. They wear tonight robes of a delicate powder blue color, with the Threefold Flame of eternal life embroidered in gold on the breast, and all wear the crystal crowns.

Beloved Portia, as spokesman, welcomes the beings from the compound. She tells them there is a great need for their service to life, but if they wish to attain their own eternal freedom it is required of them to take the vow of obedience to Sanat Kumara and bend the knee before the God of All Life, after which ceremony they were to be invited to accompany the entire group to the beloved Sanat Kumara's retreat at Shamballa.

THE GREAT DIVINE DIRECTOR NEXT ADDRESSED THESE INDIVIDUALS, ASKING THEM IF THEY WERE WILLING TO TAKE THE VOW AND BEND THE KNEE TO LIFE. I AM HAPPY TO REPORT THAT ALL COMPLIED, A FEW WITH RELUCTANCE, BUT ALL FINALLY KNELT AND TOOK THE VOW. Saint Germain then came forward and placed a cloak of Violet Fire around the shoulders of each one.

Now, let us go in consciousness to Shamballa. Tonight is the formal presentation of the harvest. This means that all members of the Great White Brotherhood having anything to do with the evolution of the planet Earth, present with their chelas and students, tonight, their "sheaves" (comprising their full spiritual effort for the year) before the throne of the beloved Sanat Kumara.

Over the beautiful marble bridge leading into the heart of the city march a mighty procession. It has been passing since the 15th of this month. In it are members of the angelic kingdom, the devic kingdom, the elemental kingdom and the human kingdom (these latter in their inner bodies). In this magnificent procession also walk mighty devas and Cosmic Beings from other systems of worlds, because the Earth has become a subject of conversation not only in this universe but other galaxies, and these Great Ones have brought in their auras great power and light. The flame flowers are woven around the pillars. Devas and glorious angelic beings hover in the atmosphere and the festivities of the Holy Season are truly in full swing.

The great doors of the main temple are thrown wide open. Looking in, one can scarcely see Sanat Kumara, for the light. Exuding graciousness itself, the King of Kings is seated on his throne. He is dressed in his royal robes of state, with the great crown upon his head, and beside him sits the beautiful Venus, also wearing the royal robes and a similar crown upon her head. They are smiling graciously as the Great Beings from other systems kneel before them in homage. Then come the members of the Great White Brotherhood and their chelas and students, each one bearing the gift of their year's endeavor. These they place on the steps of the altar, after they have knelt at the feet of Sanat Kumara and the beloved Venus and received their blessing. As each gift is put in place, it is automatically absorbed into the great Threefold Flame, which grows larger and larger with each offering, until, by the time the breath starts around the world, the Thanksgiving Flame should be world-engulfing in its size and intensity.

Beloved Morya is resplendent tonight in the dress of an Indian prince, his blue turban high, with a tall feather and great diamond in front. He is all smiles, so happy and grateful at the accomplishment and showing of the beloved students. Saint Germain, in gorgeous purple attire, has been invited by Sanat Kumara to sit beside him on the throne of state. The beloved Venus has stepped down and is sitting with Portia immediately below them. The beloved Lord Maitreya, his beautiful violet eyes shining with love and happiness, occupies a chair of state to the left of the flame. The Lord Buddha is seated facing the altar, seemingly oblivious to the entire activity. The radiation passing out from his body is a tremendous magnetization, which he has drawn from the Sun.

WE HAVE WITH US TONIGHT ALPHA AND OMEGA, GOD AND GODDESS FROM THE CENTRAL SUN, IN BLAZING LIGHT, ACCOMPANIED BY THE SUN GODS AND GODDESSES FROM THE LESSER SUNS. God bless you. KUTHUMI

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 5, 1954

Beloved Children,

That which people call "The Day of Judgment" is an individual affair, as I shall try to explain to you.

When the lifestream chooses to finish with the human will, and return the outer vehicles and outer man to the use of the God-Identity, he, by that act, signifies that he has found himself unhappy in his self-chosen path of separateness, and wishes to identify himself with the God-principle that governs the universe, and which lives by the Law of Harmony.

Students of the Law of Life are people who have signified their willingness to relinquish these stolen vehicles back to the God-Identity that has sustained them through the long centuries. This noble gesture immediately brings the individual to the attention of the Hierarchy, and the book of life, or the book of judgment, is brought out and his account is read therein.

Every electron that the individual has taken from the unformed light in the Heart of God and sent out into the universe stamped by the light pattern of his lifestream must be accounted for. If the electrons went forth in harmony, for a constructive purpose, to fulfill at least a fair proportion of that person's reason for being, those electrons are released from the debit side of his "ledger" and become a part of the storehouse for good in the Causal Body. But, the countless hundreds of thousands of tons of energy that the individual has so boldly drawn forth from God's heart, where it was resting in ease and peace and sent forth discordantly qualified by the willful and selfish thoughts and feelings of the personal self, must be returned to the individual in one form or another until that lifestream REDEEMS that energy and sends it forth in love, for it is the Law of Life that any energy sent forth which does not comply with the Law of Harmony, must be cleansed and purified by the dispenser.

Now, when I say "returned in one form or another," I mean that OFTTIMES THE ENERGY SENT FORTH QUALIFIED INHARMONIOUSLY THROUGH THE INDIVIDUAL'S OWN FREE WILL IN ONE LIFETIME WILL COME BACK TO HIM IN SOME PARTICULAR TRAIT OR CHARACTERISTIC IN SOME PERSON AROUND HIM, WHICH IS PARTICULARLY ANNOYING OR DISTRESSING, AND THAT ENERGY COMING FROM ANOTHER LIFESTREAM WHICH 'BAITS' THE TEMPER MUST BE LOVED INTO HARMONY, or it will appear again in another lifestream some place on that individual's path. No two people are annoyed by the same traits, habits and characteristics of people, animals, or circumstances. Why? Because each one is only prodded by the energy which corresponds to his own "failing" in some lifetime, and which life, in mercy, brings back to him in order that he may redeem it and so set both himself and the other one free.

WHEN AN INDIVIDUAL COMES TO THE PLACE WHERE HIS ASCENSION IS IN VIEW, THE RETURN OF THIS ENERGY IS GREATLY ACCELERATED, AND CONDITIONS AND INDIVIDUALS SEEM TO POP OUT OF THE VERY EARTH THAT CAUSE EVERY CONCEIVABLE TYPE OF ANNOYANCE. If one could only realize that this "bombardment" is but the return of one's own energy which is "called in" by the Cosmic Law ere one can pass through the portals of freedom, that one would not feel so resentful and rebellious. A realization of this, beloved ones, would save you from depression and doubt, and you would know that in that very pressure and stress of circumstances there was a promise that the Hierarchy knew you were ready to "handle" the energy, and to have the glory of the ascension—so every moment becomes an OPPORTUNITY TO 'BALANCE YOUR ACCOUNT' UNTIL THE 'RED INK' RUNS DRY.

Beloved Children,

The approach of the Christmas holidays brings the presence of the Masters and the angelic host very much closer to the consciousness of the people of Earth than at other times; therefore we shall appreciate any calls you may choose to give for the unfoldment of the higher nature of the race during the next few weeks.

As this season is most advantageous for our spiritual harvest, we press into the seven holy-week period all the light that the Cosmic Law will allow us to give, in balance for mankind's up-reaching thought and feeling to the octave of celestial giving. Therefore, the intensification of the calls and invocation of conscious students at this time doubles and trebles our opportunities to give, so if you care to lift your thought heavenward, beloved ones, particularly during Christmas week itself, you will have afforded us a personal blessing, as the greatest gift we can give to mankind is more of ourselves.

When a man has a plan in his mind which he would choose to fulfill, and which would be of benefit and comfort to a group of people, he is grateful for the dedication of the service, energy and talent of any individual who can quicken his accomplishment and bring to fruition more speedily his plan. As two can accomplish more than one here on the planet Earth, so can two—an Ascended Being and a human being, when they are united—accomplish more than the Ascended Being who is working alone.

This sounds like a startling statement, for the Master is considered omnipotent and omniscient, which of course he is in his own sphere of activity, but there is no such thing as a power for good that cannot be amplified by another created being's effort. For instance, in a beautiful field of calla lilies, one more blossom adds to the perfume and the perfection of the visual piece. The Ascended Being, therefore, in his cosmic task finds his service greatly amplified if even one unascended being gives him the energy of his life unreservedly, with the silent design to help the Master's purpose. The gratitude and devotion of such an Ascended Being for the energy of an unascended friend is one of the most beautiful and heart-stirring experiences that one can look upon.

Not so long ago, I stood in a conclave of Cosmic Beings around the throne of the Great Central Sun. Our company numbered in the hundreds of thousands, and I was one of the least among them. We had come to find His will regarding a certain group of stars in our system. As we faced this Exquisite One, I shall never forget the outpouring of love from his heart in gratitude for the voluntary service of our energy to his purpose, nor shall I forget the particular benediction that I shared with all assembled there that hour, nor shall any of us, so privileged to be chosen as his messengers, forget, in our service to our lesser brothers, what His gratitude to us meant. They say it is even so in the realms to which my consciousness has not yet achieved a waking remembrance. Therefore, I would like to assure the people of Earth that any service they can give our cause would be the most beautiful Christmas gift they could offer us.

In the great South African mines, where men are trained in the great art of discerning precious gems that are both valuable and beautiful when properly finished, it takes a trained eye and a power of discernment above average to choose that portion of the rock which would yield the exquisite members of the jewel kingdom. The uncut gems, when raised to the surface, look, to the average men, of no more import than pieces of granite or blocks of ordinary stone, yet when carefully chiseled, cut and polished so as to reflect light, they become gems of beauty and priceless value. Their ability to reflect the light of God from their individual facets and the amount of fire within them, determine their worth. It is thus we work with the souls of men. Where unascended men see but clods, we see the exquisite potential gods and goddesses who—with the proper polishing—will not only reflect great light, but emit great light.

As the priceless gem is put upon the grindstone, and goes through a process of extreme discomfort to itself, so it is often with the greatest souls, who are being prepared for their spiritual mission.

If you would ask me to help you to see with the eyes of the Master when looking at an individual, especially perhaps at someone who seems to have an irritating effect upon you, it would soften your opinion and widen the vista of your sight, so that you may see the potential beauty of that soul and what it is yet to become.

Even as there are certain eye-glasses provided, through which the novice may discern the fire within an uncut gem so easily seen by the expert in that line, SO ALSO CAN THE GIFT OF THE MASTER'S DISCERNMENT (WHICH YOU MAY HAVE FOR THE ASKING) help you to discern the hidden beauty in the souls around you. It is all a matter of development.

Every unascended being on Earth is in some period and process of polishing, development and unfoldment which will enable the inner bodies to emit more light and reflect more light, and which one day will become a gem of beauty in the celestial diadem or crown.

Beloved children, you are in training to become experts in the discernment and careful handling of the souls of men, and cannot afford to allow your own personal prejudice or outer public opinion to warp your judgment, and perhaps retard the spiritual progress of an upward struggling spirit. Search rather for the potential fire and light that is the God Nature of every living soul. Train yourself to overlook the seeming defects, and thus become myself in action. Love and blessings.

Beloved Children,

At the Great Teton gathering, held at the beginning of each year, one of the most beautiful ceremonies represents the presence of the “shepherds” who have been given the responsibility of guarding and guiding souls through the preceding year. These shepherds comprise unascended beings from the simplest orthodox mind to the greatest Master of energy, still wearing a third-dimensional garment of flesh.

Each such spiritual shepherd receives great honor from the assembled Brotherhood, for these spiritual teachers are the voice, the heart, and the mind of the Brotherhood before men. They represent the body of the Lord Maitreya and, according to their particular evolution, are they pure or limited channels for his cosmic truth. Therefore, at these yearly meetings, all these friends of truth pass in a mighty procession before the great Sanat Kumara, Lord Maitreya, the Great Divine Director, myself and the whole assembled Brotherhood, from whom they receive a mighty ovation.

In the aura of every teacher is the etheric record of the progress and unfoldment of each soul entrusted to his care. As the light of heaven blazes upon the aura, the progress of the entire group is revealed in a flash, both individually and collectively, and the assembled Masters are then able to pour their spiritual force into whatever preparations and capacities are required to help both the teacher and the student towards a great unity and enlightenment for the coming year.

The progress of the world and its people is dependent upon the protection and care given to EVERY AVENUE OF EFFORT OF ALL OUTER MANIFESTATION by the Spiritual Hierarchy and their conscious and unconscious co-workers.

The plans for the year, relative to the Earth, are presented at the Teton gathering, and delegated to the Ascended Brothers and Sisters, who form the natural channel for their expression. Then, from the unascended mankind, volunteers are chosen who form the contact with the world of form and matter, whose province it is to wield the unyielding three-dimensional plane into as close a facsimile of the inner plane as is possible.

Conscious chelas of the Masters, who sit in at the councils held in January and July of each year, are acutely aware, in their inner bodies, of the plans to be followed by the nations of the world and their individual peoples. Once you have taken your place as a member of these councils, your responsibility becomes far greater than that of the masses who are benefited by these conclaves, but have not yet any part in the privilege of working for the fulfillment of the divine plan in cooperation with the Great White Brotherhood.

Ofttimes a chela who has been admitted to the conclave and has seen the great plan and how he MIGHT ATTUNE HIMSELF TO BECOMING PART OF ITS FULFILLMENT wishes that he could have remained ignorant of the tremendous responsibility involved in the knowledge. However, when the consciousness is awakened, and the inner bodies are prepared to be co-workers with the Gods, the outer self cannot restrain the inner consciousness from attendance and service at these conclaves, and the strength of the spirit then becomes the pressure and responsibility of the outer self to fulfill the inner vows and promises made at the altar of the Brotherhood.

Beloved Children,

Once again the brothers have gathered at the great Rocky Mountain Retreat, where inventory is taken, so to speak, of the year's activities and new assignments are given the Brotherhood for the coming year. I am happy to tell you that the Hierarchy is greatly pleased with the harvest gleaned through cooperative endeavor by both ascended and unascended beings working in conscious unison. We have made tremendous strides this past year in all branches of service through this conscious, cooperative action, and look for even greater achievement in the year that is ahead. My beloved son, Kuthumi, will now give you a “bird's eye view” of what took place on the evening of the Transmission Flame Activity. Weary not, beloved ones, in your well-doing, for through it the veil that has so long hidden our octave from yours is being steadily dissolved.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Tonight, above the majestic cathedral of the Royal Teton, sit the mighty divine presences whom you have come to know and love as the members of the Karmic Board. Their thrones are constructed of carved emerald, in a most exquisite design, and they all wear deep royal purple in honor of the New Age and Era. As a rule, the Karmic Board, as a body, does not sit through this pre-Christmas season, but because of the tremendous activities at inner levels due to the opportunity which the decrees and applications have made for the release of so many imprisoned lifestreams from the compound, the sleepers' realm, and the earth-bound, the Board has chosen to sit through the entire period up to and through the incoming of the New Year.

Each retreat is assigned a council chamber, and either the Hierarchy of the retreat himself or his representative places on the door of the chamber a list of the various petitions, dispensations, plans, and programs which the retreat, through its members, hopes to advance in the twelve-month cycle. All who attend are free to examine these, and decide whether they care to offer their energies on their behalf.

The seven great chambers around the original audience chamber have been thrown open for this great occasion. They are decorated in the seven colors of the Elohim. The altar in the central chamber is decorated in snow white. The calla and Madonna lilies, and every known flower, which, in the outer world does not come in white, has been given a white dress for this evening, and becomes part of the living pedestal which honors the Transmission Flame of the beloved Lanto and the Brotherhood, who are primarily concerned in sending both the gifts of God, and the Messengers of God into the world of form.

As guests of honor, closing their year as sponsors for 1954, the Master Morya and the beloved Mary are seated upon the center platform below the altar proper. The beloved Mary wears snow white, her garments encrusted with silver stars and the beloved Morya wears a long robe—different from his accustomed Eastern attire—also encrusted in silver stars, symbolic of the Christmas season. This evening each of them wears a magnificent crown of similar design and construction.

The great All-Seeing-Eye activity of Cyclopea is blazing its rays through the assembled guests, clearing the inner sight, hearing and brain structure, and the blazing star of yellow diamonds, surrounded by the discs representative of the seven major planets of our system, are sending their spiritual currents through the seven ganglionic centers of the entire race.

The Brotherhood of the Royal Teton wear their usual garments of white, banded with green. Beloved Lanto requested Saint Germain to act as presiding Master of the Transmission Flame Ceremony.

Sanat Kumara and Saint Germain are seated together in the very first row facing the altar. Both wear identical garments of deep royal purple and only the bands of color in the outer vestments denote the seniority of the Lord of the World. Each one wears an amethyst crown and both are deep now in the heart of the silence, drawing into the flame as much potent power from the inner realms as the magnetic power of their own hearts can evoke.

Lord Maitreya mingles with the guests, pouring the blessings of the Cosmic Christ upon the assembly. The beloved Jesus wears a robe of snow white, with the over-cape studded in silver stars like his mother's. None of the Seven Chohans wears the crown, except the Master Morya and Saint Germain. The Lord Buddha is in the heart of the silence making certain petitions for dispensations which he would like to have granted New Year's Eve and will not be present on this occasion.

Our Lord Maha Chohan now enters. He wears, as usual, the magnificent white turban with the great golden topaz, and with him tonight is a great assembly of Eastern Masters. The Lady Masters seem to have come as a group, and are seated to the left of the altar enjoying the glorious music presented by an orchestra of two hundred Ascended Masters and members of the angelic host.

As we have said on previous occasions, there are more unascended individuals present at these half-yearly conferences than at any other Transmission Flame Meetings, because the student body is more acquainted with the Teton activities than any other.

Tonight we will experiment with the direction of a projected ray into the realm of the sleepers, the compound, and the entire realm of the discarnates, which should carry a great blessing.

The great harvest gathered at Shamballa has been sealed by the seraphim in a magnificent shining sphere of light. This represents the efforts of every member of the three kingdoms—the angelic, human and elemental—for the year 1954. I do not know whether this sphere will be opened tonight, but the fact that it has been lowered and stands pulsating in the atmosphere directly in front of the Karmic Board would make it seem that its contents will be placed before this august assembly for examination, shortly.

The incoming children, whose bodies have been greatly perfected through the calls of the student body, will appear before the Karmic Board to show the purification that has taken place in their inner bodies through the Sacred Fire directed by the students' application.

The discarnates who were given the grant by Lord Michael as members of the families of chelas are also to be given an opportunity to show how far they have progressed as a result of the grant, in the hope that more lifestreams who pass from the body this coming year will enter these Ascension Temples and will not have to return to earthforms.

The members of the compound, who have voluntarily left that place of confinement, will also be given an opportunity to show their endeavors to make things right, in the hope that more from this realm will follow their example. Those from the sleepers' realm and the earth-bound, who have become workers, will also be heard from and seen.

The great green and gold flame on the center of the altar is representative of the Brotherhood of the Royal Teton, whose mission is spiritual service to men through every channel of expression, including both orthodox and esoteric.

As you draw this flame into your hearts now and every time you choose to let your attention dwell upon it for the next thirty days, may it touch every possible soul who can be utilized in the great harmony that brings the consciousness of the Christ again to men. Now, I must hasten to my own station. May God's blessings rest upon us all.

Beloved Children of My Heart,

The birth of the new year, depicted as an infant, is really significant of a new beginning—the individual rising up to begin that year as if he had just stepped forth from the womb of time without even record or memory of imperfection of the past. Man would do well to carry with him, in the days ahead, the feeling of hope of new and better opportunity that he experienced as the new day dawned. The man who does this can progress much more rapidly than he who insists upon carrying with him the memory of that entire Earth embodiment with its fluctuations, seeming injustices and failures.

The Great Cosmic Law, in its kindness, has divided man's earthly experience through a great number of lives. At the close of each span the individual is taken to an abode of love, where he is imbued with courage, strength, and power to enable him to continue his earthly pilgrimage in greater freedom. The Cosmic Law is constantly alert to securing and presenting advantages whereby the aspiring soul of man can progress, unfold and unite with its Source in the most perfect and easy manner possible.

Within one life span the Law has again provided a surcease from the pressure of experiences by separating the life span into yearly cycles. At the close of each year the Cosmic Law, itself, the Goddess of Mercy, and the Lords of Karma EXPIATE A LARGE PERCENTAGE OF THE SINS, MISTAKES, FALSE APPEARANCES AND OTHER MANIFESTATIONS OF ALL PEOPLE, AND THEY ARE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE NEW YEAR WITH MUCH GREATER FREEDOM FROM THE FETTERS OF THEIR OWN CREATION. However, if they insist upon holding onto the grudges, unpleasant experiences, so-called injustices, and limitations of the past, they will RE-CREATE THEM upon the clean pages of the book of the new year.

You will note that it is the custom with men to make “new year resolutions,” with a clearly distinguishing goal which is the BETTERING OF THEIR NATURE. The weight and momentum of their human nature, however, usually makes these resolutions short-lived. If, this year, you could SEIZE upon the purification that has affected your inner nature and try to live in the new year as if there had never been an old, the limitations and evils would drop away, because they are not eternal, and ONLY THE GOOD FROM THE PAST YEAR would endure and become a mantle of fragrance around you. BE MASTER OF YOUR ENERGY AND DO NOT ALLOW YOUR THOUGHT AND FEELING CENTERS TO REPRODUCE IN YOUR WORLD THE MANIFESTATIONS THAT BROUGHT UNHAPPINESS TO YOU IN THE PAST. Use that energy to paint constructive pictures.

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 16, 1955

Beloved Children,

The great half-yearly conclave at the Royal Teton, which ushers in the new year, is attended always by Sanat Kumara, whose spiritual service it is to receive the thoughtform which will serve the pattern for the next twelve-month cycle.

This year the sponsors for 1954—beloved Mother Mary and Master Morya—wore white star-embroidered robes and diamond-studded crowns. Just before the descent of the new thoughtform, these beloved beings knelt before Sanat Kumara, who gently lifted the crowns from their heads and placed them on the heads of the kneeling figures of the new sponsors for 1955—our beloved Master Saint Germain and his complement, the Goddess of Justice and Opportunity.

The thoughtform, which is to govern the Spiritual Hierarchy as a body and its individual members, is designed to be a directive signal to the initiative of each member who qualifies primal life in a manner to best externalize THE IDEA HELD WITHIN THE FORM. Thus all members of the Great White Brotherhood focus their individual and collective energies into ONE pattern rather than losing the force of cooperative action through too great a diversity of endeavor.

The entire service of the Brotherhood expresses UNITY of THOUGHT, FEELING, AND ACTION. Loving cooperation is the very nature of each member, who is always willing to lay aside individual projects and plans to lend his or her energies to the greater good of the entire endeavor.

Each year the beings who represent the Sun of the system design a plan of action for the twelve-month cycle, and in a solemn ceremony allow the form to literally ride into the consciousness of each Planetary Silent Watcher on the first vital energies of the new year. THE ENERGIES OF EACH TWELVE-MONTH CYCLE FLOW IN RHYTHMIC ACTION LIKE THE TIDES, AND IN JANUARY AND JULY THEIR PRESSURE IS STRONGEST.

As the various planets belonging to a universe usually require different brands of assistance, the designed thoughtform given to the Planetary Silent Watcher of each one differs. This year, however, a most unusual activity took place. The Great Beings who represent the Central Sun of our system, Alpha and Omega, decreed that ONE thoughtform should be released, not only through each universal scheme, but also throughout the Galaxy. Thus, all the Suns of the system, as well as their respective Planetary Silent Watchers, stood at attention awaiting the spiritual holy communion as Alpha and Omega released the divine design which would be stepped downward until each Sun and its system received the blessing. The ceremony observed the following order:

Sun Gods & Goddesses

Alpha and Omega

Isis and Osiris

Apollo and Diana

Krishna and Sophia

Helios and Vesta

Each pair of God-parents, as before stated, in turn released the thoughtform to their own Planetary Silent Watcher.

At the Teton, Sanat Kumara stood upon the central altar, Saint Germain and the Goddess of Justice kneeling before him. Suddenly Sanat Kumara's entire being dissolved into the Freedom Flame (Thoughtform of 1955) with the balanced scales of the Goddess of Justice outlined within it. Immediately Saint Germain, the Goddess of Justice and all present at the Teton joined in this cosmic communion by drawing the thoughtform into their own consciousness. They then strengthened it by their own gathered momentum, and projected it forth into the mental and feeling world of all mankind.

We shall see NOW what that Freedom Flame means to each chela. According to the individual's initiative to become that flame, expand its gifts, and embody its message in 1955 will God's Plan for the planet be nearer fulfillment.

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 23, 1955

Beloved Children,

It is with great pleasure that I turn the energies of this week's publication over to my beloved son, Kuthumi, who will give you an eye-picture of the events at the last Transmission Flame Ceremony held in the Mercy Temple at Peiping, January 15th, 1955, which I am sure you will enjoy.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Dearly Beloved Friends of Great Light,

I come to bring you into the presence of the FEELING of God's compassionate heart—to bring you, each one, from the periphery of the circle of your own world of experience, from the turbulent surge of the energies of your feelings, from the many thoughts of your minds, into the peace which is the prevailing quality of the heart of the universe to which we belong.

Have you thought that THE PREVIOUS CHOHAN OF THE SEVENTH RAY, THE BELOVED KWAN YIN, represents the feminine aspect of the Freedom Flame, the compassion, the gentleness, the reverence and the grace of the motherhood of God, and that Saint Germain, in the direction of the mighty, invocative powers of being, represents the masculine aspect of that flame and of that ray?

As we enter into the first acknowledgment of the great Freedom Flame for 1955, it is right and just that we bow before the Goddess of Mercy, and acknowledge the activity and radiation which is hers to give.

Ah, little ones, here and there, little shining sparks, part of the great Mercy Flame! On behalf of Lord Maitreya and Lord Buddha, on behalf of the entire Celestial Hierarchy, I say, for fidelity, for constancy and faith, we love you, and no matter how small your flame may be this night, we can expand and expand and expand it, for we but require one electron self-consciously given to blanket a planet.

Tonight, as you turn your attention and love toward the Orient, deep within your etheric bodies are written the memories of Golden Ages, ages when beauty and grace, courtesy and dignity and honor were the stamp of every man and every woman—when such beauty was brought forth as the outer world could not conceive possible, and which is still sustained in the Akashic Records.

The great Orient itself, you know, represents in its whole consciousness the feminine aspect of the Deity, the consciousness in which is embodied all of the known knowledge of the Cosmic Law, awaiting the great drive of the Occident to bring that knowledge into actual manifest form for the blessing of the mass of mankind.

Look you now toward the Orient and see those temples of blazing light which are the foci of Kwan Yin's Mercy Flame! As you look you will see the shining flags that have been embroidered in exquisite colored silk by the members of the Mercy Temples. From the roof of each temple these flags are attached to the flag on the dome of the great central temple by means of ropes of gaily-colored silk. As each flag, in its varying colors, flutters in the breeze, it carries to the consciousness of the initiate the particular activity to which that lesser temple is dedicated.

As we stand looking toward the main temple tonight, through its wide open doors, we see enter the lovely lady chelas in Chinese dress. All approach without the sound of a footfall, walking on the soft, grassy path. No sound breaks the stillness and serenity of this holy place, the people of the Occident removing their footwear before they enter, so as not to mar the silence. As we come closer now, through the open door we get a view of the great altar, on which burns the Mercy Flame in all its magnificence, all its beauty and all its peace.

The beloved Kwan Yin is in deep royal purple tonight. From the left shoulder down to the very hem of her garment are embroidered exquisite crystal butterflies, representative of carrying the light into the world of form. Her hair is done in a high coronet, on each side of which is arranged a great diamond butterfly. Her kimono sleeves are caught at the wrist by silver bands, and she wears an exquisite ring in the form of a butterfly. She stands facing the altar tonight, with her attention upon the flame, and from her presence pours the radiation and power which she has gathered through the centuries in which she has lived, feeding that flame with her mercy and love.

The beloved Sanat Kumara has come with the Lord Buddha, who is to be his successor. The Lord Gautama wears, tonight, the deep purple silk of the royal family, banded heavily at the hem and cuff with three rows of gold, representative of the Holy Trinity. On his shoulder-length hair he wears a golden band with the open lotus upon the forehead. It is very evident to us who have seen him for the first time in this form of attire that he prepares, in some measure, for part of the authority and part of the investment of Sanat Kumara's great office, before this eighteen-year period has expended itself. You will remember, those of you who were among us, that it was at Peiping that the tremendous calls for mercy, rising from the hearts of individuals like yourselves, and also from the Great White Brotherhood, brought the attention of the Buddha earthward and that the Lord Buddha, himself, entered the temple that evening, to the great surprise of Kwan Yin and the assembled guests.

The beloved Saint Germain wears, tonight, the robe with which you are so familiar in the picture where he uses the gold braid of the House of Rakoczi on his garments. The beloved Portia is dressed most simply in soft mauve pink—no adornment and no jewelry—with the exception of the crown which she received from the hands of Sanat Kumara as co-sponsor for 1955. The beloved Zadkiel and holy Amethyst are in the atmosphere, holding the radiation flame of mercy, love, and compassion over China.

The beloved Maha Chohan is now entering. He is wearing purple tonight, with a magnificent purple turban, fastened by a great amethyst instead of the usual topaz. It would look as though the entire Hierarchy is beginning to conform to the color of whichever ray is active. This is an innovation in itself. Pallas Athena wears a violet that is almost blue, and with her lovely golden hair, she is a glorious complement to the beloved Maha Chohan.

The beloved Morya is in white, but wears a deep purple sash and a great amethyst adorns his index finger instead of the usual diamond or sapphire. The beloved Paul, the Venetian, is also in purple tonight, with an cape lined with gold. Beloved Serapis wears the magnificent purple silken attire of a High Priest of the Zoroastrian Court. Beloved Hilarion is in white, banded in deep purple. The beloved Jesus is also in white, but over his robe he wears the royal purple cape of the Prince of the House of David, on the back of which is embroidered the open-ended golden cross of Saint Germain. Mary is in soft mauve pink, without adornment.

The entire atmosphere is bathed in deep purple fire. Bathe in it, beloved ones, for the entire month, and see it enfolding the Earth in its flame of love, compassion and mercy. May God's love enfold you, each one.

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 30, 1955

Beloved Children,

The REQUIREMENT of the present day and hour in the evolution of the planet Earth and its mankind is for the presence and subsequent co-operation of lifestreams who have the capacity to identify themselves with the God-Presence as an individual, potent and powerful force, active and alive in every facet of expression of the individual.

There are two groups of spiritual seekers—those who enjoy the contemplation of the perfection of the Higher Spheres ABSTRACTLY, and the builders who are willing to make REAL (which word is synonymous with precipitation) the IDEAS of the higher spheres.

To realize a need or a requirement is, in itself, a gift, as well as an instruction from the Cosmic Christ Intelligence, for among a cross-section of human beings, you will find one among a hundred who can realize, even mentally, the need for assistance, whether it be spiritual, material, emotional, or mental. The capacity to realize the requirement sets those lifestreams apart from the indifferent and the unheeding, but then, again, we have a diminishing number of souls who, having the capacity to feel the realization of the specific need, are willing to set into motion the forces, gifts, capacities and powers of their own nature TO BRING INTO MANIFESTATION that which the Divine Omnipresence has revealed to them as the REQUIREMENT OF THE MOMENT.

A million men in India, among the countless millions, realize, perhaps, her need for education—for the bare necessities of life—but among this minority there may be only several hundred persons who are willing to “accept their portfolio from the universal” which the RESPONSIBILITY OF REALIZATION gives to such men and women and, according to their capacities, begin to make REAL OR MANIFEST those physical manifestations which form the channels by which the ABSENCE of good or God is replaced by His PRESENCE.

There are men and women of tremendous mental energies who, looking abstractly upon organizations and movements, find themselves closely attuned to the Universal Cosmic Mind in sensing ways and means by which improvements may occur, but among them we find few WHO WILL CHOOSE TO COUPLE THE ENERGIES of their own nature to the MAKING MANIFEST SUCH REQUIREMENTS.

Beloved children, begin without delay TO PRACTICE THE OMNIPRESENCE OF GOD. As you enter this exercise, you will open your minds and feelings to the entrance of many beautiful and perfect ways and means of increasing the efficiency and perfection of the manifestation of good, not only in your personal experience, but nationally and even universally. Then, from the strength of your own God-source and the collective powers of the universal Cosmic Christ, you may couple your own realization WITH THE PRESSURE AND POWER OF THEIR LIGHT to bring concrete manifestations into being, which are the fulfillment of God's divine plan for the planet Earth. This is the REQUIREMENT for which the Great White Brotherhood and the Holy Christ Self of all mankind are striving. You are blessed, dear ones, to be among those chosen to make REAL YOUR FAITH. Such instruments are few, but more valued by reason of their scarcity.

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 6, 1955

Dearly Beloved Children,

Let us make the basis of our exercises for this coming week the CONTEMPLATION and REALIZATION of the Presence of God as related to the individual student through the instrument of the OUTER SELF.

Silent contemplation and reflection as to your PRESENT RELATIONSHIP with this omnipresent spirit, coupled with a realization of his capacity to help you, will yield to each one of you, beloved ones, a comprehensive basis for your individual exercise. The actual analysis of the outer mind's concept of the Presence within your various vehicles, your faculties and your every-day affairs, will enable you through prayer, meditation and earnest solicitation, to draw closer to the understanding and realization of this INDIVIDUALIZED PRESENCE, ALIVE AND ACTIVE, through all your avenues of expression.

The acceptance of the divine I AM Presence as the basis of the MENTAL truths which form the foundation of your life's belief must be superseded eventually by a REALIZATION of this Presence within the FEELING NATURE as well. The word "realize" means to make real, to draw substance from the abstract into the concrete or outer world of form. Individuals REALIZE PROFIT on investments and, in the larger sense, realization means the sudden ILLUMINATION OF CONSCIOUSNESS which allows the personal ego to accept through ALL its instruments this powerful, potent, and divine force.

The Presence of God WAS IN THE BEGINNING, IS NOW, AND EVER SHALL BE, but the evolving mankind of Earth do not enjoy the fullness of that Presence and will not until they come into A REALIZATION of its omniscience and omnipresence. It was this REALIZATION that dawned upon and became the predominant factor in the life of the Master Jesus whereby he accomplished all his victorious manifestations; BY WHICH HE MADE REAL the abstract principles which both the masses and the elite have affirmed for centuries, but not REALIZED.

It was the realization, or the making real of his contemplations, by which the Lord Buddha came to an understanding of the universal truth that transmuted his being into a full expression of God-accomplishment. This is also the reason that man, through ignorance, carelessness or indifference, very often proceeds through life performing injustices of judgment as well as action, because he has not realized the true state of his being or of his actual spiritual relationship with similarly-evolving egos.

Beloved Children of the Omnipresent Good,

The contemplation of the Presence of God as an individual focus of intelligence, alive and connected with your own ego, forms the basis for all the contemplative studies that are the heart center of the initiate's training in every retreat and focus of light upon the planet Earth.

The use of powers developed, the capacities unfolded, and the knowledge, which becomes part of the lifestream's heritage, vary according to the particular retreat and service to which he has dedicated his being, and as he evolves through the powers and capacities which come from a realization of this Presence, does such a one increase the service of the channel to which he has dedicated himself.

However, to FEEL the Presence of God is more than a KNOWING, which is a faculty of the outer mind. The lifestream FEELING that active Presence as anything and everything that he wishes to be, comes to a place of "peace in action." Limitation, for instance, is the ABSENCE rather than the PRESENCE of good. Now, this absence occurs only in CONSCIOUSNESS, and somewhere or other there is a LACK OF THE REALIZATION of the PRESENCE OF SUPPLY. In the case of health of mind or body, that which manifests as an imperfect or unhappy expression is the result of the lack of the realization of the presence of beauty, balance, harmony, security, and poised peace within the consciousness of the individual ego. IT IS A LACK OF REALIZATION.

Now, it is possible for one individual to realize this Presence for another. Here let me affirm with a pressure of MY FEELING, that when you realize beauty, symmetry, balance, and poise for another you are not, through mental force, CREATING SOMETHING THAT IS ABSENT, but you are simply recognizing the Presence for that other one, which, before you called, WAS ALREADY ESTABLISHED—"Before they call, I have answered."

Let us take a homely illustration. A child in a dark room, looking upon a clothes rack, sees one of the evil figures of a fairy tale brooding upon it. The adult, entering the room, realizes instantly that it is merely an inanimate object provided for the hanging of clothes, and the child's fear is immediately allayed both by the turning on of the light and by the mature person's making real to the infant the true state of affairs. Now nothing has changed EXCEPT THE CONCEPT IN THE MIND of the smaller person. It has been an entirely mental and emotional metamorphosis.

When we look at you, beloved ones, we see you as you really ARE. We realize you as God in the first instance created you. WHEN YOU BEGIN TO REALIZE YOURSELVES AS THAT ACTIVE PRESENCE, NOTHING WILL CHANGE, MIND YOU, BUT YOUR CONCEPT. That is why those decrees, which include making REAL of the I AM Presence in physical action, are a tremendous force for good when the essence of them is realized.

To say, "I AM the presence of supply, alive and active in every channel and faucet of my being," is not to affirm something that is not already a truth, but it is TO DRAW THE REALIZATION INTO THE FEELING BODY through the contemplation of that which is a POSITIVE FACT. To affirm, dear ones, CONSTANTLY and DETERMINEDLY, 'I AM THE PRESENCE OF GOD, LIVING AND BREATHING NOW IN MY MIND, BODY, BEING, WORLD, AND AFFAIRS,' is to draw into your feelings that which I see and know for you as truth now, for one can swing the balance of truth for another.

Dearly Beloved Children,

Every time you speak, there rushes forth from your mouth—energy. Energy makes a picture at inner levels, representative of the words spoken. For instance, the word "cat" would immediately cut out of the universal light substance a small form of one of the feline kingdom. The individual speaking the word would determine the mould from which the form was created. You have seen cats made of tile and laid on a bathroom floor, you have seen them made of glass and placed upon the lapel of a coat or dress, and you have seen cats made of calico clutched in the hands of a little child. In exactly the same manner every individual has a particular pattern which makes up his life energy.

For instance, if Saint Germain were to pronounce the word "cat," the tiny creature formed would be made up of millions of tiny little open-end crosses, because the open-end cross is the pattern of his electrons. Every electron that Saint Germain draws from the Great Central Sun through his lifestream is in the form of an open-end cross. Every electron that the Lord Buddha draws is in the form of an open lotus or water lily. If the Lord Buddha were to say the word "cat," his cat would be formed of myriads of little lotuses.

Now, the form of the cat, as determined by the WORD, is made up of the PATTERN OF THE ENERGY of the LIFESTREAM WHO IS SPEAKING, but the RADIATION from the form is determined by the FEELING behind the word. The Master, speaking that word in love, would send forth that tiny thoughtform clothed with light, while an individual predisposed to dislike would create the thoughtform according to the pattern of his energy but, on account of the FEELING OF DISLIKE, it would go forth pulsating with unpleasantness.

Both forms created would affect the entire feline world constructively or conversely and, furthermore, both forms would live in the world of their creators and affect them in like manner. Therefore, an aversion or even THE SLIGHTEST FEELING OF DISLIKE TOWARD ANYTHING IS A DANGEROUS VIBRATION WHICH SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO TAKE ROOT IN THE LIFESTREAM, because some time or another they will be sent forth, and are bound to return to the sender by the law of their life.

Of course, this is but one example of the Law of the Circle. Governmental affairs and world figures give you a marvelous opportunity to send forth constructive thoughtforms. The thoughtforms created by the consciousness of the people, when they think or speak of national or international figures, contain the combined energy of every person who makes the outline, and the FEELING behind the thoughtform determines not only the pressure behind the individual, but also affect his actions, whether good, bad, or indifferent, so there is absolutely no justification for condemnation by anyone.

Now, you will say immediately, "How can we outgrow these conditions if we condone the destructive actions of some of these people?" When the individual is conscious of error on the part of another, the thoughtform concerning him can be used as a radiating center through which the strong feeling of that which is right and just can be charged. In this way you will be giving that individual a treatment which will be a pressure of good in his future actions. Always be sure to charge the energy that goes out from you with the invincible love of justice and right, and then you will not tie yourself to the hate that the recoil of these electrons would bring if charged with anything less than love.

Beloved Ones,

It is my pleasure to offer you the report of my beloved son, Kuthumi, on the activities of the Transmission Flame, which was held, as you know, this month at my retreat in Ceylon.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Dearly Beloved Brothers and Sisters on the Path toward Mastery,

You, who have been marked on the Book of Life as the shepherds who will guard, guide and protect the great masses of mankind in the days and years ahead, little understand how much of our vital energies are woven into the endeavor to give you understanding, balance, illumination, discrimination, discretion, diplomacy, insight, foresight, and the capacity to act upon a moment's notice, pliable enough to obey the prompting of your God Flame DURING THE CRISIS THAT MIGHT FLARE AT ANY PLACE WHERE YOU MIGHT BE LOCATED, giving you the capacity, through your own mind and feeling, to be the master control of hysteria, chaos, and confusion.

Beloved ones, you are in a definite period of spiritual training, wherein the energies of your world are constantly put to the test to see how much restraint and control is manifest through your surrender to the Holy Christ Self, in allowing that flame—through the direction of its mighty rays through you—to create and sustain an aura as strong as steel, as unchanging as the Sun in the heavens, and yet, withal, as comforting, as merciful, and as tolerant as that of the Lord Maha Chohan, whom we honor tonight, as the Lord Buddha, whom we have served and loved through the centuries; the beloved Master Jesus, and every being, who—while yet in the minority on the Earth plane—controlled vast numbers of people, through love.

There is such a wide divergence between love and sentiment! How wise is love—how balanced! And yet, with all it holds in the compass of that radiant pressure, the God-control of energy, surges like tides through minds and feelings that know not whither to turn when anything that is apart from the usual occurrence manifests.

Individuals who feel that life must follow a certain definite pattern, who are discomfited by any change in the orderly rhythm, have much to learn before they come to a point where they can be used by us in cosmic emergency. I do not wish you to believe that I deplore rhythm and system and balance, and the orderly procession of your duties of the day. These are all manifestations in the life of your Saint Germain, who represents the light of the ceremonial activity, where every service, from the moment you rise in the morning until you place your body on its bed at night, becomes a ceremony of worship to God, and service to your fellowman—but I mean to convey to you that you must be so PLIABLE, SO ALERT, AND SO CAPABLE IN THE HANDLING OF EMERGENCIES that the pressure of their energies do not throw you off balance. You will see, dear ones, if you cannot handle the pressure of energies of the lifestreams with whom you are associated in homes and in business, HOW CAN WE ANCHOR THROUGH YOU THOSE COSMIC CURRENTS TO HANDLE THE SURGING TIDES OF AN ENTIRE CITY, OR A NATION, OR A CONTINENT OR A PLANET?

Early upon the path toward mastery, when the Guru takes the chela for his own, and the chela touches the hem of the Guru's garment (his aura), he learns that the virtue, momentum, power, and radiation of the Guru become, through association, part of his heritage, and the vestment of the Guru, which is his life qualified, falls upon the chela. The chela then moves not only through his own electronic circle, but also WITHIN THE ELECTRONIC CIRCLE AND CAUSAL BODY OF HIS MASTER AND GURU, having the full power of that Master's light, balance and peace.

During this thirty-day period, we are going to endeavor to anchor cosmic peace through the chelas and students, in concentrated light rays of Golden Flame, which will be such a powerful pressure of peace, beloved ones, that all of the outer minds, all of the selfish interests, and all of the intrigues that lie behind war will be melted away as nothing. Therefore, for this thirty days we are depending on you to be peace-conductors, peace magnetizers and peace radiators, and if we can secure from you enough cooperation in this respect, we may be able to AVERT A PLANETARY CRISIS ON THE SCREEN OF LIFE. We shall see now, by your cooperation, how much you love us, how much you love your planet and your fellowman.

Here in the Maha Chohan's retreat this evening, the builders of form have done a magnificent job in the creation of a marvelous amphitheater, to hold the countless souls that are drawn here. This, of course, is in the atmosphere over the permanent retreat of the Master. In passing, I might say that these beautiful places last only for the duration of the activity of the retreat, the devas releasing the electronic substance out of which they are formed, back into the universal after they have served their purpose. They have built the altar in the form of a gigantic dove of peace—the out-spread wings, the head lifted high with the olive branch in its mouth, and the great tail feathers forming the steps up to the high altar at the top of the head, where the flame is burning.

The ceremony is representative of the Holy Trinity this evening, the Maha Chohan's place, as Cosmic Holy Spirit, being at the head of the dove, the Lord Himalaya, a representative of the Manu or Father, at the tip of the left wing, and the Lord Maitreya as representative of the Cosmic Christ, at the tip of the right wing.

The Celestial Hierarchy are entering now. The entrance is at the back of the dove, and as they enter they circle outward, making a complete ring around this magnificent figure. As each one enters he is given a living dove made of light, which each places either on the back of the wrist or on the finger. Some of the birds are raising and lowering their bright wings, but they do not leave their perch. They will be released on the first breath of the Comfort Flame, and will fly north, south, east, and west, encircling the planet round with peace and love.

Most of the Celestial Company are wearing pink tonight, in its varying shades. The Lord Maha Chohan is in beautiful shell pink, a pink turban with pink brush of fire and a magnificent pink diamond at the forehead. The Lord Himalaya wears a Mandarin costume of deep rose, with a dove woven into the breast, in honor of our Lord, the Maha Chohan. The Lord Maitreya is in pure white, as he seldom wears anything else, but instead of the gold which he usually wears at the hem and sleeves, tonight he has embroidered in pink, at the hem and sleeves, the Sanscrit words, “O Mani Padme Hum.”

Paul, the Venetian, wears a beautiful robe and cape in pink, with a dove embroidered on the breast. The beloved Morya is resplendent tonight in a long, flowing robe of pink, with a deep hem of gorgeous pink diamonds at the hem and sleeves, and a magnificent sunburst of diamonds over the solar plexus. The dove rests happily on his shoulder. Serapis is in white, with pink at the hem and sleeves, and a pink band of silk on the head, fastened at the forehead with a large pink diamond.

Beloved Children,

This month, as we play host to the people of Earth and to their guardians, at our retreat in Ceylon, we take advantage of the holy season of Lent, when the attention of the entire Christian world is focused, more or less, on the life and teaching of the beloved Master Jesus, to imbue upon the consciousness and the inner bodies of the people of Earth, the grace of the Holy Spirit through the expansion of the Transmission Flame.

The magic and mystic properties of the Flame of the Holy Spirit may most easily be described by saying that they stimulate within the soul and self of everyone who touches the periphery of that cosmic aura, a deep desire to be all that the flame is. Whether that flame is in its primal essence within the heart of the Ceylon Retreat, or in modulated form within the hearts of the men and women of Earth, its magic properties are a stimulant to all that is good, and one who has touched even the fringe of the garment of the Holy Spirit can never know peace or rest until he has become the fullness of it.

Now, there are occasions when individuals can enjoy great beauty, admire fine development, observe talent of a superior nature in art or music, without being stimulated within the feeling nature to like accomplishment, but individuals who are privileged to abide in the presence of the Holy Spirit, even in its most modified form, become those restless sons of men whose thirst is never assuaged—whose hunger is never filled, until they have become all that it is.

It has been said by certain members, who have temporarily stepped from the path, that it is a curse to look upon the fire of the Holy Spirit—for it breeds discontent. These individuals, to an extent, present truth, because THE PULL OF THE HUMAN SELF AGAINST THE THIRST OF THE SOUL makes for a very unpleasant habitation, until that soul finally surrenders and abides in love. When we draw the attention of mankind to the Ceylon Retreat, where the most concentrated powerful focus of this flame is, we do it with the full knowledge that we are arousing within the natures of men, that required HUNGER AND THIRST, which presages the accomplishment.

Because of the peculiar magnetic pull that is within this Flame of the Holy Spirit, each individual who is taken within the Holy of Holies and allowed to drink from the brim of the chalice, is immediately given a guardian presence, because that instant they have set their foot upon the path, and MUST proceed thereon to their victorious accomplishment. These become the wanderers and the searchers, and ultimately the FINDERS of the purpose of life, until the fulfilled soul finally enters into that alliance with the I AM Presence in God-union.

All the teachers and leaders of men today, from the obscure to the great, have been summoned to this retreat in no uncertain terms, and by the time the month changes, we shall have definitely impressed upon them THE IMPORTANCE OF THE COSMIC HOUR, as well as the necessity for cooperative action along every branch of endeavor, IF THE PLANET AND HER PEOPLE ARE TO SURVIVE THE COSMIC CHANGES THAT ARE IMMINENT. WE NEED ALL YOUR PRAYERS AND CALLS, BELOVED ONES, IN THIS HOUR OF PLANETARY CHANGES.

Beloved and Precious Children of the One God,

You, whom it is my privilege and honor to comfort—not only in this world of form, but also while your dear souls are freed from the body in sleep, even up through those eras between embodiments, when you enter the Halls of Karma and when you are assigned, each one, to your respective sphere of endeavor at inner levels—do you know how deeply grateful I am to you for the opportunity to develop the quality which is mine to give to life, the quality of bringing comfort and peace and ease to spirit, soul, and body?

In my activity and service in the universe, it is the gifts of the great God who made me, that enable me to bring comfort, not only to the human kingdom, but to the elemental kingdom, the four-footed creatures and all the animal kingdom, to the members of the angelic host who are embodied and all manifest life everywhere that seeks and desires the happiness and harmony which is the natural activity of life.

You will truly only be comfortable, permanently, when you live within the harmony of your own being. You will only be truly comfortable when you have fulfilled your own destiny, when you have, upon your knees, faced your God within, and made the great surrender of the outer self to his will. When you proceed through the universe like a shining star or comet, the radiance of your Presence bringing light, fragrance, and comfort to all life you contact—only then will you know what true comfort means, for until that hour all the experiences of life prod you onward, ever onward toward your own great destiny.

During the few hours you spend in meditation and in the contemplation of our instruction, you are within the radiation of our Presence. During these hours do you know and taste the comfort which will be yours eternally, when you take your rightful place as God intends.

The activity and quality of comfort, and the comfortable way of living are NOW within the center of your own being. As you read my words, I am going to ask you to gently settle within that exquisite and majestic flame within your own heart. Have you seen a leaf blown from the tree by the autumn breezes, and watched as it settles gently down on the bosom of the Earth? Have you seen a bird in flight making graceful circles ere it alights upon its appointed spot? Now, in the same way, just settle your soul into that immortal, flaming chalice within your heart. Rest awhile in the secret place of the Most High, and FEEL the comfort which may be yours when you are truly centered within the heart of your own being.

That FEELING OF COMFORT comes only when you are centered within your own Immortal Flame of Life. YOU CAN AND SHALL MAINTAIN IT, as you proceed in mastery along your given pathway, radiating your light to the periphery of your sphere of influence and REFUSING TO BE DRAWN FROM THE CENTER OF YOUR BEING BY ANY PERSON, PLACE, CONDITION OR THING. I tell you, dear ones, the moment you release your consciousness from that central point—that place of inner comfort and tranquility—THAT MOMENT YOU RELINQUISH THE MASTERY OF YOUR ENERGY TO WHATSOEVER YOU HAVE ALLOWED YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS TO BECOME ATTACHED, and your peace for the moment is shattered. Here may I gently refer you to the Ninety-first Psalm!

Beloved Maha Chohan
Beloved Children of My Heart,

March 20, 1955

Do you know that I am depending on each one of you to be a comforting presence in action to all the life you contact, through your close affiliation with your own Holy Christ Self, which is the mainspring of your existence, and which abides in the very center of your being! Every Cosmic Being, every Ascended Master, and every angelic being always works from the extreme center of his own Godhood, and that is why the virtue streaming out from him or her carries a blessing and comfort to all the life it touches.

Also remember, beloved ones, that any being who has attained to the perfection of the higher octaves, or who has come to an understanding of the life principle before he has reached the ascended state, never allows the energy of any of his vehicles to act independently of the jurisdiction of his divine intelligence—neither does he allow the energy of another, no matter how it expresses itself, to draw him out from the center of his being. He that abideth in the Secret Place of the Most High shall abide under the light, under the radiation, under the magnificent Presence and Power of the All-Mighty—and all things shall he then do through that Presence, which HE IS.

When you are so centered within the heart of your own being, beloved ones, you are in control of the vibrant energies that flow in a pristine stream from the Central Sun; you are magnetized by the Immortal Flame within your heart, which but awaits your direction to flow forth carrying the perfume of your true being, and the quality with which you were endowed at the beginning, and which was the reason for your having taken embodiment. Then you, “rising in action,” in the center of that secret and sanctified heart, become a power that can never be thrown off balance.

Beloved hearts of light, you desire to be a comforting presence to the universe, and in that very desire you rush forth from the center of your being and attach your energies through thought and feeling and the very flesh, to the consciousness of those who require help and assistance—but, thereby you forfeit your mastery and the capacity to help and serve them. Abide now, my children, in the CENTER of your being, and let your light and the power of the Father, flowing through your light, beam forth and BE THE HEALING, BE THE PEACE, BE THE BALANCED CONTROL, BE THE MASTER PRESENCE of whatsoever is required at any given moment. There shall be no fear, no uncertainty, no doubt, when you dwell WITHIN that Presence. You can be ALL things and do ALL things when you dwell within its heart.

When you abide within the center of the great heart of God, then does the Father move forth through you. Your eyes become beams through which his light may shine, your hands become conductors of his all-mighty power, your lips become the instruments by which his words are fashioned and directed into the world of form, your feet become the feet of the Master Presence moving through the universe, and your energy becomes a conductor, always, of whatsoever the Godhead desires to do through you at your point in the universe.

Beloved Children of my Heart,

It is my pleasure and happiness to give you our beloved Kuthumi's report of activities in the Resurrection Temple in Arabia, presided over by the beloved Jesus and Mary, on the evening of the Transmission Flame Ceremony, March 19th, 1955.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Brothers and Sisters of Light,

I come tonight accompanied by the Brothers of the Golden Robe. We bring for each one of you a magic, mystic robe of light, into which is woven the lily, symbol of the resurrection and ascension. This garment will be placed about you as we transport you, consciously and collectively, to the heart of the Resurrection Temple, where the mighty activities are engaging the interest of the Ascended Host of Light, the angelic host of light, and the seraphic and cherubic beings.

For just a little while you shall be free, God-free, of this flesh—free of the limitations of your individual worlds and orbits. We have bathed you in light. We have washed your consciousness clean, and now we place upon your feet the winged sandals, upon your bodies the seamless robe, and we will transport you in consciousness into the heart of that temple where burns the Resurrection Flame, which is the hope of each returned springtime accepted and manifested by the nature kingdom, but by so few, so very few, of mankind.

The great temple of the Resurrection Flame has been designed, as you know, in large circular corridors surrounding the central flame, to give assistance to the graded consciousness of the mankind of Earth who are interested in learning the powers of the resurrection. As they graduate in consciousness and development, they are drawn in from one corridor to another, until they come to those which are in closer proximity to the power of that mighty flame.

The great Archangel Gabriel, who represents the Angel of the Resurrection, stands within the center of the flame tonight. He is clothed in the most exquisite garments of opalescent light colors, his golden hair blazing in living fire. Standing by his side is the Cosmic Spirit of the Resurrection herself, who is even now directing that flame through the nature kingdom. The beloved Master Jesus and Mother Mary are standing below the flame, giving the place of honor to the angelic kingdom and the Spirit of the Resurrection.

As we are going to celebrate again this evening the activity in which you joined us last year—the Festival of the Incoming Spring—we will render honor to those beings who are primarily concerned with conferring on the planet Earth each year a new and precious Springtime.

The beloved Amaryllis, the Spirit of Spring, who came to Earth long, long before the first inhabitants, and who looks now even more fresh and beautiful and magnificent in her glory than she looked when man first took embodiment, will lead the procession. Even as I speak, this cortege is forming in the outer corridors of the temple. This lovely lady is wearing this evening, a fern-green garment of a substance something like your chiffon, over which is a magnificent train at least sixty or seventy feet in length, attached to her shoulders by gorgeous yellow butterflies of living fire. This entire train is made-up of tier after tier of small yellow flowers, in the most magnificent shades. It is upheld by tiny sylphs in bright yellow garments. They wear full skirts and have wreaths of small yellow buttercups upon their bright hems.

As the beloved Amaryllis takes her position at the head of the procession, our beloved Maha Chohan, as representative of the power of nature in springtime, takes his place beside her. He lovingly places her hand within his arm, and will honor her by presenting her to the assembly as they proceed.

Next in line comes the beloved Neptune (who is in the process of turning the cycle over to the beloved Aries). He is in magnificent white garments and walks alone. Behind him come the undines who represent his kingdom. Some of these are no larger than your thumbnail, others as large as a seventy-foot wave at sea. These are clothed in garments of green, representing the color of the sea in her varying moods and climes.

Next comes the beloved Aries, followed by her sylphs. She is clothed magnificently in blue. The sylphs, express in their raiment, all the brilliance of the flower kingdom and come dancing on tiptoe. They do not walk—they dance—because they are joyous and free.

Now comes the beloved Zarathustra followed by his salamanders. The activities of these beings of fire are most interesting to behold. You very seldom see the form and seem to be only conscious of flowing flame. They proceed, undulating up and down, yet remaining miraculously in line.

Next come the fairies and the gnomes, dressed according to their service, the fairies looking like bright flowers, some with little bells on their hats and the toes of their shoes, the gnomes clothed in more somber colors of the shades of the rocks and trees and shrubs with which they work.

After these walks a being who has guarded the elemental kingdom for a long, long time. He is accompanied by representatives of the four elemental kingdoms WHO HAVE PASSED THROUGH EXPLOSIONS OF THE ATOM BOMB, and I would not care to describe their appearance to you. The distorted and distressed appearance of these beautiful, delicate and fine little beings is a disgrace to the human race as a whole and I would ask you to make calls that these atrocities cease.

The beloved Chohans are now entering, magnificently robed, as usual. They will take their positions in the first circle surrounding the flame.

The beloved Cosmic Spirit of the Resurrection Flame will now speak. God bless you and good night.

Beloved Maha Chohan

April 3, 1955

Beloved Hearts of Light,

We are singularly blessed and I might also say delightfully surprised during this current month's Transmission Flame Ceremony to find that the beloved Spirit of the Resurrection Flame chose to address the assembled gathering. The essence of her outpouring was projected into the mental and emotional bodies of mankind, everywhere, through the medium of the outgoing breath and should bring wonderful results in the quickening of the flame in their hearts, which causes, in turn, a hunger and thirst on the part of the individual for the things of the spirit. Her radiation during the entire month should be tangibly felt by the sensitive chelas and students throughout the world.

The mental and emotional bodies are the instruments through which man's freedom is gained; therefore, these should be educated, controlled and consciously raised by the indwelling presiding intelligence. The quickest and surest way to accomplish this is to keep the attention trained on the instruction of the God-free, for where the consciousness is encouraged to dwell, the mental and feeling worlds will follow. As it is the nature of these bodies to bring into manifestation that upon which the attention rests, the steadfast and persistent student will find himself being cut free quickly from the tribulations and discords of the outer world. This exercise should always be accompanied, of course, by the use of the Sacred Fire of Purification, which cleanses and purifies the four lower bodies, particularly the etheric envelope. It also illumines the mind through the transmutation of the conglomerate mass of superfluous knowledge and ideas accumulated through past ages of living.

I give you now, dear ones, for your edification and comfort, the words of the beloved Spirit of the Resurrection Flame.

THE BELOVED SPIRIT OF RESURRECTION speaks:

I am the Cosmic Spirit Of Resurrection, servant of the Most High Living God, come tonight from the heart of the universal.

Why does not mankind command me? Why does not mankind seek me? Why am I not welcome within the breast of the human race—when the smallest blossom, the tiniest seed, the smallest bulb, invokes me, draws me into its bosom, bursts its bonds and becomes a magnificent, fragrant and flowerful manifestation of the glory of God?

I have been sent from the House of the Lord to a recalcitrant race, in which death, disintegration, disease and decay are written across the bodies that should be immortal, shining and blazing like the Sun—and who has welcomed me? The daffodil, the crocus and the early forsythia! Wherefore, man, are thy non-mastery and thy inhospitality!

I am the Cosmic Spirit of Resurrection, the hope of Eternal Life and Light, invoked in the tomb of Jesus and, BLAZING through his transfigured flesh, drew him into immortality. I am the Cosmic Spirit of Resurrection BLAZING through the nature kingdom! Wherefore, man, is thy inhospitality to me!

Command ye me, oh mankind of this Earth! Why linger longer in decay! Why linger longer in those bonds of disintegration! I Am speaking to your hearts! What seek ye, man? Hope! Wealth! Illumination! Peace! Purity! Beauty! God Supply! Ye had it all once! Within your life it dwells—dormant, true—but I am that spark which, kindled with your life essence, can resurrect for you the Immortality that you once knew!

Come ye back from the dead, oh man, and grasp my hand in love and light! Let me enter into your imprisoned consciousness, which you hug so tightly that it becomes a repellent force to all that would set you free! O, burst asunder, man, and let the flames which WE represent—and which are intelligent, conscious life—enter in, mingle with your life essence and SET YOU FREE! You, the tinder, we the cosmic spark of life—and yet we stand with hands folded, with eyes downcast, with no summons and no purpose, although servants of man and servants of God!

Think not that the flame is an intangible and senseless ephemeral dream! Every flame is an EMBODIED CONSCIOUSNESS of light and life, RUSHING FORTH to serve!

I am the Cosmic Flame, the Spirit of Resurrection, charging through, charging through, charging through that shell of unbelief, that shell of non-acceptance, that shell of lethargy!

I am willing myself into your hearts, and where my flame meets your heart flame, resurrection of divinity occurs. Because you have had sight once and hearing and intelligence and youth once, there is hope, because I am the resurrecting power BRINGING BACK that which was given you of God! Oh, when God gives once, remember he never takes it away! It is you who have temporarily pushed your gift aside.

Oh mankind—everyone, everywhere—while the Spirit of Resurrection is honored during this holy Easter season and while this retreat, in which my flame stands visible, is active, I am going to knock upon the door of your consciousness and knock and knock and knock ceaselessly, day and night, until you let me in.

In the darkness of the night you will hear my voice calling—

I AM THE SPIRIT OF RESURRECTION CALLING YOU FROM DEATH TO LIFE! LET ME IN! LET ME IN! LET ME IN!

(I believe this is the first time in the history of the Transmission Flame Activity that the spirit of the flame has spoken—Kuthumi)

Beloved Children,

When we look at the flow of energy from the heart of the Presence into the physical heart, we see a rapidly-pulsating river of prismatic light. If we were to slow down the vibratory action of that life energy, we would see that the electrons making up the flame of the Presence of each one carry a distinct design, which differs from all others, even as the geometrical perfection of each snowflake is different from all the other countless millions of snowflakes.

As this energy is molded into form by the thought and feeling body and sent forth into the universe, it carries the plan of the original design of the lifestream. THAT ENERGY GOES FORTH IN A HAND CLASP, SO THAT

THE INDIVIDUAL RECEIVING THE HAND CLASP, when the hand is removed, has upon the palm superimposed over his own energy, many thousands of these tiny forms representative of the lifestream of the initial giver. The second individual then goes on his way, perhaps he combs his hair or clasps another hand, and in this way the electronic particles of the first person go on in an almost endless chain to many, many parts of the universe.

The outer world has touched the fringe of this in their science of personal magnetism, but they refer to the human effluvia which covers the pure particles of light, whereas we refer to the life structure and picture WITHIN.

The manner in which the particles are charged forth determines the resulting effect upon the lifestream releasing them. While through the hand they may pass in a hand clasp, the DOMINANT FEELING of energy, as they go forth on their journey, will determine whether their passage through the universe carries friendship and love, or otherwise, and on their return journey, of course, they will pick up only the vibrations similar to their own, so they return in due time to their source, bringing the initial vibration with which they were sent forth, amplified a million-fold with their own kind. If the hand is used to strike in anger, those same particles carry that same vibratory action over their complete circle, influencing all the life they touch with the same destructive vibration and when they have reached the farthest point of their orbit, they start back to their source with more of their kind, bringing distress to the one who sent them forth.

If you were to look at an individual with the inner eye, you would see the electrons going out and coming in, in circles of all sizes, small and large and even universal, and these returning circles often account for the change of feeling in the individual, as each returning wave brings the result of previous kindness or unkindness into the lower vehicles. According to the manner of sending forth these electrons, dear ones, do we receive happiness, or otherwise, in their return orbit.

It is to withdraw, reclaim and purify those light particles released in the process of living, thinking, feeling, and acting that Saint Germain, in his mercy, has presented the use of the flame of purification. WISE IS THE MAN WHO INVOKES THAT FLAME THROUGH EVERY ELECTRONIC PATTERN THAT HAS PROCEEDED FROM HIS LIFESTREAM FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME, and bids it flow through the nations of the world, through the psychic and astral realm and all kingdoms, because until every particle is redeemed, there is a certain portion of the lifestream unascended.

Beloved Ones,

If you were privileged to look upon the Electronic Presence of every person belonging to the human race, you would be amazed at the beauty, perfection and radiation of light which each one expresses. When you had become accustomed to the perfection of face and form, the gentleness of spirit and the beauty of the light, you would be able to distinguish one from the other by the particular shape of the electrons that make up each one's vehicles and you would find that those of each lifestream expressing beauty and perfection, in themselves, were composed of tiny geometrical designs, differing from each other.

These designs form the KEYNOTE and pattern of the lifestream. The electrons of the Master Saint Germain, we know, are in the form of the Maltese cross, those of the Lord Buddha the open lotus and myself, the dove. As the energy passes from your Presence into your heart, it maintains those beautiful designs and thence it proceeds into your universe carrying that perfection into the form of your thought, your feeling and your action.

When individuals like the Master Saint Germain or the Lord Buddha speak, the words that proceed from their mouths and set up a vibration in the universe are made up of countless millions of tiny crosses or flowers. When they raise their hands, the electrons passing from the hand are composed of myriads of tiny forms representative of their lifestreams. The atmosphere around them is filled with millions and millions of these same tiny forms. The places where their feet have stood have the imprint of these infinitesimal electronic patterns and that substance was imposed upon the garments that they wore, the rooms in which they lived, the trees that shaded them, the beds that they laid upon.

THE MOST POWERFULLY-CONCENTRATED DESIGNS ARE CLOSEST TO THE PHYSICAL BODY OR TO THE PLACE WHERE THE INDIVIDUAL ABODE DURING HIS LAST INCARNATION AND THAT IS WHY YOU WILL FIND A CERTAIN IDENTITY IN SPIRITUAL CENTERS WHERE GREAT MEN AND WOMEN ACHIEVED KNOWLEDGE AND SPIRITUAL VICTORIES.

YOUR HOME, ENVIRONMENT, AND PERSONAL EFFECTS ARE LIKEWISE POWERFULLY CHARGED WITH THE ELECTRONIC PATTERN OF YOUR INDIVIDUAL LIFESTREAMS. THAT PATTERN, ITSELF, IS NEUTRAL, BUT THE

FEELING THAT YOUR ENERGY RELEASES THROUGH IT, DETERMINES ITS RADIATION. IT IS LIKE YOUR FANCY COOKIE CUTTER, THAT WILL MAKE A FORM OUT OF MUD OR DOUGH. WHEN THE PATTERN OF YOUR LIFESTREAM IS CHARGED INTO THE UNIVERSAL LIGHT SUBSTANCE, IF YOUR FEELING IS HARMONIOUS, ITS RADIATION WILL BE OF BENEFIT TO ALL LIFE; IF THE FEELING BE INHARMONIOUS, IT STILL CARRIES YOUR PATTERN AND AS IT PROCEEDS FROM YOU INTO THE UNIVERSE YOU WILL CARRY THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR ALL THE LIFE IT AFFECTS ADVERSELY, BEFORE IT RETURNS IN ITS CIRCLE TO YOUR WORLD.

There is no man who can stand before the All-Seeing Eye of God and deny that pattern of his own life energy imposed upon any part of life, either constructively or destructively, for where your "STAMP" is, like your footprint, there you have been, and to life you must answer for what was done there. Dear ones, I implore you, USE, USE, USE Saint Germain's Flame of Freedom, which is the thoughtform for the year, to purify the electrons that have gone forth from your lifestream that still remain unredeemed, which bear your stamp and seal, BEFORE THEY START ON THEIR RETURN JOURNEY BACK INTO YOUR WORLD, bringing with them the unhappy vibrations that manifest as "trouble" in its countless forms.

Beloved Children of God,

You will not realize until you are free from the bondage of the outer senses, the gratitude that we in the Ascended State feel toward those of you who have faith and confidence enough in our living reality, to be willing to take pen and paper or other means of communication to correspond with us personally. It is many, many centuries indeed since members of the Ascended Host have enjoyed the almost unprecedented privilege of received "mail," as you call it, from people of Earth and to say that we both enjoy and look forward to its reception, is putting it mildly.

The receipt of these letters, by those of us so privileged, calls forth great diplomacy and tact on our part in order to counteract the almost wistful expression of those on whom the "celestial postmen" do not call. I long for the day when the human veil will be completely shattered, and angels, Gods and men will walk and talk together, hand in hand in loving comradeship.

I now submit for your enjoyment and contemplation beloved

Kuthumi's report on the activity of the Transmission Flame, by which means we hope to awaken the slumbering consciousness of the mass of mankind. God bless and keep you each one.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:
Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

Do you realize (in comparison to the rest of mankind) how much freedom you really enjoy? You have stood within the Sacred Heart Temple when the Great Buddha made the dedication of his life to incarnation. You have stood in Shamballa, where the footstep of an unascended being has not resounded for many ages. You have stood in the presence of the Lord of Light and the King of Kings, before whom even the Great Maha Chohan, himself, bows his head in honor. You have stood with bared head, open eyes and alert consciousness, within that mystic chamber in the heart of Ceylon to which the Chohans alone have had access. You have stood in the Chateau de Liberte' and in the Royal Master's Retreat in Darjeeling. Have you thought of that?

It is not the flesh, beloved ones, but the CONSCIOUSNESS that experiences all, even in this world of form. While the body is unconscious the flesh records nothing, but you, through the gifts of the Master Saint Germain, can and have opportunity to be lifted in consciousness above this physical appearance world and, through the direction of some God-free Being, you are brought into these sacred retreats, one after the other, and enjoy the presence of the august assembly gathered there. Have you considered the freedom that is yours?

Beloved ones, I CANNOT EMPHASIZE TOO STRONGLY HOW IMPORTANT IT IS FOR YOU TO RECOGNIZE THE EXPANSION OF CONSCIOUSNESS THAT TAKES PLACE THROUGH THE PROJECTED VISION, and now through the magnificent endeavor where you move from place to place on the surface of the Earth, you are receiving training similar to that given only within the retreats under the direction of some Ascended Being.

Now, tonight I will ask you to turn your attention to the magnificent Temple of Cosmic Truth which pulsates in the ethers over the Island of Crete. Tonight, all of the activity of the Fifth Ray is pouring its radiation into the atmosphere of Earth, which needs so much to know and understand truth.

Over the planet stands the great presence of the beloved Elohim Cyclopea. His radiation covers the entire Earth. In comparison to his magnitude, the planet looks no larger than the balls of his feet. He has assumed this stature tonight in his efforts to draw forth and concentrate the power of the Fifth Ray through the beloved Hilarion, Chohan of that ray.

In the atmosphere above the temple stands the beloved Archangel Raphael, with outstretched wings, dressed in shimmering garments of light apple green. Around him are gathered seven tiers of seraphic beings. All hold emerald green swords of flame with the points down. Back of them are the cherubic beings and the angels comprising Raphael's Legions. The activity of the angelic host appears to be particularly emphasized this evening. Raphael's legions do not ordinarily carry swords. They are connected primarily, you know, with the elixirs of healing, and generally carry beautiful grails, containing the healing essence taken from the Temples of Healing around the Sun and the various foci of light where healing concentrates are gathered.

The temple is magnificent tonight. The great altar seems to be made of just one immense emerald, on which blazes a pillar of crystal white fire enfolded in green, which is the concentrate of cosmic truth.

The beloved Pallas Athena, as Priestess of Cosmic Truth, presides for the evening. She and the beloved Maha Chohan lead the procession up the green-carpeted aisle to the altar. The beautiful lady is robed in a white garment, over which is a long train of emerald green held up by a group of the Angels of Truth who accompany her. The Maha Chohan is also in white, acknowledging the activity of the retreat by a great emerald on his turban. The beloved Morya wears emerald green with a magnificent girdle of white diamonds. Beloved Paul, the Venetian, is in apple green with an cape of emerald green lined with gold which he wears thrown back over the left shoulder. Beloved Serapis is receiving special honors tonight. He is being preceded by a group of cherubic beings who are scattering white flower petals in his path, in appreciation of his tenacity in bringing the vision of this beautiful temple from the higher octaves into the physical appearance world many centuries ago, the etheric replica of which we all enjoy this evening. He is in crystal white, as usual.

The beloved Master Jesus is in a pure white robe embroidered round the cuffs and hem with gold letter-leaf. Many of the Lord Maitreya's robes are banded like this, and it would appear that Jesus must have gone through some initiation to permit of his wearing garments like the Lord Maitreya. Beloved Saint Germain is in white tonight, wearing a robe similar to that of Jesus, except that it does not have the gold lettering. The Brotherhood of Crete are all in white robes, with the emblazoned emblem of truth in emerald green over the left breast. They stand to-night as honored guard of the flame. Last year the angelic host comprised the guard of honor.

Now comes the beloved Hilarion, walking with those to whom he has dedicated his life and purpose. They are the agnostics, and others who have passed through the change called death in bitterness, suspicion and doubt. The Lord Buddha is functioning in a cosmic capacity in a form that cannot be described and Sanat Kumara is pouring his radiance from the atmosphere above, as is Lord Raphael.

My Beloved Children,

It is with great joy that I offer you this week's study and contemplation of the address to the Cosmic Flame of Cosmic Truth by the beloved Pallas Athena, representative of Cosmic Truth to the planet Earth. This address was made on the evening of the last Transmission Flame Ceremony, held in the beloved Hilarion's Retreat at Crete, on April 16, 1955.

BELOVED PALLAS ATHENA, GODDESS OF TRUTH, speaks:

HAIL! Thou flame of eternal truth of love and life and light—I salute thee in the name of the mankind of Earth, as I enter deep within thy cosmic heart! I feel thee as myself, for thou art my life, that life which has been drawn from the eternal first cause and qualified and charged; qualified and charged; qualified and charged to go forth and carry the Law of life and the truth of life to mankind—everyone, everywhere.

As I stand within your radiance, o mighty flame of truth. I feel the momentum, the essence and the spirit of every atom of truth that has been drawn forth from the Great Central Sun and the Solar Sun by every Master, angel, deva and man who has magnetized and insisted upon knowing truth, who have, through their own consciousness, drawn that truth forth and SPREAD IT to dissolve the human shadows and bring the light.

I feel within this Flame of Truth the life-beat of the Buddha! I feel the life-beat of Moses! I feel the life-beat of Jesus of Nazareth! I feel the life-beat of Krishna and Zarathustra! I feel the life-beat of every individual, not only of those Ascended, but of many who yet walk the ways of Earth.

O Flame! Thou art the coalescence of ALL TRUTH drawn forth. Thou art a living, breathing, powerful and palpable presence. Many men and women, many angels and devas from afar have breathed in thy radiance and then returned to the far-distant realms whence they came. They have also poured their momentum of truth into thee, o flame, and because of their coming into thy presence, because of their spark of light and life added to thy flame, thou art greater! Thou art greater in each passing hour, in each passing year and as mankind grows in the knowledge of truth, that truth in turn becomes part of thee again, oh living, blazing presence!

O mighty Flame of Truth and Light!—O mighty concentrate of all that is good—I now speak directly to thee.

In the name of God almighty! In the name of the ascended Jesus Christ! In the name of mercy and of love, I speak to thee now, oh intelligent flame—everywhere on this planet where man calls for truth, I bid thee GO! Flash thy fire! Shatter the human concepts within the mental body! Remove and wash free all narrow and bigoted ideas within that mental form! Sweep the emotional body free from all impurities! Wash from the etheric body all those human concepts that have been builded century after century! O flame of truth, flash through the flesh form and remove from the outer mind all capacity to accept imperfection!

Beloved Flame of Truth, thou which art the servant of the “I AM,” go forth now—go North! Go South! Go East! Go West! And on the breath of those beloved ones who have answered the call of my beloved Maha Chohan, go forth now and give to mankind, everywhere, that truth which will bring freedom within their hearts, within their souls and within their minds. I call particularly for those who have answered the call of my beloved. They have asked to know truth. They have chosen to come forth from the masses and be stripped of every rate of vibratory action that is less than truth. Because they so desire it, oh mighty cosmic flame, give them now eternal truth and then expand it to cover all mankind.

May this Cosmic Flame of Truth drive and fire, drive and fire, drive and fire, every human concept back into the sea of oblivion, bringing the will to do, the perception to know, the love to accomplish, the purity to bring forth, the concentration to follow through, the rhythm to stay with a manifestation until it occurs, and then the peace to sustain that which has been drawn forth.

In the name of life I speak tonight through the concentrated energies of these beings assembled within this great Temple of Truth, and I ask you now, O Brothers and Sisters, as you stand and look upon this flame and as you breathe it into your very selves, send it forth to the “dark star”—send it forth to the mankind who mill about in confusion, wondering where they may find the doorway that leads back HOME.

O beloved ones, as I speak to you, concentrate within yourselves a beam of light from this magnificent temple and play it upon the Earth. Show each soul who is praying within itself, the way back home, and how to follow that illumination with the will to do, until that soul arises and comes home in harmony and freedom.

To You, O Mighty Vista, to You, O Beloved Raphael, to You, O Lord Sanat Kumara, to You, Mighty Lord Buddha and to you, O Mighty Seraphim, assembled around this magnificent focus tonight—to you we give our honor and our gratitude for your great and mighty presence!

Beloved seraphim of Raphael's legions, as you send the mighty power of those swords of flame into all bigotry and intolerance—into all those qualities that deny truth its opportunity—we ask you, with all the intensity of our being, to cause all persecution—religious, racial and political or in whatever form it may be acting—to cease to be.

In the name of the great hierarch of this retreat (Hilarion), who has dedicated his life to rectifying an error made long ago, we call that mankind everywhere be illumined on the point that “might never makes right,” and that all persecution of every kind and description be banished from the Earth.

May all religious orders that work for the good of mankind—metaphysical, occult and orthodox, Protestant, Catholic and Jewish—unite, and, standing shoulder to shoulder, a solid and conscious phalanx, dissolve Earth's shadows by the power of light. SEPARATENESS IS NOT TRUTH. In the name of life, beloved Raphael, as your legions use their swords of flame, SEE THAT THIS IS ACCOMPLISHED.

To you, beloved students everywhere, to you who stand within the compass of our love and of our light, to you do we send a beam of our life energy straight from the Heart of the Temple of Truth. Truth is the full manifestation of your own Holy Christ Self. There is nothing less than the perfection which the beloved Jesus manifested—that is the fullness of truth. ARE YOU WILLING TO BECOME THAT? Whenever appearances arise that are less than truth, call to me and I will help you. God bless you, each one.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children of My Heart,

I am eternally grateful to you for responding so quickly to my request to be a Comfort Flame in action, and for your heroic efforts in trying to remain within the center of your being, the only place in heaven or on Earth where you will experience that peace “that passeth the understanding of the human mind.”

The association between unascended beings and the Ascended Masters, beloved ones, is not fully understood EVEN BY THE MOST EARNEST CHELA. Mankind that starts out on the spiritual path becomes mentally intrigued when it first hears of the Spiritual Hierarchy. Then there comes a period of tremendous zeal, in an endeavor to make contact with some of this superhuman mankind. Much disillusionment ensues, many blind alleys are followed, and many of mankind, unable to attain this goal, are disillusioned at the end of a lifetime.

But, when once there stirs within the soul and spirit a desire TO KNOW THE WORK of the Ascended Host—that instant the individual comes under my supervision, then he or she is placed on probation and put under the care and guidance of some angel deva or spiritual being who can assist the lifestream, and who has the capacity to give assistance until the one is developed far enough to where he needs and requires more advanced instruction. We are naturally eager and desirous of securing individuals who have an interest in us and our work, but we are more desirous of making a conscious contact between the outer mind of those individuals and ourselves, because such an association is mature, and in its maturity it enables the chela to cooperate with us intelligently, and to assist us in the fulfillment of the divine plan both for himself and for the planet.

It may surprise you to learn, dear ones, that SOMETIMES A HUNDRED EMBODIMENTS, OFTEN A THOUSAND EMBODIMENTS, ARE ENTAILED BEFORE A CHELA COMES IN DIRECT CONTACT WITH ONE OF THE ASCENDED HOST, either through his own consciousness or another's. Then the first conscious association, the first word, the first visitation, the first parting of the veil, fills the chela with enthusiasm, zeal, and a tremendous acceleration of spiritual desire, but very often, alas, the proximity of the Master, the very naturalness of the association, the comradeship, soon becomes so “humanly natural” to the outer sense, that the chela loses the import of the partnership, and is inclined to “take for granted” the investment of the energies of a Divine Being. He then is inclined to slip again into a lethargic state, wherein the acceptance of such association does not draw forth the light which the ORIGINAL CONTACT WAS DESIGNED TO MANIFEST.

Again and again have I seen this happen through the ages. THAT IS WHY I HAVE BECOME EXTREMELY RESERVED IN ALLOWING ANY DISPENSATION OR GRANT BY WHICH THE CHOHANS AND MASTERS WHO WORK UNDER ME MAY CONSCIOUSLY CONTACT UNASCENDED BEINGS. I find, as a rule, that in their great love and generosity, they are bound to invest more energy than they get in return through the application of the chela and the disappointment to the Master as well as the necessity OF HIS MAKING UP TO THE COSMIC LAW FOR SUCH INVESTMENT in ADDED CONCENTRATED SERVICE is such that wisdom has caused me to forbear often from allowing some dear and blessed being to reach a chela, even of great merit.

I speak of this because, in the designing of the "Bulletin," it was my specific idea to create 'A TIE THAT BINDS' between my heart, my consciousness, and my presence, and every individual who found my words, my light and my energy worthwhile, and then I hoped on their return current, through the replies of the students, to further strengthen that bond, building for a day that is coming when mankind, the animal and nature kingdoms will require comfort more than I care to describe to you in words. The Cosmic Law demands, beloved ones, that the frail span between our lifestreams and yours be sustained BY THE ENERGY OF YOUR WORLDS, if the light, love, inspiration and divine comfort from our octave is to reach yours, because the conscious beam of your sustained attention, interest and energy provides the bridge over which our rays travel.

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 15, 1955

Beloved Children on the Path,

When a Perfected Being focuses his attention on an unascended member of the race, there flows from the consciousness of the Master a steady stream of pure, electronic substance, which is filled with the feeling, the thought, and the very being of the Master directing the light ray to his attention. If you could, with the inner eye, watch the process when the Master chooses to pour his consciousness into the aspirant, you would see passing from the Master, waves of light and color, which flow into the four lower bodies of the individual, enlarging each one of those bodies, and also changing the color and tone of the energy released by the chela. During this process, MUCH OF THE PSYCHIC AND ASTRAL SUBSTANCE IS WASHED OUT OF THE LOWER BODIES OF THE STUDENT, AND NEW HOPE FILLS HIS INNER BODIES.

If it were not for such a spiritual connection between Master and chela, the weight of the individual's accumulation of psychic substance would soon draw him back into the mass mind, because the heavy pressure of human creation around the Earth plane at present is more than the strength of any unascended being can pierce through unaided. It is this spiritual transfusion (so to speak) of the Master, that gives the added impetus of courage, inspiration, strength, and love of the light to the imprisoned soul, which enables that soul to hold the pathway open before him.

THAT IS WHY OUR DESIRE IS SO GREAT FOR PEOPLE TO PLACE THEIR ATTENTION UNDIVIDED UPON THE ASCENDED MASTERS' OCTAVE, THE OMNIPRESENT HOLY SPIRIT OF GOD, THE ANGELIC HOST, OR ANY MEMBER OF THE SPIRITUAL BROTHERHOOD, AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE—BECAUSE IT FORMS THE LINK OR BRIDGE OVER WHICH MAY BE CARRIED THE SPIRITUAL FOOD which sustains the interest of the soul and makes that soul a radiating center of inspiration to others. WITHOUT SUCH A LINK, DEAR ONES, THE SOUL-SLEEP OF THE CENTURIES WOULD AGAIN ENGULF THE PEOPLE OF EARTH.

The particular service of the Ascended Master is to intensify the light in the heart of the seeker, that its more powerful and expanded voltage might throw a greater radiance upon his path. The amount of light within the chela will determine his capacity to perceive and cognize truth, and the constant increase of that light, through the consciously-projected rays of the Ascended Master, represents the way and means by which the seeker's light may have sufficient intensity to enable him to find the object of his search, which is the realization of his own oneness with the Eternal Father of All.

As the traveler can proceed with greater ease when the light of the noonday sun illumines his pathway than during the night hours, when every crevasse and stone is shadowed over, so can the wayfarer upon the spiritual path ACCOMPLISH HIS JOURNEY WITH GREATER EASE AND SAFETY, WHEN THE COMBINED FOCUSED AND SUSTAINED RAYS OF THE ASCENDED HOST MAKE FOR HIM A SPIRITUAL LIGHT ON HIS PATH, WHICH SHOWS UP THE HURDLES, THE OBSTACLES AND THE STRAIGHT-WAY.

The individual who seeks to proceed without the assistance of the Masters may do so, but then it is only his own soul-light that can guide him—which may be likened to one traveling through a forest in the dark with only the flickering, uncertain light of a penny candle—whereas one may proceed in safety with the light of the noonday sun.

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 22, 1955

Beloved Children,

All unascended beings must come to the place upon life's pathway where they become the master control of the energy of their lifestreams, sending it forth into the universe in a harmonious manner. This is the reason for which every man took incarnation, and there will be no happiness, no contentment, no bliss until each lifestream becomes the controlling power of the energy which is his life essence.

By calling to the Ascended Masters, to the angelic host and the powers of light, they will anchor their energy into your inner bodies, and they will help you by radiating through you, their feelings, which will gradually transform and transmute the momentum of energy that you have gathered and qualified imperfectly.

There are very few unascended beings, at this time, in the Western Hemisphere who have mastered the energy of their lifestreams. Most people are endeavoring, according to their particular capabilities, to come to a point of harmonious expression. In the course of one's experience, a person contacts not only his own discordant energy, but also that of the lifestreams around him. However, there is no point in becoming discouraged by the presence of disharmony, when all conscious students know that it is their duty and responsibility, each one, to try to harmonize, as much as possible, the thoughts and feelings of their own lifestream, and to give whatever they can of silent radiation to those in their vicinity.

The Ascended Masters and Perfected Beings are willing to ensoul and canopy any lifestream who sincerely desires harmonious expression. They will clothe them in the fullness of their love and light, which will disconnect such a one from any unpleasant vibrations that may be directed toward them, and will also melt away the cores of disharmony that are liable to manifest as unhappiness and distress.

There is one established Law for unascended beings and all must remain on the path of experience, struggling with the results of cause and effect, until such time as the keynote of balance, love, light, harmony, tolerance and understanding flow through the radiation of the energy which each one has drawn directly from God, the Father, and for which each must render a personal and separate accounting.

Each opportunity you take to tune into the Masters, their words, their pictures, or their songs, gives us opportunity to pour down the necessary spiritual food, to sustain not only yourself, but also those in your locality. This is a more important service than the outer mind can conceive, because OUR ABILITY TO HELP DEPENDS UPON THE SELF-CONSCIOUS INVITATION that comes from YOU, and I am happy to say that since the human veil has been lifted, to some extent, through this inter-communion between our octave and yours, we have been given a wider invitation than at any time since the sinking of Atlantis.

However, because the human mind and heart have not learned perseverance and tenacity, it means more effort must be made by those who are aware of—and have faith in—our presence to make calls for the release of the amount of energy that the Cosmic Law requires for the illumination of mankind in its entirety. A call to the Ascended Host, beloved ones, for humanity, not only increases your own soul-light a thousand-fold, but gives us an opportunity to render the service for which we have forsworn Nirvana.

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 29, 1955

Beloved Children of the One Beneficent Father,

It is my privilege to offer this week, for your study and contemplation, an address delivered by my son, El Morya, Chohan of the First Ray, and Representative of the divine will of God to this planet, on the occasion of the recent Transmission Flame Ceremony, held in his beautiful retreat at Darjeeling, India (May 21st, 1955), together with the beloved Kuthumi's report of the activities of the same evening.

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Ladies and Gentlemen, Friends of My Heart,

I bring you the greetings of one who is well pleased—well pleased—that among the men and women of Earth there are some willing enough to stand and ask for a knowledge of the will of God and to desire, when knowing that will, to incorporate even the most reluctant energies of their feelings into the divine pattern and tapestry of life, to make of this planet, Freedom's Star.

I would like, while I have the opportunity, and while all the Brothers and Sisters who have come to Darjeeling are honoring the Flame of the Will of God, to announce to the mental and feeling world of mankind the cosmic truth that the will of God for all created things is good, that there is no such thing as a negative aspect to the will of the All-Mighty God, who created this planet, who filled it with sunshine, that it may bring forth its magnificent crops, and who created the great seas and mountains for the pleasure of its people.

Disease, old age, disintegration, poverty and even death, itself, are in INSULT to a Father of Love who would not create a beautiful planet, and then will upon the dearest of his creations—the souls of men—those appearances before which the proud heads of kings have bowed, as well as the humble heads of peasants, under the superstitious belief that the infliction of punishment was the will of a God of love.

A human father, bound round as he is with karma and a certain amount of selfishness, wills only good for his children—a human mother likewise. These human parents would not will disease, disintegrating forms, the bent backs of age, the sightless eyes, senility and death upon their offspring—HOW THEN, IN THE NAME OF RELIGION, IN THE NAME OF TRUTH, CAN THOSE WHO PROFESS TO REPRESENT THE GOD OF LIFE AND LOVE, WIPE ASIDE THE TEARS OF THEIR CONGREGATIONS WITH THE STATEMENT—”Accept ye the will of God!”

In the name of the All-Mighty God, I say—this shall cease to be! Mankind must—sometime in the near future—come to an understanding that the decadent flesh, the erring senses, the ebbing flow of life, the halting footsteps ARE A RESULT OF CAUSES SET UP BY THEMSELVES, through the use of free will in thought, in feeling, in spoken word and action which, through the fulfillment of the Law of the Circle, return to their creators for redemption—and not place before the throne of the Almighty the RESPONSIBILITY for the individual and collective, the national, international and planetary crimes which come back for redemption.

It is my service in the Celestial Hierarchy to convince those WHO WILL TO KNOW, that the God who made myself, the Elohim, the Archangels, the seraphim, and the cherubim; who made the universe with its galaxies and suns; who made each one of you; who made each bird and each flower—WILLED FOR EACH CREATED EXPRESSION THE MOST EXQUISITE PERFECTION—for a God that could EVEN THINK imperfection would be a travesty.

The will of God is for every man to be Master, a sun of freedom, the crown of the Elohim upon his head, the scepter of magnetization in his hand, the seamless robe of achievement upon his body, and the perfume of holiness—which is the reason for his being—radiating out through him as a benediction and a blessing to all life.

Every woman was created a Goddess, a vestal virgin, guarding the Sacred Fire within the homes, through love, through understanding, through kindness—every woman a priestess at her own hearth, the healing power flowing through her hands.

Every lifestream was created for this destiny—yet in hospitals, in mental institutions, in leper colonies, all over this green Earth, the lethargic consciousness of the masses has accepted the appearances of decay and distress, calling it “the will of God.” When man, through superstition and persuasion by his superiors, accepts an imperfect condition as the “will of God,” all effort to overcome ceases. The individual, lying down in the midst of his human creation, finds a certain solace and, forgive me, a certain spiritual pride in accepting the cross, the shackles, and the load, saying, “It is the will of my Father.”

You who have looked upon a cancerous wound, you who have seen a body attacked by leprosy—can you believe in your heart that such is the WILL OF GOD? that such is the will of the Father whom you have been taught is LOVE—LOVE INCONCEIVABLE—LOVE that has created you in its own likeness? Oh, my dear ones, look at your concept of God, straighten your spine, and recognize these human appearances for what they are—the spume of uncontrolled thoughts and feelings, stamped with the energy pattern of the individual in whose world they were created, sweeping out into the universe, collecting more of their kind, and returning into the mind and body of their creator, because this energy has to come back through the door whence it went out, for redemption. Remember that this energy returns in accordance with the Law of the Circle, and a man's karma may not necessarily be the returning energy of the present embodiment, but may be that sent out in the far distant past, because all energy sent out must return, sooner or later, to its projector for redemption.

Now, through the grace of God, you have the use of the magnificent activity of the Violet Transmuting Flame of Freedom's Love. Therefore, calmly go about setting your individual house in order, and refrain from the tendency of enjoying the returning karma of another, LEST YOU TIE INTO THAT KARMA by your very enjoyment—for that upon which you allow your attention to rest, YOU DRAW INTO YOUR WORLD. Some man is handling today the results of misspent energy in the past, another man stands straight and firm, financially secure, and can afford (?) to look with scorn upon the individual whose karmic retribution is at hand.

I can but say with Jesus, “Let him that is without sin cast the first stone!” No man, until he is Ascended, knows all that he has done in the past, thank God, and many, even in the Ascended State, do not choose to look back. I do not blame them. However, those of us in the Celestial Hierarchy who are working with the mankind of Earth, have the unenviable position of HAVING TO STUDY lifestreams before we can proffer our friendship, comradeship, and assistance—because, even as steel is tested before it leaves the refinery, lest a weak spot be found when it is builded into some great edifice, and that weakness endanger the whole, so when a new pattern is set up in the minds and hearts of the Hierarchy to bring truth to mankind—the lifestreams through whom they work, must be studied.

Just as you press upon a board before you stand on it to see if it will bear your weight, so do the Ascended Masters exert a certain pressure upon individuals, long before they even place their names before the Lord Maha Chohan, asking for an opportunity to reach them, and when those lifestreams are found, believe me, dear ones, we know every “knot hole” only too well. We know every strength, and every weakness, and how much weight it can bear, and do not think but that there are times when the pressure of human energy is so heavy that it takes our own hands and bodies to uphold the individual's weakness, until that particular crisis is past. As much as the Cosmic Law permits, beloved ones, we give—and oftentimes we entreat it for more.

I have represented to Sanat Kumara, Lord Maitreya and our Lord, the Maha Chohan, the logic which brought forth this present activity. THIS LOGIC WAS BASED ON THE FACT THAT THE MOST WELL-MEANING INDIVIDUALS CANNOT CONSCIOUSLY COOPERATE WITH THE ASCENDED MASTERS UNLESS HE KNOWS WHAT THEY ARE DOING—WHEN THEY ARE DOING IT—AND ARE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY, AT LEAST, TO EITHER ACCEPT OR REFUSE COOPERATION WITH THE ENDEAVOR (THE BRIDGE TO FREEDOM).

Intuition is fine, the inspirational way is magnificent, but man does not realize what a complex creation he is, nor how many thoughts and feelings rise, like smoke from his etheric past, from his emotional nature, from his mental accretions, and from his desire for personal power and his own aggrandizement. Therefore, for the ONE pure enough to live within his own heart flame in communion with his God-Self and, through the intuitive faculties, to complete his course, there are BILLIONS that have no way of getting back home except through the stumbling, blind mazes of human creation, running up and down without ever finding the way out.

IT WAS, THEREFORE, TO HELP THOSE WHO (I felt within myself) WOULD COOPERATE, THAT I APPROACHED THE KARMIC BOARD, the Cosmic Law itself, and my superiors, ASKING FOR JUST A LIMITED OPPORTUNITY TO TELL THEM OF THE ACTIVITIES IN WHICH WE ARE ENGAGED, TO SEE IF SOME SMALL ENERGIES WOULD CHOOSE TO COOPERATE WITH US. As I have told you before, even the great Maha Chohan, himself, was a bit skeptical, knowing the travails and disappointments I had endured on former occasions, when I had tried to bring cosmic truths to mankind—through their human prejudices, differing opinions and unbeliefs. Yet, I said I would try, and I have tried. I have reached your minds, your hearts and your feelings. I have made you my friend, and—because you are my friends—you have stood with us, you have opened the door through the magnetization of your decrees to the members of the Heavenly Host, and have drawn the words and the power of beings, SOME OF WHOM HAVE NOT SPOKEN TO THE MANKIND OF EARTH FOR MILLIONS OF YEARS.

This is what I desired to prove before the Karmic Board. This is a partnership in which men and women (karma-bound) and the God-free unite in one common purpose, that purpose so dear to my heart—TO RELEASE ONE WHO CAME FROM VENUS TO OUR BELOVED EARTH SO MANY AGES AGO TO SAVE HER AND HER PEOPLE, WHEN SHE WAS ABOUT TO BE DISSOLVED BY COSMIC LAW. Sanat Kumara, Lord of Love and Compassion, IS NOW, BY COSMIC LAW AND ORDER, RELEASED FROM HIS VOW OF SERVICE TO OUR PLANET, AND WILL BE FREE TO RETURN TO HIS OWN BELOVED STAR WITHIN A PERIOD OF THE NEXT TWENTY YEARS OR LESS.

Beloved friends, I offer to the Karmic Board your many accomplishments in this new endeavor as PROOF to the Hierarchy that mankind—enlightened—WILL SERVE.

Thank you, and God bless you forever. EL MORYA

BELOVED KUTHUMI'S REPORT

Beloved Brothers and Sisters of Light,

Would that the beloved Morya, himself, could describe to you the beauties of Darjeeling, set like a great jewel in the great heart of India. India! land of mighty opposites—extreme wealth and extreme poverty. It is to this India that you now come, with your love and light. Hold her people in your thoughts of love and light and freedom when you think of her. India, beloved, America is loving you tonight.

As we approach the beloved El Morya's beautiful palace, the magnificent doors, with the golden crest MR inscribed upon them, are thrown wide open in loving hospitality. We find the assembly hall already filled. Morya has had to resort to the same expedient as the other Masters in creating a vast amphitheater above his retreat, to take care of the great numbers of souls, incarnate and discarnate, drawn by the magnetic pull of attraction to the various Transmission Classes.

In the assembly hall, itself, the altar is composed of diamonds and sapphires, and the blazing flame of the Will of God stands upon it. In the amphitheater above, a replica of this altar has been erected, but of much larger size, made up of plain white and sapphire blue jewels, which are constantly emitting fire from their centers, so that this altar looks as though it were made of white and blue flame.

In the atmosphere above the planet stands the Elohim Hercules, who represents the cosmic force and fire of the will of God to this Earth.

All the members of the Celestial Hierarchy (with the exception of Sanat Kumara and the Lord Buddha) are in sapphire blue tonight. El Morya, himself is magnificent in this royal color, turban and all. Around his waist he wears a girdle of blue sapphires, and a gorgeous jewel of the same kind adorns his index finger, as he stands directing the action of the flame.

Many people have asked why I do not describe my own garments. The reason is, dear friends, that most of the time I just wear a long, plain, yellow robe.

The conscious chelas (present in their Higher Mental Bodies) wear, according to their rank, date of admission to the cause, and service, the color blue in its varying lighter shades. The somnambulant friends, who, by reason of some vague desire to know the will of God, hover about and become attached to the amphitheater, are in pale blue, shading into white.

The discarnates are also gathered here in great numbers, because of our efforts to remove the remaining number of these spirits from the atmosphere of Earth. A goodly number from the compound are also gathered here in one section.

Now as we start the service, and you breathe in and out the essence of the flame of the Will of God, try to visualize yourself as part of this magnificent activity at Darjeeling, and please, dear friends, if you have a moment tonight or through the month, think of our beloved India.

Good night and God bless you, each one.

Beloved Children of the One Father,

“Consciousness” is a word that has muddled the minds of metaphysical students almost since the beginning of time by its vagueness of expression, yet every lifestream in and out of the flesh, and every perfected being in God's Kingdom, is but a “state of consciousness.”

It is a very simple and clear expression, when carefully thought through and understood. WHAT YOU ARE CONSCIOUS OF IS YOUR STATE OF CONSCIOUSNESS. The man who is conscious only of the physical body and the appetites and passions of the senses, lives in the state of consciousness of the animal-man, or what is called the BODY CONSCIOUSNESS. The whole purpose of evolution is to develop a GODLY state of consciousness, in which the individual is only aware of that which is true and good and eternal.

When you come under the direction of the Spiritual Hierarchy, beloved ones, we begin to feed your consciousness, just as you would feed a very young mammal with a “medicine dropper,” and IF THE MIND IS OPEN TO NEW IDEAS, THE CONSCIOUSNESS BEGINS TO WIDEN. For instance, you are aware now that there are other spiritual beings who are interested in man's spiritual progress besides the Master Jesus, you are aware of the activities of the Sacred Fire provided by life for the undoing of your misdeeds, and the Sacred Fire of Mercy, which can be invoked to change your human qualities. Thus, the students under this activity have undergone an enlargement of consciousness, in their awareness of a broader and truer vision of the universe and, to use an earthly phrase, have learned to understand “what makes it tick.”

When Jesus admonished the people not to lay up riches on Earth, he meant to convey to them that the only activity of any lasting value to the lifestream's journey through the Earth plane was THE ENRICHING AND EXPANDING OF THE CONSCIOUSNESS, which would one day leave the body sheath for another realm, and again expand the consciousness in the new field. What a man does to perpetuate his body, his earthly fruitfulness, the physical comforts of himself or others, is unimportant except as it allows the consciousness of himself or those whom he serves to be enriched and unfolded thereby.

Here you have a fine line of demarcation: If you do physical labor to satisfy the outer self and the consciousness of either yourself or those for whom you labor, and it becomes filled with selfishness or vanity, you have STOLEN AND USED GOD'S LIFE IN VAIN—but if you do physical labor to relieve or release another lifestream from the pressure of that labor, that their consciousness of God might grow, and you perpetuate a higher state of being in a series of lifestreams aspiring Godward, then YOU ARE SERVING A GOOD PURPOSE. Remember always, that man's only true service is to EXPAND THE GODLY CONSCIOUSNESS through ALL life, and this includes the three kingdoms simultaneously evolving on the Earth plane. ANY OTHER SERVICE IS A MISTAKEN ONE. If you will ask, beloved ones, for the Ascended Jesus Christ consciousness, you will find that much revelation and illumination will flow into your thinking and feeling worlds in a natural manner, that will be truly the greatest teacher you could have.

Beloved Ones of Light,

I have thought you might enjoy an account of the activities that take place at inner levels during the great ceremony preceding the initiation of birth. This scene is enacted each year in the month of May, WHEN ALL THE SOULS DESTINED FOR RE-EMBODIMENT DURING THE COMING TWELVE-MONTH PERIOD ARE ASSEMBLED TOGETHER IN A MIGHTY EDIFICE CALLED THE TEMPLE OF THE SACRED HEART, so named because it is here that the hearts which hold the life spark of the physical bodies, in which these souls will dwell during their sojourn on the Earth plane, are blessed by the beloved Master Mary, which loving service to life has earned for her the title of “Universal Mother.”

I now offer you, in the words of the mighty Uriel, an eye-picture of what goes on during the solemn ceremony when these millions of souls take the vow of obedience to life, DEDICATE THEIR ENERGIES WHILE IN EMBODIMENT TO THE SERVICE OF THEIR INDIVIDUAL GOD-PRESENCES, and are blessed by various members of the Celestial Hierarchy, before they retire for a short while in preparation for the great initiation of physical birth.

As you read it, beloved ones, do not dismiss it from your minds as just so much knowledge given for your entertainment, but rather hold these souls in your prayers, asking that the proper parents, homes and environment await these hopeful hearts. They come from the octaves of light to serve mankind, but—with the bands of forgetfulness on their brows, many, through the homes and environments in which they find themselves, DO NOT REMEMBER THEIR MISSION DURING THE ENTIRE EMBODIMENT. Call for their awakening and illumination, and in this way you will be doing your share in helping to fulfill the divine plan for our beloved planet.

ADDRESS BY THE BELOVED ARCHANGEL URIEL

(Dictation given on May 8, 1955)

Beloved Friends,

Today we have the magnificent service which it is my honor to describe to you—the service of drawing forth in the Sacred Heart Temple the millions of souls who will be called upon to pass through the gates of birth during this next twelve-month period.

Let me take you now on the wings of your own free consciousness, to leave for a little while the fetters of flesh, the worries of mind, the turmoil of human feelings, and—dressed in your seamless robes of white—be, not only spectators, but a part of the blessing upon those lifestreams who are coming into the Earth theater at a time when great strength and great love shall be required of them.

This Temple of the Sacred Heart is under the direction of the beloved Mary, mother of the Master Jesus. Great fields of long, waving, green grass stretch out from the building in all directions, and immediately surrounding it are gardens filled with all the beautiful flowers representative of those which bloom in your own gardens.

The souls destined for re-embodiment and dedication may be seen now, dressed in white garments, making their way singly and in groups through these pleasant meadows, and so we approach the temple.

As we come closer, we see the beloved Mary, whose service to life is to fashion the heart, the actual physical heart of the body in which each soul destined for re-embodiment on Earth will dwell. She stands at the great open doors of the temple with arms stretched out in welcome, and is smiling as she looks upon the approaching souls, who are shortly to be born through pain into the world of form, WRAPPED IN THE BONDS OF FORGETFULNESS—bringing with them vows, talents, accomplishments, developed capacities and gifts which only God, alone, knows they will ever develop. She looks radiantly beautiful, robed in garments of soft, delicate pink, her golden hair lying loosely upon her shoulders. Upon her head is a wreath of small, pink violets.

At Mary's right stands the beloved Vesta, beautiful Goddess of our physical Sun, dressed in snowy white garments, a garland of white blossoms on her lovely head. On Mary's left stands the Lady Venus, beautiful mother of love, robed in cerulean blue, flowers of the same celestial color adorning her long, golden hair.

Now, as these souls approach the temple, beloved ones, they are those who have been summoned for rebirth. In each year, so much of the karma that remains in the atmosphere of Earth must be dissolved; therefore, it is necessary that many of the lifestreams who created it must be sent back into the world of form, and be given opportunities to face conditions, and find acquittal for that karma. These are the ones who are SUMMONED by the Karmic Board and are reluctant to go.

Then there are the conscious chelas of the Masters, those who represent the Chohans of the Rays and others who have studied at the temples in the inner spheres. These latter are filled with the blazing light of zeal and enthusiasm, that enthusiasm which you, too, once knew before you found the flesh so heavy and reluctant. These are the souls who have applied to and petitioned the Karmic Board for opportunity to embody, and as there is no favoritism in divine justice, these also come under the law that out of every three applicants, two are rejected and one accepted.

Now, as we approach the ceremony, I would like you to stop and think, dear ones, and feel deep within yourselves what it means when you have lived in the “Elysian fields,” when you have looked upon the face of the Father, when you have felt the enveloping love of the angels, when you have seen NOT “through a glass darkly,” but face to face, when you have experimented with and completed some magnificent musical composition, some daring invention, some glorious architectural temple, some magnificent religious contribution, or perhaps some political manifestation, and you stand in your full freedom offering your all to life—then to be born into this world of form a helpless infant without even the gift of focused sight, working by sense, by instinct, coming gradually into possession just of the faculties of the body—what a degradation that is for a proud intelligence.

Sometimes a whole lifetime goes by without the soul ever getting conscious possession of the dream, the vision, the vow, for which the Lords of Karma allowed it embodiment—denying two others, who, perhaps had they come, might have had tenacity enough of spirit, selflessness enough of purpose, vocation deep enough within the heart to have done that which the one who came had left undone.

You, for whom the veil has been rent, you, who have enjoyed the Elysian fields, you, who have been reminded in the days of your strength of that which is your purpose and design, I say you are more fortunate than the millions who have gone before, who have stumbled in darkness and blindness, century after century, feeling in their hearts the unrest and the hidden knowledge THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING TO BE DONE, but finding no door of consciousness open to tell them what to do and how to do it.

May God grant that there may be some individuals still in embodiment advanced enough and interested enough to spark the light of the souls who stand before Mary today, and fan it into living flame when they reach maturity on the Earth plane—that they might be able to say with the beloved Jesus, “For this was I born, for this reason came I into the world of form—that I may manifest the truth.” May each one be able to pray within himself, “O! All glory be to the One Eternal Father, that his mercy has caused me to remember my obligations to life before the sands of my time have run out, while here is still breath in these nostrils, life in these loins, while I have yet strength and energy, the power of speech and feeling and the capacity to make things right!”

Oh, lovely ones, I have so often seen souls return who, like these standing here today at inner levels, had much light, which had been swallowed up by the riptides of billions of men and women's thinking, the effluvia of the age attaching itself to their various weaknesses, wrapping itself around them, until the day of opportunity had come and gone. Then, their brief time upon the stage of life past, their speeches unsaid, their compositions unplayed, their role unfilled, they returned home. Your poet spoke truly when he said, “Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: ‘It might have been.’”

Oh, beloved ones, on behalf of those who come to Earth now, I ask a heart-prayer from deep within your being, that each incoming soul shall be such a light and fire, such a presence, that within the course of that one Earth life, not only one, but millions of Christ Beings will be developed.

Now, if you will notice, the seven Chohans stand within the center of the great group of souls who are seeking re-embodiment. As we described it to you last year, their formation takes the appearance of a gigantic seven-pointed star, each group looking something like the wedge of a great pie, the wide part forming the circle at the center within which the Chohans stand, each One confronting his own people, the formation narrowing outward until it reaches the point of the star.

Viewed from a distance, this great start-shaped formation of human souls presents a most magnificent aspect, each section appearing in the color of the ray under which it is developing. Last year, all the participants wore pink, but this year it was decided that each individual wear the color of his or her ray, each of the seven great Chohans appearing in the deepest and truest color of his respective ray.

Every member of this vast concourse of souls faces inward, toward the circle in the center of the star where the seven Chohans stand facing outward, toward their people. Those closest in proximity to the Masters are the trained, developed chelas, who will be the leaders of the future, in their particular fields of endeavor.

Facing the Master Morya, mighty Chohan of the First Ray, are the great statesmen and governmental heads of tomorrow. These are dressed in deep sapphire blue, blending into the lighter shades as this section of the star reaches the outermost point.

Next, we have the beloved Kuthumi, great Chohan of the Second Ray. This Master is in deep gold, as are also his trained chelas in the first rows, who are the teachers and educators of the future. The gold in this section gradually changes to almost white at the point.

Facing Paul, known as The Venetian, beloved Chohan of the Third Ray, are the exponents of universal brotherhood, the utopia that is to manifest on Earth. In this group, also, are all those interested in the various arts. The color of this section runs from the deep, deep rose of the Master and his close disciples, to the very pale pink at the farthest point.

Fronting Serapis, great Chohan of the Fourth Ray, are all those vitally interested in the resurrection and the ascension, the ones nearest to him, of course, being his trained chelas. The majority of souls in this class will gravitate to the esoteric circles of the future. This section is all white, from the sparkling garments of those in front, to the almost eggshell shade farther out.

The great Hilarion, Chohan of the Fifth Ray, is next. Both he and his trained chelas in the front row are in deep emerald green, graduating to the paler shades near the point. In this group are the future scientists, missionaries, men of medicine and inventors, the hope of the New Age.

In the next section we have the beloved Jesus, great Chohan of the Sixth Ray. His chelas are those who will work in the same activity as my own—ministration. In this portion of the star we have a two-fold color scheme—ruby and gold—the Master, himself, appearing in deep pink-ruby in honor of the Sacred Heart Temple, and beloved Mary, who is the presiding Master of that temple.

The beloved Saint Germain, Chohan of the great Seventh Ray, occupies the section between the beloved Jesus and El Morya. He looks magnificent, as usual, in deep royal purple, his chelas appearing in a slightly lighter shade. The balance of people in his section will, he hopes, feed into his activity in the days to come. This portion of the star presents a most beautiful aspect, ranging as it does from the deep purple to a delicate violet at the point.

In each section, a fairly wide aisle separates the “volunteer souls” from those summoned by Cosmic Law to fulfill part of their unfinished obligations to life by re-incarnation on the Earth plane. A great band of angelic beings from each of the seven spheres, clothed in the magnificent colors of their rays, surrounds each section of the star.

While the souls in the seven divisions have been getting into place, and the seven Chohans have been taking their positions, a great band of mighty spirits has been convening in the very center of the star, to offer their blessing and encouragement to the departing units. These include the beloved Vesta and the Lady Venus, the Lord Buddha and Lord Maitreya, the Maha Chohan with Pallas Athena, the Archangels and Archaii, the beloved Mary, beloved Portia, and many other Great Ones.

Following the procedure of last year, I will now ask the group to sing of the opportunities to serve offered on the Earth plane, which, coming from incarnated spirits, should give certain encouragement to those about to go thither (audience rises and sings “Opportunity to Call”).

Thank you, beloved ones. Will you now sing the “RESPONSE” in that beautiful consecration song, dedicated to the beloved Raphael? Please render this verse SEVEN TIMES. As you sing, each Chohan will have his people bend the knee before the mighty beings at the center of the star to receive their blessing and benediction (audience sings “Consecrate me to Earth's great victory, Lift her strain and her stress, By Light's great happiness. Every heart sings, as our Raphael brings, Healing in his great wings.”).

Thank you, beloved ones. As this great ceremony proceeds and the activity of benediction enfolds everyone present, we have with us again the visitors from other stars and planets, volunteers, willing to take incarnation on Earth for the purpose of setting the beloved Sanat Kumara free. They all stand to one side, their eyes like great luminous orbs and their whole beings brilliant with inner light. They wear shimmering robes of dazzling whiteness, studded with stars. The Karmic Board accepts very few of these great spirits due to the great sacrifice it would entail on their part. Last year a beautiful golden-haired Buddha was accepted and lives somewhere on Earth today in a child's body. May God protect him.

Beloved Children,

This month, as we honor the Flame of Precipitation within the beloved Lanto's retreat in the heart of the Royal Teton, I would remind you that this flame holds within itself every good thing that the heart of man could desire and that the manifestations of every conscious individual, whether they still walk the Earth or enjoy the glories of heaven, come through the use of this great gift of God.

It has been said, “Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath it entered into the heart of man, the things that God hath prepared for those who love him.” Know you not, dear ones, that the glory of God's Kingdom is LIMITLESS; you do not deplete it by drawing it forth—rather do you add to its splendor, when you expand its borders through your conscious use of the power of precipitation, the flame of which burns in the secret chamber of your heart, and to which you have free access every moment of your lives. Call it forth, and command it to bring into manifestation for you the peace, the happiness, the health of mind and body and the prosperity which you desire, possession of which is your divine birthright.

As you study beloved Kuthumi's report of the activities of the Transmission Flame Ceremony, will you go in consciousness to where this Precapitating Flame is exposed and active, and let it stimulate and expand the power of acceptance of its beneficent presence in your beings and worlds. USE THIS FLAME, I IMPLORE YOU, my children, and free yourselves from the limitations of the flesh.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved and Blessed Friends of Light and Love,

I bring you greetings and blessings from the hosts of heaven, the beloved Lanto and the Brotherhood of the Royal Teton, as well as their gratitude for your sincere and deep interest in these half-yearly councils where the Great Karmic Board meets to listen to the ideas, the petitions, the visions and plans of members of the Ascended Host who have dedicated themselves to the upliftment of the mankind of Earth, as well as to the petitions and ideas of unascended beings who are now consciously aware of these activities.

As I stood here this evening, my thoughts went back a FEW SHORT YEARS AGO, WHEN VIRTUALLY NO UNASCENDED BEING EVER ATTENDED THESE COUNCILS, OR KNEW OF THESE PETITIONS, OR, IF THEY DID, WOULD HAVE THE AUDACITY TO PETITION THE KARMIC BOARD, themselves, while yet wearing the chains of karma in the flesh, and, more important still, before unascended beings stood in their inner bodies before this august, impersonal, impassive body and actually CONVINCED them that there were embodied men and women willing to make great enough sacrifice that dispensations, grants, and gifts of mercy, for which petitions have been made for thousands of years without success, have been handed down within the period of the LAST THREE YEARS in such proportion that it certainly makes our Earth a happier place from the inner standpoint, and as that radiation flows, a happier place without, as well.

As you proceed on your holy pilgrimage now to honor the Great Teton Gathering, each of you investing your time, money, and energies—nay, your very selves—in the endeavor, may the infinite blessings of the Lord Buddha, Lord Maitreya and the entire Heavenly Host go with you, and may you return rested in body, strengthened in spirit, and with a record of “work well done” written across your etheric body.

Tonight, we turn our attention Westward—to the Great Teton—where so many of you gathered one short year ago. We honor that magnificent, natural cathedral, rising like a beautiful spire into the heart of heaven, and visualize over it that invisible ladder of light, down which Lord Michael walked, accompanied by the Manu and the children of the first root race who trod this Earth, so many long ages ago.

The Karmic Board has assembled ahead of their usual time this year, in order to attend the Transmission Flame Class. Their thrones are all constructed of deep, green emerald. On the back of each is a great jewel, representative of the color of the ray to which the occupant belongs. The central throne, occupied by the beloved Portia, as spokesman for the board, is decorated with a large purple amethyst, the color of her ray. She, herself, is robed in the same deep royal purple. The other members of the board are in that exquisite Chinese green, in honor of the beloved Lanto and his brotherhood.

You will remember, we told you last year that seven great chambers had been hewn out of the mountain around the central chamber, so that now the entire effect resembles a gigantic sunflower, the large central room representing the stamen and the surrounding chambers, the petals.

The added rooms are closed, except on very important occasions. They are shut off by means of beautiful tapestry curtains, woven by chelas in Persia and India, with a picture of an Archangel and his Archaii in the exquisite colors of their rays depicted on each curtain, making seven in all. These figures are woven into each side of the curtains so that when they are drawn back from the center, as they are tonight, you see the beautiful Archangel figures seeming to guard the entrance to each of these seven chambers.

The great altar is in Chinese ivory, and around its base are plaques on which the story of creation is featured in embossed gold. First you see the coming of Lord Michael and the first Manu, with his people, next the second Manu with his people, and after that the third. The frieze is not completed, as only the first, second and third root races have completed their mission and returned home—the fourth, fifth and sixth still walk the Earth, while the seventh is yet to come. When all these have fulfilled their mission, the remaining plaques will be filled in.

The Hierarchy has presented the Brotherhood with a magnificent brazier of the purest jade, encrusted with emeralds, to hold the flame which is blazing high now, showing a center of gold with an outer radiation of green.

The seven Chohans, with their chelas and constituents, occupy the side chapels. They are all clothed in the glorious colors of their respective rays.

In the central chamber are placed the thrones of Sanat Kumara, the Lord Buddha, Lord Maitreya and the Archangels. Three messengers from the Sun of Helios and Vesta are also enthroned here and thrones have been prepared likewise for messengers from the Great Central Sun, who, the council hopes, will attend before the assembly is dismissed.

Saint Germain is at the organ tonight, looking the very embodiment of music as he sends forth the delightful melodies of the inner realms. He also plays your Freedom Flame song.

The radiation around Sanat Kumara is tremendous. Already the room is filled with countless tiny duplicates of the Precipitation Flame, which will be catapulted over the entire Earth when the breathing activity begins. Accept them as a gift from the Lord of Life, dear ones.

God bless you, each one.

Beloved Maha Chohan

July 24, 1955

Beloved Children,

For our Transmission Flame Ceremony this month (July 16th, 1955), the angel devas erected over the beautiful Manor House in Transylvania, a magnificent amphitheater of a deep purple marble-like substance, studded with amethysts, sufficiently large to accommodate the vast numbers of visitors from the various realms (Ascended and unascended), who now honor us with their presence each month, drawn by their interest in what this activity means to the evolution of life on the planet Earth and its possibilities in hastening evolution on other stars.

The Archangel Zadkiel, in his glorious robes of royal purple, stood in the atmosphere over the structure, pouring his radiance over the entire European Continent.

Officiating as directors of the Freedom Flame, were the Great Divine Director and the Goddess of Opportunity (the beloved Lady Portia).

Saint Germain, himself, addressed the assembly, using the amplified energy of the flame to project his words into the consciousness of the gathered multitude, as well as into that of mankind in general, directing it particularly to the chelas in their various sanctuaries and homes, who were turned into the proceedings.

In his discourse he stressed—forcibly—the power that lies within the flame that beats every human heart. Give careful attention to his words, beloved ones, for within them is the freedom that all mankind is seeking.

BELOVED ASCENDED MASTER SAINT GERMAIN speaks:

Beloved Friends,

I AM THE SPIRIT OF FREEDOM! I bring to you tonight a REMEMBRANCE of the fact that you are FREE-BORN—free-born out of the bosom of the Eternal Father, invested with the same Immortal Flame of Life by which every God-Intelligence that has ever attained perfection won his or her freedom. Within your hearts is the flame by which the Archangels soar, in their passage from one sphere to another, to the realms of the Sun behind the Sun.

Within your hearts is the flame by which the Mighty Elohim of Creation project their ideas into the manifest world. Within your hearts is the flame by which every sun god and goddess in the universe create and sustain their solar systems.

You are free-born, dear people, in the use of life and light, in the use of thought and feeling, which are your instruments of creation. You are also free to walk either in the ways of men, or of angels, and to transfer—through radiation and example—this freedom to others.

Through the atmosphere of Earth tonight, I CALL, in the great NAME OF FREEDOM, to every man, woman, and child, every angel and elemental evolving in one form or another on the Earth's surface—

YE ARE FREE-BORN! ARISE NOW AND ASSERT YOUR DOMINION! THROW OFF THE SHACKLES OF YOUR INDIVIDUAL IMAGININGS! SQUARE YOUR SHOULDERS! PREPARE TO WEAR THE ROBES OF FREEDOM! AND GIVE THIS FREEDOM BY THE POWER OF RADIATION AND CONTAGION TO YOUR FELLOWMAN! I CHARGE AND CHARGE AND CHARGE YOU THIS NIGHT WITH THE MOST POWERFUL PRESSURE OF THE FREEDOM FLAME THAT HAS EVER BEEN KNOWN OUTSIDE OF A RETREAT.

ACCEPT IT DEEPLY WITHIN THE ENERGIES OF YOUR BEINGS AND FEEL THAT FLAME REGULATE, FOR YOU, THE ATMOSPHERIC CONDITIONS IN WHICH YOU LIVE, YOUR PERSONAL AFFAIRS, YOUR RELATIONSHIP TO THE GODHEAD AND GIVE YOU THE ASCENDED MASTER CONSCIOUSNESS WHILE YOU STILL WALK THE EARTH! THE COSMIC LAW DEMANDS THAT MY VOICE BE HEARD NOW BY THE MANKIND OF THIS PLANET, WHICH IS DESTINED BY SANAT KUMARA TO BE FREEDOM'S STAR, BUT YOU ARE ALSO MY LIPS, MY VOICE, MY MESSAGE. YOU ARE MY RADIATION AND THE POWER OF CONVICTION THAT WILL SHOW MANKIND, BY YOUR WORD AND EXAMPLE, THE FREEDOM THAT IS WITHIN THE VIOLET RAY. UPON YOU I DEPEND FOR THAT FREEDOM EXPRESSED.

Now, beloved friends, with your permission, I will give you an object lesson on the power of precipitation:

First, you must realize that in order to become masters of energy, it is necessary TO USE THE INSTRUMENTS OF POWER with which we were endowed in the beginning, to both draw and dispense energy. These powers, beloved ones, are symbolized by the CROWN and the SCEPTER.

The SCEPTER is the symbol of the Rod of POWER. This is the same symbol that Sanat Kumara uses to keep this planet and its people from flying off into space. It is also symbolical of the Rod of Aaron, mentioned in your Scriptures.

The CROWN is symbolical of the RAISED CONSCIOUSNESS.

Within yourself, the scepter is your POWER OF INVOCATION, the power of concentrating your energies in mental or physical invocation on the higher octaves, by which concentration the currents from above are drawn down and charged and charged and charged into the condition to be rectified.

At the same time, the heart and mind (consciousness) MUST BECOME STILL LONG ENOUGH to let the Presence of God reveal to and through you, that which should be done in the particular situation which prompted your call.

All the power of the scepter is worthless unless there is a receptacle (crown) into which the concentrated energies may be released, transubstantiated and prepared for dissemination to mankind.

The power of the crown is likewise worthless without the invocative power of the scepter.

When you combine the two activities—the power of invocation (scepter) with the quiet and reverent listening of the raised consciousness (crown)—you will have a completed operation, otherwise it is only half-finished, which is the main reason there are not more satisfactory results from calls.

You see, dear ones, if you are so busy with your “scepter” that your “crown” is in a constant state of motion, making it impossible for your brain to catch the message from above, WHAT GOOD WOULD YOU BE IN AN EMERGENCY?

On the other hand, if you are busy visualizing ephemeral temples, flitting from cloud to cloud in a “personal escape,” not willing to draw down the light either from your Presence or from the angels, you have also “missed the mark.” It is the MIDDLE WAY ALONE that brings results and marks a safe pathway for your journey.

Beloved Children, So Dear to My Heart,

Will you please open your minds and hearts this day to the stream of love which I consciously direct to you from my own God-free heart and consciousness, which holds within it the desire of the Cosmic Holy Spirit (whose representative I have the great honor to be) for your full illumination and freedom from all the limitation of the appearance world, through the authority of the Immortal Flame in your hearts, which is your real self?

Beloved ones, the cooperation on the planet Earth today between unascended beings and the Brotherhood of Ascended, God-free Beings, IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN IT HAS EVER BEEN. The great Chohans and all those who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of hastening the evolution of the race, are so cognizant and aware of the SHORT TIME given them in which to imbue, develop, and bring to full maturity every embryonic spirit capable of taking its place as a light bearer, that they are STRAINING EVERY EFFORT IN THEIR ENDEAVORS TO ACQUAINT MANKIND WITH NOT ONLY THE IMPORTANCE, BUT ALSO THE LATENESS, OF THE HOUR.

The Earth people (incarnate and discarnate) are divided into seven types, and the Lords of Karma, themselves, have issued a fiat to the representatives of the seven rays (the Chohans) that they MUST, in some way, SECURE THE COOPERATION OF THE MEMBERS OF THE RACE who are evolving under their rays, that these people, through understanding and the desire to cooperate with life, may render all the assistance possible, in the awakening of their fellowmen to the need of fulfilling their divine plan in the short period of time allotted for this purpose.

IN LIKE MANNER, THE SEVEN ARCHANGELS HAVE BEEN DIRECTED BY

THE KARMIC BOARD WITH REGARD TO THE MORE SPEEDY EVOLUTION OF THE ANGELIC KINGDOM, AND THE GREAT DEVIC LORDS HAVE BEEN SO NOTIFIED WITH REGARD TO THE SPEEDING UP OF THE NATURE AND ELEMENTAL KINGDOMS.

It is what you may call a “COSMIC ULTIMATUM” to all those who took the responsibility of developing an evolution, and these beings, in turn, are pushing the outer representatives of themselves to their fullest capacity, inspiring them to do all that is humanly possible to make a personable presentation before the Cosmic Law. So you will see, dear ones, that there is “hustle and bustle” in heaven, compared to which the “hustle and bustle” of the physical octave is as a straw before the wind.

That which is required of the awakened individual is simply that he abide by the Law of Love in his everyday existence, as was exemplified by the beloved Jesus at the beginning of the Christian Dispensation. In this way, he will encourage his fellowman to put on the garment of grace, as well as increase, by his own presence, the luminosity of the Earth, MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR HER TO FULFILL THE FIAT OF THE COSMIC LAW BY RADIATING THE FULL ALLOTMENT OF LIGHT REQUIRED TO HOLD HER RIGHTFUL PLACE IN THE SOLAR SYSTEM. Mankind, as a whole, rarely recognizes a “cosmic moment” until after it has passed, and the Earth and her people are called upon to pass such an initiation at the present time. The admonition, “He that hath ears to hear, let him hear,” might be heeded with advantage by the present generation.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children,

When an individual THINKS of an Ascended Master, the light ray, (which is his thought), proceeds immediately to the heart center of that Master's presence, with the same degree of accuracy that a telegraphic beam is directed from the wires to a distant city, or to a boat in mid-ocean. From the heart of the aspirant there flows forth a steady stream of electrons without number, and these form a beam or current, which connects the thinker with the Master's heart, and so provides a natural current over which the Master's assistance and radiation ride back into the life, the experience and the consciousness of the student. Thus, often, in times of stress or strain, when one has not the time to phrase a specified request or requirement, the chela, by directing his attention to the Master, can set up this connection with just a simple prayer or invocation, and the Master's light will return on that current of energy to give the protection, the illumination, or the radiation required.

If the student could realize how instantaneous is the connection established with the Master by his call, and the return of protection offered, he would truly know that the statement of the beloved Jesus, "Lo, 'I AM' with you always," was more than a mere paraphrase of the words "I AM."

Once an individual, unascended, has the privilege of becoming cognizant of any group of Perfected Beings, the angelic host or the Spiritual Hierarchy, HE IS NEVER ALONE AGAIN, because he knows that every time he requires definite guidance or assistance, the response to his call will bring immediate help, and the Master's radiation will flow into his life and out through him, into the condition requiring assistance (if he is making the call on behalf of someone else).

If the students were to practice making this contact with the presence of the Masters more often, they would find themselves much less influenced by the appearance world, and free from the terror and uncertainty that the outer world creates in the feeling nature, when they allow their thoughts to dwell on discordant expressions.

Many people have felt the instantaneous release of light by the use of just the NAME OF JESUS, and the ancient members of the human race were in constant communication with Sanat Kumara through the reverent repetition of that august title. The use of these holy names later became degraded into curses, but we are hoping now that the use of the words representative of the sacred titles and names of the Ascended Host may come again to mean a powerful and potent force in the lifestream choosing to EXPERIMENT with this portion of the Cosmic Law.

Beloved ones, in traveling life's pathway, upon which are found many obstacles due to past karma, it is a wise student who accepts the advice and guidance of those of us who have trod the same highway and successfully finished our journey. As one joyfully anticipates the visit of a well-loved friend, SO DO WE LISTEN FOR THE SOUND OF OUR NAMES VIBRATING THROUGH THE ETHERS, WHICH TELLS US THAT SOME BELOVED FRIEND STILL ON THE EARTH PLANE IS EITHER SENDING US THOUGHTS OF LOVE OR ASKING OUR ASSISTANCE, TO BOTH OF WHICH WE INSTANTLY RESPOND.

Beloved Children,

Our beloved Morya acted as commentator on the occasion of the current month's Transmission Flame Ceremony, and it gives me pleasure to present his description of these activities to you. He also delivered a most timely and pertinent address on the PLANETARY CHANGES TAKING PLACE AT THE PRESENT TIME DUE TO THE STRAIGHTENING OF THE EARTH'S AXIS, resulting, as you are aware, in hurricanes and other disturbances of a destructive nature on the Earth's surface, and he gave WAYS AND MEANS BY WHICH THESE MAY BE RELIEVED THROUGH THE ENERGIES OF THE STUDENTS, IN DECREES. This important address will go to you in next week's "Bulletin," but now I know you are all eager to get the monthly report on the Transmission Flame Ceremony, so dear to all our hearts. But in the meantime, make your calls to the great beings who govern the elements, for the forgiveness, purification, peace, and cooperation of the forces of nature.

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Let us now project our consciousness (see note) to the beloved Venetian's retreat in the heart of France. It is approximately two-forty-five in the morning over there, and the sleeping inhabitants are not aware of the friends from all over the world who have landed in their midst. Look for a moment with your mind's eye at the beauty of the Chateau de Liberte', home of our beloved Paul, and listen to the music and song of the magnificent choir, combined of the energies of the greatest artists of the musical world, as well as those of the Ascended Beings particularly concerned with the Third Ray.

The Chateau, itself, is ablaze with light, for the great occasion of the Transmission Flame Ceremony, which enhances the beauty of the marble columns, entwined with climbing roses, and see you the stars reflected in the shining water of the beautiful fountains and clear pools.

As we enter the great hall, I will ask you FEEL the pulsation of the Liberty Flame on the tessellated marble floor, coming from the subterranean chamber where It is focused. Feel the vibration of that flame, which has inspired every pioneer and patriot who has ever followed the Flame of Freedom. Feel the subtle radiation pulsating from within the heart of France, which inspired the pilgrim fathers and others to follow their destiny to the new world of freedom. We will now ascend to the great balcony, where our beloved host greets us lovingly, and where many of the great guests of the evening are assembled.

The devic builders of form have erected over the Chateau an amphitheater as large as the whole Continent of Europe, including Russia. This is circular in form and on an altar of exquisite pink marble in its exact center stands the Great Freedom Flame, pouring its radiation over the assembled guests. Above it, in the atmosphere, stands the Archangel Chamuel with the beloved Nada in attitudes of adoration and the beloved Paul himself is now preparing the enter the heart of the Great Liberty Flame.

Around the flame stand the Ascended Masters, members of the angelic host, and the inner bodies of the chelas who have consciously projected themselves here. These form a wall of protection for the millions of distressed souls from all over the planet who are calling secretly to the God of Light for freedom. They cluster close around the flame like moths around a candle, and their inner bodies would be singed, were it not for the protection given by the Spiritual Hierarchy.

As the members of the Heavenly Host and conscious chelas pour the wealth of their consciousness into the flame, the glorious plumes of pink and gold and blue surge up into the atmosphere, and as the breathing activity commences, its radiation enfolds the entire planet in its liberating essence.

My love and gratitude enfolds you, each one.

NOTE ON PROJECTED CONSCIOUSNESS: ALL THE STUDENTS PARTICIPATING IN THE TRANSMISSION FLAME ACTIVITY ARRIVED AT PAUL THE VENETIAN'S RETREAT, EITHER SINGLY OR IN GROUPS, PROJECTED ON THE WINGS OF THEIR OWN FORCEFIELDS. THESE FORCEFIELDS, CONSCIOUSLY DRAWN OVER THEIR HOMES OR SANCTUARIES, AND BUILT THROUGH THE ENERGIES OF THEIR CALLS, ACT IN EACH CASE AS A "MAGIC CARPET" TO TRANSPORT THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE STUDENTS TO ANY GIVEN POINT ON THE EARTH'S SURFACE WHERE THEIR ENERGIES ARE NEEDED, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE LEADER. WHEN THE SERVICE IS RENDERED, THE STUDENTS CONSCIOUSLY ENTER THE CONVEYANCE SUPPLIED BY THE ENERGY OF THE FORCEFIELD AND RETURN TO THEIR STARTING POINT.

Beloved Maha Chohan

September 4, 1955

Beloved Children on the Path,

It is my pleasure to submit for your contemplation and instruction my beloved Morya's address, delivered on the evening of the Transmission Flame Activity at the beloved Paul's retreat. ACCORDING TO YOUR FAITH IN OUR COOPERATION AND YOUR PERSEVERANCE IN THE RELEASE OF YOUR ENERGIES THROUGH YOUR CALLS, WILL THE PRESENT PLANETARY CHANGES TAKE PLACE WITHOUT UNDUE DISCOMFORT EITHER TO THE EARTH OR TO ITS PEOPLE.

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Ladies and Gentlemen of Spirit,

I come to you tonight on the wings of love, for love has secured for me (through certain, gentle persuasion) permission to be your spokesman this evening. I would like to tell you that of all the qualities I desire most in a chela, is that of Spirit, for the chela with spirit can become the chela WITH LOVE. From among the mankind of Earth, whom, as Chohan, I have the honor and privilege to represent, I have always chosen those lifestreams who have shown a momentum of spirit to become the "spearhead" of any activity, because their fire and enthusiasm are needed to break through the lethargic radiation of the masses, and create the fire and flame in those whom they contact, which transmutes that lethargy into LIGHT. In any important undertaking an individual MUST have spirit if he is to succeed.

In the past, in India and in the Orient, when looking over a great number of wild horses, I would always choose those with spirit—those which others would be of the opinion could not be broken to harness or saddle—those that I knew, WITH TRAINING, COULD LEARN when love and trust in their master were grounded in their hearts.

That love and trust, I shall, with the help of God, establish within the center of your beings, beloved ones, with such intensity, that when I speak, you know that which I give to you is the Word of the Eternal God and for the furtherance of the evolution of the race. I have no other reason for being but to interpret the will of God through the Great White Brotherhood, the angelic host, the elemental kingdom, and those few alert, free and strong individuals who have raised their heads above the masses and desire to know that will first hand.

Without a reason for being, an individual is like a piece of driftwood cast upon the current, and riding upon the prevailing tide. With a definite reason for being, I have known individuals to even forswear the mercy and rest of so-called death, remaining for hundreds of years in one embodiment ONLY that the anchorage of their flame might carry the radiation and the power of THEIR REASON FOR BEING, into the mental, feeling, etheric, and physical substance of the Earth.

Beloved ones, you have done well. You have now the wisdom born of understanding. You have a workable knowledge of the Law. You are learning the mastery of invocation, builded through many years of selfless service, and you have developed the capacity to recognize the individual as being important to the whole race, in the new spiritual frontier that you face.

One day, upon my path, I, myself, learned the lesson that the individual soul, the individual heart, and the separate “selves” that made up my company (as part of an army), were important too. It was then that I began to emphasize and expand the capacity of developing and refining the individual unit, and thus I learned that the power which I held within my hands was a thousand times more effective than the power I wielded before. That is the activity in which you are presently engaged, for the mankind of Earth (who are to be the light of the world) are these individuals, each part of the great whole, who must be cultivated and won—by kindness, understanding, and tolerance—into self-mastery. Each individual's flame as it expands through the understanding radiance of your word and example, becomes the light of the world—a part of the ransom to be paid for the Lord of the World. Working together now with all the power of your combined and determined tenacity and with all the power of your controlled will, blended in a pressure of love, tolerance and understanding, you will develop, individually and collectively, an even balance of that Immortal Threefold Flame which we honor tonight.

I AM DELIGHTED IN THE EXTREME, WITH THE EFFICACY OF YOUR PROJECTION OF CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE COSMIC PROTECTION THAT HAS BEEN AFFORDED THE EASTERN SEABOARD BY YOUR CALLS IN THIS HOUR OF PLANETARY CRISIS. It has proven before the Karmic Board and before all the sons of heaven what unascended beings can do in wielding the power of their forcefields, and in the projection of a wall of light along the coast. The alert and combined group endeavors have done much to stop the onrushing waves and winds that have been created by mankind's discord. What you have done is a mere experiment and preparatory endeavor to that which you will do—and shall have opportunity to do—in the days, months, and years ahead. In the meantime, I offer you the commendation of the most sincere and deepest sort, and this is from one not given to idle praise.

Beloved ones, you have been told we are in a period of world change. I would like to explain this to you so that your application, individually and collectively, may be more effective.

As the Great Cosmic Law requires the return of the Suns of the solar system into the Great Central Sun of the Galaxy, each Sun begins to regulate its centripetal force in order to balance the planets belonging to its system. The planet Earth, as you know, has been bent on her axis for many ages, and is responding now to the magnetic pull sent forth from the hearts of Helios and Vesta, which force is gradually straightening the axis. THIS IS BEING DONE GRADUALLY AND WITH LOVING CARE, SO THAT THE GREAT POLAR ICE CAPS WILL NOT BE VIOLENTLY DISPLACED, resulting in the inundation of the continental surface of the planet.

This could very well cause the bodily removal of many of the chelas who have accepted our existence, before the efficacy of their service is made manifest. I know something, beloved ones, of the energy of each of us who has passed “through the veil,” and, believe me, not a little of that energy has been expended in making you aware of our presence. Therefore, we are eager to hold the advantage we have gained.

As there are rivers flowing through your great oceans in their own direct currents (like the Gulf Stream), so you have, in the atmosphere around and above the Earth, established currents of air. These are the air currents that the aeronautic profession hopes to utilize to carry the man-made satellites around the planet, by which they hope to investigate interplanetary space and to explore the heavens.

These channels of air are as well formed and flow as rapidly as any one of your great rivers. When the planet is moved the least fraction out of its orbit, the currents in the oceans are jarred out of place (you know how the Gulf Stream has changed course with resulting change in climatic conditions), and the air channels are jolted out of position, as well.

One of these great air channels, which has recently moved over the Eastern coast of the United States, now forms the corridor through which these hurricanes sweep up from the Caribbean Sea (where they are spawned)—creating havoc and destruction in their wake. As a bowling ball runs down an alley, the sides of the alley holding the ball within it, so does the vortex of destructive energy (representative of the hate, anger, and lust of mankind gathered together by elemental life) rush through this natural channel.

THROUGH THE USE OF CONSCIOUSLY PROJECTED CONSCIOUSNESS AND BY THE CONSCIOUS DIRECTION OF YOUR FORCEFIELDS INTO THE AREAS THREATENED BY THE RECENT HURRICANES, MANY OF YOU HAVE STOOD WITHIN THAT AIR CHANNEL AND BLOCKED OFF THE PROGRESS OF THE ONRUSHING ENERGIES OF THESE STORMS, TRANSMUTING AND RELEASING THAT IMPRISONED LIFE INTO A HARMONIOUS EXPRESSION OF EARTH, WATER, AND AIR. Now it becomes the responsibility of the interested students to move the air channel, which has become dislodged, and which presently lies across the Eastern seaboard, back into its rightful place. You can trace the course that previous storms of like nature have taken, and—if the actual channel of air over which they travel can be redirected and funneled into the upper stratosphere, where it can be transmuted and absorbed into a pure and natural element—you will save mankind and yourselves from innumerable battles with successive storms and the tragedies that ensue from such storms of wind, sea, and earth upheavals (see note at end of address).

You have, within your own bodies, beloved ones, similar deeply-embedded channels through which the energies of life flow almost automatically. It is as though the surface of your inner bodies were like corrugated paper. Each deep channel is the result of your repeated qualification of primal life with the same destructive rate of vibration throughout the ages. These expressions of human nature are what are called “tendencies.”

They form the channels through which the life magnetized by the Threefold Flame in your heart flows into the destructive expressions of thought, word, action, and feeling, which you so deplore. It is the same principle that causes water to flow through an already-created channel, rather than over a smooth surface. It is to remove these corrugated channels of destructively-qualified energy that we are dedicating our present endeavors. Then the primal life, magnetized by the flame in your hearts, will not sweep out etherically, mentally, emotionally, or physically before the conscious mind has had time to control, qualify and direct that energy harmoniously and constructively.

Even as a hurricane follows on an already-established path and manifests itself in destruction, so does the life energy of the individual follow the already-created channels in the inner or physical bodies, to the periphery of their worlds. If there are tendencies toward temper, jealousy, discord, and other human qualities in your personality, primal life sweeps through these corrugated channels and acts before the conscious self of the individual can control it.

Because of the greater powers you have voluntarily drawn and magnetized, you have greatly increased the intensification of energy flowing through the channels of your inner and physical bodies—and the thoughts, feelings, words, and deeds which you would not express for the world are often manifest before you have time to check and sublimate those energies. Be patient in your perseverance. Keep an impersonal attitude with regard to the inharmoniously-qualified energies of yourselves and others, and you will find that many of these embedded channels will be removed or at least “smoothed out” to some degree. At the same time, you are learning to consciously create new and constructive channels over which harmoniously-qualified energy will flow almost as automatically as the destructive expressions have heretofore. BE AS PATIENT WITH THE DISTURBING ENERGIES OF OTHERS AS YOU WOULD LIKE THEM TO BE WITH YOURS.

SUGGESTED DECREE FOR ADJUSTMENT OF AIR CURRENTS

Beloved Presence of God, “I AM” in me, Holy Christ Selves of all mankind, beloved Ascended Masters Saint Germain, Jesus, and all great beings, powers, angels and activities of the Sacred Fire!

In the Name of the Presence of God which “I AM,” and through the magnetic power of the Sacred Fire vested in me, I decree:

ADJUST THE ATMOSPHERIC AND GAS BELT CURRENTS TO SUSTAIN THE COSMIC PEACE!

September 18, 1955

Beloved Children,

I bring to you this week a description of the establishment of the Ascension Flame at Luxor, as told by my beloved son, Serapis, who was entrusted to carry that flame from Poseidonis before the sinking of that last remnant of the Atlantean Continent.

Blessings and love

BELOVED SERAPIS BEY speaks:

We are again celebrating and honoring the Transmission of the Ascension Flame, which we have guarded at Luxor since that long ago era when Poseidonis sank beneath the waves. I ask you to enter consciously within your own forcefields, and travel with me in consciousness across the great Atlantic Ocean to Luxor.

Look down, as we cross the ocean that still bears the name of the Atlantis we loved so well, long ago. You can see, beneath the waves, the tall minarets of the temples, the hermetically-sealed mansions of a civilization that prospered in the long ago, when you and I and others were priests and priestesses who endeavored to save that civilization and that era from cataclysmic action, which would cause the entire continent to sink beneath the seas.

NOW WE ARE GIVEN ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY TO PROTECT MANKIND AND THE LANDED SURFACES OF THE EARTH UPON WHICH THEY ABIDE, FROM SIMILAR DISTRESS AND SIMILAR CATAclysmic UPHEAVALS.

As we cross the Atlantic Ocean, feel your individual forcefields gently and gracefully settle upon the surface of the sea at the Straits of Gibraltar. Let the radiation and the fully gathered cosmic momentum of your years of magnetization of the Sacred Fire of Protection and Purification flow forth from your forcefields over the North African Coast as well as the southern portion of Europe. We will move together along the blue waters, on the surface of the Mediterranean Sea. You have seen a spray of water that is thrown by a speedboat as it moves quickly through the waters, and that is a good picture of the radiation that is passing from your forcefields to bless this area.

As your forcefield stops for a moment at the mouth of the Nile River, some of you will remember that earlier journey when we brought the Ascension Flame in the brazier from Atlantis to Egypt. You will recall how we “spelled each other off” at the oars, rowing against time, knowing that a COSMIC MOMENT waits for no weariness of flesh, no doubt of mind, no fear in the feelings, nor any externalization of destructive karma of any man who might be a part of that boatload of individuals entrusted with the mission of carrying the Ascension Flame to Luxor.

We had to reach our goal despite any and all individual and collective obstacles within a given time. How we rejoiced when we reached the mouth of the Nile, and knew we were at last within 500 miles of our goal! The tears fell upon our cheeks as, for a moment, we stretched our arms and flexed the muscles in arms and hands to relieve them from the pressure of service at the oars, which we had manned to drive our galley forward when the winds did not fill our sails and help us to reach our goal.

We thanked the God that made us, as we gazed at the still-glowing embers of that Ascension Flame, knowing that within its presence was the way back home, not only for ourselves, but also for all who would lose their bodies in the sinking of Atlantis and who would again wait at the gates of birth for new embodiment upon the remaining landed surface of the Earth. Rising with renewed strength drawn by acknowledgment of our Source, we rowed up the river to Luxor.

I remember the commendable restraint of the members of our company who, rather than rushing “pell mell” over the side of the boat as it rode at anchor, awaited my disembarking, carrying the brazier within which the spark of the Ascension Flame still burned. Then forming a dignified procession, all followed me ashore. We knelt about that flame which we had kept alive by our very breath, our prayers and application during the rainy nights at sea, during the foggy days, as the heavy winds beset our slight bark. As we thus knelt, pouring our love into the Ascension Flame, from the glowing embers new light grew.

At the same time, the great Nile swelled and the Earth shook. Each one of us remembered Atlantis—remembered the temples in which we had served, builded in such beauty and perfection, remembered our homes, some with grassy swards around them so spacious that the naked eye could not see the outline of the nearest neighbor's home in the horizon, remembered the friends left behind us, remembered families and loved ones, remembered other frail boats with brave priests and strong spirits who had sailed north, west, and south on missions similar to our own. Yes, we remembered, and while the spirit of hope burned anew at Luxor, a part of us felt every death pang and every pain of the sinking continent and her helpless peoples.

Through the ages, the Ascension Flame has endured. Some of you, in one embodiment or more, have felt the exultation and buoyancy that accompanies proximity to its light!

As you pass along the Nile, looking upon the great pyramids, the Sphinx, the ruins at Karnak and Luxor, think you upon the ages that have been. From your forcefields is pouring a spiritual essence which is acting to transmute the gas belts beneath Egypt, which have caused recent earth tremors. Your love, light, and attendance at this service will help to save Egypt and her peoples from great and devastating destruction.

Look upon the etheric beauty of Luxor today! Luxor was once builded in the physical appearance world, as the ruins of her temples clearly show. LUXOR—HOPE FOR ALL MANKIND—tonight is a blaze of light! A great amphitheater is builded above it. In the center upon the altar, the seraphim have drawn the pattern of the Ascension Flame from the secret temple. The beautiful seraphim, in flowing white robes, have formed the petals of the white flower as well as the golden stamen, which is its center. The Archangel Gabriel and beloved Hope now ensoul the stamen and will be the directors of this service.

The Great White Brotherhood are all dressed in snow-white garments and the Brotherhood of Luxor wear white embroidered with gold. I shall now take my place with the group and we shall, I hope to God, give to you and all mankind a realization that from the Ascension Flame a spirit of buoyancy, hope, and new life can be magnetized into your own soul's experience. At the close of the service, a brother or sister from Luxor will accompany you home and be at your service for the 30-day period while this retreat is honored. They will help you to realize within yourselves that this flame is not ephemeral, but REAL! SO HELP ME GOD—FROM NOW ON, I AM DETERMINED YOU SHALL REMEMBER SERAPIS!

Beloved Maha Chohan

September 25, 1955

Beloved Children,

You are seeking the fullness of life in the ascension of your spirits into the realms of perfection in which you are destined to dwell. During this thirty-day period, when the Ascension Flame is honored, and the chelas are visiting the concentrated radiation of that flame at Luxor, I think it wise for you to ponder the FEELING of the ascension, as so beautifully expressed by my beloved son, Serapis Bey, in his address on the night of the Transmission Flame Service, in which you all so joyously participated. I give you below a transcript of his address.

Let me lovingly remind you that the word-pictures given for your study and contemplation by my beloved sons and daughters, who have attained the freedom you are so earnestly seeking, are not idly given. These addresses are thoughtfully and prayerfully prepared by them, when they are apprised of their opportunity to address you. Their words are an outpouring of their vital life energies, freely and lovingly offered, that you may take advantage of their experiences and example on the same path through the appearance world, that your blessed feet are treading today.

NO ONE, ANGEL OR MASTER, HAS EVER ATTAINED MASTERY WITHOUT HELP FROM THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE, which had been drawn by earnest and constant prayers for help and guidance. Call, therefore, beloved ones, to your own indwelling Christ or to any member of the Heavenly Host with whom you may have an affinity, for the faith and constancy you need to hold your feet unswervingly on the path to which you have been led by grace.

Heretofore, your search for the kingdom has led you down many by-paths, but now you have arrived at a place where you must learn to recognize the voice and radiation of the Good Shepherd (Cosmic Christ) as it vibrates through the words of the God-free, which alone can impart the “peace that passeth all the understanding of the human mind” and lead you unerringly to the door of that kingdom which is your eternal home.

Blessings and love

BELOVED SERAPIS BEY speaks

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I bring to you tonight the feeling of buoyancy, joy and gratitude that is within the Ascension Flame. I ask that you accept it deeply within your mental, etheric and feelings worlds.

Think, for a moment, of the feeling of relief and release as the electrons within the physical body begin to spin more rapidly—the vibratory action of the flesh form throwing off the appearance of age, distress, limitation and mass karma, the mental body freed from the obligations of the outer consciousness—of ties that bind the lifestream to the world of form, and the feelings removed which bind the soul to world attractions!

Think of the feeling in the consciousness, when the etheric body is purified to a point where it no longer retains bitterness, resentment and rebellion! Feel the gratitude of the soul when all these vehicles, standing in obedience to the spirit's light, are relieved of the necessity for remaining longer upon the shadow star.

Think of the feeling the instant the soul is sublimated, transmuted and transfigured into the Holy Christ Self, when the eyes are opened to the glories of the inner realms and the magnificent presence of the Masters and the angels stand revealed to the sight, when the music of the spheres becomes audible to the ear and the rarefied atmosphere, in which only the perfume of harmony, beauty and peace abide, is breathed into the free spirit!

Think of the FEELING of buoyancy and gratitude experienced by every lifestream who has ascended, and you will get some concept of the fully-gathered momentum and the radiation and vibratory action of the Ascension Flame!

All the “Aves” that rise, all the “thank God's” that issue from freed hearts, the exultation of spirits no longer bound—all form part of the heritage and the momentum of that Ascension Flame. Every lifestream ascending upon its crest into like freedom, leaves within the Ascension Flame (which has helped it to rise) the FEELING experienced at the moment of transition, adding to that buoyant gratitude of those who have gone before.

Think you of your anticipation of the homely things of life—your expectancy, your joyous preparations for a journey where, for a few short days or weeks, you lay down the responsibilities and routine of everyday life and are able to enjoy new scenery, new atmosphere and a certain “abandon” from routine in that freedom!

THINK! This Ascension Flame is the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of God-energy, which forms the pathway back home into the heart of the Eternal, and which has been sustained upon the planet earth through the dedication of lifestreams who chose, even as the students today have chosen, to magnetize, sustain and feed that flame and keep it functioning through the physical appearance world, that it might be the stimulating, buoyant energy required to take every son and daughter of man HOME when he wearies of the enjoyments of the senses—when he finishes his course, fulfills his reason for being and stands at a point of personal evolution, where the ascension may be offered and he can accept it.

Only the Holy Christ Self and the Electronic Presence of the individual knows when the purpose is completed for which the lifestream has entered physical embodiment, and only that Presence within the heart can give the authority to accept the glory of full liberation.

Think not of the Ascension Flame AS AN ESCAPE—AS A WAY OUT OF DISTRESS! Yearn not for the ascension as an open door to relieve yourselves of the problem and experiences of daily life, which are merely the INITIATIONS of the Resurrection Temple, brought, in grace, to your door!

You—and no one else—chose that reason for being, and you—and no one else—will know when you have fulfilled that service on every plane (physical, mental, emotional, and etheric). When you have written across the substance and energy of this world, and the inner worlds as well, with the consciously-qualified energy of your own life, the manifest expression of your divine purpose, and you can say with all the dignity of a Christ, “It is finished,” then, NOT ESCAPE, but the victorious crown of victory, the seamless garment and the right to abide in realms to which you have fitted yourselves by service today, WILL BE YOURS!

Blessed hearts, let us be practical, extremely so, in our understanding of the activity of the ascension! You have been ascending for many ages! The ascension is not the matter of a moment's realization. THE TRANSITION FROM THE 'HERE' TO THE 'THERE' IS THE RESULT OF AGES OF SERVICE AND AWAKENING CONSCIOUSNESS. Let us liken your vehicles of expression (the mental, emotional, etheric, and physical bodies) to one of those magnificent four-motored planes which a pilot flies into the higher atmosphere for some specific purpose. A poor pilot, indeed, would he be were not all his engines well oiled, all his propellers in order and all the mechanisms of his vehicles ready through the kind offices of the engineers to whom is given the responsibility of that service. Then when from the front office the directions come, his plane is ready for immediate service and all he needs to do is move the necessary levers and the great plane gracefully rises into the sky and fulfills the purpose for which it was prepared. Are you ready?

Is your mental body (one of the great engines and propellers on which your soul shall rise) free from thoughtforms of worry and distress—of distortions regarding the image of your brother? Is it free from the trash and accumulation of your concepts of the ages, so that when the signal comes to go, the “propeller” cannot turn owing to the very weight of that effluvia?

Is your mental body clear of human concepts, so that it is able to reflect the divine pattern and plan of your own identity, as well as the divine image of your fellowman and capable of holding thoughts of a positive and constructive nature?

Is your emotional body bogged down with depressions—with those negative feelings that rise from the acceptance of limitation, age and disease? Is it so heavy with displeasure that—should the great call for service come—your soul would have to ride upon three “engines” or maybe two? Is it ready, filled with the FIRE OF ENTHUSIASM, the positive consciousness of faith? the infinite illumination and understanding of light, the love for God and man? the purity in the secret places into which no one can see but yourself? Is it filled with the dedication and consecration of your secret energies to Saint Germain's Great Age and Era? Are you filled with the feeling and desire to minister unto your fellowman and the strong conviction that the powers of invocation, magnetization and radiation are yours to wield?

Are all these, the occupants of your feeling world, spinning rapidly in their orbits, ready at a moment's notice to move?

Is your etheric body clear of the hidden resentments and rebellions of the injustices of others toward you? Does it seethe with hidden hurts? Are there, beneath the surface of its cloak, memories that even you, yourself, know not of—of ages of battle and distress—that open like fresh wounds when lifestreams again come together under pressure of cooperative service? Or is that etheric body filled with memories of the light you saw drawn by Lord Michael in the first Golden Age, and the powers of conscious precipitation which you witnessed and in which you engaged, under the direction of Lanto and the Brothers of Lemuria?

Is your etheric body vibrant with the memories of the true priesthood of Atlantis? Those days I remember so well—when the priests and priestesses held the connection between God and the people, even as you, today, uphold our efforts. These priests and priestesses were able to reach into the divine spheres above and draw forth, magnetize and radiate blankets of consecrated energy for the healing of millions.

Is your etheric body in this pure and positive condition—or, should a summons come—should Atlantis rise from her hermetically sealed tomb and come again to the surface—will your inner bodies be grounded by shadows and only ONE of your vehicles be available to assist us?

Is your physical body vibrant, alive, young, and vital? Has it developed dignity and mastery through the years? Have you thrown off the vibratory action of the masses, refused and repudiated disintegration, disease and decay? Is your physical body charged with the power of endurance that may be required to spend days or weeks without sleep, magnetizing light and ministering unto the homeless and confused? I would suggest that you examine well the instruments through which you must work!

Beloved ones, when we speak thus to you, we speak to stimulate in your feelings a realization of what you can become. Do not sink into a slough of depression and say—“These achievements are for others.” “Perhaps I have been born too soon!” or “For me it is too late!” IT IS NOT TOO LATE! DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD BE A PART OF THIS ACTIVITY—DO YOU THINK OF MY VITAL LIFE THAT I AM POURING INTO YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS—OR THAT I WOULD BE GIVING YOU THESE ENERGIES AND THIS SPUR, IF YOU WERE NOT CAPABLE OF THIS SERVICE?

Even in the human realm, no kindly mature lifestream would spur an individual or an animal on beyond the capacity of that one's maximum possibility or achievement.

Blessed hearts, I speak to you individually. I spoke to you thus before we left Atlantis—before we sailed under sealed orders: north, east, south, and west. Now you are again sailing under sealed orders—sailing in faith, with your scroll not yet unfolded within your hands, and you know not the hour or the day when you shall be summoned—summoned for great and cosmic service.

We will need your minds alert—your feelings calm—your etheric bodies peaceful and your physical bodies rested, vital and alive. LOOK THEM OVER! You do not need anyone to tell you which one or more of your vehicles requires assistance and development. There is at your disposal the power of purification and sublimation through the use of the Freedom Flame. The use of the Violet Flame is the most magnificent mercy ever offered individuals outside of the retreats. It is yours to use. Do not be like the pilot who is left behind when his squadron flies on missions because his engines would not turn (because your inner and physical bodies are not ready).

Fly as one, oh children of light, into any emergency that arises on the moment! Practice, as you have done, in these smaller appearances of nature's upheavals. There shall come a day when you will remember my words! May you be ready!

Beloved Children of the One Father,

Radiation is a marvelous subject for contemplation! Every manifest expression in the entire universe, from the smallest molecule to the Great Central Sun, itself, is a radiating center of one kind of vibration or another. When you stand near a heat radiator in the winter, you feel the heat, although your physical sight, as a rule, does not see the substance that makes up the heat waves. You have felt the light and warmth from the physical sun in summer, and have enjoyed the fragrance of flowers, as well as the pleasing aromas that radiate from the food being prepared in the kitchen. All this is an activity of radiation.

All people radiate constantly and the substance that is emitted from their various bodies affects all other people, everywhere on the planet. We are endeavoring, now, to bring every man, woman and child to a place where the radiation from their bodies is harmonious, restful and peaceful, so that their lifestreams, when they are in contact with each other, are uplifted, balanced, and enriched.

If you will remember that what passes from your body in thought, spoken word or feeling, affects all parts of life on the planet—men, women, children, animals, plants and vegetables—either for good or evil, you will, I know, endeavor to express and expand only that radiation which is as comforting and which is as healing as the light from the sun.

THE PLANET, AS YOU KNOW, IS PASSING THROUGH A VERY DANGEROUS AND CHAOTIC PERIOD, and if we could DEPEND on your outer selves to hold a certain harmony, WE COULD USE YOU WITHOUT LIMIT IN DELIVERING THIS BEAUTIFUL EARTH FROM DESTRUCTIVE ACTIVITIES AND EXPRESSIONS.

From the heart of the Presence of each one of you, beloved ones, comes a stream of electronic light, which finds anchorage within your physical heart and forms there a pulsation of flame, which has been referred to as the Threefold Flame of God.

From that flame within your heart there passes through all your bodies the electronic energy by which you live. That energy is the God-power that governs the universe, and that animates all living manifest form. Within that energy, which flows from the heart of your Presence, is the power of life eternal and the only healing force in the universe. There passes through your bodies, every second, enough of this electronic force from God's heart to heal and completely free you and all mankind from every manifestation and expression of distress. You must, beloved children, like the rest of mankind, learn THE POWER THAT IS WITHIN YOUR OWN LIFE. When that power is allowed to unfold it will manifest through you in the fulfillment of your every heart's desire, and you will find yourself to be a perfect expression of the Godhead.

Note: Beloved Arcturus, in a recent address, stressed the importance of CONSTANCY IN ORDER TO ENSURE SUCCESS IN ANY TYPE OF ACTIVITY. The rhythmic outpouring of the Maha Chohan's energies and radiation issued by him weekly, without fail, is an example of his observance of this rule, and your rhythmic, systematic contribution to this service will be an example of your constancy to him. This makes the bridge between your world and his ever stronger and wider, keeping his peace, comfort, healing, and supply flowing back into your world.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children,

Every individual belonging to the human race affects mankind enmass by the nature of the thoughts and feelings that emanate from him. No man lives unto himself. Vibrations flow through the entire humanity of Earth within a period of a few seconds. (You know of the velocity with which the blood flows through the physical body.) The mechanical and scientific worlds have proven the transcendence of time and space through the medium of the telephone, radio, and television. An individual speaking in New York is heard in China, Australia or San Francisco at the same instant that the vibratory action of his voice reaches his New York audience.

If man understood that HIS SO-CALLED 'PRIVATE' THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS ARE BEING INSTANTLY BROADCAST THROUGH THE UNIVERSE BY AN INVISIBLE 'HOOK-UP,' and, furthermore, that these same thoughts and feelings affect the lives of all the people on the planet, as well as the animal and nature kingdoms, according to their quality, he would endeavor to live more in accord with the principles expressed by the Master Jesus, whom a vast number profess to accept as their guide and exemplar.

However, there is great hope, as well as great opportunity for service, in this oneness of the human race, because ONE INDIVIDUAL (with an understanding of the higher law and an upward-reaching vision) consciously holding a radiation of peace and harmony, can affect the whole race for GOOD. We see the opposite effect in a human body where even one drop of poison taken into the system has the power of incapacitating the entire organism. Also it is well known that a nursing mother, if she be subject to fits of anger, depression, or distress, can affect the health of her infant. It is for this reason that we, of the Spiritual Hierarchy, are so limited in our outpouring to individual chelas and to the masses, because, while a chela might ordinarily maintain a certain amount of peace and balance in his mental or emotional body, if the cosmic currents were connected with his lifestream, SHOULD THERE COME A LACK OF POISE OR BALANCE IN THESE BODIES, the whole milk of human kindness would be poisoned.

You can see, therefore, that it would not be wise for the Masters to intensify the aura of individuals UNTIL THEY HAVE LEARNED TO GOVERN THEIR THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS, and also why it is requisite for Avatars to enter the atmosphere of Earth at certain intervals, that they may pour their cosmic peace and harmony into the inner bodies of mankind.

I would like you to help me with the experiment of becoming harmonious conductors to the mankind of Earth, beloved ones, if you will make the sacrifice of your personal selves by consciously holding peace and harmony in your mental and emotional bodies. IT CAN BE DONE!

Beloved Children of God,

During this month's Transmission Flame Ceremonies, held, as you know, at Kashmir, India, at the beloved Kuthumi's focus of wisdom, the beloved Lord Maitreya blessed the assembled multitudes both by his presence and his address, which he delivered before the beloved Kuthumi rose to give his report on the activities.

I give you below the beloved Kuthumi's address, which he opened with a tribute to his beloved Guru. Lord Maitreya's address will be the subject of next week's "Bulletin."

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Master! Beloved Maitreya, Lord of Love! Would that the day were here when the veil of maya could be parted and your beautiful golden hair, your violet eyes and your shining Presence could be revealed to the physical sight of those who love you well, but are yet so bound in form that they cannot even imagine the fullness of such a visitation.

Ah, Lord Maitreya, teacher of Masters, angels and Gods, how long since you have visited lesser men! How long since your lips have parted and your words, that previously were addressed to initiates only, are given directly to people outside of the retreats! O, mighty Master! On this, the night when you ascend the holy hill at Kashmir to radiate your love to all mankind, you have yet taken time to enter into the presence of the students assembled here and give them, as well as all those gathered in their homes and sanctuaries, with hearts turned toward us, the energies of your beloved lifestream.

On behalf of them and on my own behalf, I extend to you our love and gratitude.

As I endeavor to intensify the activity of radiation so forcibly and powerfully released by my Master, there seems but little I can add to his words.

Tonight, we celebrate the opening of the focus of wisdom, where the Brotherhood of the Golden Robe have centered their attention for many, many ages. We call it the Cathedral of Nature, because we have no buildings—no ceilings to cut off the beautiful sky, no walls that would shut out the sound of the bird song or the fragrance and beauty of the nature kingdom in this, the Kashmiri country, which we have known and loved so long and in which many of you, too, have lived many times in ages past.

It is now early morning in India (7 a.m. Sunday, October 16, 1955), and the sun already kisses the tops of the snowcapped peaks of the Himalayas.

For the past twenty-four hours, the Brothers and Sisters of the Golden Robe have been gathering on the hillsides that lead down to the lake at Kashmir. There, gathered around their own Gurus, they have magnetized the Twin Flame of Illumination and Constancy, which is so much needed by the mankind of Earth today, particularly by those of you who are in cosmic service—illumination so that you may know what you are doing and why you are doing it, constancy, so that you may follow through to the end.

The illumination of the outer consciousness, the awareness that comes to the mind of the purpose behind all rituals, all decrees, all activity that takes place, enables the individual, as well as the collective groups, to happily join in the ceremonial required to magnetize the gifts of the Godhead.

Where there is not illumination, there is reluctant energy, there is DUTY SERVICE, there is the service that comes through fear and superstition. This shall no longer be! In the new age and era, under the direction of the Ascended Master Saint Germain, it is the fiat of the Cosmic Law THAT MAN SHALL KNOW WHY he must purify his physical, mental, emotional, and etheric bodies, and to what purpose he must remain harmonious. Then there will be loving cooperation on the part of the aspirant. It is through the activity of our beloved Morya that we are endeavoring to give the WHY of this endeavor to the outer consciousness of mankind.

While this Transmission Flame Ceremony is in progress, the great Causal Body of the Lord Buddha covers the entire Continent of Asia, like a magnificent rainbow. Within its center is the luminous Presence of the Buddha himself, seated in the Indian posture. Around the entire continent also, just a little below the seated figure of the great Master, the builders of form have created a most magnificent amphitheater in topaz.

The beloved Archangel Jophiel and his divine complement, the beautiful Archaii Constance, standing under the luminous Presence of the Lord Buddha, are drawing the magnetizing currents of the Golden Flame and Ray as the devas and builders of form create a golden lotus. Into the heart of this magnificent lotus I shall step at the moment the transmission of the flame begins and we shall direct the flame from Kashmir into the heart of Shamballa, on to Peiping and then onward on the track that you have traced.

Beloved ones, in this great topaz amphitheater are seated the inner bodies of all those who are seeking the light. You have no concept, in the outer mind, of the millions who are seeking illumination. Every individual belonging to this evolution, whether in the flesh or out of it, is seeking illumination on some particular point, each one on some subject pertaining to the ray under which he is evolving. I do not believe there will be one individual belonging to the planet, embodied or disembodied, who will not be drawn to this amphitheater to receive illumination on some problem, whether it be personal, national, international or planetary during this thirty-day period. Each one who has come to receive illumination will take back with him the quality of constancy, so that the enlightenment received may be held CONSTANT until it is fully manifested.

Beloved ones, I want you to visualize and feel the flame of Illumination and Constancy in the form of a golden lotus and when you inbreathe this flame tonight here, and during the coming thirty days, will you please insist upon the cooperation of your mind to think of what you are doing—drawing into your world divine illumination and constancy. Allow this flame to fill every cell and atom of your being. Why do we concentrate upon the form of the golden lotus? Because it is the focus of the Flame of Illumination and Constancy.

Some of you desire illumination as to how to set your financial affairs in order; some of you require it to help you decide wisely upon your life-work; some of you require it to help you regulate conditions in your bodies that are in distress; some of you require it in order to be more efficacious in this activity—all of you require illumination on SOMETHING, because your worlds are not yet full of light.

Now, may the blessings of the Brothers of the Golden Robe rest upon you! May this golden lotus of Illumination and Constancy be an everlasting remembrance of a gift given! Accept it and use it! As I enter into the heart of that lotus flame, the beloved Lord Maitreya standing with me, we shall see that the world is illumined and made constant, in God's name.

Beloved Maha Chohan

October 30, 1955

Beloved Ones,

I give you herewith one of the beloved Lord Maitreya's rare addresses, as given to the outer mind of men. His instruction is usually directed toward those who have already attained their freedom. Therefore, we were singularly blessed at the last Transmission Ceremony, when he chose to speak to the assembled multitude. His words, being part of the energy of his own life, bore the same radiation as if he spoke to each of his hearers individually and literally bathed them in the Twin Flame of Illumination and Constancy, qualities which are essential to the evolving consciousness.

Blessings and love

BELOVED LORD MAITREYA speaks:

Beloved Children of the One Eternal God,

I come this night to bring to you my love. You do not know; you cannot in the outer consciousness conceive, of the love of the Ascended Host for those strong and stalwart souls who volunteer at inner levels to form the foundation of a new world order, which will sustain the mass consciousness of mankind for a two-thousand-year cycle. You cannot fully understand the tenderness, the solicitude, the individual interest that we have in each such a one, particularly when we have seen you at inner levels (before the inception of a New Age and Era) standing in the freedom of your etheric bodies, with love in your precious hearts, with zeal in your souls, but yet with a portion of your individual karma unpaid and with certain traits, tendencies and habits of human consciousness not yet sublimated.

We know, when we grant you the opportunity of becoming part of the heart-center of a new movement, far more than you do, what you will be called upon to experience during the fulfillment of your service. We know how the pressures and tides of the Earth plane, as well as the emotions and thoughts of your own vehicles, coupled with the heaviness of flesh, will burden you in time to come. We know, after you have left the presence of the Karmic Board, when you have passed through the gates of birth; when you have assimilated, through family and national life, something of the nature of the mankind among whom you dwell, how much more difficult it will be to retain your vision, to sustain the constancy of your spirit and to have that faith—that endurance—which should sustain you to the very end.

Therefore, for every individual, from the highest Master, like Jesus, to the very least-developed consciousness who has volunteered and been accepted as a part of the initial impulse of a world movement, for each such one there is a special place in my heart and in the hearts of those who serve with me to bless the race through you.

Beloved and precious friends, the office of World Teacher gives the individual holding that office, opportunities of various kinds.

Since the coming of the laggards from the other systems into the evolution of the Earth, and the ensuing maya which formed the cloud between the Holy Christ Self and the soul, the World Teacher has not only had the responsibility of designing the particular religion which would best benefit the souls of men in a given age, but he has had the obligation, as well as opportunity, to concentrate the cosmic pressure of cosmic love in, through, and around the lifestreams who were to form, magnetize, sustain, and radiate the power of that religion, building it so that the succeeding generations might find it firm enough and efficacious enough to utilize in nourishing their own soul-growth.

So, to you, blessed souls in the diamond heart of Saint Germain's new endeavor, I bring all of that pressure of love which is mine to give. I bring it to you, individually, and I hope that deep, deep, deep within the secret recesses of your hearts, your souls, your minds, your feelings and your flesh, you will accept that love, which is an actual substance that helps melt away from you that effluvia of discord. It will help dissolve the resentments, rebellions and hates which form the etheric records of those discordant vibratory actions that have been set up through past association, one with another, when you have suffered individual rebuff, disappointment, and disapproval.

After the close of the September class, your bodies are so much more free from the pressures of the accumulations of the ages, that we are endeavoring to build in the vibratory action of the constructive radiation which is ours. My gift to you is LOVE—that love which I want you to FEEL. I, personally, as an individual intelligence, entirely apart from my official status, send you daily my love to warm your heart and soul, and that love from me to you is your eternal friends. Accept it now and use it.

You are never alone, beloved ones. Wherever your feet take you upon the path of Earth, you are the earnest students of this great endeavor. Wherever your life plan takes you, there flows a concentrated, consecrated beam of my love into, through, and around you, for having the courage to stand before the Karmic Board and before the Master Saint Germain and volunteer to come into embodiment, hampered as you were with limitations, and promise to do your best to assist him in his efforts to lift mankind.

Every one of you has done—and is doing—his very best. There are no half-way measures in your service. There is no lukewarm religion in your hearts. You have given to the utmost of the capacities of your energies, according to your present development, and no Master, no angel, no, not even God, himself, could ask more. When a man gives his best—though that best may seem poor to another—to God and to the God-free, that service radiates the perfume of sincerity, both of purpose and design. To the soul who gives its best, that very endeavor forms the wings which raise and sublimates that soul into the Christ Self.

WE DO NOT ASK OF EVERY MAN THE SAME MEASURE OF PERFECTION. We do not ask of every man the same maximum of endeavor. We accept what each one chooses to give—and you have given your best, the best that is in you, of your love and your light. I give to you, in return, my love and my light, to sustain you through these days, when each of you (working in the orbit of your own world), is making effort to transmute the many returning currents of energy seeking redemption, which seem to press with almost frightening rapidity into the appearance world. I give you an anchorage of the flame of my love, to sustain you in your vow to God, to Saint Germain, and to the Hierarchy, to do your part to bring in the New Age, which shall manifest and express upon this Earth, to live long after your flesh garments have released you, and you stand again in my presence as God-free beings of power.

Think you that any religion—since those early eras when angels and Masters walked and talked with men—has been founded with ease? Ah, no! Every religion has been founded by simple and humble folk—by lifestreams strong in spirit—whose Causal Bodies had a magnificent accumulation of good back of them, and who are inwardly dedicated and consecrated to the advancement of mankind. Those who serve us are not always the most highly-developed according to your earthly viewpoint, but those who choose in selfless service to offer their light to us—they are the ones who become the heartbeat of the new religions, as they come forth from time to time.

Because the humble people, the individuals with karma yet to be redeemed, form that nucleus and have done so for many ages, we have had to provide, from cosmic levels, a certain pressure of love to enfold and sustain the unit made up of the component parts, lest the riptides of thought and feeling and the tendencies of the lifestreams, who form the heart center, would destroy the nucleus of the new religion, before the anchorage of the magnetic power from the great Beings who are focusing their love through it, could be manifested and sustained upon this Earth.

You have heard a little about the beloved Cherubim Lovelee! I would like to elaborate upon her service for a moment, for your illumination and understanding. Ever since the World Teacher, (whether it is myself or the being holding the same office in eras preceding this), found it necessary to form a nucleus of a religious order to cover a two-thousand-year cycle, he has had to have the assistance of some deva, seraphim, or cherubim, whose consciously-protective radiation formed a canopy in, through, and around, not only the individual who formed the conscious contact with the Masters and the Godhead, but around the entire group who magnetized and held the protection, the faith and the love for such a one. These beings, of tremendous size and power, form a huge canopy of blazing light around the new activity, and from their bodies pass the individual rays that anchor it into the substance of the Earth and deflect from the world, the disintegrating vibratory actions of thought and feeling, which have been described to you frequently, and which run like riptides through the consciousness of mankind.

These individual beings, holding that cosmic protection, tie into the Cosmic Christ of the current era, (myself in this instance), and continue to draw in, through and around the magnetic center, the receiving center, and all who represent the heart center of the movement, that Cosmic Christ love that sustains it, and sustains the unity among its members, to a point where the release of instruction and the release of radiation may continue.

The Lord Buddha had such a Cosmic Guard, and so did Moses. Do you think that group of undisciplined people, responding to the call of Moses and leaving Egypt, would have been sustained through their crossing of the Red Sea and through their years of journeying in the desert without some pressure of cosmic love greater than that which they had drawn forth—greater than that which Moses and Aaron and Miriam possessed? Think you that even the beloved Holy Family—the blessed Jesus, Holy Mary and the beloved Joseph, as well as that simple band of Christian disciples, could have sustained their radiation without the assistance of a Cosmic Guard and the radiation of the love of the Cosmic Christ? Oh, no, lovely ones!

The magnificent beings who have come and guarded and sustained these activities deserve your recognition, your honor and your love. They came, like yourselves, voluntarily, and they have chosen to remain—sustaining the activities which they have volunteered to guard—as long as the beloved beings (the Master Saint Germain, the Master Jesus, or whichever being it is who represents a facet of a World Religion) choose to sustain that religious activity. Therefore, you have, in the atmosphere of Earth, a Guardian Presence for the Buddhists, for the Mohammedans, for the Jews, for the Christians, for Saint Germain's people—and those beings, through the radiation of cosmic love, hold them, as well as you, together.

I want you to know that the pressure of love which I am directing toward you is the substance of my life. Take it into your feelings, minds, hearts, and souls. Let it be for you the cohesive power to hold your groups together—that love which is more powerful than any disintegrating, external or internal force of the outside world.

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 13, 1955

Beloved Children of the One God,

The Christmas spirit begins to flow around the planet earth toward the end of November (Thanksgiving Day) and carries through for seven weeks, until the 12th or 14th of January.

The Christmas spirit is an outpouring of love, carrying the perfect qualities from the Masters, angels, and all the inhabitants of the kingdom of heaven. It pours over the Earth like a golden rain, composed of beautiful particles of light, each particle of which is like a nine-pointed star. The entire lower atmosphere of Earth, as well as all the bodies of the people living thereon, are enveloped in it. It increases in power until Christmas Eve, when its potent presence is most palpably felt, even by the most dense of outer minds.

To the outpouring of the Celestial Beings is added a tremendous radiation from the inner retreats and sanctuaries throughout the planet, under the direct guidance and guardianship of the members of the Great White Brotherhood, who serve in these holy places. Through the outer sanctuaries and churches throughout the world, we are endeavoring to send forth our quota of God-consciousness to add to the universal light of Christmas, and through the bodies of the conscious chelas and students we have conductors through whom we may pour God's peace on Earth and good will to all men everywhere.

Will you remember now, beloved ones, that through the coming weeks, from now until Christmas (at least), I shall expect you to express the spirit of the Holy Season and be myself in action, as much as you can, in order that the outpouring will be worthy of carrying the name, the benediction, and the love of the Holy Spirit. When you, each one, have become the Spirit of Christmas in outer manifestation for that period, it should then be a comparatively easy matter to preserve that radiation PERMANENTLY.

At Shamballa, at Luxor, at Darjeeling, at Lake Titicaca, at the Cities of Saint John, and every retreat and sanctuary throughout the world where the Great White Brotherhood serves mankind, the Christmas wreath—representative of the universal spirit of Christmas—is already manifest in the upper atmosphere. These exquisite manifestations are foci of a constant outpouring of a ring of flame, qualified with the radiation of peace and goodwill to all life on this planet.

These inner retreats present a beautiful sight at this time of the year, when seen with the inner eye. There is no part of life on the planet Earth, from a lump of coal to a singing sparrow, that does not receive a Christmas gift of grace from each one of these holy places. This becomes a permanent part of the progress of that particular evolution.

Be sure now, beloved ones, that ALL of the God-life, everywhere, receives YOUR personal gift of Holy Christ love to add to the cosmic radiation, at this blessed season.

The Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children of Light,

It is my joy to offer for your comfort, this week, the consciously-directed gift of happiness, from one who is known in the higher octaves as the God of Happiness. You have been made cognizant of the fact that all of the great virtues are ensouled by beings who have qualified themselves through the ages to become radiating centers of the great God-qualities, and the virtue of happiness is one of these.

Let me gently remind you, dear ones, that each of you is also the guardian of a temple in which the Most High Living God dwells, and when you came forth from God's heart, you were endowed with a special virtue which you are obliged to nourish and radiate forth for the blessing of your fellowman. Ask your Holy Christ Self to reveal to you the particular virtue which is your responsibility to radiate, for this was the reason you were born, and for this you came into the world of form, that you should be "about your Father's business" now and fulfill your divine plan.

Address By Lord Ling, Known As Ananda, Disciple Of Lord Buddha.
Prior To That Embodiment, He Was Moses

Beloved Ladies and Gentlemen,

You, who have sought happiness for many ages, and you, who in this western world have been ensured of the right to "pursue happiness" through your law, it is my pleasure to inform you that now I have become the pursuer and you are the pursued.

I shall endeavor, in this capacity, to draw into the atmosphere of Earth the vibrant joy and happiness which is the natural atmosphere of the Ascended Master's octave, and shall use your inner bodies and physical vehicles to direct the pressure and power of happiness into mankind at large, and into every manifestation of life where there are shadows.

Beloved ones, happiness is a most positive quality! It is a vibratory action that must be CULTIVATED by the outer self. Happiness does not just happen. It must be cultivated THROUGH CONTROL OF THE THOUGHT PROCESSES, through CONTROL of the feelings, through the CONTROL of the process of memory and through CONTROL of the physical vehicle, as well.

It is time now that the student body come into the vibratory action which alone can bring individual, world and universal peace. It is time now for you to accept, within the cells of your inner vehicles, that vibration of happiness which it is my joy and honor to offer you.

I represent the guardian power of all the happiness that has been drawn forth and radiated upon this Earth, as well as in the angelic kingdom and the Ascended Master octave. Every being above and below, who radiates the power and pressure of happiness, adds to the total of the fully-gathered cosmic momentum of that quality, which it is my responsibility to direct back into the composite soul of the planet, as well as into the souls of those evolving upon it. Will you not help me now, beloved ones, by tuning up your mental and emotional bodies to the receptivity of the idea that serving God and your fellowman can be a joyous experience—a way and means by which you can balance your karmic debts to the universe, as well as lightening the load of your fellowman?

Will you not let go in your etheric bodies of the accumulations of the ages, which you have drawn around yourselves? Let go in mind, feeling, and memory of those vibrations which keep you in unnecessary limitation? OPEN YOURSELVES to that pressure of happiness that the Masters bring and let go of that feeling of resistance which makes a wall between you and ourselves. Because you do not see the Masters with the physical sight, the outer self is inclined to take a rather lethargic view of the “communion of saints.” In this condition, the shell around the outer personality is such that very little of the gifts which are offered can penetrate through the free-will barrier. Yet, that human resistance is not a CONSCIOUS activity. It is more of an unconscious acceptance of things as they are, an unconscious acceptance of memories of past disappointments and failures, that are held within the etheric body until the soul has become “bogged down” by the acceptance of the idea that life, for the most part, will proceed on an even tenor with no great rapidity to freedom.

Now, let us change all this, beloved ones! You are in the process of leading men and women from the darkness and bondage of ignorant thinking into the promised land of freedom and light. I know that position well! That experience is written into my heart, and because of that experience, I have asked that I might come and give you encouragement, with the wish that you may complete in HAPPINESS AND LOVE that which perhaps you now may be doing for DUTY’S SAKE. My own experience in the embodiment of Moses was not particularly a happy one, and my association with the beloved Lord Buddha in a later incarnation gave me an opportunity to develop the love which I had before SACRIFICED TO DUTY.

It is therefore, my great honor and privilege, whenever given the opportunity, to direct to the founders and students of religious orders of every kind, the FEELING of that happy, joyous energy which is ESSENTIAL for salvation, because, beloved ones, even though one’s mission may be accomplished and the work well done, if the cores of unhappiness within one’s own vehicles are not transmuted and raised—somewhere, some day, some time, at inner levels or on the Earth-plane, one must learn the lesson that service (to comply with the Laws of the Kingdom) must be rendered in grace and happiness and LOVE alone.

Keeping happy, beloved ones, is not just a foolish idea. It is a discipline. You will be amazed at the laxity with which your consciousness has dealt with your lower bodies, and the tremendous tenacity that those lower bodies manifest in pursuing a course independent of your self-conscious direction. Watch the processes of your thought and feeling bodies and you will see if I am not right! If you can keep your mind free of one particular thought that causes you distress or worry, or makes you doubtful or critical for even one hour, you can do it for a day, and if you can do it for a day you can do it for seven days. If you can do it for seven days, you are free of it forever.

Watch your feeling world when you come in contact with people, and observe how it reacts when it is “crossed.” If you can keep your feelings happy for even five minutes, you can do it for seven days—and if you can do it for SEVEN DAYS, you will NEVER go back to a state of allowing your feelings to become turbulent because of any outer appearance. Keep the mind from turning back toward the etheric memories of past injustices. This is something that the students do not indulge in because they are too busy, but individuals who have a great deal of spare time on their hands allow the mind to dwell on past distresses which add so much to the unhappiness of today.

In, through and around mental institutions and homes for the aged, you would be amazed to see the effluvia woven out of the memories of the etheric bodies. If it were not for the devas in charge of those places, the people who dwell therein would actually smother themselves by that radiation.

Call, beloved ones, to the Temple of Happiness, and let its radiation fill your world with joy and peace, then consciously project it forth to bless your fellowmen and all manifest life everywhere.

Now, in the name of the Most High Living God, I charge, charge, charge your mental, emotional, etheric, and physical bodies with the Cosmic Flame of Cosmic Happiness. Accept it and be free! God bless you.

Beloved Maha Chohan

November 27, 1955

Children of My Heart,

Once again it is my privilege and honor to offer you my beloved Kuthumi's report on the Transmission Flame Activities held, as you are aware, this month, at Sanat Kumara's retreat in Shamballa. During the course of the evening, the beloved Lord of the World, himself, addressed the assemblage, and his most precious words will go to you in an early "Bulletin."

May I be allowed to remind you, dear ones, that these weekly releases represent our very life energy, for which both you and we are held responsible by Cosmic Law—you for the use you make of them, and we for the release of cosmic energy without, perhaps, an adequate return to life for its expenditure.

The laws governing life are much the same, above and below. For instance, at the end of a school year in your octave, a teacher is held responsible by the governing body of his institution for the result of his year's endeavors with his class. We, in the higher octaves, are also called to account before the Karmic Board, if our chelas and students do not show improvement in spiritual understanding and application of the instruction we have placed before them.

I am happy to tell you, beloved ones, that the result of this year's harvest (comprising all our endeavors both above and below), drew forth the joyfully received words of commendation, "Well done!" from the Lord of the World.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Ladies and Gentlemen, Friends of Light and Love and Freedom,

I greet you, again, on this wonderful evening when all of the Spiritual Hierarchy, having completed yet another year's service in the great cause of which we are all a part, return once more to the mystic, magic Shamballa, bringing with them their individual and collective "sheaves"—the harvest of the year's endeavor!

Ah, it is truly a festive place this night, as the laughter of the Gods, the songs of the angels and the music of the spheres mingle with the perfume radiating from God-free Beings, who are released for a short period of time from their individual responsibilities and obligations to mankind and have come to be recharged, repolarized and refreshed at the throne of the great Lord of the World.

In elemental, human, angel and Master there is always the rhythm of giving and receiving. There is always the rhythm of entering into the heart of contemplation for the renewal of spirit and consciousness at the cosmic fount, and then drawing that service through the energies of the consciousness to bless and benefit the evolution on the activity to which that expression of life belongs. When the rhythm in the lower octaves is broken, there is a depletion, in the case of unascended beings or elemental life. It is to restore that cosmic rhythm, (which we in the heavenly realm observe), that we are bringing to your attention again and again the necessity, the ABSOLUTE POSITIVE REQUIREMENT of UNDISTURBED ADORATION AND CONTEMPLATION OF YOUR SOURCE in order to draw those vital fires from your own Electronic Presence to revivify and re-energize your emotional worlds, your mental and etheric worlds and your physical forms. You are able to move forward, then, in greater service because of this contact with your Source.

Even the elemental life that makes up the substance of your household furniture or that of any so-called “inanimate” form which you use, when disintegration has taken place, returns to the Sun for repolarization. The elements that compose the physical body in which a soul is encased, as soon as the magnetic pull of the centripetal force is removed, are drawn back to the Sun for repolarization by the great angels and magnetic powers in charge of that activity. So, too, does the soul, (now that the veil of maya has made the creations of the outer world difficult to handle), through the mercy of so-called death, receive respite in the inner realms, in the fuller freedom of the etheric body which is repolarized, re-energized and prepared again for a new Earth life.

Likewise, in our kingdom, every twelve months, we are allowed the great privilege and honor of walking over that magnificent bridge of light into the heart of Shamballa, bringing with us not only the results of our individual service through the year, but also our energies and consciousness, and, in the radiant effulgence of the Lord of the World, we, too, are repolarized, revitalized and refreshed by proximity to his magnificent and radiant Presence.

Here, in counsel, one with another, we discuss our service of the past year. We bring our harvest, even as you are bringing yours, before the Lord of the World, and that harvest determines the amount of service that we are called upon to render for the coming twelve months. What we have done with the light given, what we have done with opportunities offered, what we have done with the consciousness and capacities that we have had at hand, will be the determining factor in our assignment for the coming year.

Therefore, in Shamballa tonight, you will find the lovely ladies (of the Brotherhood) with flowers woven into beautiful crowns on their heads or entwined in their long hair, and handsome gentlemen in their glorious raiment, wearing beautiful jewels of light upon their hands and person. You will find there all the joy of reunion, which perhaps you can slightly grasp in the reunion that you have with those you love at a holiday season.

As the great Threefold Flame at Shamballa receives, within itself, the harvest of each one of us, from the smallest elemental that made the tiniest apple blossom, to the greatest Archangel who rendered service in dissolving the compound, it grows and grows and grows, until it becomes a tremendous witness to that which every lifestream has accomplished through constructive energy, within the year.

Beloved friends of light and love, you have done much—much within the course of this year! Most of it you have not seen with the outer sight, and therefore it is not fully recorded within the energies of your etheric bodies, nor fully accepted within your emotional worlds. Nevertheless, you have done much to stir the energies of the sleepers' realm, you have done much to free lifestreams who have been impounded for ages, and you have done much, oh, so much, to dissolve and consume at inner levels (before they could take form), creations that would have burst upon the screen of life as catastrophes of many, many kinds.

Beloved ones, some of the individuals who were present at cosmic council when Sanat Kumara informed the people of Venus of his decision to help the Earth, offered to leave the vibratory action of that Star—where only happiness, harmony, beauty and perfection were expressed—incarnate through human bodies, and grow up in the atmosphere, climate, environment and radiation of a humanity which had sunk so low, that the Cosmic Law considered it no longer wise to sustain the planet, itself, in the system.

Think of that sacrifice! From the planet Venus it was easy to look upon this shadow star, but being willing to take embodiment upon her and become part of her evolution, so to speak, was quite another matter. Yet, these people were willing to make that sacrifice, so that there might be a fitting place on Earth for their beloved Lord to dwell when he should come.

Now, remember, the original Shamballa was established on Venus and magnificent beyond all words to describe. In it dwelt the beautiful Lady Venus, beloved Sanat Kumara, beloved Meta and the other Kumaras. From there they directed the government and religious activities of their Star. The people about to incarnate upon Earth had to imprint upon their consciousness and etheric bodies a picture of Shamballa as it was on Venus. Then, coming through the gross bodies of the people of Earth, they awoke to infant form. Having taken on the certain heritage of race and national karma, and having voluntarily accepted the “bonds of forgetfulness,” which are part of the heritage of this race, they had to grow to maturity, and begin to draw from their intuitive memories, the picture and design of the city they had left.

Drawn together by the bonds of interest in one cause, these people began the work of finding the right location for the beautiful city, which was to be the home of their Lord. Their next task was to find the material of which it was to be built and by the labor of their own hands design, from the marble and stone, the vision which they held within their minds.

It was not very different from that which you are doing today. There were no clouds of celestial glory. There was no coming and going of visible angelic beings—there was only the vision held within the minds of about one hundred people. You must remember, too, that they were not all born within the vicinity of the Gobi Sea. Some of them crossed great seas and continents, drawn by the magnetic pull of what they thought perhaps was a dream, hoping to find others of like mind and heart. They came together as strangers, from different families, of different races, but became bound one to another by this ephemeral dream. Then, joining their energies and believing in their vision, they commenced their colossal task.

More than once during that period of over nine-hundred years, beloved ones, after they had built strong foundations for their temples, laid with care the wide streets, and planted the small saplings that were to grow into magnificent trees—more than once, when they had it all set out—great hordes of untrained and savage members of the human race descended from the hills and wiped out every living soul and all their work. When they came again into embodiment they found only the ruins of their dream and the pattern left, and they stooped and brushed away the rubble, and started again. Then one day, working against time, mind you, for there was a cosmic moment beyond which the great Cosmic Law would not allow the Earth any more energy, and Sanat Kumara would have to come whether they were ready or not, the city was completed.

Finally, as you have heard, the great star stood in its perfect place, which was a signal to them of The Coming, and from Venus, the beloved Sanat Kumara, having bade “adieu” to his beloved complement and to all of his people, descended into a temple so magnificent that the like of it has never been seen on the Earth before or since.

There, in the presence of that humble few, who had constancy enough to live—and die—and live again—and never give up a vision, there, he manifested the Immortal Threefold Flame of God, which you honor this night, and there began the reign of the Lord of the World. There began the great nucleus of the White Brotherhood, which has been the salvation of the race. There was established the magnetic force that drew, from the millions of sleeping souls of mankind, only a few, who, in turn, became the elder brothers and sisters who were drawn into Shamballa and sent forth again at various periods by the Lord of the World, to give the people of Earth the assistance they required in order to sustain them upon their upward progress, even unto this present day.

You think sometimes, beloved ones, (for we see clearly with the inner sight), that a comparatively few undeveloped lifestreams can scarcely be the foundation of a World Order! Yet it has always been thus (the humble, it seems, are always the believing). It is always the constant few who DO establish and DO sustain those activities which are of benefit and blessing to the masses.

Tonight, looking upon Shamballa blazing in the ethers, surrounded by a glorious sapphire sea, it would look to you like a glorious sun surrounded by iridescent colors similar to mother of pearl, that blend at their outer edges into the natural blue of the horizon. As you stand on the etheric mainland, waiting for the procession to begin over the etheric replica of that marble bridge, which once was a visible, tangible, physical reality, you will see the great beautiful minarets and the golden domes of the temples in the city. As you look upon that bridge, and see its intricate carving and the lovely colored banners that are waving from the statuary upon the top of it, think for a moment of how many holy and blessed and sacred feet have crossed that bridge to the Sacred Island.

The procession is starting now on the mainland, and will proceed in order of cosmic rank, toward the temple of Sanat Kumara, himself, in the heart of Shamballa. All of the laughing, gathered throng have removed themselves now, in silence, from the heart of the city, and are waiting for the presentation of the “sheaves of accomplishment.”

Those individual “sheaves” stand within the Causal Body of every lifestream, as I have said before, from the greatest Elohim and Archangel to the very smallest elemental in the procession.

Sanat Kumara, himself, waits within the heart of his temple for the coming of the harvest bearers. His successor, the Lord Gautama Buddha, has taken his place at the head of the procession. The Buddha wears, tonight, a magnificent robe of lilac-colored silk, golden sandals adorn his blessed feet and around his neck he wears a golden chain with the star of Sanat Kumara resting on his breast. His hair brushed back plainly, as usual, falls to a little above the shoulders. His serene countenance is lighted by just the trace of an inner smile.

Behind the Lord Buddha walks Lord Maitreya, who will be the officiating priest at tonight's ceremonies—Lord Maitreya, of the golden hair and violet eyes—robed in snow white, (symbolic of the Cosmic Christ), with a deep band of embroidered royal purple at the hem and sleeves.

Behind Lord Maitreya walks your great friend and my beloved Guru, the Lord Maha Chohan, in his usual Indian garments, a large amethyst fastening his white turban. Walking by his side, her hand lightly touching his arm, is the beautiful Pallas Athena. She wears deep, royal purple tonight, and wears her crown as member of the Karmic Board.

Next in order of procession come the beloved Chohans of the Rays—a Master representing myself as Chohan of the Second Ray.

Beloved Morya, in a gorgeous white Indian costume, walks first. He wears a deep royal blue cape thrown up over the left shoulder, showing a lining of some white glistening silk material, which matches his turban—magnificent as usual.

Behind the beloved Morya walks my representative, in a robe of golden yellow. Then comes the beloved Venetian in a robe of soft pink, the color of his ray. The beloved Serapis comes next in pure white, wearing an Egyptian headdress of white. Behind Serapis walks the beloved Hilarion, also in a robe of white, but with a deep band of green at the hem and bottom of the sleeves, shading from the very deep green at the bottom, to the very light grass green at the top.

Next in line comes the beloved Jesus, in a robe of deep, ruby pink, accompanied by the beloved mother, in soft, azure blue, wearing a veil of the same celestial color over her long hair, falling almost to the hem of her robe.

Next in line comes the beloved Saint Germain in deep royal purple, looking like the prince of princes. Beside him walks the beautiful Goddess of Justice, in a lighter shade of the royal color, on her head the seven-pointed crown worn only by members of the Karmic Board, of which, as you know, she is spokesman. They present a truly magnificent appearance.

The great Elohim now enter the procession. Tonight they have chosen to occupy a different place, for some specific reason. Here they come—mighty Hercules robed in electric blue, the great Cassiopeia in Buddhic gold, the beloved Orion in soft pink, the Elohim of Purity in snow-white, the beloved Cyclopea (Vista) in Nile green, the beloved Elohim of Peace in ruby pink, similar to that worn by the Master Jesus, and the beloved Arcturus in the deep, royal purple of Saint Germain.

The Elohim each carry in one hand a globe, symbolic of the receptive consciousness, and in the other a scepter, symbolic of the power of invocation.

Following these mighty ones come the angelic host. Preceding the Archangels tonight are the seraphim, beautiful of face and form. As they walk they scatter multi-colored flame flowers, which not only cover the entire bridge with their radiance and perfume, but flow down into the sapphire sea beneath.

At the head of the Archangels walks Lord Michael, bearing his banner, on which is embroidered a great golden sun, surrounded by embossed figures of the seven Archangels in exquisite colors.

Lord Michael is garmented tonight in a long, white robe, with a band of deep blue sapphire at the hem. A great sapphire fastens his girdle, and the golden band which he wears around his head. His shining golden hair falls to the shoulders.

After him come the other six Archangels with their Archaii, two by two, each pair dressed in the magnificent colors of their rays. (The angels, as you know, represent the feeling nature of the Godhead.)

Next come the various members of the angelic host, in their radiant garments of varied and exquisite shades of color.

Following the angelic host come members of the Great White Brotherhood from the various retreats throughout the world. They have foresworn Nirvana in order to serve mankind. Many Initiates, who have refused their ascension in order that they might yet serve men in flesh bodies, come in their inner bodies.

Now, if you will join your consciousness with mine, we, too, shall walk over the bridge into the Sacred City. As we approach the temple, the sound of the great hosannas and magnificent oratorios resound through the air, and are wafted by the forces of nature over the entire planet, steeping into men's consciousness, drawn in by the breath.

As we reach the great doors of the temple, we may see Sanat Kumara standing by the side of the great altar, gently and lovingly acknowledging the “sheaves of harvest” as they are placed in the great crucible, by great and small alike.

The beloved Lord Maitreya, as celebrant, stands in front of the altar. He raises the censer in homage to the most high living God, and in loving recognition of the services each member of the assembly has rendered through the year. Now, as the breathing exercises are about to commence, we must, each one, go to our respective places. God bless you.

Beloved Children,

During the Transmission Flame Ceremonies at Shamballa recently, we had the rare privilege of hearing from the blessed lips of the beloved Sanat Kumara, himself, an invocation to the Supreme Being of all life, followed by a brief address to the pilgrims on the path, which I offer you now for your spiritual edification and comfort.

It is our endeavor through the repetition of these addresses, delivered by the God-free at inner levels, to connect your outer minds, beloved ones, with the scenes and activities you enjoy while functioning in your etheric bodies. We are aware of the fact that it is very often the cause for distress and self-depreciation on the part of many of the students that they do not always bring back the memory of people, places, and events they have contacted while the physical body slept, but for your comfort, let me inform you that this apparent disconnection in the memory faculty is not necessarily the result of spiritual unworthiness on the part of the individual, but rather, is caused by the density of the psychic and astral substance which forms the atmosphere of Earth.

As this human effluvia is purified and transmuted into its own natural light element by the sacred love of the Sacred Fire, magnetized and drawn into the physical atmosphere of Earth by the conscious and persistent calls of the awakened members of the race, the pressure on the mental and emotional bodies of the people will be removed, the veil that now exists between the higher and the lower octaves will be dissolved, communion with the Heavenly Host will be re-established—and angels, men, and elementals will walk hand-in-hand again as they did “in the beginning,” fulfilling their individual divine destinies through combined cooperation and harmony. It is to hasten this happy event on the planet

Earth, beloved ones, that certain members of the Ascended Host have chosen to devote all their time and energies to freeing the God-life evolving on this erstwhile “dark star.” Blessings and love

Invocation By The Beloved Sanat Kumara

Beloved, Infinite Presence of God, by whose life I have being, I honor thee this night, as I stand within the atmosphere of the planet Earth!

I honor thee for giving me opportunity of sustaining this planet in our solar system!

This night, as the harvest of the year's energies are offered in thy name at the altar of this holy temple, I am thy least and most humble servant; for it is thou who hast given me opportunity to use thy life, thy Intelligence and all the gifts and powers of thy Being!

Let not thy children honor me, O Lord—for I, of myself—am nothing! Without thy light, thy intelligence, thy direction and thy sustaining energy, I should be but unformed, elemental substance!

It is thou great, infinite source of all good—who has endowed me with self-conscious intelligence! It is Thou, to whom honor and glory and gratitude belong!

May the mankind of Earth come to know that service is opportunity to use thy great light, in whatever sphere life has placed them!

To thee, O great Star Venus, do I send my love and gratitude for all the energies you have given to sustain my activities during my exile here!

To you, O beloved and glorious Powers of Light, I am so grateful!

To you, unascended beings, everyone, everywhere, who have taken interest in my service, let me say—I AM SO GRATEFUL! SO GRATEFUL! SO GRATEFUL!

BELOVED SANAT KUMARA speaks:

Beloved friends, tonight it is my opportunity and joy—my privilege and honor—to project into your consciousness the QUALITY OF ENERGY which is within my flame!

What is flame? And why does mankind shy from that word?

Flame is but a concentrate of life energy which has been qualified by some Intelligence, to act in a specific manner—a concentrate of energy qualified by the feeling-world of some self-conscious Intelligence to act in a specific manner. As that energy—magnetized, draw, and concentrated—is CHARGED and CHARGED with a specific feeling, it becomes a FLAME which can and will enter into the energies and world of anyone who chooses to use it.

Now, the quality which I offer tonight to mankind, to elemental life, to imprisoned angels and to the planet itself is PATIENCE—the COSMIC FLAME OF COSMIC PATIENCE. Can you accept it in its fullness? Think it through!

What is patience, beloved ones? It is merely control of the energy of the inner and the physical bodies. It is the capacity, when treating any expression of life needing assistance, TO HOLD YOUR ENERGY IN PERFECT HARMONY and then to project it forth according to the direction of your Christ Self, for the accomplishment of some good purpose.

You have been given an assignment on happiness! Now, in preparation for the Holy Season, I give you an assignment—and that is—TO BECOME PATIENT MEN AND WOMEN!

Let me differentiate, for your enlightenment, between the quality of patience and that of lethargy or indifference! The PATIENT man is POSITIVE, POISED, POWERFUL. He does not allow his energy to go from him, either in thought, feeling, gesture, or word, until the God-Self has qualified it with ITS NATURE, and then, only, does it go forth in blessing.

All over this known world tonight—the waking and the sleeping—those who are aware of our activities and those who are not, as the Transmission Flame encircles the Earth, will be aware of the PATIENT FEELING which it has been my joy to develop, which has sustained me through the ages and which has brought me to this day. May my love and gratitude NOW enfold the beloved planet earth and its evolutions.

Beloved Maha Chohan

December 25, 1955

Children of God,

The beloved Sanat Kumara, in his address to the pilgrims at Shamballa recently, answered the oft-repeated query, “What is the flame?”

The flame of God, beloved ones, has many aspects and many uses. It is the sacred privilege of any child of god, any time, anywhere, to focus his or her attention on any quality of the Godhead and, through the power of concentrated love, to draw that virtue into manifest form, where it assumes the appearance of a flame, with color and substance, radiating the quality of the virtue it represents, out into the world to bless life.

The being who draws that virtue forth from the heart of God becomes a “Lord of the Flame” and is responsible for its sustenance in the world of form. For, if he should allow his attention to wander from its adoration and contemplation, into some other activity, the flame which he has drawn forth will gradually recede, until it is finally drawn back again into the heart of God, the magnetizing power of the individual responsible for its appearance having been withdrawn from its contemplation.

It often happens that one or more lifestreams, even unascended beings, are drawn through affinity to adoration of that flame, and these add to its size, power, and efficacy, just as the mighty rivers which water the Earth owe their power and might to the thousands of small rivulets that flow into them. Many times, as you are aware, beloved ones, several of these great rivers will join their forces and become mighty waterways, which bear great ships upon their bosoms.

The Violet Transmuting Flame—the forgiving and raising power of God—likewise had a small beginning, in the gentle heart of a soul dedicated to love and mercy, many long ages ago, when it became evident that mankind was headed toward the downward path. Since that time, beloved ones, many great souls, realizing its need, have poured their life energies into the Flame of Mercy, until now it has assumed cosmic proportions, and the knowledge of its presence has seeped into the outer consciousness of mankind through myth and legend in such representations as the River Styx and other “fires of punishment,” at the other side of the veil.

This Sacred Fire of Purification is a very real and tangible manifestation of God's love and mercy. It is a gentle, though powerful, application of God's grace, administered without agony or suffering, which accounts for the feeling of good will and happiness that pervades the world around the Christmas season. It is also responsible for the desire on the part of humankind to make “good resolutions” around the first of the year, many of which are, alas, so soon abandoned in a return to the old ways of the flesh.

In the beloved Kuthumi's report of the Transmission Flame Activities at the Royal Teton, he gives a vivid description of this “mass baptism” administered to all of mankind at the end of each year. In order that you may avail yourselves of the opportunity offered, it is our desire that this portion of his report be placed in your hands as soon as possible. You may go in consciousness, beloved ones, and, standing in spirit beside that cosmic baptismal font—while the angels of mercy submerge the multitude of unawakened mankind—call for mercy and illumination so that, through God's grace, they may not don soon again the soiled garments of the human consciousness.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Ones,

You might like to witness an activity that is taking place in the atmosphere above the Royal Teton this evening—that of the annual submergence of the multitude in the lake of Violet Fire—drawn here for this purpose, which is part of the mercy of the Cosmic Law. As you have been told, at the end of each twelve-month period, we come to a time when the Violet Fire, in overwhelming cosmic action, is allowed to dissolve and transmute, in, through, and around the lifestreams of Earth, all the accumulation of discord that has been created during the course of that year WITHOUT VICIOUS INTENT—WITHOUT MALICE—and THROUGH IGNORANCE.

For that purpose, at the end of each year, there is created by the builders of form what you would describe as a lake, about a thousand feet in diameter, circular in shape and filled with deep, Violet Fire. Into that Lake of Violet Fire every soul, belonging to this planet, steps before the end of the year, and each one is literally baptized, one might say, in its purifying essence.

Now, this activity, for this current year, has been taking place for some time. The beloved friends who have been released from the compound through your calls, have already passed through it. Those who have been awakened from the sleepers' realm and the last of the earth-bound are now ready for a higher training.

If you will watch with me for moment, you will see the white-robed figures of the angels of mercy, wearing deep bands of purple on the sleeves of their garments, standing all around the edge of this circular sea of Violet Fire. They are in groups of seven, each group divided by a space in which is a contrivance like a small dock, that runs down to the edge of the lake. Now, from the background, you will see the souls of men approaching, most of them in a somnambulant state, completely unconscious of their surroundings, but all drawn hither in their etheric bodies by the magnetizing power of divine love and mercy. As these figures step upon the dock, each soul is approached by two of the angelic figures, who take it by each side, lead it into the Violet Fire and bathe it carefully in the flame, even to the head. This submergence of the entire body is performed very gently, three times. When they are led out, they are given into the charge of the angels of protection, who return the soul to the body, staying with it until there comes a certain sense of relief and release from the pressures of the past year. This baptism is not a "one by one" performance. Many souls are submerged at the same time.

When you come to the conscious chelas, however, you have, of course, the cooperation of the mental and emotional bodies, and these souls enter the Sacred Fire with a realization of what it can do. I am telling you this tonight so that you may, while this activity of mercy goes on, bathe within this purifying fire, not once, but often. The angelic host will welcome you back as often as you care to come. There is no such thing in the Ascended Masters' realm as weariness, exhaustion or depletion in service. Every time you come for a blessing they are more happy than before, so just utilize the opportunity, beloved ones, with all the power at your command, and remember that the Violet Fire is there through the life energy of the beloved Kwan Yin, Saint Germain, beloved Zadkiel and beloved Holy Amethyst.

HAVE YOU ANY IDEA OF THE ENERGY IT TAKES TO MAKE A MIGHTY CAULDRON OF FLAME A THOUSAND BY A THOUSAND FEET? It takes an almost limitless amount of concentrated power and attention to keep that Violet Fire at such a vibratory rate, that no matter what energy is passed into it, it never sinks below its purifying, sublimating state. One of these great beings is in constant attendance to render that service and assistance. That, beloved ones, is the activity of submergence and of purification and spiritual baptism that takes place at inner levels, of which the earthly baptismal rite is but a faint reflection.

Beloved Children,

These are busy days (and nights), not only for the children of Earth, but for the members of the Celestial Host, who have dedicated their free energies to the redemption of a planet and its people.

It is my pleasure to offer you a summary of the events that took place on the evening of the Transmission Flame Activities at the beloved Lanto's retreat in the Royal Teton, December 17, 1955.

I would like you to feel, beloved ones, as you read our beloved Kuthumi's report, that you are not merely WITNESSES of these activities, but that you are vitally interested as PARTAKERS, because if you were not, the Cosmic Law would not have allowed you the privilege of even enjoying them intellectually through the written word.

Join us here, therefore, as often as you can release yourselves from your earthly pursuits, dear ones, and let us proceed joyously and jointly with the very important business at hand, which is the illumination of the outer minds of the mankind of Earth, freeing them from the slavery imposed upon them by the human consciousness and raising them, through Christly thinking, into the freedom which is their divine heritage.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Ladies and Gentlemen,

I bring to you, from the members of the Great White Brotherhood assembled this evening at the Royal Teton, the blessing and benediction of this most Holy Season.

I have been asked by our beloved Maha Chohan to remind you of the tremendous acceleration of your four lower bodies, through the actual conveyance of your consciousness to the Ascended Masters' retreats during the thirty-day period while they are particularly active. If you can understand this, and each one avail himself or herself daily of a trip in consciousness to the heart of the current retreat, and stand within that concentrate of flame, you may have, during that entire period, tremendous assistance in the purification of your lower vehicles, with the renewal of their energy to a point where each one remains under the harmonious control of your indwelling Christ.

Now, beloved ones, a few years back, while those of you who were interested in metaphysical and occult studies, might have been cognizant of the existence of the retreats throughout the world, where members of the Great White Brotherhood and the angelic kingdom are active during certain periods, when you laid your sweet bodies down to rest at night and entered some of these retreats, (as many of you doubtless did), you brought back little to serve the energies of your inner or outer bodies. Many of your experiences were in your Holy Christ Self, and a few of you, with more acceleration of the vibratory action of your soul-light, had the experience in your etheric garments.

But what happens now, when we go together in full projected consciousness into those retreats? Your outer mind, your mental body, and your emotional world enter into the vibratory action and presence of not only the Master in charge of the visitation, but also of the radiation and aura of the entire Celestial Hierarchy assembled there, and you bring that grace back with you into the orbit of your daily living.

Since the beloved Morya parted the veil of maya sufficiently to allow you to be taken to the retreats during the great festive occasions, when they are most active, you have been privileged in body, soul, and spirit, to witness activities that previously were known only to the very few initiates who had attained conscious control over their outer selves to a point where they might come and go from the body at will. Now, in a certain degree of comfort, while still retaining your outer consciousness as well as control of your physical vehicles, without the necessity of trance or sleep, you are transported into the sacred precincts of those God-vested halls and homes where the Perfected Beings have drawn and radiated only perfection for centuries.

Beloved ones, can you for a moment imagine what it means to bring a group of untrained lifestreams, yet unascended, into such sanctified and purified radiation? Can you realize how much extra application is required on behalf of the Brotherhood in order to make possible even the transference of your consciousness? I think not! Yet, you are much more free than you were a few years back! You have stood on the marble bridge at Shamballa! You have stood in the halls of Luxor! You have enjoyed the beauty of the Transylvania Retreat and the various other foci upon the face of the Earth! You have seen with the inner eye the Masters at work! You have even cooperated with their current endeavors through visualization, decrees and song. Therefore, you are, by far, more true children of freedom now than you were when you only hoped that some sweet day YOU WOULD HAVE THE PRIVILEGE of CONSCIOUSLY joining the Masters' service WHILE IT WAS STILL BEING ENACTED, rather than hearing about it long after it was over and written into the pages of past history.

Our beloved Maha Chohan has asked me to remind you of that FREEDOM. Because it is evident that some of you, in certain confines of returning karma, feel that you are still bound and have not progressed far in the course of a few years. Yet, you HAVE progressed, beloved ones, for you have been invited to, conducted into, and entertained in the retreats which have been closed to the outer consciousness of mankind for long ages. THAT is a gift of freedom—of that great Being whom you profess to honor and love—and who brings these gifts to you for your enjoyment and illumination.

I will have to retrogress a little in my description of this evening's activities, in order to bring beauty and continuity to the story, and so we will return to the fourteenth of December, when the closing of the celebrations at Shamballa took place.

At Shamballa, you remember, the activity of joy and release and the bringing in of the harvest was the source of all the rejoicing of the multitude assembled there. In every retreat throughout the world, the Brotherhood took turns in serving, so that every member of this vast organization of servers had at least one or two days in that glorious retreat, where they could enjoy the vibrant presence of the beloved Sanat Kumara, and repolarize and revitalize their energies in his magnificent aura.

As the harvest, made up of all the energies expended in service, prayers, benedictions and good works of every kind, was builded into the glorious, immortal Threefold Flame of Life, it was enclosed in a magnificent tabernacle of light, and sealed by the Archangel Uriel, later to be transferred to the Royal Teton, where the festivities are already well under way. While this ceremony was being enacted by the beloved Uriel and his angelic helpers, Sanat Kumara was giving his benediction to the Elohim, the Archangels, the seraphim and cherubim, the great Chohans, the initiates, the conscious chelas and to every expression of life which had contributed some service (no matter how small) to the forward progress of mankind. During this benediction, he expressed such magnificent love and kindness that each member of the vast congregation received his concentrated attention and the warmth of his loving smile while he blessed them.

Beloved Maha Chohan

Beloved Children of Faith,

God bless you for your accomplishments which have resulted in the most transcendent news heard by the Spiritual Hierarchy, conveyed by beloved Morya to Sanat Kumara on New Year's Eve, 1955, that SANAT KUMARA IS FREE TO RETURN TO VENUS!

At this celebration of the Transmission Class, held at the retreat of beloved Lord Michael, the Archangel, on January 21, 1956, at approximately 9:30 p.m. (eastern standard time), the BELOVED SANAT KUMARA WILL CONSCIOUSLY TAKE LEAVE OF THE EARTH, ASCENDING UPON A PATHWAY OF FLAME TO HIS STAR, VENUS, TO HIS BELOVED SPIRITUAL COMPLEMENT, VENUS, AND TO HIS PEOPLE. Acknowledgment of his ascent, with appropriate songs of gratitude and blessings to Sanat Kumara for his service, should be a part of this Transmission Class. THE LORD BUDDHA IS ASSUMING THE OFFICE OF LORD OF THE WORLD, BUT SANAT KUMARA HAS RETAINED THE OFFICE OF SPIRITUAL REGENT OVER THE SPIRITUAL HIERARCHY, AND WILL RETURN TO THE EARTH OFTEN to assist in the consultations and preparations of the Brotherhood for greater service in 1956!

After you have stepped into the flame of Faith on Lord Michael's altar, be among those sending Sanat Kumara home in love! HAPPY IS THIS DAY IN EARTH'S EVOLUTION, AND YOU CAN BUT IMAGINE THE GRATITUDE, JOY, PREPARATION AND ANTICIPATION OF THE PEOPLE OF VENUS!

The keynote of the retreat of Lord Michael at Banff is the "Soldiers' Chorus," from the Opera Faust (this is not Lord Michael's personal keynote).

Anticipating the joy of joining with you in this triumphant return of Sanat Kumara to his star, I am with love and blessings.

"The Bridge to Freedom," Inc. Supplement, January, 1956
THE HOMES AND RETREATS OF THE MASTERS OF WISDOM RETREAT OF BELOVED ARCHANGEL MICHAEL,
January 15th to February 15, 1956

Located in the Canadian Rockies between Banff and Lake Louise, is the magnificent focus of the beloved Archangel Michael, defender of faith in God, and protector of the spiritual selves of the evolutions developing in, through and around the planet earth!

When the first root race descended to the planet Earth with its Manu, Lord Michael and his spiritual court descended with them, both as a spiritual escort and as cosmic protectors of their light. As the gentle readers know, this conscious descent took place in the vicinity of the Grand Teton Mountains in Wyoming. Here, the Earth, wearing her fairest garments, woven under the direction of Virgo, Aries, Neptune and the Spirit of Springtime (Amaryllis), greeted the holy innocents, who had been chosen to be the first inhabitants of the Earth. These individuals were to develop within a fourteen-thousand-year cycle bringing the perfection of heaven on Earth through themselves, individually, and increasing the beauty of the Earth by their presence upon it.

The great Manu, the spiritual guardians of this root race, the angelic host, the devas and the first root race mingled together, and had daily communication one with the other. There was no veil of maya, which hid the celestial glory of the Perfected Beings from the people. (For a more detailed description of this descent, please see the December 1952 issue of "The Bridge to Freedom.")

After the descent, the beloved Virgo offered Lord Michael and his company a place of abode designed by the builders of form and certain of the angelic host, in the vicinity of Banff. Here had been created a magnificent temple constructed of the most beautiful blue sapphires and diamonds, circular in shape, crowned with a dome of purest gold. Standing lightly upon the apex of the dome of this gigantic temple (about five thousand feet in circumference) was a replica of the beloved Archangel Michael, created out of pure white diamonds, with blue sapphires for his eyes, and carefully-carved gold for his hair.

For many centuries the beloved Archangel Michael and his spiritual company used this temple, and many of the people of Earth visited it, absorbing the strength, faith, power, and desire to continue to do God's will through their own conscious connection with their individualized I AM Presence, with whom they had not yet lost the faculty of conscious communion.

After the Earth changes, the resulting sea of maya that shut away the glory of the divine guardians of the race, and the gradual development of destructive and greedy tendencies in the human race, many of the retreats of the Masters and angels were wisely drawn within the protective surface of Earth, and surrounded with the mystic ring-pass-not of the Hierarchs and their priests and priestesses. The visible, tangible temple of Lord Michael (as well as many others) was dissolved, and the etheric temple, which had formed the pattern for the physical temple, became the focus for this great Lord of Light and his angelic host.

Thus, today, those who are privileged to be invited to this retreat must attend in their etheric bodies, in their Holy Christ Selves or through the wonderful medium of projected consciousness, which is the method employed to convey the gentle readers to this retreat, opened to the outer world for the first time since the sinking of the continent of Atlantis.

There are four entrances to Lord Michael's circular temple. The main entrance is opened only for cosmic occasions, such as we celebrate at this time. Forty-nine steps made of deep blue sapphires lead up to the golden doors (forty feet high). On each door is inlaid, in similar blue sapphires, two beings, representative of Lord Michael and his Archaii, beloved Faith.

Within the temple, itself, the seats are arranged in a circular formation, with the diamond altar in the center, equally discernible from every point in the temple. Upon this altar burns the Blue-White Flame of faith in God! You are invited to enter this flame at will during this thirty-day period, and to ask for a member of this angelic order to be your daily companion during your periods of meditation, contemplation, and spiritual application, as well.

Welcome, beloved children of God, to the presence of the Spirit of Faith, and the guardian presence of that faith in God during this period! Bathe often in the essence of that strong, enduring, energizing, enthusiastic energy and being! Your New Year cycle of 1956 will be stimulated by proximity to the beloved Archangel Michael, whose reason for being is to protect the spiritual spark in every man, to cut away the particular vices that the soul has accumulated, and to remove all distortions of truth from the minds, souls, and consciousnesses of this evolution!

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 8, 1956

Beloved Children of the One Father,

As we have remarked before, these are busy days, not only for the mankind of Earth, who are occupied taking stock and inventory of their material affairs for the past year, but also, more particularly, for the members of the Heavenly Host, who are devoting their hard-won, freed energies to the welfare of mankind, not only those who are working out their salvation on this earth plane, but also the discarnate members of the race in the psychic and astral realms.

Due to the importance of the activities which took place on the evening of the New Year at the Royal Teton, we have thought it wise to acquaint you, as soon as possible, with the thoughtform for the coming year, as well as with the names of the spiritual sponsors for the same period.

I have pleasure, therefore, in offering you excerpts from our beloved Morya's report on the events which took place on the evening of December 31st, 1955. The balance of beloved Kuthumi's report on the Transmission Flame Ceremonies will go to you in a later "Bulletin."

In the meantime, beloved ones, let me urge you, with all the love and power at my command, to devote every moment you can spare from your material affairs, to the invocation of your own Christly nature, which is the ONLY DOOR to your freedom.

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Beloved Friends,

The entire assembly of the Great White Brotherhood, drawn to the Royal Teton for this great occasion, is gathered together in the large audience chamber; all deeply intent on the activities about to take place, which include, among many others, the appointment of the spiritual sponsors for the Year 1956, and the reception and precipitation of the Thoughtform for the New Year, first by our beloved Sanat Kumara, and then by the entire assemblage.

The great altar, which occupies the center of the vast audience chamber, rests upon a massive white marble base. Upon this base they have placed a magnificent cross of sparkling yellow diamonds, similar to those which adorn the ceiling of the central hall of the Teton, and which make up the planets and the various zodiacal signs portrayed there. This beautiful diamond cross presents the same appearance on all sides, so that its beauty may be enjoyed from every part of the room.

On this altar now blazes the Precipitation Flame (in green and gold) of the beloved Lanto, gracious Master of the Royal Teton Retreat.

As you have been told by our beloved Kuthumi, the base of the altar is square, four steps leading to the top on all four sides, so that there may be four celebrants at one and the same time. Two officiated on the evening of the Transmission Flame Ceremonies—the beloved Portia and Saint Germain—but this evening there will be four, as the sponsors for the Year 1956 bring in the Pink Flame and Ray, under which they all serve. This will be of tremendous assistance in the melting of discordant conditions in the inner bodies of the mankind of Earth.

There have been four spiritual sponsors appointed for the coming year, instead of the usual number (two). They are the beloved Archangel Chamuel with his beautiful Archaii, the beloved Charity, the beloved Chohan, Paul the Venetian and the beautiful Lady Master Nada. All serve, as you are aware, under the Pink Ray of Love Divine, and this fact in itself, aside from the increase in numbers, should portend well for the New Year that is at hand.

The ceremony of the coronation of the sponsors for the New Year is now about to commence. Saint Germain, as officiating celebrant, stands in his magnificent robes of state before the flame at the center of the high altar, and the beloved Portia has taken her place in the atmosphere directly above the flame. Saint Germain is now rising to take his place by her side. Both of these beautiful beings are bearing in their hands two crowns, one in each hand. These crowns are somewhat similar to that of the British Commonwealth, except that the centers are a delicate pink. Magnificent jewels adorn the bands.

The beloved Chamuel and Charity have ascended now and stand before Saint Germain. They are in a prayerful attitude with hands crossed on the breast. They wear garments, of course, indicative of their rank, of an exquisite pink shade. The beloved Paul and Nada are ascending slowly. They also are robed in the delicate pink of their ray.

Now, as the entire assembly chants a magnificent song of praise—to the accompaniment of the music of the angelic host—the beloved Portia places the crowns she holds on the heads of the Archangel and his Archaii, both of whom remain in a standing position. These Great Ones now move slowly to either side, and Saint Germain places the crowns of sponsorship on the heads of the beloved Nada and Paul, who assume a kneeling position. Now, the four stand and clasp hands across the flame on the center of the altar, while the great Elohim Orion, from a position above their heads, projects mighty vibrations of the Pink Ray out over the vast assembly, and thence over the entire planet. The entire universe seems to be all bathed in delicate pink this evening.

In the meantime, the petitions to the Karmic Board from ascended and unascended beings (which have been placed in a gigantic brazier) have been brought in. These form a blazing pyre now, which will continue to burn long, long after your service here in the Western Hemisphere is closed for the evening. The essence that emanates from that brazier is a perfume resembling jasmine. It represents the holiness of the raised energies of mankind offered in loving service to their brothers.

Sanat Kumara, Lord of the World, Guardian of the planet Earth, now enters. He who has sustained this planet in its system, comes again tonight, in humility and grace, to receive the Thoughtform for the Year 1956. He comes forward slowly and majestically. First, he bows low before the flame on the altar. Then he touches the head of each of the four sponsors with his hand, and steps into the heart of the flame. The beloved Silent Watcher may now be seen high in the atmosphere. She holds the Thoughtform for the Year in her heart. Sanat Kumara, in an attitude of adoration, raises his consciousness to receive it. Then, as the entire assembly watches, he projects it forth and the assembly breathes it in. They then project it forth, in turn, for the blessing of the Earth and its people.

The Thoughtform for this Year of 1956, beloved ones, is a heart of Pink Flame, from the top of which blazes the Immortal Threefold Flame of life (pink and gold and blue)—symbolic of the love and balance of life.

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 15, 1956

Beloved Children,

We will turn our attention this week to Kuthumi's report of the Transmission Flame Ceremonies of December 17th, which we interrupted, in order to give you the Thoughtform for the New Year and the names of the spiritual sponsors, as recorded by our beloved Morya on New Year's Eve, 1955.

In offering you these detailed descriptions of places and events at inner levels, beloved ones, it is to give you the FEELING that the events in which you are taking part, spiritually, are REAL and that the Great White Brotherhood, an inner organization of which you have read and heard so much, is made up of intelligent, living beings, who have made the sacrifice of postponing their own spiritual evolution to remain in the atmosphere of Earth, ministering to a mankind that is not even interested in an endeavor whereby they might attain their own eternal freedom.

It was at the suggestion of the beloved Lord Maitreya that several of these God-free Beings, in their addresses, made you acquainted with certain episodes in their own lives, as they walked the pathway of Earth. These pictures, while perhaps not very important in themselves, were intended to show you that these beings lived and passed through experiences similar to those that many of you may be passing through today, and yet raised themselves, through personal endeavor or application, into the Ascended Master state which they now enjoy. This should be a tremendous incentive to individual endeavor on the part of the students, for that which one determined man or woman can do to earn his or her eternal freedom, anyone else may do likewise.

As we contemplate the Precipitation Flame, beloved ones, which has been blazing this current month on the great altar of the Royal Teton, and into which you have been invited to take your consciousness, I would like to remind you that every outward manifestation of life (and that includes the higher octaves), is an activity of the Precipitating Flame of God, wielded by some expression of divinity, whether it be Master, angel, deva, or man. The God-free Beings in the higher octaves, of course, produce this phenomena consciously, while in the lower octaves it is done for the most part unconsciously. Even while the body sleeps at night, the human consciousness is perpetually weaving the life force into fantastic forms and shapes, which it interprets as 'DREAMS,' and yet, perhaps, man would be surprised to learn that HE IS HELD RESPONSIBLE BY COSMIC LAW FOR THE EXPENDITURE OF THIS ENERGY, the valueless nature of which only adds to the volume of effluvia that makes up the psychic and astral realms in which man abides.

The life energy is never still for a moment, beloved ones. It is always vibrating in response to the thoughts and feelings held in the consciousness of the individual who has taken the responsibility of becoming a magnetizing center and radiating dispenser of the God-life. It very often happens that lifestreams become enamored of the pictures thrown upon the screen of maya, either by themselves or others, not being aware that these are frequently emanations rising from the loosening bonds of awakening etheric bodies, and have no spiritual value for the progress of the soul. They have, rather, the opposite effect, in that they tend to inflate the ego and stifle the mental and emotional intelligence. Life is like a great river, forever flowing onward; past scenes and past events have been gathered into the womb of time. Try not to draw them forth again and revivify them, beloved ones, as this practice only brings unhappy results in its wake. Consign the past to the care of the Angels of Mercy, and go forward joyously to meet the event of the glorious new day that is ahead.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Let us now turn our attention westward to the magnificent Royal Teton Range, which many of you have been privileged to see with the physical sight, and which has the appearance tonight of a blazing and beautiful cathedral of light, of which our beloved brother Lanto is the great Hierarch.

The Hierarchs of the various retreats on the Earth's surface, or their representatives, have been arriving here since December 15th. As they enter, they immediately enroll with the brother who is called the Keeper of Scrolls. He is a beautiful being, with gentle face and long golden hair, something like the Master Jesus. He wears a long white robe, heavily banded on the sleeves with gold. He sits at a magnificent golden desk, furnished at the sides with cylindrical pockets, into which scrolls may be placed. On these various scrolls are written the petitions of the combined Brotherhood of a particular retreat, or they may hold the individual petitions of ascended or unascended beings. All scrolls are presented to this brother, who scans them carefully. Sometimes he makes a correction, or perhaps a deletion before he returns it to the petitioner.

After the scroll has been presented and accepted, the brother then assigns the visiting Hierarchs or their representatives to the rooms set apart for their use. A white and gold bulletin board hangs at the side of each door, and on this the visitor attaches his petition. As the seven great council chambers fill, the numbers of petitions on the boards increase, each petitioner being eager to get supporters for his project. It is all very interesting and inspiring—the great corridor being crowded with Masters, angels, devas and chelas (the latter in their inner bodies) reading the various petitions, making notes of their contents, and deciding which ones will have their support.

You will remember that, owing to the increased numbers of people attending this retreat, seven additional chambers have been hewn out of the rock. These surround the great central audience chamber, giving the effect of a gigantic lotus flower, with outstretched petals. Exquisite, gold curtains hang at the entrance to each room, and on each one is depicted an Archangel with his Archaii, in the glorious colors of their rays. These curtains are divided in the center, and when closed, they look like beautiful panels. Tonight they are drawn back, and have the effect of an angel guarding each side of the wide doorways to the seven council chambers.

Beloved Morya has described for you the beautiful altar, with its base of white marble, and glittering cross of sparkling yellow diamonds adorning the top. Around the base of the altar, tonight, the brothers have placed an arrangement of beautiful yellow jonquils, hundreds and hundreds of them. These flowers only grow in China. They have very short stems and large trumpets. They make a beautiful picture of green and gold.

You will remember having described to you the beautiful friezes that adorn the base of the altar, showing the descent of the Manu and Lord Michael with members of the first, second, and third root races. You may recall that there were three vacant spaces left for future delineations. These have been filled in during the year. One depicts the Angel Gabriel awakening the sleepers in the realm devoted to them. It shows the Archangel with upraised hand, in which he holds a trumpet, and the sleepers in a seated position on their couches, with heads raised in a listening attitude. The next frieze shows the Archangel Michael standing with upraised sword at the door of the compound, and on the faces of the outcoming occupants is a look of almost joyous unbelief. The third one represents the removal of the last discarnates from the Earth. It shows a being seeming to clutch the Earth with one hand, while the other clasps that of the Archangel Zadkiel. All these events are made possible by your calls, and I know you are happy to learn that your harvest has become a permanent part of the oldest retreat on Earth—the great Royal Teton.

God bless you, KUTHUMI

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 22, 1956

Beloved Children of the Spirit,

It is my pleasure to offer, for your enjoyment and contemplation, more of the details of scenes and events in which you, yourselves, have taken an interested and active part, while your bodies slept.

Man does not realize, for the most part, that he is SPIRIT BY NATURE, and that this indwelling occupant is definitely interested in and attracted to activities that pertain to its own existence. This particularly refers to those who are awakening from the drowse of the senses. The soul is stirring in its sleep—it is beginning to hear the still, small voice of the spirit, and feel the urge that, at last, it must be 'about its Father's business.'

As your outer consciousness is made aware of activities at inner levels through these reports, beloved ones, the vibrations of your outer minds are raised, and they become more sensitive and gently receptive to spiritual instruction, activities and events that hitherto seemed beyond the scope of human reason or understanding.

It is a matter, then, for great rejoicing on the part of the Celestial Hierarchy, that out of the billions steeped in the slough of the senses on this planet, there are a comparatively few individuals willing to brave the ridicule and skepticism of the mass mind to listen to our words of instruction, which will lead to their eternal freedom.

Allow me to commend you on your spiritual courage, beloved ones, and to repeat for your encouragement the words of our beloved Jesus, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." Blessings and love

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Even to the outer sight of man tonight, the Royal Teton presents the appearance of a glorious, natural cathedral, with the blazing light from within playing upon the snow upon its cap. As we stand for a moment, contemplating the beauty of this great mountain range, let us consider how wonderful nature is to create those magnificent spires pointing heavenward, to remind even the most mundane among mankind of the divine principle behind all manifest life.

Tonight, the Teton is filled with activity. The members of the Karmic

Board have already taken their places on the magnificent thrones of Chinese jade and emeralds, created for their use, in love and gratitude, by the brothers of this retreat. Petitions are going up to them continually from Masters, angels, devas, and chelas—all eager to present their ideas for the comfort and enlightenment of the evolutions of Earth.

Around these thrones a vast amphitheater in circular form has been erected by the builders of form, with seven great tiers of seats in the various colors of the rays—blue, gold, pink, white, green, ruby, and violet. In them are being seated the individuals among mankind who have been brought in their inner bodies by angelic beings. As they enter, the color of the ray to which they belong is clearly distinguishable emanating from their etheric bodies, so that it is an easy matter to direct them to the tier of seats reserved for their use. Now this projection of color is a very significant thing from the inner standpoint, because the etheric body of the mass of mankind is, for the most part, heavy and gray and not at all translucent. Yet, tonight, even the most mundane among them are radiating the colors of their rays, which shows the magnificent purification that is taking place through the inner bodies of the entire human race, set into action by the four Great Beings—the Directors of the Forces of Elements—in the autumn class, and continued by your daily service.

The members of the Karmic Board are robed in varying shades of the gentle color pink again this evening, the beloved Portia wearing a deep rose tint. As spokesman of the Board, she is seated in the center, her throne being raised somewhat above the others. Her magnificent robe is banded with a crystalline substance, the long train sweeping 'round and arranged in graceful folds in front. Upon her head she wears the seven-pointed crown, adorned in front with a massive pink diamond, which is fully two and one-half inches in height, the other six stones adorning the band being smaller. The other members of the Board wear similar crowns, the only point of differentiation being the size of the central jewel.

These great beings now have the great obligation of giving to the Great White Brotherhood, to the various retreats, as well as to the mankind of Earth, that portion of life's energies which, according to their great wisdom, can be used to help the evolutions of Earth to greater freedom in the Year 1956.

All during this busy evening, the various activities and ceremonies attendant upon the termination of the "old" year and the beginning of the "new" year (as described to you by the beloved Kuthumi and myself) have been taking place. And now, beloved ones, how shall I put into words the joyful news that it is my pleasure, privilege and honor to impart to you!

“SANAT KUMARA HAS BEEN RELEASED FROM HIS EXILE OF THE AGES!”

This decision by the Cosmic Law came as a COMPLETE SURPRISE to all but a very few of the Celestial Hierarchy, and it was my sweet privilege and honor to be invited to present the scroll announcing his cosmic freedom to him, as he stood rapt in deep meditation within the flame upon the altar. After its reception, he remained for a long while, gazing in profound contemplation at the gift of freedom within his hands, while the expression of joy and gratitude on the faces of the entire multitude, as they were made aware of its contents through my words of presentation, was beautiful to behold.

The Lord Buddha, who has been preparing himself through long ages for this hour, now advanced slowly toward the flame, and Sanat Kumara, from his position within it, removed the crown from his head and placed it gently on the head of the Lord Gautama, who knelt to receive it with hands reverently crossed upon his breast in an attitude of humility and grace.

Sanat Kumara then stepped forth from the flame and, standing by the side of Lord Gautama, blessed and thanked the multitude present, and all life, for his release, and expressed the desire to remain in Shamballa as Regent until the expiration of time set by the Cosmic Law a few years ago, for his stay on Earth. THE LORD GAUTAMA WILL RULE AS LORD OF THE WORLD FROM THIS NIGHT FORTH.

It was a tremendous and surprising climax to a most eventful evening, beloved ones, and I am sure that every lifestream in that vast assembly was grateful to God for the privilege of witnessing a cosmic event unparalleled in all evolutionary history.

God bless you, each one.

EL MORYA

Beloved Maha Chohan

January 29, 1956

Beloved Children,

Events and activities relating to planet Earth's evolution are moving forward so rapidly in the etheric realms at this time, that they seem to exceed the time and space that your limited human consciousness allows to narrate them.

The beloved Morya and Kuthumi have endeavored to keep you acquainted with the scenes and events leading up to the dramatic climax of beloved Sanat Kumara's freedom, which was made possible at this time through Lord Gautama Buddha's preparation and attainment of the spiritual heights necessary to fill the office of Lord of the World, in Sanat Kumara's place.

It is now my pleasure to offer you the Archangel Michael's account of the cosmic events which took place in his retreat in the Canadian Rockies on the evening of the Transmission Flame Ceremony, January 21st, 1956. This sanctuary has not been open to the outer consciousness of man for many, many ages, but was chosen by Cosmic Law, at the present time, as a fitting theater to stage events unequaled in all evolutionary history.

BELOVED ARCHANGEL MICHAEL speaks:

Welcome into the heart and spirit of faith tonight, beloved friends, you who have guarded, guided, and protected the faith of mankind life after life for many aeons of time!

It is my great honor and privilege to re-open the doors of my retreat here in the Western Hemisphere tonight, for the great and magnificent purpose of forming the platform, forming the impetus, forming the actual momentum of energy—UPON WHICH THE LORD OF THE WORLD, HIMSELF, SHALL ASCEND IN MAJESTIC GLORY AND DIGNITY TO HIS HOME!

So do I now offer my gratitude to you for your participation in these scenes beyond the veil of maya, relying wholly upon the instincts of your hearts, the promptings of your spirits and the radiation which we endeavor to pour through the veil of maya into your worlds, particularly into your emotional bodies.

It is a rather marvelous activity when you think that through the human veil, Ascended Beings can contact and commune with unascended beings in a sufficient pressure of conviction that a handful of such unascended beings are willing to stand within their faith in God and those of us who are his messengers, and use voluntarily—without pressure of superstition and fear and doubt—their vital energies, mentally, emotionally, etherically, and physically, to further the evolution of a recalcitrant planet and its people.

The activity begins tonight at Shamballa. You are, of course, all acquainted with Shamballa—the marble bridge, the beautiful temples representing the Seven Great Rays, the great central pool in which play the magnificent flame fountains, and the beautiful temple of Sanat Kumara overlooking the whole!

From within this temple Sanat Kumara has reigned since his coming to Earth, many millions of years ago. From within this temple he has sent forth every messenger of light who has ever carried the message of God and the EXAMPLE OF THE NATURE OF GOD to man. This temple is filled with memories for each of you and for each of us as we look upon it tonight.

Over this temple has always flown the crest, the banner and the standard of Sanat Kumara, which is, of course, the planet Venus, a deep purple field surrounded with the laurel wreath. Tonight, when that standard is lowered for the first time since his coming, the standard of the Lord Gautama will be raised, the two activities taking place almost simultaneously. When the purple banner of Sanat Kumara comes down, the golden banner of the Lord Gautama is run up—the planet Earth, surrounded with the colors of the Causal Body, on a gold field.

You will remember that the beloved Sanat Kumara removed the crown from his own head on New Year's Eve, and placed it upon that of the Buddha, which signified the transference of his powers, partially, to Lord Gautama. HOWEVER, SANAT KUMARA WILL REMAIN IN THE ATMOSPHERE OF EARTH AS REGENT UNTIL THE TIME ALLOTTED TO HIM BY COSMIC LAW EXPIRES. His visits to Venus, will be governed by the amount of release and relief the people of Earth accord to him. He will be a “commuter,” you might say, between the two stars.

THIS VERY ACTIVITY SHOULD CREATE A TREMENDOUS AFFINITY BETWEEN THE EARTH AND VENUS, BECAUSE EVERY TIME HE RETURNS HOME, PART OF THE RADIATION OF EARTH WILL GO WITH HIM, AND WHEN HE COMES BACK, HE WILL BRING THE RADIATION OF VENUS IN HIS WAKE AND IN HIS TRAIN. In this way we will have a weaving and a meshing of the vibratory action of the two planets, which is ESSENTIAL, REALLY, FOR THE ASCENSION OF EARTH INTO THE ORBIT OF VENUS IN THE SHORT PERIOD THAT REMAINS.

Every Hierarchy and every Ascended Being, as well as every retreat, has a banner, a standard, or a flag. You know mine: the blue field with the golden sun and the embossed figures of the Seven Archangels. Each Hierarchy and each retreat and sanctuary of the Brotherhood is represented in Shamballa tonight with a standard representative of their focus and activity of light. They are lined up on either side of the central pool where the flame fountains play—almost a hundred deep—those magnificent flags.

That walk is very, very long and the full length of it, from the foot of Sanat Kumara's Temple to the end of the bridge across the sapphire sea, is massed with beings—members of the Elohimic Court, Cosmic Beings, angels, devas, and Masters. All bear their individual standards and, as Sanat Kumara's flag is lowered, all of the standards are dipped, somewhat similar to your activity of honor when a great personage passes, only, of course this is not a sad moment, it is rather a cosmic moment of rejoicing.

Let us go back for a moment now, and see the activity as it took place. The standard of Sanat Kumara is still waving over the temple. Its purple field is plainly visible with the beautiful Star Venus, and the lovely laurel wreath upon it. Now, as all eyes are focused upon it, it comes slowly down and as it does, every standard is dipped in recognition, love and gratitude for the service it represents. Then, almost with the same action, the gold standard of the Lord Gautama ascends where it now waves, in undulating folds of bright color upon the soft breeze.

The beloved Sanat Kumara is in a pure, unadorned white robe tonight—no vestments of any kind—while the beloved Lord Gautama wears the royal purple robe and the crown and scepter. By his side stands the Lord Maitreya, also in the royal purple robes of authority, with miter and staff.

For the present, it has been arranged that the activity of the previous Buddha—Lord Gautama—and the new Buddha—Lord Maitreya—will be combined, because THE SERVICE OF THE LORD OF THE WORLD IS TO GENERATE ENOUGH LIGHT TO KEEP THE PLANET IN THE SOLAR SYSTEM, and Lord Maitreya's gift is to take the activity of the ceremony wherever possible, because, as you know, the Lord Gautama is not inclined that way. It will be a threefold activity, which will be magnificent—Gautama holding the light, the peace and the illumination, Sanat Kumara as Counselor and Regent, and Lord Maitreya as the head and heart of the Brotherhood in practically all ceremonial service. Tonight, Gautama has, for the occasion, adorned himself with crown and cape and scepter.

Sanat Kumara, Lord Gautama, and Lord Maitreya now appear at the door of the great temple and slowly descend the long flight of steps. As they reach the foot, they turn and look upward, where Sanat Kumara's standard still waves in the breeze. Now, at a given signal, the purple banner is drawn earthward and the golden standard of Lord Gautama is run up. During the slow descent of Sanat Kumara's banner, the flags of the entire assembly are dipped. It is a most solemn moment—in a way, a nostalgic moment, for it portends change, not only for the Celestial Hierarchy dedicated to the welfare of the planet, but to the people evolving upon it, as well.

All flags are lifted now in tribute to the Lord Gautama, and one of the angelic beings, carefully folding the purple banner, lays it gently over the arm of Sanat Kumara. The three great hierarchs are now walking along the wide avenue toward the bridge, smiling and bowing to the assembled Brotherhood, while every banner is dipped in acknowledgment of their presence as they pass.

When they reach the entrance to the bridge, they pause and turn around, seemingly to implant the scenes they have just passed through, in their memories forever. Now the beloved Sanat Kumara stoops and kisses the grassy sward at his feet, while the vast assembly, who have not moved, gaze upon these great Masters of Love with unutterable love and tenderness expressed in their countenances and bearing.

Lord Gautama, Sanat Kumara, and Lord Maitreya stand there for a moment. Then, raising their hands, and touching their hearts and heads in a gesture of adieu, they turn and walk over the bridge and disappear in a blaze of light. The next moment they are standing at the great doors of my retreat in the Western Hemisphere, situated at a place now called Banff, in the Rocky Mountains of Canada, in the North American Continent.

The final ceremony of the transition of power from Sanat Kumara to Lord Gautama, as well as Sanat Kumara's departure for Venus, takes place at my retreat in the Western Hemisphere, which, we think, has a real significance in itself. Those of us who were privileged to witness it will never forget the solemnity of that great occasion.

The two great hierarchs approach each other from either side of the great altar, ascend the steps together, and stand facing each other, their Causal Bodies blazing out like great fans (identical in size) in all the glorious colors of the rays. Now they approach each other until they meet within the flame on the altar, where they become one, at which moment there is a tremendous flash of light, followed by an expansion of the flame, which passes through the entire atmosphere of Earth.

At that precise moment, the Causal Body of Sanat Kumara is withdrawn from the body of the Earth, while that of Lord Gautama enfolds it in its embrace. The Causal Body of Sanat Kumara becomes the aureole encompassing him and his entourage on the journey to Venus.

I will now ask you to sing the song to Sanat Kumara, beloved ones, so it might be said that his return to Venus was accomplished on the energies of the Earth people (audience sings, as requested).

The transition of Sanat Kumara, and those who accompanied him, to his own beloved star, was accomplished in a beautiful chariot, fashioned out of etheric substance, by the visualizing process of chelas on the Earth plane who were aware that this transition would take place within a specified period of time. The actual journey was accomplished, of course, with the speed of light, and almost immediately they had arrived within the orbit of Venus. In the meantime, the Lady Venus, with her court, had come out to meet her Lord. As the two companies approached each other, Sanat Kumara descended from his chariot and, in the simple white robe he had donned when he transferred the robes of state to Lord Gautama, he went forward alone to meet his queen. The Lady Venus also came forward unaccompanied, and as these two great beings greeted each other with outstretched hands, the light of their Causal Bodies encompassed them, and they were lost to the sight of the watching multitudes for a moment.

Now, the music and song of the angelic choir fills the atmosphere, and the voices of the people of Venus can be heard as they sing the song of welcome to their beloved King—the same song they sang as he departed from them so many aeons ago, but now rendered in the joyous tones of happiness.

Sanat Kumara and his beloved Venus now give praise and thanks for his joyful and victorious return, and for the successful accomplishment of his mission of love.

It is not difficult, beloved ones, when you have passed through the veil of so-called death, when your inner sight is cleared, and you can look with unscaled eyes upon the creations of the psychic and astral realms that bind souls round in darkness, to be fired with enthusiasm and, in the fuller freedom of your etheric vehicles, go into action to set souls free.

But, when you must rely upon our words and upon our honor and upon your own faith in tasks undertaken and accomplished by yourselves, then great, indeed, is the benefaction to the soul who does so stand and, boldly facing the unseen—utilizing both the powers of invocation and visualization—set into motion cosmic activities of mercy and purification which have, in a short span of time, freed souls who have been impounded for long ages, slept through aeons of time or had been earth-bound and by this very self-imprisonment had not been willing or able to find out the will of their own I AM Presence, or even if they knew that will, could not fulfill it and complete their destiny.

Beloved friends, sometime, some place, somewhere, either on this or some other planet of the system or any of the inner spheres, each created intelligence must come to a point where there is surrender of the INTELLIGENCE, of the FEELINGS, and of the SENSES to the God-Self.

Beloved friends, it is the service of those who serve with me—the defenders of the faith—to keep alive the faith in God within the hearts and souls of men, the faith in their own divine destiny, which knowledge should raise them above the limitations in which they are now submerged. It is to intensify and expand that faith that the legions of my kingdom constantly breathe upon the soul-light of men, and in that breathing, give something of ourselves, something of our nature, which service enables men to “keep on keeping on.”

This beautiful sanctuary at Banff was prepared for our use by the beloved builders of form, assisted by members of the angelic host, at the time of the descent of the first root race, accompanied by the Lord Manu and myself. It was hewn out of the rocks and adorned with the most exquisite diamonds and sapphires, drawn from the heart of the mountains with the cooperation of the beloved Virgo. I remember the occasion of my first visit here and the feeling of love, the deep love, that surged through me for the dear planet and for the blessed beings who, in loving harmony and beauty, fashioned such a magnificent, such a holy and completely beautiful gift, for our visitation and our use.

This temple was used throughout the first Golden Ages. People who wished to be revitalized came from all over the landed surface of the Earth. In the flame on the altar they found nourishment for the particular project or idea they wished to externalize. Those standing within it found the primal seed of their idea growing and developing in a magic, mystic way and very often, before they had descended the steps of the temple, the ephemeral concept of the picture they had in mind had been clothed in a clear, concise mental image in the feelings and often precipitated, if it were a small object, in their hands.

This is the activity of faith, beloved ones. It is giving life and substance to that which is ephemeral—to that which lives in the realm of ideation—and which dies so often for the lack of clothing it in the substance of the FEELING WORLD through faith before it is lowered into the more dense substance of the physical world.

After the fall of man, when man had withdrawn his attention from his Presence and became absorbed in the creations of the outer world, this temple was closed to the material mind. It has remained vibrating in the etheric realm during the long centuries in between, to the present day.

Many of the temples used in Atlantis and Lemuria have been raised into the etheric realms. Some day they will be lowered again, when man is spiritually ready to receive them. It has happened that one or more of the precious stones used in the construction of these temples has been put in the hands of a high priest or the head of a spiritual order, where they form a connection with the Celestial Hierarchy. There are several dozens of the stones from my own temple in the possession of individuals at various points on Earth's surface today. The lifestreams, in whose possession they happen to be, are not always aware of their origin or whence they came, but they do sense the mystic quality that radiates from them, and treasure them accordingly.

Do you know, beloved ones, that the very substance of your own homes, the furniture within them and all your personal possessions are charged with the vibratory action of your own lifestreams? Everything that you think and feel and speak is registered within them at all times.

The temples that were drawn forth in the early days were all protected by the priests and priestesses and guarded, so that no discord could charge into their substance. When lifestreams came for help and assistance, there was a CONSCIOUSNESS AND A QUALITY WITHIN THEM which was absorbed by the applicant and suppliant for grace. This I know you are endeavoring to do today, through your blessings to the spirits of the homes and sanctuaries and foci where the various flames are located. Where you have a CONCENTRATE OF THE SACRED FIRE there is an ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENT for the MAINTENANCE of HARMONIOUS ENERGIES IN ORDER TO HOLD IT IN THE PHYSICAL WORLD.

I must speak to you for a moment about the people of Venus . They have been without their lord for millions of years. He is now returning to his star on a thirty-day visit, and from this time on, he will never be very far from it. He will come and go at intervals, as occasion demands, and as you of Earth purify the remaining cores of distress, and allow him to do so.

The people of Venus and the beloved Lady Master Venus herself have prepared for Sanat Kumara's reception. The Great Kumaras, the angelic host, the priests and priestesses and the people, themselves, are all in a festive mood and in a state of great spiritual expectancy.

This great star now shines forth brilliantly, and Sanat Kumara smiles as he stands in his robes of white, with his beloved queen beside him in full view of the entire populace. They bow in acknowledging the love and gratitude expressed by their people at his return. The radiation of love and happiness pulsating from the star Venus is indescribable.

Before leaving my retreat, Sanat Kumara spoke to the Great White Brotherhood and to the conscious initiates and chelas, as follows:

BELOVED SANAT KUMARA speaks:

Beloved and blessed Spiritual Hierarchy, you who have answered my heart call and formed the Great White Brotherhood! You, who have lived and died and lived again, age after age and era after era, in order to forward the cause of God upon the planet Earth, to you tonight I give my heart and my hand. As there is no separation in love, I shall be as close to you as you desire to have me.

I would no more think of permanently leaving you—the Elohim, the Archangels, the Brotherhood and the sweet, struggling chelas, without the comfort and solace of my Presence, my strength and my momentum, than I would think of leaving my God! We are as much one in this present cosmic transition as we have ever been!

To you, beloved Gautama, whose great light and expansion of consciousness have made it possible for me to become again part of the evolution of Venus, to you, my brother, I give my heart's love!

To each and every one who has answered the call of the beloved Morya—who has believed that there was the capacity and ability within the human heart to cooperate with God-free Beings in removing the shackles of limitation and the shadows that have enshrouded the souls of men, to you I give my love!

TO THE BELOVED CHELAS, I SAY: THINK YOU I COULD FORGET THE DEAR EARTH WHEN SO MUCH OF MY LIFE, SO MUCH OF MY VERY SELF IS WOVEN INTO THE SUBSTANCE OF HER PEOPLE, HER ELEMENTALS, HER OCEANS AND HER CONTINENTS?

I accept with pleasure the gifts you so kindly offer me—the rings and crowns for myself and my beloved—which have been woven out of your own thought substance. This night, as I enter into the orbit of my own star, and speak to my people face to face for the first time since my departure, I shall tell them of a race beyond words to describe—a race which has believed in God despite every kind of mental, emotional, and physical agony, and my people shall be richer by reason of the example of a handful of brave chelas scattered over the face of the Earth, among its unawakened humanity as a whole.

So—sweet Earth, sweet Virgo, beloved Neptune, beloved Aries, beloved Amaryllis—all that is within the planet and upon it—thank you for the opportunity of serving!

There is no TIME in loving service! Thank you, beloved Earth, for your hospitality and for the privilege of holding you within my bosom! Thank you for permitting me to share in your redemption! Thank you for letting me share your victory. Thank you for being such a marvelous hostess, not only to myself, but to my Kumaras and the other evolutions who came here from Venus. Thank you for attempting to understand my presence, and for accepting the patience which is my gift to give. Thank you, beloved Michael, for having preserved the Flame of Faith upon which Earth's freedom is assured. God be with you all until I return!

SANAT KUMARA

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 5, 1956

Beloved Children of God,

As you can readily understand, there has been a tremendous increase in the vibratory action of the planet Venus since the return of its Lord within its aura.

All of life is one, beloved ones. There is a distinct interchange of consciousness between the mental, emotional, etheric, and physical bodies of mankind; it exists in the animal and nature kingdoms also, graded, of course, according to the life expressions.

This inter-relationship of consciousness, beloved ones, makes every man “his brother's keeper,” as our beloved Paul, the Venetian, expresses it. This truth was also voiced by the beloved Jesus in his statement, "If I am lifted up, I will draw all men upward." Therefore, when a man gains a victory over some human tendency or weaknesses in himself, HE UNCONSCIOUSLY POURS STRENGTH AND ENCOURAGEMENT INTO THE LIVES OF HIS FELLOWMEN. Likewise, if a man persists in indulging his human passions, he weakens the morale of the race proportionately and is not held guiltless for this in the eyes of the Cosmic Law.

IT HAS NOT YET BEEN REVEALED HOW LONG THE COSMIC LAW WILL ACCEPT THE SACRIFICE OF LORD GAUTAMA'S WILLINGNESS TO CARRY THE RESPONSIBILITY OF HOLDING THE LIGHT FOR A RECALCITRANT RACE OF PEOPLE, the majority of whom are not even aware of his existence, and it would be wise, beloved ones, that you not only step-up your own understanding by consciously tuning into the higher vibrations of the As-cended Host, but also INTENSIFY YOUR CALLS FOR THE MASS ILLUMINATION OF THE RACE.

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 12, 1956

Beloved Children,

WE CANNOT LAY TOO MUCH STRESS ON THE POINT THAT THE MENTAL AND FEELING BODIES MUST BE BROUGHT INTO A STATE OF PERFECT ALIGNMENT, ONE WITH THE OTHER, IF ONE IS TO ATTAIN ANY SPIRITUAL PROGRESS. The evolving ego must see to it that perfect harmony exists between these two bodies. If one inadvertently slips, it must be immediately restored to its proper position by the watching intelligence, for only in this way can peace and harmony be maintained.

In the meantime, the alert ego should take full advantage of the Sacred Fire of Purification in order to transmute cause, effect, record, and memory of old hatreds, old resentments, old frustrations and other discordant karmic links that lie, for the most part, dormant in the etheric body, but which flare into resuscitated life and action when the lifestreams connected with them meet.

As certain tests in the physical world are required to determine an individual's fitness for a particular position, so do initiations on the spiritual path determine whether a lifestream has risen above reactions to conditions, proneness to which may prove to be a stumbling block to his spiritual progress in ages yet to come.

May I say for your comfort, dear ones, that these initiations are continually taking place on the pathway of life, and more especially in the experience of those under direct instruction of the Ascended Masters. As most of the experiences of life are of this karmic nature, calling on the Law of Forgiveness and the use of the Violet Fire will remove them from your paths.

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 19, 1956

Beloved Ones of Light,

The majority of your communications carry the query, "How can I help Lord Gautama in his cosmic endeavor to hold our planet in its rightful place?" Some ask, "What is the nature of the light he emanates?" And, "How may I release it?" Beloved ones, these questions show a great desire and willingness on your part to help. Light is LOVE, and anyone, by honestly taking note of the feelings that he emanates in the course of a single day's living, may judge for himself how much he is helping or retarding the planet, and the Great One who is holding it on its course in the solar system by his individual radiation.

Man experiences a definite feeling of relief in giving unrestrained expression to the human feelings, which often rush forth from him on the slightest provocation. The mature individual, however, is one who has his feelings under conscious control at all times, through an understanding of the value of the life-energy entrusted to his keeping, and his responsibility under Cosmic Law for its use. The discordantly-qualified substance spewed forth by the careless lifestream, adds to the already heavy weight on Lord Gautama's shoulders. The harmoniously qualified energy, on the other hand, lightens his burden.

The feeling of gratitude and happiness rising from your hearts, has ascended, on its own vibratory wave, to the very heart of Venus, itself, and touched the heart of its lord and king with its gentle radiation of love divine, making his already full cup of happiness flow over. For this spontaneous outpouring of love and appreciation on your part we are immensely grateful.

Beloved Maha Chohan

February 26, 1956

Beloved Children,

It is my pleasure to offer you, for your encouragement and instruction, part of an address delivered by our beloved El Morya on the evening of the Transmission Flame Ceremony at the beloved Himalaya's retreat, February 18th, 1956.

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Tonight we acknowledge the great Himalaya. He is known by many names, but to you he is Himalaya, the great Manu of the Fourth Root Race, many members of which still walk the earth. Tonight we have the great honor of visiting his retreat, the Blue Lotus, high up in the white Himalayas.

I wonder if you have given thought to the thousands of pilgrims who, even as I speak, are toiling up the sides of these mountains from the hot plains of India, from China and the Malay Peninsula—all searching for this focus of peace—many of them with rags wound around their feet in lieu of proper footwear, and clothed in the light garments of the low countries, which are inadequate to keep out the bitter cold of the heights. Some have been toiling toward this focus for many weeks, and some for months, searching among the passes and crevasses for that which their hearts told them was an answer to their secret calls for light and truth. This cosmic search, also carried on before the Wesak Festival each year, could be pathetic, if one did not see, with the inner eye, that in the search itself, there was power builded into the CAUSAL BODIES, strengths built EMOTIONALLY, concentration built MENTALLY, and stamina built PHYSICALLY. Those who seek and do not find in one life, by the very fact of their pilgrimage and search, will surely find it in another, because the Law is unerring.

Yet, through a dispensation of the Cosmic Law, beloved ones, you have not had to sail in a boat to India or fly by plane to the foot of the great Himalayas. You have not had to invest either money, energy, or time in coming to the heart of this retreat, but rather, you have been given, through the freedom of consciousness, access to a holy place, so holy that only beings like the Lord Buddha, Ananda, Lord Maitreya and Kuthumi have entered there, up until these recent years.

In this retreat, parchments containing the writings of all the ancient sages are preserved and carefully guarded. They will be released to the East and to the West only when greed, selfishness and separateness among the peoples of the Earth are no more. Think what would happen to these priceless treasures if they were released prematurely? Those with the means would seize upon them, and they would become but relics for the proud! They are retained here, within the heart of the Himalayas, waiting for the day when they will be an appreciated gift to the people of the future. The people of today could not take the time to read or understand them, so busy are they in the search for food, for raiment and for pleasure. Spiritual wealth is to them, even as to the rich, of very little value.

Tonight, in your beautiful forcefields, you come with me to the foot of the great Himalayas, where we shall stop and gaze for a moment at those magnificent spires that look like gigantic fingers pointing heavenward, calling man's attention to God.

As we ascend to the retreat, and see the great wall roll back before our eyes, we catch a glimpse of the beloved Himalaya, where he stands in the inner sanctuary graciously greeting his many guests with a beneficent smile and a silent inclination of the head.

Lord Himalaya has many illustrious guests this evening, among whom is the returning Sanat Kumara, the Lord Gautama, new Lord of the World, the Lord Maha Chohan and Lord Maitreya, as well as distinguished visitors from other stars and planets.

Let us stand for a moment and silently acknowledge the presence of this great Lord of Peace! His beautiful form is clothed, tonight, in a magnificent golden robe with the words, "Om Mani Padme Hum" encrusted in Chinese blue around the hem, his lovely, slender hands folded one over the other within the long sleeves. Like Kwan Yin, the only indication of his Chinese background is in the high cheek bones. His skin is light and clear, radiating the inner light. His beautiful eyes are large and luminous. He truly is a master of peace and tranquility.

We turn now and enter the outer chamber, in the center of which is a magnificent blue lotus, afloat within a pool of electronic light—the magic, mystic lotus flower that has within itself the power to connect with the jewel in the heart of your own lotus flame, the Threefold Flame, within your heart—and confer upon each one of you tonight the privilege of having one special desire fulfilled. As we have remarked before, the desires we entertain in the valley are not the ones we hold upon the heights.

As we silently contemplate this exquisite blue lotus flower and absorb the radiation of peace from our gracious Host, I ask you to prayerfully commune with your own inner Presence and sincerely ask that the petition you make be as selfless and, for the sake of the humanity of Earth, as world-engulfing as possible.

As we stand thus meditating upon our secret desires, the beloved Himalaya, who has approached silently, beckons us to bend over and kiss the petals of the lotus flower. We do so, and the fragrance of it fills our nostrils, and flows through our whole beings, filling us with a celestial peace. You may return in consciousness to this moment as often as you like, beloved ones, and feel the radiation of the blue lotus flow into your physical forms as well.

Now, we can hear the voices of the successful pilgrims as they arrive, chanting their “Om Mani Padme Hum.” They, however, do not enter the sacred precincts of the sanctuary, but have set up their yak skin tents all around, in the snow. Yet you, beloved ones, are within this hallowed place. Your feet rest upon the spot where the blessed feet of the Lord Buddha, Ananda, Lord Maitreya and Kuthumi have stood. Once, in the long ago, these beings also had a desire that they wished to have fulfilled and they, too, bent and kissed the lotus flower, after which they received a deeper instruction in the Law, even as it is in your experience today.

Owing to the larger number of lifestreams who are drawn to these retreats, they have all been enlarged, and this sanctuary is no exception. This year the central focus is in the shape of a great pyramid, with the Blue Lotus Flame blazing on top. The seats are arranged amphitheater fashion around the base, the more advanced beings on the higher seats, the lesser ones lower down toward the base. The chelas take their seats according to their individual development. It is interesting to note that all do not sit on the same level. However, beloved ones, (and this is amazing), you are all within the golden curtain, and in the company of the tremendous beings of light, who have come to pay homage to the Blue Lotus Flame.

To you, who have made it possible for me to prove to the Karmic Board that UNASCENDED BEINGS MADE COGNIZANT OF A NEED CAN CO-OPERATE CONSCIOUSLY AND RELEASE THE ENERGIES REQUIRED TO FULFILL THAT NEED—to you, I am deeply grateful.

In the radiation of this gratitude I have requested of the Maha Chohan the opportunity and privilege of addressing you this evening to give you, once more, the spur of my energy and the power of my faith, to hold you constant on the path, until your final victory.

Long has the planet Earth been the “problem child” of the universe, and for many ages, those of us who belong to the Brotherhood have considered ways and means by which she might be moved forward, and the inertia of soul within the consciousness of the discarnate “sleepers” at inner levels be removed. We have tried many ways to get the embodied lifestreams to throw off the human lethargy which seemed to engulf them, and tried to persuade the “impounded” to take an interest in the fulfillment of their divine plan.

Through many great beings incarnating upon the Earth, we have endeavored to stir the reluctant energy of mankind to a point where we could get them interested in the sublimation of the personal self. The spiritual history of the planet records with some degree of accuracy that we were successful in a few cases, at least—but this was not enough. It was not enough when you think of the millions of lifestreams who, for so many aeons of time, through the use of free-will, refused to be a part of their own or the planet's evolution and through the various avenues of escape of the human senses, closed their consciousness against the divine plan, finally entering the “realm of the sleepers” at the other side of the veil where they lay inert for many ages.

It was not enough, when you think of the vast numbers of people who deliberately misused the life energy, consciously defied the divine plan of life and by the conscious misuse of thought and feeling, became part of the “black brotherhood.” These rebellious souls had to be finally impounded, and guarded by a great being of light, in a place where they could not corrupt other evolving lifestreams. Here they remained apart, refusing to enter the Halls of Karma or to accept the wisdom or justice of the Karmic Board. They also refused to enter the schoolrooms provided at inner levels for souls who desired to prepare for a better incarnation in the next Earth life—remaining attached in consciousness to people, places, and conditions they either loved or hated in their past Earth lives.

Now, through a double activity, all this has been changed. How? First: through the persuasion of the Karmic Board by the Beloved Saint Germain and myself that IF LIFESTREAMS ON EARTH KNEW OF THESE CONDITIONS, THEY WOULD HELP THROUGH THEIR OWN INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION TO CHANGE THEM.

Second: Having secured permission from the Karmic Board to prove our assertion, our next step was to secure the attention of a HANDFUL OF CHELAS who had to rely upon their hearts, rather than their sight, in recognizing our Presence and reality. After this was accomplished, we had to draw them together and prod them onward, sometimes by praise and sometimes by the spur, to a point where we could BY THE USE OF THEIR OWN PROJECTED CONSCIOUSNESS MAKE THEM ACQUAINTED WITH THE NEEDS OF THE MOMENT. Then we could only hope that, through their intelligent grasp of the situation, they would make calls for its accomplishment, thus fulfilling, on their part, the Cosmic Law governing the evolution of the mankind of Earth.

We cannot praise God enough, beloved ones, that the second part of the activity has also been accomplished and through your faith in us, our mutual trust, our mutual friendship, our mutual agreement, a true “communion of saints” now exists between our realm and yours.

Due to this mutual agreement, which might widen the eyes and raise the eyebrows of the so-called “intellectuals,” the great SANAT KUMARA HAS BEEN RELEASED FROM HIS EXILE, THE ‘SLEEPERS’ HAVE BEEN AWAKENED, THE ‘EARTHBOUND’ HAVE BEEN RELEASED, THE ‘IMPOUNDED’ HAVE BEEN GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO PROCEED WITH THEIR INTERRUPTED EVOLUTION, AND THE DISCARNATE ENTITIES HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM THE PLANET AND PLACED IN SCHOOLROOMS AT INNER LEVELS. Think, beloved ones, what association between Ascended Beings and faithful, conscientious, PLIABLE chelas can accomplish!

I have worked with the mankind of Earth a long time, with their idiosyncrasies, their strengths and their weaknesses. I know them well, and yet, I hoped to try to bring this era of cosmic invocation into being on the wave of the beloved Saint Germain's endeavor. I have tried to hold those already trained in the use of the Violet Fire and the powers of invocation from sinking back into the inertia of the outer mass mind, which is like quicksand, and which at the slightest doubt, absorbs even the most zealous into its grip. Seeing all this, and seeing that great quicksand of doubt and fear and lethargy waiting to suck the aspiring, but disappointed, souls back into itself, I asked the Karmic Board for the opportunity of inspiring them to new endeavors.

In the East, beloved friends, this would be a comparatively easy task, for the natural activity of the Eastern Hemisphere is conducive to peace and spiritual receptivity, but in the strong and vibrant West, where the energies and vitalities are so powerful, to find selfless individuals strong enough to hold the cable is not easy! Yet it has been done, beloved ones, through your gracious selves, and for this I am so grateful!

All during this current month a brother or sister of peace, from the beloved Himalaya's retreat, will come at your call, and stay with you as long as you desire, returning to the retreat after his or her service to you is accomplished. Feel their presence, beloved ones, and listen to the instruction given to you in the silence.

Let us remember that the Flame of Peace, which we honor tonight, is living essence. It is light qualified, and every member of the Brotherhood who has come from Venus, from Uranus and other stars and planets increases the intensity of that flame through their own light, through their attention, through their breath, so that the Blue Lotus of beloved Himalaya enfolds the entire Continent of Asia in its radiant presence, and later, when the entire company joins in the activity of the holy breath, its light will encompass the planet.

The unascended brothers who have come from Lhasa and the great monasteries round about, have been admitted to the outer chamber. Everyone, both inside and outside the retreat, is focusing their attention on the "Jewel in the heart of the Lotus," as they repeat the great mantra. The pilgrims on the mountainside feel the radiation, and are prostrating themselves on the ground, giving praise and thanks to Almighty God for the privilege of being present. You see, beloved ones, in the East, radiation alone is so sacred, that to receive it from a Master, even though a word may not be spoken, is worth the endeavor of a lifetime. Sometimes these blessed souls serve for an entire embodiment receiving perhaps but a nod of the head from a Master (thus are they trained in patience and constancy).

Here in the West you have received so much! Good night and God bless you. EL MORYA

Beloved Maha Chohan

March 11, 1956

Beloved Children,

When the beloved Jesus took a towel and washed the feet of his disciples, he proved to them by precept and example, that in the great evolutionary scheme of life, the greater intelligence serves the lesser.

The people of Earth take more or less for granted, the favors rendered them by the Great Intelligences who serve them impersonally, directly or indirectly, in every phase of their everyday existence. For instance, how much thought, not to speak of gratitude, is given to the beloved Helios and Vesta, the radiation of whose Presence furnishes the light and brilliance of the Sun, itself, by which all life on this planet is nourished and sustained? How much recognition or gratitude is given the great beings who govern the forces of nature, holding the millions and millions of intelligences, that comprise the elements, in check, lest they rebel and destroy the mankind they are forced by the law of their being to serve?

You must know, beloved ones, that every cell and atom that makes up the whole universe was drawn forth from the body of God through intelligences on whom he conferred his own spiritual nature, including the gift of creation itself, calling them “his beloved sons.” As the spider draws the substance of the web from within its own body, so does every intelligence, endowed with the power of creation, draw on the body of God (whether it knows it or not), for the substance to fill every manifestation of life it wishes to express.

This includes not only the great stars and planets and suns that swing around the Great Central Sun in interstellar space, as well as the mighty evolutions that dwell upon them, but your own bodies, the clothing that you wear, the substance of which your homes are built, and the furniture within them—all things, from the smallest to the greatest, are part of the body of God. How gracefully, then, should we comport ourselves, and how gently should we walk through a universe into which we were sent by the Father, that we may enjoy the happiness of his Presence and expand the glory of his kingdom. Even now, beloved ones, are ye “the sons of God.”

In a great cosmic council of the Brotherhood, dedicated to the spiritual advancement of the mankind of Earth, at which it was my privilege and prerogative, as Maha Chohan, to preside, it was shown that while thousands of individuals had become aware of the Great White Brotherhood, and of the fact that there was a plan and design for the redemption of the race through Its intervention, yet the consciousness of the people had fallen so low that there was no point of contact between the Masters' plan and the willing, but unconscious chela. There seemed to be no way or means provided whereby this hope and promise could be fed into the intellectual selves of those who were eager to cooperate, but unable to find the way. Along the seven rays the Chohans reported the same thing—good material, but NO BRIDGE. IT WAS THEN THAT THE BELOVED EL MORYA PRESENTED THE IDEA OF FORMING AN ALLIANCE, OR BRIDGE, BY WHICH THE BROTHERHOOD COULD REACH THE PEOPLE, and allow the Karmic Board to determine, by the result of such action,

WHETHER THE INVESTMENT OF ENERGY WAS WORTH THE GRANT.

The beloved Helios and Vesta acquiesced to the experiment, and I was delegated with the authority to give the seven Chohans free rein to connect the consciousness of their people with the will of the Father—IF THEY (THE PEOPLE) COULD PROVIDE AND SUSTAIN SUCH A BRIDGE.

The Lords of Karma passed on the proposal, and the Christ Selves of the race eagerly began their endeavors to create the individual bridges, which are the natural connection between each outer self and his higher mind. This whole new endeavor is the result of such cooperative activity. Then, encouraged by the success of this experiment, the beloved Moria requested my permission to approach the Karmic Lords again—this time with the idea that IF the people of Earth could be apprised of our activities on their behalf WHILE THESE GREAT GATHERINGS WERE IN SESSION, THEY WOULD COOPERATE CONSCIOUSLY, thus fulfilling intelligently and speedily the Cosmic Law governing the Earth's evolution. The beloved Moria, himself, has told you how this has been accomplished, thanks to your faith in our presence and your willing cooperation in our mutual endeavors.

Beloved Children, Seeking Your Way Back into God's Living Presence,

The activity of the Holy Spirit, (whose radiation I guard and direct as Maha Chohan, is to ACTIVATE all constructive endeavors which further the evolution of the race, for instance, through the patriot, desiring to build up a state or nation in which freedom may abide (First Ray), the educator, endeavoring to develop the latent talents of his pupils (Second Ray), the humanitarian, desiring to promote true brotherly love (Third Ray), the artist, musician, sculptor, designing some inspirational expression toward Godly living (Fourth Ray), the scientist and physician, endeavoring to alleviate human ills (Fifth Ray), the priest, minister, rabbi, missionary, desiring to spread the word of God (Sixth Ray), the devotee of the divine science of invocation, sublimation of error and the radiation of the nature of God (Seventh Ray).

All serving under these rays receive of the spiritual blessing and benediction of the Holy Spirit according to the MOTIVE back of the service, and the capacity to receive the grace, through the development of soul and spirit. As below, so above. Every Ascended Master, deva and angel endeavoring to assist mankind becomes the recipient of my benediction and assistance.

Of course, you will understand, that in the Ascended Master state there is no such thing as “mine or me—you or yours.” We are all ONE in service and all the Brotherhood join lovingly in the activity that is the most urgent requirement of the moment, endeavoring, by united effort, to direct it unerringly toward its goal.

Thus, in the present crucial times, I have chosen to “share” my “Bulletin” with my “seven Sons” (the Chohans of the Rays), as well as giving other Masters, who have been given permission from the Karmic Board to address mankind, an opportunity to impart their instruction through this medium of expression. To all these I pour my love and light.

If you will examine my “banner,” which shows the white dove on the purple field, you will better understand what I mean. The dove, representative of myself as representative of the Holy Spirit, is activating the VIOLET RAY, and assisting the Master Saint Germain in making this ray known to the mankind of Earth. It is thus, from time to time, according to the wisdom of my holy office, that I choose to present, for your illumination, excerpts from certain pertinent instruction brought forth by some Ascended Being, which when studied and meditated upon, will help the entire endeavor. This does not mean that I have “receded,” in favor of the Master to whom I extend the privilege of using my precious “Bulletin,” but rather that you may be benefited, beloved of my heart, by the FULL POWER of the Holy Spirit, which energizes and activates the endeavors of my beloved brothers of light and love.

Pursuant to this policy, I offer for your instruction, words of counsel from my beloved son, El Morya, which, if followed, should sharpen your discriminating faculties in detecting that which is of God, and that which is of man. Lord Gautama, when he walked the Earth, taught his disciples “the middle way,” as being the only safe path for the feet of the evolving chela. It is upon this path (described as being as narrow as “the razor’s edge”) that discrimination, wisdom, humility and discretion are so much needed by the earnest, but sometimes precariously balanced, traveler.

This is not the first time, beloved ones, that your spiritual aspirations have brought you to the same point on the path where you stand today. You have reached, and even gone beyond it, many times in past embodiments, only to wander off again, enticed by the blandishments of those of your fellow travelers who, becoming weary of the self-disciplines and restraints exercised by the aspirants for freedom, invented an “easier road” to the Kingdom, and drew many of their too-credulous companions along with them.

Sincerity of purpose, beloved ones, coupled with a selfless desire for the welfare of the traveler on the perilous journey through the mazes of human creation is the UNMISTAKABLE MARK OF THE RADIATION OF AN ASCENDED MASTER FRIEND. IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT YOU PRACTICE DISCRIMINATION. Blessings and love

BELOVED EL MORYA speaks:

Friends of My Heart,

The beloved Maha Chohan has requested that I speak to you a little on the subject of “Spiritualism,” a word coined to cover the study of the psychic plane and its inhabitants. This is a subject which has engaged the mind of man for many long ages, having recurrent cycles of active interest, one of which seems to be rampant at the moment, which makes our reference to it at this time rather apropos.

Beloved friends, you must know that every being who ever incarnated on this planet did so of his own free will, having applied to the Godhead for permission to acquire mastery over the powers of creation, in the world of form. This privilege, having been lovingly conferred upon him, his next procedure was to apply to the Cosmic Law for sufficient life-energy to complete his mission. This life-essence, being an emanation from the body of the Godhead, is held in such priceless esteem by the Cosmic Law, that any lifestream applying for its use literally has to “sign” for the amount released, and it is only given then, on condition that it is returned within the time specified, with interest in the way of accomplishments. Everyone who breathes the breath of life, dear friends, no matter in which sphere he abides, has signed this document before the Cosmic Law at one time or another.

When man defaulted in his obligation to the Cosmic Law for the return of this energy, the period allowed for the attainment of his mastery being approximately fourteen thousand years, under the supervision of the Seven Chohans of the Rays, the whole course of Earth's evolution underwent a drastic change. The Holy Christ Self of every individual was put under obligation to take note of “every jot and every tittle” of energy used. This was entered in the “Book of Life” and had to be accounted for by the lifestream. Halls of Judgment were set up; Judges were appointed, and the psychic realm—a place set apart in the atmosphere of Earth—was established.

It was at this time that the Law of Compensation was put into effect, in the belief that the recoil of the misqualified energy on the rebellious lifestream through suffering, would discourage him in the misuse of the God-energy. It did not prove to be effective, however, and it was then that the span of existence on the Earth plane was shortened, the lifestream being withdrawn to the psychic plane for rest and refreshment and returned after a specified time to the physical plane, where he was required to resume his endeavor to attain the mastery he had come to attain, at the same time being given an opportunity to redeem the energy he had contracted for. Here it was, that man's conception of so-called death entered the picture, the departure of the soul to the psychic realm, being construed as the end of his sojourn on Earth for ever more.

You will understand then, beloved friends, that THE INHABITANTS OF THE PSYCHIC PLANE ARE NO FURTHER ADVANCED IN SPIRITUAL KNOWLEDGE THAN WHEN THEY WALKED THE WAY OF EARTH, although conditions there have improved lately in that we have established school-rooms where they are taught the Law of Life, and Violet Flame Temples, where they receive purification. However every evolution in the entire universe is operated under a strict tenet of wise Cosmic Law. This includes man, and the embodied ego, who, by means of the projected consciousness of himself, or another, ATTEMPTS TO CONTACT SOULS IN THE PSYCHIC REALM FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER, SUBJECTS HIMSELF AS WELL AS OTHERS HE MAY INFLUENCE IN A LIKE PRACTICE, TO A SEVERE KARMIC PENALTY. IT BRINGS GREAT UNHAPPINESS TO THE SOULS ABIDING THERE, drawing them by the magnetization of physical thought, toward that group of unhappy spirits known, until recently, as "The Earthbound" a state from which it is extremely difficult to extricate them. THE ONLY SAFE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE EARTH AND THE PSYCHIC PLANES SHOULD BE PRAYERS FOR THE PEACE OF THE DISCARNATE SOULS, AND THE SPEEDY TRANSMUTATION OF THEIR KARMA THROUGH THE SACRED FIRES OF PURIFICATION. God bless you.

Beloved El Morya

REPORT ON THE TRANSMISSION FLAME CEREMONIES

March 17, 1956

It is my joy, pleasure and honor to bring again to you the love and radiation of my own heart and that of the entire Ascended Host, particularly on this day when the radiation, consciousness and outpouring of the beloved Patrick is flowing so freely through the world of mankind!

Oh, for enough time, beloved friends, to tell you all we would! You see how necessary it is for you to gain your freedom over time, space and supply, in this world of form! If you had complete freedom, we could get our instruction to you quickly and promptly, and would not be compelled to crowd it into these short periods of time—but that will come as you endure, as your sincerity continues, and as you persevere with the purification activities both for yourselves and your planet!

Over the Holy Land, where the lives and experiences of the Master Jesus, the holy Mother Mary and our beloved Saint Germain, as Saint Joseph, were enacted, as well as those of many of the apostles and disciples, there is situated the magnificent, circular Resurrection Temple, of which you have read in our little “Journal” (The Bridge to Freedom). This temple is a focus of the power of resuscitation for the mankind of Earth, as well as for the animal and nature kingdoms, and all life expressions who care to magnetize it, think about it and absorb it by the power of thought into their very selves.

The nature kingdom has used the power of resuscitation for many, many ages and the beloved Ascended Being, Hope, has used it to stir hope in the hearts of mankind in cooperation with the beloved Maha Chohan and Amaryllis in the ushering in of spring. That THERE IS A POWER OF RESURRECTION is demonstrated in the sublimation of the hulls of last year's growth.

Here within the Holy Land we have the Resurrection Flame. It is yours for the asking—it is mine for the asking—it is for the slightest bird, the smallest violet and crocus breaking through the snow covered Earth, as well as for the most earnest-hearted and sincere chela, in the deepest recesses of the retreats of the world.

The beautiful Madonna is magnificent tonight, in snow-white garments of shimmering, blazing light, banded around the skirt and full sleeves with a mother-of-pearl-like substance, and wearing the beautiful light chiffon-like veil that she usually wears over her golden hair. She has been moving through the various corridors, giving acknowledgment through the touch of the heart, head, and hand to the many great Masters, devas, and angels who have gathered here for the ceremonies. She also pauses, when time and opportunity permit, to kiss the brow of a kneeling initiate or chela, who is hopefully desiring the resurrection of the powers of his being, emotional stability, mental alertness, or, perhaps, health through the decadent flesh. Her ministration (when she turns her attention toward anyone—even the Masters) has that personal touch, as if the one receiving her attention were the only being in the universe as far as she was concerned. Her motherly embrace is one of light.

While the beloved Mary has been receiving, blessing, and comforting her many guests, the beloved Jesus—clad in shimmering white garments, similar to those of the beloved Mother—has been standing within the Resurrection Flame on the altar, breathing it in, absorbing, expanding and directing its radiance for some time. The Madonna now joins him in the center of the flame and its radiation blazes forth, filling the seven circular chambers that surround the central chamber, with a brilliant opalescent-like substance, something like the atmosphere which pervades the etheric realm.

Within each of these concentric chambers (all of which contain groups of chelas and students) is a great Master, who is supervising the activity and watching the breathing process very carefully, making note of the individual who is intent on his OWN resurrection, but not projecting and directing the breath for the benefit of the MASSES. These chelas are separated from the other at the end of the service. Those who are willing to share the benefits received by close proximity to the flame become active chelas of the temple. The others, while receiving a certain happiness and freedom in their lives, do not have the joy of added service.

The Archangel Gabriel, also wearing pure, unrelieved white, stands in the atmosphere above the huge amphitheater that has been erected by the builders of form, to take care of the attending multitudes who have been drawn here. Almost every individual on the planet desires resurrection from something—fear, distress, sickness and limitation of one kind or another. The figure of the Archangel is cosmic in size, his radiation covering the entire Asiatic and European continents. It is considered very wise to have this focus in the Near East for many reasons. His radiance pours down over the massed multitudes in the amphitheater with unsurpassed brilliance.

Your cherubim, as well as other seraphim, are enjoying a brief respite from their activities in the physical world, and are flying in, out, and through the Resurrection Flame. They absorb its radiance like a sponge absorbs water, and they retain it as long as their evolution permits. They will fly to the flame daily, and bring back its radiance to you, if you choose to ask them. Unascended beings cannot enter the heart of the Sacred Chamber where the flame is blazing, but the cherubim can, and will, bring back to you a feeling of buoyancy that will lift you above the cares and depressions of the physical world.

Beloved Hope, Amaryllis, and the beloved Maha Chohan receive great joy in the recurrent, rhythmic and systematic release of the Spirit of Spring and are directing the Resurrection Flame now into the Northern Hemisphere, which will shortly burst forth in an array of plants and flowers. They often remain in the corridors during the service in the Resurrection Temple to give added impetus to their activity in the kingdom of nature.

Now, as we come close to the time of the actual ceremony, the beloved Jesus and Mary are pouring their combined radiance through the Resurrection Flame, while the assembled Brotherhood join in sending their breath out over the whole Earth as ONE. The beloved Gabriel is rendering the same service; the Maha Chohan and beloved Hope are cooperating with the nature kingdom, and I am hoping that each beloved student will feel, not only tonight, but during the entire month, the POWER OF THE RESURRECTION FLAME flowing through them.

I implore you, beloved friends, let us not remain, month after month, in conditions of financial limitation, physical decay, emotional instability and etheric rebellions as if we had not come! Avail yourselves now of these powers! Come out into the glory of the light!

My assignment tonight, received from the beloved Lord Maitreya, is great, indeed. That which I wish to present to you covers so many fields, such a large scope of activity and endeavor, that I must, necessarily, digest into a very small portion of time.

I also ask for the full cooperation of your Holy Christ Selves, ANCHORING into your outer consciousness the instruction that is given, because, believe me, my friends, (and I repeat this again and again, though the intellect of many may scoff), YOU are they who shall one day have to explain to the masses the Law and the activity and mechanics of the Sacred Fire, in its inter-relationship between the Ascended Master Realm and the outer consciousness of mankind.

Now, we shall turn to another point which has come up within the consciousness of some—and for that we shall turn to the contemplation of the banner of our Lord, the Maha Chohan.

How much does this banner, in its entirety, mean to you? Have you thought about it in relation to its activity? There is no thoughtform, no symbol, no service that is rendered by visualization, that does not hold within itself a message for the alert. Here, within the center of the purple field, you have the dove, representative of the great Maha Chohan—representative of the Cosmic Holy Spirit, himself. From it, when it was first conceived, poured the five rays, representative of the Chohans three to seven. Since the conception of the original banner, the Cosmic Law has decreed that the entire seven members of the Chohanic Order come under the radiation of the Maha Chohan. This includes the Master Kuthumi and myself, and so the revision of the symbols in the banner of the Maha Chohan will come forth in due time.

What is the activity represented by this banner and the symbols portrayed upon it? The dove (or Holy Spirit), is animating the Freedom Flame. In other words, it is animating, vitalizing, sustaining, and expanding the activity of the Seventh Ray, which is the particular and predominant outpouring of the moment, under the great Chohan, my beloved friend and brother, Saint Germain!

Now, beloved friends, the Holy Spirit, the Lord Maha Chohan, chooses from time to time to animate, sustain, and expand the activities of my humble self, or other members of the Great White Brotherhood, and to give the full pressure and power of his immortal flame of love and light to the words of instruction as they are released by us so that they may go forth to the student body of the people, and THAT IS WHY HE HAS CHOSEN THE 'BULLETIN' AS AN ENERGIZING AND RADIATING INSTRUMENT FOR HIS OWN OUTPOURING; GRACIOUSLY SHARING IT WITH THOSE OF US WHO HAVE NO OTHER INSTRUMENT OF EXPRESSION BECAUSE OF THE LIMITED, THOUGH WELL-MEANING, CAPACITY OF THE DISTRIBUTING CENTER.

Beloved friends, while the Cosmic Law has furnished us with an allotment of energy, enabling us to give this instruction, it stipulates, in accordance with the law governing the evolution of each realm, that your octave furnish the vehicles through which this instruction is received, and rides forth to be assimilated by the outer consciousness of man. If the Maha Chohan had not made provision for the lowering of our instruction from our realm into the etheric, and from the etheric to yours, it would remain as part of the vibrations of the higher octaves, and you would be deprived of its benefits. THUS WAS THE 'BULLETIN,' AS A VEHICLE OF EX-PRESSION FOR THE ASCENDED HOST, BROUGHT INTO BEING, FURNISHED AND SUSTAINED BY THE COOPERATION OF YOUR GOOD SELVES. As to which Master shall or shall not use it is within the prerogative of our beloved Maha Chohan, whom I know you all love.

As an explanation of the preceding paragraph, dear friends, many students have objected to the use of the “Bulletin” by Masters other than the beloved Maha Sahib, thinking, perhaps, in their great love for him, that he was being “crowded out” by his sons and others. This should be a satisfactory explanation, and with it, let us briefly end the subject.

Now let us consider, for a moment, the question of the heart—whether that of a body or an activity of any kind. Have you thought of it in relation to this whole New Endeavor (the “Bridge to Freedom”) and its effect on the consciousness of the race? You have on one side of the physical heart what is called the “auricles” and on the other side the “ventricles.” The word “auricles” is taken from the Greek word “oracle.” They are the receiving center. The ventricles, on the other hand, push the vital blood and energy through the body. Do you not see, then, how the double action of the heart might be considered one? And the student body, being the HEART of the movement, do you not see why it is necessary that it should function as ONE organ? It is to bring to you a consciousness of this unity—a consciousness of your individual and collective service as ONE UNIT that we come again and again, draw aside the veil of maya, and EXPLAIN, IN AS SIMPLE TERMS AS POSSIBLE, the activities which can give you assistance and, through assistance, greater light.

Turning now to the BREATH, I would like you to understand the power you have in the control of your four lower vehicles through the use of the CONTROLLED BREATH.

I tell you, that in the control of your breath, you can draw the substance of your emotional, mental, etheric, and physical bodies into the Sacred Fire within your heart, sublimate it there and then in the expansion of the flame (the release of the breath), consciously feed each of those four bodies with the divine qualities and virtues contained within the Sacred Fire.

The activity of BREATHING IN the Resurrection Flame from the Temple of Jesus and Mary, which we are honoring tonight, follows exactly the same exercise. Within your heart is the Immortal Threefold Flame of God. Therefore, within your heart is a potential spark of EVERY GOD VIRTUE from EVERY RETREAT and EVERY STAR on this planet, and within interstellar space, and this includes, beloved friends, the POWER OF RES-URRECTION. Does your heart possess less power of resurrection than the daffodil or any dormant seed? AS YOU CONSCIOUSLY CONNECT WITH THE FULLY-GATHERED COSMIC MOMENTUM OF THE MANIFESTED POWER OF THE RESURRECTION FLAME, and you breathe it into the flame within your heart, YOU EXPAND THAT RESURRECTION ACTIVITY THROUGH YOUR FOUR LOWER BODIES, giving you a foretaste of life eternal.

I hope that you understand what it is that I am trying to impart to you, and use it for your own good.

The practice of the controlled breath will help you in the control of the life you give to yourself for physical use, for etheric resuscitation of the powers of your being, which you had in the Sun before the world was. It will help you in the resuscitation of the mental memories of your association with the Ascended Masters and Avatars, and you will FEEL THE RESUSCITATION of the joy, buoyancy, happiness, vitality, and perfection of the God-free Beings in their service to love and life. That you experience all this and more is the wish of your friend. Thank you and God bless you. EL MORYA

April 8, 1956

Beloved Children,

In my capacity as overlord of the Chohans of the Rays, I am delegated with the authority and responsibility of supervising the development of every lifestream evolving under the specific benediction and blessing of each of the rays. The natural evolution of the lifestreams makes each one heir to certain impersonal blessings and stimuli which, like the sun, air, and water, are equally dispersed, without the measure of personal merit, as in the statement—"The sun shines, and the rain falls, on the just and unjust alike." The radiating center through which these blessings flow do not delegate any specific intensity to any particular individual.

The cosmic energies that flow through my aura contain, within themselves, those spiritual gifts to the evolutions of Earth, and require no particular attention of my conscious self in the drawing and radiating of their substance to those channels which are provided to be facets of radiation in the world of men. Each Chohan then receives, through my spiritual body or aura, the gifts, substance and pressure of flame required by him to activate and expand his ray. He, in turn, becomes responsible for the direction and ultimate use of this outpouring through the lifestreams under his supervision. The Chohan of the Ray PERSONALIZES the gifts of the Holy Spirit to a much greater degree than I do, and it becomes his responsibility to utilize the substance, gifts, and powers of that ray in a manner that will most efficaciously benefit the evolution of all life in the nature kingdom, the elemental kingdom, and the kingdom of mankind who follow the ladder of evolution ALONG HIS RAY.

Therefore, when any one of the Chohans chooses to single out any member of unascended mankind and spend some of the precious energies of HIS OWN ALLOTMENT from the cosmic storehouse in nourishing the consciousness of that one, he must of necessity ask permission of my office and I, after consulting the cosmic record of the lifestream and the potential service that could be rendered by such a one if the grant were given, am able to pass upon the wisdom of the application and give consent—BUT, even with the consent, the Chohan, or Sponsor, is fully aware that HE HIMSELF MUST MAKE UP TO THE UNIVERSAL COSMIC LAW whatever energy, time, love, effort and gifts he delegates or bestows upon such a one, IF THAT LIFESTREAM SHOWS NO PROFIT.

You see, beloved ones, WHEN AN INDIVIDUAL GAINS HIS ASCENSION, THE FULLY-GATHERED COSMIC MOMENTUM OF HIS WHOLE LIFE'S ENDEAVORS ARE VOLUNTARILY AND LOVINGLY CONTRIBUTED TO THE ONE COSMIC CONSCIOUSNESS TO WHICH EVERY BEING IN THE ASCENDED REALM HAS ACCESS, AT ANY TIME, FOR ANY KNOWLEDGE HE MAY REQUIRE. HOWEVER, FOR ANY SERVICE RENDERED BELOW THE ASCENDED MASTER STATE, HE IS REQUIRED TO OFFER A PLEDGE TO THE COSMIC LAW, NOT ONLY FOR THE AMOUNT HE WISHES TO DRAW, BUT ALSO FOR ANY ADDITIONAL AMOUNT OF REDEEMED ENERGY TO WARRANT THE EXPENDITURE OF BOTH TIME AND SERVICE. THE CONSCIOUS CHELAS UPON WHOM THIS PRICELESS ENERGY IS EXPENDED ARE ALSO HELD RESPONSIBLE, BUT TO A LESSER EXTENT THAN THE MASTER, it being evident, above as below, that THE MORE KNOWLEDGE WE POSSESS, THE MORE RESPONSIBLE WE ARE FOR ITS USE. IN CASE THE 'INVESTMENT' DOES NOT BEAR FRUIT TO BALANCE THE EXPENDITURE, I, TOO, SHARE IN THE RESPONSIBILITY OF MY CHOHANS, and it is for this reason that I have deliberately prepared a balance to the Universal Law through these many years of instruction and endeavor, over and above the cosmic duties of my office.

Beloved Maha Chohan

April 15, 1956

Beloved Children of God,

ALL OF THE ENERGY IN THIS UNIVERSE IS CONSTANTLY EMITTING RADIATION. The QUALITY of the radiation really represents the whole problem of human redemption, as far as the Ascended Masters' service to man is concerned. There is not an electron in interstellar space that is static or immovable, and the so-called "inanimate" objects of the physical world are in a constant state of motion, as the scientists have discovered.

The degree of evolution of each self-conscious individual determines the intensity and the length of the rays of radiation that pass from him. The higher the lifestream goes upon the spiritual ladder, the greater is the area covered by his outgoing energy waves, and the more life, power, and love which is directed to such a one by the Ascended Brotherhood, the greater is his responsibility in the solar system to which he belongs, because of the EVER-INCREASING CIRCUMFERENCE OF HIS ELECTRONIC CIRCLE.

That is why the responsibility for spiritual knowledge and unfoldment is far greater than is comprehended by the student, who is so eagerly desirous of KNOWLEDGE, of POWERS, and the FULL USE OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE SACRED FIRE. As in the physical world greater responsibility rests upon the shoulders of those in positions of trust and authority, so does all spiritual knowledge carry with it an obligation to serve life selflessly. It carries with it the far more important obligation of controlling and pouring out through the radiation of such an one's being only those qualities which will enrich the universe THROUGH THE GREATER SCOPE OF THE INCREASED AURA.

If people could see how the unfoldment of spiritual knowledge affected their auras, and how much greater was their personal ability to affect the entire universal scheme, some would hesitate, due to the personal responsibility involved, before accepting this outpouring.

When individuals have been under the direction of the Ascended Host for several years, as you have been, dear ones, every time one of us has come to present the Law, COUNTLESS TONS OF ENERGY HAVE FLOWED INTO EACH ONE OF YOUR AURAS, REMAINING A PART OF YOUR LIFESTREAMS, greatly enlarging the sphere of influence of all the Seven Rays. IT IS, THEREFORE, EXPEDIENT THAT YOU BEGIN TO INCORPORATE INTO YOUR VERY BEINGS THE ASCENDED MASTERS' PEACE, POISE, SERENITY, KINDLINESS, TOLERANCE, UNDERSTANDING, LOVE, AND GENTLENESS, BECAUSE THE REPERCUSSIONS FROM THE SLIGHTEST IMPERFECTION UPON THE LAW OF HARMONY ARE MUCH GREATER WHEN THE AURA IS EX-PANDED TO SUCH A LARGE EXTENT, FOR THE REASON THAT IT AFFECTS A GREATER PART OF LIFE.

The activity of anchoring the Ascended Masters' energy into your own bodies, setting up new patterns of thought and feeling, coupled with YOUR OWN CONSCIOUS ENDEAVOR to hold your lower bodies within a harmonious expression, will do much to assist you. When your outer consciousness is constantly aware that its most essential duty is to MAINTAIN AN UNDISTURBED STATE OF HARMONIOUS RADIATION—in full knowledge OF THE EFFECT IT WILL HAVE ON THE LIVES OF OTHERS—your consciousness will become like a sun, and your sphere of influence can be used cosmically, TO SET UP A LIKE ENERGY PATTERN in the lives of all those whom the Masters will see fit to draw into your environment. Besides this, it will have a beneficial effect on every expression of life—plant, animal, and elemental—that it touches.

Watch your thoughts and feelings, beloved ones, because these affect your radiation, and can diminish your usefulness in the ascended masters' present endeavors to raise and redeem a planet and its people.

Beloved Children,

Will it surprise you to learn that you and I, individually, have many discussions? Perhaps I should not say “discussions,” because you do not AUDIBLY join with me in the expression of my humble endeavors. Through this little “Bulletin,” I point out to you ways and means by which your earnest souls may consciously join with the great assembly of Ascended Beings. Yet, I rarely come, without there being a discussion of a sort, because within your feelings and your thoughts there have been questions raised, points on which you sought illumination, and in the invisible, we have talked back and forth more often than you, in your outer self, are aware of. So to say that we have had many discussions is not entirely erroneous.

I enjoy, tremendously, the searching of your consciousness and your purpose. I enjoy your devotion to me and to the Brothers who represent me, and who have carried the message of life and light so constantly through the years. I pray for the hour when your devotion to EACH OTHER and your kindly disposition toward each other MAY BE EQUAL TO YOUR DEVOTION TO MYSELF, for in that is the hope of the unity of our endeavor to set this planet with its teeming evolutions free to fulfill their individual divine destinies.

That is why I ask you now, as I have requested many times in the past, to turn your thoughts to the NATURE of the Godhead, to that of myself, if you feel so inclined, or to any of the Brothers of Light who may have taken your fancy, that we might share with you our love, both for yourself and for the light—that you may have the richness of EXPERIENCING that love for each other. When that is done, beloved ones, we can “love the world free” through greater illumination and greater freedom, for love is all there is.

THE HUMAN NATURE CANNOT LOVE; it knows neither tolerance nor understanding nor kindness, because it is diametrically opposed to God. In fact, you might say it is the “devil.” All unascended beings share this human nature to some extent, for self-preservation and other reasons, and the self-denial and humility that represent the vows of church orders are endeavors to deny the human nature and assume the nature of God. I find, though, that denial BY HUMAN WILL is not the answer, I sat last evening trying to think up a simple way and means of reaching into your hearts. The INVOCATION, which I present to you now and have presented so many times in the past, TO ANY ASCENDED BEING TO ENTER INTO YOUR DAILY LIFE, has been particularly designed by myself to do just that.

Sometimes, in the hours when we are not disposed to cosmic service, we have periods of quietude when our minds and thoughts are free from the creative efforts of our specific cosmic purpose. This is somewhat similar to your recreation hours, and we are free to use our energies in music, art, song, friendly visitation one with another, or in any harmless manner which allows our flame to revivify and build anew for the following day's occupation.

I use the word “day” advisedly to distinguish periods of service, and it was in such a quiet time that you, beloved ones, came into my mind. As you pour fresh water into a glass of polluted water until it is clear, so will the INVOCATION OF ANY ASCENDED MASTER'S CONSCIOUSNESS INTO YOUR OWN HUMAN CONSCIOUSNESS cleanse and purify and raise it into the God-Consciousness, as the water is purified in the glass. Experiment with this idea this week, beloved ones, and we will all rejoice at the results! Definitely let me know what you think of it! Love and grace are the wings of the spirit.

Beloved Friends,

All during this current month (April 15th to May 14th) the radiation of the Flame of Peace and Comfort from my retreat in Ceylon is flooding the planet Earth, encompassing and interpenetrating every expression of life evolving thereon.

Comfort and peace are essential to the spiritual growth of all life, from the smallest elemental to the greatest of beings still evolving on the higher planes of existence. Likewise, it is within THE SCOPE and NATURE of all life, and this extends to the so-called “inanimate” expressions, to radiate forth a feeling of peace and comfort. Have you ever sat on a grassy bank on a warm summer day, resting your back against a friendly tree and felt its strength and peace flow into you? Consider the peace and comfort experienced in the contemplation of a beautiful pastoral scene, or in a flock of sheep or a herd of cows grazing peacefully in a green meadow!

How much greater, then, should be the peace and comfort radiating from a self-conscious representative of the Holy Spirit, such as yourselves! When man replaces the selfish emanation of the human consciousness with the peace of the Holy Comforter, truly will the kingdom of heaven be made manifest on Earth.

I have pleasure in presenting this week for your edification and contemplation, our beloved Kuthumi's report on the activities of the Comfort Flame, on the occasion of the recent Transmission Activities. Blessings and Love.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

Turning our attention tonight to the great and beautiful amphitheater over Asia (which is in the form of a magnificent Pink Heart, created by the builders of form after the pattern of the Thoughtform of the Year), you will see the four Beings that represent the activity of divine love—beloved Archangel Chamuel and Charity, the beloved Venetian, and blessed Nada—standing at the four cardinal points of this great amphitheater, which is as large, I would say, as the continent of Asia. Later in the evening, as the activity expands, it will cover Australia, the Pacific Islands, and the entire Western Hemisphere, as well.

Into this retreat, tonight, come all that require comfort, and who does not! Into the retreat come the members who were released from the compound. Into it come all the discarnates who are working out their salvation in the various temples, including the Ascension Temples and others. Coming, grouped together, are those souls who have applied to the Lords of Karma for embodiment, and who will take their vow before the beloved Mother Mary in May, and endeavor to secure an earth body.

There is a special place reserved in the atmosphere above the amphitheater for elemental beings, and many, many members of the kingdom of nature—the salamanders, the sylphs, the undines and the gnomes—for God knows that these beings certainly do need comfort!

The Ascended Masters are all seated within the beautiful flame room of our lord, the Maha Chohan. I will try to describe that room to you, if you care to come and stand with me at the door.

The beloved Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena (officiating together), are both in garments of beautiful delicate pink. The Maha Chohan tonight is wearing a cape, which he very seldom does, over his long pink tunic. The cape extends back in a train of about twelve feet. He stands to the left of the altar, the beloved Pallas Athena to the right. She looks beautiful in her pink robes and is wearing a cape similar to that worn by the Lord Maha Chohan. Her hair is piled high, Grecian fashion, with small pink flowers, something like your forget-me-not, woven through it.

The altar is very beautiful in this flame room. The room, itself, is done entirely in pink. The walls, paneled in gold, that come to a point at the top something like the beautiful gothic stained glass windows that you so often see in your churches. There are three panels on either side of this room, and one over the door, at which we are standing. In each of these panels is a picture of one of the Chohans, done in embossed gold, with jewels for the eyes and hair, and underneath is his name in golden script. Saint Germain is pictured on the panel over the door. He is shown standing, looking down over the room, towards the altar.

The chairs are all done in deep pink, and you will notice they have arm rests; they are covered with a velvet-like substance. The frames look somewhat like mother-of-pearl. The entire floor is carpeted, right to the walls, in pale pink. The Maha Sahib is very sensitive to sound, and in every retreat where his activity is focused, he has some sort of sound-proofing, so that there is nothing to jar the vibratory action of the service in which he is engaged. The seats are arranged on either side of a central aisle and down that aisle over the carpeting runs a strip of magnificent leaf gold, which forms the panel over which the Masters walk to take their places.

The altar, of course, is raised, and the beautiful chalice, in which the Comfort Flame is held, stands in the center. On this exquisite vessel of delicate ivory, countless small doves are finely carved, seeming to cluster all around the tip or fringe of the cup. The Flame of Comfort and Peace is now rising from this beautiful receptacle, Pallas Athena and the Maha Chohan pouring their radiation into it from either side.

At the actual commencement of the ceremony, these two great beings will rise and meet within the flame, which will then ascend to the amphitheater, where it will begin to expand its activity of divine comfort—first to all gathered here, and then to the entire planet.

At approximately 9:20 this evening, the beloved Maha Chohan and Pallas Athena will release, for every lifestream on the planet, and all belonging to this evolution, a thoughtform of a beautiful white dove, which will enter into and abide within the soul of each lifestream, so, as you finish your breathing exercise and remain in the heart of the silence for a moment, you may visualize those beautiful doves expanding outward, each one finally coming to rest in someone's soul.

There are also tiny doves, some no larger than the head of a pin, created by order of the Maha Chohan himself, to fit into the hearts of the smallest undines and the tiniest sylphs, salamanders, and gnomes. There are also doves of tremendous size, some with a wingspread of from fifteen to twenty feet, to fit into the hearts of the great devas. Even the Elohim, themselves, get a gift of one of these doves tonight, because this cosmic service not only includes human and elemental life, but includes a blessing from the Holy Spirit to all life, from cosmic heights down to the smallest elemental, those who have been instrumental in setting beloved Sanat Kumara free and who desire to bring comfort to this Earth.

For the animal kingdom, instead of the dove, the Maha Chohan has designed a white cup, much in the form of a lily-of-the-valley, and that cup will go into the heart of every breathing animal tonight, to give comfort to that life wherever it may be on this planet.

Now, beloved ones, as you take your places for the breathing ceremony, let me remind you that every Master seated within the Flame Room is a SPECIALIST in some activity of life. Think of the beloved Jesus, alone, and the capacity he has had, through the ages, to comfort life! All those great beings, as they draw the Flame of Comfort, charge it with the cosmic momentum of WHATEVER QUALITY THEY HAVE SPECIALIZED

IN, and then breathe that out to bless all life.

The Maha Chohan wishes me to remind you of the value of the QUALITY OF CONSTANCY. There is great comfort in the constancy of your association one with another; constancy of friendship, constancy of purpose; constancy of emotional reaction; constancy of health, constancy in the flow of your money supply, constancy in your spiritual ritual. We can promise you, in turn, that the Master is always waiting—CONSTANTLY—for each unascended being, no matter what the karma or the impurity of their outer self. CONSTANT that Master waits “beside the tideless shore of Life's Eternal Sea”—waiting for you, blessed, beloved children, to come once more into our presence and our hearts. God bless you, beloved friends. KUTHUMI

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 6, 1956

Beloved Children of God,

I would like you to contemplate, very seriously, the tremendous possibilities that lie within your grasp in the use of the Holy Breath. Study the instructions given you by my beloved Kuthumi on this subject—use the exercises daily and make the benefits derived therefrom part of your own personal experience through experimentation. I venture to say that once you have touched on the truth of the power that lies within the rhythmic use of the Holy Breath, you will never cease to use it as faithfully as you now use the food that seems to be such an important part of your daily life.

Beloved Kuthumi speaks at Maha Chohan's retreat on April 22, 1956:

Beloved Friends,

The Holy Christ Self of each man is pure, perfect, and divine. Your own individualized God-Presence is pure, perfect, and divine. Your Causal Body—the accumulated store of all the God-energy you have constructively used during the long centuries you have lived—is pure, perfect, and divine also. Therefore, when we come to unascended individuals who wish to sit at the feet of the Masters, we must deal primarily with the etheric consciousness, and the various sheaths which surround it, which for the time being are causing certain restrictions in the release of the light from your Presence, in the release of your financial freedom, your perfect health, your eternal youth and beauty, and all those great powers of precipitation, levitation, and God-freedom you desire so earnestly, and which are part of your divine heritage.

From your Presence, there is directed into the secret chamber of your heart a focus of Itself. This is the Immortal Threefold Flame of God and it is the intelligence by which you think; the motivating power by which you move, and is the only part of you that sustains, eternally, your ascended body when you are God-free.

Now, blessed ones, I would like you to think about that flame in your hearts for a moment. In the undeveloped it is very, very small and lives within the airless cell. In the more developed it begins to expand. It is the endeavor of the Great White Brotherhood, those of the Golden Robe primarily, to teach chelas and sincere students HOW TO EXPAND THAT FLAME, AND HOW TO UTILIZE IT FOR THE REDEMPTION OF ALL THE ENERGIES IN THEIR VEHICLES.

THEREFORE, AT THE REQUEST OF THE BELOVED MAHA CHOHAN, IT IS MY PLEASURE TO OFFER YOU A GROUP OF BREATHING EXERCISES WHICH SHOULD BE OF TREMENDOUS ASSISTANCE IN YOUR SPIRITUAL PROGRESS IF YOU CHOOSE TO USE THEM:

IN ORDER TO INTENSIFY THE POWER OF THE IMMORTAL THREEFOLD FLAME WITHIN YOUR PHYSICAL HEARTS, IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT YOU CONSCIOUSLY BREATHE INTO THIS FLAME FIRST, THE DIVINE PATTERN OF YOUR OWN MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE, SECOND, THE FULLY GATHERED COSMIC MOMENTUM OF YOUR CAUSAL BODY, THIRD, THE DIVINE NATURE OF YOUR HOLY CHRIST SELF.

After these breaths have increased the power of the Threefold Flame in your heart, hold yourself centered within the Threefold Flame of God within your heart, and realize that the transmuting power of Holy Amethyst, beloved Zadkiel, beloved Saint Germain, and all the powers of the Fire of Mercy and Compassion are within that flame. THEN THE NEXT STEP IS THE PURIFICATION OF THE FOUR LOWER BODIES.

Now, consciously draw (on the incoming breath) from your emotional body all the impure substance within it into the beautiful Transmuting Flame within your heart. Hold the breath within the flame, and mentally see all that impure substance transmuted within that Sacred Fire.

Next, consciously EXPAND (on the outgoing breath) into your emotional body all the TRANSMUTED AND PURIFIED SUBSTANCE from the FLAME. When that purified substance has filled the emotional body, your next step is to hold the breath OUT OF THE BODY and consciously PRO-JECT into the world the Ascended Master FEELING from the Sacred Fire in your heart, adding to it whatever quality, virtue or activity in which you, yourself, might be engaged to bless life.

Do the same with the mental body, using the same rhythm, drawing all the pictures, patterns, and forms of imperfection that fill that body and all the half-truths that lurk therein, INTO THE HEART OF THE SACRED FIRE. As you hold the breath within the flame, mentally see all those pictures, concepts and patterns dissolved and REPLACED BY THE DIVINE PATTERN of your own God-Presence. Now, EXPAND the Holy Breath until it fills the entire mental body and then PROJECT it by the power of thought into the atmosphere where those constructive pictures may be picked up by other individuals.

When you come to the etheric body, you can breathe into the sublimating Sacred Fire within your heart all the unhappy experiences, all the etheric substance that has been qualified imperfectly, and while the breath is held within the body, FEEL the purifying power of the Sacred Fire within your heart CHARGING through that etheric substance and removing every record of distress that lurks therein. Then when the flame expands you can CHARGE INTO YOUR ETHERIC BODY all the glory and the memory of the perfection that you had in the Sun before the world was and as you PROJECT IT FORTH, you can CHARGE that etheric faith and confidence into the world around you.

For physical healing, it is the most magnificent activity to consciously draw (on the inbreath) all of the substance of the body from the soles of the feet, from the top of the head, from the tips of the fingers and from every organ and cell INTO THE HEART OF THE SACRED FIRE and there feel it sublimated—every bit of that energy charged with the power of your own divine pattern and plan fulfilled. Then as you expand that flame, feel it flow out to the extremities of your physical body on the breath, feeling them actually tingle with the quality and power of Light. Now, PROJECT IT FORTH for the healing of your fellowmen.

It is important to remember that each of the four breaths that make up the exercises should be taken on AN EXACT SAME NUMBER OF COUNTS, as per table attached.

Let me again remind you, beloved ones, that within that flame in your hearts is the sublimating power of the Violet Fire of Freedom's Love. Within that flame is the purifying power by which the energies of your lower bodies may be transmuted and purified. As you DRAW the energies from your four lower vehicles home into the heart of that Sacred Fire, I want you to FEEL THE SUBLIMATION of those energies; then in the pressure of the EXPANSION of the breath, charge back into the particular vehicle on which you happen to be working, the sublimated energy that has been transformed.

Let us consider the emotional body for just a moment. It is the largest of your vehicles and forms the periphery of the concentric circles that surround the physical body—the emotional on the outside; the mental body next; then the etheric body, and the physical body in the heart center of the whole. In the emotional body there is a great deal of substance and energy that has been misqualified by passions and emotions of an imperfect nature in the past. These tendencies, patterns, explosive qualities, depressions—we need not name them in full—but if you wish to treat yourself for EMOTIONAL INSTABILITY, you can do it easily on the breath, remembering always BEFORE YOU START THIS BREATHING ACTIVITY TO FIRST CENTER YOURSELF IN THE IMMORTAL THREEFOLD FLAME OF GOD WITHIN YOUR HEARTS, realizing that THIS IS THE ONLY POWER THAT CAN ACT.

God bless you, beloved ones. We will have more to say on this subject later.

BREATHING EXERCISE

1. First, it is essential that you CENTER your consciousness in the Immortal Victorious Threefold Flame of God within your heart; then to EXPAND that flame use the following exercises:

Direct your attention to the beloved Presence of God “I AM”

(All breathing exercises are done to the count of 8)

I AM inbreathing the plan divine fulfilled from my beloved I AM

I AM absorbing “ “ “

I AM expanding “ “ “

I AM projecting “ “ “

Direct your attention to your Causal Body

I AM inbreathing the full accumulation of all the good in my Causal Body

Use same statement, substitute “absorbing,” “expanding” and “projecting” for “inbreathing

2. Direct your attention to your Holy Christ Self:

I AM inbreathing the nature of God from my beloved Holy Christ Self

USE SAME STATEMENT, SUBSTITUTE "ABSORBING," "EXPANDING" AND
"PROJECTING" FOR "INBREATHING"

In order to increase the power, activity and quality of any specific virtue of the Immortal Victorious Threefold Flame of God within your heart, you can consciously invite the fully-gathered momentum of any God-Free Being to accelerate that particular virtue through the Immortal Victorious Flame within your heart by this exercise: (We have chosen the Violet Fire of Transmutation, as purification is most required by unas-cended beings at this hour.) You can, however, use the Blue Flame of Faith of beloved Michael; the Golden Flame of Illumination of beloved Jophiel; the Pink Flame of Love of beloved Chamuel; the White Flame of Purity of beloved Gabriel; the Green Flame of Truth of beloved Raphael; the Ruby (or Gold) Flame of Peace of beloved Uriel in this exercise as well.

3. Direct your attention to beloved Holy Amethyst:

I AM inbreathing the Violet Fire of Transmutation of Holy Amethyst

USE SAME STATEMENT, SUBSTITUTE "ABSORBING," "EXPANDING" AND
"PROJECTING" FOR "INBREATHING"

4. The purification of the four lower bodies:

I AM inbreathing for purification all th'energy of my feeling world

USE SAME STATEMENT, SUBSTITUTE "ABSORBING," "EXPANDING" AND
"PROJECTING" FOR "INBREATHING"

(SAME AS ABOVE USING MENTAL WORLD)

(SAME AS ABOVE USING ETHERIC WORLD)

(SAME AS ABOVE USING PHYSICAL WORLD)

On the inbreath feel the impure substance drawn into the purified essence of the Sacred Fire. On the breath held within the body feel the impure substance transmuted by the Sacred Fire. On the outgoing breath feel the purified substance RETURN to nourish the body you are treating. On the breath held out of the body feel the purified substance of the body you are treating projected into the outside world for the blessings of all mankind.

Beloved Maha Chohan

May 13, 1956

Beloved Children of My Heart,

Perhaps it has not occurred to your outer minds that the services of those of the Ascended Host, who have voluntarily dedicated their free energies to the spiritual welfare of the race, are strenuous in the extreme. For instance, LONG AFTER YOU HAVE COMPLETED YOUR 'CALLS' AND GONE ABOUT YOUR DAILY AFFAIRS, THE MEMBERS OF THE HIERARCHY ASSIGNED TO THE FULFILLMENT OF YOUR SUPPLICATIONS ARE USING THEIR DYNAMIC ENERGIES IN THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF THE DESIRED REQUESTS, limited as their endeavors may be by individual or mass karma.

Likewise, when a brother or sister from the higher octaves is given an assignment to address a group of unascended beings, he puts time, energy, and application into the preparation of his discourse. THESE ADDRESSES GIVEN BY THE MASTERS, BELOVED ONES, ARE NOT BY ANY MANNER OF MEANS 'IMPROMPTU TALKS RENDERED ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT'—RATHER ARE THEY THE RESULT OF DEEP THOUGHT AND STUDY ON THE PART OF THE MASTER OF THE IMMEDIATE REQUIREMENT OF THOSE TO WHOM HIS RENDITION IS DIRECTED.

The beloved Kuthumi, for example, took advantage of the opportunity afforded him to speak to the multitude in his report on the Transmission Flame Ceremonies held recently in my retreat at Ceylon, TO INCORPORATE THREE SEPARATE AND DISTINCT SUBJECTS—all related to mankind's freedom—into his address. It would be difficult to decide which phase of his presentation is the most essential, but it is safe to affirm that the PURIFICATION OF MANKIND'S INNER VEHICLES is of the most vital importance to their spiritual progress. My beloved Jesus, referring to the same subject, made the statement, "Ye cannot put new wine into old bottles."

May I suggest, beloved ones, THAT YOU MAKE AN EARNEST CALL TO THE HOLY CHRIST SELVES OF MANKIND IN GENERAL THAT THE FREE WILL WHICH THE EGO HAS USURPED MAY BE TRANSMUTED QUICKLY INTO AN UNSATIABLE DESIRE FOR UNADULTERATED TRUTH, which those who have reached the Christ Estate are alone capable to impart. Blessings and Love.

Beloved Kuthumi speaks on the Sacred Fire of Purification and its use:

Beloved Ladies and Gentlemen,

To you who are seeking the way back Home through the control of the energies of your own inner bodies—and to you who have applied primarily to the great Maha Chohan himself for an understanding of how to become a comforting presence to all life—to you I bring and give the special blessing and benediction of our Lord, the Maha Chohan. He wishes me to commend you on the sincerity of your endeavor, for the constancy of your service, for the purity of your motive and for the deep heart-desire, which is so practically manifest in your inner bodies to purify, sublimate, transmute and make a fit receptacle of all your vehicles for the descent of the Holy Spirit. By thus providing for his reception, he will abide within your heart and express fully through your emotional, mental, and etheric bodies as a tangible radiation, which will be the master-control of all the energies you are called upon to contact, your sphere of influence expanding, when necessary, to envelop an entire nation or planet and able to contract in itself again, to a smaller sphere, when you are handling perhaps just a roomful of people or a smaller group.

The process of the expansion and contraction of your sphere of influence will come under your control as you learn a little more about the activity of the rhythmic breath, and as you open yourselves to the activities of purification, which are more concentrated in the astral and psychic realms, and in the inner bodies of mankind today, than at any time since the fall of man from grace.

As these inner bodies are opened to the mighty concentrates of the beloved Astrea's purifying Circle and Sword of Flame, and beloved Michael's limitless legions' Swords of Blue Flame, and all the purifying activities of the Seventh Ray and the Mercy Flame, there are dislodged from the vehicles and souls of men, the astral sheaths which enfold them and which have been embedded there for many, many ages of time. As that substance is dislodged, as the emotional, mental, etheric, and physical bodies begin to disgorge, we might say, the substance which has been solidified in, through and around them through the ages, it is essential THAT MAN HAS AN UNDERSTANDING OF THE SACRED FIRE in the aspect of sublimation in his unascended state, else there would be a veritable hailstorm of creations dislodged from their hiding places in these inner bodies which would bombard the vehicles of the balance of the race, just as a dust storm blowing over an entire countryside lights upon everything in sight.

That is why, beloved friends, it is necessary to institute a knowledge of the Fires of Mercy and Purification, as well as Saint Germain's activity of divine alchemy, in the consciousness of the student body before it would be safe to stir up for redemption so many of these misqualified energies that have lain dormant so long within the inner bodies of the people.

After the establishment of the Violet Fire foci over the various countries, cities, towns, and locations in which conscious students (or even one student) dwell, who may be used as a magnetizing center for this Fire of Purification, it has been made possible to take all the people within the various continents into those Violet Fire lakes and gradually remove layer after layer of mental, emotional, etheric, and physical substance that has been misqualified. After that substance is removed, it is purified, and one of the beings of purification who has assisted at the ritual, applies to the Silent Watcher of the particular continent to which the lifestream belongs, and asks if that purified substance shall go directly back to the Sun or whether it shall be placed in the Causal body of the individual to which the energy belongs, as a momentum of good and perfection. There is a certain aspect of Cosmic Law which governs the re-direction of purified substance into the Causal Body of an individual WHEN THAT INDIVIDUAL HAS NOT MADE THE SELF-CONSCIOUS EFFORT TO SUBLIMATE THAT ENERGY.

When you, beloved ones, consciously use the Violet Fire of Freedom's Love and use the activity of divine alchemy, you are self-consciously drawing into your emotions, your minds, your memories and your flesh that Violet Fire. When you walk down those beautiful marble ramps into the Violet Fire lakes—you are self-consciously calling on the Law of Forgiveness for the misqualification of your energies, and because you have self-consciously and voluntarily done so, the Silent Watchers, the Lords of Karma, and the Beings of Light (without exception) GIVE THAT ENERGY BACK TO YOU, WHICH IMMEDIATELY ENTERS YOUR CAUSAL BODIES TO BECOME PART OF THE MOMENTUM WHICH YOUR HOLY CHRIST SELF USES TO SEND BACK TO WHICHEVER ONE OF YOUR FOUR LOWER BODIES NEEDS ASSISTANCE and help most, at any given time.

However, when an individual is drawn within that purifying fire with NO SELF-CONSCIOUS EFFORT OR DESIRE TO USE THE VIOLET FIRE, the substance as purified is usually returned to the Sun. The Sun then gives it to some God-free Beings—to the beloved Zadkiel, Saint Germain or Arcturus—any one of the Great Ones—rather than concentrate it back as a personal grant to the lifestream who misqualified it, because that one

HAS NOT MADE THE CONSCIOUS ENDEAVOR TO PURIFY IT.

This is a very important part of the Law and one which I hope you will understand BECAUSE THE ENERGIES THAT YOU CONSCIOUSLY PURIFY BECOME IMMEDIATELY PART OF YOUR OWN CAUSAL BODY, and then your Holy Christ Self, according to its wisdom, charges them back into the vehicle of expression that needs them most. Therefore, beloved ones, you come under a specific dispensation of the Cosmic Law.

This is the same activity that takes place when individuals pass through so-called death. They are bathed within this Violet Fire, which some people call “purgatory” and others refer to as the “River Styx.” Almost all religions refer to some type of purification before the soul can enter a state of heavenly bliss. When individuals are not conscious students of the Law—when they pass from the body without an actual knowledge of the power of mercy and forgiveness as an activity of the Sacred Fire—they are bathed in that substance just as you would bathe children, after which they are prepared to enter the Halls of Karma and receive their assignments of service in whatever sphere they have fitted themselves to dwell. THAT BATHING, HOWEVER, DOES NOT GIVE THEM A CONSCIOUS RETURN OF THE PURIFIED ENERGY WHICH THEY HAVE MISQUALIFIED, UNTIL THEY HAVE LEARNED TO SUBLIMATE THEIR ENERGY BY A VOLUNTARY SUBMERSION IN THE VIOLET FIRE IN ONE OF THE TEMPLES DEDICATED TO THAT PURPOSE, after which they are entitled to make application for the energy they have voluntarily purified. God bless you. KUTHUMI

May 20, 1956

Beloved Children of My Heart,

My beloved Kuthumi completed his marvelous three-subject address, on the evening of the Transmission Flame Ceremonies at my retreat in Ceylon recently, with a comprehensive summary of his subjects, which I have the pleasure of offering you herewith. It is natural, beloved ones, that the further along you go in the study of any subject, the more intensive grows the knowledge presented for your edification. Let me remind you, however, that unless you APPLY THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN for your spiritual advancement, it becomes only that much more accretion added to the already superfluous supply which now clutters up the mental bodies of the race.

BELOVED KUTHUMI speaks:

Beloved Friends,

The beloved Maha Chohan wants you to feel that as you allow your attention to rest on the Threefold Flame in your hearts, that his Comfort Flame is expanding within you, drawing you very close to his own blessed heart.

This Comfort Flame is cultivated and expanded by every Cosmic Being, Ascended Master and angelic presence. Every being within that flame chamber tonight is a specialist in some activity of blessing to life. Think you of the beloved Jesus, alone, and the capacity he has had, through the ages, to comfort life. Now in his proximity to the Comfort Flame this evening—as he draws it in, he qualifies it with his own Jesus Christ Comfort and breathes his own cosmic momentum of that quality back into the concentrate of the Comfort Flame that is held within the focus we are honoring, and which will be projected out into the world at large, when the actual breathing ceremony begins.

Think also of the beloved Mother Mary! As she breathes in that tremendous Comfort Flame, she is charging it with all her power to comfort life, and so adds her cosmic momentum of that quality to the Comfort Flame on the altar.

The beloved Lord Michael—robed in pink tonight, most unusual for his august presence—is also breathing in the great Comfort Flame of our Lord the Maha Chohan, qualifying it with his own immortal Threefold Flame of Comfort, accumulated through the ages, in his service of cutting lifestreams free from all types of discordant pressure, and charging it back into the Comfort Flame on the great altar.

You will see from this how the Comfort Flame grows in size and intensity through the holy breath of the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings present.

All of you, beloved ones, through every capacity you have ever had and used to comfort life, have also breathed in that flame (though perhaps unconscious of its presence and quality), and breathed it out again to comfort life. By this action you have actually expanded the Comfort Flame of our Lord Maha Chohan who, as you know, is representative of the Holy Spirit to our planet.

At the close of the formal ceremony—as the Pink Flame encircles the entire Earth—the Maha Chohan, himself, will address the assembly on THE COMFORT OF CONSTANCY. “There is great comfort in CONSTANCY,” says the Lord Maha Chohan. And is that not true, beloved ones, even in your association one with another? There is much comfort in the constant heart, constancy of purpose, constancy in emotional reaction, constancy in friendship, constancy even in the flow of your money supply; constancy in the health of your physical minds and bodies, constancy in your spiritual rituals. Eternal comfort exists with the quality of CONSTANCY!

The Breath: In your breathing, if you should come across a block, shall we say, in your endeavors, do not be disturbed any more than you would be in dealing with a small child if that child were not instantly responsive to your request for obedience. As you begin definite application through the use of the Sacred Fire on the activity of purification, it is apt to do two things: FIRST, IT WILL EXPAND THE FLAME IN YOUR HEART, MAKING IT LARGER AND LARGER, UNTIL IT REACHES OUT TO THE PERIPHERY OF YOUR VEHICLES, THE OUTERMOST POINT OF YOUR EMOTIONAL BODY. SECOND, IT WILL DRAW YOUR FOUR LOWER VEHICLES INTO THE CONTROL OF THAT FLAME, WHERE THEY REALLY BELONG, AND WHERE THEY SHOULD HAVE REMAINED IN THE FIRST PLACE.

The Maha Chohan has been particularly desirous that I give you this information on the Holy Breath, and I would appreciate it if you would experiment daily with the power that is centered within your heart (the immortal Threefold Flame of eternal truth) and see what you can do toward cleaning up the channels which form your many sheaths.

You know, beloved ones, that everything you desire comes from your own I Am Presence. Supply is limited only because of the shadows existing in some one of your four lower bodies. That is all that keeps you from being self-luminous and self-conscious, precipitating beings of light. As you continue earnestly, sincerely and consistently to use the Violet Fire of Purification—and experiment with the rhythmic breath, you will get your vehicles into better alignment and then you will find that all of the glory of the Causal Body will be yours.

You would be amazed and delighted too, beloved friends, if you could see how much of the substance of your own worlds and that of mankind you have sublimated by your calls. Your own purified energy has been returned to your Causal Bodies, where it is waiting to be released to and through you by your own Holy Christ Selves, as the occasion presents itself.

The breathing exercise: In the activity of drawing the impure substance of the four lower vehicles into the purifying action of the Threefold Flame within the heart and breathing out the purified substance, it may be easier at first, beloved ones, to treat one body at a time. In this exercise, it may not be possible for a beginner to draw in the breath, sustain it while you hold the picture, expand it and project it through all the four lower bodies at once. Start with the emotional body (the outermost one). Draw the impure substance of that one in—hold it in the Transmuting Flame for the duration of the held breath, charge the purified substance back into the emotional body on the outbreath and then PROJECT as much purified substance as CAN BE CARRIED ON THE BREATH out into the emotional bodies of all mankind WHILE YOU HOLD THE BREATH OUT OF THE BODY.
